CALL TO WORSHIP

DCE Matt Nabinger

One: Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

All: Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon;

One: Where there is discord, may there be union, where there is doubt, faith.

All: Lord, make us instruments of thy peace as we worship you.

*HYMN 162

O Lord, Our God, How Excellent

Winchester Old

O Lord, our God, how excellent, how glorious is Your name
Your majesty surrounds the earth, and children sing Your fame.

The heavens shout Your handiwork; we stand beneath in awe,
To think the One who made all things should care for us at all.

Yet You have made us less than gods, surpassing all but You,
With heart and mind, with strength and will, to search for what is true.

Into our hands You've placed all things: the earth, the sea; each place
We're called to probe for secret gifts and venture into space.

O Lord, our God, how excellent, how glorious is Your name,
Majestic in Your holiness. We sing ad praise Your fame.

WELCOME AND CONGREGATIONAL LIFE SHARED

All: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

CONFESSING AND PRAISING

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Pastor Eunice Yang

Holy God, you invite us to trust you, but we do not always believe. You challenge us to hope, but we fall back into fear. You urge us to give freely, but we fall into selfishness. You call us to expressive relationship, but we hide our feelings and soulful self. Forgive us. Increase our sense of trust and allow us to share our shortcomings, our concerns and our lamentations with you. Help us to find the kingdom inside as we confess...

Silence for personal confession

KYRIE

arr. David N. Johnson

One: We pray.

All: Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

One: Friends, believe the good news.

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*RESPONSE OF & INVITATION TO CHILDREN

HYMN 263 - St. Denio

Children are invited to remain with their families for the Children's Moment for the time being. Following the Children's Message, children are invited to Children's Church in Memorial Hall. Please pick up your children immediately following the service.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

*Please stand, in body or in spirit.

And Good in Every Thing

*HYMN 285

God, You Spin the Whirling Planets

Austrian Hymn

God, You spin the whirling planets, fill the seas and spread the plain,
Mold the mountains, fashion blossoms, call forth sunshine, wind, and rain.
We created in Your image, would a true reflection be
Of Your justice, grace, and mercy and the truth that makes us free.

You have called us to be faithful in our life and ministry.
We respond in grateful worship joined in one community.
When we blur Your gracious image, focus us and make us whole.
Healed and strengthened as Your people, we move onward toward Your goal.

God, Your word is still creating, calling us to life made new.
Now reveal to us fresh vistas where there's work to dare and do.
Keep us clear of all distortion. Polish us with loving care.
Thus, new creatures in Your images, we'll proclaim Christ everywhere.

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

RESPONSE IN FAITH - From the Brief Statement of Faith (in unison)

In life and in death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel,
whom alone we worship and serve.
We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed
and blessing the children,
healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted,
eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

RESPONSE IN PRAYER

Response for Concerns:	○ Lord, hear our prayers.
Response for Celebrations:	With thanksgiving, we praise the Lord.

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

RESPONSE IN OFFERINGS

and I shall keep it unto the end.

*Doxology

Old Hundredth

*Prayer of Thanksgiving and Dedication (in unison)

Loving God, we give you thanks for listening to us, for loving us and for the opportunity to worship you through our offerings. In Christ we pray. Amen.

GOING FORTH TO SERVE

*HYMN 288

I Sing the Mighty Power of God

Ellacombe

I sing the mighty power of God that made the mountains rise;
That spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at God's command, and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord that filled the earth with food;
God formed the creatures with a word and then pronounced them good.
Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed, where'er I turn my eyes;
If I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the skies!

There's not a plant or flower below but makes Thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from Thy throne;
While all that borrows life from Thee is ever in Thy care,
And everywhere that we can be, Thou, God, art present there.

CHORAL BENEDICTION (Seated)

Owen Goldsmith
(b. 1946)

Benediction

May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rain fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

Music Notes

And good in every thing – Kile Smith

"The music for the beginning of the text, up to "sermons in stones," almost wrote itself. It rarely happens that I compose quickly, and I am wary of the result when I do, but my joy on pronouncing it good was quickly tempered by the fact that my putatively five-minute anthem had used up all of 60 seconds.

I had only five words left for the remaining four minutes of music.

I didn't know how I was going to wriggle out of this, but just kept writing, trying different ways of setting "and good in every thing" (don't you love that "every thing" is two words?). I lingered on "and" almost, I admit, to buy me some time, but it is something I love doing, by the way: accenting supposedly unimportant words.

But then a musical phrasing fell into place that seemed to welcome slight variations, subtle shifts from E-flat to C minor chords, and as I toyed with it, it occurred to me that it could go on for a while. And it struck me that I could spend an entire four minutes on those five words and those two sonorities and I got part-way through and said to myself, "Really? You're going to do this?" and I answered, "Why not?" and I just kept at it.

It's not a "sacred" anthem in that the words are not religious nor of course from Scripture, but in setting this, I thought what would the music be like if I believed, if I really believed, that there was good in every thing. It reminds me of the reading from Genesis, where God looks on what He created, and calls it good."

-Kile Smith

We are grateful for all our church staff, not only for those who guide and teach us, but those who enable the church to function as a healthy, safe, and lively place to worship, a place to consider "home."
Thank you.

Worship Notes

1. How does Psalm 8 mirror the Genesis creation story?
2. Derek Kidner wrote that Psalm 8 is "an unsurpassed example of what a hymn should be, celebrating as it does the glory and grace of God, rehearsing who God is and what God has done, and relating us and our world to God; all with a masterly economy of words, and in a spirit of mingled joy and awe. It brings to light the unexpectedness of God's ways in the roles God has assigned to the strong and the weak, the spectacular and the obscure, the multitudinous and the few; but it begins and ends with Godself, and its overriding theme is 'How excellent is thy name!'" What does this idea mean to you?
3. Isn't God just amazing as seen in creation?
4. What does David mean by "Before we can do what we are called to do, we need to know what God has done. And that gives our lives purpose."
5. Flip through a hymnal and read For the Beauty of the Earth and How Great thou Art. Do they remind you of Psalm 8?
6. What does it mean to understand God's creation?
7. Does being made in God's image change how you view yourself?
8. How does understanding creation make our faith in God more relevant?

Update on Interfaith Refugee Resettlement Activities

We welcome the Maqaame Ibrahim Islamic Center (MIIC) to our multi-year BJC, BHPC, and Idara é Jaferia Interfaith refugee family initiative.

Resettlement agencies are understandably overwhelmed by the large influx of refugees and offers to help. Because of the uncertain situation, the partnership with KindWorks, a local nonprofit organization, with whom we have worked previously to set up an apartment for a refugee family, is unlikely to materialize as originally envisioned. Current estimates are that we will begin setting up apartments in October. We are likely to be given just a few days' notice.

Within the next two weeks we will send out a sign up list through which we ask that you to let us know of items on the list of needed furniture, furnishings and supplies that you are prepared to donate, when requested. We don't have storage facilities so we cannot accept donations in advance. Also, we will only accept donations of needed items on the list that are clean and in good condition. Bags and cartons with donations that are labeled will be very helpful for volunteers doing the actual set up. All items need to be clean and in good condition. Having this inventory of available donations will allow us to gauge our capacity and respond quickly to specific requests. More details to follow as we get more information.

In addition to supporting our activities, here are links to other groups serving refugees in the DMV area: Solutions in Hometown Connections provides English language, citizenship and early childhood programs for families living in the area. Lutheran Social Services provides a range of services and seeks volunteers. In addition, the KAMADC website provides a comprehensive list of organizations helping refugees.

Adult Ed on Zoom Sunday at 9:00 a.m.

Classes begins at 9:00, but we open the Zoom meeting at 8:45 for fellowship. Bring your own coffee - no need to dress up!

Note that all sessions will be via Zoom in September. With the number of COVID cases still rising in Montgomery County, we think it's prudent to postpone the return of adult education to 6601 Bradley Boulevard for now.

September 19: Dr. R. Bruce Douglass, Director Emeritus of the Reformed Institute of Washington and Associate Professor, Department of Government, Georgetown University, Black and Reformed in America: The Witness of Black Presbyterians. Following his memorable series of lectures last year on the history of the attitude toward race in the broader community of denominations in the United States, Dr. Douglass will focus this year on our own history. Presbyterian churches in America have long had Black members. But even though Black Presbyterians have had some eloquent leaders, their thinking has not been well known by other Presbyterians, most of whom have been White. Indeed, the views of Black Presbyterians on everything from theology to civil politics have been largely ignored by the White majority. These talks will introduce the thinking of some of the more prominent figures in the history of Black Presbyterianism in America. They will focus in particular on the careers and views of three notable figures who represent distinct stages in the history of the Black experience in America: Henry Hyland Garnett (1815-1882), Francis Grimke (1850-1937) and Gayraud Wilmore (1921-2020).

September 26: Matt Nabinger, BHPC Director of Christian Education and a group of our amazing high school youth will show pictures and discuss their mission trip at the beginning of the summer of 2021. This was hands-on witness to our faith – sleeves rolled up, hammers and saws at the ready, working in partnership with Appalachia Service Project in Tennessee to address needs they had identified as their priorities.

KEEPING UP WITH GIVING

BHPC's 2021 Stewardship theme – Abundant Blessing, Abundant Gratitude, Abundant Giving – continues to frame the life our church. Even during this time when we cannot gather in person, we hope that each of you can discern how God continues to shower blessings on us all, individually and as a church family, and in gratitude for those blessings, give abundantly to support God's work at BHPC.

Now more than ever, we want to ensure that everyone is aware of the many methods of giving that are available, whether you are a long-time BHPC member, a virtual visitor, or looking to simplify your giving habits. So, here is a comprehensive list of the ways you can give to BHPC.

Online: All methods of online giving will direct you to Realm, BHPC's virtual connection tool, where you can securely enter any giving amount; designate which "fund" should receive your donation (e.g., "General Giving," the "Annual Pledge" or even the "Easter Fund"); and choose whether to make a one-time donation or a recurring donation and how you want to give; by credit/debit card or by ACH transaction using your bank account. All methods of online giving incur a processing expense for the church. To help offset this expense, the donor is offered the opportunity to contribute 1.5% of the gift amount for ACH transactions and 3% of the gift amount for credit/debit card transactions.

- The "Give" Button: Simply click the red "Give" button found on the top right corner of the BHPC website and you be directed to Realm.
- Text "BHPC" [space] dollar amount" (ex. "BHPC 150" for a $150 gift) to 73256 (REALM) and follow the link.
- Log into Realm via the App or from the website and choose the "Giving" option.

Donors can setup online giving by providing the information for credit/debit card, for ACH transactions, or for both. If both giving options are setup for a donor, the selection of which donation method to used is made at the time of each gift of when setting up recurring gifts.

Check: Please make checks payable to Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church and place a check through the office door (Door #4) mail slot, or you can set up automated bill payment through your bank and the bank will mail a check to the church at a frequency and amount you choose. For all checks, you can indicate a special designation in the memo field; gifts without a designation will be directed to general giving.

Gifts of Securities (e.g., stocks, bonds, etc.): Transferring securities to Bradley Hills' brokerage account is a great way to donate appreciated securities while potentially avoiding capital gains taxes. To learn more about this giving option, please see our website under the SERVE tab and then "Ways for You to Give."

Thank you for supporting our mission to reflect God's gracious love by following Christ's example to welcome, nurture, heal and serve.

Every gift counts ... to the glory of God.
