Encinitas Tech-y Tutors Event

The City of Encinitas Senior Citizen Commission in partnership with the Encinitas Youth Commission is pleased to announce that they will be hosting a FREE Encinitas Tech-y Tutors event on Saturday, February 3, 2024 from 9am-Noon, at the Encinitas Community & Senior Center, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive, Encinitas, CA 92024.

This event is designed for older adults who need help learning how to get the most out of their phone, tablet, or laptop. For those feeling outsmarted by their smart device, they are encouraged to bring their charged device to the Encinitas Community & Senior Center on Saturday, February 3rd for the Encinitas Tech-y Tutors event.

Older adults will receive FREE and friendly assistance from local teen volunteers, with tasks such as attaching photos to text messages, managing contact lists, adding events to calendars, handling spam emails, and more.

No need to RSVP in advance but event registration is required upon arrival, course code 14434, or feel free to register in advance at the front desk of the Encinitas Community and Senior Center. Online registration is not available for this event.

For more information regarding this program, please contact The Encinitas Community and Senior Center at 760-943-2250.

Located along six miles of Pacific Ocean coastline in northern San Diego County, Encinitas has an approximate population of 62,000 and is characterized by coastal beaches, flat-topped coastal areas, steep mesa bluffs and rolling hills. The city was incorporated in 1986, drawing together the communities of New Encinitas, Old Encinitas, Cardiff-by-the-Sea, Olivenhain and Leucadia.
