

The Center School 2019 Auction Donation Form

We are The Center School—a gem amongst Seattle Public High Schools!

The Center School is an option school, and therefore open to students all over the city. Center is an arts-integrated high school with a social justice focus. Due to the small size of fewer than 300 students, the auction is very important and provides the major funding necessary to continue our vibrant arts programs—including multi-media technology, film, photography, drama, instrumental music, visual arts and more.
