Upcoming Events

Thursday, January 14, 2021 – 8:00 PM

Women's Health Topics

The Women's Auxiliary cordially invites you to participate in a discussion on women's health which includes the benefits of acupuncture presented by Lisa Abramson and a discussion on the benefits of exercise, nutrition, and essential oils/soaps presented by Thomas Ascough, owner of Tascofit/Savvy Fit Soaps. Please join us for this very informative meeting.

Wednesday, January 20, 2021 - 4:00 PM

Rashi's Daughter

The dramatic final book in the epic historical trilogy about the lives and loves of the three daughters of the great Talmud scholar Rashi Rabbi Jay will lead the discussion with author, Maggie Anton will be with us to discuss her writings.

Rachel is the youngest and most beautiful daughter of medieval Jewish scholar Salomon ben Isaac, or "Rashi." Her father's favorite and adored by her new husband, Eliezer, Rachel's life looks to be one of peaceful scholarship, laughter, and love. But events beyond her control will soon threaten everything she holds dear. Marauders of the First Crusade massacre nearly the entire Jewish population of Germany, and her beloved father suffers a stroke. Eliezer wants their family to move to the safety of Spain, but Rachel is determined to stay in France and help her family save the Troyes yeshiva, the only remnant of the great centers of Jewish learning in Europe.

Saturday, February 13, 2021 - 10:00 AM

Women's Shabbat Service

The Women of the JCC of LBI we will be conducting morning services. Let Rose Valentine know if you would like to participate: read Torah, do a haftorah, lead a prayer in English or Hebrew. We invite you, your mothers, your daughters, your granddaughters and friends to participate in this activity*

An Evening of Music and Wine Tasting

The JCC and the Women Auxiliary have collaborated to bring to our congregation an evening of Music and Wine Tasting on this very special Valentine's Day. The evening will begin with a concert given by the renowned, Chazzan, David Babinet, who began his career as a professional opera singer, and has since moved audiences with his natural ability as a Chassan. He will dazzle the audience with songs from classical pieces, Broadway music and Jewish songs. Ticket price is $50.00. After the concert, David is also a wine connoisseur who has picked 4 distinct bottles of wine, and will speak about each type and the pairing of these wines with foods. The cost of the Kosher wines is separate and can be ordered through a wine distributor that will be delivered to your home. You can buy 2 bottle or order all 4. See details of this event in this Shabbat Reminder article which includes a link to order your tickets and wine for this event. Purchase of wine is not required to attend the event. Please join us in this major fundraiser for the JCC.
