

PATRICK BLOOM

Director of Government Relations

Mr. Bloom serves as the Director of Government Relations for Cleveland-Cliffs Inc.

Mr. Bloom joined Cliffs in 2008, as a Government Relations Representative and served in roles of increasing responsibility before being appointed to his current position in April 2014. As Cliffs' Director of Government Relations, he maintains oversight of Cliffs' government relations function and has primary responsibility for matters relating to public policy, political affairs and maintaining Cliffs' relationships with policymakers at the state and federal levels of government.

Mr. Bloom holds a bachelor's degree from Miami University and a M.A. in Public Policy and Administration from Northwestern University. Prior to joining Cliffs, Patrick gained experience through various local, state and federal campaign and public policy-oriented roles in his native state of Indiana. Patrick serves on the American Iron and Steel Institute's Council of U.S. Producers and volunteers as a member of the Boys and Girls Club of Cleveland Bridge Board.
