

JOB OPENING: P/T MUSIC LEADER FOR ALTERNATIVE CHURCH SERVICE

Dilworth United Methodist Church seeks a part-time musician to lead the worship band for The Loft service two Sundays per month, alternating with another music leader. The successful candidate will be a proficient keyboard player; be able to choose music based on a biblical or theological theme; arrange music or find arrangements that fit vocalists' and musicians' abilities, voice type and range; conduct rehearsals (one every other week); work with pastor and other staff to plan worship; recruit volunteer vocalists and instrumentalists and work with them in a collegial spirit; and accompany congregational singing. Qualifications that will set the candidate apart from others are ability to play other instruments or sing; creativity and knowledge of a broad range of music (secular and sacred, jazz, Americana, contemporary, etc.); an ability to communicate faith through music; an ability to bring out the best in band members; and a desire to participate in the life of the congregation beyond the position. The Loft service is at 9:00 on Sunday mornings. It offers a fresh approach to worship with a wide variety of music. Available July 1.
