Northwell's Military Liaison Services

Life after service

We help those transitioning from active duty to civilian life leverage the skills and unique experience gained while serving our country. Our one-on-one career planning sessions provide resume writing tips, interviewing techniques, networking opportunities and more. It's not just about finding a job, but a rewarding career in the civilian workforce.

Exceptional care

We're broadly expanding how we care for veterans and their families through our care coordination and crisis management team. Our comprehensive needs assessments identify any challenges veterans and their families are experiencing, and how we can best support them.

Education & policy

Our forward thinking is advancing research, discovery and education to treat and care for our nation's heroes. Our team provides critical education on issues impacting service members and their families and secures professional scholastic opportunities.

Pay differential program

We make up the difference in pay for employees serving in the Reserves when they are called to active duty for qualifying deployments.

Women's services

We've partnered with the Northport Veterans Affairs Medical Center to provide veterans with specialized women's health care.
