

Greetings from the Book Store Team!

That's right, Trillium United is planning a used bookstore located inside the King Street entrance of the church. The bookshop will be open Sundays, from 12 to 3pm.

A small dedicated team is currently working out details for a launch in early 2022. We want to make Trillium Used Books a warm and wonderful Sunday destination for book lovers from all over. We will accept donations of used books, in excellent condition, on any general interest topic, including children's and young adult literature. If you're interested in donating books, let me know and we will touch base with you in January to set up an appointment.

We also need You, and not just your books. Trillium Used Books will be entirely run by volunteer booksellers. No experience necessary! Booksellers will always work in teams of two, so if you and a friend or a spouse can volunteer for one 3-hour period per month we will be able to open each Sunday afternoon. To run well, and attract the repeat customers that will make us a success, the store needs to be reliably open. Could you and a friend contribute 3 hours a month to help run the store? We would be very grateful for your time and energy.

Without volunteers, the shop cannot operate. With you, your ideas, your old books and a few hours of your time, Trillium Used Books will offer the whole community a new family-friendly venue each Sunday - staffed by neighbours, and stuffed with new titles every week. It's very exciting!

If you want to be a Volunteer Bookseller contact, me, Diane Boyer at 416-854-4959 or diane.boyer@gmail.com.

Thank you.
