

Resilient Gwinnett Training Fee Structure

The following fee structure outlines the costs associated with Resilient Gwinnett’s training, consultation, and capacity-building services for corporate, government, public and private-sector partners. Fees support the sustainability of our community-wide initiative to build resilience, prevent trauma, and promote well-being across Gwinnett County. Customized packages are available based on organizational needs, size, and scope of services. All proceeds are reinvested into Resilient Gwinnett’s mission-driven work.

Please Note: Training fees do not include food, beverages, snacks, or facility rental costs. However, upon request and at the training requester's expense, Resilient Gwinnett can coordinate catering options and/or assist with identifying and securing a suitable meeting location for an additional fee.

*Equity in Access: Resilient Gwinnett is committed to ensuring all entities—regardless of financial capacity—have access to trauma-informed training and resources. If your organization, department, or business is unable to cover the full cost of training services, please contact us at ResilientGwinnett@GwinnettCoalition.org to discuss a suggested donation in support of our mission. Contributions of any amount help sustain our work and expand access to resilience-building efforts across Gwinnett County.
