REACHING TEENS SUMMIT 2027

Two-Day Format with Hybrid Expansion

In order to deepen impact and broaden our learning community, the Reaching Teens Summit has expanded to include hybrid participation in the two-day event:

- February 25 (Full Day, offered hybrid) – A powerful keynote presentation by Dr. Ken Ginsburg sets the stage, followed by two dynamic breakout sessions that provide real-world tools and strategies for professionals.
- February 26 (Half Day, fully in-person) – Two additional sessions offer a deeper dive into strategies for empowering youth and building resilience within systems and relationships.

Event Summary:

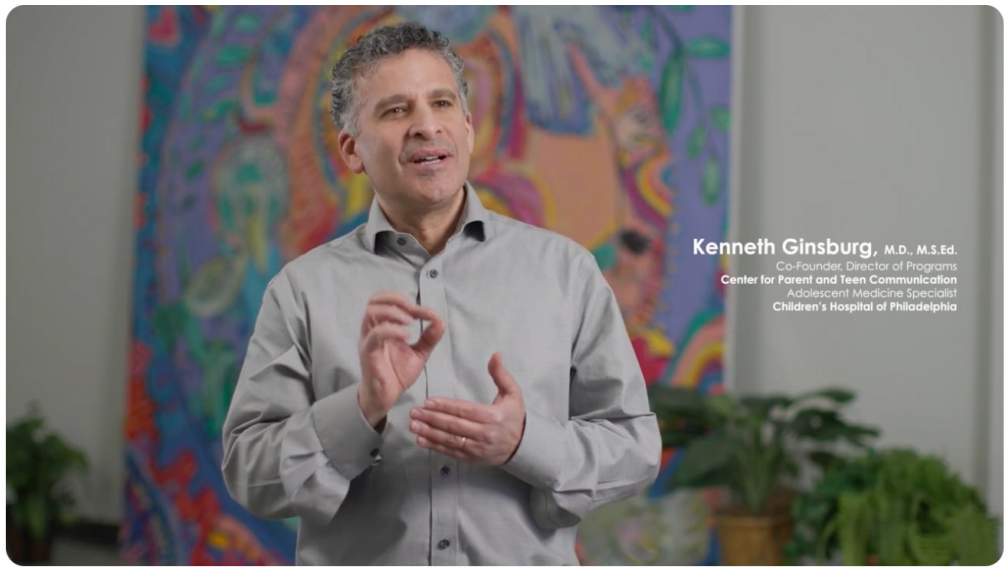

The Reaching Teens Summit creates a shared community of learning—bringing together professionals committed to building trust, improving communication, and better supporting young people.

- Build transformational relationships
- Engage with a trauma-sensitive lens
- Center youth voice and choice
- Show up with presence and radical calm
- Amplify the inherent humanity in every young person

Cost to Attend:

$100 – Includes in-person participation, CEU credits, lunch, and a t-shirt

$50 – Includes virtual access to our Main Stage programming on Thursday, including Dr. Ginsberg's keynote and a t-shirt mailed to you

"It reminded me of walking into a restaurant with an empty belly and leaving full. That's exactly how I felt. I came in 'empty' and left full, nourished with sight and a deeper understanding of our youth."

— Participant, 2026 Reaching Teens Summit Evaluation
