March 2018

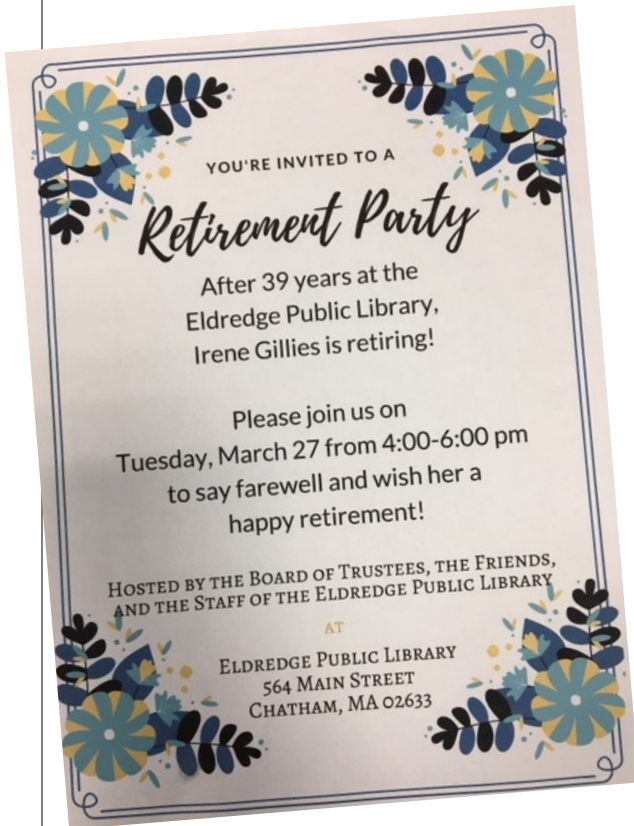

March is...

Each month we plan programs, social media posts, displays, room décor, and reading challenges loosely around national celebrations. The month of March is full of fun and important things to celebrate: Women's History Month, Saint Patrick's Day, Girl Scout Week, Deaf History, Randolph Caldecott's birthday, Read Across America, and March Into Literacy! These are just a few of the more well-known "holidays" that March welcomes. We'll no doubt highlight all of these and more, but we have a bittersweet celebration to recognize and honor.

After 39 years here at the EPL, Irene Gillies will retire as Director of the library. Her last day will be March 31st.

In honor of all her accomplishments and her dedication to the library, the staff and the community, we will host a special retirement party on Tuesday, March 27th from 4:00 to 6:00 at the library. We hope you will stop by to say so long and wish her well in this next chapter of her life.

New Book Club to Launch March 3rd!

We're looking for teens and adults who are interested in talking about tough topics. From social justice and immigration to addiction and more, we'll use great books to initiate a thoughtful dialogue. Our first title will be Angie Thomas's The Hate U Give. We'll also discuss future titles, topics of interest, and ideal meeting times. Registration is required.
