

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

12th Annual Canyon Fest: “A Celebration of Art & Nature”
Saturday, November 6, 2021
10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Fort Payne, AL-- Jacksonville State University's Little River Canyon Center is pleased to announce the 12th annual Canyon Fest set for Saturday, November 6, 2021. Designed to encourage an appreciation for the environment and local culture the JSU Canyon Center has organized a day filled with local music, food, art, and fun for the entire family. The festivities for the day also include live animal programs, art sales and demonstrations, art activities and exhibits. Canyon Fest is free and open to everyone. Dog are welcome on leashes.

“Canyon Fest has become one of the most anticipated events of the season,” says Anna Lindsey, Little River Canyon Center Sales and Services Manager. “It’s a great place to find unique holiday gift items and at the same time support local artists and environmental education.”

Special features include Old Time Fiddle & Banjo featuring Matt Downer in the morning. Sweet harmonies and traditional Appalachian music with the Whistlebees in the afternoon. Fantastic Creatures (live animal show) with Animal Tales at 11 am and 2 pm. Pottery and Blacksmith demos ongoing. Native American flute by Linda Arthur throughout the day.

“We anticipate a strong turnout at Canyon Fest this year,” says Pete Conroy, Canyon Center Director. “I believe this year’s event could coincide with the peak season of fall foliage in Little River Canyon. We hope folks will come and enjoy a terrific day filled with activities for the entire family.”

Although the facility is open daily from 10:00 to 4:00, Canyon Fest provides a special opportunity to experience the Little River Canyon Center, its exhibits, trails and people on a beautiful autumn day. Donations are appreciated.

MASKS AND VACCINATIONS APPRECIATED

Schedule of Events:

10:00 am	Canyon Fest begins! Art activities, art sales, demonstrations, food, and music will continue throughout the day until 4:00 pm with the following scheduled events:
10:00 am-Noon	Matt Downer: Old Time Fiddle & Banjo
11:00 am	Live Animal Show: Fantastic Creatures with Animal Tales
2:00 pm	Live Animal Show: Fantastic Creatures with Animal Tales
Noon- 2:00 pm	The Whistlebees: Old Time Appalachian Harmonies Duo
4:00 pm	Festival close

For more information please contact:

Little River Canyon Center
4322 Little River Trail NE, Hwy 35
Fort Payne, AL
Canyon Center: 256-845-3548
JSU: 256-782-5681
www.canyoncenter.org

A poster for Canyon Fest. The background is dark green with a large, stylized mountain peak in the center, colored in shades of green and yellow. The text 'CANYON FEST' is prominently displayed in white, with the 'Y' in 'CANYON' featuring a yellow sun-like shape. Below the main title, it says 'A Celebration of Art & Nature'. To the right, it announces '1ST SATURDAY IN NOVEMBER' in large white letters, followed by '10:00am - 4:00pm' and 'Free & Open to the Public!' in a script font. At the bottom, a row of yellow pine trees separates the main text from a green banner that reads 'Art Demonstrations & Sales - Educational Programs throughout the Day - Activities for children Music, Food, & Fun for the entire family! - Leashed dogs welcomed!'. The footer includes the JSU logo, the website 'www.canyoncenter.org', the phone number '256.845.3548', and the Little River Canyon Center logo.

CANYON FEST
A Celebration of Art & Nature

1ST SATURDAY
IN NOVEMBER
10:00am - 4:00pm
Free & Open to the Public!

Art Demonstrations & Sales - Educational Programs throughout the Day - Activities for children Music, Food, & Fun for the entire family! - Leashed dogs welcomed!

JSU
JACKSONVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY
477 E. University Parkway, Jacksonville, FL 32217
813.724.2000

www.canyoncenter.org
256.845.3548

LITTLE RIVER CANYON CENTER
4322 LITTLE RIVER TRAIL NE
FORT PAYNE, AL 35967
256.845.3548