CALL TO WORSHIP

Pastor Chris Foster

One: Come, Spirit of wisdom, and teach us to value the highest gifts.

All: Come, Holy Spirit.

One: Come, Spirit of understanding, and show us all things in the light of eternity.

All: Come, Holy Spirit.

One: Come, Spirit of godliness, and stir up our minds and hearts
to love and worship you.

All: Come, Holy Spirit, come.

HYMN 131

Winds Who Makes All Winds That Blow

Aberystwyth

Wind who makes all winds that blow - gusts that bend the saplings low,
Gales that heave the sea in waves, stirrings in the mind's deep caves -
Aim Your breath with steady power on Your church this day, this hour.
Raise, renew the life we've lost, Spirit God of Pentecost.

Fire who fuels all fires that burn - suns around which planets turn,
Beacons marking reefs and shoals, shining truth to guide our souls -
Come to us as once You came: burst in tongues of sacred flame!
Light and power, might and strength, fill Your church, its breadth and length.

Holy Spirit, wind and flame, move within our mortal frame.
Make our hearts an altar pyre, kindle them with Your own fire.
Breathe and blow upon that blaze till our live, our deeds and ways,
Speak that tongue which every land by Your grace shall understand.

WELCOME AND CONGREGATIONAL LIFE SHARED

Pastor David Gray

One: Grace to you.

All: And peace from God above and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

CONFESSING AND PRAISING

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION (unison)

Almighty God, you poured your Spirit upon gathered disciples creating a new community of faith. We adore you for your generosity. Yet we confess that we hold back the force of your Spirit among us. You have sent us the Spirit of love, but we have preferred to hate those who oppose us. You have sent us the Spirit of peace, but we have allowed our selfishness to cause division and disharmony. You have sent us the Spirit of kindness, but we have been indifferent to other people's needs and feelings. Teach us how much we need the power of your Spirit in our lives; and breathe new life into us; for Jesus Christ's sake ...

Silence for personal confession

KYRIE

John Merbeck, 1550
Arr. Healey Willan, 1930

Lord, have mer-cy up-on us. Christ, have mer-cy up-on us. Lord, have mer-cy up-on us.

One: We pray.

All: Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

One: Friends, believe the good news.

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

ANTHEM

Draw us in the spirit's tether

Harold Friedell
(1905-1958)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether
For when humbly in your name
Two or three are met together,
You are in the midst of them.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Touch we now your garment's hem.

All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of you,
That by caring, helping, giving
We may be disciples true,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
We will serve thee faithfully.

As disciples used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the giver
Break the bread and bless the cup.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
So now bind our friendship up.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Dedication

Thank you, Lord, for your gifts, for the chance to share them, and for your church. With Pentecost power we pray. Amen.

GOING FORTH TO SERVE

HYMN 128

On Pentecost They Gathered

Munich

On Pentecost they gathered quite early in the day,
A band of Christ's disciples, to worship, sing and pray.
A mighty wind came blowing, filled all the swirling air,
And tongues of fire aglowing inspired each person there.

The people all around them were startled and amazed
To understand their language, as Christ the Lord they praised.
What universal message, what great good news was here?
That Christ, once dead, is risen to vanquish all our fear.

God pours the Holy Spirit on all who would believe,
On women, men, and children who would God's grace receive.
That spirit knows no limit, bestowing life and power.
The church, formed and reforming, responds in every hour.

O Spirit, sent from heaven on that day long ago,
Rekindle faith among us in all life's ebb and flow.
O give us ears to listen and tongues aflame with praise,
So folk of every nation glad songs of joy shall raise.

Virtual Coffee Hour on Sunday, June 7!

Dear Friends,

As we manage through this difficult time we want to continue to create opportunities for connection and fellowship. This virus may keep us from physically being close, but we are coming together in unique and meaningful ways to support one another. In this spirit, we are excited to schedule our first Virtual Coffee Hour, immediately following the 10:30 a.m. worship service on Sunday, June 7, in lieu of our previously planned Summer BBQ. BYO donuts and coffee!

Date: Sunday, June 7

Time: 11:30 am - 12:30 p.m.

(immediately following the worship service)

Format: Zoom!

After a brief welcome and overview of the format, we will divide the attendees into break-out rooms of 12-15 so that you can more easily connect and converse. After 15 minutes of fellowship, we will mix you up again and you will be sent into another break-out room. We will repeat this process one final time depending on the number of attendees. You will likely be Zoomed out by the time this is over, but you will have the opportunity to connect with most everyone. I hope you will join us for this novel event and help keep our Bradley Hills community connected and thriving.

If you would like to receive the Zoom link,
please email Louise Meyer (coffeehour.bhpc@gmail.com).

Lessons from Exile

Our lives have certainly changed this spring. Yet God is steadfast. Even during this time of change God's strength and love remain constant. Our faith and the hope that comes through music, scripture and prayer helps get us through.

This June and July, part of our preaching will examine the lessons from Biblical literature which emerged from Israel's experience of The Babylonian Exile, being separated from its usual place, and what that meant and means.

Marilyn or Mary will be sitting outside the church office Tuesday June 2 and Wednesday June 3 from about 10 am -12 noon if you want to stop by and pick up a copy of the book. Otherwise, we will think of another way to get the book to you.

Bob has generously agreed to donate autographed copies of his book to us. He suggests that people make a donation to the Church rather than pay him for the book.

Brief Summary of Book: For Sandy Rivers, the known world is the Richmond suburban landscape of his morning paper route, an intimate if unsteady place where the illusions of comfort, sanctuary and myth are shattered by daily headlines that chronicle a country torn by war in Vietnam, the struggle for Civil Rights and the search for American purpose. It is the spring of 1968. This is the story of an era that helped shape our country and define our times, told through one boy's extraordinary journey through his own personal life in a small patch of America. As part of this, he realizes the debt he can never repay to someone he knows only as the Bicycle Man.

Taking White Supremacy to Court: The Charlottesville Case, Monday, June 15 at 7:00 p.m. IFA Executive Director Amy Spitalnick will discuss their groundbreaking lawsuit and the broader fight against white supremacy.

Website: www.integrityfirstforamerica.org

Once in a generation, there is a trial that fundamentally changes our nation. Integrity First for America's Charlottesville case, Sines v. Kessler, will be that trial - laying down a clear marker against violence and hate at a critical time for our country.

White supremacist violence is on the rise - from Charlottesville to Pittsburgh to Poway to El Paso. The already-dire threat of white supremacist terror has become even more urgent as extremists seek to exploit this pandemic to spread hate and violence - plotting to bomb hospitals, burn down a Jewish assisted-living facility, and weaponize the virus - still while promoting bigotry and disinformation. Join IFA Executive Director Amy Spitalnick for an overview of this landmark case - which is moving full-speed ahead - and the fight against white supremacy, anti-Semitism, racism, and other forms of hate.

Building Bridges Across the Racial Divide: Our Presbytery is inviting anyone interested to participate in a project it is launching to build bridges across the racial divide. Participants will join discussion groups of 10-12 people of diverse backgrounds and from different churches in our Presbytery. The groups will meet once a month via Zoom, at least for now, over one year. The goal is to develop a deeper understanding of the history and nature of systemic racism in the U.S., engage in constructive dialogue and build relationships across the racial divide, and identify ways each of us can address racism. The project will follow a model called "Be the Bridge" (www.bethebridge.com). The pandemic has laid bare and further widened race-based inequities in the U.S., including in Montgomery County. This project is an opportunity to learn what each of us can do to address this. Several Bradley Hills members have already signed up. If interested or for more information, please contact Myla Williams (myla.williams@gmail.com).

Wear Orange to our virtual coffee hour on Sunday, June 7 to show your support to raise awareness of gun violence.

What is Wear Orange? Orange was the favorite color of 15-year-old Hadiya Pendleton, who was killed by gunfire in Chicago in 2013 just one week after her high school band had performed in the President's second inaugural parade. After her death, her friends asked people to stand up, speak out, and wear orange to raise awareness of gun violence. Each year in early June, local groups across the U.S. organize Wear Orange events.

Education and Action: You can help raise awareness of gun violence by wearing orange to the June 7 coffee hour; you can get a T-shirt here to support action against gun violence: <https://store.everytown.org/collections/wear-orange> or wear an orange shirt you already own.
