Building Bridges During Divided Times

What can we do to be more connected to the people who disagree with us?
How can we shift our inner voice to be more open to the grace of others, even if their views offend us?

We'll look at some of the virtues we need to cultivate to be bridge builders and consider some possible words, actions and spiritual practices that can help us be part of the solution instead of contributors to the shrill noise of our era.

PRESENTER: Rev. Scott VanDerveer, pastor of the parishes of St. Mary's in Cox-sackie and St. Patrick's in Ravena, spent 20 years discerning what God was calling him to do with his life and had a number of jobs (corporate regional manager, grant writer for a hospice home, school bus driver) followed by a 7-year career in teaching before being ordained in 2013. Fr. Scott has a deep interest in accompanying others who are seeking to grow spiritually and expand their relationship with God.
