

TRANSFORMATIVE TRUTH-TELLING FELLOWSHIP MICROGRANT

A Call For Truth-Tellers

Are you passionate about uncovering hidden histories and fostering community healing? The Truth + Transformation project at the National Center for Civil and Human Rights is offering Microgrants to help bring your vision to life.

Why Apply?

- Empower Your Community: Create impactful projects that tell the untold stories of your community.
- Financial Support: Receive $1,000 – $2,500 to fund your historical truth-telling, memorialization, or community engagement initiatives.
- Expert Guidance: Benefit from the support and expertise of the Truth + Transformation team.
- Amplify Your Work: Gain the opportunity to be featured in a regional resource guide and share your achievements at a special reception.

Focus Areas

- Historical Truth-Telling: Shine a light on overlooked histories and drive social justice.
- Community Memorialization: Develop meaningful memorials that honor underrepresented stories.
- Engagement and Activation: Foster dialogue and action within your community.

Key Dates

- ✓ Applications Open: December 1, 2024
- ✓ Deadline to Apply: January 15, 2025
- ✓ Funding Decisions: January 31, 2025
- ✓ Project launched or completed by: early May 2025
- ✓ Reports due: late May 2025
- ✓ Reception: July 2025

Eligibility

- Based in Georgia or serving Georgia communities.
- Align with the goals of community healing and addressing systemic injustices.

Priority Consideration

- BIPOC individuals or organizations.
- BIPOC-led organizations (51% or more).
- Organizations with operating budgets under $50,000.
- Projects driven by hope, executed with community involvement, and rooted in resilience.

How to Apply

- Proposal: Submit a 1-2 page proposal including a group bio, project summary, timeline, and budget / spending plan. You may submit an optional letter of support.
- Submission: Email your proposal to truth@civilandhumanrights.org by January 15, 2025.

For more details and to apply, visit:

<https://bit.ly/3Z9OfuD>

