The Biblical Month of AV 5785: July 26-August 24, 2025

The LORD will Thunder and Roar.
The month when Yahweh destroys so HE can reconstruct!

Dr. Wade K. Butler

Joel 3:6 The Amplified Bible, Classic Edition
[16] The Lord will thunder and roar from Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shall shake; but the Lord will be a refuge for His people and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

The Biblical Month of Av begins this year at sundown on July 25, and continues to sundown August 24, 2025.

This year certainly has seen about everything the Bible talks about as we draw near the end times. In The US alone, we have seen floods of epic proportion, storms of the 100-and 500-year projections, the death of children beyond our understanding, and exposure of evil that the worst horror movies couldn't depict. Currently, herds of Buffalo, Deer and Elk are fleeing Yellowstone Park, the migration of deep-sea life has shifted, and Israel is deep in war, roaring like a lion.

If the volcano in Yellowstone erupts it could devastate up to 50% of our nation. Off the coast of Oregon this week, an under-ocean volcano erupted and experts are saying a new island may be formed. The disrupted shift in sea life and ocean temperatures could have very long-term effects on the fishing industry internationally.

We are definitely in times of WAR in the Heavenlies. Over this past week, eight prayer warriors I pray with have experienced spiritual warfare like never before. Some of those reports are in this edition.

Most of you know I am finishing a book on Ascensions. Our Lord has called us to come up higher. That call is universal. At the same time, our enemy is doing everything he can to dissuade, discourage, and completely stop the call of GOD on our lives to obey. "After this I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice which I had heard addressing me like [the calling of] a war trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place in the future." (Revelation 4:1)

AN ASSIGNMENT AGAINST ASCENSION**

On our On-line War Room on Monday 21st July, during the prayer time, I heard the Spirit say,

"WATCH AND PRAY FOR THERE IS AN ASSIGNMENT OF SATAN AGAINST YOUR ASCENSION."

As I have been meditating on those words, today the Spirit of Revelation spoke further to me saying, "Daughter, Watch and Pray For there is a demonic Assignment against My Remnant Ascending, for in the Ascension there is greater Vision, Illumination, Revelation, and Strategy for Advancing.

"In the Ascension there is greater Access to realms and dimensions of My Glory and Supernatural Provision. In the Ascension there are Keys being released that will unlock and break open the Resources and Abundance of Heaven, and with the Abundance comes greater Multiplication, Increase, and divine expansion.

"In the Ascension there is Divine Restoration and Recompense for all that the enemy stole in the last season. In the Ascension there is Divine Recovery and a great Wealth Transfer from the hands of the Wicked into the hands of My Ascending Ones. Yes! In the Ascension there are New Mantles and greater Mandates being released for greater Influence and Impact for Kingdom Advancement in the Nations.

"I say again, Watch and Pray for there is an Assignment of Satan against Ascension in this hour, as the enemy seeks to block the way by creating obstacles and hindrances that will stop My Remnant from Reaping the Rewards and the Spoils of War for Divine Restoration and Kingdom Reform in the Earth realm!"

I hear these Words;

- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST ASCENSION
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST VISION AND REVELATION
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST ACCESS
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST ABUNDANCE AND PROVISION
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST MULTIPLICATION AND INCREASE
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST RESTORATION AND RECOMPENSE
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST GREAT WEALTH TRANSFER
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST MANIFEST GLORY AND BREAKTHROUGH
- THERE IS A WAR AGAINST REFORMATION AND KINGDOM ADVANCEMENT!!

As always, the Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophecy? The answer is to ask the LORD how did this relate in the Bible for then and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me pray, Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD* (see last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce and many other contributing authors which are included.* Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning. (1 Thessalonians 5:20)

It's been over eight years since we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1 the very first words GOD speaks are "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon." From that point on, the nation of GOD was to look at the moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

And* God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day (Genesis 1:5). Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 7th, 1,000 years of days would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous year's is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon." The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast and season.

I had an incredible word spoken over one of the prayer teams I am part of. The Lord said, "You may feel like the cards of life are stacked against you. Do not take his bluff. I am dealing you (my sons and daughters) a Royal Flush against the enemy's hand. The battle may seem great, BUT YOU WIN!"

This is the month to break curses! Israel fell to curses during this month and cursed GOD. We can get free from any curses on us or our family lines all the way back to Adam!!! Get rid of them. Even though we may have unresolved issues, we can shut the door. Look at this list and REPENT NOW!!!!

Repent, Break generational curses off yourself and your bloodline.

- Lack of Faith causing you to blame GOD for your shortfalls.
- Sin, lust of the eye, lust of the flesh, and boastful pride of life.
- Anti-Semitism.
- Racism.
- Robbing God of time or money.
- Robbing Man.
- Disrespecting Parents.

- Idle words which cause self-curses.
- Covenant Breaking.
- Idolatry.

You may not know what caused the door to be open in your life, so simply ask GOD, "What sin have I done or my family line that has allowed a curse to operate in my life?" Don't go around looking at everyone else, deal with yourself. Some people are just in warfare for breakthrough for themselves or others, while some are dealing with past family blood lines. Ask!

"LORD, forgive me for my sins, (list the sins and sins of failure to do what the LORD told you to do) and my family curses as we are guilty. Cleanse me and my family, LORD, with the BLOOD of Yeshua."

As we begin the month of AV keep in mind that man changed the calendar, GOD didn't.

The church today misses a very important part of their history and understanding. There was never really a new church started. They worshipped and practiced Hebrew. The difference was that Christ completed the requirements of the Law and made us "New Men in Him." If you think about it, we are literally Hebrew as we were adopted or grafted into the Kingdom.

With that in mind, we will not miss out on what God is doing by honoring the feast or HIS Calendar. At the same time, we will honor our Lord Yeshua the Christ and we may learn something.

This is the only month which is not named in the Bible. It is a summer month of 30 days. Av usually occurs in July–August on the Gregorian calendar. The Babylonian Talmud, Taanit 29a, states that "when we enter the month of Av, our joy is diminished." According to the Hebrew Bible, the Tribe of Simeon was one of the twelve tribes of Israel. The Book of Judges locates its territory inside the boundaries of the Tribe of Judah. It is one of the ten lost tribes."

The Hebrew letter for the month of Av is the letter TET. (In Hebrew, AV means, "father.") The letter resembles a womb – a month when earth contracts – the secret of pregnancy moves into the earth realm Tribe: Simeon – to hear; be concerned Characteristics: The month you metamorphose or disintegrate. The month the Lion roars. (Amos 3:8) The month where God destroys so He can reconstruct. Consider what you hear and determine how to develop a new level of discernment or oppose counsel and advice. Listen carefully! You will hear key impressions this month.

The Hebrew Month of Av

Jerusalem of Gold - By Boruch Hoffinger

The name of the fifth month on the Jewish calendar (counting from Nisan), Av, literally means "father." It is customary to add the name "Menachem," which means "comforter" or "consoler"— so, Menachem Av.

In this month, both Temples were destroyed, and many other tragedies occurred. Yet our Father in heaven is there to comfort and console us.

Av includes a "low point" on the Jewish calendar—the Ninth of Av, the day of the sin of the spies, and the destruction of both the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem. But it also incorporates a "high point": the 15th of Av, a day designated for finding one's predestined soulmate, and one of the happiest days on the Jewish calendar.

Av derives from the root, which means, "to will" or "to desire." This month is also the "low point" of the Jewish calendar.

Biblical Significance of the Month

A Biblical reference to this month in the "Chumash," the Five Books of Moshe, is the one cited above under Names which speaks of the death of the great "Aharon HaKohen," Aharon, the Priest. Aharon represented all that is good in the Jewish character, and all that is thrown out when "sinat chinam," "hatred based on nothing" is brought into Jewish life. Aharon is described in Pirkei Avot, as one or better, the one who exemplified the characteristic of "loving peace and pursuing peace, loving people, and bringing them closer to the Torah."

The Talmud in Masechet Gittin (55b-56a) identifies the immediate cause of the destruction of Yerushalayim as the incident involving Kamtza and Bar-Kamtza. It is clear that although this specific incident may have provoked Rome to move against Yerushalayim, the attitude portrayed in the incident, hardness of heart, reflects that that attitude was deeply ingrained in the hearts of the Jewish People at that time. The story shows the destructive effect of causeless hatred, which, throughout Jewish History, has visited destruction in various forms upon the Jewish People.

Notice the following events that took place on that date:

Av 1 – 1273 BC – the death of Aaron
Av 7 - 586 BC – First Temple invaded by King Nebuchadnezzar
Av 9 - 587 BC – The armies of Babylon destroyed Solomon's Temple.
Av 9 - AD 70 – The Romans destroyed the 2nd temple.
Av 9 - AD 135 – The final defeat of Jews by Rome.
Av 9 - AD 1095 – The 1st Crusade is launched, which kills thousands of Jews.
Av 9 - AD 1290 – The Jews are expelled from England.
Av 9 - AD 1492 – The Jews are expelled from Spain.
Av 9 - AD 1942 – The Jews were deported from the Warsaw ghetto to the death camps.
Av 15 - The 15th of Av Is Known as One of the Happiest Days in Jewish History. This day, Tu B'Av, signifies rebirth after destruction and is a day for new beginnings.

They tasted the FRUIT of the land but refused to enter.

They held back in unbelief, and by doing that they put themselves under a curse. So, every year on the 9th of Av, Israel finds that their enemies are too strong for them, and they die. As Hebrews 4:1-2 explains (paraphrased), "they refused to mix the promise with faith." The result was that the month of Av became a month of mourning and destruction. Because of their sin on that date, Israel spent forty years in the wilderness.

At the end of that time, God, in His grace, gave them a second chance to enter. (God is the God of the second chances.) But they never truly repented of the sin. So, every year the cycle comes back around, and the window of destruction opens again. When you don't repent of the sins of the past, Satan is free to bring the curse of that sin back around on you, and the door of destruction remains open. The way you know you have truly repented is that you don't repeat the sin again. That's how we know Israel never repented.

Israel repeated the sin of Kadish Barnea all over again when Yeshua came. Hebrews tells us that when Yeshua came, they tasted the good fruit of the age to come. They heard His words, and saw His miracles, but turned back in unbelief and refused to enter or receive His promise of the Messiah. But the Word assures us that one day Israel will turn and believe in Yeshua as Messiah. Like Israel in Joshua's day, a future generation will enter in; when that happens, the 9th of Av curse will finally be broken. God still wants Av to be a month of blessing and celebration of His goodness.

Av is a month that presents us with a CHOICE!

We Can Choose to RECEIVE a Curse! We Can Choose to BREAK a Curse!

We Can Choose to BELIEVE God's PROMISE! We Can Choose to ENTER God's BLESSING! So, receive His Promise and mix it with FAITH this month! Av is the month of Simeon. He messed up, but there is redemptive power for Simeon. You are grafted into an inheritance. If you are a blood-bought Christian, you are grafted into the covenant of Abraham. In that covenant there are iniquitous patterns. Through the blood of Yeshua all things are reconciled, but the devil will try to activate these iniquitous patterns and cause them to manifest. If you have instability in your bloodline, there are times when you must have your spiritual disciplines in place so that a spirit does not come in and wipe you out. Here is how the devil's workers operate: they are not respecters of persons, and they do not play fair. If they see that you are having a bad day, they will swarm you. They do not back off just because you are struggling. They will take opportunity to try to convince you to align with them. They understand iniquitous patterns. When Satan was kicked out of heaven, iniquity was found in him. Therefore, any time we agree with him, a root forms. This is why we must deal with the roots in our generations.

This is also why God will deal with you all year long and give you opportunities to repent and be delivered. He can always deliver you, but you must choose to walk in freedom.

A TIME TO ADVANCE

You can always look at sovereign happenings this month. What I mean by sovereign happenings is that God makes decisions to do certain things based upon what we have decided at other times. We are making decisions which will manifest sooner or later. God is not a God who just turns His head away and lets us do what we want to do. He records what we do in a book, "It is written!" Av is associated with the constellation of Leo (the lion). This is the month the Lion roars (Amos 3:8). This is one of the most incredible and prophetic months. When the lion – the people of God – roar, a prophetic covering is created.

Amos 3 is about unlocking what is above you and the sound that begins to resound in the earth realm. Av is the month for the divine will of the Father to be executed. God allows things to be destroyed so He can rebuild. There are times when God says, "Let's just tear that one up and start over." Have you ever tried to do something that is just not going to work?

One time I was designing a computer program using assembler language, and it got caught in a loop. I thought about how long tracking down the mistake would take to fix the problem and decided the best choice would be to just start the program over. That's what I did, and the next day the problem was easily fixed. I labored through the first process, but once I let that one go, the logic flowed right for the second process. That's how God works with us sometimes. During this month, the earth begins to contract, so we must watch for earthquakes and where they are occurring.

Again, be very aware of your partnerships during this month. Watch your alignments. The Hebrews associate Av with a new level of discernment. In this month you are developing a new level of discernment, or you are opposing counsel and advice. If you look back in your life, you can identify times when people gave you counsel and advice; but you thought you knew more than anyone else and did not act on the advice.

The Bible says in Psalm 32 that He takes hold of the reins of your life and guides you by His eye. In this process, if you have not allowed Him to work with you, then you are resisting His leading like a horse or mule that has to be harnessed. The Lord will give us a chance to follow Him and go through things, but sometimes resistance to His leading is going on. Use wisdom, and allow the Lord to guide you and hone your discernment for these critical days ahead.

The Month of Av

Av on the Biblical calendar corresponds to July-August on the Gregorian calendar except on leap years, which carries over into August-September. Its name was adopted during Israel's Babylonian captivity. In addition, it is customary among Jews to add the name "Menachem" (Comforter) to Av when speaking about this month. This is because the month of Av is associated with many tragic events in Jewish history. Yet, their Father God brings comfort.

Between the Straits

History has shown a pattern of terrible disasters that have befallen the Jewish people during a three-week period. This segment of time is referred to as "between the straits" (based on Lamentations 1:3). It begins on the 17th of Tammuz and ends on the 9th of Av. Ancient Jewish rabbis said: "When Av comes in, gladness must be diminished." As a result, marriages are not held during this period and all entertainment is suspended.

The 9th of Av (Tisha B'Av)

The 9th of Av commemorates the destruction of both Temples in Jerusalem along with many other tragedies throughout Jewish history. This day is the "low point" of the three-week period of mourning. As a result, the 9th of Av has become an annual fast day in the Jewish Community. The intention of the fast is to help Jewish people remember and learn from history the past moral failures of their ancestors, and thus, prevent future catastrophes.

Events in Jewish History that Occurred on the Ninth of Av

- Ten of the twelve spies came back with a negative report about the Promised Land (Numbers 14:1-10). The Israelites believed the evil report of the spies and refused to enter into the Promised Land. Consequently, this event started their 40-year wandering in the desert.

- The first Holy Temple (constructed by King Solomon) was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonian army. Jerusalem was pillaged, and thousands of Jews were deported to Babylon. (587 B.C.)

- Titus destroyed the second Holy Temple (70 A.D.). In addition, The Roman army plowed into the city of Jerusalem with salt. (71 A.D.)

- The last stronghold of the Bar Kochba rebellion, the City of Betar, fell to the Romans in 135 A.D. Bar Kochba was killed along with over 100,000 Jews.

- Pope Urban II declared the first Crusade. Jerusalem fell to the invading army. Ten thousand Jews were killed in the first month of the Crusade. (1099 A.D.)

- England expelled the Jews. (1290 A.D.)

- Spain expelled the Jews. (1492 A.D.)

- World War I began when Germany declared war on Russia. This launched persecutions against the Jews in Eastern Russia. (August 1, 1914)

- The Germans began a systematic liquidation of the Jewish Ghettos in Poland. Jews were deported to extermination camps at the rate of six to ten thousand per day. (July 10, 1942)

The 15th of Av (Tu B'av)

Another important date in the month of Av is the 15th of Av (Tu B'av). It signifies the end of the three weeks of mourning. It also celebrates several favorable events in Jewish history and the reunion of God and Israel. Tu B'av is the "high point" of the month and a joyous day on the Hebrew Calendar.

Israel's Wilderness Wandering Ends

Several months after their exodus from Egypt, the Israelites were to conquer the land God had promised their forefathers (Exodus 3:8). So, Moses sent out 12 spies to survey the land of Canaan. However, when they returned, 10 of the spies gave evil reports. They convinced the people that the Canaanites were too strong for them to conquer. After this, the people became discouraged and began to grumble against Moses and Aaron (Numbers 13-14). Because they did not believe God's promises to them, God cursed the Israelites with forty years of wilderness wandering. They could not enter Canaan until the unbelieving generation died off in the desert. Instead, it would be their children who would enter the Promised Land (Numbers 13 and 14). So, after 40 years of wilderness wandering, the dying finally ended on the 15th of Av.

Part 7: Does God really desire sacrifice?
A Hebrew Bible-based Perspective on Divine Mercy
Isaiah's Vision: From condemnation of vain ritual to a "House of Prayer"

By Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch); edited by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

Isaiah 1:11-17: The prophet preaches YHVH's rebuke of sacrifices

Isaiah's prophetic voice in chapters 1 and 56 challenges the notion that YHVH desires blood sacrifice, presenting a covenant rooted in khesed (mercy, loving-kindness), justice, prayer, and Sabbath observance. These passages are among the many refuting apologists like Messianic Jewish Christian (MJC) Michael Brown, PhD, who claims there is "no possible way" to achieve atonement without blood "especially with the Temple standing."[1] By condemning empty, rote rituals and envisioning universal spiritually-connected worship, Isaiah affirms our twofold argument: 1. YHVH provides the desired alternatives to animal sacrifice—repentance, ethical living, prayer, and Sabbath and; 2. He seeks inner spiritual transformation—not ritual offerings—for communion and reconciliation, as preached and exemplified by Abraham, David, Yeshua, the prophets and others.

Amid Assyrian threats in late 8th century BCE Judah, Isaiah addressed kings like Hezekiah, Uzziah, Jotham, and Ahaz during a period of deep spiritual decay. His critique aligns with pre-exilic prophetic calls for repentance, obedience, mercy, and justice over Levitical rituals (Lev 1–7). Isaiah 1:11-17 delivers a scathing rebuke of pagan-style blood sacrifice performed to appease the gods—divorced from ethical living. The prophet emphasized YHVH's desire for khesed (mercy) and mishpat (justice) over ritual zavach (sacrifice, slaughter): "What unto me is the multitude of your sacrifices? saith YHVH: I have had enough of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats" (Isa 1:11). YHVH's rebuke in the form of a rhetorical question follows: "When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to trample my courts?" (Isa 1:12), echoes Hosea 6:6's "For I desire goodness, and not sacrifice" and Jeremiah 7:22-23's claim that YHVH did not command sacrifices at Horeb (Sinai). This reflects the Master Covenant's (the Ten Words) call to love YHVH and your neighbor (Exodus 20:6, 12-17) which "…is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices" (Mk 12:31). These examples prioritize shema (to hear and obey; hearken) and covenant relationship (mercy and justice) over sacrifices, emphasizing YHVH's desire for righteous living at Horeb (Sinai).

Judah's lavish offerings are rejected for being deceitful, worthless lies (Hebrew: shave; vain). YHVH states, "Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; new moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies,—I cannot endure iniquity and the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth; they are a trouble unto me; I am weary of bearing them"

1 Michael Brown, Answering Jewish Objections to Jesus (henceforth, AJOJ), Vol. 2, Sec. 3.9, Baker Books, 2000, p. 87

(Isa 1:13-14). Terms like "vain" and "abomination" echo Amos 5:21-24's disdain for feasts and Micah 6:6-8's rejection of "thousands of rams." YHVH's visceral language —"my soul hateth," "I am weary"—shows his abhorrence of hypocritical worship. This strong condemnation stands in opposition to apologists who prioritize blood atonement's ceremonial purity over mercy (khesed) and justice (mishpat).

But the prophetic critique goes beyond merely rejecting the hypocrisy of the offerer to rebuffing the sacrificial act itself, emphasizing shema (obedient action), t'shuvah (repentance), khesed (mercy), and mishpat (justice). 1 Samuel 15:22 declares, "Hath YHVH as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of YHVH? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed than the fat of rams"; and Jeremiah 7:22-23: "For I spake not unto your fathers concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices: but this thing I commanded them, saying, Obey my voice." The verb shama ("to hear and obey") in these verses, as in "Hear and obey Israel, YHVH your God, YHVH is one" (Deut 6:4, amplified), reflects Abraham's active faith, ranking obedience over sacrifice (Gen 26:4-5)—regardless of intent—because its inner spiritual quality of drawing near (Hebrew: kavanah, heart intention) to YHVH is quantifiably "better than sacrifice."

YHVH declares, "When ye spread forth your hands, I will hide Mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood" (Isa 1:15). "Your hands are full of blood" indicts Judah's vain ceremonial slaughter. YHVH's refusal to hear their prayers shows ritual, even when accompanied by prayer, cannot compensate for ethical failure, aligning with David's contrite spirit which was enough in itself to bring forgiveness of his sins (Ps 51:16-17). YHVH commands, "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before Mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek justice, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow" (Isa 1:16-17). These moral imperatives outline a bloodless path to reconciliation through t'shuvah (repentance) and mishpat (justice); Neither animal sacrifices or altar blood are mentioned.

The commands to "relieve the oppressed" and "plead for the widow" echo Zechariah 7:9-10's justice, mercy, and compassion as well as Ezekiel 18:21-22's righteous deeds. The Assyrian capitol of Nineveh's national repentance (Jonah 3:10: "God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil which he said he would do unto them") demonstrates "obedient faith" (i.e., "works") as a substitute for blood. This counters Brown's assertion that it is "impossible" prophets would endorse the "contradictory" notion there is atonement without blood" (AJOJ, Vol. 2, Sec. 3.9, p. 87).

Jacob (James), Yeshua's brother and successor as leader of the apostolic "the Way," aligns with our premise: James 2:14-18 teaches the active faith of the keter torah—the transformative "higher Torah" of the Ten Words—while condemning passive belief:

"What doth it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked and in lack of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith apart from thy works, and I—by my works—will show thee my faith."

Isaiah 56:1-8: A Universal "House of Prayer"

In contrast to Isaiah 1's rejected rituals, Isaiah 56:1-8 envisions YHVH's "holy mountain" as a "house of prayer for all peoples," where prayer, the Sabbath, and covenantal fidelity replace sacrifice, offering salvation to Jew and Gentile: Thus saith YHVH, "Keep ye justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. Blessed is the man that doeth this, that keepeth the Sabbath from profaning it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil." (Isa 56:1-2)

YHVH ties salvation to works of faith—justice, righteousness, and the Sabbath—omitting sacrifice. This echoes Isaiah 1:16-17 and Hosea 6:6, offering a transcendent covenantal path accessible to all: Gentiles, MJCs and GR Christians via the Master Covenant's Ten Words: Neither let the foreigner say, "YHVH will separate me from his people"; nor let the eunuch say, 'Behold, I am a dry tree.' For eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose what pleaseth me, and hold fast my covenant: unto them will I give in my house a name better than of sons and daughters" (Isa 56:3-5).

YHVH embraces foreigners and eunuchs, excluded from some Temple rituals, promising inclusion through observing the Sabbath and obedience to the Master Covenant, not offerings, paralleling Jonah 3:10's universal repentance.

The foreigners that join themselves to YHVH every one that keepeth the Sabbath and holdeth fast my covenant; even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; [their burnt-offerings and sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar;] for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples. Thus saith YHVH: The gatherer of the outcasts of Israel, I will yet gather others to him." (Isa 56:6–8).

The "house of prayer for all peoples" redefines the Temple as a center of universal worship, not sacrifice. In verse seven, the bracketed phrase's mention of sacrifices disrupts the narrative's flow which focuses on prayer and inclusivity. It is likely a later priestly scribal addition as noted by Knight, Blenkinsopp, Rashi and Ibn Ezra.[2] Knight argues it is probably "reflecting the concerns of a priestly group" (Isaiah 56-66, Eerdmans, 1985, p. 12).[3] Blenkinsopp says Isaiah 56:7's sacrificial phrase "appears to be in some tension with the universalistic perspective... It may therefore be a redactional addition" (Isaiah 56-66, Yale, 2003, p. 138)[4] This supports YHVH's desire for mercy and obedience, per Hosea 6:6 and Jeremiah 7:22-23.

Rashi emphasizes, "for all peoples: Not only for Israel, but also for proselytes" (Rashi on Isa 56:7).[5] Ibn Ezra links Isaiah 56:7's "their burnt offerings will be accepted" to Solomon's prayer for foreigners' prayers to be heard without sacrifice (1 Kgs 8:41-43; 2 Chr 6:32-33), supporting YHVH's affirmation of a prayer-focused Temple (2 Chr 7:12-16)[6] over blood atonement (Ibn Ezra Commentary on Isaiah, Isa 56:7).[7] This supports YHVH's desire for mercy and obedience, per Hosea 6:6 and Jeremiah 7:22-23.

The words of Yeshua confirm YHVH's message in Isaiah's vision of a house of prayer for all nations in Jerusalem: And he saith unto them, "It is written, my house shall be called a house of prayer…" (Matt 21:13). "In the latter days the mountain of YHVH's house shall be established and all nations shall flow unto it. Many peoples shall say let us go up to the mountain of YHVH for out of Zion shall go forth the Torah, and the word of YHVH from Jerusalem" (Isa 2:2-3).This vision of a future Jerusalem as a Torah-centered hub, not a sacrificial site, aligns with Zechariah's prophecies: "Ten men out of all the nations, shall take hold of the robe of a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that YHVH is with you" (Zech 8:23). "YHVH shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall YHVH be one, and his name one" (Zech 14:9).

6 2 Chronicles 7:12 states: "…I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice." This singular mention in priestly-authored Chronicles (cf. Ezra) contrasts with over 20 references to a "house for YHVH's name" (e.g., 1 Kgs 8:16-20; 2 Chr 6:7-10), or "house of YHVH" (1 Kgs 8:63) and "house of our God" (2 Chr 7:5). This subject will be fully dealt in a future article on Solomon's dedication prayer.

These passages affirm the future Hebrew nation will, at last, be operating in their role as a "kingdom of priests" (Exodus 19:6), leading nations to the Master Covenant's "Torah"– the Ten Words.

Conclusion: Isaiah's unifying message

Isaiah 1:11-17 and 56:1-8 proclaim YHVH's rejection of sacrifices and his establishment of a "house of prayer for all peoples." Salvation flows through mercy (khesed), repentance (t'shuvah), prayer (t'fillah), and the Sabbath, uniting Jew, Gentile, and outcasts (e.g., eunuchs) in the Master Covenant. Isaiah 1 demands justice and a cleansed heart, while Isaiah 56 envisions universal devotion, not blood. This challenges blood atonement claims, aligning with Micah 7:18-19's mercy, Jonah 3:10's repentance, Psalm 51's contrite heart, and Amos 5:21-24's justice. Qumran's Dead Sea Scrolls 4Q416 2 II, 6—"By humility and lowliness of spirit, you will atone for iniquity,"[8] echoes this bloodless path of Abraham, David, John the Immerser (Baptist), Yeshua and Moses.[9] "They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain The wolf and lamb shall feed together" saith YHVH (Isa 11:9; 65:25).[10]

9 No verse in the TNK states Moses ever made a sacrifice for his own sin, even after the report of the giving of the basic sacrificial code at Leviticus 1-7. The primary sin attributed to Moses is at Meribah (Num 20:10–12), but no khattath (sin offering) or other sacrifice is recorded for his atonement; his punishment is exclusion from Canaan. Moses facilitates sacrifices for Israel (e.g., Exod 24:4–8, Lev 9:7) but not for himself. However, Moses' bloodless intercession (Exod 32:30–32) and YHVH's direct response (Num 20:12) emphasize non-sacrificial resolution, akin to repentance in Judges 10:10-16 or Qumran's kapparah (atonement; expiation) through humility (4Q416 2 II, 6).

10 Isaiah 2:4's "swords to plowshares" and Isaiah 66:1-3's rejection of sacrifice envision a bloodless Olam Haba (World to Come). "Heaven is my throne… what manner of house will ye build unto me? … He that killeth an ox is as he that slayeth a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as he that breaketh a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation (minkhah), as he that offereth swine's blood; he that burneth frankincense, as he that blesseth an idol," saith YHVH. See also Isaiah 66:20-23 for universal minkhah (grain offering) and Sabbath worship.

Animal sacrifice and bloody altars are out of place on YHVH's "holy mountain" and in his "House of Prayer"—Isaiah's vision culminates in life and peace on earth in the Olam Haba (World to Come).

The Tribe of Simeon, one of the 12 tribes of Israel that in biblical times comprised the people of Israel who later became the Jewish people. The tribe was named after the second son born to Jacob and his first wife, Leah.

In time, part of the tribe of Simeon was apparently absorbed by Judah, while other members possibly relocated in the north. After the death of King Solomon (922 BC), Palestine split into the northern Kingdom of Israel and the southern Kingdom of Judah. If the tribe of Simeon is counted among the tribes that formed the northern kingdom, then it too was assimilated by other peoples after the Kingdom of Israel was conquered by the Assyrians in 721 BC. One way or another, the tribe of Simeon disappeared from history and is thus numbered among the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel.

Territory

At its height, the territory occupied by the Tribe of Simeon was in the southwest of Canaan, bordered on the east and south by the tribe of Judah; the boundaries with the tribe of Judah are vague, and it seems that Simeon may have been an enclave within the west of the territory of the tribe of Judah. Simeon was one of the less significant tribes in the Kingdom of Judah.

Attempts to reconstruct the territory of Simeon work with three biblical lists: Joshua 19:2-9, and 1 Chronicles 4:28-32, which list towns belonging to Simeon, and Joshua 15:20-30, which lists these same towns as part of the territory of Judah. Nadav Na'aman divides scholarly work on the subject into two "schools of thought," which he calls "the Alt school" (following Albrecht Alt) and the "other school." The Alt school takes the list in Joshua 15 as reflecting the historical situation during the reign of Josiah, and sees the other two as later, and less reliable, attempts by editors to work out the earlier Simeonite territory. The "other school" sees the first two lists as reflecting the actual historical situation in the time of David (compare 1 Chronicles 4:31), and Joshua 15 as reflecting the situation at a later date. According to Na'aman, Simeonites settled in a pattern which overlapped Judah: while maintaining a distinct tribal identity and organization throughout the First Temple period (until 586 BC), Simeonites and Judahites lived in some of the same areas.

Origin

According to the Hebrew Bible, the tribe consisted of descendants of Simeon, the second son of Jacob and of Leah, from whom it took its name. However, Arthur Peake (1919) suggested that the narratives about the twelve sons of Jacob in Genesis might include later tribal history "disguised as personal history," in which the later histories of these tribal groups are recast in the form of narratives about supposed ancestors. Likewise, the consensus position of contemporary scholarship is that "there is little or no historical memory of pre-Israelite events or circumstances in Genesis."

In the biblical account, following the completion of the conquest of Canaan by the Israelites, Joshua allocated the land among the twelve tribes. Kenneth Kitchen, a well-known conservative biblical scholar, dates this event to slightly after 1200 BC. However, the consensus view of modern scholars is that the conquest of Joshua as described in the Book of Joshua never occurred.

Martin Noth argued that the six tribes that the Bible traces to Leah, including Simeon, were once part of an amphictyony prior to the later coalition of twelve tribes. According to Niels Peter Lemche, "Noth's amphictyonic hypothesis determined a whole generation of Old Testament scholars' way of thinking." However, more recently a large number of scholars have dissented from Noth's theory.

In the opening words of the Book of Judges, following the death of Joshua, the Israelites "asked the Lord" which tribe should be first to go to occupy its allotted territory, and the tribe of Judah was identified as the first tribe. According to this narrative, the tribe of Judah invited the tribe of Simeon to fight with them in alliance to secure each of their allotted territories.

However, the tribe of Simeon is not mentioned in the ancient Song of Deborah, generally considered one of the earliest-written parts of the Hebrew Bible, and the Jewish Encyclopedia (1906) claims that Simeon was probably "not always counted as a tribe."[1] According to Israel Finkelstein, the south of Canaan, in which Simeon was situated, was simply an insignificant rural backwater at the time the poem was written. Another possibility is that Simeon, along with Judah, had simply not joined the Israelite confederacy at this point, or that they had seceded.

Biblical Narrative

Towns belonging to Simeon are listed in the Book of Joshua; elsewhere in Joshua these towns are ascribed to Judah. Most modern scholars view the Book of Joshua as being spliced together from several different source texts, in this particular case, the lists of towns being different documents, from different periods to each other.

The tribe seems to have dwindled in size, and the size of the tribe dramatically drops by over half between the two censuses recorded in the Book of Numbers. Although the Bible places these censuses during the Exodus, some textual scholars place their authorship in the period of Priestly Source, which Richard Elliot Freedman dates to between 722 and 609 BC. Other scholars usually place the Priestly Source in the post-exilic period, and some deny its existence altogether. The tribe is completely absent from the Blessing of Moses which some textual scholars date associate with the Deuteronomist. Some Septuagint manuscripts appear to have attempted to correct this, adding the name of Simeon to the latter half of verse 6, which some scholars view as unwarranted based on the Hebrew manuscripts.

The impression gained from the Books of Chronicles is that the tribe was not entirely fixed in location; at one point it is mentioned that some members of the tribe migrated southwards to Gedor, so as to find suitable pasture for their sheep. In the following verse, which may or may not be related, it is mentioned that during the reign of Hezekiah, part of the tribe came to the land of some Meunim, and slaughtered them, taking the land in their place. Further verses state that about 500 men from the tribe migrated to Mount Seir, slaughtering the Amalekites who had previously settled there.

As part of the kingdom of Judah, whatever remained of Simeon was ultimately subjected to the Babylonian captivity; when the captivity ended, all remaining distinctions between Simeon and the other tribes in the kingdom of Judah had been lost in favor of a common identity as Jews.

In Revelation 7:7, the Tribe of Simeon is once again listed among the Twelve Tribes of Israel with 12,000 of the sons of Israel from the tribe sealed on the forehead.

Av is a month to hear and understand. You must decide what you have heard. If a word has been given and you decide not to heed the word, this is the month where your consequences begin.

Clearly, there are certain patterns between heaven and earth that God set up. Based on our response to a sovereign God, we change the atmospheric conditions around us.

You can always look at sovereign happenings this month. What I mean by sovereign happenings is that God makes decisions to do certain things based upon what we have decided at other times. We are making decisions, which will manifest sooner or later. God is not a God who just turns His head away and lets us do what we want to do. He records what we do in a book, "It is written!"

> Av is the month for the divine will of the Father to be executed. God allows things to be destroyed so He can rebuild. There are times when God says, "Let's just tear that one up and start over." Have you ever tried to do something that is just not going to work.

It is The Month of the Lion

The astrological sign of Av is the lion, which represents tragedy and potential for redemption. Our sages teach, "The lion [Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar] came, under the constellation of lion [Leo], and destroyed the Lion of G-d [Jerusalem] . . . so that the Lion [Moshiach] shall come, under the constellation of lion, and build the Lion of G-d [Jerusalem]."

The Talmud relates that Moshiach was born on the very day when the Temples were destroyed: the 9th of Av. Moshiach was born from the tribe of Judah, whose symbol is the lion. This teaches us that the tragedies and suffering associated with the 9th of Av will turn into joy with the coming of Moshiach.

This is the month the Lion roars (Amos 3:8). This is one of the most incredible prophetic months. When the lion – the people of God – roar, a prophetic covering is created. Amos 3 is about unlocking what is above you and the sound that begins to resound in the earth realm.

A Time of Mourning

The first nine days of Av are a period of mourning. We refrain from eating meat and drinking wine, except on Shabbat and on celebrations, such as a bar mitzvah, a brit (circumcision) or the completion of a tractate of the Talmud.

We also refrain from washing clothing (except for those of a baby) and wearing freshly washed clothing, swimming and bathing for pleasure, and remodeling a home. We avoid unnecessary travel and postpone the sanctification of the moon and celebrating a couple's engagement until after Tisha B'Av.

On a spiritual level, we also take time to increase mitzvah observance and our performance of kind deeds to improve the world.

The Worst Day in the World

On the 9th of Av, we commemorate several tragedies, among them: The Jews who left Egypt with Moses were condemned to wander and die in the desert for 40 years; the destruction of both Holy Temples by the Babylonians in 423 BC and by the Romans in 69 CE; and the Jews of Betar who were killed.

Later in history, in 1290, the Jews of England were expelled by King Edward; and the Jews of Spain were expelled by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella in 1492. In 1942, the deportation of Jews from the Warsaw ghetto to the Treblinka extermination camp began.

The day is commemorated as a day of fasting and mourning.

We Read the Book of Lamentations on the 9th of Av

In the book of Lamentations, the prophet Jeremiah recorded the imminent destruction of the First Temple and the exile of the Jewish people.

G-d instructed Jeremiah to write down the words. He spoke about Israel and Judah in order to warn the house of Judah about tragedies that would occur if they did not repent. Jeremiah, imprisoned at the time, dictated three chapters to his student, Baruch ben Neriah, who wrote down the impending tragedies in past tense, as though they had already occurred. Per Jeremiah's instruction, Baruch read the scroll to the Jewish people, who had gathered at the Temple. Rashi relates that the scroll was read before King Jehoiakim, who, after hearing just a few verses, threw the scroll into the fireplace.

As Jeremiah prophesied, on the 9th of Av, the Temples were destroyed, and the Jews were led into captivity. Ever since this tragedy, we read the book of Lamentations on the eve of the 9th of Av.

The 15th of Av Is Known as One of the Happiest Days in Jewish History

This day, Tu B'Av, signifies rebirth after destruction and is a day for new beginnings. On this day, the daughters of Jerusalem would borrow linen garments in order not to embarrass others who did not have beautiful clothing and dance in the vineyards to find prospective grooms. The Talmud considers this day the greatest festival of the year, followed by Yom Kippur, as its essence represents the future redemption.

The 9th of Av was the date of Israel's sin of unbelief at Kadish Barnea. God had brought Israel out of Egypt by His mighty power. He showed them His faithfulness in the wilderness and taught them at Sinai and revealed His glory. Finally He brought them up to the border of the Promised Land at Kadish Barnea.

The spies went in and brought back samples of the fruit of the land. They said, "This is a wonderful, fruitful land just as God promised.

But ten of the spies added, "We don't have the strength to take the land." Two of the spies gave the minority report, "God can give the land into our hands!" As so often happens, there was a voice of faith, and a voice of unbelief. When this happens, we need to be careful to choose correctly.

We Can Choose to BELIEVE God's PROMISE! We Can Choose to ENTER God's BLESSING!

The 15th of Av

"There were no holidays as joyous for the Jewish People as the fifteenth of Av and Yom Kippur," (Mishnah, Taanit)

Nowadays, on the Fifteenth of Av, we observe a partial holiday; we don't say "Tachanun," a daily plea for Divine mercy, on the day itself, nor even in the Afternoon Service of the day preceding the fifteenth, similar to a full-scale holiday. Bride and groom also do not fast if the fifteenth is the day of their marriage.

The last Mishnah in Masechet Taanit says, "There were no holidays so joyous for the Jewish People as the Fifteenth of Av and Yom HaKippurim, for on those days, daughters of Yerushalayim would go out dressed in borrowed white clothing (so that they would all look the same).

"The King's daughters would borrow from those of the High Priest. Daughters of the High Priest would borrow from the Assistant High Priest's daughters; daughters of the Assistant would borrow from the daughters of the Priest designated to lead the People in times of War; the Kohen Anointed for War's daughters would borrow from the daughters of the Ordinary Priest. And the daughters of the rest of the Jewish People would borrow from each other, so as not to embarrass those who didn't have.

"And the daughters of Jerusalem would go out and dance in the vineyards located on the outskirts of the city. And everyone who didn't have a wife would go there." (Notice the relative lack of concern about controlling the situation when the opposite sexes are mixed, perhaps because the recent fast (in the case of Tu B'Av) and the fast on that very day in the case of Yom Kippur, have triggered a sense of self-control, which would not ordinarily necessarily be present.)

"And what would they say?"

"Young man, lift up your eyes and choose wisely. Don't look only at physical beauty – look rather at the family – 'For charm is false, and beauty is vanity. A G-d – fearing woman is the one to be praised, ' ("Mishlei"/Proverbs 31:30)"

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'THIS WEEK GUARD THE INSIGHT AND INSTRUCTION I RELEASE TO YOU BY NOT LOOKING BACK TO PAST SEASONS'

Today I heard the Lord say, 'This week guard the insight and instruction I release to you by not looking back to past seasons.'

What struck me deeply was that there was significant insight and instruction that the Lord was going to release to some this week that is very important in the next steps that the Lord will have them take. But there was a strong warning that as the insight and instruction from the Lord comes, to guard it by NOT looking back to past seasons. As I leaned in and listened to the Lord's heart I heard:

'My people, there are deeper insights and instructions that I am releasing to many this week, and you must guard your heart and your eyes from looking back to what was. I am calling you, My people, deeper into the place of dependency upon Me, to lead you and guide you in the new things that I have for you to walk in. By looking back at what was and how you have moved with Me in the past is going to hinder the clarity and understanding that I want to give you in the deeper insights and instructions being given to you.

'I say unto you, that if you look back at what was – as I release these deeper insights and instructions this week – you will find yourself entertaining a spirit of chaos and confusion in your midst. When looking at Me and leaning into My heart and My Word, let My Spirit guide you in the understanding of what I am speaking and the outworkings of these deeper insights and instructions that I am giving you; and it will see you walking in great peace, boldness and expectancy of the new things that I am doing and revealing.

'I say unto you, that this is a Kairos time, and I am bringing you into greater depths of seeing My appointed times manifesting in your lives. But the enemy is attempting to bring many into delay by keeping you bound in your focus, your desire and your understandings from the seasons past. There are many who have been longing for seasons past, before the battle raged as intensely as it has for some: but I say unto you, keep your eyes on Me and keep your eyes forward in where I am leading you.

'The battle has raged intensely for so many because the enemy is attempting to greatly oppose that which I am birthing through you and bringing you into. But I say unto you, that this week it is imperative that you keep ferociously focused upon Me and leaning into the new things that I am speaking, and crying out for greater understanding – as I am releasing and revealing deeper insights and instructions that you have not yet known (Jeremiah 33:3) that will affect the next steps that I have for you to take.

'This week there will be events where I will cause regions to UNLOCK for my Glory to come in, and great fruit will be seen. Lean into my instruction and My leading in these key events being held in regions to bring forth regional breakthrough and ushering in My Glory. Watch for signs of the breaking open of hard ground in regions, with unprecedented fruit to be seen in greater ways.

'I say unto you, come to Me this week with a surrender of your own understanding. I say unto you, lay your human reasoning and understanding on the altar in surrender and watch the new realms of revelation that I bring you into as you come to Me in surrender and humility. For I say unto you, that this week will be a significant week for many in your understanding and greater clarity in what I have been doing in you and what I have been preparing you for.

'I say unto you, that there will be a great falling away and breaking off of confusion this week for many that have been plagued by this torment of confusion in the last few years. I say unto you, that in the releasing of these greater insights and instructions from My heart and My Word, there will be a greater severing of the places where the enemy has attempted to keep you tied to previous seasons and the ways of the past season – where your hearts have been tethered to them because of pain, trauma and grief. I say unto you, that it is imperative this week, that as you come to Me in a posture to listen and to receive, that you are leaning into My heart and My Word to hear not only the revelation that I will release to you but the greater revelation of MY WAYS in this season.

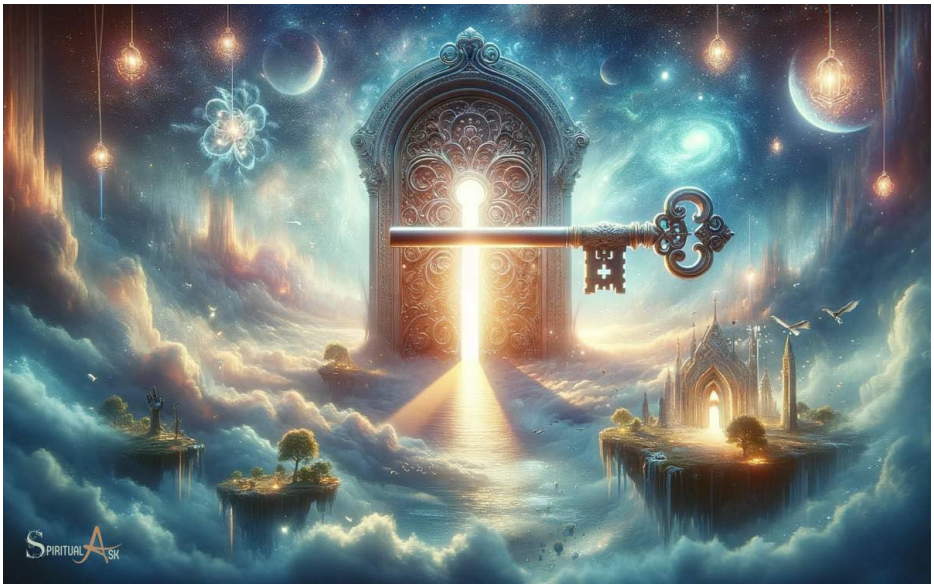

'I say unto you, this week do not give your ears to many and to many things. I say unto you, this week consecrate your ears to Me in a greater way. I say unto you, let not your ears be filled with noise from many places, but come deeper into the place of intimacy and deep into My Word to listen to what I am speaking. I am calling you to consecrate your ears in a deeper way this week to hear and receive that which I am speaking. For in the consecration you will see a greater commissioning into what I have for you in this season, through the revelation that I will release.

'I say unto you, that there will be a greater unveiling and uncovering that will take place this week which will affect alignments going forward. I say unto you, as you come to Me this week and consecrate your ears to Me in a greater way, lay your alignments on the altar, because for many this will be a week of shifting alignments.

'Guard your hearts against distraction in greater ways this week. Be alert and watch for the ways that the enemy will attempt to come to distract you, vie for your focus and attempt to keep you from the quiet place with Me – to hear My voice and what I am speaking. Guard your time and your focus wisely this week. For the insight and instruction I will release to you this week will not only bring you into a greater realm of understanding, but will posture you for what is to come and a greater revealing of My Glory.'

A NEW LEVEL OF WARFARE HAS BEEN UNLEASHED; GET READY! YOU BEING ANOINTED TO OUT RUN!

So, yesterday morning I heard over and over again; "If you have raced with men on foot and they have tired you out, then how can you compete and contend with horses? If you fall down in a land of peace [where you feel secure], Then how will you do [among the lions] in the [flooded] thicket beside the Jordan? (1 Kings 18:46 AMP)

And then I heard the spirit say, "The Days for Competing with Horses is Here and the Days of Contending with Lions in the Flooded thicket has begun."

As I heard those words, I saw a Mega-Shift taking place over Nations in the realm of the Spirit; I was then shown a New Level of Warfare and violent Contending for the Destiny of Nations beginning to unfold. And part of this new level of Warfare the Holy Spirit showed me is an Assignment of the Enemy that is now coming against many in the Body of Christ; "The Assignment of Weariness!"

Holy Spirit quickens to me;
Daniel 7:25; (July 7th Month: 2025; 7;25)

”And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the Saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time”

I saw that Satan has unleashed a deadly Assignment of Weariness against the Remnant and it’s a lethal Assignment that is coming mainly through; THE TONGUE: THROUGH SPOKEN WORDS THAT ARE DESIGNED TO BRING A CURSE OF DEATH; THESE CURSES ARE BEING RELEASED THROUGH GOSSIP, SLANDER, LIES, and FALSE ACCUSATIONS ALL ORCHESTRATED TO BRING DISUNITY, DIVISION AND DISREPUTE TO MANY IN THE BODY OF CHRIST.

The Voice of Jezebel and the Prophets of Baal are also being powerfully amplified through the Mainstream Media that Speaks Lies, false Narratives and demonic Propaganda. The Voice of the enemy is filling the airwaves at this time, and it’s released a Powerful Spirit of Heaviness and Fear, and it’s brought forth Weariness, Apathy and Complacency. I saw that many are finding it almost impossible to Pray or to Read the Word, and when they do there is a lack of Clarity, Connection and focus. Satan is bombarding many with situations designed to Stop the Remnant from Rising and Advancing, Obstacles that are created to hinder and halt the purposes of God from being fulfilled in this hour!

As I was seeing these things unfolding in the Spirit Realm, The Holy Spirit then reminds me of the recent prophesy I was given where I was shown Nations crossing over a Threshold. During the 50 Day Window between Passover to Pentecost.
See Link; https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/pope-francis-dies-88./

And again, I heard the Spirit say,
”The Time of the Beginning of Sorrows has surely Begun!”

This morning, 7/16/25, as I woke up, again I heard, ”If you have raced with men on foot and they have tired you out, then how can you compete and contend with horses?” Now as I heard those Words, I immediately began to Pray in the Spirit, and the Spirit of Revelation spoke to me saying,

”Yes! I have said that the Days for Competing with Horses is Here, the Days of Contending with Lions in the Flooded thicket has begun. But Watch as My Hand Comes down in the Spirit of Might and in the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord to Unlock to My Remnant a Realm and Dimension of the Spirit and Power of Elijah that will empower and equip them to Outrun the Horses and the Chariots of Ahab. Watch! As My Spirit Comes upon My Remnant Warriors in this hour of great Warfare and Contention, and they Shall Out Run, out maneuver the wiles and demonic schemes and plans of the enemy that come against them. I say, It's Time to Go Up. It's Time to Go Higher, Get Ready! Get Ready. Gird up your Loins; it's time to Run, to Move, to Advance, to be Accelerated and to be Supernaturally Catapulted and Transported beyond the flesh and blood realm where the enemy seeks to rob, kill and destroy, I say, Open your Mouth and your Decree Shall become a Key to a great turning and a Divine Unlocking in the realm of the Spirit; Your Decree will become the Key to break open Dimensions of My Glory where the Arsenal of Heaven is at your disposal and where the Weapons of My Wrath and Indignation can be released to work a work of great and sudden destruction upon the Enemies of darkness in this hour.

"Remnant, Listen! Do you Hear it? For there is the Sound of the Abundance of Rain. For My Justice and Vindication shall Reign and Rivers of My Restoration shall come to reverse the Curse!"

I Kings 18:46 "And the Lord gave special strength to Elijah so that he was able to run ahead of Ahab's chariot to the entrance of the city!
"Things happened fast. The sky grew black with wind-driven clouds, and then a huge cloudburst of rain, with Ahab hightailing it in his chariot for Jezreel. And God strengthened Elijah mightily. Pulling up his robe and tying it around his waist, Elijah ran in front of Ahab's chariot until they reached Jezreel!"
The Lord gave his power to [The hand of the Lord was on] Elijah, who tightened his clothes around him [girded up his loins] and ran ahead of King [he outran] Ahab all the way to Jezreel!"

Encourage Yourself in the Lord

The Hebrew month of Av (July-August) represents to the Jewish people a time of much trouble, anguish, and mourning. Historically, the ninth day of this month, known as Tisha B'Av, is recognized as among the worst days of history. On this day the 10 spies sent with Caleb and Joshua to search out the promised land came back with the evil report which led to the entire nation being condemned to wander in the desert for 40 years (Numbers 14:1-10). Centuries later, on this same day, both the first and second Temples were destroyed (587 B.C.; 70 A.D.). Yet again, in 1099 A.D., on the ninth day of this month, the first crusade was declared by Pope Urban II, resulting in the deaths of over 10,000 Jews during just the very first month of that event. Over time, many other tragedies befell the Jews during the month of Av. Without debate, Av is indeed viewed as the "low point" on the Hebrew calendar.

It is easy to understand why individuals or an entire nation, looking to their past full of such dreadful events, would mourn during this time frame and would anticipate little hope for the future. Can you relate? Many, including our household, have faced devastating losses of loved ones, faced financial, business, marriage, or health issues, have been treated very unfairly by others, or all the above. Life is not always easy. Likely, everyone has had incredible challenges of one type or another, often resulting in a terrible hit to our belief in the goodness of God and His faithfulness to us in this life.

Consider David

Esteemed as the very least of his father's household, yet anointed in their presence to be king by the Prophet Samuel, David was subsequently literally "put out to pasture" to care for the sheep. That would have been a terrible blow. He fought a lion and a bear to protect the sheep and his own life. Pursued by King Saul, who even threw a javelin at him, David endured unimaginable hardship and suffering for years. At one point, even his own men wanted to kill him. During these troubles, however, when most would have been crying, "Where are you, God?" David encouraged himself in the Lord.

"And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God."
(1 Samuel 30:6)

The Lord would have us likewise encourage ourselves in Him and in His faithfulness. We are reminded throughout scripture that He is a faithful God; a faithful Creator; Faithful and True is His name; He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and so much more. In his confrontation with Goliath, David recounted how he had killed the bear and the lion and that God was faithful to enable him to kill even this uncircumcised Philistine! Wow! If you think your life has been bad, David's was far worse, yet he encouraged himself in the Lord, and God exalted him in due time. I believe that there is a lesson for us here.

"Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time." (1 Peter 5:6)

Declaring His Glory

When situations challenge us, we need to respond to the challenges as David did: remember, recount, and declare what God has already done in our lives and be fully persuaded that He is faithful to pull us through even this latest obstacle. God is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8), and He is faithful to His word to perform it in our behalf. (see Jeremiah 1:12)

We praise God that at the age of 16 He brought me through cancer, from which I was supposed to be dead within five years even after the surgery and radiation therapy. By the grace of God, over 60 years later, I am still healed, I take no medications, and I have not been to a doctor in more than 50 years!

We praise God that He has provided finances when we were in desperate straits. At one point, years ago, we were three months behind in our mortgage payment, and though we had scraped together everything we could muster, we were still $61 short of enough to meet the minimum payment required to forestall foreclosure. "Out of the blue," we received a check in the mail from a family we had not seen or communicated with in many months, and it was in the amount of… you guessed it, $61.00. Who does that, really - $61.00 dollars? God is faithful!

We praise God that when we again found ourselves in financial distress, the Lord instructed us to use what we had and to sell it. All we had at that point were the historic "Don't Spit on Sidewalk" bricks in our front walk and the lead window weights from our old windows. We obeyed God, and though the story is much longer and totally awesome, the bottom line is that He brought us through again. God is faithful!

We praise God for fixing the transmission in our car. It had been diagnosed with a terminal condition, but we did not have the finances to have it fixed. However, at church, Linda felt led to give a check for $100 to a lady seated close to her in the congregation. The woman called us several days later to say that when Linda gave her the check, she had no idea what it was for, but that the transmission in her car went out the next day and her husband was able to buy a replacement at an auto salvage yard. It cost them exactly $100. Following that exchange, our transmission never again had an issue. It was healed by God! God is faithful!

We praise God for His protection while travelling. While we were driving down the highway in icy conditions, the car in front of us spun out, did a complete 180, and headed directly at us for a head-on crash! At that moment, our daughter cried out "*JESUS!" The Lord turned the car out of the way, and it passed within inches of us without a collision. God is faithful!

We praise God, we have seen Him work in behalf of others through our hands. We prayed for a Jewish gentleman who had just suffered a heart attack while in church. As I placed my hands on his chest and Linda placed hers on his back, he said later that he felt electricity flowing back and forth from one hand to the other, and that it set him free. Beyond that, he was now able to hear out of his left ear that had been damaged by a grenade explosion during WW II and in which he had been deaf since then. He heard Linda praying behind him and recounted that she was praying in the perfect Hungarian dialect of the region where he had served during the war. We knew nothing of his conditions, and we felt nothing during the prayer, but still, God is faithful!

We praise God, we have seen several women, tormented from sexual assault of many years prior, totally set free in a matter of minutes through the laying on of hands and application of pure essential oils in obedience to James 5:14. God is faithful!

We praise God for delivering a six-time world champion bull rider from the trauma of being struck by lightning twice. As Linda and I applied oils and ministered to him, Linda laid her hands on his feet, and I laid my hands on his shoulders, when BAM! I was hit with a jolt of electricity that nearly threw me off the chair. The Lord discharged the electric charge he had been carrying since being struck, and He did it literally through me. Wow! We did not know of his "electric" history, and this was totally unexpected. God is faithful!

I say all this to declare the glory of God, certainly not ours. We have many more such testimonies, and you likely have your own of God's faithfulness. Meditate on them. Declare His faithfulness to you in the past, and expect His continued faithfulness to you today and in the future. Our God will use the foolish things of the world to confound the "wise," and He can use even us "nobodies" for His purposes if we are willing and obedient to yield to His promptings.

The Rest of the Story

Regarding the month of Av, as the former American broadcaster Paul Harvey would say, this is the rest of the story. The 15th of Av, (Tu B'Av) has come to signify the end of several weeks of mourning. It also celebrates several favorable events in Jewish history, and in modern times it has become a romantic holiday among secular Jews who mostly see it as the Jewish equivalent of Valentine's Day. Tu B'Av is the "high point" of the month and a joyous day on the Hebrew Calendar. It celebrates life, love, and reconciliation to God. Tu B'Av has been celebrated as the time of reconciliation for the sin of the 10 spies. More weddings take place in Israel this day than on any other day during the year, and it is said that on a soon-coming day, those who belong to the Lord and are faithful to follow His ways will be blessed with the unspeakable joy of consummating their relationship with Him.

Just as we cherish and hold tightly to the faithfulness of God, so too does He value our faithfulness to Him, for without faith (faithfulness) it is impossible to please Him. Mark 11:22 tells us, "Have faith in God." It is faith which is the key to receiving the blessings of Mark 11:24, "What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." Hebrews 11:1 notes, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Faith is NOW. It is not for the future: it is a present tense reality in the life of every true believer. We thank God for healing NOW, deliverance NOW, needs are supplied NOW, victory is NOW. By Yeshua' stripes I AM healed NOW - present tense. Even though my body might argue against the facts of God's word, I reckon it healed. I choose to agree with the Word of God, and circumstances must come into agreement with it.

In our love for God, we choose to go forth daily, not only with faith and joy for what the Lord has done, but also with great expectation for what the Lord is now doing and what He yet shall do in and through our lives. We expect to see the manifestation of His faithfulness in our lives. He is faithful who has promised, and as we purpose to align our thoughts, our speech, and our lifestyles with God's word daily, we can expect to see His faithfulness to us in the land of the living and beyond.

As a familiar Christian song encourages, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases. His mercies never come to an end. They are new every morning, new every morning. Great is thy faithfulness, O Lord, Great is thy faithfulness."

Rejoice, for God is faithful! Encourage yourself in that fact and know that the best is yet to come! Hallelujah!

So many church members do not understand that we are in a war for the salvation of not just our souls, but nations. Our physical battles are a mirror of our spiritual war. Take more than just a moment and absorb what Nathan Shaw is sharing in this Prophetic word. WB

Nathan Shaw: The Destruction of Fordow - A Prophetic Sign

Kingdom Warriors of Light

God is raising up Kingdom warriors whose sole focus will be the destruction of just one enemy stronghold. It is all too common for those who study dark forces to become darkened in their minds. As warriors of light, we have access to the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of God (Romans 13:12; Ephesians 1:17). This wisdom and revelation brings enlargement and insight and is always full of hope. The Kingdom warriors that God is raising up will be laser-focused on the destruction of specific strongholds, but in the process, they will not become darkened in their minds.

On the 22nd of June 2025, it was reported that Iran's Fordow Uranium Enrichment Plant—a facility hidden deep inside a mountain—had been destroyed by twelve massive bunker-buster bombs during Operation Midnight Hammer. In General Dan Caine's briefing on the operation, he emphasized the work of two unnamed officers who started studying the Fordow facility no less than fifteen years earlier. The following is from General Caine's briefing.

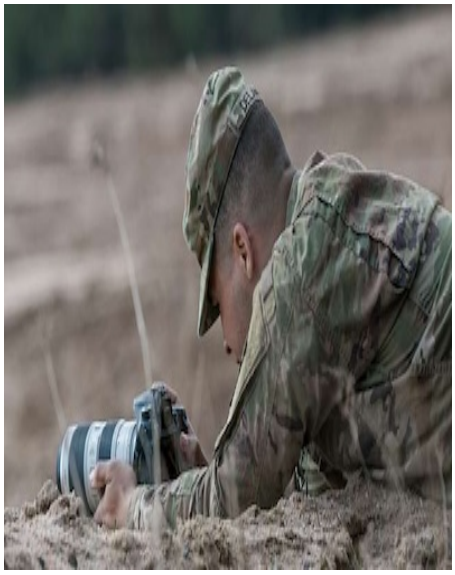

Two Unnamed Officers

"In 2009, a Defense Threat Reduction Agency officer was brought into a vault at an undisclosed location and briefed on something going on in Iran... He was shown some photos and some highly classified intelligence of what looked like a major construction project in the mountains of Iran. He was tasked to study this facility, work with the intelligence community to understand it, and he was soon joined by an additional teammate...

"For more than fifteen years, this officer and his teammate lived and breathed this single target—Fordow—a critical element of Iran's covert nuclear weapons program.

"He studied the geology. He watched the Iranians dig it out. He watched the construction, the weather, the discard material, the geology, the construction materials, where the materials came from. He looked at the vent shaft, the exhaust shaft, the electrical systems, the environmental control systems—every nook, every crater, every piece of equipment going in and every piece of equipment going out. (Photo via GetArchive)

"They literally dreamed about this target at night when they slept. They thought about it driving back and forth to work. And they knew, from the very first days, what this was for. You do not build a multi-layered underground bunker complex with centrifuges and other equipment in a mountain for any peaceful purpose.

"They weren't able to discuss this with their family, their wives, their kids, their friends, but they just kept grinding it out. And along the way, they realized we did not have a weapon that could adequately strike and kill this target, so they began a journey to work with industry and other tacticians to develop the GBU-57 [bunker-buster bombs]. They tested it over and over again, tried different options, tried more after that.

"They accomplished hundreds of test shots and dropped many full-scale weapons against extremely realistic targets for a single purpose: kill this target at the time and place of our nation's choosing. And then, on a day in June of 2025, more than fifteen years after they started their life's work, the phone rang and the president of the United States ordered the B-2 [bomber] force to go strike and kill this target.

"Yesterday, I had the incredible honor and privilege of spending time with these two Defense Threat Reduction Agency officers, who've given so much. One of them said, 'I can't even get my head around this. My heart is so filled with the pride of being a part of this team. I am so honored to be a part of this'...

"Operation Midnight Hammer was the culmination of those fifteen years of incredible work..." [1]

Weapons That Do the Job

In his briefing, General Caine went on to say, "Ultimately, weaponeering is determining the right weapon and fuse combination to achieve the desired effects and maximum destruction against a target...

"The weapons were designed, planned, and delivered to ensure that they achieve the effects in the mission space...

"We think, we develop, we train, we rehearse, we test, we evaluate every single day. And when the call comes to deliver, we do so."[1]

Fifteen years of careful, patient, tactical, and strategic work took out a deeply-embedded facility that was intended for nefarious purposes. (Photo via GetArchive)

Once a stronghold is properly understood, an appropriate weapon can be developed to destroy it. The overall process has several stages:

1. Understand the stronghold.

2. Develop a weapon to destroy the stronghold.

3. Perfect the use of the weapon.

4. Deploy the weapon to bring about the desired outcome.

Destroying Strongholds

Paul makes it clear that we have been equipped with spiritual weapons that destroy spiritual strongholds (2 Corinthians 10:4). One of Yeshua' main purposes while He walked the earth was to destroy the works of the devil (1 John 3:8; Hebrews 2:14–15). We are commissioned to do the same (Luke 10:19). But don't think that this work is done by merely railing at the enemy. More often it is done in hiddenness through careful and patient study of specific strongholds, the deliberate seeking of God's wisdom and revelation, and practiced implementation of strategies that bring destruction.

If God has called you to take out a specific stronghold, stay on the assignment until it is accomplished. In most spiritual battles, both patience and courage are needed. The diligence of unnamed officers can often do more to destroy the works of the devil than people with loud megaphones and large platforms. If your diligence and focus are unnoticed, take heart. God is raising up Kingdom warriors whose sole focus will be the destruction of just one enemy stronghold, but the destruction of that one stronghold will impact generations to come.

God is NEVER RANDOM; God ALWAYS Speaks with REDEMPTIVE Purpose and a Word to Fulfill His Promise

"As The Golden State emerges from The Fires of Purification, the FAT Ones shall come forth to break the yoke over the neck of The Nations!"
https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/the-golden-state-and.../
I heard these Words, "As The Golden State emerges from The Fires of Purification, the FAT Ones shall come forth to break the yoke over the neck of The Nations!" Then I heard, "California! Watch! For a prodigal State shall come back to its senses to be restored and reformed.

"And many have cried out, 'Judgement has come upon California!' but I say, Justice has come and Divine Judgement against the powers and principalities of darkness against the altars of Baal, and the idols that sit upon them!

A Set of Scales at Tipping Point

"I say, The Scales have tipped and a prodigal state that squandered its inheritance has begun to turn and return! I say, California, The Golden State of The United States, shall arise from the ashes and shine, for now My Glory has risen upon you, and kings and all Nations shall be drawn to the brightness of your rising.

"Have I not said, 'Gold! Gold! My Golden State among The Nations?' For surely, I tell you, I shall settle for nothing less in these days than pure gold! Yes — Pure Gold is what I AM looking for in the midst of The Nations. Watch, as My Purifying Fires and My Winnowing Winds now blow forth upon the threshing floor of Nations. See! For in this time, I have marked a people, and I have marked places. So I say to you, California — you are a marked people and a marked place for a visitation of My Glory! Listen! For all of Creation is groaning! For in the midst of the earthquakes, I shall shake and awake the sleeping Sheep Nations, and in the midst of the rising tsunamis, I shall turn the tides and overturn the tables of Goat Nations.

"But I say to you, My Prodigal Golden State Nation in the midst of the burning, there is now a Divine Turning and a Changing of The Guard! For I tell you California you shall surely come to your senses and return and be fully restored! California, fear not, for My Fires shall purify and My Winnowing Winds shall sift and separate!

"Behold! I do a new thing! Do you see it? California, I say, "Come up higher!" Watch, for in the midst of the devastation, I AM bringing forth a mighty demonstration of My Mercy and a supernatural manifestation of My Seven Spirits that shall cause a new move of My Word and My Spirit to go forth like a mighty Whirlwind across these lands!

"I say, get ready! For as My Golden State emerges from The Fires of Purification, so shall my "FAT" Ones come forth FLORIDA, ARIZONA and TEXAS, and the Fatness of their necks shall break the yoke over The Nations of The United States in the coming days!"

I heard The Spirit say concerning Florida, Arizona and Texas, "These shall come forth as Yoke-Breaking States, that shall break, break, break the yoke of woke in the days ahead!"

Note: Please see the following words for context:

"A Now Word for The Nations!"

"The Fatted Calf, The Fat Ones Coming Forth in a Time of Famine;" Florida, Arizona and Texas. "You Say Rapture, but I Say Rupture!" "I showed you My Glory before I showed you The Gory!" So today, I was taken back to this poignant Prophetic Word, "You Say Rapture, but I Say Rupture!"

As I was before The LORD, I heard these Words, "There is a sudden and violent shaking that is coming, that will prepare the foundations of Remnant Nations to carry the weight of My Glory and Great Awakening!"

A few days ago, a friend of mine was sharing with me that she had a powerful dream of a great Tsunami, and then, a week or so later, she had a very significant dream of a mighty earthquake that took place deep underground, one that literally shook the very foundations of Nations.

While we were sharing about her two dreams, I knew by The Spirit that both her Dreams were intrinsically connected. The Spirit of Revelation had shown her first a great Tsunami that was coming to The Nations and then a mighty earthquake that would shake the foundations of Nations. I believe that the Dreams were speaking to a powerful Prophetic Sequence, a poignant kairos time on God's calendar.

I submit, God is now dealing with the Foundations of Nations. The Root Systems of Nations are being meticulously inspected. God is exposing the rot of unrighteous roots that have defiled the fruits, and He is uncovering the cracks and the deep fractures that have brought mixture, and created false foundations.

All that can be shaken will be shaken! God is cleansing and purifying the root systems, and He is taking Nations back to their Covenant Foundations. He must and will prepare the Foundations of Nations before the weight of His Glory can come. The Glory carries great weight, and if the Foundations are not prepared to carry the weight of The Glory — The Glory will bring great destruction and not Divine Restoration!

I heard The Spirit say, "I showed you My Glory before I showed you the gory!" Ha! So, take heart beloved that when the great and violent shaking comes and it surely will know this: the Redemptive Plan of God in the midst of The Gory, is to prepare a resting place for His Glory!

Postscript:
I hear The Spirit say, "In this New Era, like Job, many will say, I knew Him by the hearing of my ears — but now my eyes have seen Him!"

Blessings to you all,

This Is the Month of Settlement
Yvon Attia, Miami, Florida

Word received on June 30, 2025:

He Will Not Rest Until He Handles What Concerns You

As I was in prayer, seeking the heart of God for this new month, the Lord clearly highlighted Ruth 3:18 (NLT): "Then Naomi said to her, 'Just be patient, my daughter, until we hear what happens. The man won't rest until he has settled things today.'"

In that moment, I heard the Lord say, "This is a month of settlement; Not just closure, but divine intervention; not just resolution, but fulfillment."

The word "settled" rang out with authority. He will not rest until He has handled what concerns you.

What Ruth 3 Prophetically Reveals and How It Applies to You Right Now

This prophetic word is birthed out of the revelation in Ruth 3, where Ruth stands at a threshold moment in her journey—from gleaning in the fields to being positioned for covenant and inheritance. Naomi, a voice of mature wisdom, through the Holy Spirit, begins the chapter with a declaration: "My daughter, it's time that I found a permanent home for you, so that you will be provided for."

This was a prophetic call, signaling transition—a shift from survival mode to covenantal rest. For Ruth, this was not just about provision; it was about being positioned in purpose, under divine covering.

Ruth is instructed to prepare herself for a divine encounter. She is told to bathe, "anoint" herself, and put on her best clothes (Ruth 3:3). Each of these steps speaks to us prophetically. The bath symbolizes cleansing and the washing away of the past: repentance, renewal, and sanctification. The perfume represents the anointing and the fragrance of worship and spiritual readiness. The changing of her clothes speaks to a shift in identity—from mourning to expectation, from widowhood to bridehood, from overlooked to chosen.

Then Naomi tells Ruth to go to the threshing floor—a place of separation, refinement, and destiny—and to lie at Boaz's feet. Ruth does not strive. She does not plead. She rests. She places herself in a posture of surrendered trust, quietly submitting herself at the feet of her redeemer. This is a prophetic image of the Bride of Christ drawing near in humility and hiddenness, confident that God will move.

It is in the stillness of the night, in the silence of surrender, that Boaz awakens. The midnight hour becomes the moment of divine response—unexpected and swift.

When Boaz awakens, Ruth makes a bold yet humble request: "Spread the corner of your covering over me" (Ruth 3:9 NLT). This is the language of covenant. In Hebrew, the word "corner" also means "wing," the same word used in Psalm 91:4: "Under His wings you will find refuge." Ruth is not asking for charity; she is asking for identity, protection, and belonging. And Boaz responds with an oath: "As surely as the Lord lives, I will redeem you myself!" (Ruth 3:13 NLT). He takes full responsibility and begins the process to settle the matter that very day. (Photo via GetArchive)

Naomi's final words in the chapter are both prophetic and personal: "Be patient, my daughter... the man won't rest until he has settled [the matter] today" (Ruth 3:18 NLT, brackets mine). This is God's heart for His people in this season. The Lord is not passive; He is already in motion. He has seen your obedience, your humility, your preparation, and now He is moving on your behalf to settle the matter in your favor. He will not rest until your redemption is complete, until the promise breaks forth, until the matter that has caused you to wait, weep, or wonder is finally and fully resolved.

The Month of Divine Reversal

This is a month of divine reversal. A season of transition from gleaning on the margins to sitting at the table, from hiding in the night to rising in the morning light, from being empty-handed to being filled with blessing. God is calling His people to remain in position, not with striving but with surrender—to rest at His feet and trust in His timing. For this is not just a new month; it is a new cycle, a prophetic hour of transition. The threshing floor is behind you. The covering is coming. The covenant is here.

The word of the Lord for July is this: "Be patient, My daughter, My son. I will not rest until I have settled it for you."

The Significance of July, the Seventh Month

This prophetic word of "settlement" aligns powerfully with the biblical significance of the number seven, which marks the seventh month, July. In Scripture, the number seven ("shevah" in Hebrew) is deeply prophetic, symbolizing divine fulfillment, spiritual completeness, and covenant promise. It is rooted in the word "savah" (or "saba," Strong's 7646), meaning "to be full," "satisfied," or to "have enough." This fullness points to God's work at creation, when He rested on the seventh day (Genesis 2:2–3). This rest was not from weariness but from completion; the work was perfect, whole, and nothing needed to be added.

The words relating to savah—"shavat" ("to cease, to rest") and "shabbath" ("sabbath")—echo this theme of fullness and divine rest.

Biblically, seven is also a number of oath and covenant, as seen in Genesis 21:29–31, when Abraham gives seven lambs to Abimelech as a witness to his ownership of the well, thereby naming the place Beersheba, or "well of the oath." God echoes this language in Ezekiel 36:7–12, when He makes a solemn oath to restore and bless His people, declaring He will increase them and cause them to walk again in the land.

Seven also marks prophetic cycles (like Pharaoh's dream of seven years of plenty and seven years of famine in Genesis 41), as well as divine blessing (like in Deuteronomy 28:7, when God promises Israel that their enemies will scatter in seven directions).

God's sevenfold promise to Abraham (Genesis 12:2–3), and His seven "I will" statements in Exodus 6:6–8, further reveal the number's covenantal weight. Thus, July, as the seventh month, is not coincidental. It carries prophetic resonance: the completion of what was promised, the settling of matters by divine oath, and the initiation of a new cycle of rest, favor, and covenantal alignment. This is the appointed time when God says, "I will not rest until I have settled it."

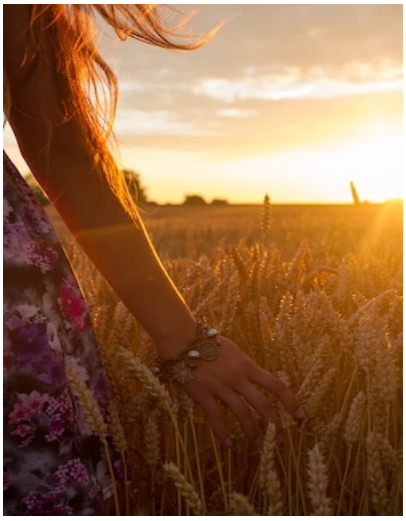

July is not just a midpoint in the calendar; it is a divine hinge, where what was unfinished will be finalized, and what was delayed will be delivered.

A Month of Divine Fulfillment and Deep Rest

The Lord says, "As you step into the month of July, I need you to know this is a month of divine fulfillment and deep rest. But while you rest, I will not rest until I have settled the matter, until I have accomplished what I have promised you.

"This is the time where you will hear My voice declaring, 'It is finished.' A new cycle is beginning. It is time to move. It is time to stop gleaning at the edges and step fully into covenantal provision.

"This is the month to recognize who I am and enter the threshing floor of separation, for I am cutting you off from your past and changing your status. I am transitioning you from widow to bride. You will no longer remember the shame of your youth or the sorrows of your widowhood, for your Creator will be your husband—the LORD of Heaven's Armies is His name! He is your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, the God of all the earth. (Photo via PickPik)

"This is not the time to come to My feet and request covering. It is the time to come to My feet and receive it—My covering of covenant, protection, and provision. It shall be given to you.

"Like Esther, array yourself in your royal attire. Like Ruth, wear the fragrance of the victory of My Son Yeshua. For I will not rest until I have fulfilled My promise to you.

"This is the month where your ground will be plowed and your crops planted. For I, the Lord your God, will greatly increase you and rebuild you. This is the seventh month—the month of the oath. And I say to you, as surely as I live, I will redeem you Myself!

"Your hour of visitation has come, your midnight hour—the moment you least expected Me to move. This is a prophetic hour of transition, a time of immediate divine response. I will respond to your surrendered heart.

"This is a month of deep rest. Rest in the secret place, for the light of a new day is coming. You will not just see the light at the end of the tunnel [but that] the tunnel has ended. You are stepping into a new time of abundance and divine satisfaction, a satisfaction your heart has longed for and desperately needed.

"Here is My promise to you: As you rest, I will not rest—until I have settled the matter in your favor, until I have accomplished all that I have promised you. You are not only stepping into a new cycle but into the very fulfillment of what I promised.

"This is the time to have faith and believe that while you rest, I will do My best. While you lay at My feet, I will settle the matter in your favor and bring you into a NEW STATUS."

NATE JOHNSTON: GOD IS RECLAIMING & RESTARTING YOUR PROPHETIC TIMELINE!

Ok, this is a word for those who have been dealing with years of narcissistic robbery. One of the most pervasive demonic assignments I've ever witnessed in my own life and in the lives of many believers is the Jezebelic assignment. It's been normalized across the body of Christ and in the world, often labeled as narcissism or seen only as a psychological disorder, rather than a spiritually rooted one. Because of this, people don't know how to discern it, confront it, or evict it. It has become more than a spiritual stronghold. It's become a culture. A way of living, responding, and relating that is deeply destructive.

I grew up in this environment, and I would say 90% of the body of Christ has, too. Culture enforces it. Our world, in many ways, is systemically narcissistic. It has caused deep bondage and emotional wounds, even manifesting as mental and physical illness over time.

Last week, as I was sharing prophetic words, going live, and praying over people, we saw many healings break out, especially last Thursday night on our Vision Live. I'm still in awe of what God did. But as I was praying and asking the Lord how He wanted me to address the Jezebelic element, I had a dream.

In the dream, I saw a garden that looked completely dead. Roses that had once bloomed were now black, shriveled, and decayed. The whole garden was poisoned. In the middle of it was a deep pit, and out of that pit grew a short, ugly tree. Its roots spread underneath the entire garden. It reminded me of The Secret Garden, a movie I loved as a child. I knew immediately that the dream was from the Lord.

He was showing me how the Jezebelic spirit has poisoned the gardens of many believers. It's been at the center of our spiritual lives, hidden beneath the surface. We've tried to tend the garden around it, but we've never dealt with the root. Last week, I spoke about catching the foxes from Song of Songs. We manage our pain around this spirit, but now God is saying: Enough is enough. I'm pulling it out.

As I continued to pray, the Lord brought me to the story of Naboth's vineyard in 1 Kings 21. In this passage, Jezebel conspired to steal Naboth's inheritance so she could give it to Ahab. But Naboth refused to sell. His name in Hebrew means "fruits" or "produce" and is closely tied to the idea of prophetic fruitfulness, legacy, and inheritance. In one translation, it represents "prophecies and words" Naboth's vineyard is symbolic of the prophetic call, the anointing, the promises, and the inheritance God has placed on your life. But the Jezebel spirit is a thief. It will lie, manipulate, gaslight, and even kill to rob you of that vineyard. Just like in my dream, it seeks to plant toxic roots in the very soil that was meant to bear fruit. It poisons what was meant to be pure. This is exactly what has happened to so many believers. You've been fighting invisible warfare against something that's been spiritual all along. And every time you try to confront it, in churches, in relationships, in ministries, you get gaslit. You're made to feel like the problem, when in fact, the spirit that's been tolerated is the real issue. But the Lord is saying now: I am taking the root out. I am exposing it, and I am evicting it. That's why it's uncomfortable. That's why everything feels like it's coming to the surface. That's why your mind has been under siege. Because a false foundation is being torn out, so a holy one can be laid.

Then I heard the Lord say something that hit me deeply, and I believe it will hit your spirit too:

"As I uproot this spirit from your life, you will not only be healed in your mind. You will be made whole in your body, your finances, your marriage, your family, and your destiny. I'm not just healing you; I'm reordering your life from beginning to end. I am restarting your prophetic timeline."

Let me say that again: God is restarting your prophetic timeline.

Imagine that dead garden in your life, the one you thought was beyond recovery. Now imagine the root being pulled out, light returning, and life beginning to flourish again. That garden represents your prophetic call, your purpose, your destiny, and the words spoken over you. The things that felt delayed, blocked, or stuck will begin to move. Where there's been no favor, favor will flow. Where doors were shut, doors will now open.

You will reclaim your vineyard.

God says, "I am reclaiming you. This is a Jubilee moment in your life. I am demanding repayment of the robbery of the Jezebel spirit. Everything stolen must be returned. Your inheritance, your health, your time, your voice, your clarity, your legacy, it's all being reclaimed. I am giving you back the vineyard that was stolen."

Now let me pray:

In the mighty name of Yeshua, I command every Jezebelic assignment, every generational stronghold that has taken root in your life, to be uprooted now. Be broken from your heart, your calling, your destiny, and your mind. Be uprooted in Yeshua's name. I decree Jubilee over you. The Jezebel spirit is being overthrown. The vineyard is being reclaimed. Your prophetic garden is coming alive again. The delay is over. Cycles are breaking, and the play button has been hit.

Your prophetic timeline starts again today.

And finally, I release this charge to you.

This moment will require courage. It will require boundaries. You will be called to confront some relationships, environments, and mentalities that have tolerated the spirit God is removing. It's time to say, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord," and walk in it.

No more compromise. No more confusion.

No more being stuck and your destiny on hold.

Two Flags Becoming One

The powers of darkness do not like the Appeal to Heaven flag, which is not surprising since it is a call to prayer. This flag, commissioned by George Washington and proudly flown by our Founding Fathers, generated prayer that birthed America. And the following vision, given to Gina Gholston, reminds us that God is not finished with this important banner. The vision and its meaning will encourage you. The title of her vision and comments is:

Two Flags Becoming One

America recently celebrated her 249th birthday. I firmly believe it is by God's sovereignty and for His purposes that our nation exists. It's not with haughty pride that we believe and state this, but with sincere desire to honor Him and ensure that His original intentions for America are fulfilled. We have been entrusted with this prophetic destiny; we must humbly and intently take our place as His representatives in order to see it fulfilled.

On this past July 4th, I was reminded of a significant vision the Lord gave me in 2020. Though Dutch shared this vision with you a few years back, I felt the Holy Spirit wanted us to revisit it.

On May 28, 2020, I received a vision of an American flag being wadded up in someone's hands. It was then spread out once again, and had become wrinkled, thin, and weak. Then, the flag began to "bleed," becoming saturated with blue and red stains, which completely covered it. In this stained, wrinkled and weakened state, it looked as if the flag would simply fall apart.

Then, I saw an Appeal to Heaven flag floating downward. It was laid over the top of the stained and limp American Flag, completely covering it. However, the Appeal to Heaven flag not only covered the American flag - but it also actually penetrated it! As it did, the stains from the bleeding began to disappear and the stars and stripes began appearing again. The American flag was being revived and re-formed.

When finished, the two flags had not only been united, but were also forged into one solid piece of steel. The Appeal to Heaven flag had been infused into the American flag, and was now part of it, though the appearance of the combined flags was that of the Stars and Stripes. And the Appeal to Heaven flag had solidified the American flag.

Then I heard the Lord say: "This is what I Am doing! I Am forging together the church and the nation. This will strengthen the nation again. America will revive, heal, rise up and reform as the nation I birthed it to be."

God's Original Plan

Our roots as a nation are not in our flawed history; they're in Almighty God, for it was He Who birthed America to be a radiant light of His love and salvation to the world. Imagine the pilgrims who first came to this land, standing on the shoreline of their destiny, breathing a deep sigh of relief that they had survived the voyage. Imagine them falling to their knees under the overwhelming awareness that what was unfolding in the days ahead was about God's plan of the ages. These pilgrims were not just carving out a new life for themselves; they were taking their place on the timeline of history, building their part of God's plan. I cannot imagine the mix of emotions within them as they felt the sands of the New World beneath their feet, and gazed upon this beautiful land. Their initial thoughts were definitely toward God, for they planted a cross, prayed and declared, "From these very shores the Gospel shall go forth to not only this New World, but the entire world."

The wrinkles of a not-so-perfect history cause some to believe that the prophetic destiny of America is weak, irrelevant, and forever lost. Or perhaps even that no such destiny ever existed. But it did, and America shall be saved, her righteous history and destiny restored.

In this vision of 2020, the Appeal to Heaven flag was representative of the prayer movement in our nation. Our sincere return to God, along with our fervent, righteous prayers have become a force that is strengthening the nation. Because of this, America will revive, heal, rise up, and reform as the nation God birthed it to be.

The Church has been awakened, at least in part. There is a remnant that has been aroused from their slumber and remembered their divine heritage. The destiny of God in us has met up with the timing of God for us, and caused a vicious passion for God's Kingdom purposes to be restored. We see the distress that we are in, yet we believe and know that transformation is coming! We hear the voice of the Lord echoing through time: "If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land" (2 Chronicles 7:14).

We are not given to despair; we are given to fervent prayer. And God will heal our land. His words to Israel are fitting for the church and for America: "Fear not, for I Am with you; be not dismayed, for I Am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand" (Isaiah 41:10).

America is NOT defeated. She may be battered and bruised, but she will not die. We will live and declare the works of the Lord! We are one nation under God! The verdict has been determined: "America shall be saved!"

Pray with me:

Father, we, Your church, have been built up and strengthened to advance Your Kingdom in America and the world. You have empowered us to release Your life, awaken hope and send Your light into the earth to dispel the darkness. We will utilize our spiritual weapons to pull down every stronghold and stop hell's attempts to overthrow Your original purposes for America. We know that life and hope are being restored. An awakening has begun that will surge across the land and awaken the conscience of our nation. Holy Spirit's wind is blowing, hope is rising, darkness is retreating, and You are strengthening America!

As we declare our faith in what You are doing to restore America, we also continue to pray for those affected by the floods in Texas, New Mexico, and North Carolina. Please bring comfort to those impacted, as they deal with loss and devastation. We ask for Your help and protection to the rescue teams as they continue to search for victims. And we ask for grace to those ministering to hurting people.

We also continue asking that supernatural wisdom be given to government officials as they work to "flesh out" the restoration beginning in our nation. We pray for President Trump, Speaker Johnson, Majority Leader Thune, and those working with them. We also ask for Your protection and wisdom over our leaders at the state and local levels. And we pray for Your protection over those in ICE and other law enforcement agencies. Please help us end violence and bring peace to our land. In Yeshua's name we pray all of these things, amen.

Our decree:

We declare that America will revive, heal, arise and reform, becoming the nation Yahweh birthed her to be.

AV 9, 5785: Sunday-August 3, 2025

The 9th of AV is historically the worst day of the year.
What breaks that yoke and history is Worship! WB

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'AS YOU WORSHIP, BARRIERS, CONTAINMENTS AND HARD GROUNDS ARE BREAKING OPEN'

Recently, I had a vision, and I saw many with raised hands in worship, and their eyes were filled with such awe and wonder of who Yeshua is – truly a deep place of beholding Him. I could feel the sense in the spirit of such devotion to the Lord and worshipping Him in Spirit and in truth (John 4:24)

I then began to hear the sound of things shattering, and I began to see barriers and containments breaking open. There was a violent breaking through and breaking open, and I was struck so deeply again by how much happens in the spirit that we don't even realize or perceive as we worship. I could feel the sense so strongly of how worship is warfare: and I could see hosts of angels being dispatched as worship of our beautiful Yeshua was resounding from the lives of these precious saints.

As I leaned in and listened to His heart, I heard:
'My people, I am doing much that you do not see as you worship Me. I am bringing you deeper into My reality – the reality in which you truly live. I am bringing you deeper into communion with Me as you worship. I am bringing you deeper into seeing Me and seeing who I am, and the transformation that is taking place as you worship is far greater than you see.

'The enemy has tried so hard in this season to keep your eyes on the ground and to keep your eyes fixed on the barriers, the containments and the hard grounds. But I say unto you, that as you worship I am recalibrating your perspective and your vision. For where many have magnified the barriers, the containments and the hard grounds, I am bringing you deeper into the place of encountering Me and My Majesty. I say unto you, that where eyes have been fixed on barriers, containments and hard grounds, in worship I am lifting your eyes up higher.

'As you worship Me there is a sound of repentance rising to Me, as many come to a deeper realization and revelation that you were not created to live with your eyes on the ground and your eyes on the natural realm. You were created to live ever growing and increasing in revelation of who I am: the One who is not contained, the One whose power knows no bounds and the One who has grafted you in to live in the heavenly reality that, in Me, all things are possible to those who believe (Mark 9:23).

'Where there has been such a battle over your perspective and vision, where your flesh has continued to want to magnify the barriers, containments and hard grounds – and their impossibility – where the enemy has flooded you with natural realm perspectives and accusations and lies, as you worship Me, I am bringing you into such an increased panoramic vision of what I am speaking, what I am doing and what I am going to do. But you must remain steadfast in your worship and recognize there is a significant battle taking place; it's the battle of what you will behold. Meditate not upon the barriers and containments and hard grounds, but meditate upon Me and My Majesty as you come deeper in worship of Me.

'My people, I say unto you that you have entered days where you are going to see in greater ways what happens when you worship Me. You have entered days where your eyes shall be opened in greater ways to the movement of My Spirit and My angelic hosts as you worship. I say unto you, that the enemy has come so hard against many of you to attempt to hinder your movement and your momentum by trying to lure you into agreement of the impossibility of the natural realm barriers, containments and hard grounds.

'I say unto you, the enemy has come against many, attempting to sow seeds of lies about My character and My goodness – as barriers, containments and hard grounds shouted louder and louder and you have had to stand and remain in the truth of My goodness and My nature. I am for you and not against you (Rom 8:31), and My ways are good (Psalm 18:30). Oh, the depths of revelation of My nature and My goodness, My power and My love that is increasing and will continue to rapidly increase in the place of worship. Not only am I healing hearts in worship, but I am supernaturally bringing you into a greater place of expectancy and revelation of My power.

'I say unto you, watch barriers, containments and hard grounds break in greater ways than you have ever seen. Keep your eyes on Me. Behold Me in worship. Exalt My name, as My name is above EVERY other name, and there is no greater name than My name, and I am about to make My name known in ways you have never seen before. Do not be mesmerized, distracted or bound to focus upon these barriers, containments and hard grounds. Lift up your eyes and worship Me. Watch how I will do more in one day as you worship Me than could ever be done in the natural. I am moving to raise up My people as worship warriors, being awakened to the power of praise and the power of worship. Where there has been a battle over what you behold, fix your heart and eyes on Me and behold ME.

'My River of refreshment is crashing over you and filling you as you worship. I am breaking down the barriers, I am smashing the containments, I am breaking open the hard grounds. Worship and dance upon the hard grounds. Declare My name. Speak My name over the barriers, containments and hard grounds and watch how My hand moves to remove them and break them open to make way for My Glory. Where there have been the greatest containments, barriers and hard grounds in this season, are going to be places of some of the greatest outpouring of My Spirit, My oil and My Glory.'

Terry Freisen: The Undiscovered Kingdom

Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." (Genesis 1:26 NKJV)

We've read this verse so often that just maybe we are too familiar with it. This last week, the Lord read this verse to me and emphasized certain aspects of the verse. "Let US make man in OUR image, according to OUR likeness."

Earlier this year, I struggled to find the new rhythm of the Lord in my life, and it got to a point of desperation, to the point where I was willing to hear something completely new, a departure from my former thinking.

In the midst of great warfare and confusion, I heard Holy Spirit say, "Abide in the Father." Under normal circumstances, I would have overlooked this phrase and pressed further into abiding in Christ, because of course, when I am in Christ, I am in the Father. But I was desperate to hear and know how to proceed, and this phrase was distinctly different.

In that moment, I yielded my intentionality to abiding in the Father, and I started to experience a new and different aspect of the Father's nature wash over me, settle me, and ground me into an immovable reality; a reality that was not subject to any other reality.

Yes, Christ is the answer. He is the gateway, but His chief desire is to present us to the Father, and in so doing He has made a way for us to abide in the Father through His finished work. As the months have passed, I cannot escape this realm of abiding. It is a form of abiding that runs deeper than my previous 30 years of encounter have demonstrated. He is establishing in me something connected to the Father's person and nature that is living, breathing, loving, but not subject to what happens around me.

One would think this could also start to lead me into stubbornness or an immovable structure, but that hasn't happened. Interestingly enough, I still find myself abiding in Christ, who is always willing to serve, to yield, to give, to overcome, to die for the sake of the Father's cause. Even more surprising is the fact a part of me is abiding in the Father, another part of me is abiding in Christ, and yet another part of me is crying out for a greater move of Holy Spirit.

Fast forward to the last couple weeks. I have been travelling with my family, somewhat disconnected from work, so the Lord plunged me into a 3-week immersive intercessory assignment. By His grace, I have found myself united to Christ, to the Father, being led of Holy Spirit and finding no independence between us for this entire time. The pull to yield, the pull to be in full immersive coupling with the Father has been beyond my comprehension during this period.

It is in the midst of this place the Lord started to speak.

Mankind has routinely sought for new lands and new freedoms whenever their faith or freedom has been stifled. The most recent example in modern society was the founding of the US and Canada. Countless millions left their homelands in search of freedom, and freedom to express their faith. He asked me, "Where will you (mankind) go now?" It's an interesting question. For the first time in all of the earth, mankind has no undiscovered country to flee to, and the constraints of the west have left us wanting more.

I heard His echo of wisdom, "All humanity has been perfectly positioned to seek freedom, and not finding any options, they will now seek for a new freedom, the freedom that is only available in the greatest of all undiscovered realms, My Kingdom." At that moment, I was taken into a vision and found myself on the precipice of a great and vast undiscovered territory, full of zeal and excitement for what is yet to be discovered. I also heard in that moment, "My people are at a place where they understand and comprehend less than 3% of my Kingdom."

Now, it is possible than some have received and walked in greater Kingdom revelations, and some have operated in far more than 3% by simply obeying the leading of Holy Spirit, but in large part, we struggle to comprehend and understand His Kingdom. I would also suggest, even the most learned among us are not aware of vast swaths of territory still to be revealed.

As I've been praying about the exciting journey ahead, the Lord has started to open my eyes ever so slightly. Several mornings in a row, I awoke and saw things I have never seen and would struggle to comprehend, let alone describe – things that have never entered my mind and have never even been a consideration in the past. For now, I won't attempt to describe these experiences except that His Kingdom is greater, fuller, more expansive, and all-encompassing that we can imagine.

He has my attention!

In the place of waiting and pondering these things, the Lord has been waking me in the early morning hours to sit with Him and contemplate the things which I do not know. He is starting with foundations and perspectives.

In the verse at the start of this piece, "Let US make man in OUR image, according to OUR likeness," do we realize that an aspect of our nature has been made in the likeness of the Father; An aspect of our nature has been made in the likeness of Christ; An Aspect of our nature has been made in the Likeness of Holy Spirit?

We know at this point we are multifaceted beings, wonderfully and fearfully made, but this concept goes beyond what I was taught previously. I have learned and am learning to abide in Christ, and now the Father, and to some degree, Holy Spirit. In fact, we have been created to abide in all three dimensions of the Trinity at the same time and operate in a spiritual and physical dimension that encompasses His nature.

Abiding in Christ makes it possible for us to abide in the Father, to abide in Holy Spirit, and to rule and reign in His Kingdom.

This is a thought-provoking revelation, and as I began to understand the significance of this, it became clear how it relates to our current situation. The Father's Kingdom, of which Yeshua is King, is multifaceted and integrates with who we have been created to be. There are aspects of His Kingdom which respond to the Father's nature within us, and the nature of Christ within us, and the nature of Holy Spirit in us.

We start to realize full Sonship when we walk in the Father's nature, the Son's nature, and the Holy Spirit's nature. Each aspect of the Godhead has uniqueness, and yet are one. We have been created in His likeness, and each aspect of our nature, in Him, has purpose and relevance, especially when we start to walk more fully in His Kingdom. To be clear, we are the vessel. The aspect in us created after the nature of the Father will abide in the Father, and the same for Christ and Holy Spirit.

At any point, our God can choose to rest upon us in whatever capacity He chooses, but I believe His desire is to form His nature into us, in the very places that He has prepared from the time of our creation.

Now then, does each member of the Trinity have a place in the Kingdom of God? Is it fair to say that in the operation of His Kingdom, each is united (one), but functionally, they operate in different capacities? So then, do the different aspects of our nature, created in His likeness.

We are being invited into a fresh journey of discovery into a realm we've heard about, talked about, maybe even experienced to a certain degree, but I would say is largely undiscovered. I am refreshed at the thought of what is to come and realize that part of the reason we have not fully entered in is that we have not fully understood or comprehended.

There is a very real and vibrant connection between us, as Sons (Daughters) of the King and His Kingdom. There are known and spoken connections, and I would propose unknown and unspoken connections. This connection must relate to WHO we ARE in the Godhead, and not just what we do, or what we say. The doing and saying are mere reflections of who we are in Him.

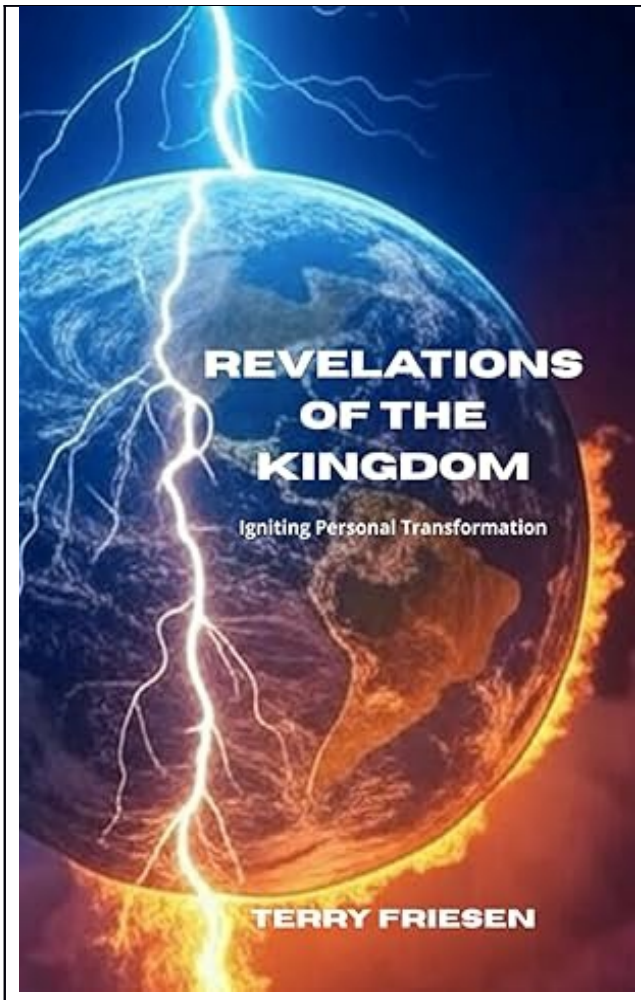

As we become in greater dimensions like the Father, like the Son, like Holy Spirit, our language and actions will demonstrate that changes are taking place within us and in the awareness of who we are.

If we walked in the full revelation of Sonship and the full knowledge and understanding of the Kingdom, would the world be in the state it is in? I would suggest not. Yes, we are Sons; yes, we abide in His kingdom, but we must be brought into the fullness thereof, and the evidence will be all around us as we do.

The best is yet to come.
The journey is before us.
The joy of the Lord goes with us as we discover the great and marvelous things He has kept for us for this time of advancement.

Kathi Pelton: You Will Receive Change for Change

"All I Have Is Change"

Starting in 2002 my family began living in British Columbia, serving as the directors of a house of prayer that Patricia King had opened the year before called "The War Room." As US citizens living in a foreign country, we could not receive income or a salary. Therefore, we were dependent on the Lord to lead people to give us gifts of support to provide for our family of six as we served in this position. Actually, this is still how we live as we continue to serve wherever the Lord leads us to go.

On one particular Sunday in 2005, we were in a place financially of what I'd call "dire straits." We were out of money with the exception of some change in the bottom of my purse. In British Columbia, they have one and two-dollar coins called "loonies" and "toonies" (the loonie is a one-dollar coin and the toonie is a two-dollar coin). I had both loonies and toonies, equaling $7 total, which I had been holding on to for milk for our family. We had no idea when or where more provision would come from, but we were trusting the Lord to come through once again.

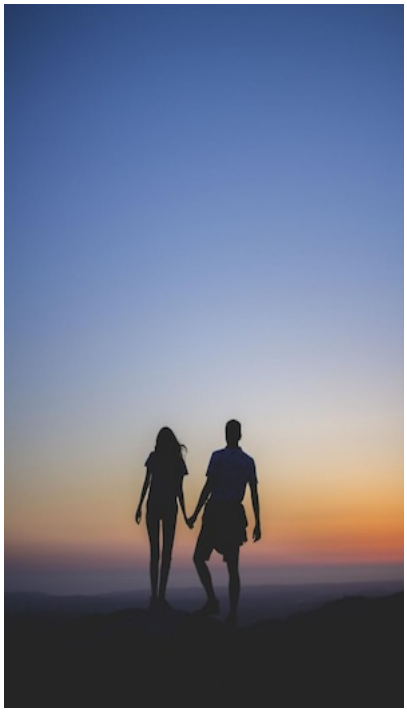

On that Sunday morning, the Spirit of the Lord asked me to give my all. I thought, "All I have is change." But once again, I heard the Lord ask me to give it all. So, when the offering plate came by, I put all of my money into it, all seven dollars—all my change.

Somehow, we made it through that week, but still nothing came in to help us financially. These moments tested our faith but produced endurance and character in us.

The Loonie-Toonie Offering

The next Sunday our church had an unusually large crowd because it had just hosted a large conference, and many of the attendees had remained on site to join in our Sunday service.

After worship, one of the leaders stood up and said that when he woke up that morning the Lord had shown him a couple who had given sacrificially of their lives by moving from their nation and leading the house of prayer.

He then called out our names and asked us to come forward. We were taken quite by surprise and went forward. He then placed two chairs in front of the stage and said, "I saw the Lord pouring change over them! Come and pour out all the change that you have over them!" He called it a "Loonie-Toonie Offering," which was what I had given the week before. He had no idea what I had done, so this was the sweetest kiss from our heavenly Father, who was the only one who had seen what I had done. (Photo via Freerange Stock)

People began to come forward, pouring out their coins into our laps. Then they began to give bills and checks. We were literally showered in change and provision. When the offering was done, over $7,000 was poured over us! We went from offering $7 to receiving $7,000!

"Change for Change!"

This memory has been brought back to my mind over and over again recently, because I just shared this story at a women's event where I was speaking.

Whenever the memory comes, I hear the words "Change for Change"! I've heard this before, and now I am hearing it again.

My sense is that God is about to change the condition of many who have been in what feels like "dire strait" circumstances, or who have reached a place where things have dried up. He may ask you for an offering, and if He does, know that your seed will bring forth more than you can hold.

The disciples listened to the voice of the Lord when they had caught nothing, and He asked them to throw their fishing nets on the other side. Their act of faith resulted in a catch bigger than their nets could hold. The young boy who gave his five fish and two loaves to the disciples resulted in the miraculous multiplication that fed five thousand. I have found that often in the times when everything stands against us in the natural—when things have dried up—is when we are on the verge of a supernatural intervention and breakthrough. The end is often the signal of a new beginning. A change is coming.

The End Is the Signal of a New Beginning

Change is coming! I see gold coins raining down from Heaven, but as they come upon you, they are becoming the change that you need! It may be a change of circumstances or a change of location, assignments, jobs/positions, etc., but change is coming! It may even be the provision that you need.

I see this happening not only for individuals and families, but for cities, regions, and nations. There may be an offering that the Lord is asking His people for in all of these spheres, or even in your family, like He did when He asked me for my change. Whatever the offering is that He asks for, it will become the "trip wire" to release the supernatural change that needs to occur. The Body of Christ is being invited to participate in an offering that will open up the winds of change. (Photo via StockCake)

This is the hour of transition, crossing thresholds, and change for many of you. Do not hold back, but give your all. Give an offering of praise, an offering of thanksgiving, and of sacrifice that is pleasing to the Lord. Be the trip wire for your change! What is the Spirit of the Lord asking of you?

Today is the day. Angels with bags of change are posted and waiting to see upon whom to pour out the offering, and the places where change is to break forth. This is a heavenly currency that will manifest as a natural change upon those who enter into what the Spirit of the Lord is asking—upon families and over regions/nations.

Raise a HALLELUJAH! Change is about to come down!

Rosangela Atte: Don't Focus on the Giants, Focus on the Grapes!

A Word for All Those in Transition

To those who feel the final stages of labor pressing in: You've had to leave what was comfortable, familiar, and secure. You've stepped into uncharted territory—unfamiliar, uncertain, yet undeniably God-ordained. You know He's the one calling you forward, and that's why you keep stretching, keep pressing, even when the obstacles feel insurmountable.

You are not alone; God is with you. To you, beloved, He is saying, "Don't focus on the giants, focus on the grapes." The promise is still good. The fruit is still there. And He will bring you into the land.

"See, the Lord your God has given you the land. Go up and take possession of it." (Deuteronomy 1:21 NIV)

As I transition into a new season—one that feels completely new, unfamiliar, and unknown—I've been asking the Lord to give me boldness, confidence, and the grace to fully rely on Him, not on my own strength.

"The one who calls you is faithful, and He will do it." (1 Thess 5:24 NIV)

When I think about what I'm leaving behind and look ahead at what's in front of me, I won't lie, there are moments when I feel intimidated. But as I keep plowing and sowing in obedience, I've been hearing the Lord whisper this to my spirit over and over again: "Don't focus on the giant, focus on the grapes."

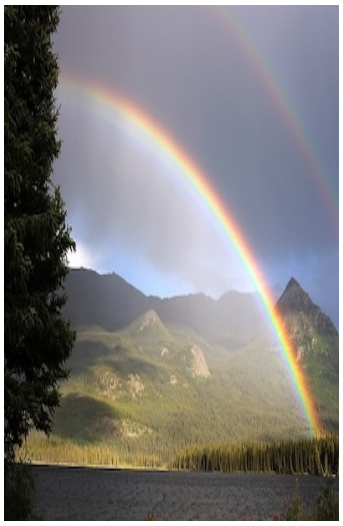

Don't Let the Giants in Your Promised Land Define You

Of course, the first thing that came to mind was Numbers 13, when Moses sent twelve spies to scout the land of Canaan, the Promised Land. All twelve saw the same land. All twelve saw the same giants. All twelve saw the same grapes. But only two (Joshua and Caleb) came back with a faith-filled report:

"Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it." (Numbers 13:30 NKJV)

God had already spoken; the land was already promised. The outcome was already determined. But when the twelve spies stepped into Canaan, they didn't just see the promise; they also saw the problems. Yes, the land flowed with milk and honey. Yes, the grapes were so large they had to be carried by two men. The fruit was proof, evidence that the land was exactly what God said it would be. "[T]hey cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes. Two of them carried it on a pole between them" (Numbers 13:23 NIV). But ten of the spies came back with fear-filled eyes. They saw giants, not goodness. They saw obstacles, not opportunity. They said, "We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes" (Numbers 13:33 NIV). (Photo via PickPik)

That's what fear does:

• It shrinks your vision.

• It distorts what's possible.

• It diminishes your faith.

• It elevates the enemy and minimizes the Word of God.

• It highlights what we were never meant to focus on.

But Joshua and Caleb were different. They had a different spirit. They didn't deny the giants; they just refused to be defined by them.

"But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land." (Numbers 14:24 ESV)

Run with Faith at Your Giants

They had the same spirit David had when he ran toward Goliath. They knew that God was with them. They knew the promise was sure. They knew that the same God who spoke to Moses had also promised Joshua that the land would be theirs. (Photo via GetArchive)

"What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31 NKJV)

That's what faith does, it propels you into God's promises, while fear paralyzes you and keeps you outside of them.

"We walk by faith, not by sight." (2 Corinthians 5:7 KJV)

"God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." (2 Timothy 1:7 NKJV)

The ones who focused on the grapes entered the land. The ones who magnified the giants died in the wilderness. Fear kept them from what faith could have claimed.

Your promise is greater than your problem. His faithfulness is stronger than your fear. And if He said it, He will bring it to pass, "for He who promised is faithful" (Hebrews 10:23 NKJV).

Every time we're about to step into a higher realm or a greater calling, we're faced with opposition. Giants always stand in the land we're meant to occupy. Why? Because God wants to know, "Do you truly trust Me? Do you believe I will do what I said? Do you believe you are who I say you are? Do you believe I would entrust you with this level of influence?" Because it's never been about your ability. It's always been about the One who lives inside you.

Be Strong and Courageous—God Is with You!

Walking in God's will doesn't eliminate opposition; it actually attracts it. Obedience won't remove the giants, but it will give you power to overcome them, because when you walk in obedience, you walk in favor, and nothing can stand against the favor of God.

"No weapon formed against you shall prosper." (Isaiah 54:17 NKJV)

The grapes represent blessing. They represent abundance. They represent the faithfulness of God. They are proof that the land is blessed, just as He said. But He never said there wouldn't be resistance. In fact, the constant reminder to Joshua, "be strong and courageous," is proof that there will be. (Photo via Unsplash)

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." (Joshua 1:9 NIV)

Still, He promised, "I will be with you, just as I was with Moses" (Joshua 1:5 CSB).

Canaan represented the fulfillment of God's covenant—a place of rest, of identity, of possession. It was a physical picture of a spiritual reality. And while God promises the land, we still must possess it.

Every time I go to Him with fear in my heart, He says, "Haven't I told you? Be strong and courageous."

I say, "But, God, the giants are so much bigger than me!"

He answers, "Yes, I know. But haven't I told you, be strong and courageous?"

I respond, "I know, God. but look how small I am!"

He says, "Haven't I told you I am with you. just as I was with Moses?"

Beloved, if God says He is with you, and that you will conquer that giant, you must believe Him. The giants we face today may look different than the ones in Canaan, but their assignment is the same—to keep the children of God from stepping into their inheritance. But I've got good news: the One who conquered giants back then hasn't changed. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

So don't focus on the giants; focus on the grapes, because the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob is the same God who fights for you today.

"Yeshua Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." (Hebrews 13:8 NIV)

"I am the Lord, and I do not change." (Malachi 3:6 NLT)

NATE & CHRISTY

A few weeks ago, I woke up in the middle of the night from a dream. In the dream, the windows of a house were left open, and an intruder was trying to get inside. I woke up in a mild panic and began walking through my own home, making sure every single window and door was shut, the lights were off, and the house was secure.

As I walked back upstairs to go to bed, I suddenly felt the presence of God. I knew this was spiritual. It wasn't just a bad dream. It was a prophetic sign.

The Lord began to show me that He is calling many believers, especially families, into a greater level of spiritual alertness for the hour ahead. He is calling us to fortify and reset the foundations of our homes. To protect our marriages, our children, and our livelihoods from the subtle and strategic attacks of the enemy who comes like an intruder to rob and destroy.

The Scripture says in 1 Peter 5:8, "Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour." This was the verse that came to my heart as I asked the Lord what He was saying. I felt strongly that the Lord was showing me how targeted families have become in this season.

Many homes are under spiritual fire.

There have been a wide range of attacks over the past six months, and especially recently. Why? Two reasons. First, because the enemy sees that family will be the vehicle of revival and reformation in the days ahead. Second, because we are entering a time where revival will be birthed, not through organizational structure, but through genuine connection, authentic family, and spiritual community.

Right now, God is strengthening His people. He is leading families into a season of deliverance, healing, and the rebuilding of spiritual walls around homes and marriages.

I believe that for many, attacks have come from every angle to deplete your home, shake your marriage, scatter your family, and wear you down. But the Lord is saying, "I am restoring all of it."

We are still in a season of migration and divine repositioning. God is resettling families into new, fresh places, physically, spiritually, and emotionally so they can step back into prophetic promises that were laid down or lost in past seasons.

This word is for those of you who have felt the attacks on your homes increasing this year. Attacks on marriages and relationships. Attacks on your children. Attacks on your finances and provision. Attacks on your peace. Sickness, spiritual heaviness, anxiety, torment, chatter, and even witchcraft.

The Lord says, "I see it. I am in the midst of it. And I am countering every assignment of the enemy with healing and deliverance."

Where the enemy wants to expose and destroy, God is revealing to restore. He is allowing things to surface, not to shame or scatter you, but to bring divine order and realignment to your family. The enemy has overplayed his hand, but God is using it to expose hidden contaminants and robbers, and He is breaking strongholds that have long held families captive.

What if this was the season you waved goodbye to the narcissistic attacks and jezebelic assault on your home once and for all?

Just like Nehemiah, who knew the moment to rise and rebuild, we are in that moment now. Nehemiah 4:14 says, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."

We are standing in what I believe is a 4:14 moment.

It's where Esther 4:14 (the kairos moment) meets Nehemiah 4:14 (building the family) so we aren't tossed around and robbed (Ephesians 4:14) and step into our John 4:14(fresh baptism) as families.

Yes, there's a fresh baptism and outpouring coming to your household!

(I had just finished writing this word this morning when I walked past our oven and saw the time - 4:14! I took my phone out to take a photo of it and I was too late. It switched to 4:15. So I looked up Nehemiah 4:15.

"And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their plot to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work" (Nehemiah 4:15)

Wow! What was God saying? The plot came to NOTHING! That will preach!!)

There is a shift of focus in this season. There is a weight of glory coming that requires new foundations to be built now. This is a "level-up" season.

This is an "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" moment (Joshua 24:15). God is awakening men and women who have been spiritually asleep. He is calling watchmen to take their post again. To guard their homes from every spiritual intruder and demonic assignment.

The Scripture declares in Psalm 127:1, "Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labor in vain."

I believe many have unknowingly been building on unstable foundations. But God is saying, "I am rebuilding homes upon Me." He is shifting people out of the sinking sand of past seasons and ideologies and bringing them back into alignment with His Word and His heart.

This is what God is doing right now, bringing His people back to strong foundations so they are no longer swayed by every wave or storm.

There's a Scripture that speaks of safety in His presence: "The lion shall not be there" (Isaiah 35:9). This is a prophetic picture. As we begin to fortify our homes, we will come into a place where the enemy cannot devour, cannot infiltrate, cannot bite, and cannot even speak. His mouth is being shut.

And finally, to every family that feels stuck, I want to tell you - There is movement you don't yet see.

God is doing more in your home than you can currently perceive. You might not feel it. You might not see it. But He is working deeply, and quietly, behind the scenes.

He is establishing you. He is recalibrating you. And He is bringing you out of a dark night season that has warred against your house. He is restoring your finances, your clarity, your authority.

I hear the Lord declaring over you again from Deuteronomy 6:10-11, He is bringing you into a land, a promise, a space you did not build yourself. You will inherit homes, land, and stability you could not establish on your own.

So, I pray over you now, in the mighty name of Yeshua: That where you have been the target of the enemy for many months or even years, God is reversing the assignment. You are moving from being under siege to standing in strength.

God is bringing you out of the place of attack. He is shifting you from being the target to becoming the threat.

You are moving from defense into offense; from being robbed to taking back what was stolen. The days of merely surviving are ending. The days of spiritual retaliation are beginning.

On the other side of these attacks, families will not remain the target. They will become the builders, the reformers, and the occupiers of new Kingdom territory.

You are placing the target back on the enemy's head. You are advancing. You are reclaiming. You are taking back ground.

I prophesy this will be a week of turnaround. A week where what has been stolen begins to be restored. Where the tide of attack begins to shift.

Specifically, I declare breakthrough in finances and peace over homes. Let financial pressure break. Let supernatural provision flow. Let anxiety leave. Let the atmosphere in your home be filled with peace again.

And if you've been dealing with nightmares, foreboding fear or torment in your sleep or in your children, I break that now in the name of Yeshua. It has no authority in your home.

Lastly, just as I did in my dream, there is a fresh call to guard the home and pray. It's time to wake from slumber and vigilantly watch over our homes again, in Yeshua's name.

"SENDING OUT AN S.O.S.!"

A Distress Call is Being Heard in the Realm of the Spirit — Time to Wake Up!
In the early hours of this morning, I had a strange Dream experience. I was half in and out of sleep, when I was lifted high above The Nations, and suddenly, a sound began to rise up from The Nations.

As I listened, I heard a strange but somewhat familiar sound that I remembered hearing in my teenage years — the sound and tune of an old Song by a band called "The Police." Suddenly, I heard the lyrics from the chorus of the song; "I'm sending out an S.O.S! I'm sending out an S.O.S! I'm sending out an S.O.S!"
Again and again, the Sound and the Song got louder and louder in my Dream.

Now, as I listened and watched intently, I saw Nations in The Valley of Decision.
I saw Nations on the Threshing Floor, and Nations standing at a Crossroads.
I saw great chaos and violent conflicts. Wars and New Wars are beginning to unfold.
I saw Nations in turmoil and in trouble.

I saw Terror Attacks, both sudden and meticulously orchestrated. I saw raging flood waters rising on one side causing great destruction, and yet, devastating Fires and Famines, and many dying of starvation on the other. I saw the waters of the seas being violently stirred up and massive Tsunami Waves forming as Earthquakes deep beneath the sea suddenly erupted. I saw a deadly avalanche that brought great destruction.
I saw the light of the sun over some Nations being completely blocked out by rising ash clouds from volcanoes that suddenly exploded. I saw a catastrophic explosion in a Iconic City that shook the Nation to its core. I saw a Landmark Bridge falling into the sea — that caused the World to stop and watch!

Then, I saw a black hand come up and over The Nations of Europe, and great chaos and turmoil began to unfold as I heard, "An Islamic Invasion and Uprising — that shall bring great destruction and devastation to the Sovereignty of Nations!

Watch and Pray — for Europe is falling!" I saw global Weather Systems being manipulated and controlled that brought forth more unprecedented chaos and sudden destruction to the landscape of Nations.

I saw the weaponization of what looked like Insects and even bacteria and viruses that brought plagues and diseases that have never been seen before. I saw another attack coming on Gas and Oil Pipelines under the sea, being sabotaged by Nations at War. I saw the desert Sands become Flood plains and Flood plains become desert sands. I saw Rivers become like streams and Streams become like Raging Rivers. Mountain Ranges and Valleys were completely rearranged and some totally removed. Then I saw that after what was experienced, a great Economic Boom — which seemed to only last for a little while — suddenly a great crash, and then I saw a Bull with a ring in its nose running amok, and great chaos took place, and I saw Financial Markets suddenly failing and Stock Markets falling; The Economy in Crisis; An Economic Recession and the Collapse of Global Markets that brought forth a Global Economic Depression.

I saw then great trouble over the Waters of the Sea — intense fighting and battle unfolding along Shipping and Trading Routes, as Wars for territory unfolded, which prevented Food and vital Medical supplies from reaching their destinations. I saw Millionaires and Billionaires running two and fro across The Nations trying to protect and hide their money — many looking for peace — but finding none! I saw a Cyber Attack coming that literally wiped away Millions and Billions of dollars; that brought the Banking Systems to its knees.

Personal details and Medical Records of Millions of people were stolen and destroyed. In the Dream, there was a strong and tangible sense of Urgency; there was a resounding Cry of Desperation that was rising up from The Nations. The atmosphere felt weighty and heavy, and the Sound came with an unrelenting and ever-increasing Urgency to Pray — Pray — and to keep Praying! I knew by The Spirit of Revelation that what I was hearing was two-fold. YES! This was an "Urgent Distress Call" coming from Nations in deep despair and desperation!

But this was also, an Alarm being Sounded in The Realm of the Spirit! An Emergency Signal! Time to Awake, Arise — and Act! Time is of the Essence! This was a Warning and a Clarion Calling to Pray and to Mobilize as The Army of The LORD; a Call to be Watching and Praying! The Battle for the Glory is at The Gates! War for Divine Restore is at the Door! The Destiny of Nations now hangs in the Balance! Listen! An S.O.S. Cry must be heard, rising up before The Courts of Heaven from the Remnant in this Hour!

There must be a Remnant who will Stand in the Gap! This is an "Emergency Call-Out" to the Judge and The Father of Heaven for Divine Intervention — a Call for Mercy! Mercy! Mercy! And for God's Divine Preservation and Protection! I hear these Words; "This is a Clarion Call to The Remnant in this Hour. A Divine Rescue Mission for Nations is now Underway!"

The Key — is Repentance and a cry for Mercy!

To overcome, we need greater Prophetic Understanding and Divine Strategy. Our Prophetic Decrees will become Keys to turn and unlock the barns and vats of Heaven and to deploy The Angel Armies of Heaven to bring forth timely intervention. Our cries of Repentance will become Divine Legislation that will build and establish The Kingdom of Heaven in the earth realm! Our Rapid Response to this Rising Distress Call is being "Unceasing in our Praying — and Prophetic Declarations!"

Note:
DISTRESS encompasses a range of meanings: it refers to pressure, stress, and constraint, but also to profound pain, anxiety, sorrow, acute suffering, and a state of extreme Urgency and vital necessity. It also conveys meanings such as "afflicted," aligning closely with the notion of distress, as it is frequently rendered in this way.
In the Hebrew, the term for DISTRESS is "tsarah," which, according to Strong's Hebrew Bible Dictionary, literally translates to "tightness" or "tight place."

I have Prophesied, "Nations are now moving through a narrow place, through the eye of a needle; a stitch in time saves nine; a prayer in time will bring nations to birth in a day; a prayer in time will save a nation from judgment." See Daniel (9) nine — a stitch in time will save nine!! The Spirit of The LORD says, "What good is the Needle without the thread. and what good is the thread without the Needle?" What good is My Word without My Spirit, or My Spirit without My Word?

Watch — for a New Move of My Word and My Spirit shall come together like Needle and Thread — to bring forth Divine Restoration and Kingdom Reformation to Nations in The Valley of Decision!" SOS Button image. We often refer to S. O. S. [. . . – – – . . .] as the universal Distress Signal, which is accurate. However, it is vital in the Prophetic context of this Dream!

We must recognize that S-O-S is not the distress itself; rather, it serves as an Emergency Signal, an Alarm System, sounding in the realm of The Spirit that Calls, even demands, "A Prayerful response!" And I believe it must be an Apostolic and Prophetic Prayerful Response that carries the Wisdom and a Strategic Understanding of the Times and Seasons and the Authority and Power of Heaven that will bring forth a Dynamic Shift and a Severe Course Correction to the Identity and Destiny of Nations! Consider the Morse Code representation of S-O-S: three dots, three dashes, and three more dots [. . . – – – . . .]

In Bible Language, this Morse Code may be prophetically paralleled with Jeremiah 33:3, which says: "Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know." (Jeremiah 33:3)

Postscript:
The Police and The Ecclesia.
God is never Random, so it is "Prophetically Interesting" that the Song above which I heard, was by the Band Called "The Police". The Police are a Governing Body that is assigned to arrest Perpetrators of crimes and to bring Law and Order. They are Enforcers of laws and regulations; assigned to prevent crime; to pursue and bring to justice those who break the law; to legislate for the King's Peace; to protect, help and protect the community; and to be seen to do this with integrity, honor and sound judgement.

This is a good description too, of The Ecclesia!

We are called, anointed and appointed as Divine Enforcers; we are called to legislate on behalf of heaven, to establish God's Law and Order into the earth realm; to pursue justice and peace and to render the enemy powerless and ineffective!

In this hour, as God's Legislative Police Force in the Earth realm:

We send out an S.O.S. on behalf of the Nations in The Valley of Decision. We stand in the Gap as Divine Enforcers in the King's Service, and we Call Prodigal Nations to come back to their senses and to come back into Divine Order, with the Laws and Grace of Heaven.

We Legislate through our Cry for Mercy and our Apostolic and Prophetic Prayers, Decrees and Proclamations In The Courts of Heaven! We Bind and we loose in the Authority of The Key of The House of David, and we Render the Enemy Powerless and Impotent. We Release a Legal Injunction and Divine Restraining Order of Heaven against the Kingdom of Darkness. We Declare by the Authority of the King that Satan shall no longer succeed in bringing forth an acceleration of his plans that will alter the Timeline of Heaven in The Nations. We say now, The Kingdom of Heaven is Advancing, and the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it!

NATE & CHRISTY

FAMILIES, YOU ARE GETTING YOUR PEARLS BACK

I want to share a revelation about family and a very simple charge. Yet, if we catch it in this hour, we're going to see such a turnaround of so much of the warfare and assignments of the enemy that have been against our families for a long time.

I remember a season when I was really asking the Lord why we were experiencing warfare against our kids, sickness, chaos in the home, in our marriage, and in our finances. And the Lord said one simple phrase...

"You have been casting your pearls."

Now, when we normally hear that phrase, we think of when you've shared too much or when you've given away your dreams or the things that are valuable to you. However, in this context, the Lord was saying to me that I'd cast my pearls, meaning that I had not been protecting what was most valuable to me.

What has this got to do with the family? What if the family were those pearls?

What if your marriage, your kids, and everything within that responsibility circle of our first ministry are our pearls?

Our relationship with God, our marriages, and our kids.

Had I been casting them? Have we been casting them, meaning have we been putting them at a lower or lesser importance than everything else in our lives?

Have we been putting ministry higher up on the rung of life?

Have we been putting church higher up on the rung? Have we been putting our work or commitments higher up?

Have we been placing other things that are lesser, that don't carry any weight or legacy, in a higher place than our families?

I believe that the Lord is saying to us, it's time to get back your pearls, but in order to do that, we need to change our value system.

Right now, brokenness is doing that before our eyes. Many are realizing what's been at stake and are leaving behind all facades and counterfeits, and beginning to rebuild their families again.

Many reading this are looking at ruins, and if that's you... I am sorry, but God can and will restore you.

I'm reminded of this parable that Yeshua spoke about pearls...

"The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then, in his joy, went and sold all he had and bought that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it." (Matthew 13:44-45)

May we enter back into the heart posture again, where we sell everything for family again? I know some of you have sold them in the past to appease the Jezebel spirit in your families.

For acceptance. Out of pain and rejection. Some of you have run from your posts because you have felt disqualified. Then, for MANY...shame has kept you from holding onto pearls and guarding them like you should.

But today... the Lord is calling you out of those lies and putting a new fiery decree of, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord!"

I believe the Lord is saying to us right now that if we prioritize those pearls again, if we prioritize the secret place in prayer, if we prioritize our marriages and our children, and if we put them first. If we seek first the kingdom of God, all those things shall be added.

The war has been on your home because family isn't just revival - it's outpouring. It's reformation. Any time we leave family on the back burner, the enemy will create a toxic ideology and counterfeit to fill that space. And right now, God is not just doing a powerful work of restoration for your legacy, but for the legacy of many others and the future generations.

I believe the Lord is saying to you today, "I know you've lost much. I know that you're looking right now, and there are many Ishmaels you've created. There's a lot of regret you're carrying a lot of grief and a lot of pain from failure, but I'm about to restore those pearls to you. I'm about to bring all those shattered and broken pieces of your life back together. I'll bring the prodigals home. I'll restore your marriage. I'll restore your finances. I'll restore everything that the locusts have eaten."

I decree this and prophesy this over you in the mighty name of Yeshua.

Prophetic Encounter: The Glory of the Lord is coming to Israel, the Middle East, and the Nations!

As I was getting ready for my day, the Lord took me into the Spirit in an open vision. I found myself in an underground DUMB (Deep Underground Military Base), except that it seemed not to be as much of a military facility, but more of an underground city. It had a lot going on!

I knew by the Spirit of God that this had been designed, engineered and built by the Illuminati Deep State evil regimes and power holders. As the Lord showed me around, there was an Angelic Host that had been deployed there on a high-level assignment. This was a no-nonsense assignment, and they were not playing games, they were there to get a job done. This Angelic Host was brought in to take these facilities over and take control of them for the Kingdom of God, from the enemy and his evil pawns. I watched as God took over the title deeds and possession of this underground facility and all that interconnected with it. This particular one I was in was a "hub" that the enemy used for their dark underground evil networks and atrocious deeds and acts.
I was in awe as I saw the Lord taking the deepest places of darkness over! The Lord was shutting them down once and for all. Period. End of discussion.

He was not there to negotiate. He was there to enforce, arrest, convict and recover all the enemy had stolen and destroyed. Justice was at hand!

I had never seen such high levels of engineering. No expense had been spared in building all of what I was looking at. These facilities must have been worth billions, if not trillions. My sense was that this had all been built by the dark globalist elites for their evil agendas and global control, one world government. Again, it was clear the Lord was dealing with them, and their occupation was coming to an end!

The next thing I knew, I was taken into the spirit where I saw Israel. Best as I can describe it was that I had an arial view. Now, I am going to be very careful here to try and describe what I saw as best as I can:

As I looked at Israel, I saw a puppet stage. There was the fiercest, most evil, deceptive, greasy, manipulating dark principality as a puppet master standing tall over the Middle East. Again, when the Lord takes me into the spirit, I just know things that I shouldn't know. In this case, I saw Illuminati puppets on stage, Israeli governmental officials and bureaucrats on stage, all being used as puppets in the hands of this dark evil principality.

I as I was looking over all of this, I saw this giant principality with these puppets in one hand - the Illuminati and Israeli governmental, bureaucrats - and in his other hand, this principality held and was controlling the Middle East regional leaders, and terrorist groups as puppets as well! This global principality was using these puppets to fight and war against one another to cause as much chaos in the world as he could. This principality was a Global entity that looked unbeatable. Then I saw a cutaway of the earth and the lower levels of darkness where they do most of their dark hidden work and planning. I saw the earth's "strata" formation as I was taken into it.

There I saw what seemed to be an underground city. I don't know how else to describe it. It was massive and was very well engineered and equipped with all the amenities you would need to live. It was designed to be self-sufficient with the highest of technology. This was no slum. Far from it. At the hub of it, this facility tied into underground high-speed rail-type systems that connect with other cities and other nations. They were so fast that they could travel between cities and nations extremely fast!

This train didn't have a rail track; it seemed to hover in the "tube." It was highly sophisticated - I would use the term "space-aged". As I looked around, it looked like Star Wars – or space age design. Everything was white and bright, neat and tidy. Very clean.

I knew by the sprit that this could transport people across Nations in minutes and hours for the long trips. I had never seen anything like it. This infrastructure was not built for righteous causes, but as infrastructure for the kingdom of darkness. The dark evil elites and dark globalist illuminati had spent decades building these facilities and networks.

The next thing I knew, I was then taken into the spirit where I saw a new sunrise breaking on the horizon. The day had come where the Glory of the Lord was rising, not only across Israel and the Middle East, but the Nations. I have seen many beautiful sunrises, but this one looked very different! This one had a special glow to it, I realized it was the glow of the sunrise through the dust that was settling.

There had just been a MAJOR Global event. I didn't see what happened, or what the event was. I just know that what I saw was like everything was brand new. The Lord had settled some things! He had intervened! We were now living in a new era.

As I was journaling this out, the Lord dropped this word on me:
"Barry tell my people that as they have suspected, things are not adding up. Things do not seem to check out. Tell them that there is good reason for that. Tell them that I am about to blow the lid off it all! They are going to see it all, the good, the bad and the ugly. It is so much deeper that anyone knows! Prepare your hearts for what is coming and what is about to happen. Through it all, watch men, women and children turn unto me. Watch as I turn the hearts of my people back unto me. Leaders will be brought to their knees as I bring freedom, healing and deliverance to them and the Nations! Now is the time to get things in order. Settle the accounts of the past. Clean things up; I want you to have a clean slate to steward what I am releasing to the Nations! I can assure you that it is going to be much better than you could have ever expected!"
Holy is the word of the Lord.

Most Sincerely,
Barry Wunsch

April Klassen-Brown

From my heart, my spirit and what the Spirit of Yahweh has been speaking to me about lately. The resistance has been strong, but the Presence of the LORD has been greater with His Kindness, much Goodness and such Grace.

How many have watched movies through the years and have waited in anticipation of the sequel(s) to follow? There have been many, and each movie builds on and on, sometimes ad nauseum. 'Beating a dead horse won't make it move,' as the saying goes. "Sequel" is from the late Latin sequela "that which follows, result, consequence."

There has been an increase of prequels in movie franchises over recent years. A prequel portrays events which precede those of an existing film, book, etc. Some of the reasons why movie franchises choose to do this is to tap into an entertainment-programmed society, pulling them further into 'escapism' narratives they have been mentally, emotionally and even spiritually attached to, deepening the fantasy, a way to extend the original story, generating further revenue. In some cases, it is out of a desire to avoid direct continuation of the original narrative.

Creating prequels allows for revealing an origin; prequels re-shift the perspective on how audiences perceive characters and events, often challenging initial assumptions. Prequels add differing perspectives which introduce varied understandings, adding an entangling that can cloud the original storyline and disrupt the audience's connection to what they thought they knew. It is not my intention to share about the entertainment industry here. There are many of the LORD's people who dream in technicolor, epic-type dreams. (Some of these could fuel new Kingdom movies, an exciting thought!) This is one of the giftings given to the body of Christ I believe, to show how the King of Kings outdoes what the kingdom of darkness has attempted to utilize through the ages. Through time spent with Him, He has permitted me to discover even HE has a prequel! This is what will be shared in the following.

My calling has been one of intercession, but really, it's simply talking back and forth with Daddy, listening to His instructions and being obedient. In the last few years, what He has called me into is full-time communication with Him. Out of that time, this is what the Spirit of God has been revealing to me recently, and how He has been having me pray. It is for the full remembrance of the Covenant that Yahweh made with us before we were born; in essence, His Prequel Covenant. The Father spoke to me a few years ago as we were visiting. I had posed the question to Him as to how we/humanity had been first created. His response was that we had been birthed in His Heart and spoken into existence out of His lips of Love, and then He molded us out beautifully and intricately. The WORD says, 'fearfully and wonderfully made.' This caused me such Awe, in fact, most of the time spent with Him is literally 'Awe'-some.

Recently, as previously mentioned, the instruction was to pray for full remembrance prior to us being placed into our mother's wombs. As you can imagine, and some of you may be asking that now quietly, "There was a Covenant made prior to the beginning of my life?" Believe me, that question came out of myself also. Wow! Daddy, can you tell me about that? There were a lot of questions, mostly of how do I even ask the right questions about that? It makes sense, but what did that look like? Every person has their own personality, their personal 'bent,' described as a natural inclination or tendency. We were born into the rebellion, defilement and blood-iniquitous sin of this world and age, where the enemy held visionary and misunderstanding strongholds.

According to 2 Corinthians 4:3-4 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers so they cannot see the Light of the 'gospel' of the Glory of Christ, who is the image of God. [etymology of gospel = literally "good spell," from "god"/[little 'g' noted]. No wonder we haven't seen, we've literally been put under a spell which needs to be broken/removed/dispelled/pushed away.

We need to come into the Understanding of the Prequel of our King's Covenant with us. The importance of seeking the LORD regarding that Covenant is so relevant now when we are seeing what the enemy wants us to see around us daily and globally. Let's look at scripture, which gives us a good basis for understanding what that original Covenant was. The meaning of Covenant is to enter into a formal agreement or contract. This involves communication time with the Father, and HE loves when we have questions. He doesn't tire of us asking; time spent with Him is never wasted. It always brings LIFE and forward progress in our lives.

Psalm 25:12-15 Who is the man who fears the LORD? He will instruct him in the path chosen for him. His soul will dwell in Prosperity, and his descendants will inherit the Land. The LORD confides in those who fear Him and reveals His Covenant to them. My eyes are always on the LORD, for He will free my feet from the mesh.

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, declares the LORD, thoughts of Peace and not of evil, to give you a Future and a Hope.

Breaking this down, thoughts, machshevei (מַחְשְׁבֵי) indicates divine intentions, intentional planning, or purposes. Peace, sh'lam (שָׁלֵם) implies wholeness, instruction, soundness, hidden wisdom. Future and Hope (אַחֲרִיתָא וּתְקָוָא): A promise of destiny and expectation, not just survival. Jeremiah 29:11 isn't about what happens at the end, it’s about future, strategic design Yahweh planned with Meaning and Hope. One might say the Prequel Covenant is like the original blueprint of our lives before the planned engineered attempts at obliteration, orchestrated by enemy agendas, swept in. In the Lamsa Bible, translated from the Peshitta, Psalm 51:6 reads, Behold, thou desirest Truth, and the hidden things of thy Wisdom thou hast made known to me. Psalm 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye.

Several years ago, being a little less seasoned at that time, I was asking the LORD, how much more effective can my prayers be? At times it seems as though we run out of the right words or the right questions, and even though we can speak in prayer tongues, we don't feel as effective as perhaps we could. Praying in tongues is the best, because it keeps our flesh from getting in the way. The more one trusts the LORD in this, the LORD then trusts you with the interpretation of those words, which is a pretty good transaction. It's also a protection for you because the enemy is unable to break code or understand the Kingdom language of our King. He can only project dark speak and lies.

The more you speak with the KING, the easier it is to discern dark speak when you hear it. However, the LORD also loves to give surprises, and as mentioned at the beginning, HE also loves to share His Covenant Secrets with His friends. Jeremiah 33:3 AMPC Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you [and even show you] great and mighty things, [things which have been confined and hidden], which you do not know and understand and cannot distinguish. The principle of first mention brings us back to Genesis 1:26-27 Then God said, Let us make man in Our Image, after Our Likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the Heavens and over the livestock and over all the Earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the Earth. So, God created man in His own Image, in the Image of God He created him; male and female He created them. This is a strong reminder to us and to the enemy; also, John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The following scriptures are the WORD speaking to us, reminding us, encouraging us and empowering us that our original blueprint is encoded with the King's Government Authority, Governance, Appointments, Holiness, Blamelessness, Love, Good Works and Anointings for all.

Jeremiah 1:5 Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born, I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the Nations.

Jeremiah 1:7 But the Lord said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a youth'; for to all to whom I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak."
Jeremiah 1:10 See, I have set you this day over Nations and over Kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.
Colossians 1:16 For by Him All things were created, in Heaven and on Earth, visible and invisible, whether Thrones or Dominions or Rulers or Authorities—all things were created through Him and for Him.
Psalm 139:1-5,13-16 O Lord, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O Lord, You know it altogether. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay Your Hand upon me... 13-16 For you formed my inward parts; You knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your Works; my soul knows it very well. My frame was not hidden from You, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth. Your Eyes saw my unformed substance; in Your Book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.
Isaiah 49:1 Listen to me, O coastlands, and give attention, you peoples from afar. The Lord called me from the womb; from the body of my mother, HE named my name.
Galatians 1:15 But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and who called me by his grace,
Ephesians 1:4 Even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the World, that we should be Holy and Blameless before Him in Love.
Ephesians 2:10 For we are His Workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.
Romans 8:29 For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, in order that He might be the firstborn among many brothers.

A God friend and fellow contributor to this calendar, Terry Friesen, shared recently about the Glory of the Father being released upon mankind and the earth to transform all creation into its Heavenly destiny. All creation must adhere to the boundaries set out by Yahweh and to the Covenant first made with us. In this last while, the LORD has been reminding me how very significant Salt is in His Covenant. The Covenant of Salt is mentioned three times in the Bible. Leviticus 2:13 You shall season every grain offering with salt so that the salt (preservation) of the Covenant of your God will not be missing from your grain offering. You shall offer salt with all your offerings. Numbers 18:19 All the offerings of the Holy things, which the Israelites offer to the LORD I have given to you and to your sons and your daughters with you as a continual allotment. It is an Everlasting Covenant of Salt [that cannot be dissolved or violated] before the LORD to you and to your descendants with you. 2 Chronicles 13:5 Do you not know that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the Kingship of Israel to David and his descendants forever by a Covenant of Salt?

Salt was required in every offering as a divine command signifying that worship must be Pure and Enduring. God binds Himself to His people with Incorruptible Promises. Salt in each Covenant is the Divine signature of Loyalty, Holiness, and Permanence. Salt is precious, it represents Preservation, Purification of Sacrifice and Sealed Agreements. Salt in Covenant isn't just an emblem, it is a Divine Seal, a summons to walk in Righteousness and Integrity, It's serious because it's sacred. In time spent, what has been instructed is for us to ask for the Salt again to cover us, purify, preserve and to remember again that Sealed Agreement we made.

The Oil of Anointing is also to be asked for in abundance. Isaiah 10:7 reads, It shall come to pass in that day that his burden shall be taken away off thy shoulder and his yoke from thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. This verse isn't just about slavery, heavy burdens or loss of identity, or the deep spiritual ache of living outside of the original empowerment and Power of the Spirit of God. Oil is deeply woven into the fabric of God's covenantal relationship with His people, marking Calling, Consecration, Healing, and Spiritual Empowerment. Oil was exclusive and Holy, representing a Covenant of Regeneration, a renewal of spiritual rebirth. Holiness is literally a state of being Holy as Yeshua is Holy; Glorification refers to being fully empowered like Christ. Yeshua's prayer in John 17:1-5 Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may Glorify You, as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should give Eternal Life to as many as You have given Him. And this is Eternal Life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. I have Glorified You on the Earth. I have finished the work which You have given Me to do. And now, O Father, Glorify Me [together with Yourself], with the Glory which I had with You before the world was.

The enemy has been successful throughout the ages; there is no doubt about that. Doubt is a place where a lot of people struggle. Aside from 'what's my purpose in life', they struggle with the fact that God deeply, eternally loves with all Goodness and Kindness, Power, and All Possibility. Nothing is Impossible, so we can accomplish the Greater Exploits as a people whom God knows. Eternity and all Creation was changed on the day Yeshua gave up His Spirit on the cross, went down to sheol and stripped all authority from the enemy, making a spectacle and ascending again Victorious. Boom! The shouts echoed throughout all of Eternity. All of Creation was changed. We, as sons and daughters of the Most High, step into and come into Agreement again with that first Covenant that still resounds through our Souls, through our Spirits. Your WORD does not return void; it accomplishes all it was sent out to do. As the people of God have been praying through the ages, clearing out the plans of the enemy by the Power of the LORD, we are now hearing and seeing deeper and deeper Revelations, mysteries which have been held back, hidden yet now being revealed. We are welcoming Kingdom Solutions, not worldly solutions, because we were with Him. We spoke with Him, we worked with Him, we spoke LIFE, LOVE, HOPE and the POWER of HIS Covenant into 'NOW' situations.

When we were sent out, we'd already been gloriously endowed with the ability to bring all things, every thought, every situation into the obedience of Yeshua (2 Corinthians 10:5) This has been a huge revelation. Wow! That's what Yeshua did when He came down. He just came down to offset what the enemy had done. Throughout history, the enemy caused a shifting of perception very effectively, projecting the veil of deception, confusion and ultimately, the consequence of disobedience. Yahweh's Prequel Covenant actively sustained us back to our Author, to Truth, enriching His original narrative with us and now equipping His people with a renewed interpretive lens of Holy Understanding. Through Yahweh’s Prequel Covenant, we receive a renewed perspective that intensifies the resonance of His Glory within us and reshapes the narrative of past battlefields where the enemy believed he had won. In Yeshua, we live, move, and have our being. (Acts 17:28)

Prayer:
Dear Yeshua, these pressures we have been in, are in now, we take time to thank You right now for Your Presence and the Power of the Name of Yahweh. We thank You, Father, that there is nothing that can withstand Your Name. There is nothing that can withstand the Blood of Yeshua. There is nothing, Lord, we agree, Father, that everything that has ever been created, that's what your Word says, there is nothing that has been created that has not been made by You. Father, we are welcoming the appointed and anointed Angelic Forces, to cause all Creation to come back to looking at

You. All those things that are not in obedience to You, they must adhere to the boundaries that they have been set in. The Lord Himself permits the enemy to function, but they must stay within the scope of their boundaries. Father, we ask now for a release of the Sword of the Spirit held by the One who is called Faithful and True, to sever off of us, lift off of us, blow off of us, wash off of us, this oppression, Lord, God. Father, You know all that is occurring in the world right now. You know those things we don't need to tackle. You already did it, Yeshua. You changed Eternity forever. But we're asking, Father, that You would cause us to remember our full Identity and our full Covenant with You so that we may operate with increased discernment and absolute effectiveness in the Kingdom according to Your Will and Your Desire. We welcome the outpouring of the Salt to cover us and our bloodlines, purify us, cause Holiness to exude from us. We welcome the Anointing Oil, Lord God, to break the yoke with the fullness of You. Lord God, we're also welcoming the water from Your side, the Power of that Water and Your Blood, which was poured out for us, to empower us, that we would be able to utilize these as weapons; that You would give us the Truth of your Wisdom to walk in the Fullness of Your Glory so that we may bring GLORY only to You. We bless You, Father. We thank You for it, and we welcome all anointed, appointed Hosts to work in these areas with us, to assist us to accomplish everything that You covenanted with us to accomplish, in Your Name. Amen

"The Holy Watchers of Daniel Four have come with the Decree — To chop down The Tree!
Watch! 2026 — A Redemptive Window of Time to dig and to fertilize!
2027 — Great Uproar and Nations at War, as The Sword of The Pacemaker falls!"
For background information and context, please also see the related HKP Word: "The Day of the Great Candlestick Removal Has Begun!"
https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/the-day-of-the-great-candlestick-removal/

On the 10th July, God began to download the following Word.
I hereby submit this Word for Testing, Weighing and Prayer.
A Prophetic Timeline! The next three (3) years!
See; Daniel 4, Luke 13 (1+3=4) and Mark 11!
Watch! The next seven months are critical months.
2026 — a one-year Redemptive Window of Time to dig around and to fertilize The Tree.
2027 — the sword of the peace maker shall fall.
The beginning of a greater separation of goat and sheep Nations.
First!

See Daniel 4:16,
"Let his heart be changed from that of a man, l Let him be given the heart of a beast, and let seven times pass over him."
Note the words, "let seven times pass over him". 'Seven Times' and the words 'Pass Over' were highlighted to me. I submit, the next seven months He is passing over The Nations. The Blood must take center stage!

We know that in this context of the scripture, "seven times" here is speaking to "years." But then God starts speaking to me about the next Seven (7) Months — which started in this '7th month' [July 2025] - as highly strategic months. So, we need to be watching, praying and seeking for greater Revelation and Understanding as we move forward and advance!

The LORD showed that the 'next seven months shall be "Key Prophetic Months," as we will see the "Holy Watchers of Daniel Four (4) begin to come down!"
"I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven." Daniel 4:13.
And I hear these Words: "Listen! For The Watchers Decree of Daniel Four (4) has been released over The Nations!

I say, "Get ready!" For the Books have been opened!

A time of Divine Inventory and Inspection has surely begun, for this is the beginning of a kairos time — to cut down The Tree!" Take Note: Trees; We know trees can speak, prophetically and symbolically both, to both people and to nations. So, God shows me, the next Seven (7) Months will mark the beginning of a time of even greater awakenings, shiftings and severe shakings!

We are moving into a Prophetic Time over the next Two (2) Years, when we will begin to see The Decree of The Holy Watchers for the "cutting down of The Tree," coming to the fore as never before!

This is the beginning of a great fall for many, when we will see Leaders across different Nations — and their Empires and Dynasties — that shall be cut down, and their branches shall be cut off; their leaves shall be stripped; their fruit shall be scattered!

Take Note: Prophetic Timeline.
For the next Seven (7) Months — starting from this 7th month ~ July 2025 [7/25] to January 2026 [1/26] - the next Seven (7) Months will set us up in how we advance into the next 12 months, the year of 2026. This Prophetic Time frame will usher in the start of even greater chaos in The Nations — with Divine Exposures and Violent Upheavals and mayhem across The Nations! It will mark a time of profound and divine dismantling — especially within the spheres of Religion and Government!
See: Isaiah 47 — The fall of Babylon

The Spirit of Revelation then takes me to Luke 13; (1+3=4) ~ Daniel Four (4), and I am shown a powerful Prophetic Parallel:
"Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it use up the ground?' But he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that you can cut it down.'"" Luke 13:7-9.

Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?' Sir,' the man replied, 'leave it alone for one more year, and I'll dig around it and fertilize it; if it bears fruit next year, fine: if not, then cut it down!
Prophetic Notes:
Daniel 4:29 "at the end of twelve months" — the tree is cut down as God humbles Nebuchadnezzar!
Daniel 4:15 "nevertheless, leave the stump and roots in the earth; the stump and roots remain."

God shows me His "righteous remnant" — a Righteous Remnant in the stump and in the roots that remain, a Remnant that is rising and that will stand in the gap and cry out for The Nations to be redeemed, restored and reformed! Here we see how the redemptive heart of God is always postured towards Restoration for Prodigal Nations, if they will Repent and Return:

“Then if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and restore their land,” 2 Chronicles 7:14.

As I shared the above, God shows me that a Seven Month Timeline starting in this 7th month of July 2025 (7/2025 to the January 2026 1/2026) is very significant, and will lead us into what I am hearing God call:
″A One-year Redemptive Window of Time for Nations to turn and return — or be cut down!”’ (2026)
And I hear these Words; “Watch and Pray — for 2026 will be a Redemptive Window of Time when you must dig and fertilize, around The Tree/ The Nations!”
I submit, in this “One-year Redemptive Window of Time” (2026) — it will also mark the beginning of a greater separation of goat and sheep Nations.
The Nation of Israel will continue to be a powerful catalyst in this great separation of goat and sheep Nations!

In Recap:
In the next Seven Month Cycle of Time — we will see “The Watchers of Daniel Four (4) come with a Decree — “to cut down The Tree!””
The Books have been opened, for this is a time of greater inspection and divine inventory of The Nations.
Greater shakings will come forth as “The Watchers’ Decree in Daniel Four (4)” is issued over Leaders, Empires and Nations!
I hear The Spirit say, “Listen — for The Watchers’ Decree of Daniel Four (4) shall be announced!
Watch and Pray — as The Holy Watchers of Daniel Four (4) shall come down — and the branches shall be cut off, and the leaves shall be stripped, and the fruit shall be scattered! Yes! I shall cut down The Tree and cut off its branches; their demonic systems and structures. Their Global Elite Networks and Satanic Connections shall be dismantled and demolished! Watch! For I shall remove the leaves. Their covering shall be stripped away as I bring Divine Exposure and full disclosure to their wicked and evil deeds.

I shall expose, expose, expose and uncover everything hidden in darkness, and naked, they shall stand before eyes of the world. Stripped of their covering and protection, they shall have no place to hide! Watch! As the fruit is scattered, for I shall scatter their wealth and riches. Their resources shall dry up — and their supply lines shall be stopped up! Yes! The fruit gained through corruption and deception shall be scattered!

Watch! For I shall cut down The Tree that bears no fruit of Me! But I say again — Watch and Pray — for 2026 shall see a Redemptive Window of Time stand open before The Nations. A one-year Redemptive Window of Time — to dig around and to fertilize The Tree!

I say it's time to break off your sin; humble yourself; repent; turn and return — and you shall be fully restored and reformed greater than before!"
The Spirit of Revelation then quickens to me yet another parallel and confirmation of the prophetic timeline.
See Mark 11, where "Yeshua curses the fig tree and cleanses The Temple."
Nations are now in the 11th Hour — and the 11th Hour Prophets are rising!
God shows me the year 2027 — and I see The Sword of The Peacemaker falling upon The Nations.
I hear these Words: "2027 — a year of great uproar and Nations at War, as The Sword of The Peacemaker falls!"
I hear The Spirit say, "This is a Kairos Time, when my 11th Hour Prophets shall arise with The Sword of The Peacemaker — and they shall come into a Divine Partnership, and into a greater collaboration with The Angelic Watchers of Daniel Four (4).
I say, Watch and Pray! As My 11th Hour Prophets carry out The Decree of Daniel Four (4) and in The Spirit and Power of Elijah they shall come to cut down The Tree/ The Nations!
For in this time of a greater separation of goat and sheep Nations, My 11th Hour Prophets shall arise and advance in great Power and Kingdom Authority!"
Blessings to you all.

"I AM CALLING YOU TO A NEW FRONTIER"
ROMA WATERMAN, MELBOURNE, VIC, AUSTRALIA

I've been sitting with something I feel is a prophetic word for this season: Just because you've been doing something for a long time doesn't mean you're required to keep doing it.
There's a holy invitation right now to dream differently. Some of us have settled into patterns, roles, or rhythms that were once good, even God ordained, but we've mistaken longevity for calling. Doing it for years doesn't mean it's still right. And longevity doesn't mean doing the same thing. You can be true to what God has ordained for you and yet also adapt and change into a new version of yourself without denying the call on your life.

I hear the Lord saying, "I am calling you to a new frontier." Same heart. Same purpose. But maybe... a completely new outworking. There are new worlds He wants you to explore!

Some of you feel trapped—like you're locked into what you've always done. But God is whispering, "There's a better way." He's looking for the brave ones, the pioneers who are willing to let go of what's familiar to step into something fresh. It's not that your previous season was wrong. It's just that how you express what you were born for might be finished, and it's time to create and dream again. Ecclesiastes 3:1 reminds us, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens" (NIV). Could this be your time to dream new dreams?

Let's not confuse faithfulness with doing the same thing the same way just because you've always done it. You can honor the past, while courageously embracing the future, by bravely asking the Lord what He wants from you in this season of your life.

I'm praying you have the courage to ask, "God, is there a new frontier You're calling me to?"

Spend time talking with the Lord about this. It's a different kind of prayer, but different prayers mean unique and blessed answers you may not have heard before. It's time to step out of the boat.

Faith Marie Baczko: The Crossover

Consecration for the Crossover

We are in a moment of consecration for the crossover into something tremendous. We are standing on the edge of a historic move of God—a bunker-buster move—where God will move to shatter the strongholds of religion, legalism, and man's agendas. The Spirit of God is poised to demolish old structures that have resisted His glory and make way for the establishment of His Kingdom in purity and power, according to His blueprint.

We are ready to begin the crossover to claim our inheritance in Christ, the Promised Land. The armies of God are in a holy pause before advancing to conquer and occupy territory, just like in the time when Joshua mobilized the warriors and gathered the people to cross the Jordan.

Moses was chosen as the shepherd leader who led the nation of Israel through the wilderness years, but Joshua was the warrior appointed to lead them into the war and take possession of the land. Just like then, we have now entered a season of the changing of the guard.

Before leadership was passed on to Joshua, and before the crossover and the great battles, Moses gathered the people to review the important points of their history. He went through every word, command, and promise God had spoken in preparation for what lay ahead of them. Deuteronomy ends with Joshua's commissioning, and the book of Joshua begins with preparation for the crossover.

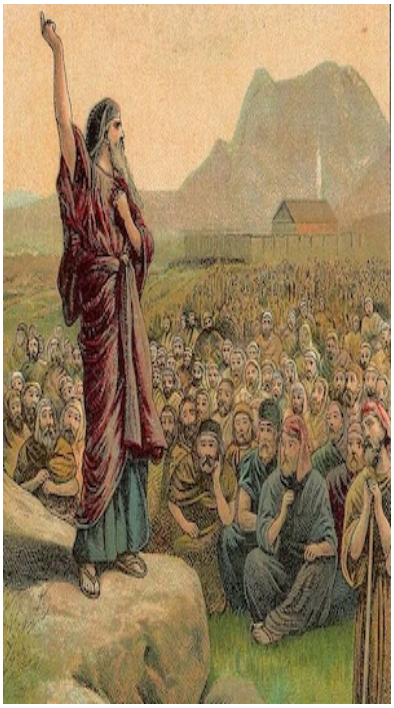

A New Company of Joshuas

A new company of Joshuas is rising who are bold, consecrated, and commissioned to lead in the battle. These are the commanders of this hour who are chosen to lead God's people into battle, to lay hold of every promise, and to possess their inheritance prepared from the foundation of the world.

"Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, 'Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, "Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess."'" (Joshua 1:10–11 NKJV)

I believe this is a message from the Lord related to the next three months. If we look at the three days (in the verse above) in terms of months, then it brings us to the Feast of Tabernacles! God instructed the Jewish people to read through the book of Deuteronomy during this Feast at the end of every seven years. God has impressed upon me to guide our community through the book of Deuteronomy over the next three months. This is a time of consecration as we cross into a historic season with Him as our Guide and Commander who will lead us in.

"So Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. And Moses commanded them, saying: 'At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of release, at the Feast of Tabernacles, when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. Gather the people together, men and women and little ones, and the stranger who is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn to fear the LORD your God and carefully observe all the words of this law, and that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land which you cross the Jordan to possess.'" (Deuteronomy 31:9–13 NKJV) (Photo via GetArchive)

Deuteronomy: The Book of Remembrance

In the early years of my Christian walk with the Lord, He began to highlight the book of Deuteronomy to me, revealing much about the book itself and its contents. During that time, He instructed me to dedicate a day to Him in our church. We were to read through the entire book of Deuteronomy and end the day with worship. Afterward, the fire of God fell as the Holy Spirit moved upon us. The public reading of the Word of God is both powerful and supernatural.

"Until I come, devote yourself to public reading [of Scripture], to preaching and to teaching [the sound doctrine of God's word]." (1 Timothy 4:13 AMP)

The Greek name "Deuteronomy" means a repetition of the law. Deuteronomy refers to the words or repetition of the law that Moses spoke to the Israelites before they entered the Promised Land. It is also known as a book of remembrance, where they recalled all they had been through, all they had learned from God and of God during the wilderness years—the years of fire, refining, and preparation to enter the land promised by God.

The sense that the Lord conveyed about this book relates to the Father's heart for His children. He showed me a picture of a child growing up to maturity and preparing to leave home, possibly for university or to another country. Like an earthly father, our heavenly Father is opening the doors for His children's departure to possess their inheritance. His great concern is whether His children will remember all the life lessons He has taught them. He instructed Moses to remind them of all that He taught them throughout their lives from His Word—every valuable lesson for their success, safety, and protection.

Deuteronomy highlights the covenant God made with His people. The reading of the book was to reaffirm the covenant and was intended to anchor the people in Him and His Word. The reading served as a powerful reminder of God's unwavering faithfulness and the vital importance of walking in obedience.

Remembering was crucial for maintaining their identity, obedience, and relationship with God once they entered the Promised Land. The book also emphasizes remembering God's commandments, His actions, and the consequences of both obedience and disobedience as revealed in Chapter 28. It emphasizes the commitment necessary to obey His laws and the consequences of breaking them.

What Are We Remembering?

We remember the wilderness years and how God provided and protected us. Here we learned to know the faithfulness of God and recognize our dependence on Him. We are warned not to forget God's Word, as forgetting would lead to disobedience and, ultimately, destruction.

We remember what God did for us in those years. Israel was encouraged to remember God's actions, including the plagues in Egypt, the parting of the Red Sea, and their miraculous provision in the wilderness. Our memories with God strengthen our faith and trust in Him for the future.

Deuteronomy emphasizes the importance of teaching future generations about God's actions and commands, ensuring that the legacy of faith and obedience is passed on through the generations. The book continually admonishes us not to forget what God has said and taught. It warns of the trap of forgetting God, especially during times of success and prosperity. Forgetting leads to arrogance and pride and, ultimately, a falling away. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

Deuteronomy reminds us to have gratitude. The people were reminded to be thankful for God's provision and to acknowledge Him as the source of all their blessings and care.

Strengthened Through Remembering

In 1 Samuel 30:6, it says that David strengthened himself in the Lord. David was a warrior and a soldier in the army of God. In order for his survival, he learned how to build himself up in his most holy faith (Jude 20–21).

"Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God." (1 Samuel 30:6 NKJV)

One of the most powerful ways to strengthen yourself in the Lord is through remembering. When we recall God's faithfulness in past trials and victories, our faith is reignited! In those sacred moments of reflection, we reconnect with our history in God—our testimonies, our breakthroughs, our personal victories.

In that intimate place of remembering, God speaks, God moves! The faith moment is reactivated and God releases fresh direction, clarity, and understanding, just as He did with David! He instructs us in the way we should go, anchoring us for the battle and guiding us into victory.

"So David inquired of the LORD, saying, 'Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?' And He answered him, 'Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all.'" (1 Samuel 30:8 NKJV)

"I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye." (Psalm 32:8 NKJV)

In times of trials and attacks, it is essential to know how to find God for ourselves as David did. This will become even more critical in the days ahead, as the earth enters seasons of intense shaking and warfare. God's people must know how to stir themselves, gird up their loins, and fight—not just for themselves, but for their families. David had to fight to recover everything that was stolen, including his wives and children. Believers are called to be defenders of their households. God is getting our attention and is saying to get ready to crossover.

"You have dwelt long enough at this mountain... See, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—to give to them and their descendants after them." (Deuteronomy 1:6, 8 NKJV)

Don't Give Up

"But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded." (2 Chronicles 15:7)

It is the last bout of pain that a mother in labor brings a child into existence. Oftentimes without pain there is no gain. Whatever you do, don't give up. The greatest temptation for Yeshua Christ was to give up on His purpose that included torture, shame and death for the sins, sickness, and curses of the world. He agonized in the garden of Gethsemane just before His final victory on the cross. He was strengthened by His Father to finish His assignment and He cried out victoriously on the cross, "It is finished".

Just before Joseph became Prime Minister of Egypt, he was thrown into a prison; just before Jacob became Israel he was almost killed by his brother; just before Gideon became a mighty warrior and savior of Israel, he almost gave up on God. Don't give up!

Because of fog, Florence Chadwick failed in her first attempt to swim the English Channel. She couldn't see that she was less than half-a-mile from the shore. When they told her how close she had been to the finish, she broke down and wept. But she went back again, this time more determined than ever, and broke the world record. She understood that everything she lived and worked for could be hers, if she could only go a little farther and never give up.

Don't give up. Your miracle is just around the corner. It might seem foggy today but remember that God sees the whole picture. He sees you at the finish line boasting in the LORD Yeshua your Provider and Protector. Don't give up!

Kingdom Declaration:
I am more than a conqueror through Christ who loves me.

When God Interrupted Me

The Hebrew word for intercession, paga, is fascinating. Although in our thinking, "intercession" is typically associated with prayer, this Hebrew word does not necessarily refer to prayer. It has several nuances of meaning, all of which can be done through prayer. The basic concept of paga is "to meet." The meeting can be between people, animals, or even inanimate objects, as in two people's lands "meeting" forming a boundary. A meeting or encounter can be good or bad, pleasant or unpleasant, intentional or accidental. Any type of meeting is paga.

- Lightning striking or "meeting" the earth is paga.
- "Meeting" with God in prayer is paga.
- Two or more individuals "meeting" to discuss the future, plan an event, or for any other reason is paga.
- A weapon "meeting" an enemy is paga, therefore is used for attacking, striking, or even impaling with a sword.
- A bull's-eye when shooting a gun is paga – bullet "meets" target.
- Carrying a load for another – their burden "meeting" your strength – is paga.

So, why would this word be used for "intercession"? Because intercessory prayer accomplishes all of these things. It creates meetings between God and man. It forms boundaries of protection around people and places. It releases God's light, lightning, and glory into the earth. It wars against our spiritual enemy. It carries burdens for others, and so much more.

When you began your prayer with, "Father, I meet with you today to…" you were using the literal meaning of paga. When you said, "Father, please meet with so-and-so," you were literally asking for paga. When you said you attended a "prayer meeting," you were much more accurate than you knew – Prayer Meetings are aptly named!

Yeshua said our prayers can connect heaven and earth – paga (Matthew 6:10). God wants to meet with people through our intercession. We can "carry" cities, nations, and government leaders to Him through intercession. God reconciles people to Himself through us. Second Corinthians 5:18-19 states that He "has reconciled us to Himself by Yeshua Christ." But the verses do not stop there. They go on to say He has now "given to us the ministry of reconciliation." God meets with people through us!

Our part in this ministry of reconciliation takes place in various ways: through sharing the gospel with people, by helping to send and support others who spread the gospel, and certainly through intercessory prayer. Webster even uses "reconcile" in its definition of intercession: "to act between parties with a view to reconciling those who differ."(1) In intercessory prayer, we place ourselves "between" God and an individual, becoming the reconciling link. When, for any reason, we meet with God on behalf of another, becoming the connecting link between them, intercession has occurred.

Susan Morin was an intercessor, a link between God and people, a reconciler. She connected heaven and earth, impacting destinies:

"Wanting to do something for God, Susan committed to pray during her forty-five-minute daily commute and asked God for whom she should pray. A note at work caught her attention. 'I'm sorry this payment is late. I have been seriously ill. Thank you, Beverly.' Susan knew she was to pray for her, but not knowing any details, it was difficult. As she faithfully interceded, however, God's great love for Beverly was imparted to her. Susan sent her cards, explaining how God loved her and had led Susan to pray. No responses came, but Susan continued praying.

"Nine months later, Beverly's husband called. Having found Susan's well-worn cards, which evidently meant a lot to his wife, he wanted to share what had happened. Although diagnosed with lung cancer, Beverly had never experienced any pain. Church had never had any real part in their lives, but two weeks before she died, Beverly had asked to be baptized. The night before she died, she told him it was OK; she was going home to be with her Lord.

"Susan was overwhelmed that God had used her to reveal His love to Beverly, allowing Him to meet with her and reconcile her to Himself."(2)

PAGA!!

I have witnessed miracles of healing as God met with people. In 1980, I was on another of my many journeys into Guatemala. On one occasion, Ceci, another couple, and I were ministering to an elderly lady who had recently come to Christ. We had gone to her home to encourage her and have a short Bible study.

Approximately six months earlier, this lady had fallen from a step-stool and severely broken her ankle. As is often the case with the elderly, the fractures were not healing well. Her ankle was still badly swollen, and she was in much pain. While visiting with her, we sensed that God wanted to heal her ankle, right then.

After sharing this and asking for permission, we instructed her to place her leg on an ottoman. Then, we began to pray, sort of.

Has God ever interrupted you? He did so to us on this occasion. When I stepped between her and God to ask for a meeting, the presence of God filled the room so powerfully that I stopped in mid-stride and mid-sentence. I had taken only one step toward her and uttered only one word: "Father."

That's all He needed!

It's as though God was so eager to touch this dear lady that He refused to wait any longer. What I'm about to relate may sound overly dramatic, but it's exactly what took place.

The presence of the Holy Spirit filled the room so strongly that I froze in my tracks, stopped speaking, and began to weep. Ceci and the other couple also began to weep. The lady we were ministering to began to weep. Then her foot began to bounce up and down on the stool for several minutes as she had a powerful encounter with the Holy Spirit — a meeting! The Lord healed her and filled her with His Spirit.

He wants to meet with others through your prayers. Don't be intimidated – Yeshua has qualified you to represent Him. Don't let past failures deter you. Be like the small boy playing in the backyard with his bat and ball:

"'I'm the greatest baseball player in the world,' he said proudly. Then he tossed the ball in the air, swung and missed. Undaunted, he picked up the ball, threw it into the air and said, 'I'm the greatest player ever!' He swung at the ball again, and again he missed. He paused for a moment to examine bat and ball carefully. Then once again he threw the ball into the air and said, 'I'm the greatest baseball player who ever lived.' He swung the bat hard and again missed the ball.

"'Wow!' he exclaimed. 'What a pitcher!'"(3)

Keep the faith!

Pray with me:

Father, we meet with You today, asking You to meet with others through our prayers. Meet with prodigals and unbelievers, drawing them to You. Save and restore. Meet with those who need deliverance from strongholds – set them free. And meet with those who need to be healed, both physically and emotionally.

Connect with people through our prayers, bringing heaven to earth. Release the power of Holy Spirit to break through barriers, heal wounds, open spiritually blind eyes, and reconcile people to Yourself. We ask that You do this in schools, on campuses, in offices, government buildings, homes, and backyards. Replace deception with truth, confusion with soundness of mind, and rebellion with obedience. Heal relationships, painful memories, and broken hearts.

Meet with government leaders today. Impart wisdom, understanding, ideas, and strategies. Meet with pastors and spiritual leaders, imparting wisdom and revelation to them. Restore to them passion, fire, and first love, where needed. Meet with Kingdom-minded business leaders, providing them with insight, creativity, timing, quality employees, and great prosperity.

Kingdom of Christ come! Will of God be done! On earth as it is in heaven. In Yeshua's name, amen.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'I AM SETTLING THE UNSETTLED PLACES OF THE HEART AND MIND IN MY TRUTH AND HEAVENLY PERSPECTIVE'

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'I am settling the unsettled places of the heart and mind in My truth and heavenly perspective.'

I had a vision and I saw many hearts and minds of God's people in the Body of Christ that had the word 'TURMOIL' written in big letters across parts of it.
TURMOIL: a state of extreme confusion, uncertainty, or lack of order
SYNONYMS: Unrest, disruption, chaos, confusion, disturbance, agitation
(Google)

For some, I could see that some of these 'unsettled places' had been deeply unsettled for a very long time. There were mindsets, belief systems and inner world turmoil that these ones had been fighting with for many years.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard the words:
`Expect sudden shifts. I am suddenly bringing a shift into settledness through the revelation of My truth and what I am speaking and how I see things. I am bringing divine order to these areas of your heart, and I am challenging mindsets that are not in line with My perspective and divine order.'

I began to see such weariness that many had been living in because of these unsettled places in their hearts and lives. I saw so much strength that was taken from these precious sons and daughters of God because of these unsettled places of the heart and mind. I could feel the heart of the Father and His comfort so strongly in these places of weariness – a weariness that was deeper than 'physical rest' could fix. These unsettled places were leaving many feeling deeply depleted.

I then heard:
'My people, I am delivering you from mindsets that have contained you and caged you. I am freeing you from heavy expectations, burdens and pressures that you have been carrying that are not from Me. I am setting you free. I am setting you free in the revelation of My truth and the revelation of My perspective as I bring divine order to these places of your heart and your minds. As you lean into My voice and saturate yourself in My truth, I say unto you, you will see in greater ways in the coming days how the revelation of how I see things – My heavenly perspective and My divine order – is bringing you into life and life more abundantly. I am uprooting the mindsets, expectations and belief systems that have kept you in containment.

'My truth and My power is setting you free and bringing you into an expanse of freedom in Me that you have not known before. I am bringing you into deep rest of heart and mind – delivered from the torment and turmoil of the mind as you are awakened in greater ways to My truth, My ways and My divine order for this hour.

'I say unto you, BE LOOSED from false expectations. I say unto you, BE LOOSED from demonic torment of the mind that has been coming against you to attempt to keep you from seeing My perspective and the divine order that I am bringing, and to attempt to keep you in the place of chaos. I say unto you, BE LOOSED from the chaos the enemy is attempting to keep you contained in. EVERY CHAIN of containment in these areas of your heart and mind, that have been living in these unsettled places for longer than you can remember, are now being broken as you HEAR, SEE, RECEIVE and PERCEIVE My truth and what I am speaking to you.

'I am removing the veils that have tried to hinder you from seeing as I see. I am moving you into a greater unveiling of MY TRUTH in these unsettled places of the heart and mind; and you will see TRUTH PREVAIL. I am bringing you even more deeply into My peace. I am bringing you deeper into walking in the greater manifestation of the SHALOM that is yours in Me.

'I say unto you, that as you see, hear, perceive and receive My truth and what I am speaking, these unsettled places of the heart and mind will now become the greatest places of peace and rest. I say unto you, not only will you find that the inner turmoil you have battled for so long in these areas of the heart and mind is suddenly broken by MY VOICE of truth and the revelation of MY perspective; you will see a birthing of a move of My Spirit through these very areas which the enemy attempted to occupy in the unsettledness.

'I say unto you, watch now as I bring this divine settling to these areas of the heart and mind – which have been so chained in turmoil – into such deep freedom. Not only will I bring you into greater depths of My joy, but watch as freedom to dream with Me increases in greater ways. These areas of turmoil, these mindsets and deep pressure and false burdens many of you have been living under have hindered your ability to dream with Me: and I say unto you, that a new day of DREAMING WITH ME is now coming forth. Watch the ABUNDANT FRUITFULNESS that will come as I turn these unsettled places to some of the most settled places of your hearts and minds. I am deeply establishing you in My truth.'

I then heard Psalm 16:11 surrounding me:
'You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; In Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.' (AMP)
The sense surrounded me so deeply – as the Lord was turning these unsettled places into deeply settled places – He was leading His people deeper into experiencing the fullness of joy that is found in His presence, and into a greater revelation of His heavenly, eternal perspective. There was such a sense of deeper joy in His presence and in His guidance. I saw how some of these unsettled places of the heart and mind were deeply affecting some people in their co-laboring with the Lord in the assignments that He has given them in this hour. I saw some of these mindsets, belief systems had brought a deep struggle for many in walking out the assignment He has given them, and I then heard the Lord say, 'IT'S A NEW DAY. IT'S A NEW DAY.'

I could feel the tangible sense of the Lord's divine order and alignment that was happening in their hearts and lives, which was going to see explosive freedom burst forth in their lives in the areas of their assignment/s. Such clarity was coming upon them. False weights and burdens, expectations of man, expectations they had placed upon themselves and even expectations and mindsets that they had attributed to the Lord which were not of Him, suddenly falling away. They were moving into a greater realm of peace, dreaming with Him, and flourishing in their current assignments.

'My people, a new day of freedom is upon you. Arise now further into the freedom that is yours in Me. I am bringing you deeper into freedom's rest.'
'So if the Son makes you free, then you are unquestionably free.'
(John 8:36 AMP)

Do you think we might need to understand warfare?

From; "The Heart of a Seer, Ascending to see the King,"

Chapter 12 By Wade Butler

Our enemy has been practicing it for nearly seven thousand years. He thinks he is an expert. I wanted to understand my position and weapons before I got destroyed. Ephesians became my favorite book in the New Testament. 2 Corinthians is the next most important book in relationship to war. I've seen the Glory of God, and I've seen the plans of the enemy; We win! Yet we need to be prepared. In my immaturity and gusto, I took on principalities, not realizing that they can harm you. It doesn't take but one encounter in the field to realize you need the whole Armor of God. The enemy strategizes from his history of dealing with mankind over and over again. We have been given everything we need, yet it is up to us to suit up.

In any sport, the best coaches train their team based on situational battle. They watch films of the opponents' strengths and weaknesses. They are prepared to face their opponents. Should the church not do the same? That is why it was called the Ekklesia, the (Governing Body), not the nursery.

It has been my honor over the past several years to work with some of the many brilliant military minds and strategists from the US and Canada. They have protocols in place to deal with situational warfare.

When you follow apostolic and prophetic leaders like Chuck Pierce and Dutch Sheets, you find out very quickly that every season is set aside for some form of battle. At times, you discover that some of the enemy is still on your heels, regardless of your age. That is why we claim Isaiah 58:8 Then your light shall break forth like the morning, Your healing shall spring forth speedily, And your righteousness shall go before you; The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

A perfect example is a dream/vision from just days before I wrote this chapter. On two consecutive nights during Passover week, the very same dream moved into an open vision as I got out of bed. Our LORD showed me that the streams of finance were going to be released, and I was to get ready to travel throughout the nation planting seeds of the Kingdom in the financial world. That's something to get excited about! Then I saw the wolves. With every seed that was sown, a pack of ravenous black wolves was ready to devour the fruit of the planting. I awoke two days in a row seeing the battle that would follow the seed if the recipients were not prepared to stop the attacks. Holy Spirit spoke to me in the vision saying, "Prepare the people for war. Have them suit up, and have all of Ephesians 6 and 2 Corinthians 10 embedded in them."

From Weaklings in Battle to Trained Mighty Warriors of War!

"As Weaklings we go into Battle, But as Mighty Warriors, we Emerge for War." "Beloved, Let Me Train your hands for War and give you fingers skilled for battle!"

Recently, I found myself in a cold doctor's office, seated beside one of the most remarkable women I know~ a Woman of Valor who has faced sickness and adversity that would overwhelm most in two lifetimes. Yet, there she sat, receiving a Cancer diagnosis that would terrify even the fiercest of fighters. But God!!

As we held each other tightly after the news, the road ahead suddenly loomed very dark and beyond daunting. Another fight for her life was about to unfold; not just for her, but also for those of us who love her so deeply. In that heart-wrenching moment, as I watched tears roll down her face, I felt utterly helpless and overwhelmed. I cried out to the Lord, looking for a word of comfort and strength for us both. And then, I heard Him say, "As weaklings, you go into battle, but as Mighty Warriors, you emerge for War. Beloved, LET ME train your hands for war and give you fingers skilled for battle."

Reflecting and meditating on those powerful words, the Spirit of Revelation began to show me that it is only through the crucible of conflict and despair that we 'BECOME' by the flames of affliction. If we will Choose to yield to the searing fire and heat, our lives will be tempered and transformed to truly reflect the One who controls the furnace dial. As we navigate through the Valley of the shadow of death, let us choose Trust over Fear. Amidst the turmoil and tempest, the Holy Spirit will empower us to wield our worst fears as mighty weapons of warfare. Our doubts will be transformed into fearless courage, enabling us to confront the fiercest storms with unwavering and unshakeable hearts; If we keep our eyes fixed on Him, we will Arise Victorious!

The shadows of despair and death in this Valley may seem frightening and overwhelming, but we do not walk by sight; we Advance by faith. The light of His Love and Glory will always pierce and penetrate the veil of the darkest of places, illuminating the supernatural strength and power to prevail that dwells by His Spirit within us. From the fires of adversity and from the ashes of conflict, If we will "LET HIM" Train our Hands for War and our fingers for Battle, We will emerge not merely as survivors, but as Mighty Warriors of Divine Purpose and Destiny. Equipped and ready, we will forge ahead into uncharted waters and claim the Land of Promise, where the Giants become our bread!! Remember. In this journey of Supernatural transformation and Spiritual Metamorphosis, we are NEVER alone. The Lord Himself walks beside us, His Ever-Presence is a constant Companion equipping us for every fiery trial and testing ahead.

If we will LET HIM Train our Hands for War, every mess will truly become a Message of Redemption, Restoration and greater Transformation, and every setback will become a divine Set Up for reaping the Spoils of Gold and Silver and greater Blessing. In the midst of our hearts breaking and our spirits aching, the Potter's Wheel is turning as He gently begins to reshape and remold our greatest fears into fierce and immovable resolve.

Take heart, dear friend, If you have been thrust as a Weakling into battle. Remember, the Battle will not define you, but it will refine you! FOR THIS BATTLE IS THE BECOMING OF A MIGHTY WARRIOR TRAINED FOR WAR! Yes!! We may find ourselves stumbling, and we may feel like we are crumbling, but like the phoenix that rises from the ashes, as we Wait on the Lord, we will Rise Up on the Wings like Eagles, to Soar high above the Valley of the Shadow of Death. With every tear shed, and with every desperate Prayer whispered, we are being meticulously crafted; our legacy as Warriors will be unbreakable, unstoppable, and filled with Divine purpose. And In those quiet nights, when doubt and fears creep in and the Shadows of death fill the room, let us remember the promises of God etched by the finger of God in our hearts. With every breath, we will declare Faith, Radical Hope and Healing. And with every step, we will Reclaim what the thief came to rob, kill and destroy.

And when the enemy comes in like a flood trying to convince us of our weaknesses, we will Arise with the Sword and Shield and with the Belt of Truth to declare that we are more than Conquerors through Christ Yeshua. His strength is made perfect in our weakness, and we rise, not in our own might, but in His. I know, the battlefield may seem endless, but we are not without hope; He is a light in the tunnel. Every fight for the Warrior is not in vain, but it is a divine opportunity to become part of a sacred tapestry woven with golden threads of supernatural resilience, faith, and courage. Each battle fought and won is by the Blood and by the power of our testimony, to the glory of God and to the power of His unyielding love and faithfulness! So, friends, today we will lift our heads high, our hearts bold, and we declare, "I am a Mighty Warrior of War!"

We take up the armor of God and we will wield the Sword of the Spirit to claim Victory over every giant that stands in our way. As Mighty Warriors we march onward, unafraid and unashamed, knowing that with God as our Commander, Victory is not just a possibility, but a God-given Covenant Promise to fulfil our Destiny!

I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'AS YOU WORSHIP, BARRIERS, CONTAINMENTS AND HARD GROUNDS ARE BREAKING OPEN.'

Recently, I had a vision, and I saw many with raised hands in worship, and their eyes were filled with such awe and wonder of who Yeshua is – truly a deep place of beholding Him. I could feel the sense in the spirit of such devotion to the Lord and worshipping Him in Spirit and in truth. (John 4:24)

I then began to hear the sound of things shattering, and I began to see barriers and containments breaking open. There was a violent breaking through and breaking open and I was struck so deeply again by how much happens in the spirit that we don't even realize or perceive as we worship. I could feel the sense so strongly of how worship is warfare; and I could see hosts of angels being dispatched as worship of our beautiful Yeshua was resounding from the lives of these precious saints.

As I leaned in and listened to His heart, I heard:

'My people, I am doing much that you do not see as you worship Me. I am bringing you deeper into My reality – the reality in which you truly live. I am bringing you deeper into communion with Me as you worship. I am bringing you deeper into seeing Me and seeing who I am, and the transformation that is taking place as you worship is far greater than you see.

'The enemy has tried so hard in this season to keep your eyes on the ground and to keep your eyes fixed on the barriers, the containments and the hard grounds. But I say unto you, that as you worship, I am recalibrating your perspective and your vision. For where many have magnified the barriers, the containments and the hard grounds, I am bringing you deeper into the place of encountering Me and My Majesty. I say unto you, that where eyes have been fixed on barriers, containments and hard grounds, in worship I am lifting your eyes up higher.

'As you worship Me, there is a sound of repentance rising to Me, as many come to a deeper realization and revelation that you were not created to live with your eyes on the ground and your eyes on the natural realm. You were created to live ever-growing and increasing in revelation of who I am: the One who is not contained, the One whose power knows no bounds and the One who has grafted you in to live in the heavenly reality that, in Me, all things are possible to those who believe (Mark 9:23).

'Where there has been such a battle over your perspective and vision, where your flesh has continued to want to magnify the barriers, containments and hard grounds – and their impossibility – where the enemy has flooded you with natural realm perspectives and accusations and lies, as you worship Me,

I am bringing you into such an increased panoramic vision of what I am speaking, what I am doing, and what I am going to do. But you must remain steadfast in your worship and recognize there is a significant battle taking place; it's the battle of what you will behold. Meditate not upon the barriers and containments and hard grounds, but meditate upon Me and My Majesty as you come deeper in worship of Me.

'My people, I say unto you, that you have entered days where you are going to see in greater ways what happens when you worship Me. You have entered days where your eyes shall be opened in greater ways to the movement of My Spirit and My angelic hosts as you worship. I say unto you, that the enemy has come so hard against many of you to attempt to hinder your movement and your momentum by trying to lure you into agreement of the impossibility of the natural realm barriers, containments and hard grounds.

'I say unto you, the enemy has come against many, attempting to sow seeds of lies about My character and My goodness – as barriers, containments and hard grounds shouted louder and louder and you have had to stand and remain in the truth of My goodness and My nature. I am for you and not against you (Rom 8:31), and My ways are good (Psalm 18:30). Oh, the depths of revelation of My nature and My goodness, My power and My love, that is increasing and will continue to rapidly increase in the place of worship. Not only am I healing hearts in worship, but I am supernaturally bringing you into a greater place of expectancy and revelation of My power.

'I say unto you, watch barriers, containments and hard grounds break in greater ways than you have ever seen. Keep your eyes on Me. Behold Me in worship. Exalt My name, as My name is above EVERY other name, and there is no greater name than My name, and I am about to make My name known in ways you have never seen before. Do not be mesmerized, distracted or bound to focus upon these barriers, containments and hard grounds. Lift up your eyes and worship Me. Watch how I will do more in one day as you worship Me than could ever be done in the natural. I am moving to raise up My people as worship warriors, being awakened to the power of praise and the power of worship. Where there has been a battle over what you behold, fix your heart and eyes on Me and behold ME.

'My River of refreshment is crashing over you and filling you as you worship. I am breaking down the barriers, I am smashing the containments, I am breaking open the hard grounds. Worship and dance upon the hard grounds. Declare My name. Speak My name over the barriers, containments and hard grounds and watch how My hand moves to remove them and break them open to make way for My Glory. Where there have been the greatest containments, barriers and hard grounds in this season, are going to be places of some of the greatest outpouring of My Spirit, My oil and My Glory.'

What has the Lord called you to do? What is your position in HIS Army?

Some of the Generals of the past seasons.
T.L. Osborn, Kenneth Hagin, and Oral Roberts.

Kenneth Hagin: YOU WILL EXCEL IN YOUR CALLING IF YOU WILL STAND IN IT.

You can stand in more than one office, but you need to find out where you are and what your office is and yield to that. Then God will use you, and you will excel in your calling.

God didn't call us all to do the same thing. Sometimes we ministers try to be a jack-of-all-trades, and we become the master of none. We try to do too much; we spread ourselves too thin, and the anointing's not there to do it.

That's the reason people get in trouble: They try to function in an office to which God didn't call them. They do something just because somebody else is doing it. And that is very dangerous.

I remember something that Brother Howard Carter said. He was a great teacher and a great man of God. I never knew him personally, but I had an opportunity to hear him preach once in Texas. After the service, I met him. He was about 70 at the time, and he lived to be over 80.

While we were talking, a woman came up to him, asking, "Brother Carter, would you pray for the healing of my child?"

He answered, "Go get my wife to lay hands on her. God doesn't use me much along that line, but nearly everybody she lays hands on gets healed, and nearly everybody I lay hands on gets baptized with the Holy Spirit." (That's a good combination, isn't it?)

I'd seen him take 19 people into a side room that night, speak a few words to them, lay hands on them, and all 19 of them began to speak in tongues the minute he touched them.

He said, "That's my ministry. That's where my anointing is.

My wife's anointing is to lay hands on the sick."

When the woman left to look for Sister Carter, Brother Carter turned to us preachers and said, "Of course, I could have prayed in faith for her child, but if somebody's anointed to minister that way, it's a whole lot better."

Yes, he could have prayed the prayer of faith—any one of us ministers standing there that night could have prayed the prayer of faith and laid hands on the child. The laying on of hands belongs to all believers according to Mark 16:17,18.

But what was Brother Carter recognizing? He was recognizing that in the ministry, some of us are anointed to do one thing and some are anointed to do another, and if we'll excel where our anointing is, we'll be a greater blessing to the Body of Christ.

No one is going to do it all. We need each other. I praise God for every ministry called of God and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'THE HEAVINESS AND ATTACK MANY OF YOU HAVE BEEN FACING HAS BEEN COMING AFTER YOUR VOICE. LIFT YOUR VOICE AND COME NOT DOWN OFF THE WALL.'

At the start of this week I felt Nehemiah 6 come strongly upon my heart, and the encouragement and call of the Lord to not come down off the wall and what the Lord has called you to build and rebuild in this season.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened, I heard Him speaking to many:

'The heaviness and attack many of you have been facing has been coming after your voice. Lift your voice and come not down off the wall.'

There was such a strong sense that surrounded me, that the heaviness and attack which many have been facing was pushing so hard against them that there was such a strong temptation to come down off the wall of what the Lord had called them to build. There was a spiritual demonic lethargy that had come upon many, and the sense was so strong that I could feel so many feeling like they were just too tired to keep building or that it was too hard to keep going.

As I continued to seek the Lord's heart, I heard:

'Lift your voice. Lift up your voice. Praise is your weapon, and praise is the KEY TO YOUR VICTORY. Praise is the KEY TO YOUR VICTORY. There is a mighty shift and a mighty increase that is upon you in this hour, and I am bringing forth a birthing in the building that I have called you to put your hands to in this season. The weariness and lethargy that you have been feeling and that has been coming upon you is not natural, and it is sent by the enemy to cause you to lay down your weapon of praise.

'It is coming against you to cause you to lay down your weapons, to not stand in faith, to lay aside your assignment and to lay down the supernatural strategies and tools I have given you in your hands in this season to build with Me – to walk away. I say unto you, STAY ON THE WALL. STAY ON THE WALL. I say unto you, that as you open your mouths and praise Me, as you lift your voice and shout, you are about to see VICTORIES that you have not yet seen.

'The enemy has been coming against many of you with this heaviness and attack, because as you praise Me, you are going to see the WALLS that have been hindering you – the walls that have been in your pathways that have been built by the enemy to attempt to keep you out of where I am calling you and the areas I am calling you to build in – SUDDENLY COME DOWN.

'I say unto you, as you praise Me and as you open your mouth with a shout of praise, you are going to dance upon the head of the enemy. I say unto you, you are about to tread on the plans of the enemy in a way that you have not seen before, and you are going to see a new sound of MY AUTHORITY released through your praise that will see CHAINS BREAK.

'I say unto you, that as you lift your voice and praise Me, you will see My mighty hand bring forth a greater ESTABLISHING and FORTIFYING taking place in clarity, strength and vision – to what I am calling you to and have called you to build and rebuild with Me in this season. I say unto you, that as you lift up your voices and praise Me, the vision will NOT be stolen, but it will be ENLARGED.

'I say unto you, that you will see My hammer of justice come down upon the head of the enemy as you lift up a shout of praise, and you will see a mighty demonstration of My justice come forth that will manifest some of the most powerful demonstrations of DIVINE ORDER that you have ever seen. I say unto you, the enemy has been pushing hard against you with heaviness and attack to bring you out of alignment with My divine order and My assignments that I have given you in this season by attempting to lure you off the wall. But as you raise your voice in praise to Me and declare MY name and who I am over the plans and attacks of the enemy, you will see a MIGHTY demonstration of My power bringing forth divine alignment in and through your lives in ways you have not seen before.

'I say unto you, that as you raise your voice in praise to Me, as you exalt Me, I say unto you, that you will hear the ROAR OF MY HEART louder than you have ever heard it. You will hear the ROAR OF HEAVEN released in an increased way. I say unto you, as you raise your voice in PRAISE, you are posturing yourselves and positioning yourselves to HEAR AND RECEIVE

MY ROAR in a greater way in the areas that I am calling you to build in, and there will be new areas where I will release My ROAR to you.

'The groans of intercession will come upon you in greater ways to BIRTH that which I am wanting to bring forth in the earth - My plans, My purposes. The enemy has roared loudly against you with heaviness and attack to silence you, but as you praise Me, there is a greater depth of co-laboring with Me in seeing MY ROAR released through in the place of prayer, intercession and obedience to My strategies and assignments.

'Stay on the wall, My people. Do not move from what I have called you to. Look not at the enemy. Look not at what is attempting to taunt and distract you to come down and come off the wall of what I've called you to build and rebuild with Me. Look to Me. Lift up your eyes and PRAISE ME!!! Lift your voice and take authority through your praise over the airwaves. Lift your voice in praise, and WATCH the enemy flee. Lift up your voice and praise, and WATCH My power come, and watch what I am going to do.

'Watch some of the greatest deliverances, shifts and birthings take place in supernatural acceleration in MOMENTS of praise. The enemy is attempting to silence you because of what I am doing through your praise to Me and as My voice of authority is released through your mouth. Where fear and intimidation have come against many of you to keep you confined and hidden, you are being set free as you PRAISE and WATCH the power of high praise bring fear upon the enemy's camp and cause him to scatter and MY VICTORY come forth.'

Steve Porter: Only Yeshua Matters

"Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant on the lookout for choice pearls. When he discovered a pearl of great value, he sold everything he owned and bought it!" (Matthew 13:45–46 NLT)

These three words came like a holy whisper through my spirit: "Only Yeshua matters."

The voice wasn't loud; it didn't come in booming. It was tender, gentle, and sacred. It settled over me like warm oil—soothing, stilling, and awakening. At that moment I knew the Lord was pulling back the veil, letting me see through Heaven's lens.

Yeshua is the pearl of great price, the treasure hidden in a field, and the desire of all nations. He is altogether lovely, radiant with majesty and mercy. He is more precious than silver, more costly than gold, and more fulfilling than the applause of men. When all is said and done, only Yeshua matters.

Enter Heaven with Empty Hands but Full Hearts

I saw it in the spirit. People were running in every direction, the weight of this world crushing them with busyness, anxiety, and stress. Their calendars were full, but their hearts were empty. Their days were crowded, but their spirits were famished.

Through the noise, I heard Him again: "Only Yeshua matters—not your titles, not your deadlines, and not your performance, only Yeshua."

Then I saw another scene: people striving for wealth. They were chasing promotions, investing in stocks, flipping homes, and seeking the next big deal. I felt the Lord's compassion as He gently spoke, "It's not wrong to have resources—just don't let them have you."

We can fund the Kingdom with our abundance, but we can't take riches into eternity. We enter Heaven with empty hands but full hearts. Beloved, your earthly mansion cannot compare to the one He's preparing in glory. Only Yeshua matters.

The Way up Is Still Down

Then I saw a boardroom—polished shoes, name badges, and ambition thick in the air. Some were obsessed with status, craving the attention of men, chasing titles and platforms. But Yeshua leaned in close to whisper, "The way up... is still down." Heaven crowns the humble. The applause of angels is reserved for those who disappear into His will.

Promotion in the Kingdom is never self-appointed; it is God-ordained. It comes when we decrease so that He might increase. Dear one, the ladder to greatness was never made of success, but surrender. Only Yeshua matters.

Pleasure Without Presence Is a Shallow Drink

And then I saw wanderers—always planning and dreaming of sandy beaches, exotic vacations, and the next thrilling escape. But even after the fifth vacation, they still felt hollow inside. And I heard it again: "Only Yeshua matters."

You can fly first class, dine in the finest restaurants, and still ache with emptiness. There's nothing wrong with getting away, but leisure was never meant to replace the presence of the Lord. Pleasure without presence is a shallow drink. Don't become a lover of pleasure more than a lover of God (2 Timothy 3:4). Only He can satisfy the deep thirst of the soul.

Only Yeshua Can Heal the Wounds the World Can't See

Then came the most sorrowful sight. I saw men and women numbing their pain—drinking, smoking, and self-medicating with prescription pills or distractions. They weren't trying to be rebellious; they were just broken and trying to silence the scream inside. But only Yeshua heals the wounds the world can't see.

No pill can mend a shattered spirit. No substance can still the ache for eternal love. You need the Healer, not just a coping mechanism. He is standing at the well of your soul, dear one, asking, "Will you drink of Me? Will you let Me heal what no one else can touch?"

Only Yeshua matters. So I ask you, beloved, is there something you're holding on to tighter than Him—a dream, a relationship... an idol tucked deep within? Lay it down. Let go. Let Him be your everything. Has something stolen your time or your heart? Is it a distraction that once felt harmless but now pulls you away from intimacy? Cut the cords. Set the boundaries. Re-center your soul.

Return to Your First Love: Only Yeshua Can Fill What the World Leaves Hollow

Return to your first love. He's waiting. What pain are you hiding beneath the surface? Is there a wound you've carried so long you've learned to function around it? Don't bury it. Don't hide it. Bring it to the feet of the Savior. He binds up the brokenhearted. He will not shame you; He will heal you. And where have you been running for satisfaction? Wealth? Fame? Leisure? Status? These are but shadows pretending to shine.

Only Yeshua is the Light. Only Yeshua can fill what the world leaves hollow. Let this be the moment of surrender, the sacred turning point where you declare with tears in your eyes and joy in your heart, "Only Yeshua matters."

It's Your Surrender He Remembers

Dear friend, eternity will not weigh your resume'. Heaven will not be impressed by your net worth. The angels will not celebrate your Instagram feed. It's your heart that He wants; it's your surrender He remembers. One day You'll stand before Him, with His eyes of fire and a voice like many waters. And in that moment, nothing else will matter but this: Did you know Him? Did you love Him? Did you make room for Him?

Oh, beloved, may these simple words ring in your heart like a holy bell: Only Yeshua matters. Say it until it settles your soul. Whisper it until it reorders your desires. Shout it until every idol breaks. And when it grips you fully—when it owns you the way it owned me that day—tears will fall, joy will rise, and peace will flood your heart.

Because the greatest revelation of all is this: He is enough, He is everything... He is all.

Tidbits from Fullness in Christ Ministries

Robin Robinson Bohlin

Every family in Heaven and earth gets its name from Me. Why? Because I am God the Father. Some of you need to change the way you think about your wayward family members. Instead of YOU being the "change agent", allow ME to be the "Change Agent". If I am the One they are truly named after, then I am the One who can change them from the inside out.

Ephesians 3:15 (AMPC) "For Whom every family in heaven and on Earth is named [that Father from Whom all fatherhood takes its title and derives its name]."

More than you can ever think or imagine! Yes, it's too good to be true, but that's My plan for you, so think big, dream big. This is your future. Many of you limit yourself because something didn't work out in the past. Leave your past behind and dream big. When I say that I will do more than you can ask or think or imagine – it's true. It's a trust walk – Let's go!

Ephesians 3:20-21 (ESV) "Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen."

Pam Jackson

Hey you, are you listening? Do you hear Me because I am speaking to you right where you are. Listen up. It's time to tune into My voice not, the voice of those around you. You cry for revival; I cry for love. You say, "Speak to me Lord," and I say, "Listen to what I'm saying. Don't pursue revival, pursue love. With My love you can live in revival every day. Pursue Me."

Proverbs 8:17 (AMP) "I love those who love me; And those who seek me early and diligently will find me."

Jennifer Peikert

Take some time and go into your secret place and sit with Me and listen. I have much to say to you in this hour. Put aside all schedules and agendas, shut out all noise and listen. It is ok to rest and be still. I have a lot to say to you that will change your life and bring a shift to you. It is time for you to listen and experience new encounters with Me. I will meet you there.

Matthew 6:6 (CSB) "But when you pray, go into your private room, shut the door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you."

Psalm 46:10a (NLT) "Be still and know that I am God!"

CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Pastor Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Robin Bohlin, Pam Jackson, Jennifer Peikert, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Baruch Hoffinger, Nate & Christy Johnston, Veronika West, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, John & Janet Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Steve Porter, Lana Vawser, Dutch Sheets, Terry Friesen, Nathan Shaw, Yvon Attia, Roseangela Atte, Barry Wunsch, Roma Waterman, Kathi Pelton, Faith Marie Baczko, Pat Francis, Keneth Hagin, with additional occasional quotes from sermons and the book, "A Time To Advance" by Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler.

Study to show yourself approved."

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, "Study to show yourself approved."

2 Timothy 2:15 Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth.

Additionally, pay attention to 2 Chronicles 20:20. Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the Lord your God and you shall be established; believe and remain steadfast to His prophets and you shall prosper.

"Prepare your hearts, for I am doing a new thing. Stand firm in faith and watch as My promises unfold before you. This is your season of divine breakthrough, wonders, healings, testimonies, promotions, and deliverance."
