

Melanie Suazo is the Women Veteran Programs Coordinator for the New Mexico Department of Veterans Services. She is responsible for planning, developing, implementing, and coordinating programs which serve New Mexico's 17,173 women veterans.

The native of Canjilon, New Mexico retired from the New Mexico Army National Guard in June of 2015 after a 27-year career, serving in several leadership positions and achieving the rank/position of State Personnel Sergeant Major. She served during the Gulf War and Operation Iraqi Freedom in many state and overseas locations, and is a Strategic Studies graduate from the United States Army Sergeants Major Academy in Fort Bliss, Texas. Her military awards include the Legion of Merit, New Mexico Distinguished Service Medal, and Meritorious Service Medal.

Melanie has several nieces and nephews who have also served or are currently serving our country—including four nephews who have deployed to Iraq, Afghanistan and Kosovo. Melanie can be contacted at (505) 827-6370