

Online Book Study

The Innovator's Mindset by George Couros

Four One-hour ZOOM Sessions | 4:00-5:00pm

Online Book Study

What better way to get warmed up for George Couros' keynote at the SAANYS Annual Conference in October than by engaging in a book study of The Innovator's Mindset facilitated by David Ashdown? Register now to participate in a lively discussion group of your colleagues who agree that change is an opportunity to do something amazing!

Listen to what readers have to say:

"An inspiring book with a compelling message: why innovation is necessary and possible in education." –Yong Zhao, Professor, University of Oregon

"Whether you're a classroom teacher, principal, superintendent, or parent, you'll find something in here that will help you rethink and refocus your efforts." –Dean Shareski, Discovery Education

"With numerous examples of practical strategies that school leaders can implement tomorrow, George has created a guide to help infuse innovative practices in schools and classrooms. This book will become a critical piece of your learning library." –Patrick Larkin, Burlington Public Schools

"George has the ability to challenge what you didn't even realize needed to be challenged. He does it deliberately, thoughtfully, and instinctively. These challenges result in a perceptive and practical book—one that will change how you "do" education." –Amber Teamann, Principal, Wylie ISD
