Julie is a leader. She understands the problems facing the unit, the district and the league. She works effectively with her unit board to seek solutions to keep her unit viable and moving forward. She is a good listener, she is steady and she is always fair.

Julie Clark has been an ACBL member for over 30 years, recently becoming a gold life master. Raised in a family committed not only to the game itself, but also to the support of the game (her father was the Denver unit's legal counsel), Julie has served on the Denver Unit Board since 2018 and is currently the president. She is a mentor to a local player and has high hopes of getting her brother to come back to the game.
