

A Virtual Walking Tour of Jewish Venice

The ancient Jewish ghetto in Venice is in the Cannaregio district, one of the most authentic Venetian areas in the city, and yet quite unknown to tourists. In a multicultural and multiethnic city, as Venice was, in an area far away from the centre of power, the Jewish ghetto was born in 1516. We will try to understand what distinguished this area from all other Jewish quarters in Europe at that time as well as learn the history of the Venetian Jewish community till nowadays.

Luisella Romeo lives and works in Venice, where her family has lived since the mid 1700s. She has been a registered tourist guide since 2000. After graduating in North American Literature and Language, she received a scholarship from UC Berkeley and a travel grant from the Fulbright program to continue her studies there. There, the first man she met became her (Italian) husband! She loves traveling but, in the end, always wants to come back to Venice and is very happy to be able to show Venice to visitors.
