

**Proud Native of North County, Dedicated to Community Growth****

As a Field Representative for EDCO Waste and Recycling, a local family-owned and operated business, Logan is thrilled to bring his North County roots and deep-seated love for the community to his role as a Board Member of the Encinitas Chamber of Commerce.

Born and raised in North County, Logan's journey in this vibrant region has been marked by a diverse array of work experiences. From public works and construction to banking and customer service, Logan has viewed our community from various perspectives. Currently working with local businesses in the waste management sector and collaborating with community-driven initiatives, his professional journey mirrors the dynamic and multifaceted nature of North County itself.

Logan's career is now dedicated to waste management and sustainable practices, where he has assisted businesses in optimizing their recycling efforts. This hands-on experience has provided him with valuable insights into the unique challenges and opportunities faced by local enterprises in our community.

In addition to his professional endeavors, Logan's connection to North County goes beyond the workplace. Engaging with the community through outdoor activities, he has cultivated a deep appreciation for the natural beauty that surrounds us.

As a Board Member, Logan will bring this wealth of diverse experience to the table, contributing to the Chamber's mission of promoting local businesses and fostering economic prosperity in Encinitas.
