WESTCHESTER COUNTY EXECUTIVE KEN JENKINS STATEMENT ON INTERNATIONAL HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

“International Holocaust Remembrance Day is a moment to stop and reflect on one of the darkest chapters in human history. We remember the six million Jewish lives lost, the millions of others targeted, and the families and communities forever changed.

“In Westchester, remembrance means action through educating our children, speaking out against antisemitism and standing firmly against all forms of intolerance. We owe it to those who suffered and to future generations to ensure that the lessons of the Holocaust guide us toward accountability and a society where every person is treated with dignity and respect.”

About Westchester County

Westchester County, located in the heart of the historic Hudson Valley, covers 500 square miles and has a population of just over 1 million. Originally home to Native Americans of the Lenape tribe, it is now a rich mix of diverse cultures and landscapes. The County is a blend of bustling cities, quaint villages, and picturesque towns, as well as open spaces and a network of beautiful parks. Westchester is made up of six cities, 19 towns, and 20 villages. The County is known for its top-notch public schools and high quality of life. It is also an intellectual capital, boasting a highly educated workforce, competitive colleges and universities, Fortune 500 companies, world-changing nonprofits, and cutting-edge research centers. Westchester is led by County Executive Kenneth W. Jenkins, who took office in January 2025 as the tenth County Executive. Focusing on innovation, Jenkins is leveraging technology and fostering business growth to position Westchester as a dynamic and inclusive destination where everyone can thrive.
