

Here is the go to for submitting to PSC and calling the Governor.

Proposed Danskammer Year-Round Gas Plant Danskammer is a 65-year old power plant located on the shores of the Hudson River in the Town of Newburgh. The plant currently operates as a peaking facility, running less than 5% of the time and burning natural gas with oil as a backup fuel. The existing facility has a capacity of 511 MW. There is a new proposal to build a year-round, fracked gas-fired power plant (525 – 575MW) adjacent to their existing facility, on approximately 180 acres located along the Hudson River in the Town of Newburgh. This facility would run 60 - 70% of the time and is a fool-hardy investment of ~ $400 million in a severely flood-prone area. If approved, will burn fossil fuel far into the future -- which we must stop doing. Right now they are in Preliminary Scoping phase of Article X process.
