

Thoughtful Thursdays: Exploring the Jewish Landscape of Learning Presents...

Change Within the Heart: Racism from a Black Perspective
Presented by Lisa Gray

Thursday, May 20

7:00-8:00pm

As a follow-up to the community-wide discussion about Unintentional Prejudice, we welcome Lisa Gray to our Thoughtful Thursday series. Lisa will share with us some personal stories and talk about how race is viewed through a black perspective - and the steps we can take to change the narrative.

About Lisa Gray:

Lisa was born and raised in the Bedford Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn New York commonly known as (Bed-Stuy). She graduated with a Bachelor of Science from Brooklyn College and, shortly thereafter, entered the world of finance with HSBC, the world's leading international bank. There Lisa amassed a 37-year career and currently serves as Vice President, Department Operations and Credit Manager in the Corporate Strategic Partners Group where she leads a team of five. Her office is located in the global headquarters in New York City. She presently resides in Pompton Lakes with her spouse and two furry ones always about.
