

Thoughtful Thursdays: Exploring the Landscape of Jewish Learning Presents....

Katrina and Covid Presented by Rabbi Robert Loewy

Thursday, August 27
7:00pm

What happened 15 years ago, when Hurricane Katrina decimated New Orleans? What lessons were learned? Join this discussion to explore how these lessons are applicable today as we continue to deal with the COVID-19 virus.

Rabbi Bob Loewy is the Rabbi Emeritus of Congregation Gates of Prayer in Metairie, LA (a suburb of New Orleans), having served the Congregation from 1984-2018. A 1972 graduate of Cornell University and ordained in 1977 from the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, Rabbi Loewy's career has been marked by leadership in many aspects of the Reform Jewish Movement and the New Orleans Jewish Community. In his retirement he continues to be active in both areas of involvement.
