

Middle School Social Studies Teacher

Opportunity to join an exceptional Faculty!

We are an educational institution that stretches each child's intellect and creativity; that is passionate about Jewish identity and values; that is committed to the betterment of our world and a strong bond with the State of Israel. Our faculty models it ... our students live it.

We are a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich, CT.
We are seeking to hire a Middle School Social Studies teacher.

Candidates must possess the following qualifications:

- Proven successful experience engaging middle school studies in the study of social studies, including history, geography, economics and civics.
- Knowledge and skills to design interdisciplinary units and plan lessons.
- A strong understanding of differentiation and how to effectively implement various teaching strategies
- Ability to communicate with parents, collaborate with colleagues and possess good communication skills.
- Master's Degree preferred.
- Social Studies Certification preferred.

If you meet these qualifications and are interested in joining our exceptional team, please forward your resume and cover letter to: Admin@carmelacademy.com

Hebrew Teacher Middle School

We are an educational institution that stretches each child's intellect and creativity; that is passionate about Jewish identity and values; that is committed to the betterment of our world and a strong bond with the State of Israel. Our faculty models it ... our students live it.

We are a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich CT.
We are seeking to hire a full time Hebrew language arts teacher.

- A native Hebrew speaker is required
- Experience in teaching Hebrew language
- Must know and be able to implement multiple approaches to Hebrew language acquisition

- Passionate about Jewish life and learning
- Has Judaic studies background, including Jewish prayer and holidays
- Creative, thoughtful, and reflective educator
- Is able to work as an integral part of a team

If you meet these qualifications and are interested in joining our exceptional team, please forward your resume and cover letter to: Admin@carmelacademy.com

Middle School Judaic Studies

Join an exceptional professional staff at Carmel Academy. We are an educational institution that stretches each child's intellect and creativity; that is passionate about Jewish identity and values; that is committed to the betterment of our world and a strong bond with the State of Israel. Our faculty models it ... our students live it.

We are a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich CT.
We Candidates must possess the following qualifications:

Candidates must possess the following qualifications:

- Creative, thoughtful, and reflective educator
- Have comprehensive knowledge of TaNaKh, commentaries, and Mishnah, and/or Gemara
- Have experience in teaching TaNaKh, Mishnah, and/or Gemara in original language
- Be a living example of Jewish learning and values
- Must know and be able to implement multiple approaches to TaNaKh, commentary, Mishnah, and/or Gemara
- Passionate about Jewish life and learning
- Has strong Judaic studies background, including Jewish prayer and holidays
- Have excellent oral and written communication skills
- Is able to work as an integral part of a team

If you meet these qualifications and are interested in joining our exceptional team, please forward your resume and cover letter to : Admin@carmelacademy.com

KINDERGARTEN HEBREW TEACHER

Carmel Academy is a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich, CT. We are an educational institution that stretches each child's intellect and creativity, that is passionate about Jewish identity and values, that is committed to the betterment of our world, and promotes a strong bond with the State of Israel. Our faculty models it ... our students live it.

We are a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich CT.

Carmel Academy is seeking a creative and experienced Judaic Studies and Hebrew Kindergarten teacher to join a collaborative, supportive and innovative team.

Candidates must possess the following qualifications:

- Experience teaching early childhood Judaic studies subjects including Hebrew, Tefilla, Holidays, Parsha
- Fluent in Hebrew REQUIRED
- Experience teaching Chalav Udvash PREFERRED
- Bachelor degree or Israeli degree (teaching seminary)
- Strong Hebrew and English oral and written communication skills

If you meet these qualifications and are interested in joining our exceptional team, please forward your resume and cover letter to : Admin@carmelacademy.com

Lower School General Studies Teachers K – 5th Grade

Carmel Academy is a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich, CT. We are an educational institution that stretches each child's intellect and creativity, that is passionate about Jewish identity and values, that is committed to the betterment of our world, and promotes a strong bond with the State of Israel. Our faculty models it ... our students live it.

We are a religiously diverse day school located in Greenwich CT.

We are seeking to hire several full time Lower School General Studies teachers in grades K-5th.

Candidates must possess the following qualifications:

- A degree in Education (Master's Degree preferred)
- Experience teaching General Studies
- An enthusiasm for teaching young children
- Able to create a loving, nurturing and warm learning atmosphere
- Good organizational skills and proven classroom management skills
- Knowledge and skills to design units and plan lessons to teach young children the core content in order to meet Common Core Learning Standards
- Ability to develop a child centered classroom where children learn experientially and can pursue their intellectual interests

- Knowledgeable about child development
- Ability to communicate with parents, work collaboratively with colleagues, and possess good interpersonal skills

If you meet these qualifications and are interested in joining our exceptional team, please forward your resume and cover letter to: Admin@carmelacademy.com