Words from the Rabbi...

On LBI time is marked in many ways. There is a summer season and an “off” season. There are seasonal rentals, monthly rentals, and weekly rentals. There is Memorial Day to Labor Day. There is high tide and low tide. There are “traffic lights on” and “traffic lights blinking”. Each day is marked from sunrise to sunset. It is this last marker of time on which I wish to focus.

In our tradition we pray three times a day. The recitation of morning prayers and evening prayers are guided by the times the sun comes up and when it goes down. The light of a new day brings myriad possibilities; it enables us to see, in full form, what might previously have only been a vague and shapeless shadow.

Why do I point this out? In the creation story, God’s first “action”, the very first thing the Deity does, is to create light. What does light symbolize? In the creation story, it is a starting point. Everything else that happens only occurs after, and perhaps because of, that initial light. Is that first light physical? Is it the light of an idea? Is it the light of an ideal? Is it the explosion of the “Big Bang”? The answer is hard to say. But what cannot be denied is that after that point, after light is created, everything changed dramatically. We learn from this that light is powerful indeed.

Light is central to our tradition. Through the desert, God led the Israelites in a pillar of fire. God told Moses to create a Menorah that would be constantly lit in the Tabernacle. One of the Ten Plagues involved the complete absence of light. We have been charged with the task of being a “Light unto the nations” (Isaiah 49:6). The light we as a people are intended to be is, I believe, inextricably tied to that first light. Whatever pure, beautiful idea or energy was made tangible by that light; it is in each of us.

Our tradition also teaches us that we can be this light by living a life of Torah, connecting to God, and doing acts of loving-kindness. In truth, I am not so certain that the way to live a life can be broken down into aphorisms; however, I do know that the things we do, the actions we take or do not take, comprise who we are and how we are viewed by others. It is our actions that will either make us a beacon to those around us, or merely a flashlight with a dead battery.

The next big holiday we will celebrate is Hanukkah. This year we light the first candle on Tuesday, December 10, 2020. Over the course of 8 days we will light our Menorahs.

Road Trip....

We have come through our first and God Willing, last Covid High Holiday Season. I want to thank everyone that was involved in the preparation and the implementation of our emotional and meaningful Rosh Ha Shannah and Yom Kippur services. We have learned a lot about what it takes for you our congregants to enjoy a spiritual connection via zoom. Irene and I enjoyed being with all of you during our services this year, although Irene would have rather greeted everyone at the front door of the JCC, and I would have presented the appeal from the pulpit. Like everything else that we have done since March we have made many firsts, and found ways to improve what we have developed. We had been told that our High Holidays would give us all a spiritually uplifting and extremely meaningful event. I have to be honest; I did not know how that would be accomplished? But it was, everyone who participated expressed that to us. We had over 160 individual log ins purchased. At one point we had over 375 people join us for Zoom services. We had almost as many people join us for the second day of Rosh Ha Shannah, as we did for the first day. We had the ability to offer members Aliyah and readings to honor our donators and community workers. I am sorry if you or a family member did not receive an honor this year, that you may have felt that was earned, but we had a limited number to distribute. I know that we will make up for that next year. We could see the actual Torah portion as it was been chanted. Though our services were abridged to fit into the time frame that Rabbi Jay and Cantor Geller had established, there was enough time for all to enjoy our Chazzan, who's beautiful voice rang out through all our devices, confirming that the search committee had recommended the right choice. This was the first time the JCC had a female cantor lead us in prayer, based upon all of the positive feedback we received, I do not think it will be our last.

Words from the Rabbi...

We will add a candle each night to increase the intensity of the light's, and our own, glow. While we teach that it only takes one small candle to turn darkness into light, the brighter the light, the more we can snuff the darkness out.

Inasmuch as we are limited in our ability to be physically together, this year, more than others, we need to light our candles and let them burn brightly as a community. In order to do this, we will join together each of the 8 nights of Hanukkah on Zoom. We will have a special activity, and then light candles. Look elsewhere in the bulletin and on the JCC website for details.

When we are limited in our ability to be together, we need to go out of our way to create community space. This year, as we ponder our lit candles, let us each view the Hanukkah flames as a call to connect.

Chag Urim Sameach (A Happy Festival of Lights) – Rabbi Michael S. Jay

Road Trip....

Overall, our High Holidays were far beyond anything that the board and I expected, the amount of tickets sold, and those that attended was better than we could have expected. Our donations continue to come in and we are expecting to do very well. We thank you all, for making that possible. The one slight disappointment, was that some people never signed into the services. That was a disappointment; I as told by some of you that Zoom was not the same as in person. I completely understand. The majority of us have been house bound for the last six months, and with the increase of the Covid Virus nationwide, we will most likely still be housebound for another several months.

I for one don't want to be housebound forever, and miss the socialization that the JCC offered us, especially in the off season. We are still doing things that keep us close, though not in person, and we have a busy winter season planned for us. In order for us to be successful, we need you to participate in our Zoom activities, so please continue to join us, for all that we have scheduled. We are still the JCC of LBI, and will continue to offer a variety of activities. We will eventually return to activities at the JCC, but in the meantime we are on the move, while keeping everyone safe, and trying to offer the best activities we can. Please support all of the activities that we offer, and should you have any ideas, please contact me.

I know that it sounds hopeless, and I am spouting all gloom and doom, but that is only one side of the coin. The board and I are looking at potential options for our summer season. We are looking at the possibility of the Bazaars, if not both at least one. We are looking at summer Shabbat services, on the beach, the possibility of movies under the stars. Like all of you, I am hoping to get back to normal, or at least our new normal, sans face masks and social distancing. We are monitoring what comes from the CDC and local and state health departments. If we have the option to re-open, rest assured that we will review all we can do keeping your safety and that of the Rabbi and office staff in mind.

Mike

WAX

Women's Auxiliary of the JCC of LBI

We have had a busy autumn, all while staying safe and socially distant. Our families, friends and members have been busy on zoom – it is one of our lifelines during the pandemic!

We would again like to thank the congregation for their support for our Honey from the Heart fundraiser. The High Holy Days are over, everyone has enjoyed their honey. The Woman's Auxiliary made $1225 in profits! Fundraising continues for the WAX! Mystic Meat and Seafood continues to support the JCC through a 5% donation of your purchases, a donation of $20 was received. Please remember to let Mystic know that you are a JCC member when you do your shopping! The JCC is now active on Amazon Smile. Please link your Amazon Smile account to the JCC link. Amazon will donate 0.5% of your eligible purchases to our organization. In October we collaborated with Boscov's for a fun day of shopping fundraising.

The WAX is sponsoring monthly zoom events through the fall and winter. We are a women's organization and hope to provide you with opportunities that spark your interest! Please contact Irene Babst if you have a special interest or speaker you would like to highlight. In the past 2 months, the WAX has sponsored these activities:

- ◆ September 30th, we held our new members luncheon featuring Dr. Jessica McCall who spoke on "Feminism, Past and Present".
- ◆ October 1st, we spent an evening with two fascinating authors, Sondra Helene and our own Susan Shapiro Barash. They discussed what it takes to write a novel and we received an insider's view of Susan's new novel "A Palm Beach Scandal". Look for more to come from Susan and Sondra for us to review Sondra's new book "Appearances".
- ◆ October 26th, we sponsored a zoom meeting "Women in Business" with Marla Wink – Indian Summer, Marisa Denker – Connect the Dots and Cricket Luker – Wildflowers. Over 30 people have zoomed in to enjoy our discussions.

On November 15 Hassan Geller will be our guest speaker to discuss her experiences of becoming a cantor.

WAX

Everyone is welcome – please join us. Future speakers/events will be announced in the weekly bulletin.

Our shopping continues. In preparation for Hanukkah (not that far away, need to start thinking about gifts) the WAX will be collaborating with Savvy Fit Soaps. Savvy shopping begins November 6 and continuing until November 20. You can buy beautiful and natural soaps, skincare products, lotions, and candles. These products contain no artificial dyes, scents, alcohols, sulfates or parabens. Just clean and natural ingredients. However, to guarantee delivery by Hanukkah, December 11, please order by Friday November 13. The WAX will receive 30% of all profits. Savvy's web site can be found at www.tascofit.com/jcc. The flyer is included in this Bulletin and will be included in future emails.

Many interesting activities are being developed by the WAX to keep us busy, entertained and connected. Continue to look for them in the weekly bulletin. If you have not already, join the Women's Auxiliary now, the membership fee is $36.00 for 2020. If you join now through December, your membership will not expire until the end of 2021! A membership form can be obtained by clicking here.

Hassan Sara Geller is speaking at the next WAX Meeting via Zoom on Sunday, November 15th, 1:00 PM

Our High Holiday Hassan, Sara Geller, will be our guest speaker. She has graciously agreed to speak to us on her life experiences of becoming a cantor. Log-in information will be provided prior to event, and yes, all are invited.

Shhhh..... Were Planning

Before you know it, Feb. 14th will be here. Just know that the Women's Auxiliary and the JCC of LBI is working on sponsoring an event for that Sunday evening. It can be as romantic as you prefer or as public as you want it. Don't want to give out to much of the details before they are finalized, but here are some hints, wine and music are in your future. Stay tuned for more of the romantic details.

Thank You for Your Generous Contributions

Please see the current list on page 18.

ZENA & JERRY JAY KIDDUSH FUND

The Zena and Jerry Jay Kiddush Fund was established in memory of Rabbi Jay's parents. Our Saturday morning kiddushes are not just a bite of gefilte fish and herring. Our worship community enjoys this special time when they can sit down to enjoy a Shabbat lunch and share a table with others. It is a wonderful community builder as well as an opportunity for sponsors to commemorate a special occasion, a yahrzeit or just to say thank you. Donations can be sent to the office. In addition, contact the office if you want to sponsor a kiddush.

Donation/Support Opportunities

High Holiday Prayer Books

There are still High Holiday Prayer Books and Chumashim available to be purchased in memory or honor of someone or something. The cost of a Prayer Book is $72 each and $120 for an Eitz Hayim Chumash.

The donation includes an affirmation sticker in the book and an acknowledgement letter or letters.

Endowment Fund

Join Herb and Selma z"l Shapiro to help assure the continuity of our JCC, and our ability to continue providing a full-service congregation to serve the Jewish people of the area.

A donation of at least $50,000 to the endowment fund will allow the donor to name one of the funds as the donor wishes. All such name funds will be joined together to be part of the endowment fund portfolio.

Judith z"l & Donald Pripstein have joined the Shapiros with a $50,000 donation and have established The Pripstein Family Endowment Fund.

All members are encouraged to help this important effort by contributing to this fund whether as a specific named fund, or as a general donation.

Your gift to the fund can be sent to the JCC Office. Please mark your check accordingly.

TD BANK Affinity Program

TD Bank has a program offering an easy way for non-profit organizations to raise additional money. The bank will make an annual contribution to us based on the number of members with accounts there. Here is an opportunity to raise additional dollars each year with no out-of-pocket cost from any of us.

All we have to do is have our members let the bank know that they are JCC participants. The Bank will do the rest. Your privacy continues as is. The Bank will not divulge any individual member's information to the JCC of LBI or anyone else.

Please call your TD Bank office and let them know that you are a JCC participant. Please register all of your personal accounts as well as your business checking accounts -- and please do it now, so that the Affinity Program for the JCC of LBI can commence.

Legacy Planning

If you are planning to initiate or change your will or estate plan, please remember and include the Jewish Community Center of Long Beach Island (JCC of LBI) as part of your legacy. The monies can be used for a specific purpose as designated by you or added to an endowment fund already set up to assure the ability to continue providing a full-service congregation to serve the Jewish people of the area.

This legacy can be accomplished by a simple bequest in your will, by one of the allowable charitable trusts wherein you get an immediate tax advantage, or through life insurance.

PLEASE DO IT NOW!

Please check with your attorney or insurance agent. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Don Pripstein.

Thank you
