FOR PROSPECTIVE BOARD MEMBERS

If you've been thinking about new ways to serve your community and make a meaningful impact, the Long Beach Board Connection event is your opportunity to take the next step. Serving on a nonprofit board of directors allows you to help shape the future of organizations that address critical local issues, strengthen essential services, and uplift the people of our community. Board service builds your leadership skills, expands your professional network, and gives you a deeper understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing Long Beach. Service to our community can take many forms—from participating in PTAs and City commissions to stepping into a leadership role on a nonprofit board of directors. Join us to broaden your network, grow your knowledge of local issues, and get connected to meaningful service that makes a lasting difference.
