Words from the Rabbi...

A High Holy Day Meditation from Maḥzor Lev Shalem (Page 23), which I have edited slightly:

May it be Your will, Adonai our God and God of our ancestors, that the year 5781 be one of balanced and mindful growth for us as individuals, for our families, and our communities. May we return next year in good health and free from covid and its harsh physical, emotional, and economic impact. May we also return next year in appreciation of a year of greater peace, a year of greater harmony, a year in which we deepened our lives through learning and the performance of mitzvot, a year in which we were conscious of the Divine Presence, a year in which we strengthened our shared commitment to tikkun olam, the betterment of the world.

It is July and Rosh Hashanah is on September 18th. Why would I write a meditation for the High Holy Days now? I write it because, while on Passover we are accustomed to asking: “Why is this night different from all other nights?”, this year, indeed, we will oddly be forced to recognize that “These High Holy Days are different from all other High Holy Days.”

In normal times, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur provide us with an annual exercise of looking back on the year that was, reflecting, and looking forward to creating positive change in the year that will be. It is a time to go to Temple, a time to sing familiar songs and to say timeworn prayers. It is a time to hear the shofar, a time to see that person that you only see a few times a year, and a time to see if the Rabbi has a decent joke (for a change) and good messages to make the New Year meaningful. It is a time for familiarly wonderful smells and tastes in our homes; the scents of chicken soup, gefilte fish, brisket, turkey, kugel, are bolstered by the sweetness of a round raisin Challah followed by apples and honey.

It is a time of renewal and healing. And yes, this year, we will need plenty of renewal and healing.

There is no doubt that the coronavirus pandemic will put a bit of a crimp in our usual High Holy Day plans. However, it will also give us a unique opportunity to take what we have become used to, and to infuse new ways to make this significant time of year interesting, transformative, and moving.

In the last few months we have become adept at virtually providing meaningful religious services (with some fun thrown in for good measure) as well as quality educational and cultural programming. We have had fun finding new ways to be together, even as we remain at a distance.

As a community we have had the blessing of virtually being together for Purim, Seders, book discussions, movie reviews, Torah study, healing services, musical Kabbalat Shabbats, Shabbat Dinners, Havdallah, and Bar Mitzvahs. Unfortunately, we have also shared sad moments with virtual funerals and Shiva visits.

Importantly we have provided daily evening services for those (like myself) who need to say the Kaddish prayer for loved ones.

While nothing can replace being physically together, and nothing is as satisfying as a warm hug, there is a unique intimacy in being able to closely see all of our faces in the little squares during the zoom services and programs. Being able to look into your eyes during a service or program is a holy moment.

Most heart-warming to me is that, like a family or the best of friends, our JCC community has remained close in these times of forced separation. Our virtual time together has created real strength and real kinship. The great thing about the Jewish tradition is that it has always provided us with ways to mold our traditions to unique moments in history. It is one way we have survived for 3000 years.

The goal for the High Holy Days will be to embrace this strange time and to use it as a catalyst to create the warmth, intimacy, and holy moments of our traditional “in-sanctuary” observance within the universe of the myriad possibilities created by the incredible new technologies that lay before us. By doing this we will provide a unique Rosh

Road Trip

It has been a little over 2 months since my last report to you on our road trip. I was hoping to bring you news that they found the magic bullet to kill this virus or that the world woke up from this horrible pandemic nightmare and we would just laugh it off as just another bad dream that we all get from time to time. Sadly, that is not the case, this is all too real. Our vehicle (the JCC) is in the best shape it has ever been; we are running on all cylinders, even if it is only virtually. We are gathering, praying and enjoying each other's company via Zoom. If you have not been joining us, my question to you is why not? I know this is not what any of us signed up for when we started this trip, but it is, what it is. There is no magic wand that any of us can use, no spell that I can conjure up to end this nor can you kiss a frog to turn it into a prince. We are coping with something that the world has not dealt with in 100 years. We will get through this just as our grandparents and great grandparents did, one step at a time, putting one foot in front of another. Unfortunately, there is a price to pay, and we all are paying for it, we all know people who have suffered from this, the majority have won, but some have paid the ultimate price. Our thoughts and prayers are with those who have loved ones that lost this battle.

It is time for me to change gears, we need to talk about the present and future. Presently, we will continue to serve our JCC community with all of the Zoom events that we are currently conducting, I ask you again, if you have not been involved in any of our Zoom activities, what is holding you back? We can teach you how to join us. Like Irene and me, I am sure that many of you are keeping in touch with your loved ones through the phone, texts, emails and Facetime. If you can do that, you have the fundamentals for being part of our Zoom events. It's that easy. It may not be the same as being in the sanctuary with your friends, and chatting with them at a Kiddush or an O'Neg, but it is the only option we have right now. If you want to be part of our Covid revamped activities, currently, Zoom is the only way. Everything that we had scheduled that would take place inside is now happening via Zoom. We even added something for the whole family, an interactive magician. Those that are trivia buffs, we are planning a Zoom trivia night done by a professional company called "Text Breakers". Some of our programs have a modest charge, not what we would normally charge, and the charge will be per password, or sign on. These are two new programs that we added to our summer season. We are looking for other activities to keep everyone involved. The Women's Auxiliary is also busy planning activities, but I will leave that up to

WAX

Women's Auxiliary of the JCC of LBI

Paraphrasing the Seder Service, why is this summer different from all other summers?

This summer there will be no bazaars, no In person Maj Jong and no schmoozing with dear friends after services. Though we won't be meeting in person, The Women's Auxiliary of the JCC(WAX) will continue to sustain our presence within our community. During the off season, we have contributed to the St Frances Food Bank to help those in need and contributed to the LBI Township PBA in recognition of their hard work and dedication.

WAX will continue to offer programs for our ZOOM community such as the upcoming discussion with Women's author Susan Shapiro and the ongoing Book Club. We hope to have a walking group and/or pickleball group, continue with the Rosh Chodesh program and preliminary planning for a ZOOM Fashion Show, brought to us by WILDFLOWER, is in the works.

We have 2 ongoing fundraisers: HONEY FROM THE HEART and a rebate from MYSTIC MEATS AND SEAFOOD from orders if you mention the JCC when ordered.

So even though it is a different kind of summer, it doesn't mean it can't be a great One!

New Program - Thursday, July 9th, Rabbi Jay will lead a discussion on HBO's "A Plot Against America"

A limited series based on the acclaimed Philip Roth novel of the same name, imagines an alternate American history during World War II, told through the eyes of a working-class Jewish family in New Jersey as they endure the political rise of Charles Lindbergh, an aviator-hero and xenophobic populist, who captures the presidency and turns the nation toward fascism. More details to follow.

Words from the Rabbi...

Hashanah and Yom Kippur experience that will be meaningful, interactive, and will help us to enter the New Year with strength, love, and hope.

At the end of the Rosh Hashanah services we sing a poem called Ha-Yom (This Day): Among other things we ask God to:

Strengthen us	Ha-Yom
Bless Us	Ha-Yom
Seek our Well-Being -	Ha-Yom
Inscribe us for a good life	Ha-Yom
Hear our prayers	Ha-Yom
Sustain us	Ha-Yom
This year we will add:
Heal us	Ha-Yom
Help us feel togetherness	Ha-Yom

Together we will make the upcoming Days of Awe: sweet, joyful, holy, meaningful, inspiring, and refreshing. I virtually guarantee it. In the weeks to come look for our plan as it evolves. As always, your suggestions are welcomed and appreciated.

This year will, indeed, be different. I look forward to experiencing the difference together.

B'Shalom – Rabbi Michael S. Jay

them to give you the details. Some of you responded to my request for input, not as many as I had hoped, into the actions we have taken. One of the most important summer events that we do is the beach service, this was also the one thing that the majority of the respondents missed the most. We are looking into ways that we can conduct this favorite activity without putting anyone at risk. We will take all steps necessary to accomplish this, including limiting the services to members only, if necessary. The ultimate decision rests in your hands. No-one can make that choice, but you and your loved ones. No one should judge the decision that you make, certainly not me. We have members that fall on both sides of this perplexing issue.

The last area that I will touch upon is our use of Zoom and Live Streaming from the pulpit of the JCC. Thanks to the work of Rob Van Naarden, Stuart Pepose and their committees we will be able to begin broadcasting from the sanctuary. As I am writing this to you, the live streaming is in a beta testing mode, with the help of an outside company that will assist us during the High Holidays, We will be able to live stream the Rabbi conducting services from his dais. Let me stop for a moment to discuss the use of Cantor Zachmy, due to the requirements of him having to quarantine for 14 days on both sides of his trip from Israel, it has become impossible for him to be our Chazan for this year. We attempted to have him join us via Zoom, but he feels it is impossible to do this because of the time differences between the two locations. He told us he was uncomfortable, due to halakha, to conduct services prior to or after the actual day on which the holiday falls. We understood this and will look to use his services next year. We rejected the idea of prerecording him conducting the services, and playing it back for a myriad of reason. We are now in the process of looking for a Chazan for this holiday season. If anyone knows of a Cantor looking for work please contact me, or Rabbi Jay. We are confident that our search will be successful. Now back to the live streaming, we are assured in the success of our services being interactive and meaningful for all of us. We are still planning on having Alliahs, with those being honored being spotlighted via zoom on your viewing screen. Once the Ritual and the High Holiday plans and procedures are completed, we will get them out to everyone. Please, once it is up and running, try out the link on our website, for live streaming of our services. You might like it and use in the future. It is one thing positive that this pandemic has brought us, that will live on as the JCC moves into a post Covid time.

In closing; if there is a chance to have some of you or all of you with us in the JCC for the High Holidays; we will do so, but that is a BIG IF! IF the virus has ended. IF there is a treatment in place that will help those afflicted, go through a complete healing. IF there is a vaccination in place, that keeps those inoculated safe and stops the spread and IF we can have those that want to be in the sanctuary there without endangering anyone who must be there, then and only then will it happen. Let's keep our prayers going in the right direction. I know this is not what anyone of us wanted, nor dreamed, would be our reality, but it currently is. Let us stay united and focused that this will end soon and we will all be together again.

Stay safe, and healthy

Mike

Bar Mitzvah Spotlight

Mazel Tov to the Braun/VanNaarden family on the Bar Mitzvah of Sam Braun. The Rosh Chodesh service Sunday, May 24th was led by Rabbi Jay through Zoom. Over 100 participants signed into Zoom - family, friends, congregation members - or 250 people joined in to see Sam beautifully conduct the service, read Torah and Haftorah from his home. Included in the viewers were folks from various parts of the US, Israel and Amsterdam.

Sam is a 7th-grade student at Edison Intermediate School in Westfield, NJ. He is excited to celebrate becoming a Bar Mitzvah with Rabbi Jay, the JCC of Long Beach Island community, and his family and friends around the world. Sam is an avid ultimate frisbee player on the Westfield Blue Devils Ultimate Team. He channeled this passion to organize the 1st annual Play for Purpose Ultimate frisbee tournament to raise awareness and funds for Parkinson's research. While it has been postponed until the fall, he is committed to supporting this challenging condition. Sam achieved his black belt in karate and loves skateboarding and music. He plays the piano, bass clarinet in the school concert band, and electric guitar in a rock and blues band. Sam looks forward to his summers with Grammy and Pop Pop and the rest of his family on LBI. Sam is a committed congregant of the JCC of LBI, nameplate and all. He feels very fortunate to have the opportunity to become a Bar Mitzvah, particularly during this challenging time.

On Saturday, June 20th we witnessed our first Zoom Beach Bar Mitzvah. What a sight to see our Bar Mitzvah boy, Tyler Brahe, on the deck of his grandparent's beach house overlooking the dunes. The day was perfect and we all had front row seats. Tyler just completed the 7th grade at Columbia Grammar Prep School in New York City. He was excited to becoming Bar Mitzvah at the JCC of LBI where his grandparents, Diane and Barnett Hoffman, are members.

Tyler is passionate about many things, one being basketball and he plays in several rec, school and travel leagues. Tyler and his family sheltered in place in Long Beach Island during the Corona pandemic. Since all the basketball courts were closed, Tyler honed his X-Box NBA 2K skills which lead him to create a charity tournament to raise money for the Black Lives Matter efforts for his Bar Mitzvah project.

Tyler loves visiting Long Beach Island where his mother grew up spending every summer. Living here through this historic season has only strengthened Tyler's connection to LBI.

JCC WOMEN'S BOOK GROUP

Monday, July 20th at 12 Noon on Zoom

Led by Rose Valentine – thank you Rose for volunteering to lead us!

One Hundred Philistine Foreskins centers on the life of Temima Ba'alatOv, known also as Ima Temima, or Mother Temima, a charismatic woman rabbi of extraordinary spiritual power and learning, and an utterly original interpreter of the Hebrew Bible. Temima is revered as a guru with prophetic, even messianic powers—one who dares to raise her woman's "naked" voice even in the face of extreme hostility by the traditional establishment. Moving between two worlds—Temima as a child in Brooklyn and Temima as an adult in Jerusalem—the story reveals the forces that shaped her, including the early loss of her mother; her spiritual and intellectual awakening; her complex relationship with her father, a ritual slaughterer; her forced marriage; her "ascent" to Israel; and her intense romantic involvements with charismatic men who launch her toward her destiny as a renowned woman leader in Israel.

Since the synagogue building is still closed due to the Corona Virus, we will meet via Zoom. A link will be included in the weekly email for our July 20th Book Discussion Group. Just download the application to your smart phone or computer via www.zoom.com. A few minutes before 12 Noon on July 20th, click on the zoom link in the JCC weekly email for our book discussion group, and we will all be able to see and hear each other. We need someone to lead our book discussion on August 17th and September 14th.

If you would like to lead our discussion on August 17th or September 14th, please contact me:

SPECIAL HAVDALLAH

Join us for Havdallah, Saturday evening, July 25th as Sue Horowitz, singer-songwriter from the rocky coast of Maine, joins Rabbi Jay for a special musical service. Sue has traveled all over North America to share her music and teach at congregations, homes, concert venues and conferences. We look forward to her adding to our Havdallah program

FYI - Your generous contributions support these funds.

ENDOWMENT FUND

This fund was established to assure the continuity of our JCC, and our ability to continue providing a full-service congregation to serve the Jewish people of the area. While a donation of any amount is encouraged, a donation of at least $50,000 allows the donor to name a special or specific Endowment Fund in memory or honor of a specific person event, or family.

GENERAL FUND

Donations to this fund are not earmarked but placed in the general administrative account. Donations to this fund can be in honor or memory of a person, event, or family.

KOL HAKAVOD FUND

Donations to this campaign supplement the clergy needs of our congregation.

RABBI'S DISCRETIONARY FUND

This fund, managed by the rabbi, allows donors to enable the rabbi to do the work of tzedakah in response to the needs of individuals, organizations and the community.

ZENA & JERRY JAY KIDDUSH FUND

The Zena and Jerry Jay Kiddush Fund was established in memory of Rabbi Jay's parents to help provide funds for our Saturday morning kiddushes.

2020 BAZAARS July & August Cancelled

- R. Van Naarden reported on Building & Grounds activities, and made motion to approve a new HVAC Service contract. Passed unanimously.
- R. Valentine gave Nominating Committee report. All 5 Officers agreed to serve another term and will be nominated. Trustees nominated are C. Denker, L. Forsted, S. Pepose, D. Pripstein, D. Shatz, and R. VanNaarden as returning trustees and Jennifer Millner as a new trustee.
- Several members thanked Lexa Merson for her service on the Board.
- D. Shatz gave a Program Committee report. The committee will finalize arrangements for a virtual performance by Michael D'Amore in July, and a possible virtual performance with a Magician in August.
- Rabbi Jay reported that Cantor Shalom Zachmy will not be able to come here in September. The Rabbi and H.H. Committee will start looking for one that can participate in a virtual service.
- A motion with unanimous approval was made to cancel the August Bazaar.
- A long and heated discussion was held on our High Holiday services. A motion was made and passed by 8 to 5 to close the JCC building through the H.H. and have services by zoom and streaming.
- The Contingency and H.H. committees will give recommendations to the Board at July meeting for a pricing schedule for all H.H. activities.
- Decision made to cancel our June Beach Service in Loveladies.
- Because of the closings due to virus, a change in H.H. services, and cancelling both Bazaars we will have a substantial shortfall in income. Discussion held on new fundraising ideas. P. Rosenzweig will chair a special fundraising committee.

ZENA & JERRY JAY

KIDDUSH FUND

The Zena and Jerry Jay Kiddush Fund was established in memory of Rabbi Jay's parents. Our Saturday morning kiddushes are not just a bite of gefilte fish and herring. Our worship community enjoys this special time when they can sit down to enjoy a Shabbat lunch and share a table with others. It is a wonderful community builder as well as an opportunity for sponsors to commemorate a special occasion, a yahrzeit or just to say thank you. Donations can be sent to the office. In addition, contact the office if you want to sponsor a kiddush.

Judith z'l & Donald Pripstein have joined the Shapiros with a $50,000 donation and have established The Pripstein Family Endowment Fund.

TD BANK Affinity Program

TD Bank has a program offering an easy way for non-profit organizations to raise additional money. The bank will make an annual contribution to us based on the number of members with accounts there. Here is an opportunity to raise additional dollars each year with no out-of-pocket cost from any of us.

All we have to do is have our members let the bank know that they are JCC participants. The Bank will do the rest. Your privacy continues as is. The Bank will not divulge any individual member's information to the JCC of LBI or anyone else.

Please call your TD Bank office and let them know that you are a JCC participant. Please register all of your personal accounts as well as your business checking accounts -- and please do it now, so that the Affinity Program for the JCC of LBI can commence.

Legacy Planning

If you are planning to initiate or change your will or estate plan, please remember and include the Jewish Community Center of Long Beach Island (JCC of LBI) as part of your legacy. The monies can be used for a specific purpose as designated by you or added to an endowment fund already set up to assure the ability to continue providing a full-service congregation to serve the Jewish people of the area.

This legacy can be accomplished by a simple bequest in your will, by one of the allowable charitable trusts wherein you get an immediate tax advantage, or through life insurance.

PLEASE DO IT NOW!

Please check with your attorney or insurance agent. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Don Pripstein.

Thank you
