

UJA Federation
NEW YORK

Upcoming Events

Thursday, March 23, 2017, at 6:30 p.m.

Westchester Centennial Celebration

We're celebrating a century of caring and community with a performance by Harry Connick Jr.! The party continues as we recognize two couples — Lois Kohn-Claar and Gary Claar and Cindy and Ben Golub — who bring UJA-Federation's work to life.

WHERE: The Capitol Theatre in Port Chester

R.S.V.P: Deborah Lane at laned@ujfaedny.org or 914.385.2108

Monday, March 27, 2017, at 7:00 p.m.

Raising the Barre: Shape Up Your Mind and Body

Join Northern Westchester Women at an evening barre class led by instructor Randi Kreisler for a core workout that strengthens body and mind. The class will conclude with a mindfulness mini-boot camp led by Mindful is the New Skinny Founder Jodi Baretz, that will offer tips to decrease stress and include a short meditation that can be used anytime to diminish tension and find balance.

WHERE: NextBarre in Mount Kisco

R.S.V.P: Amanda Garfinkle at garfinklea@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2128.

Friday, March 31, 2017, at 7:45 a.m. registration/8:10 a.m. program

Westchester Government Relations Annual Legislative Breakfast

Join UJA-Federation and the Westchester Jewish Council for a conversation with the new Westchester District Attorney Anthony A. Scarpino, Jr. about issues of importance to our community during this time of transition.

WHERE: Jewish Community Center of Harrison

R.S.V.P: Susan Scharf Glick at glicks@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2120 or Elliot Forchheimer at elliott@wjcouncil.org or 914.328.7001

Saturday, April 1, 2017, at 8:45 p.m.

U.S.-Israel Relations in a Changing World: From Rabin to Netanyahu

Itamar Rabinovich, one of Yitzhak Rabin's most trusted aides and an Israel scholar, will provide an insider's view on Mideast politics in a new age. He also will share personal insights on Rabin and his legacy for today.

WHERE: Young Israel of New Rochelle

R.S.V.P: Susan Scharf Glick at glicks@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2120

April 29 – May 5, 2017

William Rosenwald Mission to Israel Celebrating UJA's Centennial

Celebrate UJA-Federation's 100th anniversary. We will be there during Israel's joyous Independence Day celebrations (Yom Ha'atzmaut).

R.S.V.P: Jason Lalonde at lalondej@ujafedny.org or 212.836.1761

Thursday, May 4, 2017, at 10:00 am

Mindful Heart, Body and Soul in a Changing World

Join Harrison-Purchase and Rye Women for a morning of mindfulness and well-being, where we will explore ways to find balance in a complex and busy world. Our experts, Mindful is the New Skinny Founder Jodi Baretz and nutritionist and social worker Lisa Ellis, will lead a discussion on how to nourish body and soul and the role giving back plays in happiness and good health.

WHERE: Congregation Emanu-El of Westchester in Rye

R.S.V.P: Eugenia Spektor at spektore@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2102.

Thursday, May 11, 2017, at 11:30 a.m. cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at 11:30 a.m./12:30 p.m. lunch and program

Westchester Business and Professional Division's Annual Luncheon

Honoring Barry Effron and Budd Wiesenberg.

WHERE: Brae Burn County Club in Purchase

RSVP: Samantha Cole at coles@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2101

Saturday, May 13, 2017 at 9:00 a.m.

Young Israel of Scarsdale Campaign: Shabbat for UJA's Centennial

Guest speaker will be Rabbi Seth Farber, the founder of ITIM, which works to help Israelis navigate the religious bureaucracy through the most significant moments of their Jewish lives: birth, marriage, burial, and conversion.

WHERE: Young Israel of Scarsdale

R.S.V.P: Susan Scharf Glick at glicks@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2120

Tuesday, June 6, 2017 at 7:30 p.m.

Scarsdale Community Closing Event

Join the Scarsdale community to end the year with a cocktail party and special musical performance by the Tzofim, Friends of Israel Scouts.

WHERE: At a private home in Scarsdale. (Address provided upon registration.)

RSVP: Janine Jenkins at jenkinsj@ujafedny.org or 914.385.2114