

IAN ROSENZWEIG

Ian is a 10th grade honors student at The Haverford School with a passion for foreign policy and international relations. He is a section editor for the school newspaper, a Service Board representative, an active member in the Jewish Student Union, and the Assistant Secretary-General in Model United Nations. Ian competes in varsity tennis and enjoys playing violin in the school orchestra. Outside of school, Ian is committed to community service. He is a Chapter Head in Food for Philly, a nonprofit combating food insecurity in the Philadelphia area, and he is the Editing Director of the Foreign Policy Youth Collaborative, a youth nonprofit dedicated to engaging teenagers with foreign policy. He is being recognized for bravely standing up against school personnel when faced with anti-Semitism.