

“The Happiness Advantage” - Online Book Study

Join our professional learning network participating in a 4 week online book study of “The Happiness Advantage” by Shawn Achor. In this 4 week online book study participants will discuss, analyze, and apply the theory that happiness fuels success, not the other way around!

Together we will explore the 7 principles of positive psychology that fuel success and performance. This isn't just an empty montra “to be happy”.

Join me as we find ways to be positive and train our brains to be more resilient, engaged, creative, productive & energetic!!

PD Hours:

Upon completion of the online book study, 8 PD hours will be rewarded.
