

Whopping Acts of ROAR recipients – 4/1/26

Gianna Gonzales and Hadley Webb

I am proud to nominate Gianna Gonzales for Whopping Acts of ROAR. Gianna consistently embodies every part of our school values, making our classroom a better place for everyone.

- Respect: She treats her friends, teachers, and classroom materials with genuine care and kindness.
- Optimism: Even when faced with challenges, Gianna maintains a positive attitude and works hard to push through obstacles.
- Accountability & Responsibility: She takes ownership of her learning by fixing mistakes without a fuss and staying on top of her tasks. Most impressively, she holds herself and her friends to a high standard, encouraging those around her to do the right thing.

Gianna's integrity and dedication make her a true leader and a perfect example of what it means to ROAR! – Mrs. Perdue, kindergarten teacher

Hadley Webb is a shining example of what it means to live out the ROAR standards every day. Her consistent dedication to her classmates and her schoolwork makes our classroom a better place.

Respect

Hadley demonstrates deep respect by being kind to her classmates and consistently being willing to help anyone in need. She values those around her and treats everyone with genuine care.

Optimism

With a positive attitude every day, Hadley brings a bright energy to our room. She approaches her tasks and her peers with a "can-do" spirit that helps build a supportive environment for everyone.

Accountability

Hadley takes care of her work and is someone who can be counted on. She understands the importance of her daily tasks and ensures they are completed with her best effort.

Responsibility

By making good choices and setting a great example for others, Hadley proves she is a responsible leader. She takes ownership of her actions and acts as a role model for her peers.

Way to go, Hadley! We are so proud of your hard work. - Mrs. Tori Wright, 1st grade teacher
