NYC Small Business Training Grants Program

Learn how you may be able to obtain grants to grow your business

The NYC Department of Small Business Services (SBS) offers two job training grants for eligible small businesses. Whether you are hiring a new employee or have a staff of 10+ SBS will provide funds to increase the skills of your team.

The On-the-Job training program provides fund for onboarding eligible new employees with a grant covering up to 70% of wages for up to the first 280 hours of a new hire.

The Customized Training grant provides up to $400,000 to train 10+ employees, with varying skills.

In this free course we will provide an overview of both training grants and explain the requirements and application process.
