

AIA Dayton Annual Sponsors

Partnership with AIA truly means working together to achieve common goals. From brand awareness to leadership and market insight, to product category leadership, working with AIA gets you connected to the architect community through the services and experiences that make AIA so valuable to our members.

As a sponsor of AIA Dayton, you will get:

- Targeted access to local architecture and design professionals, including unmatched interaction with key demographic audiences.
- Bi-weekly News Briefs updating you on current chapter news and upcoming social and educational events.
- An opportunity to present an AIA Continuing Education Program at one of our monthly Architect Basics & Bagels (ABB) meetings or at our Annual Procrastinator's Day event.
- Access to tours of recently completed projects in the Dayton area.
- Unparalleled relationship building opportunities with local architects and thankful recognition for your support at our Annual Sponsor dinner.

Sponsorship levels:

Platinum Level ($3,000) – Our Platinum sponsors keep AIA Dayton running! We could not possibly continue the breadth of our activity in advocating great design in our community without their generous support. In return, we provide exposure for their businesses at all of our events, including the Student Design Competition Awards, the Golf Outing, and our Focus on Design Lecture/Awards as well as TWO free admissions to every event. We recognize our Platinum sponsors prominently on the home page of our AIA Dayton website and social media channels. In addition, each Platinum sponsor is given a “Sponsor Spotlight” during two of the months of their sponsorship calendar year.

Gold Level ($1,500) – Our Gold sponsors are our treasured partners. In return, we provide ONE free ticket for you to attend all of our events, including the Student Design Competition Awards, our Focus on Design Lecture/Awards, and member pricing for our annual Golf Outing. We recognize our Gold sponsors on our AIA Dayton website and social media channels, and through banner ads in our bi-weekly email News Briefs to the entire membership.

Silver Level ($1,000) – Our Silver sponsorship level offers a wonderful yet affordable way to become involved with AIA Dayton. In return, we can offer you AIA membership pricing to all of our events, including the Student Design Competition Awards, the Golf Outing, and our Focus on Design Lecture/Awards. We also recognize our Silver sponsors on our website and social channels.

Supporting Level ($750) -- Be recognized on the website and social channels and keep in touch with the AIA membership.
