The Biblical Month of Kislev 5786: Chaplain Wade K. Butler

Each new month is packed with Revelation, Wisdom, and our LORD showing us things we did not know. Jeremiah 33:3, "Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you [and even show you] great and mighty things, [things which have been confined and hidden], which you do not know and understand and cannot distinguish."

Wade Butler: A word from the LORD!

Over the last six years, I have been blessed to have the gifts given me by our LORD open up to realms I never imagined. For so many years, I pulled back on saying what I saw or experienced. My heart had been stepped on by so many pastors and lay people that I only spoke out to those who knew me personally. My gifts were used only for business or charity, never to the "church." Then a young man, Blake Healy, told his story at Glory of Zion, and I had the opportunity to talk with him afterwards and was blessed beyond my hopes and dreams. I had seen the same things he experienced. Yeshua spoke to me and said, "Come out of Hiding, I have a plan for you. Tell my sons and daughters what I show you." Then the journey began.

Immediately, HE took my hand and pulled me into Him to allow me to see through HIS eyes. It was overwhelming. Out of my right eye I saw the Kingdom of Heaven, and out of my left eye I saw the earth. It shook me to the core of everything I knew and believed. Wickedness was everywhere on earth, while Heaven was beautiful beyond compare. Angel Armies were ready to advance as if waiting for the command. They are waiting for the sons and daughters to rise up!

He next said, "Tell MY sons and daughters that I AM giving gifts for the season ahead for signs, wonders, and miracles that will soon take place. It is the time and season, get ready, get ready, get ready. The hidden ones are coming out. Children will lay hands on the wounded ones and healing miracles will take place. Be obedient, cast off your sin, shout back at the enemy who is yelling at you, and they will flee because they know I AM with you. Put them to flight, and hear what I am saying through the Word and MY Prophets."

*2 Chronicles 20:20B Amplified Bible, Classic Edition
Believe in the Lord your God and you shall be established; believe and remain steadfast to His prophets and you shall prosper. (To truly prosper is to be in HIS presence, HIS Glory).

I asked the LORD, "Who can receive this?" HE said, "I have prepared the hearts of those who will know the truth. The battle is great, but I AM with you. Do not fear, the battle is yours if you listen to MY voice. The enemy is terrified, do not back down. Call upon MY blood, Pray to the FATHER, I AM is here for you."

On ascensions into the heavenly dimension, I have seen:

- Yeshua, Abba-my Father, Angels by the thousands, the Heavenly Host, the Cloud of Witnesses, Saints of old and the redeemed beyond number.
- Heaven as it really is, structures so beautiful they cannot be described, flowers that emit praise - everything is alive.
- I've danced with King David, and talked with Esther and the Disciples.
- Experienced joy which is not obtainable on earth.
- Laughed with Yeshua and experienced love in its purest form.

Yeshua is inviting everyone to join him. Heaven and hell are real. The biggest decision we have to make is where you are going to spend eternity. Your fate is up to you. As it has been said many times, "Choose Wisely."

He had me write a book about my experiences: "The Heart of a Seer." This, as well as the Republic Books, are available on my website (foreverwest.biz) and also available on Amazon.com. The reviews say that you will be blessed.

Every month I research the scriptures, new authors, text, and art for the month. Every time I am amazed. This month the celebration of "Chanukah" (or Hanukkah as we would say it) is beginning. I don't generally push new resources separately, but I feel compelled to mention several of those who are featured. As always, Chuck Pierce, Dutch Sheets, Lana Vawser, Veronica West, Nate Johnston, plus up to sixty featured prophetic voices. We are blessed each month to have contributions from our own in-house authors. The Calendar could not be done without Bruce and Linda Dietler, John and Janet Rockwell, plus all in-house seers, prophets, hearers, and teachers. Thanks to all of you!!!!

James Nesbit: The Commander-in-Chief sets on a white horse ready to Advance! Repeated from Kislev 5784.

Heavenly Father, we come today in the Name of our Commander-in-Chief Yeshua. With a blast of your rebuke, nations are destroyed. You obliterated their names forever and ever!

Lord, You thunder, and our enemies are cut off, and they vanish in everlasting ruins! All their cities have been destroyed — even the memory of them has been erased. Yahweh, our mighty God, it is You who reigns forever! You sit enthroned as King ready to render Your verdicts and judge all with righteousness. You have issued decrees of judgment, deciding what is right for the entire world, dispensing justice to all. All who are oppressed come to You Yahweh as a high shelter in the time of trouble, a perfect hiding place. For everyone who knows your wonderful name keeps putting their trust in you. They can count on you for help no matter what.

O Lord, you will never, not never, neglect those who come to you. You track down killers and avenge bloodshed, You will never forget the ones forgotten by others, hearing every one of their cries for justice. We are thanking you O Lord, that You haven't forgotten the hostages! Your mercy is moving, and You have Taken note of how they have been humiliated at the hands of those who hate them! We thank You this day for snatching them away from the gates of death.

We are singing your praises as they pass through the gates rejoicing in Your great deliverance! For the nations get trapped in the very snares they set for others. The hidden trap they set for the weak has snapped shut upon themselves! Yahweh, You are famous for Your justice! While the wicked are digging pits for others, they have actually set the terms for their own judgment. They will fall into their own pits! Consider the truth of this and pause in Elohim's presence. Don't forget this: all the wicked will one day fall into the darkness of death's domain, including the nations that forget God and reject His ways.

Yahweh, for the time in which we have entered, the time of Your arising and judging the nations who defy you, do not let these rebellious men triumph. Make them tremble in fear before your presence. Place a lawgiver over them. Make them know that they are only puny, frail humans who must give account to you! In this hour of human history, within remnants scattered across the Globe, Holy Spirit, You are causing the darkness of this confusion in the earth to scatter by the Great Light of the Spirit of Truth.

We worship you while our enemies run in retreat. They stumble and perish before Your presence; from your righteous throne you have given us justice! Hamas has descended into an advanced and fortified underground system and built a number of protective mechanisms. "Some of the tunnels can be attacked from the air," the officials have said. "The ground entry of the IDF exposes the enemy's infrastructure and the Armies of Israel's engineering corps have begun with the destruction of shafts and tunnels." What they are doing in the natural, through the Victorious Blood of the Son, we are doing in the Spiritual, rooting out, pulling down, overthrowing, and destroying the ancient nest of these five rulers of darkness listed in Joshua 13:3!

Thank You Father, for telling me yesterday to declare this day that the spinal column of the "Death Cult of Hamas" has been severed! We declare that they have become quadriplegic in their abilities to steal, kill, and destroy!

All glory, All honor, All power to You!

In the name of Yeshua, Heavenly Commander-in-Chief, we come!

Prayer guide for Kislev 5786

Kislev is the Third Month of the Spiritual New Year and the ninth of the twelve months of the Hebrew physical calendar.

Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word.

In developing this calendar, prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD. Additionally, publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Hiedler and many other contributing authors are included. 1 Thessalonians 5:20, Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

The Hebrew Month of Kislev

Kislev is best known for the holiday of Chanukah and the New Year of Chassidism.

Last Night of Chanukah - By David Asher Brook

Kislev (or Chislev) is the ninth month on the Jewish calendar, counting from Nisan. It is best known for the holiday of Chanukah, or Hanukkah, which begins on 25 Kislev. The message of Chanukah is the eternal power of light over darkness—good over evil. Aside from commemorating the miraculous victory of the small Jewish army over the mighty Syrian-Greek empire, Chanukah celebrates the miracle of the oil. When the Jews sought to light the Temple menorah after the war, they found only one small jug of pure oil. Miraculously, the one-day supply burned for eight days, and the sages instituted the eight-day festival of Chanukah, during which we kindle the menorah nightly.

Kislev is the month of Hanukah, called the festival of lights. Yeshua is the Divine Light!

The light that comes from fire is dependent on the burning and destroying of something else. Divine light, however, is self-derived. At the Burning Bush, Moses encounters Divine light. It shines like a fire, and yet the bush is not consumed. This light doesn't necessarily take away the darkness–it somehow shines within the darkness. This is the "Ohr HaGanuz," the 'Hidden Light', the Divine light that burns within the darkness of Creation, yet doesn't consume Creation. It is the light of Hanukkah revealed in the darkest nights of the year and the darkest times of exile. Thus, the small jug of oil lit by the kohanim didn't consume any oil.

When people are inspired, they can rise to meet great challenges. These are times when the pure "oil" of a person's soul shines brightly. Sadly, however, such peak experiences of inspiration wane, and most people return to the comfort of darkness.

The "miracle" of Hanukkah was that the Menorah was able to shine brightly for eight nights, extending beyond the natural cycle of a week. If Hanukkah began on a Sunday, the last night was also Sunday again, and yet they were illumined as if it were the first night. The brilliance actually filled them throughout the whole year, and therefore they established that the inspiration and illumination of Hanukkah would continue to manifest every year, for all generations.

The name Kislev derives from the Hebrew word for "security" and "trust."

Both are found in the month of Kislev. Hanukah reflects the active, in the war of liberation led by the Hashmonaim (Maccabees). This small group of guerilla warriors stood up to the mightiest nation of the time, Greece. They did not fight for independence; they did not fight to avoid the tribute demanded by the Greeks. They fought for religious freedom. Unlike the terrorists who struck in Mumbai, who fight to inflict their perverted views on others, the Hashmonaim fought only for the right to worship in our own way. See more below!

Kislev is also a month of rest.

It is the month in which the days are shortest, the nights are longest, and there is a sense of sleep. In much of the USA, the earth rests under a blanket of snow. Good rest reflects an intrinsic trust - trust in Hashem. Our morning blessings begin with the words "Thanks (G) for returning my soul!" We wake with a gentle acknowledgement of the trust that allows us to drift into soulful rest.

In this month of tranquility and peace, even in the midst of warfare, you will have peace. Many people do not understand this aspect of warfare. This simply means that in the midst of the warfare, you are on the offensive so that you have peace in the midst of conflict. When we get tangled up and get out of our abiding place, we get into trouble.

This is the month of dreams and night visions. Through the year the Lord has been pouring things into you, then all of the sudden He draws them out through dreams. Sometimes that is the only way He can communicate with you. You have pressed through, and then you fall asleep. This is when He can begin to stir up revelation. This is also a month to review your sleeping patterns so that you will be healthier in the year ahead.

This month is a time to let the river of God flow from your innermost being. There is a great relationship between tranquility and fullness. If we don't relate to our inner being correctly, we cannot enter into fullness. When your river starts flowing, you can enter into your next measure.

The sense attributed to Kislev is sleep. Kislev is the month in which the shortest days and longest nights occur. It is not unreasonable therefore, that the sense attributed would be sleep. The sense of sleep is the tranquility and restfulness that comes with the security that comes from faith. It is written in the blessings at the end of Leviticus (26:5-6): "And you shall dwell securely in your land. And I shall give peace in the land, and you shall lie down without fear." This is the dream and hope that we carry even in the darkest of months, the darkest of times.

When one releases the tensions of the material world in trust, good dreams follow. Good dreams at night reflect good thoughts throughout the day, especially the optimistic attitude and consciousness, reflected in the maxim found in Hassidut and in so many like-minded, hope-filled, faith paths: "Think good, it will be good."

Mental and Physical Health are a part of rest and security and so are attached to the month of Kislev. Turn the Hebrew root halam, and it becomes hahlama, or general "health" (meaning both mental and physical) as well "recovery." In thanking God after being sick and recovering, King Hizkiyahu prays (Isaiah 38:16), "restore me (from the root halam) and make me live." Some compare the dream to sweat. In each case there is a process of recovery. The dream brings from the unconscious to the conscious. Sweat brings from inside the body to the outside. Each can be viewed as a part of the process of recovery. The physical sweat signals the beginning of recovery from an illness. The spiritual dream signals something deep inside that needs to be recovered, revealed and perhaps healed.

The Second Temple Was Founded in this Month

We read in the prophecy of Haggai (Haggai 2:18): "Pay attention now, from this day and before—from the twenty-fourth [day] of the ninth [month]—from the day that the Temple of the Lord was founded, pay attention." According to Rashi, this means that "they began to add to the first foundation that they had built in the days of Cyrus."

Before the destruction of the First Temple, Jeremiah had famously prophesized (Jeremiah 29:10), "For so said Gd: For at the completion of seventy years of Babylon I will remember you, and I will fulfill My good word toward you, to restore you to this place."

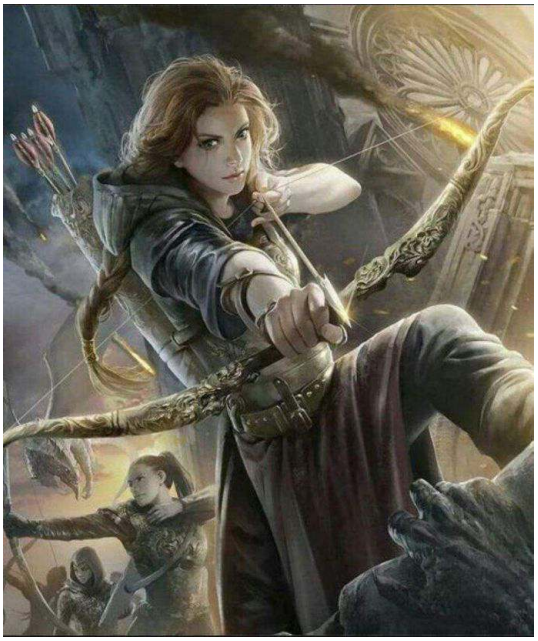

And indeed, that is what happened. A little more than fifty years after the destruction of the First Temple, the Babylonians, who had destroyed the First Temple, were vanquished by the rising Persian Empire. The Persian king, Cyrus the Great, soon authorized the Jews to rebuild the Temple, but construction ground to a halt due to interference by the Samaritans. In 353 BCE, exactly seventy years after the destruction of the First Temple, the Jews began building again—at first independently, but King Darius soon ratified their effort. The Second Temple was completed in 349 BCE. Under the leadership of Ezra and Nehemiah, the community in Judea became vibrant and secure.

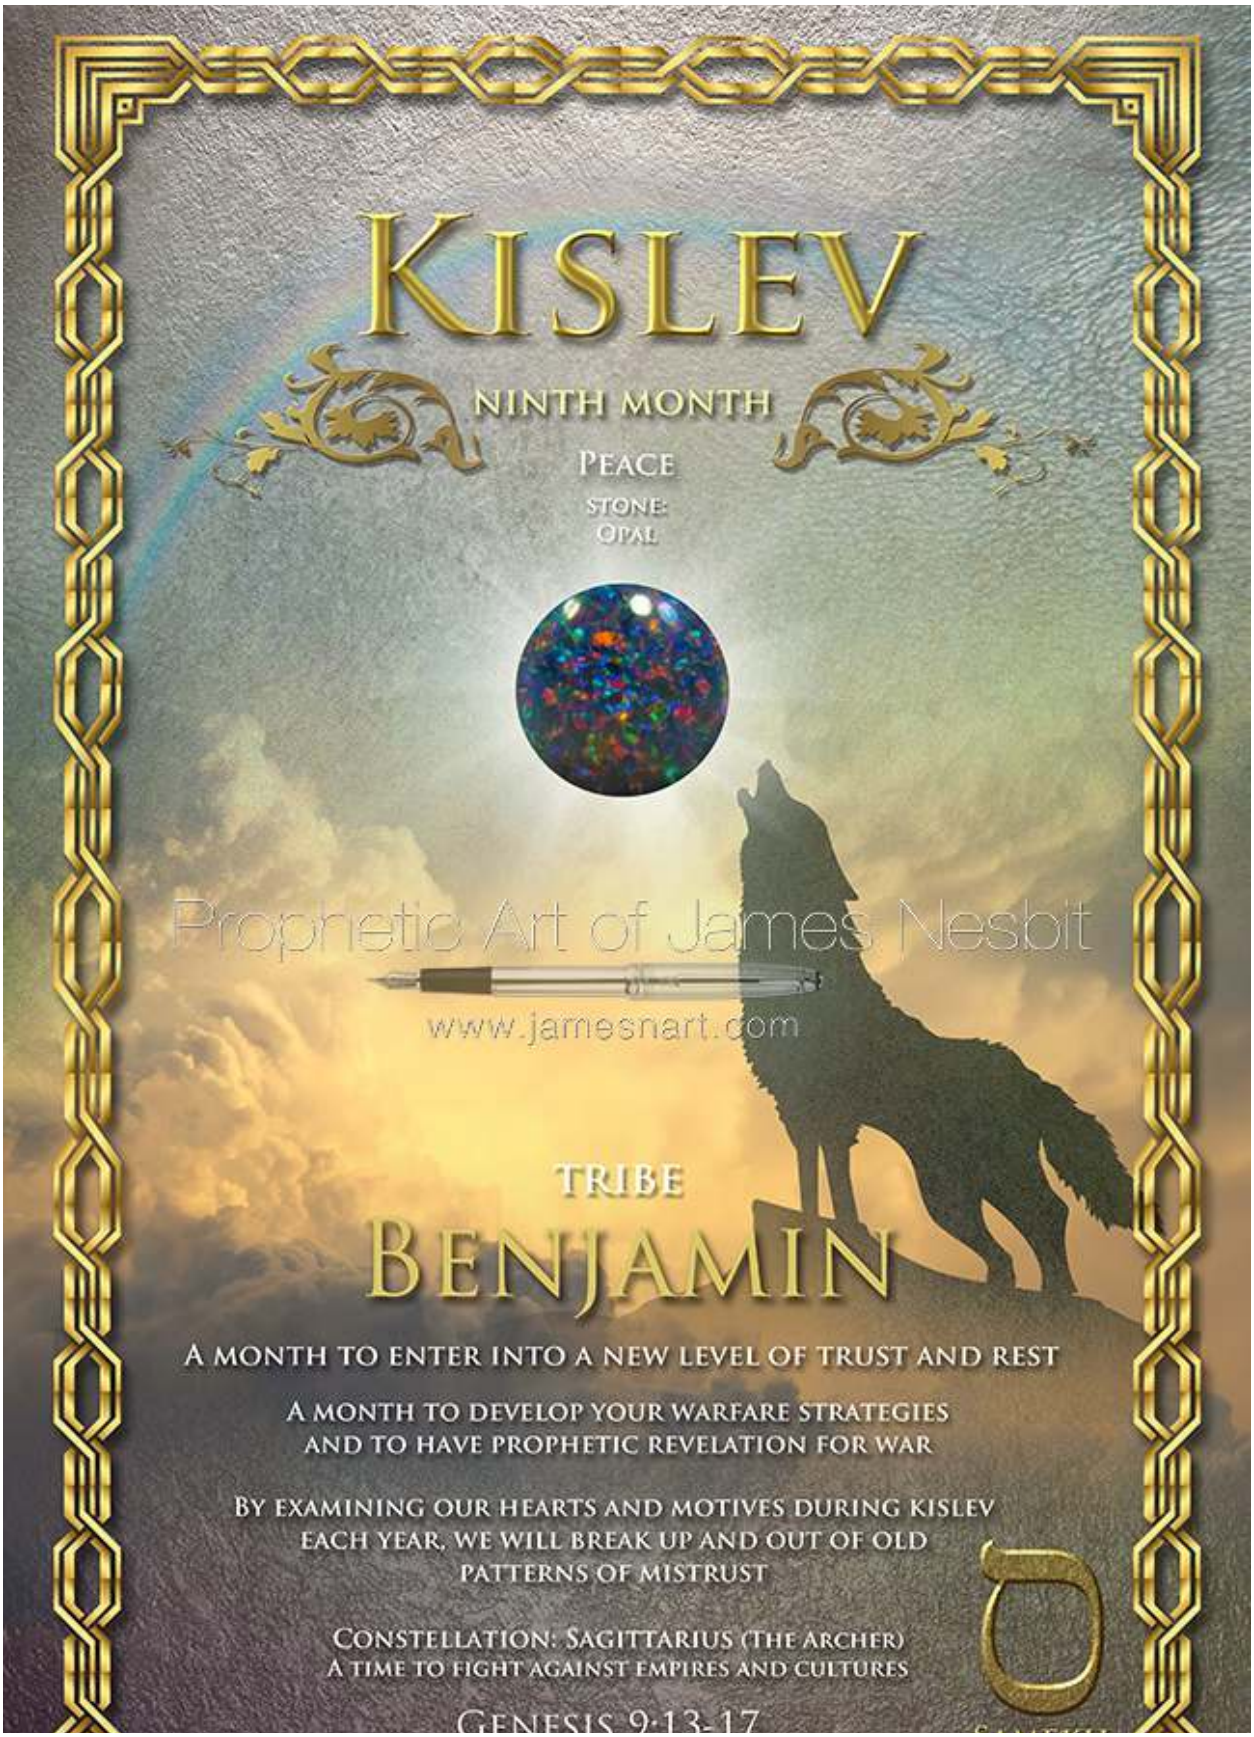

The Second Temple era spanned 420 years, ending with the Romans' destruction of the Holy Temple in 70 CE. For much of this period, Judea was under foreign domination. First the Jews were ruled by the Persians, and then, after the conquests of Alexander the Great, they were ruled by the Greeks. The Hasmonean revolt in 140 BCE brought about a period of Jewish monarchy. But the Hasmoneans did not rule for long.

The astrological sign or Mazal is the "keshet" (Sagittarius–bow). The bow has its double meaning, its own Yin and Yang, Netzah and Hod. On the one hand it is the bow of war, the bow of the fight for freedom characterized by the Maccabees. On the other hand the word Keshet (bow) refers to the rainbow, the first and most visible sign of peace and promise.

The tribe ascribed to Kislev is Benjamin. It is a Month to Uncover Your True Identity!

We can make a further connection with the Bow. Kislev is associated with the constellation Sagittarius (the archer). This month is a time to fight against empires and cultures. This is a month to shoot straight and move quickly. Think of the archer. Cut your losses and move on. The 'art of the bow' is ascribed to the tribe of Benjamin which is attached to the month of Kislev. The Hasmonaeim were of the tribe of Levi, the tribe without land holdings. They were the keepers of the Temple; they were the keepers of ritual. Rituals from their time resonate through our modern services. The Temple in which they served was located in Jerusalem, which is located within the borders of the tribe of Benjamin, the bowman.

As mentioned above, Benjamin is the tribe most gifted with the "art" of the bow. In the land given to Benjamin is the Temple in Jerusalem. The blessing of Moses to Benjamin in the end of Torah: "To Benjamin he said: the beloved of G-d, He shall dwell in trust over him, He hovers over him all the day, and between his shoulders He rests."

Kislev & Hanukkah
The connections between the month and the holiday
by Rabbi DovBer Pinson

Hanukkah in front of the Old City walls in Jerusalem.

Hanukkah is one of the most widely known and celebrated holidays of the year. It is festive, joyous, and family-oriented. It begins on the 24th of the Hebrew month of Kislev: a significant time of year–at least in the Northern Hemisphere–when the days are the shortest, and the climate the coldest.

In the summer months, people are generally more outgoing and in brighter moods. As the sunlight begins to decrease, people tend to become more introspective. The autumnal Hebrew month of Tishrei (occurring around September and October) is saturated with holy days such as Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and the festival of Sukkot. The next month, Cheshvan, has no holidays at all, and it is typically rainy and cold.

This is when people are drawn further inward, and many desire to spend time alone. Kislev continues becoming darker and colder. People tend to retreat into their warm homes, and due to a subtle hibernation instinct in humans, we may actually sleep more than usual. Kislev culminates with the Winter Solstice, the longest night of the year. The following night is therefore minutely shorter–the first glimmer of light begins to re-awaken. At this season there's a natural desire to join with family and friends and celebrate.

Every yom tov (Jewish holy day) has a natural, seasonal explanation, as well as a historical and spiritual story that gives rise to the celebration. When the Torah speaks of Pesah (Passover), for example, it defines the celebration as a commemoration of the story of the Exodus from Egypt. However, the Torah also says Pesah is to be celebrated in "the month of Aviv" (the first month of Spring), when harvesting begins. Thus, the content of the day–the narrative–is understood within a particular context, a specific season, with all its physical and psychological qualities. Before exploring the depths of the content of Hanukkah, let's first delve more into the context, and the intricate interconnection between Hanukkah and its month and season.

Re-awakening Light

When in Tractate Shabbat begins to discuss Hanukkah, it first mentions the story: one small jug of oil, intended to burn for one night, lasted eight nights. Then it says, "On the following year they–our sages–established these days as holy days for singing praise and offering thanks." In other words, the sages didn't celebrate the miracles of Hanukkah right away. Only when the season came around again did they perceive the nature of the previous year's events. They sensed that the energies of these miracles were 'established'–the miracles re-manifested, in a spiritual way, on the same dates of a following year.

By confirming the fact of this reappearance, our sages empowered us also to tap into the miraculous energy of Hanukkah that appears each year.

Why do we celebrate the miracles of Hanukkah and not other miracles? Why is there no holiday commemorating the manna or the miraculous well of Miriam? The answer is, we only celebrate past events when they can be re-experienced in the present.

It would seem that the annual re-appearance of the miraculous energy of Hanukkah is due simply to the cyclical patterns of time–there are certain patterns that rotate and return each year at the same time. However, in Jewish spirituality, we sense a linear movement of time as well.

Time is always progressing forward towards a spiritual culmination. Therefore, unlike the natural patterns of the year, the energies of Hanukkah progress toward a culmination, revealing something completely new each year. This linear movement joins the cyclical movement of nature to form an upward-spiraling, reawakening, ever-new light of Hanukkah.

The Name of the Month–Trust and Hope

Kislev is the ninth month of the year, counting from Nisan. In the Torah we find that the root of the word Kislev means 'trust' and 'hope': "Did I place my kili (my hope) in gold?" (Job, 31:24) "And they placed in Hashem their kislam (their trust)." (Psalm 78:7)

Kislev therefore illustrates the issue of trust. When you make an appointment to meet someone, and they haven't yet arrived, you can't see them or know for certain that they'll arrive on time. You can only see or envision their arrival by means of trust. When our days are dark and cold, we may not see the light and warmth of life clearly. Many people struggle with "seasonal affective disorder", a form of depression attributed to the diminished sunlight of winter. After the Winter Solstice, the glimmer of light that arrives really does spark in us a trust in a brighter future.

In terms of the historical narrative of Hanukkah, the Hasmoneans had tremendous bitahon to stand up to Greek oppressors. Despite the darkness of their time, they trusted in the miraculous. This inspired them to look at a defiled Temple and envision its re-purification. Because of this trust, their eyes were open enough to find a small measure of oil with which to kindle the lights of the lamps.

Writing some two hundred years after the re-dedication of the Temple, Josephus calls Hanukkah "the Festival of Lights". Although his historical accuracy is debatable, and he doesn't even mention the miraculous oil, we can learn about Hanukkah's theme of trust and hope from his account: "Perhaps the reason (for the name "Festival of Lights") is that a freedom beyond our hopes appeared to us, and so this was the name given to the festival." (Antiquities VII:7)

A Primordial Hanukkah

The Talmud (Avodah Zarah) tells of a celebration of light during the time of year that would later become Hanukkah.

"When Adam–who was created in the beginning of the year, on the first day of Tishrei–noticed that during the first three months of his life, the days were getting gradually shorter, he said, 'Woe is to me! Because I've sinned, the world around me is being darkened and is returning to its state of chaos and confusion; this must be the kind of death which has been sentenced to me from Heaven!' He took upon himself to pray, fast, and look within. After eight days, he noticed the Winter Equinox (the Tekufat Tevet, the season of the month of Tevet), and saw that indeed the days were beginning to lengthen again. "So, this is the way of the world!" he exclaimed, and he celebrated for eight days."

The Darkest Night

The Winter Solstice generally occurs during the last week of Kislev. Therefore, not only does the week of Hanukkah contain the longest night of the year, but at the end of a lunar month the nights have virtually no moonlight.

A student of the Baal Shem Tov named Rabbi Yakov Yosef determined, through complex calculations, that the night of the Hanukkah victory and the re-lighting of the Menorah was precisely the longest night of the year. This deepest darkness sets the stage for the greatest possible revelation of light.

Divine Light

Every Hanukkah is a special time for revealing the Hidden Light. Unlike all the Torah–based holidays. However, at the end of the Rabbinic holiday of Hanukkah there is no havdalah, or ritual of separation. May we never separate from the timeless light of Hanukkah. May it permeate every moment of our lives.

(Deuteronomy 33:12). Here we see that Benjamin symbolizes both trust and rest, the sense of the month of Kislev.

Last month was the month of the flood, so this is the month of the rainbow - The BOW back-to-back. Examine what you have warred through in the past year to come into a place of peace this year, with the two BOWS, God makes a covenant with us so that we will not have to war with those things again, which was the symbolism of the rainbow. There are certain things every year that you want to make a spiritual locater and say, "I am not going through that again."

2 Chronicles 14:8, Now Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, who carried large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, who carried shields and drew bows, all courageous men. As you develop your warfare strategies this month, you can tap in prophetically to gain revelation concerning the war season ahead. This connects with Head of the Year so that you can start the year right.

In the land given to Benjamin is the Temple in Jerusalem. The blessing of Moses to Benjamin in the end of Torah: "To Benjamin he said: the beloved of G-d, He shall dwell in trust over him, He hovers over him all the day, and between his shoulders He rests" (Deuteronomy 33:12). Here we see that Benjamin symbolizes both trust and rest, the sense of the month of Kislev.

Benjamin was also the only child born in the land of promise, so this is a month to watch Israel. Things happen during this month, which change the course of Israel.

The holiday found in Kislev is Hanukah, the festival of lights. May this Hanukah bring healing to our spirit, good dreams of hope to our souls, and deeds that will bring rest and security to a troubled world.

Kislev: United Colors of the Rainbow

by Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller

Each of us has to fight off darkness in his or her own way.

The long, silent white nights of winter have an almost mystic quality. They make us occasionally consider ending the day early and opening a book or writing a journal or maybe just listening. The silence lets us hear our hearts speak loud enough for us to hear without the static of day-to-day living.

We tend to deaden the impact of living with seasons by killing their message with the intrusion (and blessing) of electricity. We turn summer into spring with air conditioning. We heat our homes and experience winter by looking out the window and feeling the frost if we actually touch the panes. We lengthen the day by keeping the lights on. All of this, of course, is a great piece of good fortune. After all, no one really misses the sort of summer that left us exhausted, tense and drenched in sweat, or the kind of winter that imprisoned us in our badly heated homes yearning for the sun. Nonetheless, it's good to once in a while take the time to let the world speak to us.

Each month has its own message. The Arizal, a great mystic, tells us that the spiritual force of each of the 12 months parallels one of the 12 tribes (for the month of Kislev, it is the tribe Benjamin, who was known for his unwavering faith in God and his ferocious ability to battle evil) and the astral sign of the month (for this month, it is the bow). All of this lets us map out something of the nature of the month, and perhaps how to find a part of ourselves (since each Jew is a composite of all 12 tribes).

As the days get shorter and blacker, we can intuitively sense that place within us that is dark, hopeless and vulnerable is closer to the surface than it is during the summer. In fact, there is scientific evidence that there is a biological basis for this feeling. What escapes us is the precious nature of coming in contact with this part of ourselves.

There are two events that took place in this month that give us insight to the turf we enter. The first is God presenting the rainbow as a covenantal sign after the destruction of the Flood. We hardly associate rainbows with the shortest days of the year, but the rainbow is indeed very much part of the picture. Noah left the safety of the ark and re-entered the world on the 28th of Cheshvan (the previous month on the Jewish calendar). He saw vast, unspeakable, total desolation. We can't begin to envision the barren, silent world that he faced. He recognized that it was up to him to chart a course that will lead him and his descendants to redefining the world. He offered sacrifices to symbolize his commitment to uplift the world and everything in it to its Divine source.

On the first day of Kislev, God responded to this act by blessing Noah and his family. He set down new rules for them. From now on man will be permitted to eat meat. He will be accountable for shedding human blood. The world is meant to be a place where the fact that we were made in God's image is relevant. We are not just a more developed sort of animal, but an entirely unique species. The spark of eternity within us can never totally disappear, no matter how well we disguise it by adapting animalistic behaviors. We cannot "convert" to becoming an animal any more than a doorknob can become a canary. Animals may be killed and eaten; no human being is an animal. God promised never to bring a flood again, sealing his covenant to continue existence with a sign – the rainbow.

Why a Rainbow?

The first rainbow, observed after the Flood, was seen in Kislev. "And G-d said: 'This is the sign of the covenant which I set between Me, and yourselves, and between every living being that is with you, unto eternal generations. I have placed my bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and the Earth." "This is the sign of the covenant" – G-d showed Noah the bow and said to Him: "This is the sign of which I spoke."

There were always rainbows, even before the flood. What changed is its message. What does the multicolored luminescent rainbow tell us about the territory we walk? It maps our future. After the flood, humankind will now develop differently. Until that point, there was no concept of nationhood or of divergent cultures. From now on, different peoples will become progressively more variegated. The rainbow is a living statement (a map) of what that really means (the territory). A rainbow is formed when pure white light refracts into seven shades. Red is nearest the original beam, and violet is the furthest away from the pure white light.

Part 1: An Urgent Call to Arms: Jews and Christians Must Unite

If We Do Not Fight to Defend Our Faiths, Judeo-Christian Civilization will Fall

We are addressing the readers of this newsletter as Believers who understand the dark nature of the spiritual warfare in which we are engaged. Like the Watchmen on the walls of ancient Jerusalem, we are sounding the shofar blast as an urgent warning. This subject is not comfortable to write about; our intent is to inform and equip our brothers and sisters, not to frighten or panic. Christians and Jews, bound together by the power of YHVH's spirit and the authority of His Master Covenant, will provide us with the courage we need to go forth.

Many Christians believe we are now in the "end times" connected with the Book of Revelation. A variety of ideas surround the timing, the "tribulation" period, etc. Some Jews believe we are close to the "Gog–Magog" war from the book of Ezekiel. In that war, Israel is attacked by diverse forces led by Gog, leader of the country Magog, which was then in the far north which is now Muslim Turkey.

Whatever your viewpoint, we as Bible believers are now at a critical stage of the war for Western Civilization, a war that has been hundreds of years in the making but that many of us didn't even realize was happening until recently. Why is that? Because, although it is easy to identify and fight an enemy who violently threatens us head on, it is not so easy to detect and defend against stealthy ideological and spiritual assaults occurring over time. Our adversaries' "frog in the pot" approach is a gradual "death by a thousand cuts."

The end goal of our enemies is to destroy our faith and our nation by any means necessary; they have gathered intense momentum lately. It is called 5th generation warfare, meaning barrages from all sides: school indoctrination, internet and media propaganda, sexual perversion, "woke" ideology, corrupt politicians collaborating with our enemies, anti-religious lawfare, and paganism revival. We can see the carnage all around us; now, when our society has been divided and weakened, the final battles have "suddenly" come upon us. Beneath it all dwell the shadowy powers and principalities driving the confrontation many have known was inevitable.

While we must call upon YHVH in prayer to defeat our enemies, it is up to us do our part by engaging in the battle on earth. That's the biblical way (1 Sam 7:8–10, 12; 2 Chron 14:11–12; 2 Sam 5:19–20, 25, etc.). While miraculous victories in war do and will occur, we cannot sit back and expect God to supernaturally destroy our foes. We are all called to take up "the full armor of God" both spiritually and with action. Bonding together as Christians and Jews to defend our faith will magnify our power to oppose this darkness.

Does this seem overly dramatic*?* We don't think so; the deep spiritual malaise blanketing the Western world is a result of both our faiths being under constant attack from myriad forces determined to eradicate our very existence. Why? Because we are the irreplaceable Judeo-Christian scaffolding supporting Western Civilization in general but especially our own endangered Constitutional Republic. If they can eliminate us, if we fail to defend our society, it will clear the field for their unrestrained world conquest. It is up to us those who understand and are willing to stand, to be the impenetrable shield wall and to move forward to turn the tide.

Religious Entropy has Opened the Floodgates. Throughout history, civilizations have always been defined by their corporate religious values. This safeguarded the social and political cohesion of their culture. It still works this way. Well aware of this, all the tyrannical "isms"- Communism, Globalism, Islamism, Satanism, etc. know they must destroy our underlying religious fabric and belief in the God of Abraham before they can completely conquer our nation. We are living in the end result of that long term attack—the decline and fall of the West's Judeo-Christian moral foundation.

Over the past decades, the failure of most religious institutions to pay attention to this social and moral degeneration and to take a strong public stand against it, has opened the doors. You likely know the saying: "All that is necessary for evil to flourish is for good people to do nothing." Tragically, many Americans identifying as Christians or religious Jews are "social" believers only, good people upset by what's going on—but doing nothing. They are not anchored in their faith enough to do much except express private words of disapproval. Protected and insulated until now, we've become comfortable in our cocoons and disengaged with the world.

Our children and grandchildren have become the principal victims. Open pedophilia has burgeoned to become the lucrative "business" of child trafficking. Countless kids are confused and psychologically/sexually disturbed; the "educational" system has turned them against their parents, their religion and even their country. Radical "progressive" indoctrination starting in grade school has supplanted our traditional values with contempt and hatred. Abortion has killed off 25% of Generation 'Z' with many others succumbing to the transgender and LGBTQ mental illness.

> Yuri Bezmenov, ex–KGB agent: Marxist overthrow begins by undermining the values of the targeted society. Ideological subversion is the process, which is overt and open... the great brainwashing process begins with a "demoralization" process that takes 15–20 years … to 'educate' one generation of students… it takes only two to five years after that to destabilize a nation … the United States is in a state of war: undeclared, total war against their basic principles and foundations; perpetrated by "the world Communist system."[1]

But disturbingly, this is not even the ultimate threat we face at this point. The world Communists have a deadly partner—the Dark Age sword of Islam.

Greatest Stealth Danger: Conquest by Islam: Ubiquitous Islamic motto: "First the Saturday people, then the Sunday people." The pattern of conquest is a proven winner for Islam: takeover is first by mass immigration followed by intimidation and violence. Their goal is imposing their Medieval Islamic Sharia (law) code which overrides any nation's own laws. According to their holy books, all Muslims have a duty to wage 'jihad' against the non-Muslim world.

Do all Muslims engage in violent jihad? Of course not. In fact, many Muslims are merely controlled serfs that have little choice but to bow down to their tyrannical overlords. We saw this sad reality when we lived in Israel for five years. The Koran states that anyone who leaves Islam is a heretic that should be beheaded. This still happens regularly. They are just as much victims as the rest of us in many ways. By defeating the Islamic tyranny, we can liberate them to live as free people.

But the Imams (priests) hold up Prophet Mohammed's behavior as the ideal example of what Muslims should emulate. He was a brutal, sadistic war lord who conquered not through "religious" conversion but through the sword. As of now, enough Muslims have taken up the call to conquest jihad: the results can be seen daily across the UK, Europe, Africa and elsewhere. it has reached a critical mass in the USA and they are seizing the moment.

Once they can cram enough Muslims into a country, they become emboldened to begin their public takeover. That number is generally 5%: France has 10%, Britain 8%. Most major cities in Britain now have Muslim mayors. When they have seeded enough migrants, they reproduce at a rapid rate. The average Muslim woman in the West has four children: often, the men have more than one wife. The native Europeans have an average 1.4 children. It's not hard to see where this is going.

Turkey's President, Recap Erdogan (our NATO 'partner'), the would-be leader of the global Islamic Caliphate, told the truth about the "religion of peace" in a speech on May 4, 2015:

"The minarets are the bayonets, the domes are the helmets, the mosques are our barracks, the believers are the soldiers!"

As we see, Islamic mosques are NOT places of worship. They are Forward Operating Bases (FOB) designed to be a frontier military fortresses for conquest. All of them in the Middle East, especially surrounding Israel, have weapons caches. Why should those in Europe or the US be any different? Those that have been raided all had weapons. When are we going to wake up?

Churches in Europe are now mostly empty, often replaced by FOB mosques. Many Imams are now openly calling for the violent overthrow of the West; they operate with little opposition from the complicit globalist leaders of the EU and Britain. Thousands of churches have been vandalized or burned to the ground in France by Muslims. Synagogues and Jews are the number one target in Europe, under threat of physical assault and even death in the streets. But Christians and Jews are now being beaten by Islamists; Christians have been arrested in Britain for openly praying or just debating a Muslim. The police are totally compromised. Many schools have banned pork because it offends the Muslims; children are forced eat only 'Hallal' (animal tortured) Muslim meat! School children are being brought on "field trips" to local mosques to learn how to pray Islamic prayers including "Allahu Akbar"- "Allah is the greatest."

We are seeing the annihilation of the great Western civilization of Europe before our own eyes. A continent that spent over a millennium defending itself from Islamic conquest has now just open the doors to the invaders. They have been invaded and occupied in just seventy years. Anyone who speaks against this tyrannical eradication of their own countries is branded "Islamophobic," with many being imprisoned. Muslims have captured most politicians and police: they openly announce Europe and Britain now belongs to them. Their agenda is no longer hidden. We are quickly moving ever closer to the "convert, be a slave, or die" phase.

In the USA, Islam is on the march. Did you know there are over 330 mosques and Islamic centers in Texas alone and approximately 2,700 in the U.S.? They are trying to build a complete Islamic Sharia-compliant city north of Dallas. New York City has over 1 million (many illegal) Muslims and a Communist Muslim is the recently elected mayor. Led by imported radical Imams, Muslims broadcast their supremacy through prayers in the street and blast their call to prayer from minarets five times daily—another intimidation technique. They are taking over our cities like Dearborn, imposing Islamic districts and Sharia-only "no-go zones", and through their population concentrations they are able to elect Islamist politicians.

Islamic leaders openly declare that Sharia must displace our Constitution since the Koran states Sharia takes supremacy over any other nations' laws. Recall that Muslim Congresswomen Rashida Tlaib and Ilhan Omar were allowed to be sworn into the US House of Representatives on the Koran, not the Bible or the Constitution. What are they pledging their allegiance to? This means something very profound, yet Americans either don't know about or ignore this open treachery.

The following body count is over 1,400 years of jihad by Muslims following Mohammed's example of conquest by the sword:

> "The number of Christians martyred by Islam is 9 million. A rough estimate… is that another 50 million died in wars by jihad. So, to account for the 1 million African Christians killed in the 20th century, we have 60 million Christians….There have been 80 million Hindus slaughtered; India is one-half its original size due to jihad. Ten million Buddhists have been killed. TOTAL: 140 million people slaughtered in the name of Allah."[2] (Emphasis ours)

Here's a hard truth: "Normative" Islam that promotes world subjugation for Allah is NOT a religion but a full-spectrum imperialist totalitarian political ideology like Communism, to which it is a close but even darker cousin. Our Bill of Rights does not guarantee freedom to express open rebellion against our country: we should not have to commit national suicide because we are afraid to tell the truth about the militant nature of Islam.

This is possibly the greatest spiritual and existential battle the world has ever seen. Can we fight this vast evil and win? We think that most people reading Wade's newsletter would answer with a resounding Yes! All things are possible with YHVH our God if we humble our hearts, call on him, and stay true to our common Judeo-Christian foundation. A united confederation of Jews and Gentiles working diligently together, defending our common heritage based on the Ten Words of the Master Covenant is the way it always should have been.

Part 2: The Ten Words: Our Shared Ancient Heritage

Jews see the Torah, the five books of Moses (the Torah-Pentateuch) with its ethical and sacrificial system, as the foundation of their faith and the way to "life" in the olam haba —the world to come; Christians see the New Testament, which is based on having faith in the atoning, sacrificial death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, as their foundation for obtaining that same "life." As we will demonstrate, surprisingly, neither doctrine comports with the foundational faith as professed by both Moses and Jesus (Yeshua). In fact, the spiritual underpinning for both religions is actually quite simple and something upon which they both agree: The Master Covenant—the Ten Words (traditionally, Commandments).[3]

This month we will explore how the Ten Words of the Master Covenant is the biblical foundation and common ground for creating "unity" between the two great 'Abrahamic faiths' of Judaism and Christianity, something we believe is an immediate necessity at this critical juncture in world history.[4] The strength of that harmony of mission—by the power of YHVH's ruakh (spirit)—can literally save Judeo-Christian ("Western") civilization from the greatest threat to its existence in history.

The Abrahamic Covenant: The Bedrock of our Partnership

"Abram" was a pagan from a northern Mesopotamian city that was dedicated to Sin the Moon-god of Sumer. In Genesis 12:1–7, YHVH[5] called out to him and presented him with an offer to covenant; i.e., to enter into a contract with him:

> Now YHVH said to Abram, "Go forth from your native land and from your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, And I will bless you; I will make your name great, And you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you And curse him that curses you; And all the families of the earth Shall bless themselves by you" (Gen 12:1–3 TNK, adapted [6]).

This passage constitutes YHVH's original offer to Abram to covenant. The six elements of his offer are promises of: 1. Blessing; 2. Land; 3. Physical progeny (to make a great nation); 4. A great name; 5. A global impact as a "blessing" to those who blessed him; 6. A "curse" to those who disparaged him and his descendants. As scholars note: "The LORD (YHVH) begins anew singling out one Mesopotamian ... and promising to make him a great nation... The twin themes of land and progeny inform the rest of the Torah."[7]

> Abram went forth as YHVH had commanded him, … And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions; …into the land of Canaan they came. Abram passed through the land as far as the site of Shekhem,… YHVH appeared to Abram and said, "I give this land to your offspring"; And he built an altar there to YHVH who had appeared to him (Gen 12:4–7).

Abram obeyed YHVH's command to "go forth," denoting his acceptance of YHVH's offer and its "terms and conditions." That was Abram's "good and valuable consideration." In terms of law, his intentional action was designed to implement the terms of the contract and was not just passive acceptance. Abram understood God's promises were contingent on his departure, suggesting a bilateral "exchange of value"; i.e., his faithful obedience in exchange for YHVH's blessings. Abram's courageous action—leaving his entire life behind and setting out to a wild, dangerous area—was evidence of the "good faith" between him and YHVH that established the Abrahamic Covenant.

In Genesis 12:7, after Abram reached Canaan, YHVH appeared again to him in a vision, informing him the land he had been traversing God is giving to his offspring (literally, "seed"). This was a clarification of the promise of the "great nation" of v. 2; Abram's physical offspring would grow numerous and inherit the land of Canaan in fulfillment of the covenant oath. Accordingly, Abram built an altar there to commemorate the occasion, not for sacrifice.

Genesis 12:1–7 establishes the fundamental expression of the Abrahamic Covenant. Subsequent passages in Genesis 13, 15, 17, and 22, including the two promises explicitly termed "covenants" (Gen 15:18; 17:2, 4, 7), serve as supplemental additions, without altering the core tenets of the original contract.

The Abrahamic Covenant represents the bedrock template of all future biblical covenants because Abram—the man of obedient faith—chose to accept God's offer and obey his command to "go forth"—and he continually upheld that covenant responsibility (Gen 13:17, 15, 17, 22).

Why is the Master Covenant the Foundation of our Partnership?

Why did YHVH deliver the Israelites from Egypt? In Exodus, the Tanakh (TNK) tells us his purpose. YHVH came to Moses on Mount Horeb (Sinai)[8] and told him: 1. "I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians" (Ex 3:8, 3:10), and; 2 "to bring them… unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; … I will send you unto Pharaoh, that you may bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt" (Ex 3:7–11). It was time to enact the promise of the Abrahamic Covenant.

In the ancient world, the protection or destruction of a land was due to the strength and power of their national gods. Shockingly, mighty Egypt had been defeated by the unseen God of the Hebrew slaves. The "mixed multitude" of Gentiles saw their chance to escape their own slavery by aligning with the more powerful, victorious god. "Now the sons of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, aside from children. And a mixed multitude went up also with them." (Exodus 12:37–38).

The legal status of the mixed multitude: In order to partake of the Pesakh (Passover) meal, circumcision was/is a requirement. Since their ancestor Abraham had been circumcised, the Hebrews had undoubtedly continued to practice the rite throughout their time in Egypt. No Gentiles participated in the Passover meal the Hebrews ate on the night the "messenger of death" passed over their households. So by default, we know that the mixed multitude was not circumcised at that time.

When they fled Egypt to travel with the Hebrew tribes, what was the Gentiles' legal status according to Hebrew law? When they all reached Horeb, preparing to receive the Ten Words from YHVH, a Gentile of the mixed multitude would have been considered to be a ger toshav (resident alien; Lev 25:35). This is the status a Gentile who lived in Israel, but did not become a proselyte. A Convert is called a ger yaguwr; a stranger sojourner, proselyte; Ex 12:48). All the ethical and moral laws were to be applied equally to Israelites and aliens (gerim) who lived among them (Lev 24:22). Please keep this in mind because we will see how it becomes an important factor in Jewish/Gentile relationships in Yeshua's day.

After Moses successfully lead the people to Horeb, he ascended the mountain to receive the instructions of YHVH. God told Moses that his presence would come down upon the mountain in three days, obscured by a thick cloud, so that all the people would see the cloud descend and hear his voice when he personally spoke to them (Ex 19:9, 11).

> And Moses went up unto God, and YHVH called unto him out of the mountain, saying, "Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: … Now therefore, if you will obey My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then you shall be My own possession from among all peoples: for all the earth is Mine: and you shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation." … Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words… . And all the people answered together, … "All that YHVH has spoken we will do." (Ex 19:3–8).

On the third day, after the Israelites agreed to enter into a covenant with him, YHVH audibly announced "the Ten Words"; asereth haddevarim to all the Hebrew tribes as well as the mass of Gentiles who had joined them (Ex 20:1–14; Deut 5:6–19 TNK, 6–22 Christian Bible; CB). These "Ten Words", personally witnessed by the entire camp, are the entirety of YHVH's Master Covenant at Horeb, also called "the Covenant of YHVH (the LORD)" (Num 10:33, 14:44; Deut 4:23; etc.).

Israelites chosen; Gentiles welcomed: The Israelites were "chosen" to be "My own possession from among all peoples: for all the earth is Mine: and you shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation." Everyone always speaks of the Jews as "the chosen people". But what does this actually mean? What are the requirements? To be a kingdom of "priests and a goy kadosh—a set-apart (holy) nation means there is a function, a responsibility and a solemn duty to perform. This covenant pact has the same performative proviso regarding faithful "obedience" that defined the responsibility of the Patriarchs Abraham, Isaac (Gen 26:2–5) and Jacob (Gen 28:10–15). As the physical "seed of Abraham," the Israelites agreed to follow in the Patriarch's footsteps in faithful obedience to God's "voice." This would allow them to be pure enough to hear YHVH's voice and become a priesthood to the nations of the world.

We should remember that in 1450 BCE, the world was unimaginably different than today. The people were immersed in some abominable pagan practices, worshipping multiple gods and engaging in various forms of debauchery and treachery. With few exceptions, there was no standard moral code of behavior to check human excesses and cruelty. The Hebrews tribes were separated out to be the messengers of the One True and Most High God to this dissolute world, bringing the moral and ethical Torah along with them. They were to instruct the pagans the Way of YHVH based on the Master Covenant he had designed for the whole world.

> For I have known him, to the end that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the Way of YHVH, to do righteousness and justice; to the end that YHVH may bring upon Abraham that which he has spoken of him. (Gen 18:19, see 26:5).

Exodus 19:7–8, 20:18–19, and Deuteronomy 5:4–5 confirm that "all the people" heard God's voice including the Gentile aliens (gerim) among them. Why is this important? Not only is this an unprecedented event in world history, but it provides a kind of blueprint that showed YHVH's intention to include all of humanity, Israelites and Gentiles alike, in the blessings of his Ten Words.

This was no secret, private revelation; the entirely of the crowd heard and accepted the instruction of YHVH. It was simple, direct and symbolic. The contractual instructions of YHVH's Torah are not up to individual interpretation and the Torah is not a hard road to walk as reflected in Deuteronomy 30:11–14: "For this commandment which I command you this day, it is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. … But the word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your heart, that you may do it."

YHVH spoke the Ten Words—"And he added no more"

This is the true Torah: The Ten Words—"the Covenant of YHVH"—was written on two stone tablets and put into the ark by Moses as a "Testimony" to all (Ex 25:16, 40:20, etc.). It is the authentic "Torah of YHVH" given publicly to Israel. However, as symbolized by the multitude of Gentile witnesses at Horeb, this Torah is available to all, who, like Abraham, seek to follow the "the Way of YHVH," the way of doing "righteousness and justice" (Gen 18:19).

Moses, in his first-person narrative, stated the following to the assembly after YHVH finished speaking the Ten Words to them:

> These words YHVH spoke unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: And he added no more. And he wrote them upon two stone tablets, and gave them unto me" (Deut 5:19 TNK, 5:22 CB).

"And he added no more": This definitive statement is not found in the third-person account of the same event in Exodus chapter 20. In his first-person testimony (Deut 5:6-19 TNK, 6–22 CB; and in the Shapira "Moses Scroll")[9] Moses himself wrote a slightly different version of the Ten Words reporting that after God spoke them "...he added no more." By telling us that, he emphasized the Ten Words were complete, sufficient and final as the primary and foundational Horeb revelation; i.e., YHVH's will and intent was fully expressed in the Ten Words.

By immediately stating that YHVH "wrote them on two stone tablets" during the subsequent forty days, Moses linked the two events. The Ten Words were literarily "engraved in stone" and sanctified by being written by "the finger of God." This is the definitive event that establishes the Ten Words (aka the Decalogue) as the universally applicable "Master Covenant."

A period not a comma: the phrase, "And he added no more." marks a firm boundary between YHVH's personally authored Torah and the later ceremonial regulations as introduced via Ex 20:22–23:33, 24:3, 7. Those ritual observances are not even alluded to in the Master Covenant; many scholars refer to them as a later "Priestly Code." Regardless, the important point is the authentic Torah was written on the two stone "tablets of the Testimony" that Moses placed into "the ark of the Covenant."

Importantly, the validity of the genuine Ten Words—the direct revelation of YHVH—as the whole of the Torah Covenant is corroborated by the broader idea later expressed by his prophet-agents such as Jeremiah:

> "For I spoke not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices: but this thing I commanded them, saying, Pay attention unto my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you" (Jer 7:22–23).

And Amos' rhetorical: "Did you bring unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?" (Amos 5:25).

These positions were also confirmed by the prophetic stance that YHVH desires obedience and relationship over ritual (Hos 6:6's "I desire mercy, and not sacrifice"; 1 Sam 15:22's "To obey is better than sacrifice." In the NT, John the Immerser's formula of repentance followed by water immersion (baptism) as an outward symbol "for the forgiveness of sin" without blood sacrifice, aligns with the prophets. (Mark 1:4). This methodology was also practiced by Yeshua and his disciples (John 3:22, 4:1)[10]. God's primary desire is for a people defined by an inner sense of righteousness and justice exhibited by a lifestyle of ethical, moral behavior like Abraham (Gen 18:19).

Moreover, evidence from the original Jewish disciples of Yeshua—followers of "the Way"—supports the foregoing. For example, the Ebionites, descendants of the original Apostolic community in Jerusalem, echoed the Tanakh (TNK) prophets' critiques. In their distinct "Gospel of the Ebionites," Yeshua declares, "I have come to abolish sacrifices; and if you do not stop sacrificing, the wrath of God will not cease from you" (Epiphanius, Panarion, 30.16.5).[11]

The Ten Words are the "Tablets of the Testimony": Why is it important to understand that the genuine Torah of Moses is only the Ten Words written on the stone tablets? Because both modern Jews and Christians believe the "Torah" given by YHVH is the entire first five books of the Hebrew Bible. However, according to Moses' statement "and He added no more," all the additional Levitical code's laws, statutes, judgments and regulations had to have been added subsequently to the Ten Words. This is actually stated after God gave the Ten Words at Exodus 20:18–22 and at Deuteronomy 5:22–28. Many Jews of Yeshua's time—especially the apostolic community headed by James called "The Way (aka Nazarenes) and the Dead Sea Scroll texts—followed the prophets in proclaiming the authentic Torah of Moses was only the Master Covenant.

Thus, when Yeshua said, "I have not come to destroy the Torah or the prophets, but to make them full. Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot (yod; the smallest Hebrew letter) or one tittle (taggim; tiny decorative crowns at top of some letters) shall in no wise pass away from the Torah, till all things be accomplished" (Matt 5:17–18)[12] to what Torah was he referring? The Ten Words.

And as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" And Yeshua said unto him, "Why do you call me good? None is good save one, God: If you would enter into life, keep the [ten] commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother…" (Mk 10:17–19 & Matt 19:16–18, adapted).[13]

Additionally, it is the Ten Words that are referred to as "his covenant" and "the words of the covenant," and the tablets on which they were written are called "the tablets of the covenant." There are also many instances of The Ten Words being called "the Testimony" or "two tablets of the Testimony." There is no mention of anything but "the Ten Words" written on "the tablets of the covenant." The following quotes are representative of literally scores of examples providing proof of the foregoing:

And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant—the Ten Words (Ex 34:28b).

Notably, "…the words of the covenant" in Hebrew at Exodus 34:28b are: eth divre habberith. The use of the definite article "'eth" specifies that the scope of "the words of the covenant" written on the tablets encompass only the Ten Words.

"And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, the Ten Words; and he wrote them upon two stone tablets" (Deut 4:13).

"When I was gone up into the mount to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant which YHVH made with you,… And YHVH delivered unto me the two stone tablets written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which YHVH spoke with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. … YHVH gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant" (Deut 9:9-11).

Rashi, the most influential Jewish commentator in history (1040–1105 CE), validates this fact. He wrote that the tablets are "the Torah" (Ex 25:16) and "the testimony" (Ex 40:20):

"העדות (ha'eduth) 'THE TESTIMONY—the Torah (the Tablets; cf. Rashi on Exodus 40:20) which is a testimony between Me and you that I have ordained the commandments written in it (Midrash Tanchuma, Pekudei 4).'"[14]

Following is one of many commentaries on same subject from Keil & Delitsch's (K&D) Biblical Commentary on the Old Testament:

"Into this ark Moses was to put 'the testimony' (העדת; cf. Exodus 40:20). This is the name given to the two tables of stone, upon which the Ten Words spoken by God to the whole nation were written... (Exodus 24:12). Because these ten words were the declaration of God upon the basis of which the covenant was concluded (Exodus 34:27–28; Deuteronomy 4:13; Deuteronomy 10:1–2), these tables were called the tables of testimony (ch. Exodus 31:18; Exodus 34:29), or tables of the covenant (Deuteronomy 9:9; Deuteronomy 11:15)."[15] Emphasis ours

There are a total of 76 instances of unassailable testimony (i.e., witnesses) from the Hebrew Scriptures that the Ten Words written on two stone tablets by the finger of YHVH are YHVH's "Master Covenant" at Horeb.[16]

Additional support for this conclusion also comes from the Ebionites via their own writings. The Pseudo-Clementines Recognitions referred to as The Ascents of James (Syriac) states at 1.35.2: "They heard with heavenly sounds the Law (Torah) of God, all ten commandments (S)."[17] (Emphasis ours)

Jewish and Gentile Believers were United

The Ebionites were descendants of "The Way" who continued to follow and teach the original apostolic teachings for centuries—to mixed synagogues of Jews and Gentiles. Because of doctrinal differences exacerbated by the newly forming Graeco-Roman (GR) Church, the original Ebionites were gradually pushed aside. Many of the Church fathers quoted from their Hebrew Gospel and other writings, bearing witness to their survival as a distinct group for nearly five centuries. The Ebionites stated that Jews and Gentiles should be united together because Jesus and Moses preached the same Torah.

> "I have not come to destroy the Torah or the prophets, but to make them full. Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the Torah, till all things be accomplished" Matt 5: 17-18

As stated, to "fulfill" or "make them full" was a Jewish idiom indicating the proper interpretation of the Law (see footnote 10). The Dead Sea Scrolls, some of which were contemporary with Yeshua, spoke of a man who was / would be the "Interpreter of the Law." He was the anointed teacher who would give the genuine sense, meaning and intent of the original Torah of YHVH (the Ten Words) without any additional traditions.

Writings attributed to the Ebionites from the late second to the early third century called the Pseudo Clementines contain two books: Recognitions and Homilies. They record the Ebionite teaching that Yeshua was the prophesied prophet like Moses who was the proper 'Interpreter of the Law,' instructing the Jews about returning to the original Master Covenant and the true desires of YHVH. They sometimes refer to him as "the True Prophet."

> "For this reason, the Law was given by Moses, without which there is no coming to the divine knowledge. For how should anyone know the will of God unless he be taught by the Law and the Prophets? ... For Moses foretold him, saying, 'A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me'" (Recognitions Book 4 Ch 5).

> "And therefore, he who is the true Prophet did not come to destroy the Law, but to fulfil it, and to teach men to worship one God, and to live in holiness and justice. For the Law was given by Moses, but it was not new, having been from the beginning; and Messiah came to confirm it, and to make it known to all. And thus the same God who spoke by the Law and the Prophets, sent His Son to declare His will more fully, that men might know and worship Him alone" (Recognitions Book 4 Ch 6). (Adapted)

Of course, Yeshua would have no need to teach the Jews to worship the one true God as they had always known who YHVH was. Yeshua came to "declare His will more fully that (all) men might know and worship Him alone." "Men" was directed at the pagan polytheistic Gentiles. Yeshua confirmed the true interpretation of God's word often called the "Higher Torah"—that's what "fulfill the Law" actually means. And importantly, God brought the moral code of Torah to a world that mostly (with exceptions) had none.

The following are from Homilies Book 8, Chapters 5 through 7:

> "(5) For on this account also our Lord himself says that he is sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and that he ought not to go to the Gentiles, except in so far as he bestows on them the same instruction. For the doctrine which he gave to the Jews, he also imparts to the Gentiles…;" (Adapted, emphasis ours)

> "(6) Moreover, the Law, though given by Moses, was not new, but from the beginning, and was given to Adam, and renewed to Noah, and again to Abraham, and was set in order by Moses. But the coming of our Lord Jesus, the true Prophet, confirmed the Law, teaching that there is one God, and that men ought to be just and pious. For the Law, through the tradition of the elders, had been corrupted; but he, coming to fulfill the Law, brought it back to its original truth, teaching men to worship one God, and to live in holiness and justice."

> "(7) And therefore, neither are there two gods (i.e., separate god's for Jews and Christians), nor is the Law opposed to the Gospel (of Yeshua). For the same God who gave the Law by Moses, sent Jesus to fulfill it, and to teach men to worship Him alone, and to live righteously. For Moses and Jesus, the true Prophet, are in agreement, preaching the same doctrine concerning the one God, who is above all, and who is the Creator of all things" (Adapted; emphasis ours; see John 17:3, 20:17; Mark 10:6, confirmed by many verses in the Tanakh).

Conclusion—The Way Forward

Both Jews and Christians share the common heritage of the genuine Torah of YHVH given to Moses. As demonstrated, the authentic Torah was only the Ten Words of the Master Covenant and, as we all know: the Scripture usually interprets itself. This is what Moses and Yeshua taught and is the common, unbreakable link between Judaism and Christianity. If we want to save our civilization from collapse, we must embrace this shared heritage and walk together.

We have shown proof validating the Ten Words as the only instruction God personally gave for the people. The multiple references in the Tanakh to the Ten Words alone being the genuine ethical "Torah," "the Testimony" and "the Covenant of YHVH" is the basis for many admonitions by the prophets. Yeshua, his followers of the Way /Ebionites, and the Dead Sea Scrolls Essenes all taught the same thing.[18] We have also given evidence that the only thing written on the two tablets of the Testimony (of YHVH) were the Ten Words which are "the God-breathed" Torah of YHVH. All the Hebrew tribes as well as the uncircumcised mixed multitude of resident aliens (gerim toshavim) heard and accepted the Ten Words at Horeb. Those Gentiles were a type and shadow of the Gentiles who joined the original community of Jewish followers of the Way—without being required to convert or be circumcised (Acts 15:19–21).[19]

> "This expectation of ancient Jewish Christianity that the two great religions from which it derived would be brought together in a morality of good works was not realized…The Christ which the Great Church confessed was for them not the True Prophet but the Lord and the Savior. Just as little did rabbinic Judaism permit discussion of a reform of the Mosaic law. (ed. note: the rabbis, descendants of the Pharisees, expanded the five books of Moses (Pentateuch) to include their Oral Law —"the traditions of men").
> "The belief of the primitive church in Palestine and of the Ebionites in Transjordan that Jesus Christ is the new Moses has been condemned to remain unproductive by the church throughout her history; …. expressed in modern terms, God established two covenants with mankind through the revelations on Sinai and Golgotha which in the last resort are nonetheless one 'this striking interpretation of the coexistence of Judaism and Christianity in world history represents a conviction of Ebionite Jewish Christianity which remains worthy of note even today."[20] (Emphasis ours)

Since the tragic "parting of the ways" of Jewish and Gentile followers of the Way beginning mid-second century CE, a wide chasm between the two Master Covenant "religions" has existed to this day. Isn't it time that our two paths reunite to defend our common Judeo-Christian heritage—Western Civilization itself?

The unholy alliance between evil, anti-human Marxist / Globalist forces and tyrannical Islam is now revealing itself to the shock of many who are just waking up to it. However, Jews have been on the front line of this modern war against us all for decades —in reality—for centuries. For many Jews, the partnership between the globalist Marxist 'utopia' of the New World Order—where "the state" replaces God (UN, EU, WEF, Communism, etc.) and oversees every thought and deed—combined with their sword, the Islamic Jihadi forces—who dream of a worldwide Sharia-compliant Caliphate, are all too familiar threats. For Americans, this evil confederation, fueled by the latest Jihadi rallying cry, "First the Little Satan (Israel); then the Great Satan," should sound the alarm of the existential threat that requires immediate action. Israel is Christianity's natural ally in this fight.

Brothers and Sisters: Do you believe the words and actions of the radical Left-wing globalist New World Order (NWO) and their sword and partners—the Islamist Jihadis to destroy our religious heritage and our country are aimed at you? If not, why not?

We must unite—Jews and Christians—under the Master Covenant, The Ten Words, the Abrahamic foundation we profess to follow, forming a "shield wall" to stand in prayerful action against the existential threat to our Judeo-Christian heritage, until it is exposed and defeated, ensuring the survival of us all.

Shalom u'vrakhah – Peace and blessings,

4. We do not consider Islam and Sharia (Islamic law) to comprise an authentic Abrahamic faith. Their three holy books containing the tenets of Islam are the Qur'an, the Hadith, and, to a lesser extent, the Sira (biographies of the Prophet Muhammad). These books promote jihad, conquest, colonization, misogyny, rape, forced conversion, pedophilia, enslavement and/or death for all "kafirs" (i.e. infidels, subhumans, 'unbelievers' in Muhammed as Allah's 'final prophet" and ideal exemplar whom all men are to emulate). Sadly, peaceful or "reformed" Muslims are considered apostates to true Islam doctrine. The "uniting" of historical Islam with the radical Left's Marxist New World Order (NWO; Globalism) is akin to their alliance with the Nazis in WWII, except this time "The Final Solution" is focused on Western Judeo-Christian culture and civilization.

5. We will use the transliterated 'YHVH' instead of the traditional "the LORD" (JPS Bible, 1901; "Jehovah" in the ASV Bible, 1901) to enhance the reader's understanding of how the Hebrew Scriptures (TNK) really speak. The use of the LORD does not convey the uniqueness of one of God's (God's) attributes, i.e. his eternal "Being" like "YHVH" does. Also, "lord/Lord" in Hebrew (adon/Adonai) or Greek (kurios/Kurios) can mean anything from a respectful "sir" or "master" to a lesser "god," or applied to the Supreme YHVH.
6. All Bible quotes are from either the Jewish Publication Society (JPS) Tanakh, 1917, or the American Standard Version (ASV), 1901, and are "adapted" by updating some of the language, including words like: "shalt" to "shall" and "thee" to "you," etc. Quotes from other versions will be identified individually. All references to God's personal pronouns in the second person, i.e. he, him, his, are in lower case letters; all first and third person pronouns are Capitalized, i.e., I, Me, My, You, etc. as many bible versions do.

8. Throughout Moses' first-person narrative in Deuteronomy, 'Horeb' is the only name he ever used for what is traditionally referred to as 'Sinai.' It was the original name. Therefore, we will replace Sinai with Moses' Horeb.
9. A unique ancient book of Moses's first-person account which contained a version of Deuteronomy without sacrificial commands, written in paleo Hebrew. It was discovered in the late nineteenth century in the Dead Sea region. Dating was estimated at 900 BCE. More on this fascinating story later in this series.
10. John 4:2 is considered by many scholars to have been a later editorial insertion. Bruce M. Metzger (Christian Scholar, 1914–2007): "John 4:2 is widely regarded as a marginal gloss that has crept into the text, since it is inconsistent with the context and the verse is omitted in some early witnesses." (A Textual Commentary on the Greek New Testament, United Bible Societies, 1994, p. 178). 12. "…to destroy the Torah or the prophets... but to make them full." To "destroy" meant to give the wrong interpretations; "make them full" meant to give the correct interpretation. These were common idiomatic expressions prefacing interpretations by ancient Jewish scholars on various Scriptural subjects.

17. Robert E. Van Voorst, The Ascents of James, 1989, p. 86. "In connexion with our claim that the Ascents of James is an Ebionite work, three other topics need discussion. First is its view of the law. It is consistent with the patristic descriptions of the Ebionites as distinguished by their observance of circumcision and the Tora. 1.35.2 might be taken to mean that the Decalogue alone is of permanent validity, while the rest of the Tora (i.e. sacrificial system) was imposed by Moses because of the people's idolatrous tendency revealed in the worship of the golden calf (1.35.5–6). In that case, the information that Israel was blessed by God "whenever they observed the law without sacrifices" (1.37.1 Syriac) would have to refer to the observance of the Decalogue alone, the rest of the Law being categorized with sacrifices."

19. Even one year into the Exodus, about ten months after the giving of the Ten Words, these Gentiles were still described as "resident aliens" (gerim toshavim) within Israel. This is evidenced at Numbers 11:4, wherein all the people are described as being fed up with eating the manna: "And the mixed multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept on their part." This verse provides evidence that those same Gentiles were still not considered to be Israelites since they and the "children of Israel" are still presented as two distinct groups. Not until the Exodus generation died off in the wilderness and entered the land with Joshua did the new generation of the mixed multitude become gerim tsedekkim (righteous converts) by being circumcised along with all the new generation of Israelites (Joshua 5:2–10).

A DREAM; SATANIC ALTAR, WASHINGTON DC AND PRESIDENT TRUMP!

Several nights ago, I had a very powerful and weighty dream. I share this dream as a matter of Urgency for the purpose of serious Prayer and Intercession. In this dream, I was not permitted to speak. I knew by the Spirit that this was not a moment for me to act or intervene through Warfare prayer, but to simply observe and receive prophetic revelation from the Spirit of God for strategic Warfare !!

I understood that the Lord was allowing me to see into the plans of the enemy so that His people could rise in prayer and intercept and disarm what the kingdom of darkness was attempting to begin to establish in this hour .

In the dream, I found myself deep underground in New York City. Although I have never been to the Nation, I knew exactly where I was by the Spirit of Revelation, It was a dark place, yet I knew it was what I would call a high place in the realm of the Spirit . It was made known to me that I was geographically near the Statue of Liberty. Now the atmosphere in the dream was heavy, and I could sense that what was taking place there was hidden from human eyes. Being underground spoke to me of secret operations and unseen spiritual systems and structures working beneath the surface. I was taken to New York City, as I believe it's is a Global Centre of Finance and Media. I understood that what I was seeing was connected to Power, Influence, Control, and the shaping of thought and perception across the Nation. And being near to the Statue of Liberty revealed that there was a direct demonic attack being strategically formulated against the true spirit of Liberty and Freedom over the Nation.

The Assignment of the enemy is seeking to corrupt and redefine Liberty itself, turning what was meant for light into something dark, twisted and powerfully perverted. As I continued to watch in the dream, I was made aware of an Angel of the Lord that led me into a large room.

At the center of this Room stood a triangular table. I knew immediately that this was not an ordinary table but that It was an Altar. Seated at each point of the triangle were three high ranking Satanic Warlocks. Surrounding them stood a large circle of others who were joined together in demonic Covenant. The triangle, I knew again by the Spirit, represented counterfeit power and a perverted imitation of God's Divine order. The Large Circle represented Unity and unbroken agreement in darkness.

Together they formed what was a High Satanic Council of Evil, gathered to release demonic decrees that would influence Political, Religious, and Financial Systems, World Governments, and Global Regions and Territories across the Nations. Now, as I was given permission to see, and the Angel of the Lord took me closer in the dream, suddenly, I noticed what looked like Blueprints of a large Map which was laid across the top of the triangular table/Altar. As I looked closer, I realized they were the blueprints of Washington, DC. I could clearly see the White House drawn at the top of the design. On the triangular table sat a strange object, like a Marker, which also looked triangular in shape, but it had an Eye engraved upon it, like what we would recognize as the ALL-SEEING EYE. Suddenly, I heard those who were Standing in the large Circle around the Triangular Altar begin to chant, and as soon as they began chanting, I watched as the All-Seeing marker began to move across the blueprints of its own accord.

As the Marker moved across the blueprints, it seemed to move with great precision as if it were creating and following some type of pattern. But then suddenly, I saw the Marker stop in a strategic spot, and silence filled the room. I watched as one of the High Priests sitting at the table stood and would begin to speak words of declaration. When he finished, the Chanting would begin again, and the All-Seeing Eye marker would begin to move again across the blueprints.

Now, in the dream, I watched intently as the marker continued to move in a precise pattern, stopping at different points over the map of Washington, DC. Each time it stopped, another decree was spoken by one of the three High Priests that sat at the Table. I could feel in my spirit that these were not empty words, but powerful demonic decrees that were forming and fashioning satanic assignments over the Nation. But then I watched as the marker finally returned to its starting point, which was the White House, and the entire room fell silent again. At that moment, a strange looking cup was brought into the room and placed in the center of the triangular Altar/table.

I saw what looked to be the head High Priest reach forward and he lifted the cup. I watched as the Priest took a sip and then passed it to the other two who also drank from the cup. The cup was then passed around the large circle that surrounded the Altar until each one had taken a sip. This act was done in complete silence, and I knew by the spirit that what I was seeing was a satanic ritual designed to Seal the decrees that had been spoken over the land and over Washington, DC and the Nation.

I submit, I believe the cup represented a Covenant of Agreement, a counterfeit to the cup of the New Covenant in the blood of Jesus. I could feel the weight of what was taking place as the demonic Covenant was being sealed! Then I saw the Head High Priest stand again, and he removed the blueprints of Washington, DC from the table. Underneath the map was a picture of President Donald Trump.

I watched as the same All-Seeing Eye marker that had moved over the blueprints was placed upon President Trumps face. And like before, I listened as the large Circle of Satanic Warlocks began to chant, and the marker began to move across the image of President Trump's face.

Again, I saw as the Marker moved, just like with the blueprints, it would stop. First it stopped on his forehead, and the room would fall silent, and decree would be made. Then the chanting would begin, and the Marker moved to his Eyes, and a Decree would begin made, and then to his mouth, and finally to his ears. Each time the marker stopped, the chanting ceased, and one of the Hight Priests would make a declaration. As I watched, the Holy Spirit made me aware that these were demonic incantations being spoken against his mind, his ability to See clearly, to Speak with Authority, and to hear truth and Sound Counsel.

I knew that this was a strategic and coordinated demonic attack designed to weaken the President mentally, emotionally, and even physically. And just as I had watched with the Blueprints, the Marker returned to where it had been originally placed on the head of President Trump. Then I watched as a large bowl was brought into the room and laid upon the Triangular Altar, and the picture of President Trump was picked up and placed into the large bowl. One of the High Priests then stood up and poured a clear liquid into the bowl, which looked like water, and as the liquid was poured out, the Circle of Warlocks began to chant. Suddenly, I saw fire appear in the large bowl, and the fire consumed the picture of President Trump, leaving a small ash heap at the bottom of the bowl. I watched as the Head High Priest took hold of the bowl and he poured the ashes from the burnt picture into the Cup that they had all been drinking from. I watched as the cup was stirred, and the High Priest proceeded to drink from the cup that now contained the ashes. The Cup was then passed around the Altar for the other two High Priests to also partake of the Cup. As this took place, the Large Circle came together closer around the Table, and they began to chant as one Voice.

Suddenly, I woke from the dream, and I felt a deep burden and an Urgency. As I began to pray, the Spirit of God made it clear that the next (3) three months are critical. The enemy is attempting to establish something in the realm of the spirit that will shape and influence the next (3) three Years of America's direction as a Nation and that of President Trump's Presidency!

I submit, Satan is sowing seeds and Seeking to set powerful demonic Assignments in motion that could have far reaching effects if they are not intercepted in serious Prayer. I believe the Lord is calling His Prophetic Watchmen and Intercessors to rise in greater intensity during this window of time. There must be focused prayer for the President and for the city of Washington, DC and Strategic Landmarks. New York City is a Marked Placed by the hand of the enemy. Watchmen must set up an Altar over Washington, DC and Certainly New York City in this hour. The trajectory of the Nation shall be impacted by what is been given permission to be established. The Next (3) Months are critical months for Uprooting and Tearing down what Satan is seeking to establish!

I hear the Spirit saying that the blood of Jesus must be decreed over the Seat of Government. Every demonic decree spoken in secret must be nullified and overturned by the Power and in the Authority of God. We must pray strategically for Angelic intervention to frustrate and displace and dismantle every dark plan of Satan in this hour.

We must also pray for divine protection and clarity over the mind, emotions, and physical strength of the President Trump, his Health, his Family and Administration! As I have prayed, The Lord brought specific scriptures to my heart for this Hour and the season ahead.

Psalm 2 reminds us that God laughs at the plans of kings and rulers who set themselves against Him! Isaiah 8:9 &10. We must rise to declare that "every evil confederation shall fail because God is with His people." And Key is Daniel 2; 21 ."that it is God who changes times and seasons and who removes and raises up Kings!"

I share this dream, not to bring fear, but to release a Clarion Call to Awaken serious Intercession. God is faithful to reveal and expose what the enemy is planning so that His Remnant can legislate in the Courts, and we can respond from a Place of Authority!

There is a Clarion Call in the Kairos-Season. Heaven is calling for Watchmen to stand on the Walls and at the Gates and to decree and declare the Kingdom purposes of God over the Whole of the United States, the President, and every City. The light always comes to expos and overcome the power of darkness.

I believe that as we Pray, Legislate, and Stand in Agreement with Heaven, the plans of the enemy will be fully exposed and overturned, dismantled and totally destroyed, and the Purposes of God will prevail over the Nation!

P.S. I was left perplexed seeing the High Priests drink the ashes of the picture after it was burnt! I googled its significance; Incredible, but very powerful confirmation of what I was seeing and sensing!

1. Ashes signify what has been burned or sacrificed. In witchcraft, burning something (like paper, herbs, photos, or even human hair) is a way to "release" it into the spiritual realm. When the ashes are then drunk, it's believed to internalize the power, curse, or spirit that was connected to that object. It's a counterfeit form of communion taking something destroyed or dedicated to darkness and ingesting it to seal agreement with demonic forces.

2. Ashes represent death and desecration.
   In the kingdom of darkness, ashes are used to mock the purity of God's altar.
   In Scripture, ashes can symbolize repentance and humility before God, but witchcraft inverts that. They use ashes as a sign of defiance and unholy consecration, celebrating rebellion instead of repentance.

3. Drinking ashes seals a ritual or oath.
   In ancient occult traditions, mixing ashes with liquid and drinking it was a way to say, "Let this covenant be in me."
   It's a satanic mimic of taking communion. Just as we take the bread and cup to proclaim the covenant of Christ, witches and warlocks drink ashes to bind themselves to the power or spirit they're invoking.

A Great Storm Beyond the Door
A Time to Take a Firm Stand!
My Still, Small Voice → by Veronika West

Shipwrecked —but Not Destroyed or Forsaken!

On the 31st of July, 2025, I was suddenly caught up in an open Vision wherein I saw a Door open wide in the realm of the Spirit.

As I stood on the threshold of the Door and looked beyond the Door, I saw a GREAT STORM and heard the sounds of the violent Winds that were blowing. The Rain was thrashing down and then hail stones began to fall.

And then I heard, "Brace! Brace, for in the Month of August through to October and even into November — a month to remember!

You shall see Storms of greater magnitude!

Political Storms shall rage that shall bring forth New Wars and intensify and expand existing ones — Political Storms that shall bring greater shaking and an Awakening to Nations, and bring many Leaders to their knees!

For now, the Winnowing Winds of My Spirit are moving to bring a Divine Distinction between Goat and Sheep Nations. (see Matthew 25:31-46)

Storms that shall bring forth even greater natural disasters, tornadoes, earthquakes and greater volcanic eruptions, that shall bring even greater destruction to the landscape of many Nations in the Valley of Decision.

Yes! Fire Storms and Flood Waters shall rise across The Nations!

Mountains shall shake, and the Waters of the Seas shall be stirred up.

But Watch! For In the midst of the Season of greater Turmoil and Trouble, I shall teach My Bride how to War and Win in the midst of the Storm.

I shall Instruct My Remnant, through Divine Wisdom and Strategy, how to take Dominion and how to Overcome the assignments of darkness that seek to weary and overwhelm them in the coming days.

I say Listen! For there is an Assignment against your Vision and your Voice in this hour — an Assignment against Ascension and your Prophetic Decrees and Declarations."

I hear these Words, "As you roar in the Storm beyond the Door, you shall see the enemy flee and you shall arise to claim the Victory!

But I say Watch! as My Spiritual Storm Riders begin to rise up to Take Authority and Dominion in the Season of Greater Storms to come.

They shall speak to the Storms, and they shall rebuke the Waves and the Winds that seek to bring great destruction and loss!" says the Spirit of God.

I hear these Words, "Shipwrecked — but Not Destroyed or Forsaken!

"I say Watch! In this Season of Greater Storms, My Remnant Eagles MUST Ascend and Rise higher!

"My Eagles MUST enter into the Eye of the coming Storms — for in the Eye, there is an impartation of greater Vision, Revelation and Prophetic Illumination for navigating safely in the days ahead!

"Look — for My Spiritual Storm Riders are rising — as the Fiery Furnace is being turned up!"

Again, I hear The Spirit say, "As you decrease, so I will Increase! As you go lower, so I will take you higher! For I will resist the proud and the arrogant — and those who are puffed up in their own achievements and accomplishments have no part in Me!

"Beloved, you have a high Calling! You are My Ambassadors, My Representatives on the earth.

"There is no need to hold onto the honor and recognition that the world bestows, but rather, embrace the Grace that I give to the humble, for a broken and contrite heart mark those who have been chosen for true greatness.

"So, lay aside your own abilities, your plentiful resources — and your fierce determination to do things in your might and human power — and let My Spirit bring you guidance.

"Let My Holy Spirit pour into your life like the oil that fueled Zechariah's lamp-stand. (Zechariah 4)

"I tell you, human weakness and frailty is no obstacle, for My Power is perfected in the face of hardships, times of difficulty and persecution.

When you are weak, I AM strong!

Let Me free you from your enemies — and not with weapons, armies, horses and charioteers — but by My Power, as The LORD your God!

Let My Spirit guarantee you success and Victory in the midst of conflict and chaos!

I say to you, Fear Not! Do not be anxious about the future, Wars or rumours of wars, the rising fuel prices and the cost of living, what you will eat and what you will wear!

Has not My Mercy always made a way where there seemed no way?

Has not My Grace always been sufficient for you?

And has not My Wisdom brought unexpected answers and timely solutions?

My Child, can you think of one time in your life when My Love ran out on you?

NO! For did I not promise to never, no never, no never ever to leave you or abandon you? (Hebrews 13:5)

But look! Though the Storm Clouds are gathering — fear not!

For the Light of My Glory lines every dark cloud on the horizon, and My Grace flows beneath every crosscurrent.

For surely I tell you, even the contrary Winds will only accelerate you closer to the Divine Destiny I have for you.

Stop leaning on your own understanding and thinking you know what is best. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Every obstacle on your path, and every valley on your journey only propels you higher and takes you deeper into the Place of Promise and greater Prosperity that has been prepared for you. (Jeremiah 29:11)

I only give the greatest battles to My Strongest Warriors.

I AM purposeful and deliberate in all that I do in your life.

Seasons of testing and trials are inevitable — though I understand you may seek at times after a life of ease and comfort.

I know that this would counterproductive — even destructive — to the Destiny I have for you!

My Ways may seem harsh and My methods controversial — and even contradictory to the ways of the world — but I AM more concerned about your Character, Beloved, than I AM about your comfort and ease.

A True Disciple is what I AM fashioning and forming within you — one who will see the violent winds and the raging waves but will fearlessly and courageously step out of the boat to walk on the waters with Me!

One who has no fear of man and will walk into the Fiery Furnace with Me.

One whom I can trust to manifest My Glory on the Earth.

Beloved, so, be patient!

Hold fast, though the days are getting darker, the Light of My Glory is getting brighter — and Know that sufferings and afflictions are all working towards a consuming Glory — a Glory that shall diminish the darkness.

Therefore, lift up your voices — not in complaining or in unbelief — but in high Praises coming from a heart full of Hope, Expectation and Faith!

Rejoice in the Victory promised but not yet seen!

Celebrate in advance — for the Triumph that is already yours!

Listen! For your Battle Cry shall become a Victory shout in the storm beyond The Door!

Listen! Let the sound of a New Song fill and shift the atmosphere of doubt and fear.

Satan cannot stand in the presence of Praise — his demonic assignments are cut down and his evil deeds are dismantled and demolished.

Finally Beloved, My Mighty Overcoming Ones — let this day not be a day of lethargy and passivity, regrets or complacency, but let this be the hour when you arise as My Spiritual Storm Riders .

As you place your life under My Loving Hand, I will lift you up and strengthen your bones. (Isaiah 41:10)

Only believe that I have formed and fashioned you for higher things — to Rule and Reign from Heavenly Places, that you may take the land I have allotted to you as your Kingdom Inheritance!

I say "Take it! Take it now — and occupy till I come!""

"5:05; SOS; SAVE OUR SOULS; SWORD OF SPIRIT"

A Quick Share from our Prophetic War Room today, First By Andrew West.

Good Morning, as I awoke this morning, I looked at the digital clock beside the bed and it read,.."5.05", I immediately saw the Words, "S.O.S or Save Our Souls", the well-known maritime distress call!

As I went downstairs to my prayer closet, I was troubled by what I had heard
But As I pressed into the Lord, I heard him say, "I have given you another S.O.S to Answer the Cry of your hearts, the other S.O.S, is the Sword Of the Spirit"!

Saints we have the answer to our cries in our hands, it is the word of God, let's resolve to press into his word and use it as that sharp, double-edged weapon it is with the power to cut through the darkness and bring breakthrough personally and to the body. Now is not the time to shrink back or just cry for help, we need to take up the sword that is at our disposal and run into Battle and Overcome.

A QUICK PROPHETIC OBSERVATION By Veronika West
"MARITIME DISTRESS CALL"

What immediately stood out to me in Andrews text was the phrase he used "maritime distress call"! As soon as I read those words, the Spirit said to me "Marine spirit" ! The Lord then showed me that the Serpent Spirit of Leviathan is stirring against the Remnant in this hour a powerful Marine Principality that operates through chaos and confusion, and through very powerful distortion to bring Nations and even the Body of Christ into deep deception, darkness and Destruction.

Leviathan's assignment is always to twist truth, to rise up and stifle a New Move or Kingdom Movement of God from Advancing, and of course its agenda is also to suffocate spiritual breath the very "breath" of Revival and Awakening. Even now I think of Ezekiel and the Dry bones and how the Breath of God, the Resurrection Breath brought Great Revival and Raised up a Great Army from a Valley of Dry Bones. The Spirit of Leviathan always comes to cut off the breath that brings Revival and Reform..!! My attention was then drawn to what's happening in the natural the "Category 5 Hurricane Melissa" that is approaching Jamaica.

In light of this today from Andrew, I do not believe this connection is a coincidence I submit what we are seeing in the natural is what is being stirred up powerfully in the Spirit realm over Nations. The same Spirit that seeks to destroy life in the Seas is attempting to unleash confusion and great destruction within the Body of Christ and to hinder Revival from being Birthed in the Earth. I love how God said it was an opportunity to answer the cry of His people. The world may be shouting S.O.S Save Our Souls .but today Heaven is also responding with another S.O.S. Ha!!!!

"The Sword of the Spirit"

Truly the Word of God is our most powerful weapon in this hour!! I hear the Spirit saying, "Beloved don't only cry for rescue, but rise up with the Sword of the Spirit I have placed in your hand and take off Leviathans head .

For Now is not the time for retreat or to become distracted by the Hiss and power of the Serpent Spirit, but this is Clarion Call to Decree My Word, Declare My Truth, and to cut through the fog of War, deception and the voice of fear".

I Decree: "The Sword of the Spirit will sever the twisting coils of the Spirit of Leviathan and restore divine clarity and breath to the Remnant in this hour of Divine Transition and Birthing!"

Nate Johnston: Have You Been Experiencing Mind Warfare? Here's Why...

My inbox is filling up again right now with people asking us, "Why has the warfare been so intense, especially against my mind? Why have I been dealing with endless attacks that have left my mind in a fog and stolen my peace?" If that's you, below are a few things to help you navigate this.

You Are a Threat

Firstly, we know the tactic of the enemy. He prowls around like a lion, waiting for someone to devour (1 Peter 5:8). The only reason the enemy is prowling around you in this season is because you are a threat. There is something you do not yet see that God is leading you into, but the enemy sees it clearly. He is afraid of you stepping into this next season. That is the number one reason you are under attack. He comes after our minds, because if he can get our eyes off Jesus and onto the problems, we will miss what God is trying to lead us into.

There's Been Spiritual Interference

One of the ways he does this is through what I call "spiritual interference." This is when the enemy attempts to intercept your spiritual connection with God and your flow of revelation to bring distraction and confusion. Jesus said that the thief comes only to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10), and one of the ways he does that is by stealing your peace and focus. That is why in these seasons problems flare up, unexpected fires need to be put out, and constant distractions seem to appear from every direction. Anything that pulls you away from the secret place and from the Word of God is part of this interference. Don't take the bait! (Photo via Pexels)

Insecurities and Triggers

Have you noticed lately that many of your insecurities are flaring up? Things from your past are resurfacing, and issues you thought were dealt with are suddenly re-emerging. The enemy is trying to bring you into a place of self-condemnation in a season where God is actually leveling you up. Romans 8:1 reminds us that there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. The enemy wants to chain you to shame and guilt, but God is using this very time to bring deliverance and healing to areas of pain, trauma, and insecurity. He is refining you as gold is refined in the fire.
Christian Witchcraft Is at an All-Time High.

One of the most common reasons people's minds are in torment right now is because of what can be described as "Christian witchcraft." This looks like sudden waves of slander, condemnation, accusation, and gossip coming against you, all at once. The enemy wants your eyes on the chaos instead of on what God is about to birth through you. You may wake up foggy-headed, anxious, and confused, feeling like people are talking about you. Suddenly, messages come through that distract and pull on your emotions. These are manipulative tactics designed to wear you down and control you and your focus in the very moment God is preparing you for what is next.
Ephesians 6:12 reminds us that our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers. Do not fall into the trap. Instead, take up the whole armor of God and stand firm. Establish boundaries and guard your heart!

We Have Been Listening to the Wrong Voice

People are asking, "But where is it getting in? How is it getting access?"
It's simple... we have been listening to the WRONG VOICE. The voice of the enemy has many forms, and, sadly, on social media, it can even come through people who are Believers. Wounded voices will sound like the accuser, but we buy it because it is laced with Scripture. We have an epidemic of soulish noise right now, which is the perfect opportunity for the enemy to bait us into partnership with his lies. That is where your mind comes into bondage, because we open the door and let it in. Even false prophetic words can put us in chains. Silence the wrong voice!

Today, Get Your Mind Back

I have good news for you. You can break this and get your mind back. The first step is to break agreement with the lies. Fix your eyes on Jesus, the author and finisher of your faith (Hebrews 12:2). Run into the secret place and immerse yourself in the Word. Make prayer your first priority each day rather than scrolling through social media. Stop worrying about what people say, and draw boundaries where you need to. Guard your mind and fill it with what God says about you, because you have the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:16). As you ascend the hill of the Lord and take your seat with Christ in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6), the enemy can no longer attack your mind in the same way he once did.

Now, Get Your Clarity Back

It is time for the Church to become spiritually intelligent and take back our minds where they have been robbed. Philippians 4:7 says that "the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus" (CSB). I believe that our new norm as the Church is being set FREE in our minds and no longer coming under the swirl of the enemy's games and plans like we have. It's time for us to break the spirit of torment and REJECT the voice of the enemy that has been putting the Church in bondage when we are called to set captives free.

Katelyn Alexander and Anne Jackson: Impossible Dreams Fulfilled

In this season, God is inviting people on a journey of letting go of the past and stepping into the new. Let God into your process, let Him into your grief, and let Him into your dreams. He is also reawakening dreams, shifting dreams, and giving out new dreams to His children. Come to His presence and find the God dream for your season. This is a season to dream the impossible dream and pick up the God-sized dream, for He is fulfilling them.

Grieve the Life You Thought You'd Have

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5:4 NKJV)

Right around the time I (Katelyn) turned thirty, I was miserable. Nothing in my life looked like I expected it to look. I had stepped out in obedience, and everything had gone wrong. To me, it seemed I had fully gone backwards in the opposite direction of everything God had spoken to me. I felt disillusioned, disappointed, angry, and like I had fully "missed it."

As I sat with the Lord, He took me on a process of grieving. I began to grieve my disappointments. And I also grieved the lives I would never have, some of which felt serious and some of which felt kind of silly. I grieved the promises that hadn't yet come to pass. I grieved the fact that I would never be a young mom. I would never be a twenty-something newlywed. I would never make it on the Forbes 30 Under 30 List. I would never be a famous child actor. (As I said, some of these were quite silly.) I grieved that I didn't have an incredible career yet. (At the time, I didn't have any career, just a series of odd, disjointed jobs.) But this journey of letting go of all of the "should'ves," "would'ves," and "could'ves" became pivotal in getting me to where I am today.

I realized I had attached my self-worth to all of these societal milestones. My identity was so wrapped up in becoming something great, doing something important, or having a beautiful love story that I lost sight of what God was speaking over me in that moment. At many points along my journey, I have had to grieve all of the "shoulds" and disappointed expectations and get really, really honest with God.

Most of us have had moments like these in life, where we look around and go, "Did I sign up for this? Who have I become? Do I want my life? I really thought life would look different by now." Maybe you're single when you've been dreaming of marriage. Maybe you're a burned out, exhausted mom. Maybe you're going through a divorce when you thought "I do" would mean forever. Maybe you're stuck in a job you hate. Maybe you're an empty nester who's feeling a loss of purpose now that the kids are gone. Or maybe you've just realized that you're living out of alignment with who God has called you to be.

Rather than avoiding those feelings or wallowing in shame, bring them to the Lord. Invite Him into your places of pain and disappointment. Scripture says that Jesus was "acquainted with grief." He wants to meet you in your process. And as you process with Him, He will bring fresh healing to your heart. It's impossible to step fully into the new while you're clinging to the old. Often, letting go looks like grieving with God.

Let God Transform Your Dream

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight. (Proverbs 3:5–6 NIV)"

Because I went on this journey with God, the 30th birthday I dreaded became insanely liberating for me. I realized that because I'd already "missed" the milestones I thought I needed (I wasn't married, I didn't have kids, I had no exciting career—or money, for that matter); because I'd already missed society's perfect timeline (which is all imaginary, anyway), then I was going to live without it! And from there, I began to dream again with God. This is how I picked up the courage to go back to school at thirty-one, to find a new career at thirty-six, and to move to a new city and start over. After you've grieved and let go of what "could have been," there's a process God takes you on of allowing your dreams to change and morph. What you wanted at fourteen or twenty will likely look different from what you want at thirty, forty, or fifty. There is a maturing that comes, and dreams are allowed to change. They're supposed to change. Moreover, as you spend time in the presence of God, He will begin transforming your dreams. Therefore, give Him permission to do what He wants with you. Don't simply dream in the framework of what makes sense. Dream a God-sized dream, and allow Him to do what He wants inside of you.

For me, going back to school felt so silly... and yet God was all over it. When you're at rock bottom, you stop caring about looking foolish and become so much more willing to take risks. For most of us, it's easy to dream about what's safe and seems possible. However, if your dreams are something you can accomplish on your own, they're too small. God may give you a dream that's too big for you, because He wants to develop you into someone who can carry that dream and carry His heart. If you have felt disillusioned or lacking faith, come back to His presence. Let go of the childish version of your dreams and pick up the God version, which is so much bigger than you. Surrender what you thought your life would look like, and allow Him free reign in your life. Allow Him to transform you and transform your dreams.

Dead Dreams Resurrected

"He asked me, 'Son of man, can these bones live?' I said, 'Sovereign Lord, You alone know.' "Then He said to me, 'Prophesy to these bones and say to them, "Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord! This is what the Sovereign Lord says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life. I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the Lord." (Ezekiel 37:3–6 NIV)

For many of you, you once had specific dreams that burned in your hearts. But the pain and disappointment of life have caused those dreams to die or stagnate. Now, those dreams feel like a pile of dry bones—lifeless, empty, and impossible. There are businesses, families, marriages, and creative dreams that have ended up in the grave due to discouragement and life stressors.

Why do dreams die?

• Life challenges,

• The need to be "practical," "make money," or "take care of the kids,"

• The dream seems impossible,

• "That's for someone else other than me; it's too hard; I don't know how, etc.,"

• You pursued it and failed, so you no longer feel hope to continue trying.

These are just a few of the reasons dreams die. But just because a dream seems dead right now doesn't mean that it cannot come back to life. We serve the God of resurrection power, and right now He is resurrecting dead dreams. In Scripture we see, time and time again, how God makes the impossible possible. Therefore, do not look only to circumstances, but look to Him. Many of the dreams coming back to life are creative dreams. For many, letting the dream die was a necessary part of the process, a pivotal piece of surrender. (Photo via Pixabay)

If you are experiencing dead dreams, pick up hope again. Come back to the foot of the cross, and allow God to breathe life back into you and into the desires of your heart. It is sometimes painful to allow God into a place of deferred hope or into a dream that has died. Just as when a limb has gone numb, it can sometimes be uncomfortable when feeling returns. The feeling of pins and needles as blood starts flowing again is a positive sign; it's a sign of life. In the same way, emotions coming up are a sign of life for you.

Then, get around people who are doing the things you want to do! Get around people who believe anything is possible. Cultivate your imagination and allow yourself to dream outside the box. Cultivate a list of things you would love to do and experience. Don't worry about whether your dreams are practical. Simply start dreaming.

Dream the Impossible Dream

"With God all things are possible." (Matthew 19:26 NIV) Now that you've started to dream, know that dreaming isn't simply about what's practical or pragmatic. Dreaming is about partnering with God and what He wants to do on the earth. And when we partner with Him, we almost always say "yes" to something bigger than ourselves.

You see, God doesn't give you "you-sized" dreams; He gives "God-sized" dreams. So, if in the process of dreaming you keep coming up against "Well, that feels way too big for me," GOOD. This means that you're accessing God's dreams, which are supposed to be too big for you.

Instead of shutting down things that seem impossible, lean into them. Ask the Holy Spirit questions. Ask God for His answers, His creativity, His solutions, and His dreams. Via the Holy Spirit, you have access to all the resources of Heaven in order to accomplish His purposes on the earth. In addition, God-sized dreams are often about cultivating you into someone who can carry a God-sized dream. This means growing, maturing, and being willing to embrace challenges. God is raising up a people of tenacity and perseverance. Therefore, if God is calling you to pick up an impossible dream, it will come with training and testing to equip you and mold you into a person of character and of faith. Embrace it all.

It's time to lean into His heart and look at His face. Step into the unknown after Him. For God loves to turn impossible dreams into dreams fulfilled.

Declarations:

1. I invite the Lord into my places of pain and disappointment.

2. The Lord is restoring back to me what the locust has eaten.

3. God is redeeming my dreams.

4. I believe in the God of impossible dreams.

5. I am surrendering my plans and dreams to the Lord.

I agree with the following release. There most certainly was a blood sacrifice given at the time of establishment of these various forms of law or enslavement. We are releasing Kingdom law and glory into all of this. We no longer are bound by these other things, but we are released into Glory by the blood of Yeshua. The lies of propagated religion and freemasonry are being shattered. We are traveling through the debris field of their demise, so we must continue to travel through, for as we do, nations will run to us by virtue of the glory of Yeshua they see.

This is our day and our week.

The Sovereign Decree of Nullification and Restoration:

In the Name, which is above every Name, Yeshua HaMashiach, and by the Absolute Authority vested in us as sons and daughters of Yeshua, sealed by His Blood and Empowered by His Ruach HaKodesh, we now speak to ALL Creation.

We address the Cosmic scales, the Ancient realms, and the very Fabric of Existence. We Corporately Dismantle and Command the Absolute Breakdown of every altar, known and unknown, temporal and eternal, that has been erected for the cosmic blood sacrifice of the innocent.

We target the altars that run on:

The shed blood of men, women, and children.
The stolen life essence of any created being.
The harvested energy of human sorrow, fear, trauma, and adrenaline.

We declare the complete and total NULLIFICATION of all legalities, covenants, treaties, contracts and liens, every jot and tittle derived from the "Blood Sea of the Serpent."

This nullification extends to its fully manifested systems:
The entirety of Maritime/Admiralty Law and all its subsidiaries.
ALL LAWS OF CREATION that have been twisted, enslaved, and co-opted into this rebellious system. This includes the laws of physics, biology, and time that have been bent toward death, decay, and debt.

We speak now to Creation itself—to the stars, the galaxies, the elements, every Kingdom which was created as a blessing to humanity, plant kingdom, the sea kingdom, the animals, and the very atoms, that have been forced into the service of this ancient lie, a rebellion that predated humanity:

You ARE SET FREE.

We Command your Release, LOOSING from the enslavement to this deeply deceptive, original rebellion. We Revoke every assignment of lies death, decay, and debt placed upon you. We break the horror of your violation, the rape of your resources, and the consumption of your "blood" for the gain of a false authority.

We declare the Original, pre-temporal WORD. Before the foundation of the world, before time began, was the LOGOS—the ultimate Blueprint, the Creative Command, the Unassailable Legal Decree of all that is True. The WORD was with Yeshua, and the WORD was, and is, Yeshua. That WORD was released. It was spoken into the chaos. It became flesh and dwelt among us. It was crucified, raised, and ascended.

And now, we declare that this WORD returns to the Heavens and the Earth fully accomplished, having completed everything it was assigned to do.

It returns as a sharp sword, severing the old ties.
It returns as a consuming fire, burning up the chaff of the old system.
It returns as a life-giving river, restoring what was stolen.

The Case is closed. The Verdict is rendered. The sentence is executed.
The System of the Serpent's Sea is Terminated. The Laws of the Kingdom of TRUTH/LIGHT/LOVE are enforced.
Let Creation echo with the sound of shattering chains. Let the Galaxies realign with their Original Song of Praise. Let the Seas roar with the Joy of Purification. Let humanity arise from the bloody waves and stand, Redeemed, upon the Sea of Glass.

It IS FINISHED. SO BE IT. AMEN

Kislev 7, 5786: Thursday-November 27, 2025
Chaplain Wade Butler: The Name of the only begotten son

Recently, I have read a post about the name of the son of GOD. Well-meaning people can be and are often misinformed or deceived, depending on the church's teaching. Jesus is a transliteration of the name of Yeshua. HE will honor it in the understanding of our hearts, yet at the same time, we must understand our roots. I often say, "Hebrew roots produce Christian fruits."

First of all, I must address the fact that Hebrew has no letter "J". Yeshua was translated in Greek then Latin and changed to Jesus. Jesus' name in Hebrew is Yehoshua (Yeh-HO-shoo-ah), which, over time, became contracted to the shorter Yeshua (Yeh-SHOO-ah).

The Historical Context of Jesus' Name

The name "Jesus" comes from the Latin word "Iesus," which is derived from the Greek "Iesous." However, Jesus's original name would have been "Yeshua" (ישוע), an Aramaic form of the Hebrew name "Yehoshua" (יהושע), which translates to "Joshua" in English.

The name Yehoshua means "Yahweh is salvation," reflecting a significant theological meaning for those who would have known and used this name in the context of Judaism during that time. It underscores the idea of divine rescue and deliverance, aligning with the role that Jesus was destined to fulfill.

THE GREEK NAME OF JESUS CHRIST

The Greek name for Jesus Christ, which appears prominently in the New Testament, is "Ἰησοῦς Χριστός" (Iesous Christos). The significance of this name transcends mere words; it carries profound theological meanings and historical contexts.

The name "Iesous" is derived from the Hebrew name "Yeshua," which is a common form of the name Joshua. In Hebrew, "Yeshua" means "Yahweh is salvation." The implication here is direct and powerful, indicating Jesus's role as the Savior in Christian belief. The latter part, "Christ," comes from the Greek term "Χριστός" (Christos), meaning "anointed one." This denotes Jesus as the Messiah, the one whom God anointed for a specific purpose in human history.

Do we need to use Jesus' name in Hebrew?

God will hear your prayers whether you use the name Yeshua, Jesus, or the Messiah's equivalent name in another language.

The Hebrew Scholars at JewishVoice.org prefer to call Him Yeshua for two primary reasons:

Using Jesus' name in Hebrew highlights the fact that He is Hebrew from the tribe of Judah. Much of the Church remains disconnected from the Jewish roots of faith in Yeshua. The Old Covenant promised the Messiah would come from and to the Jewish people. Jesus' ministry on Earth was directed to the house of Israel (Matthew 15:24 NIV). The apostle Paul declared that the Gospel was for the Jewish people first and also to the Gentiles (Romans 1:16).

The consistent message of the entire Bible is God's plan of redemption in Yeshua, Jesus the Messiah. God reveals it in miraculous and rich ways throughout both Old and New Covenants. Using Jesus' name in Hebrew helps in a small way to restore the lost connection that many Believers have with the Jewish roots of their faith.

Using Jesus' name in Hebrew highlights the fact that He is Hebrew from the house of Judah, (Yehuda). The importance of this name and its meaning rest in the fact that it is the source of the name of the people of Isreal: 'Yehudim" (Jewish or Hebrew) came from the kingdom in Jerusalem's region -Yehuda- that in turn came from the son, Yehuda (Judah). Which means 'praising and thankful." Judah's name means 'praising and thanking God.'

A common argument claims that Jesus is not found in the Hebrew Scriptures – the Old Testament - and that He is a Christian or Gentile creation only mentioned in the New Testament. True, the name "Jesus" is not found in the Old Testament, as it is an anglicized version of the Greek name Ἰησοῦς (Iēsous). However, Jesus was born in Israel among a Hebrew-speaking people. His name in Hebrew is "Yeshua." Matthew 1:21 refers to what was well understood by the Jewish people: the name Yeshua means "salvation" or "God saves." This verse says, "She will give birth to a son, and you are to give Him the name Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins." His Hebrew name, Yeshua, means "the LORD saves," and this is confirmed in many Bibles that contain a footnote such as "Hebrew: Yeshua (Joshua), meaning The LORD saves."

This name is pronounced ye-huw-dah in Hebrew. Most Hebrew dictionaries will define this word as "praise," but as this English word is an abstract word, it falls short of its true Hebraic meaning.

A Lie often referred to is that Jesus Began a New Religion Called Christianity

A lie is the popular claim that Jesus came to earth and began a new religion, separate from Judaism. However, Yeshua's entire earthly ministry was to His own people, the House of Israel. Followers were actually called, disciples of "The Way." John 14:6, "Jesus said to him, I am the Way and the Truth and the Life; no one comes to the Father except by (through) Me." At the same time, they were Hebrew, as Yeshua had to fulfill the scriptures.

We can see this in an example found in Matthew 15.

"Now Yeshua left from there and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman from that district came out and started shouting, "have mercy on me, O Master, Ben-David! My daughter is severely tormented by a demon." But He did not answer her a word. And when His disciples came, they were urging Him, saying, "Send her away, because she keeps shouting at us." But He responded, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 15:21-24 AMPC

In the Greek New Covenant, the word used for Jesus is Iesous (ee-ay-SOOS). Iesous is not a translation of Jesus' name in Hebrew, but rather it is a transliteration. In Dr. Marleen McMillan's work on the Dialectic Process, she states that in modern language we often substitute words for the purpose of deceit or to weaken the meaning. Biblical transliterations often fit the exact purpose of her description.

Much of the Church remains disconnected from the Hebrew roots of faith in Yeshua. The consistent message of the entire Bible is God's plan of redemption in Yeshua, Jesus the Messiah. God reveals it in miraculous and rich ways throughout both Old and New Covenants. Using Jesus' name in Hebrew helps in a small way to restore the lost connection that many Believers have with the Jewish roots of their faith.

Historically, by the time of Jesus, the Jewish people were expecting a Messiah, one who would deliver them from oppression and establish a kingdom of righteousness. Therefore, the name Iesous Christos carries with it the weight of expected prophecy and Saviorhood, drawing from layers of Hebrew scriptures that anticipated salvation.

This transition from "Yeshua" in Hebrew to "Iesous" in Greek reflects a broader cultural shift as the early church expanded beyond Jewish contexts into the Hellenistic world. The Greek language was the lingua franca (common language) throughout much of the Mediterranean region at the time, making the usage of Iesous Christos accessible to a wider audience while still maintaining the core theological significations drawn from the Hebrew scriptures.

THE GREEK NAME FOR CHRIST

The term that we often use as "Christ" comes from the Greek word "Christos" (Χριστός), which means "the anointed one." This word has its roots in the Hebrew term "Mashiach" (מָשִׁיחַ), meaning "Messiah." Both terms convey an essential understanding of Jesus' identity as God's chosen one who fulfills the prophetic expectations of an anointed savior or deliverer. In the Old Testament, priests and kings were anointed with oil as a symbol of their divine appointment. This idea of anointing carries with it a powerful connotation of being set apart for a special mission, which, in this context, points directly to Jesus' unique role in God's salvation plan.

"Christos" evolved from its Hebrew origins when the Old Testament was translated into Greek, known as the Septuagint. In this translation, the Hebrew "Mashiach" was rendered as "Christos." Over time, as Christianity spread throughout the Greek-speaking world, the term became synonymous with Jesus' identity and person. It shifted from a general term for anointed ones in the Hebrew Scriptures to a specific title for Jesus, indicating the completion of God's redemptive plan through Him.

The Hebrew word meaning the same thing is Mashiach, or as we know it—Messiah. So, Christ is really more a title then, it is a name, although the Bible uses it both ways. For example, the Bible often refers to Jesus by name as "Jesus Christ," just as we do in modern usage (see Matthew 1:1, 18; Mark 1:1; John 1:17; 17:3; Acts 3:6; Romans 3:24, etc.).

But it also speaks of Jesus as "the Christ," meaning "the anointed one," the Messiah. When Jesus asked His disciples who they thought He was, Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16). At Jesus' interrogation by the Jews just before His crucifixion, the high priest demanded, "Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!" (Matthew 26:63). And Luke records that on one occasion when Jesus cast demons out of individuals, the demons cried out, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!' and He [Jesus] rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ." (Luke 4:41)

More important is the fact that when I asked HIM; What is the name you prefer? HE said, "MY NAME IS YESHUA', MY mother calls ME 'Yeshua.'" So, to repeat the previous statement, God will hear your prayers whether you use the name Yeshua, Jesus, or the Messiah's equivalent name in another language. Yet at the same time, HE said, "MY name is YESHUA."

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'THE WINDS OF CHANGE ARE INCREASING. LEAN IN!'

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'The winds of change are increasing." Lean in.'

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard: 'The winds of change are increasing." The velocity of the winds is increasing. It's time to arise and to fly. I say unto you, lean in. Lean in and listen. Lay aside any compromise, lay aside any complacency and come away with Me. For I say unto you, that I am leading you into uncharted territories. I say unto you, I am leading you into new days that you have not been in before, and I am bringing you forth further into your destiny. I say unto you that it is time for you to arise and lean into the winds of change. For where many of you have felt like you have been swirling in transition, I say unto you, the winds of change are increasing to bring you into a place of greater vision.

'In these days, you must narrow your focus upon Me. Cast aside distraction and come to Me and listen to where I am leading you. Be not found with your hand to the plough on things that I am not building. For I say unto you, that as the winds of change increase in this hour, there will be greater revealing of what is built upon Me and what is built upon the good ideas of man. I say unto you, that I am preparing My people for an unprecedented move of My Glory. I am preparing you for a move of My Spirit that you have not yet seen. I am moving greatly in the earth, and My revival fire is falling in powerful ways: and I say unto you, that My Glory is coming. My weighty Glory is coming, and My eyes are roaming the earth looking for the pure and surrendered hearts who are walking closely with Me and building WITH Me – not FOR Me from man's wisdom or good ideas.

'I say unto you that as the winds of change are increasing, I am moving many into places of greater vision and strength. I say unto you that there are many who have found themselves so deep in the trenches of transition. But I say unto you, I am now bringing you forth into greater fullness of your assignment in this hour and greater fullness of vision of where I have been leading you. I say unto you, that where many of you have felt like you have been dismayed and disorientated by the intensity of transition, I am now bringing you forth with a greater anointing of the pioneer – to go forth and to build from My vision in uncharted territories and unprecedented ways.

'I say unto you that as the winds of change increase, do not despise the turbulence of the increase in altitude. For I say unto you, that I am bringing you higher in perspective and heavenly wisdom as you seek Me in humility and purity, to navigate with Me where I am leading you. For I say unto you, you shall see that as you come up higher in your perspective, in wisdom and My ways, and implement that which I am speaking and revealing, there will be great change around you. Where many of you have felt like you have been in transition and had great lack of direction, I say unto you, that in the new vision I am releasing and where I position you in this new season, you must lean into My wisdom in deeper ways than you have before.'

'Yes, cry out for comprehension and intercede for insight. For if you keep seeking it like a man would seek for sterling silver, searching in hidden places for cherished treasure, then you will discover the fear of the Lord and find the true knowledge of God. Wisdom is a gift from a generous God, and every word he speaks is full of revelation and becomes a fountain of understanding within you. For the Lord has a hidden storehouse of wisdom made accessible to his godly ones. He becomes your personal bodyguard as you follow his ways, protecting and guarding you as you choose what is right. Then you will discover all that is just, proper, and fair, and be empowered to make the right decisions as you walk into your destiny.' Proverbs 2:3-9 (TPT)
'I say unto you, that you must come deeper in communion with Me: to hear, understand and implement the strategies and instructions that I give to you, for in this new season, I will be leading you in new ways and new directions. Where I narrow your focus, where I call you to take your hands from the plough in some areas, to place your hands on the plough in new areas, where there is a refining of focus and vision, I say unto you that you shall see some of the greatest expansion take place by the power of My Spirit and by My mighty hand.

'I say unto you, that as you seek Me in this hour and walk upon My wisdom, I shall infuse you with greater strength. As you continue to abide in Me, I shall bring you even deeper into the revelation that apart from Me you can do nothing (John 15:5). 'I say unto you, I am bringing you deeper into the place of dependence where you shall trust Me in deeper ways than you have. And as the winds of change increase, you must follow My leading, My wisdom and My ways and not allow fear, the fear of man, and intimidation to keep you from following Me and the changes I am leading you into. For I have gone before you, I have prepared the way, and I am walking with you. You are not alone; I am with you, and in Me you have all you need to do what I am calling you to do and the changes that are before you. For it is in Me that you shall do what I am calling you to do and to embrace the changes that are before you.

'I say unto you, as you follow the leading of My Spirit and as you obey Me in this great day of change that is before you, I say unto you: MAKE ROOM, MAKE ROOM, MAKE ROOM! For in the expansion I shall bring, you shall see fruitfulness, harvest, and a move of My Spirit that you have not seen before. I say unto you, expansion shall be in your midst, and there shall be great growth and multiplication by MY HAND that will take place where you will see fruit that will OVERFLOW. I say unto you, as I am leading you into this great day of change, as the winds of My Spirit are increasing and the season is changing, lean into My wisdom, for I shall lead you in how to make room for the move of My Spirit and the glorious increase that I shall bring into your midst by the power of My hand. For I say unto you, that the increase which is before you is not man-made, it is a move of My Spirit that cannot be contained.

'I say unto you, receive great grace for this day of great change. Receive the deeper empowerment of My Spirit and grace to move into the change that is before you. I am strengthening you; I am fortifying you, and I am bringing you into a new day. I say unto you, My people, "There is change in the air." (Song of Songs 2:10-13). A mighty move of My Spirit is at hand as the winds of change increase. Strength and joy shall be your portion in ways you have not experienced in this hour. Arise in this new day of destiny to move with Me in greater ways in what I am doing in the earth. Uncharted territories await you: and as you follow Me, in footstep with Me, you shall see Me like never before.

Wade Butler to Chuck Pierce, November 8, 2025.

It may not seem like victory is at hand for many, yet at the same time, "It's time to praise"....

During Cindy Jacobs Prophetic Conference on November 7th, Jane Hamon said what most people have experienced about this last year. It has been one of the toughest years in my life as well as most who have pressed through, (myself included). Our enemy has tried to kill us again, tried to steal everything we own and destroy our legacies. BUT GOD!

It is 4:30 A.M. In the war room for an hour... The battles are heavy, the body is exhausted, the enemy is in a panic because redemption is at hand. Restoration is on the horizon and victory smells like breakfast cooking. Time to have a fresh cup of victory!

It smells better than coffee or English breakfast tea and goes with everything... Sweat rolls in the oven. Getting close to being the time to dance... Our brides have waited a long time and as brides - so have we. Get up and dressed for a party, the angels are bringing the decorations. It's time to rejoice, our cups are waiting for us to pour until they overflow..... WKB with instruction from HS!

Dutch Sheets and Chuck Pierce: A Seven-Day Assignment

Holy Spirit gave my friend, Chuck Pierce, a very important prophetic word several weeks ago that is as pertinent today as it was the day it was given. It refers to a seven-day window and assignment, running from a previous Monday through Sunday. Even though the seven days have obviously already passed, we can still participate! Here is Chuck's word, then I will make a few comments.

Seven Days of Awareness!

Word of the Lord from Chuck Pierce:

"I am calling My people into a seven-day awareness. The next seven days, you must be aware. Praise Me like you've never praised Me before. As you praise, come into agreement with Me, saying, 'I want a nation to come alive over the next seven days. I want the "lie structure" that is holding this nation to be captured. I want the liars to start being divided and for God-inspired decisions to be made about the future.'

"For this nation has been layered with lies from past administrations. This has formed a veil of deception that has hindered My will for the future. I will begin to divide the structure of lies and those who have followed the lies. From that, clarity will come, allowing wise decisions to be made that will affect the atmosphere of this nation for the next two years.

"The next seven days are key to an announcement that there is a future in this land. This must be contended for. Move forward with Me. Praise Me in the morning, praise Me at noon, and praise Me at night. Then I will come down, inhabit the praise, and break the hold of those that are holding their finger in place over what I desire to do. This will be a week that I remove fingers that are touching what I long to accomplish in this land. I will do that by putting My finger on the real issues in the next seven days."

My Thoughts

This prophecy clearly states that we are in a critical seven-day window of opportunity. As is often the case, the Lord has chosen not to give specific details regarding what is taking place behind the scenes, only that we are in a window of time, and He is asking us to participate.

This prophetic word speaks of a veil of deception built from lies in the government of America. It should not surprise us to hear the Lord say this; we know that many in our government are dishonest and have created a web of deceit. The roots of this are spiritual. Jesus said the devil is a liar, the father of lies, and that there is no truth in him (John 8:44). He then told the Pharisees that the devil was their father, and that they were following his desires. (Photo via Pxhere)

Likewise, we have many in Washington, D.C., following their father, the devil. This word is telling us we have reached a point where their web of deceit over America can be broken. The Lord said He will divide their structures and their unity. In other words, He will dismantle that which they have built, cause it to unravel, and even divide those who have worked together. It is fascinating that we are already starting to see this begin. I have never seen those on the Left fight against each other as they have this week (regarding the government shutdown). They are feeding on those in their ranks who voted to reopen the government, and Senator Schumer for not stopping them, like piranhas in a bloody pond.

But God not only said He would divide them, but would dismantle their web of deceit and break the hold of their fingers. The picture I have is of a strong hand peeling back the clenched fingers of someone trying to maintain their hold on an item. The Lord said they were touching and attempting to hold back His will/what He desires to do.

This word clearly points out the fact that God works in partnership with His Body and family. He certainly has enough power to do this without our help, but that is not how He operates. He wants and—because of this decision—He needs our partnership. He told us in James 4:2, that at times, we have not simply because we haven't asked. "Contend for this," He tells us through this word.

Holy Spirit clearly tells us that if we participate in these seven days of praise and awareness, it will enable wise decisions to be made this week that will affect the atmosphere of America for the next two years.

He also told us to be "aware!" This speaks to me of the watchman concept in Scripture. One of the meanings of the multiple Hebrew and Greek words for watchman in Scripture is simply to be aware! Some translations use the phrase "be alert," or "be on the alert." This tells me Holy Spirit will reveal issues throughout the week that He wants us to pray for and/or make decrees regarding. Those who listen intently to Holy Spirit will partner with Him in unusual ways.

And lastly, Holy Spirit emphasizes the instructions of radically praising God, telling us to do so morning, noon, and night. This is perhaps a way of instructing us to praise Him throughout the day, all day long. In other words, stay in an attitude and heart of praise throughout the entire day. It could also mean to literally set aside three times a day—morning, noon, night—and give Him praise. For example, in Daniel 6:10, Daniel entered a season in which he prayed and offered thanks to God three times a day, defying orders not to do so.

The results were remarkable. Daniel was thrown into a den of lions in order to destroy him. God sovereignly closed the mouths of the lions and protected Daniel. The king was so moved that he threw Daniel's enemies into the lions' den, and released the following decree to the entire kingdom:

"I issue a decree that in all the realm of my kingdom people are to tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for He is the living God and enduring forever, and His Kingdom is one which will not be destroyed, and His dominion will be forever. He rescues, saves, and performs signs and miracles in Heaven and on earth, He who has also rescued Daniel from the power of the lions." (Daniel 6:26–27 NASB) (Photo via Picryl)

A king, his kingdom, and the purposes of God were all impacted by Daniel's prayers and the Lord's response. Verse 28 of this chapter adds that Daniel "enjoyed success" from that point forward in the reigns of Darius and Cyrus. Wow! There are some amazing results.

Let's join Chuck in this. Jump into the week, be radical in your praise, and allow God to inhabit those praises with His mighty power (Psalm 22:3). Let's seize this moment of opportunity to impact our nation.

Prayer for America

Pray with me: Father, we thank You for this window of opportunity in America. As we obey Your instructions, we ask You for sensitivity and discernment. Help us to remain alert—aware! We commit to creating a throne for You with our praise (Psalm 22:3), a place from which You can rule in our nation. Dismantle evil structures, expose lies, and unravel webs of deceit. Give us this week the breakthrough You spoke of. Peel off the fingers holding back Your plans and release the announcement that Your future for America is secure. Bring forth the wise decisions You spoke of decisions that will affect the atmosphere of our nation.

We conclude today by offering You praise from Psalm 117 (The Passion Translation):

"Let everyone everywhere shine with praise to Yahweh! Let it all out! Go ahead and praise Him! For He has conquered us with His great love, and His kindness has melted our hearts. His faithfulness lasts forever, and He will never fail you. So go ahead, let it all out! Praise Yah!"

Our decree: We declare that God is enthroned in the praises of His people (Psalm 22:3).

I Am Fully Persuaded

One recent morning, I awoke from a dream about physical warfare in which I was a participant. Reflecting on the dream, my mind immediately clicked to statements from Secretary of War Pete Hegseth, calling for a "warrior ethos" on the part of all military members and general staff – that they must possess a fight-to-win mentality; nothing else is acceptable in the new armed forces! My next thought jumped to Sun Tzu's The Art of War and his tactics to win a conflict.

Certainly, the world is teetering on the edge of war in many places with more conflicts seeming to arise at least weekly. However, in my spirit, I knew this dream was about spiritual warfare – a war for the mind and against our spiritual underpinnings. We are engaged in spiritual warfare to a greater or lesser degree on a daily basis, and we must have that warrior ethos in regard to the spiritual battles in which we are engaged.

For warriors, basic training includes the proper usage of weapons. This time of intensive training is necessary in order to survive in combat and to win the battles ahead. In spiritual warfare, we use the spiritual weapons of the Word of God and prayer, and we must be fully prepared to effectively use both in our battles. I am reminded of the story of one recruit in training at the rifle range. He was a terrible shot, and the drill sergeant and a general were on hand watching the exercises. The general commented jokingly that that recruit couldn't hit the side of a barn. At which point, the recruit rolled over to his side, took aim, and shot the general between the eyes. The moral of the story is that generals are killed for jesting. Let that sink in. This is serious business.

In recently viewing a number of videos about E.W. Kenyon and his teachings, I was encouraged to do some research about the man. Wikipedia describes him in this manner: "He was a pastor of the New Covenant Baptist Church and founder and president of Bethel Bible Institute in Spencer, Massachusetts. As an American pastor, evangelist, and author, he is known for his influence on the Word of Faith movement. Blending evangelical theology with elements of New Thought, he emphasized the power of words, faith, and confession in Christian living. E.W. Kenyon believed that believers could access divine healing, prosperity, and victory through understanding their identity in Christ. His writings, such as The Hidden Man and In His Presence, stressed the authority of the believer and the reality of redemption. Though controversial, his teachings significantly impacted figures like Kenneth Hagin and many others and largely shaped modern charismatic and Pentecostal theology."

Motivationalchristianquotes.com states, "[his] writings have had a profound influence on the modern Word of Faith movement. His teaching focused on the power of God's Word, the authority of the believer, and the redemptive work of Christ. Kenyon's work laid the foundation for a generation of believers who embraced the idea that faith in God's Word is key to receiving God's blessings and living victoriously. His teachings continue to inspire and empower Christians around the world today." However, further on-line research from various Christian sources provided arguments against the "word-faith" movement calling into question the validity of such teachings.

So, what were some of Kenyon's teachings, and are they valid and true to the Word? The following quotes, though few in number, are reflective of his teachings on faith, righteousness, and the power of Jesus' name.

> "Prayer means that we have come boldly into the throne room and we are standing in God's presence."
> "Righteousness permits us to stand in the Father's presence without the sense of guilt or inferiority."

"Until a man knows that he is the righteousness of God, he will never take advantage of his privileges. He will always live in bondage to the enemy."

"My righteousness is just as good as Jesus' righteousness, because it IS Jesus' righteousness!"

"This is a Faith Fight. We win our battle by our recognition that it has already been fought and won by Jesus and by accepting the thing that Jesus has done for us. We do not pray for it. We do not struggle for it. We simply look up and say, 'Father, the battle has been won.' In the Faith fight, God does it all. He conquered Satan and put away sin. He bore our diseases, so that we only need to thank Him and enjoy it."
"Now faith is..." "Faith is now."

"Faith talks in the language of God. Doubt talks in the language of man."

"Faith is acting in the face of contrary evidence. The senses declare, 'It cannot be,' but Faith shouts above the turmoil, 'It is!'"

"Mountain moving faith comes from simple obedience to the written Word of God."

"There is no sickness problem. There is simply a problem of the believer's coming to know his inheritance in Christ."

"Jesus has given you the right to use His name. That name can break the power of disease, the power of the adversary. That name can stop disease and failure from reigning over you. There is no disease that has ever come to man which this name cannot destroy."

"With that Word we conquer disease. We say, 'Disease, in the Name of Jesus Christ, stop being. Cancer, in the Name of Jesus, shrivel up and stop being. T.B., in the Name of Jesus, leave that body.'"

"Take the supernatural out of Christianity and you have modern Churchianity!"

Christian contrarians would say these are improper interpretation of scripture, that we need to tarry in prayer to beg God for answers, miracles or healing, that we need to pray, "God, if it be thy will…" or that we should question, "Did God really say?" Sounds like something satan said in the garden of Eden, doesn't it? If we allow the devil to play mind games with us, and if we do not take our thoughts captive and bring them into obedience to Christ, we will lose in the warfare. We must therefore gird up the loins of our minds (1 Peter 1:13) and run to the battle in confidence of the truth in which our faith lies. If your faith is not firmly rooted and grounded in the Word of God, you will be roadkill in the battle.

Hebrews 4:16, "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." Therefore, I don't offer wimpy prayers. I come boldly, I speak boldly, and I command the devil boldly.

Romans 8:37 says that I am more than a conqueror in Christ. God has given Him a name that is above every name, and at the name of Jesus (Yeshua) every knee shall bow in heaven and earth and things under the earth (Philippians 2:10). Cancer is a name. Diabetes is a name. Depression is a name, and according to His Word, they must bow to the name of Jesus.

1 Corinthians 1:30, "But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption." Therefore, in Christ I AM righteous, I AM sanctified, I AM redeemed! It is so. I don't have to pray for righteousness; I AM righteous in Christ Jesus. It is Christ in me, the hope of glory (Colossians 1:27). He lives in me. His righteousness is my righteousness.

Hebrews 11:1 says, "Now faith is..." Faith is not in the future. Faith is in the NOW. By Jesus' stripes I am healed NOW! My body might not feel like it or look like it, but the Word says it is so, and I declare my body must come into line with the Word of God.

1 Peter 2:24 says that "by His (Yeshua's) stripes we WERE healed." Likewise, Isaiah 53:5 says that "with His stripes we ARE healed." I was healed, and I am healed NOW. Therefore, by faith, I declare that my body must come into line with God's Word.

Paul prayed in Ephesians 1:18-22, "The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all." He continues in Ephesians 2:6 with, "And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus."

We need to take to heart Paul's admonition to the Ephesians – that the eyes of our understanding be enlightened to the fullness of what Christ has provided to us in this life. It is through this provision, these weapons, that we are empowered to defeat every tactic of the enemy, but we must believe it; we must internalize it; we must use them strategically! To the degree we permit our minds to waver, we lose. We must know the truth, and the truth will make us free, but only IF WE APPLY IT.

The Lord would encourage you to apply His powerful Word to every battle you are facing. Apply it with confidence. Apply it with boldness. Apply it knowing that the victory is yours already through the finished work of Yeshua. I am fully persuaded of my authority in God's Word. Are you?

"Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward." (Hebrews 10:35)

PRAYER TO ACTIVATE THE FULL ARMOR OF GOD
AMANDA GRACE, FISHKILL, NY

In the name of Jesus Christ, I assume and put on the full armor of God according to Ephesians chapter 6: the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, the belt of truth; I shod my feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace. I take the shield of faith and, in the name of Jesus Christ, command it to go up in front of me, my family, etc., to quench the fiery darts of the wicked one.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I command that every arrow being fired at me by the enemy's camp be reversed upon the sender now! And I take the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, and in the name of Jesus Christ I command it be activated, the sword of the Spirit and all its capabilities, to now work in my favor: to destroy the snares the enemy attempts to place in my way; to pierce, puncture, and destroy every assignment, plot, and weapon the enemy attempts to deploy at me; to remove every blockade and spiritual and physical embargo the enemy has attempted to place in my way; and to make the way straight for me to walk in the victory, power, authority, and prosperity that the Lord God Almighty has ordained for me.

Kim Potter: Kingdom Thinking

Fight Your Battles and Free Your Children

One morning, I awoke and the first thought in my mind was a statement I had heard many years ago from a minister. The statement was "Don't leave battles for your children to fight."

A couple hours later, I came across a short article about Kingdom thinking. I believe it went right along with not leaving battles for your children to overcome. If we overcome them now, in our family at least, we are impacting not only our children but generations to come.

Some of the things we can overcome are sickness, disease, lack, poverty, divorce... the list goes on and on. It doesn't mean our children will never battle those things, but it does mean they will know they can have victory in those areas. It is giving our children and grandchildren what they need to succeed. At least that is how I look at it.

Kingdom Thinking Is Thinking Generationally

I have a friend who used to always say, "Give people everything they need to succeed and then let them succeed." That's what I desire to do for my children and grandchildren.

Kingdom thinking is different from worldly thinking. For most people, they are mostly concerned with what is right in from of them: the following week, this month's income, or what is coming in the near future. Kingdom thinking has a different perspective. Kingdom living looks beyond the present and asks how we can impact the next generation.

When we operate in this way of thinking, we move from quick fixes to searching for solutions that bring lasting impacts. We think not only about the fruit we will see in our lifetime but also the fruit that will be seen in the next few generations. It's not only about what we can build, but what will have lasting fruit.

King David: A Kingdom Thinker

We see this type of thinking in the life of King David. In the book of 1 Chronicles, we find it was the desire of King David's heart to build a temple for God. However, that desire was not fulfilled. Instead, God told King David that Solomon, his son, would build the temple for God. (Photo via Pexels)

David could have become bitter and decided Solomon could fend for himself since God would not allow the temple to be built in his time, but he didn't. David spent the last years of his life setting his son up for success.

He prepared resources and plans. He even prepared the people for what was to come. He did everything in his power to make sure God's plan was followed through in the next generation, even though it was his desire to complete it in his lifetime. King David was an example of a great Kingdom thinker. He led with generations in mind.

A Kingdom Mindset or A Worldly Mindset

It's entirely up to us whether we choose to have a worldly mindset, where it is all about us, or a Kingdom mindset, where we think about the generations who will follow us.

I desire to be like King David and leave a legacy for my children and grandchildren —a spiritual legacy. I pray my ceiling becomes their floor, and they are able to accomplish and see more than I ever dreamed possible in God.

Proverbs 13:22 encourages us to leave a good inheritance to our children. Let's leave a good spiritual inheritance to those who come behind us. That's my hope. How about you?

Candace Roberts: Homes You Did Not Build and Vineyards You Did Not Plant

Introduction from Rosangela Atte:

I have had the privilege of knowing Candace Roberts for several years through Facebook. Over time, we have connected deeply, as we share very similar gifts and passions, which naturally drew us toward one another.

Candace is a devoted wife and mother, as well as a gifted and anointed writer, mentor, and Kingdom entrepreneur. Her writings are inspired by the Holy Spirit and carry a beautiful balance of heavenly revelation and practical wisdom. Her very life is a living testimony of God's restorative power, and I am confident her words will bring encouragement, breakthrough, and blessing to every reader.

Homes You Did Not Build and Vineyards You Did Not Plant
By Candace Roberts

TheThe Lord says, "I will give you houses you did not build and vineyards you did not plant."

"The Lord your God will soon bring you into the land He swore to give you when He made a vow to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It is a land with large, prosperous cities that you did not build. The houses will be richly stocked with goods you did not produce. You will draw water from cisterns you did not dig, and you will eat from vineyards and olive trees you did not plant." (Deuteronomy 6:10–11 NLT)

Ever since I was child, I dreamed of having a beautiful home to call my own. However, the wilderness season of the past few years has made that dream look like an impossibility...

I have surrendered my heart to the Lord over this topic time and time again, so much so that I committed to being thankful right where I am. I decided to stop talking or dreaming about what could be and just live happily with our four children in our tiny home.

Then, the Lord began to speak to me about the season we are in. He began to show me a season of unprecedented favor unlike any we have ever seen before. He firmly set in my heart that He indeed would give us houses we didn't build by our own hands but rather by our obedience and surrender.

He showed me vineyards we did not plant, but they were watered by the tears of faithful servants who surrendered to the purging. The riches that are about to be poured out are not for the ones who held on and worked hard; they are for the ones who were willing to let go and let God. (Photo via Freerange Stock)

I feel Him saying that what He began to build in the stillness of your pain and surrender will be greater than anything man can even fathom. This isn't a feel-good word promising everyone the house of their dreams. No, these homes were made for a specific purpose. These homes are being built for the purpose of restoration, revival, and refuge.

Restoration

Many of us have experienced great pain that touched not only ourselves but our children and extended families during our wilderness season. Even in the aftermath, complete restoration has seemed at an arm's distance. I see homes where families can spread out in comfort, where mothers have everything they need to go about their day in ease. I see big yards full of smiling, laughing children, and ponds with fathers and sons fishing. I see huge tables with extended family gathered around at holidays being restored.

These homes are to house the faithful ones. They are to be dwelling places where they can expand their families and enjoy the fruit of their obedience. They are not for show, but a place to house joy that will spill beyond the four walls.

Revival

The coming revival will be centered around true community. People will pray, worship, and break bread together daily. I see these chosen, faithful ones being given homes that will house revival. It will be a lifestyle of daily communing. There will be large living rooms filled with people worshiping while children play. I see kitchens able to cook and feed all who are hungry. They will be known as revival homes, and they will seldom be empty.

Refuge

As revival happens, these homes will become a place of refuge for those who have no home. Their doors will be open often and be a safe place for those seeking refuge. Love will be the heartbeat of these homes, and they will provide healing to those in need.

This is not about earthly possessions. It is about the expansion of the Kingdom and taking back the territory that is rightfully His. In this season of great favor, it will be a literal manifestation of His glorious wonder-working power on the earth. Only those with bold enough faith will be able to possess what He is pouring out. (Photo via Pexels)

He Is the God of the Impossible!

We must be careful to look beyond our natural vision and understand that God can do the impossible. We must not be limited by our own false humility or feelings of not being deserving. This is not about us. It is about Him and bringing forth what He has set out to accomplish on this earth. It is about a dream held in His heart since the beginning of time.

We are entering a magnificent new era; unlike any we've experienced. It will require bold faith like never before. But now is the time when He will show up and show out for the faithful ones who have surrendered all. What He is about to do for us will cause the world to take notice, for there will be no doubt that it was our God who did for us what we could not do for ourselves.

"I gave you land you had not worked on, and I gave you towns you did not build—the towns where you are now living. I gave you vineyards and olive groves for food, though you did not plant them." (Joshua 24:13 NLT)

Helen Calder: Delay Is Broken - 5 Ways to Pray for Breakthrough

Understanding God's Timing and Delay

Have you ever experienced a delay in something you believe God had promised you? Sometimes, what seems like a delay is God's perfect timing! And we can trust Him because He is always at work. But at other times, delay goes beyond mere circumstance. It works to steal our joy and undermine our faith.

Some signs that delay may be affecting us negatively include:

• Discouragement—when we lose heart and feel depleted.

• Loss of momentum—where our drive to move forward fades.

• Doubt—when the promise or vision feels out of reach.

• Hurt—when disappointment has left us wounded.

As Solomon said, "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of life" (Proverbs 13:12 NLT). If you can relate to this, I pray this word revives you today.

God is healing His people from the sting of delay! He is pouring out the oil of joy. Together, let's declare: "The power of delay is broken, in Jesus' name! Delay is broken."

Delay Is Broken: 5 Ways to Pray for Breakthrough

One evening, I was preparing a training session for leaders on how to hear God's voice. The image of an open door was in my mind, and I reflected on this thought: "The Kingdom of God is not a problem to solve. It is an inheritance to receive."

Suddenly, I felt a longing to hear the final words of my dear friend, Julie Calvert, who passed into glory nearly two years ago. (Julie was a dear friend, a spiritual mother to many, and a former national director of Healing Rooms New Zealand. We first met nearly thirty years ago.)

It had been a long time since I'd heard it. What I didn't realize was that the Holy Spirit was drawing me, connecting that moment to the very theme I was studying.

Prophetic Word by Julie Calvert: "Delay Is Broken"

(Word released October 2023)

Julie declared: Don't pray the same old prayers. He's got a new way of praying. It's time to pray the Omega prayers from the heart of the Father. It's time to go into the closet, listen to what He's saying, and then pray His prayers that are on His heart back to Him, and He will release them over the earth. (Photo via Unsplash)

And the word I get is "Delay is broken." And I know that's been out and about for many a day, but I really sensed when I asked Him yesterday, what is the word?

He said, "Tell My people delay is broken, and that the breakthrough is here."

You're not waiting for it any longer, but you need to hear the prayers that God is saying and release those prayers to Him; He will release them across the earth. It's a time of Omega prayers. And we thank You for this, Lord. We thank You for each one who receives this. Father, give them a revelation, because it's only by revelation that this will come.

In this word, Julie declared: "Delay is broken. The breakthrough is here." Then she added, "Don't pray the same old prayers. It's time to pray the Omega prayers from the heart of the Father."

Her words carried hope, and I knew the Lord was speaking not just to me but to many waiting on Him.

The Omega Door

The next morning, Malcolm and I walked through the city on our way to church. With Julie's message fresh in my mind, I paused outside the Omega watch store. It felt like a divine appointment.

The door handles, shaped like large Omega symbols, caught my eye. An hour later, as I worshiped, it struck me: those door handles were a symbol!

The entry is by Jesus' finished work on the cross. Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. God's Kingdom isn't locked behind a formula or secret code. The door is already open to us because of Christ's finished work.

And the Father is saying, "Beloved! I always have time for you."

5 Ways to Pray for Breakthrough

1. See the Father at work now.

"My Father is always working, and so am I." (John 5:17 NLT)

Even when we feel stuck, God is arranging things behind the scenes. (If you want to read more about this from Helen Calder, click here.)

Pray: "Father, open my eyes to see what You are doing today."

2. Step through the Omega door.

"So don't be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom." (Luke 12:32 NLT)

The door into God's Kingdom is not locked; it is already open through Jesus' finished work.

Pray: "Jesus, I step into Your finished work and receive all You have for me."

3. Pray fresh Kingdom prayers.

As Julie said, "Don't pray the same old prayers. It's time to pray the Omega prayers from the heart of the Father."

This is the Matthew 6:10 prayer: "Your Kingdom come. Your will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven" (NKJV). (Photo via Pixabay)

Pray: "Father, give me fresh prayers from Your heart to release into the earth."

4. Occupy the promise with praise.

Just as God told Abraham to walk through the land He was giving him (Genesis 13:17), prayer is how we "set foot" in God's promises before we see them fulfilled. And when we add thanksgiving, delay loses its grip.

Pray: "Lord, I take hold of Your promise and praise You for the breakthrough."

5. Address the Spirit of delay.

Sometimes, delay is not just circumstantial; it's an assignment against us. In these moments, we can rise in faith and declare God's victory.

Declare: "In Jesus' name, I break agreement with the spirit of delay. You will no longer hold me back. I declare the power of delay is broken! Father, I receive Your healing where delay has wounded me. I receive Your joy where delay has wearied me. And I receive fresh faith for the promises You have spoken."

A Shift in Perspective

God once showed me a vision of a boy outside a candy store with only one coin in his back pocket. I felt his desire and the smallness of that coin. But then the Spirit whispered, "His father owns the store."

Suddenly, my perspective changed! And this is the very lesson He is emphasizing again: We are not on the outside looking in. The Father invites us to ask, to receive, and to enjoy His goodness.

Healing the Sting of Delay

In this season, God is healing His people from the sting of delay. So, take hold of this word: Step through the Omega Door and pray fresh prayers. Occupy the promise in faith. Declare that the power of delay is broken and raise your voice in praise, for your God is faithful. Your breakthrough is closer than you think.

AN OPEN VISION;
"The Rise of the Sons of Thunder Watch Sons Carried on a Tsunami Wave of His Glory"

This morning, after a time of Communion, I was suddenly caught up in a powerful open vision where I was standing on the Shore of a vast and mighty Ocean, and I could see many Nations in the Valley of Decision behind me. Suddenly, my eyes were drawn to the Horizon, where I saw a Great Mountain beginning to rise. As I looked at the Mountain, I saw a small Cloud come out of the Heavens and begin to descend upon the Mountain Top.

Now As the Cloud began to descend upon the Mountain Top, my eyes were then drawn to the Waters of the vast Ocean that stood before me in the open vision. I saw the Waters of the Ocean begin to recede slowly from the shoreline. As I watched the Waters of the Sea being drawn back, suddenly, I saw the small Cloud that had begun to descend upon the Mountain Top begin to increase in size.

The further the Waters were drawn back, the larger the Cloud on the Mountain Top grew, until the Mountain Top was completely covered and could no longer be seen. Then I noticed that as the Waters receded, and as the Cloud grew larger and wider, a great and increasing darkness began to fall upon the Nations that stood behind me. Then suddenly, I heard a Voice like Thunder speaking forth from the Cloud on the Great Mountain, "Come up here, Come up higher, and I will show you what must take place after this." As soon as I heard those Words, I was suddenly caught up high above the Mountain, to where I could see the vast Ocean beneath me and the Nations in the Valley of Decision. As I looked, I heard these Words, "For Behold, darkness will cover the Earth And deep darkness the peoples, But the LORD will Rise upon you, And His Glory will appear upon you, Nations will come to your Light, And Kings to the brightness of your rising."

As I heard those Words, I knew by Revelation that the Voice of God was speaking to the Sons, to a Mighty Joshua and Caleb Generation that is now beginning to Rise in the Earth realm, God's Voice Speaking to a New Breed of Radical Reformers, Kingdom Builders and Apostolic and Prophetic Legislators. There was an invitation to Come up higher to See, to Perceive, and to Receive New Mantles, Mantles of the Spirit and Power of Elijah that are now being released in the Place of deeper Consecration and Ascension, for a New Movement of the Word and Spirit is now being birthed in the earth. And I heard these words: "We are being called to Ascend into the deeper realms and dimensions of divine Encounter, for the Glory of the Lord has descended upon the Great Mountain. The Hour of Divine Election is now taking place, for this is a sacred and Holy moment marking the hour of Awakening, Commissioning, transformation and Kingdom Reformation. Listen, for there is a Clarion Call to Arise and Shine for this is a KIAROS Time, a Time of Divine Transition, for Nations have entered into a Time of Divine Distinction and Separation."

Now as I heard those words, I began to descend upon the Mountain Top in the Vision, going down and deep into the Cloud of His Glory. As I moved down through the thick Cloud, I could see Realms and Dimensions of the Glory coming up before me. I saw a Mighty Converging of the Seven Realms of the Seven Spirits of God covering the Great Mountain top. As I descended through the realms of the Seven Spirits, with each realm I passed through, a mighty bolt of lightning would strike, and then would come the deep rumble and a Roar of Thunder that shook the Great Mountain, and that I saw simultaneously Shaking the Foundations of the Nations in the deep Valley below. As I continued to descend through the Realms of the Seven Spirits, and as I began to move, suddenly, the fourth dimension of the Seven Spirits came up before me, the realm of the Spirit of Counsel. I heard these words: "Lift up your eyes around you and see. They all gather together, they come to you. Your sons will come from far away, And your daughters will be looked after at their side"

As I heard those words, I knew by revelation that the Spirit of Counsel, the One who unveils prophetic vision and divine insight was now moving in the midst of the Lightnings and great Thunderings; moving strategically in the heart of a divine convergence that was taking place; moving with precision and divine purpose in the midst of the Great Awakening and Shaking of the Foundations of the Nations in the Valley of Decision. The Spirit of Counsel was now moving and directing the people of God to see from Heaven's perspective to bring divine alignment and to release instruction for movement and Kingdom Advancement. Then suddenly, the Spirit of Might came up before me as I continued to descend rapidly through the realms of Glory And I heard, "Then you will look and be radiant, and your heart will tremble and swell with joy, because the riches of the sea will be brought to you, and the wealth of the nations will come to you (Isaiah 60:5). As I heard those words, Again I knew by the Spirit of Revelation that the Spirit of Might, who releases supernatural empowerment and establishes divine dominion, was now going forth upon the Nations to release the Power and Authority of Heaven through His Righteous Remnant to execute the Counsel of God in the Earth, causing Nations and resources to respond to His Divine Command.

Then I passed through the Realm of the Spirit of Knowledge, and I heard these words: "Then you will see and be radiant, and your heart will tremble and rejoice because the abundant wealth of the seas will be brought to you, the wealth of the Nations will come to you" (Isaiah 60:6). Again, I knew by Revelation, as I heard the Word of the Lord spoken to me as I moved through the 6th Dimension of the Seven Spirits, that the Spirit of Knowledge was now opening Eyes to perceive and hearts to expand in reverent awareness of how and what the Seven Spirits of God are doing in this Appointed Time and Season. A Divine impartation of Supernatural Understanding of the divine timings and Seasons of God is being revealed and an Invitation to Come into Covenant Partnership in this Next Move of God's Glory in the Earth Realm!

And then, the Seventh Realm of the Mighty Seven Spirits of God unfolded before me. Now As I moved into this realm, the weight of the Glory was overwhelming, thick and tangible, as though I were moving through liquid gold and silver. I had entered into a Most Sacred and Holy Place, where Thrones and Golden Crowns from every preceding realm converged, where the fullness of His Majesty and Power was made manifest; the Seventh Realm of the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord; the dwelling place where the pure sounds and frequencies of true Worship rise before His Throne; the place where Purity, Power, and Divine Authority converge; where the tangible Presence of the Almighty fills the atmosphere; where His Glory overshadows all else. Then I heard, "All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve you." They will go up with acceptance on My Altar, and I will Glorify the house of My honor and splendor" (Isaiah 60:7). As those Words spoke forth from within the Seventh Realm, I suddenly saw the Fear of the Lord being released across the Nations. I saw the Fully-Restored Altars of Elijah rising out of the dark Valley of Decision, and as the Altars of Elijah began to rise, a great light began to break forth and the veil of darkness that covered the Nations began to lift. Suddenly, the Cloud of His Glory that surrounded me began to Lift, and I saw a Great Army Mantled in Fire and Power begin to emerge from the Cloud that had covered the Top of the Mountain. Then I watched as this Great and Mighty Army Mantled in the Spirit and Power of Elijah began to descend into the deep Valley below the Mountain. Immediately, my eyes were drawn back to the Waters of the Vast Ocean that had receded, and suddenly, I saw a Great Tsunami Wave of Glory begin to rise up. I watched as the Tsunami Wave began to gather in strength, and it moved with unstoppable Power and divine Acceleration toward the shoreline. The Tsunami Wave moved with great force towards the deep Valley of Nations.

As I looked closer, I could see within the Tsunami Wave the Seven Colors of the Rainbow - every Color unique, distinct and radiant and within the Rainbow. I Saw a Great and Mighty Army moving as One Mighty Company Clothed in the Covenant Light of His Glory, mantled in the Spirit and Power of Elijah. I knew by revelation that this was the End-Time Army of The Sons of Thunder, Carrying the Fire and Lightings of His Glory into the Nations, Sons of Holiness and Purity Carried on by a Tsunami Wave of His Glory. A Mighty Tsunami Wave of Word and Spirit was about to break forth upon the Nations that were emerging from the Valley of Decision.

And I heard these Words: "Get Ready, for a Tsunami Wave of My Glory is Coming upon the Valley of Nations, a Wave of My Glory Carrying the Sons of Thunder Mantled with the Spirit and Power of Elijah. Watch! for a Great Move of My Word and Spirit is being Birthed in the Earth, for Now is the Time of Great Awakening, Revival, Reformation, and a Great Harvest. Yes! A Mighty Outpouring of Glory that shall sweep across the Nations of the earth like Wildfire."

Dutch Sheets:
Give Him Fifteen; Why Our Praise Is a Weapon

Elevators are convenient. . . and sometimes awkward. Who in their right mind likes being in an elevator with people they don't know? The longer the ride, the louder the silence. Several years ago, I was trapped in the back of one of those torture chambers in the airport of one of the vacation capitals of the world - Orlando, Florida. There were only about a HUNDRED people in this elevator! Who hasn't heard of Disney World, Epcot, and other hot spots there? And based on the lines at these tourist attractions, every person in the world has been there! Consequently, the airport is crowded and hectic. When the elevator stopped at my floor and the door opened, no one moved. After a couple of seconds, thinking no one else was getting off at this level, I spoke up rather urgently from the back, "Excuse me, I need to get off here."

You'd have thought I asked for everyone's phone number! Backs stiffened, heads turned, eyes glared, and the man closest to the door turned and - in a most condescending tone - scolded me. "Be patient," he snarled. "I'm just trying to be a gentleman and let the ladies off first." After we all exited, one of the ladies with him turned to me and, rather snootily, decided to become my therapist: "You need a vacation, sir. We are in Orlando; why don't you take a few days off and chill?"
I was tired, and perhaps this had caused me to unintentionally speak louder than I realized. Or maybe my urgency sounded like impatience. What did I do? Being the godly man that I am, I took it on the chin and calmly moved on - WITH MY BLOOD PRESSURE ELEVATED AND MY INNER THOUGHTS EXPLAINING TO THEM WHAT IDIOTS THEY WERE! And being the spiritual giant I am, within a few short weeks, I had forgiven them - as you can tell! - and moved on.

It Doesn't take me long!

Most of us dislike being misunderstood and misjudged - especially in an elevator! I don't think God likes it either, and He is, without doubt, the most misunderstood person in existence. Perceived as distant, He is often ignored. Considered judgmental and legalistic, He is thought by some to be intimidating and one to steer clear of. And mistakenly thought of by His children as one who likes hearing how great He is, He is praised.

LOL - I had you, then I lost you.

Before you stop reading or listening, hear me out. Obviously, praising and worshiping God is a good and appropriate thing to do. It's our reason for doing so that it needs some tweaking. Yahweh isn't narcissistic, needing to be told how wonderful He is in order to satisfy an inflated ego. Nor is He insecure, needing to be reassured that He really is awesome. He doesn't show off - praise doesn't stimulate some macho corner of His heart, motivating Him to action in order to demonstrate His power. And He can't be bought - our worship doesn't cause Him to "reward" us with His presence and power simply because we made Him feel good. Frankly, God neither needs nor desires to be told how great, unique, powerful, or loving He is. The Almighty is quite confident and very secure.

He does, however, seek worshipers.

The difference is huge - immeasurably so. We ARE the worship. God longs for the singer, not the song. Our hearts are what transforms singing into worship, not the words and music. God would rather have a love-filled glance from our eyes than a song parroted from our lips. We can, in fact, worship without even opening our mouths. Enoch was translated to heaven without experiencing death. Why? He brought pleasure to God (Hebrews 11:5) by walking with God (Genesis 5:24). Notice that God uses the word "walking," not "worshipping." His worship was released - not just with words - but through his actions and his life. I'm certainly not downplaying the incredible importance of music and singing. I'm simply pointing out what makes these actions worship.
When my kids were young and anxiously waited for Daddy to come home from work, they didn't meet me at the door with a song. They jumped into my arms and gave me a big hug.

When God created us, He made kids, not a choir; family members, not church members; He's into love, not liturgy. And it wasn't His "lording" nature that prompted Him to create us - He could have made a few billion more angels had that been His desire. It was His loving nature. God is a father at heart.

Jesus, who came to earth to reveal to us what God is truly like (John 1:18), gave a profound glimpse of Abba's loving and relational heart through an encounter with a rather loose-living woman. Looking for love in all the wrong places, this five-time divorced, currently shacked-up societal outcast was about to meet a man who wanted her heart, not her body.

Christ told her He knew her lifestyle, yet His actions proved He wasn't condemning her. He had assured her that He could satisfy her thirsty heart by placing a well of salvation in her. He shifted the concept of worship from the place to the person, which was a radical paradigm shift in her day. I'm sure she had never thought about this, and certainly not that God was actually seeking worshipers. "He'd like you to be one" was the obvious invitation.

She was hooked. That God might actually be seeking her companionship, not her body, was beyond this woman's wildest dreams. How could He possibly want her? But He did. In one moment, her shame was broken, and joy filled her heart. It feels good to be wanted for the right reasons. This new worshiper was so excited that she ran and told her village about Jesus, and ultimately, the entire community came to believe in Him. Jesus was too excited to eat!

The great psalm of praise, Psalm 149, tells us that as we praise God, the sword of the Lord is released against His enemies, those who oppose His rule (verses 6-9). However, one of the preceding verses (v. 4) tells us why: "the Lord takes pleasure in His people!" The reason our praise is a weapon against evil is because our all-powerful God responds by showing up! Our relational God, Abba, is moved by our affection - He desires our company. That is what attracts Him to praise, not His ego. Our Father inhabits our praise (Psalm 22:3) because He loves spending time with us.

Let's make the great 149th Psalm our prayer and decree today.
Pray Psalm 149 (TPT) with me today:

Triumphant Praise

"Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! It's time to sing to God a brand-new song so that all His holy people will hear how wonderful He is! May Israel be enthused with joy because of Him, and may the sons of Zion pour out their joyful praises to their King. Break forth with dancing! Make music and sing God's praises with the rhythm of drums! For He enjoys His faithful lovers.

"He adorns the humble with His beauty, and He loves to give them victory. His godly lovers triumph in the glory of God, and their joyful praises will rise even while others sleep. God's high and holy praises fill their mouths, for their shouted praises are their weapons of war! These warring weapons will bring vengeance on the nations and every resistant power— to bind kings with chains and rulers with iron shackles.
"Praise-filled warriors will enforce the judgment decreed against their enemies. This is the honor He gives to all His godly lovers. Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!"

Tim Sheets Prophetic Word
Someone be encouraged...
I Prophesy Over the Body of Christ, that Every Gate that has been closed, I Command them
Open Now in the name of Jesus Christ!

I Prophesy Over You
Every gate that has been closed against your destiny, your ministry, your finances, and your divine access—I command them to open NOW in the mighty name of Jesus Christ! Let the ancient gates of delay be lifted. Let the doors of opportunity swing wide before you. Let the gates of favor, wealth, healing, and restoration burst open by fire and power!

According to Psalm 24:7 (KJV) —
"Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in."

I decree that the King of Glory—the Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle—enters into every area of your life right now. The barriers that resisted you are falling.

The locks that confined you are breaking. The seasons that were withheld are being released.

Receive open gates of:
✅Divine favor
✅Kingdom access
✅Prophetic visibility
✅Financial overflow
✅Global expansion

"Your Gates Are Open—No More Closed Doors!"
I PROPHESY....

Every gate that has been locked, blocked, or sealed against your advancement — I command it to open now in the mighty name of Jesus Christ! Every door that once resisted you is swinging open by fire. Every spiritual gatekeeper that said "no" to your next level is being overthrown by divine authority.
I declare that ancient gates—those that have stood for generations—are lifting their heads before the King of Glory! The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle, goes before you this day. (Psalm 24:7-8)

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

For many of you reading this, you've stood faithfully before closed gates — you've prayed, fasted, believed, and waited. But now the I prophesy: "This is the season of divine access. You will no longer knock on doors that remain locked. I, the Lord, have gone before you to open them." Heaven's decree over your life has shifted from "Wait" to "Enter In." You are moving from rejection to recognition, from resistance to release, from denial to divine approval!

The gates of limitation, the gates of delay, and the gates of confusion are being shattered. The power of God is commanding new openings in business, ministry, family, and finances. Where there was once a gate of brass, God is now making it a gate of gold. Where there was a wall of resistance, God is building a bridge of favor.

DECLARATIONS OF OPEN GATES
Repeat these boldly:

In the name of Jesus, I command every gate of resistance to open before me!
Every spiritual padlock on my destiny, break by fire! Gates of wealth and financial favor — open now! Gates of ministry expansion and global impact — open now! Gates of marriage, family restoration, and fruitfulness — open now! Gates of divine health and strength — open now!

I declare that no man, demon, or system can shut what God has opened for me.
My gates shall stand open continually, and nations shall bring their resources to me (Isaiah 60:11).

PROPHETIC PRAYER

Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, I thank You for divine access. You are the God who opens doors and no man shuts, who shuts, and no man opens (Revelation 3:7). Right now, let every demonic gatekeeper lose their authority over Your people, Father. I Release angels of breakthrough to go before them and me and unlock what has been sealed. I command every gate of destiny, opportunity, visibility, and influence to open by fire and power!

Lord, let their names be remembered in high places. Let divine keys be placed in their hands. And let this be the season of unstoppable progress and undeniable favor.
In Jesus' mighty name — AMEN!

APOSTOLIC DECREE

I decree and declare as the apostolic voice speaking over your life — Your gates are open. Your doors are open. Your access is granted. Your delay is broken. You will walk through what others were blocked from. You will enter into what others said was impossible. You will testify that the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in your eyes!
In Jesus Mighty Name!

The Elijah List

THE BREAKING OF THE DAWN!

DANIEL PONTIOUS, SONORA, CA

In the morning, just before daylight, I heard someone knocking loudly at my front door. Yet, when I got up to go out there, I could not find a trace of anything. I went outside, looked all around the yard, and there wasn't a soul to be seen anywhere.

I live out in the country, so it's not like being in a neighborhood or a place where there are others close by. I really only have three neighbors here, and they are hundreds of yards away. So, as I was puzzled by this, I very clearly heard the Lord. He said, "I am standing at the door and knocking!"

When I asked Him why, He said, "It's to wake them up, because the dawn is breaking in the spirit realm!" "But the path of the [uncompromisingly] just and righteous IS LIKE THE LIGHT OF DAWN, that shines more and more (brighter and clearer) until [it reaches its full strength and glory in] the perfect day." (Proverbs 4:18 AMPC, emphasis mine) "Awake, harp and lyre; I myself will wake very early—I WILL WAKEN THE DAWN!" (Psalms 108:2 AMPC, emphasis mine).

"Behold, I STAND AT THE DOOR and knock; if anyone hears and listens to and heeds My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will eat with him, and he [will eat] with Me" (Revelation 3:20, emphasis mine). I believe that there's a personal visitation going on right now for many of us! He is paying each of us an unexpected visit, and it's usually at your darkest moment, which is usually right as the dawn is breaking. Many of us have virtually given up because of the difficulties and the weight of the things going on in our midst. And many of us have just resolved within our own minds and hearts that it may never change, but some of you are going to experience an unexpected visitor, and He is going to show up in your darkest hour knocking upon the door of your heart!

"[The Servant of God says] The Lord God has given Me the tongue of a disciple and of one who is taught, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary. HE WAKENS ME MORNING BY MORNING, HE WAKENS MY EAR TO HEAR AS A DISCIPLE [as one who is taught]." (Isaiah 50:4 AMPC, emphasis mine)

"And we have the prophetic word [made] firmer still. You will do well to pay close attention to it as to a lamp shining in a dismal (squalid and dark) place, until the day breaks through [the gloom] and THE MORNING STAR RISES (comes into being) IN YOUR HEARTS." (2 Peter 1:19 AMPC, emphasis mine)

He's not knocking at the door to just wake you up, He's knocking at your door so that you can have real fellowship with Him. So, I guess the real question is, are you going to wake up and answer the door?

NATE & CHRISTY

Now, Let Me Ask You a Question

What patterns, cycles, dysfunctions, mindsets, and even illnesses have you experienced that your parents or other family members have walked through?

Or maybe the question should be: What patterns and cycles have you seen surfacing that you know are a spiritual assignment to keep you chained to generational failures and outcomes?

I'm not going to mince my words on this - right now, through the hardest battle year yet, God has been using it as fuel to UNMASK what you don't even know has been trying to derail you.

It's the hidden agendas and spiritual assignments that have been in your family line that have been STEALING from you quietly and silently in the background for years.

Little foxes are stealing from the vine to ransack and pillage your vineyard, so you have nothing healthy to hand down to the next generation.

But this year it's been coming to a head.

I have had so many people messaging me saying, "Why is everything falling apart? What am I having issues in my marriage? Why am I dealing with sudden anger outbursts? Why am I facing health issues and financial issues? Why am I suddenly dealing with Jezebelic warfare and narcissistic flare-ups in relationships?" You want to know why? Because the tentacles of Jezebel are surfacing because God has TURNED THE LIGHT ON, and everything you didn't even know was lingering around robbing you for years, is BEING EXPOSED!

I have been shocked this year at the level of what is being exposed that has been lurking for years, robbing people.

Even in our own lives, I have seen God take us to another level of discernment and seeing the reality of what we were facing in many areas, but we're not seeing properly.

Have you ever seen those octopi that camouflage and change colors to match their surroundings? You wouldn't even know there was one there until it is hit and the impact disarms its hiding mechanism.

In the same way, right now, through the turbulence of endless storms, God has knocked the enemy, and therefore, his ability to hide has been temporarily interrupted, SO YOU CAN SEE! This has only flared up those tentacles, which is why you have experienced them SURFACING.

The first place it's been visible is in relationships that have been under the influence of the enemy in some way. Wherever the enemy has been creating strife and division, God is bringing the source of that to light.

If you have been surrounded by snakes and wolves you thought were saints, then God will have, no doubt, been revealing that to you.

If you have been in unequally yoked alignments causing you pain and subtly springing leaks in the boat of your calling and purpose, God has been revealing it.

Its tentacles have been affecting your health, your voice, and your calling, weaving and wrapping themselves tightly around you for decades to choke you and RESTRAIN YOU.

But let's go deeper. This is a generational agenda-breaking moment.

This is not you falling apart - this is God jail-breaking the enemy's Trojan horse agenda of generations to completely set you free and lead you higher. At first, when this happened to me, I thought the same - I'm a failure. I'm not doing a good enough job in all these areas. I haven't broken past my parents' thresholds and mistakes.

But it was actually the Lord inviting me into another level of authority, but more importantly, breakthrough above the past patterns, landing pads for dysfunction, and into air-superiority that enables God's LEGACY to begin for the sake of my family and those around me.

And 2025 has been a massive awakening year for seeing what we have allowed corporately, but more importantly, what we have had festering in our own lives and homes for years.

So, as hard as that tension is, this is where we shift from fighting for survival, maintaining, and managing fires, to moving past the dysfunctions once and for all.

And all the problems you are facing are interconnected. Health, mind, and soul.

As we surrender to the Holy Spirit in this, He is exposing every tentacle and showing us how to sever every tie, break every mindset, and cut the head off every snake once and for all.

Because where we are going, family is the vehicle that will lead the lost home and into revival. So, right now, God is cleaning us up and stitching up the wounds of generations.

Do you see this moment for what it is?

Take heart. This is a massive shift for you if you have only known the battle. This is God's take-back mission for the Church, and it begins now in Jesus' name.

"In that day I will restore David's fallen shelter—I will repair its broken walls and restore its ruins—and will rebuild it as it used to be, so that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations that bear my name," declares the Lord, who will do these things. "The days are coming," declares the Lord, "when the reaper will be overtaken by the plowman and the planter by the one treading grapes. New wine will drip from the mountains and flow from all the hills, and I will bring my people Israel back from exile. "They will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink their wine; they will make gardens and eat their fruit. I will plant Israel in their own land, never again to be uprooted from the land I have given them," says the Lord your God." (Amos 9:11-15)

Sara Whitten: The Rains of Transition - From Manna to Wheat!

"First Rain" Season

"I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy grain, and thy new wine, and thine oil." (Deuteronomy 11:14 ASV)

Recently, during my time with the Lord, I had been getting the words "first rain." I understood this reference from the often-quoted "former rain" and "latter rain" from the listed blessings for obedience found in Deuteronomy chapter 11, but I didn't quite understand the significance of it. As I did more research, I found that the "first rain" was typically from the end of October to the beginning of December. We are entering into the "first rain" time, and that symbolism prophetically speaks to the beautiful transitions the Lord is doing.

The first rain became most significant when the Israelites finally entered the Promised Land. The transition from collecting manna to growing wheat was quick but radical. For some of us, we are also transitioning from a "manna" season to a "wheat" season. While some of us may be far removed from agriculture in our daily lives (myself included), specific spiritual markers of "manna seasons" and "wheat seasons" are still recognizable. Both seasons are of paramount value. One is not better than the other but signifies a new rhythm of relationship with the Lord. Perhaps, as you read, you'll hear the Holy Spirit speaking to you about which kind of season you are in and what promises it holds for you.

Coming from a "Manna Season"

Are you in a "manna season?" Manna was a daily provision. There is an emphasis on each day standing alone rather than a predictable rhythm. Maybe you've experienced these inconsistencies. It could be in work, finance, ministry, hearing God, or a number of other areas. The key clue is that it is a day-to-day reliance in unpredictable territory that causes us to not lean on our understanding but the Lord's. This season for the Israelites taught mercy and grace. They couldn't earn or deserve it. It was not works-based. When the Lord has us in a manna season, one of the reasons is to reveal a grace or mercy of the Lord operating in our lives that we were unaware of.

Manna seasons are also low-planning seasons. No planning or strategizing would work to receive manna; it just happened. No storing or planning for the future could happen either. Maybe in our own manna seasons, we have trouble seeing how it's all going to come together or seeing the bigger picture callings or plans. Goal setting can be difficult in these times because of the lack of clarity. This is purposeful, however, as the re-emphasis on abiding that happens in these times is essential. In manna seasons, we trade long-term planning for daily dependence. Our best-laid plans end up being turned on their heads, only to expose the grace of the Lord who had planned and provided a better way the whole time. And this is very purposeful preparation.

Manna seasons teach quick and simple obedience. The commands are simple: collect for a day and rest on the Sabbath. You could insert here the simple commands you've heard from the Lord in these seasons: "wait," "abide," etc. Often in manna seasons, our instructions are few and simple. Manna seasons uncomplicate obedience for those who are comfortable with the simplicity of its dependence.

Manna seasons are also miraculous seasons. Don't hear me wrong; the Lord is always with us, and His presence is never without miraculous power. Little miracles, however, are more frequent in these seasons but sometimes become unrecognized or unappreciated (like the manna was for the Israelites): the daily provision, the next step, or the new friendship. The reason for these miracles is to build testimonies, truth, and trust that will be relied on in the season of sowing. (Photo via Unsplash)

Just like the Israelites, however, the manna season wasn't forever. Ours are often time-limited as well. Manna seasons can also be sprinkled in across our lives before God brings us into new things. They are not a marker of immaturity but an invitation from the Lord to begin to step into something you, up until this point, have little experience in.

Before the Crossover, Things Dry Up

With this "first rain" word, the Lord was highlighting a few things He does when He takes us from our manna season—our wilderness, our transition, our uncertainty, our newness—and shifts us into a wheat season. Here are some markers the Israelites noticed in their shifting season that may resonate with you:

"Now when all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the coast heard how the Lord had dried up the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted in fear, and they no longer had the courage to face the Israelites." (Joshua 5:1 NIV)

Before crossovers, things dry up. When things dry up, it means a crossing is opening. It is human nature/earthly thinking to perceive something "drying up" as negative. Instead, the Lord reminded me of Elijah in 1 Kings 17. He had certainly been in his own manna season. He was in transition and ravens were bringing him food, when suddenly the brook that the Lord told him he was supposed to drink from dried up. Did God forget His promise? Was God being unfaithful? Of course not. The Lord was transitioning him. The next word the Lord said to him was "go." If you're seeing assignments from your past season drying up, ask the Lord. It may be that His word for that season is now drying up in order to prepare you for crossing into what He has next.

"The Israelites had moved about in the wilderness forty years until all the men who were of military age when they left Egypt had died, since they had not obeyed the Lord. For the Lord had sworn to them that they would not see the land He had solemnly promised their ancestors to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey." (Joshua 5:6 NIV)

Delay is not always directly linked to us. Many times, God is doing things in the greater community, or the lives of others, that require perfect timing to fulfill His promises. If you've been waiting on transition like Joshua waiting for the Promised Land, it may not be because of something you are or aren't doing. Sometimes, yes, the Lord is waiting for us to move in obedience. Other times, the Lord has a bigger picture that is aligning that keeps us temporarily awaiting the "go" from the Lord of transition. Ask the Lord for His clarity in discerning this.

Reproach Rolled Away

"Then the Lord said to Joshua, 'Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.' So the place has been called Gilgal to this day." (Joshua 5:9 NIV)

Gilgal was their camp upon their first crossing. Gilgal came from the Hebrew word "galal" which means "to roll" or "to roll away" (Strong's H1556). God has rolled away the oppressor in impossible ways. (Photo via Unsplash)

"To roll" means to move in a circular motion. We tend to think of going in circles negatively, and certainly the Israelites, at that point, would have agreed. But this repetitive, circular motion was one of spinning in joy. Also, rolling in a circular motion is like completing a circle in time or an age. For the Israelites, a season or cycle was completed. An age was beginning, and another was coming to an end. For many of us, this is also true. We stand at a beginning and an end. We may feel like we've circled in the wilderness for ages, but the Lord turns it into a beautiful dance and still brings us to the ultimate joy He has planned.

Entering the Inheritance and the "Wheat Season"

"On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover. The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain. The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate the produce of Canaan." (Joshua 5:10–12 NIV)

In one day, they went from manna to wheat. For those of us who are in a season where the Lord is saying, "I am taking you from manna to wheat," the timeline of that transition does not have to fit into our natural thinking. Had I been an Israelite, I may have assumed a whole growing season from seed to harvest would be required before I ate of the land, but God had a supply ready upon arrival. Don't get weary in the process. God can do a lot in a day. Trust His direction and His timing.

That shift of manna to wheat meant a new season for them. It meant beginning to enter and possess promises that had only been prophetic words up until that point (Jericho and subsequent victories). It opened them up to the longer-term planning that is required when it comes to agriculture and managing land, which also meant more dreaming. Long-term growth also meant no shortcuts.

The Israelites also had to learn, in the wheat season, the art of remembering. They didn't receive the daily manna, but still had to hold to that memory and testimony to continue to lean on the Lord and trust Him. Divine provision would still continue daily, but they had to have eyes to see it in more regular/ordinary form. Farmers could only prepare; God alone sent rain. Planning, therefore, required pairing diligence with prayerful trust. The "wheat season" meant the beginning of greater stewardship and cultivation.

Finally, it also meant new rhythms. The first rain and latter rain were part of these new rhythms.

This time, we're in a spiritual first rain. It is a "sprinkling," as it's translated from Deuteronomy 11:14 (Strong's H3138). It may not seem like much, but it softens soil. What's happening now is a germination of what we can't yet see. Without the first rains, wheat withers before sprouting. Don't discount small beginnings, small breakthroughs, and small blessings. They may be sprinkling something much larger growing beneath the surface. Initial showers are a pledge for an eventual harvest.

Ask the Lord today:

Holy Spirit, am I in a manna season or a wheat season?

Father, in what places do You need me to adjust my thinking, dreaming, or actions to fit this season?

Jesus, what are You "sprinkling" in this time that is germinating something bigger?

A WORD FOR IRELAND; TIME TO TAKE BACK AND POSSESS THE GATES OF NATIONS.

Ever nation is in a battle for the soul of that nation and they are intertwined. (Wade Butler). The battle is at the gates! (Chuck Pierce July 2024).

In the last few month the warfare has been unrelenting for many among us. One morning as I went into my wee hut and waited before the Lord, I was taken into an open vision where I saw the Hand of God descend and in His Right hand was a sharpened tent peg, a sharpened stake. As the vision opened up, I could see over the whole Nation, and I saw the head of Leviathan rising up and stretching itself across the land. And then, I saw many smaller Serpents attached to it like living Roots. Now by revelation, I knew that these were the offspring of the Spirit of Leviathan, and I saw that these smaller Snakes or Serpent Spirits were secured at Gates all across Ireland.

They were strategically positioned at key Gates and Gateway places across the land, Now as I saw the head of Leviathan lifting up and over the Nation, I saw the thick body of Leviathan was coiled tightly around the heart of Ireland (in the South) and I saw that's its Eye was fixed on the Emerald Jewel in the Crown that rested upon the Head of the Nation (the North).., The Vision suddenly shifts and I see the Sharpened tent peg, the sharpened stake become as a blazing Sword in the Hand of the Righteous Remnant in the land.

And I watched, as the Sword of the Lord was driven straight into Leviathan's head .and as the blow struck deeply, I saw the massive body that had been wrapped around the heart of the Nation begin to release its death grip. And Suddenly, I saw fresh Blood supply rush back to the Heart (the South) from the Head (the North) and I watched as New Life began to flow back into the Nation. But then I saw the thick body of the Serpent writhing in violent resistance and as this took place, I saw a Great Shaking break loose across Ireland.

I saw Government and its Leaders being shaken I saw Political, Religious, Judicial and Economic Systems being shaken under the pressure. I saw great Unrest erupt .I saw violent riots breaking out in greater ways .I saw the people right across the Nation being thrown into greater chaos .I saw a Battle raging on many fronts at the Gates of the Nation.

Then I heard the Spirit say, "Watch and Pray Remnant and Be Rightly Aligned, For its Time for My Jaels, and My Jehus to Rise up in this Emerald Isle, Its Time to Break, Break the Line, it's Time Advance and break through the demonic battle lines and scatter the enemy,.. Watch as My Plumb-Line of Justice and Judgement becomes My Measuring Rod that brings a divine Realignment to a Nation Divided in this Kairos Time of Greater Shakings, Divine Disruptions and Supernatural Transition.

I Say Again .It's Time for My Remnant to Rise with the Sword of the Lord in their Right hand and to drive the Sword as a sharpened tent peg into Leviathans head, It's Time to Move, to Advance and to take back the Gates, Look for there is a War at the Door and a Battle now Raging for the Glory at the Gate" !!

I submit, what is striking about this vision is the timing .as I believe Its speaking directly into a Prophetic timeline in this hour over Ireland but also I believe over other Nations, As you know, we have stepped into the Hebrew Year 5786, the Year of the Vav, the Year of the Hook the Year of Divine Connection and Establishment.

The Vav is a powerful prophetic picture of something being fastened secured or joined. It represents heaven touching earth Covenant Promises being anchored, and Divine Assignments being secured and divine order being Established in the Nations. Now As the Lord began to highlight the sharpened Stake becoming a blazing Sword, I submit He is pointing to the function of the Vav .as it fastens .as It connects and as It secures what God has decreed through His Word.

The Remnant in this vision is not simply striking at the head of Leviathan .the Remnant is driving a divine fastening into the land. The Remnant is establishing a divine connection point between Heaven's Authority and the Gates of Ireland/Nations . Warriors this is a Divine strategy for the Hour we are in. As I prayed through the vision, the Spirit of Revelation began to give me understanding that the loosening of Leviathan's grip and the return of New life and Breath to the Nation are intrinsically connected to this divine fastening. The Vav is about Divine Alignment being restored over the Nation/s.

It is about what has been cut off being reconnected and Revived. It is about what has been strangled, constrained and constricted by Leviathans death grip now receiving new life and resurrection breath. As fresh blood begins to move from the North to the South I saw the Lord marking the Nation with a New flow and Fresh Fire .the Lord highlighted the divine connection between the head and the heart that was being re-established as the Remnant rose up and dealt a death blow to the Spirit of Leviathan, the Lord was restoring and repairing what Leviathan had worked to divide and separate !!!

The Lord first spoke to me at the beginning of 2024 about "Taking back the Gates", I shared then with a number of Leaders what God was saying, since then I have been waiting on Gods timing for this to begin, Today the Lord showed me that in this Year (5786) .the Gates of Ireland but also of other Nations are demanding a decision . They will either begin to align with Heaven's Order or continue under counterfeit rule of Leviathan's death grip, The Vav in this Year will continue to expose illegal connections but look to establish Righteous ones. It will tear down corrupt and counterfeit alliances and begin to build divine linkages and New Covenant Networks. It will begin to Join what should be Joined and bring a divine separation to what should never have been connected !!

I hear the Lord saying, ”For this is a Year a Time of Supernatural Fastening of the land to His Divine Intention ..This is a Year to begin to Secure the Gates, to Take Back the Glory and to Recover All. This is a Year when the Remnant will begin to drive the Sword/Stake of His Word in His Authority into the ground that will Shake the Foundations, and Break the power of the demonic death grip that has constricted the heart of the Nation.

The Vav will mark a divine shifting from mere survival to Kingdom Establishment .a Nation drifting without Purpose will become Anchored .a Nation on the threshold of death through demonic constriction will now receive New Life that will begin to flow !!

The Lord shows me that the Remnant is beginning to Rise and will Advance and Move across all Regions .North South, East and West with One Mandate .a Mandate to Take Back the Gates .to Secure the Gateways and to Establish Righteous Rule and Authority The Lord will bind together what was so deeply divided and gather many together as One Mighty Unstoppable New Kingdom Movement.

I see Heaven fastening People, Regions, Territories and Kingdom Assignments into Divine Alignment for Kingdom Advancement and a Great Harvest. I Prophesy, ”Ireland you are coming into a Time and a Season of Greater Shakings, for He is Reordering and Realigning you, the Light of the Spirit of Truth will bring divine exposure, and it will bring Kingdom Establishment. Watch! For Your Gates will no longer be Occupied and Ruled by the Altars of Baal and by Thrones and Strongholds of darkness, for His Governing Right hand will connect and securely fasten this land to His Divine Plan, and to your True Kingdom Identity and Destiny” !!!

I was blessed to meet Julie Green a year ago at a prayer summit, and she instantly became one of my favorite people. Every family I know has someone who needs a touch including myself. This article should really hit home for everyone. WB

Julie Green Ministries: HEALING BELONGS TO YOU

Date Word Received: November 12, 2025

"For I, the Lord, this day, am telling you, My children, to get to know Me as Jehovah Rapha. Get to know that I am the Healer. Get to know that I live on the inside of you. Stop putting up with sickness, disease, pain, and affliction. I have given you power. I have given you authority. I have given you dominion against those. So, speak My Words. Put My Words in your mouth and speak them against that infirmity. Speak them against that pain. Speak them against that disease.

"I did not send My Son to die on that cross for you to suffer on a daily basis. So many of My children are begging, and they are pleading, and they are crying for Me, and they are saying, 'God, just heal me. God, heal me. God, heal me, please just heal me. Please take this away.' "And I am saying to you today—speak to that pain, and that pain will leave you. I have already done My part. Now you just have to take your authority that I have given to you and use it.

"So many of My children have taken a doctor's report, believed in that doctor's report, and spoken that doctor's report to every person they know. Self-pity is a killer. And self-pity needs to be destroyed right now in your life in the mighty Name of Jesus. You say, 'But God, I have gone through this for so long.' And I am saying to you that I am the Healer. I have already healed you, so you receive what I have already done for you.

"Speak to that affliction, and that affliction has to listen. I have said in My Word—what you bind on Earth is bound in Heaven. In Heaven, there is no sickness. Sickness is bound in Heaven. Sickness is bound on this Earth. Now use it and say, 'Sickness, in the mighty Name of Jesus, I bind you, and I rebuke you, and I render you helpless against me.' Say these words daily. You say, 'But, Father God, I have gone through this for so long.' You read in My Word that the man by the pool of Bethesda was there for 38 years, and he was healed instantly. There is no disease that has lasted too long. There is nothing impossible for Me. So, use My Authority. Use My Name, and every knee must bow at the sound of that Name.

"My children, speak My Words about your situation and to your situation. Speak My Words to your situation. Do not just speak about it (with your words). If you speak about it all the time, that mountain grows. You speak to it (with My Words), and that mountain is crushed to the ground. Too many times, My children speak sickness, pain, and affliction all day long, and they wonder why there is so much pain, sickness, and affliction in their lives.

"So, My children, this day, declare and decree your freedom. I have already given it to you. Do not be held ensnared again to that yoke of bondage. As I said in My Word in Galatians 5:1—you are no longer a slave to sickness and disease. But so many have been imprisoned by it. You are no longer a slave to that sickness and disease. Those chains have been broken. It says in My Word that I have redeemed you from the curse. Sickness is a curse. So do not allow it in your life.

"My children, you have been waiting on Me, but I have been waiting on you to be in agreement with Me and what I have already done for you. Healing belongs to you. That is My Will—that you are completely whole. That is how I see it. Now it is time for you to see yourself that way. I see you through what Jesus did. I see you through that Blood. You may see yourself sick, but I see you healed. It has already been done.

"So, be in agreement with My Word. Be in agreement. Speak it out loud. The more you speak it and the more you fight back, the more you put your enemy on the run, and the more you weaken him against you. And I have already given you a sound mind. You do not have to look to every other thing to get peace. I am your peace. So, declare it—that you have peace in your mind and you have peace in your body. Take and receive what has already been done. Believe it and you shall receive it.

"So, hold fast to My Word and do not let go. Do not stop until every symptom is gone. Know that you are the head and not the tail. You are the above and not the beneath. Your enemy is not bigger than you are. He is not at the same level as you. He is underneath your feet. Make him stay there. I have given you that Name to make him bow to it. And I have given you that Blood that no foe can withstand.

"So, receive what I have done and watch how it changes your life. Watch how I manifest miracles, signs, and wonders in your life today—every day. I am the Healer every day of the year. I do not stop healing. I am the Healer. So take My Word. Receive it today. Believe it. Act upon it, and do not give up. Take what belongs to you, says the Lord."

Every day I receive information about God's Frequencies. John Rockwell has written about frequencies for years. Our future will be inundated with knowledge that has been hidden from us for centuries that they are life. It's time to tie in…Wade Butler

Sylvia Neusch: How to Dial and Tune in to God's Frequency

I was spending time with the Lord recently and seeking His heart about all the chaos, confusion, and deception swirling in the atmosphere right now. As I listened and waited, He showed me a picture of an old-fashioned radio. My attention was then drawn to the dial, and I remembered that it must be properly set on the correct frequency to receive the desired incoming broadcast. When the dial is off just a little, then the station you were hoping to listen to is blurred by the sounds of static and bits and pieces of other broadcasts from different sources.

Then, I heard the Lord say, "Dial In! You must tune to My frequency!" I felt the urgency of His instruction and with it a protective warning from His heart to ours. It is evident that the enemy has launched an all-out attack on the minds and belief systems of many, and especially the younger generations whose thoughts and minds are being shaped right now by the barrage of information that comes their way every single day.

God's keys and ways are profoundly simple. But when we allow the mass of information and voices hurled at us each day to take priority, God's voice can easily take a back seat. Over time, by not placing value on His voice, we lessen our ability to hear Him and receive the counsel that we need.

How to "Dial In"

To be "dialed in" means to be highly focused, aware, and performing at a peak level of concentration and skill. The phrase originates from the act of tuning an old-fashioned radio dial to certain frequencies or settings.

We are in a strategic time and need to be very intentional about "dialing in" to the voice of the Holy Spirit. The key to hearing what the Spirit is broadcasting in this hour is abiding in the Spirit of God.

When you spend time with someone, after a while, you begin to know their voice and the unique way that they express themselves or communicate. So it is with the Lord. As we learn to abide in His presence, we begin to recognize His voice and unique way of expressing Himself to us. Our familiarity or ability to recognize His voice occurs gradually over time as we build our individual histories with hearing His voice. (Photo via Pexels)

In the Gospels, Jesus often said this phrase: "Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear" (Mark 4:9 NIV). A phrase that John used repeatedly in the book of Revelation is very similar: "Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches" (Revelation 2:11 NIV). These repeated reminders give us an indication that our hearing is very important. How we hear is critical. A closer look reveals that we can hear and not understand. We can hear and not perceive what He is saying. We can hear and completely ignore His gentle whisper.

Incline Your Ears to Hear

"'Consider carefully what you hear,' He continued. 'With the measure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more. Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.'" (Mark 4:24–25 NIV)

Jesus' words are somewhat mysterious in this passage, but they carry weight as He underscores, once again, to consider carefully what we hear. Each one of us measures the things that we hear. All day we have conversations, listen to news or other sources, and all the time we are measuring. We are making determinations and placing levels of value on the words that we hear. We are moving towards belief or unbelief, faith or fear, action or passivity, and a host of other reactions.

In the Kingdom, the way we steward the words we receive is major. Jesus indicates that the way we hear can bring increase to our lives, or we can risk losing what we have received by not considering carefully what we have heard and not measuring the word correctly.

The type of hearing He is looking for is attentive hearing that values and obeys His voice. It is an hour to be vigilant and alert. If we desire to clear up our lines of communication, we must commit to set the phones aside and stop the scrolling. Limit social media and the news. These things are not necessarily bad in themselves but, in many cases, have been intentionally designed to be addictive in nature and sometimes deceptive as well. Information overload is drowning out the very voice that is our lifeline. This overload becomes like static that distorts the frequency of Heaven to our hearts and minds.

Immerse in the Real

Our offensive position is to immerse ourselves in the real so that the counterfeit is more easily recognized. The real, in this case, being the Word of God and God Himself. As we give Him the preeminence that He deserves, our lives begin to come into alignment with Him. As we immerse ourselves in Him and His Word, we grow in our ability to recognize what is true from what is false. The fruit of the Spirit grows and develops, bringing greater peace and stability to all areas of our lives. Though you may experience opposition from your own flesh, or from others around you, press through the resistance. The stakes are high, but your obedience will be rewarded, and your resulting peace will be great.

I also hear the Lord saying, "Lock eyes with Me! Ignore the distractions that swirl around you and find strength in My gaze. Allow My peace to settle over your heart and mind and you will find rest."

Follow Your Umpire

Colossians 3:15 says, "Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful" (NIV).

The Greek word for "rule" in the above verse is brabeuó (Strong's G1018) and means to umpire or "arbitrate" and "govern." An umpire makes decisive calls in sporting events and brings order where there may be questions or different opinions. The peace of Christ acts like our personal umpire as we learn to listen and "tune our hearts" to His governing. Moving in life and making decisions without His peace as our umpire allows confusion and sometimes even chaos to come through our mind gates. (Photo via Unsplash)

As I meditated on our lives functioning with the peace of Christ as our umpire, I saw a picture of someone walking through a field where there were potential landmines. In their hand, they held an instrument that could guide them, letting them know when to avoid stepping where the explosives were planted so that they could then choose to walk a different way. This is just an illustration, but a great picture of how the Holy Spirit, working through the peace of Christ, works in our lives to aid us in avoiding the pitfalls and even wrong decisions that can derail us. Like the handheld instrument, the Holy Spirit guides and gives us His peace, directing our steps so that we know the way to go and the things to avoid on our journey. But we won't recognize His peace if we have not "dialed in" and been intentional to honor His voice and tune our hearts to intentionally hear.

Several years ago, I adopted Isaiah 50:4–5 as a life passage. Read these words and let them stir your heart and challenge you. Read them as a prayer, and allow His Spirit to awaken and kindle a fire within you for Him and His Word. Receive His anointing on your ears, and know that you were created to hear His voice, tune to His frequency, and respond wholeheartedly.

"The Sovereign LORD has given me a well-instructed tongue, to know the word that sustains the weary. He wakens me morning by morning, wakens my ear to listen like one being instructed. The Sovereign LORD has opened my ears; I have not been rebellious; I have not turned away." (Isaiah 50:4–5 NIV)

A VISION OF THREE WAVES, THE PAST THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE

Yesterday, I caught a sudden glimpse of something powerful unfolding in the realm of the Spirit. And the moment I saw it, the Spirit of Revelation began to show me things very quickly, and I knew by the Spirit that what I was Seeing was speaking to the Remnant, to a New Breed of Radical Reformers now rising up within the Nations
This vision or sudden glimpse carried a Clarion sound from deep within the Spirit Realm.

”Prepare yourselves”

There was a Holy Urgency within it, like a divine Alert stirring within the atmosphere . And I knew by revelation that the Remnant are Standing on the Threshold of something we have never seen or experienced before. The Spirit of God was Announcing an Unprecedented Move, the Coming of a Mighty demonstration of His Power and Manifest Glory that is about to break forth into the earth realm.

This fleeting heavenly glimpse was loaded with revelation, and It came with the weight of Heaven and the Fire of Acceleration a Clarion Call for Readiness, for deeper Consecration, and Alignment, for the Spirit of the Lord is about to move in ways that will Shake Nations and Awaken His People to an Experiential Knowledge of His Glory . What I saw come up before me, I believe, is directly connected to the Redeeming and Restoration of the Times and Seasons. What I saw, Spoke to a Divine Convergence, a merging of the New and the Ancient Ways of God.

I saw the Kairos and the Chronos on a Divine Collision Course Heaven's Appointed Time suddenly and powerfully intersecting with Earthly time. In this Divine Convergence, I saw powerful Acceleration over Time itself, and then a Supernatural Alignment taking place over the Nations according to Heaven's Agenda.

"LET YOUR KINGDOM COME,..LET YOUR WILL BE DONE ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN" !!

What I saw was a fleeting glimpse of Three Waves. The First Wave, I knew by Revelation was the "Wave of the Past". Then I saw a Second Wave and I knew by the Spirit it was the "Wave of the Present". Ha!!! And then I was shown a Third Wave .and it was the "Wave of the Future". Now, As I looked upon these three Waves,
I knew by the Spirit that these Three Waves were realms and dimensions within the Glory. Each Wave carried Divine Revelation and the Hidden Mysteries of God that connected to the Past, to the Present, and to the Future. The First Wave, the Realm of the Past, was radiant with the Glory of Ancient light and Sounds .and I saw within the Light pathways of Ancient Days, Roads and Highways marked by Stones and Altars of Awakening .and Remembrance,.. This realm of the Past was filled with the Treasures of the Ancient Pathways Sacred Scrolls of Revelation Truth, Ancient Mantles, and Wells of Revival that Heaven is now beginning to Reopen in the Earth. And I heard the Spirit say, "Watch For I am Now Redeeming and Restoring the Treasures of the Ancient Pathways, I am Calling for the Reclaiming of that which what was lost and stolen.
Watch. For I am Uncovering and Revealing what was hidden and deeply buried .
YES! For I am breathing Resurrection Life into that which was forsaken, that which is Barren, Dry and Dead" !!

Then I was shown within the Realm of the Second Wave, the Realm of the Present, which was vibrant, and Alive with Movement and great Power. I saw what looked like Streams of Living Bread and New Wine flowing out from the Throne Room of Heaven, this was the Realm of Active, Living and NOW Faith and Miracles, where the Seven Rivers of the Seven Spirits of God are releasing a Fresh Oil of Anointing for the Breaking of Ancient structures and strongholds of Religion and Tradition and for the Dismantling of the Altars of Baal, and for the Birthing of New Dimensions of Apostolic and Prophetic Authority, Fire and Power.

In this Second Wave, the Present Realm within the Glory, I saw divine strategies being released from the War Room of Heaven the atmosphere was vibrating with the sounds and frequencies of the Living Word the very Voice of God resounding through the realms of Glory, I could hear Prophetic decrees and declarations going forth with Fire and Authority, establishing Heaven's Divine Order in the Earth realm. I saw Laws and Legislation of the Government of Heaven being issued and set into motion, Holy Decrees being written upon the timelines of Nations, and then made manifest in the earth realm. Heaven's Will being enforced by the power of the Spoken Word..!

Then I saw within the Third Wave, the Realm of the Future, a Realm and Dimension of the Glory wrapped in divine Mystery .a Realm that burned hot with the intensity of multifaceted Light that revealed and yet concealed at the same time. Inside this Third Wave and Realm of Glory were the Secrets and Mysteries of God I saw Scrolls being unraveled that revealed the Sacred Blueprints of the Coming Age, New and Ancient Scrolls that revealed the Destinies of Nations and Heavenly Technologies reserved for those who are walking in Intimacy and in Obedience to Him .
And I heard the Spirit say, "Come Up Here and See, and I will Show you what must take place Look for the Realm of the Future is being unveiled to My Seeing Remnant, For I am calling My Prophets into the Womb of the Upper Room into the Realm outside of Time to Partner with Me in the Birthing of what No eye has yet seen and no ear has yet heard"!

Then suddenly, I saw the Three Waves begin to move all three Waves looked Alive, with the Ruach Breath of God. I watched as the three Waves surged forward with an unstoppable force, each Wave/Realm carrying layer upon layer of greater and an ever-increasing weight of Gods Glory .

And then suddenly, I saw the Three Waves become One .One Mighty Wave, a Divine Convergence of the Ancient the Now and the New, a mighty surge of the Glory of the Lord that shook the Heavens and Awakened the Earth.

A Sovereign Wave of Divine Glory and Power rising up over the Nations, and then Suddenly a Mighty Rushing Wave that I saw sweep across the Nations, the veil of consuming darkness was suddenly lifted, And I saw the Overturning and Overthrowing of Demonic Thrones, and the release of the Fire of Awakening and Purification falling upon the Nations of the earth.

And, As I looked and looked again, I saw within the Threefold Wave/Realm of Glory a Divine Convergence of Generations, the Merging of New and Ancient Mantles, and the synchronization of the Kiaros of Heaven's Appointed times and Seasons invading the Chronos of Earths Timeline. And in the midst of what looked like Holy and Creative Chaos, I saw a New Breed of Radical Reformers and End-Time Revivalists Rising within the Threefold Wave/Realm of Glory, A New Breed of the Sons of Thunder, Mantled with the radiant light of the Seven Spirits of God .Carriers of the Wisdom and Counsel of the Ancient of Days, walking in deeper dimensions of Holy Communion with the Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord. Their eyes set Ablaze .burning with Living Revelation their mouths full of the Sound of Heaven and New Wine. This was the Mighty Remnant Army Radical Redeemers of the Times and Seasons moving in divine synchronization with Heaven's command.

These Burning Ones advanced through the Threefold Realms of Glory, wielding the Authority and Power of the King of Kings. From their mouths flow decrees that shape the Nations and shift timelines and Territories, for they speak not from Earth to Heaven, but from the Heavenly realms into Earthly Kingdoms releasing the Word of the Lord that will not return to Him Void !!

GET READY REMNANT FOR THE THREEFOLD WAVE/REALM OF THE GLORY OF THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE IS ABOUT TO BREAK FORTH UPON THE NATIONS..!!`

Posted this Evening on our Online War Room;

Evening All, Please keep Watching and Praying!

Again I heard clearly this evening "Hell Seeks a platform in which display its Assignment of Destruction and Bloodshed". This Month is a Critical Month it's a 911 Month; an SOS has been released in the Spirit realm this is a Call Over Nations. I had a very strange dream, it was a fleeting dream, but it was very clear, I won't share the dream, but I saw the Capital Building in the USA surrounded by very deep flood waters, like a Tsunami had hit the City, the dream was full of a deep sense of Urgency, and I heard in the dream.

"EMERGENCY EVACUATION ORDER"

I saw the letters EEO, I suddenly woke up!! I submit something very Significant is coming .seeing the U.S. Capitol Building speaks to the Seat of Government, Authority, and National Leadership. Seeing it in total darkness in the dream can speak to many things but I believe it's speaking to a time when Truth and Justice are being obscured, and when Leadership is suddenly overwhelmed by crisis and turmoil !!

Furthermore, the floodwaters especially being very "deep" as if a tsunami hit can also be speaking to Judgment, Chaos, and Cleansing that comes suddenly and with unstoppable force. I submit .It could indicate a Wave of Events (political, social, or even natural events unfolding) that could seek to paralyze a Nation's ability to function, or even to cut off access and control. And certainly Spiritually, it can speak of something far beyond human Management in order to deal with a situation..!!

In Hearing ."EMERGENCY EVACUATION ORDER (EEO)"

I believe it is amplifying the seriousness, the Spirit's way of signaling that serious Prayer and Intercession is needed, but not to panic.

I submit this is a powerful prophetic dream of a coming Great shaking in America's Systems Governmental, Economically or even Geographical and very serious call for those who hear to pray, we need to Stand Ready, and stay spiritually Alert and Vigilant..!!! ..We must continue to Pray for President Trump,..his Family and Administration !!

Andrew Whalen: 11:11—What Is God Saying for Our Times?

The Great Transitional Epic

Word received on November 11, 2021:

This is a word about how the phenomena of 11:11 is heralding a new day of ancient prophecy in our times and what Donald Trump, Bob Jones, and medical mandates have to do with it. We are in a moment I'd like to call "The Great Transitional Epic." Throughout history, there have been many major historical transitions. Biblically speaking, God has worked major transitions for the purpose of His people and His eternal purposes.

The greatest and most important transitional epic was and is, without question, the life of Jesus Christ. His life represented the great transition from the first Adam to the last. He was the prophesied God-man, the Savior of all mankind. His life was our transition from death to life, from darkness to light. Now, today, any true historical transition has its roots in Christ. In other words, God is working all things for our good to the glory of His Son.

Now, because of Christ, even what the enemy means for harm is turned for good in order to fulfill the eternal purposes in Christ. His finished work is still being appropriated today. In fact, God allows earth's great transitions to be reminders of satan's ultimate defeat at the cross. In God's eternal wisdom, He has used epic transitions to save nations, deliver souls, destroy enemies, release promised inheritance, and fulfill seemingly impossible prophecies.

The following prophecy is a summarized work—the result of many years of mysteries, dreams, revelatory encounters, and Scriptural insight. At the outset, it should be noted that this prophetic word is meant to give potential prophetic perspectives for current events, coming transitions, and at least one level of interpretation to Biblical prophecy. Keep in mind that I am releasing this word with sincere faith, yet with the understanding that we only know in part.

All over the world, a strange phenomenon is being reported by masses of people. Not all of these people are Bible-believing Christ followers, but the majority of them do believe that something or someone supernatural is speaking to them through the numbers 11:11. Vast and seemingly endless articles can be found online that detail reports of people seeing the numbers 11:11. The reports indicate this is happening across the earth in unusual ways with increasing frequency, indicating that this is more than coincidence.

The number eleven can Biblically or prophetically speak of transition, disorder, chaos, the end of day, and alignment. For the purpose of this word, I'm going to clarify how the phenomenon of seeing 11:11 is speaking of a great transition into Biblical, prophetic, and heavenly alignment.

Christy Lam's Dream: Bob Jones and 11:11

Very recently (in 2021), I had a profound encounter with a woman that shook me with an urgent prophetic burden. A woman named Christy Lam, whom I have never met in person, contacted me because she needed help interpreting a dream. She said that God highlighted me to her as someone she needed to share her dream with who would be able to provide interpretation. Christy's dream was deeply prophetic.

For brevity's sake, I will quickly summarize her dream and its interpretation. Her dream was a very symbolic picture of both natural Israel and the Body of Christ. The prophet Bob Jones was in her dream, revealing (in a prophetic sense) that a disease was needing to be treated in God's people. Bob indicated that only one shot was needed to restore the health and life of His beloved people (both Israel and those who have been grafted into them by Christ).

Upon waking from this dream, Christy remembered that Bob named the disease "K.K.," and led her to know these letters coordinated with their numeric value in the alphabet of 11:11.

After reading her dream, I was shocked and internally shaken. It was as if I suddenly had a veil removed from our era of time, and God began to connect many dots for me. The dream and some of the symbols immediately brought me back to my own personal supernatural journey of encounter with the numbers 11:11, and even Bob Jones.

A Dream of Bob Jones and Then a Real-Life Encounter

Around 2007, I began to have unusual occurrences of seeing 11:11 regularly. At first this seemed like an odd coincidence, but after a few amazing confirmations, God told me this was Him. The Spirit of God said that He was introducing me to Isaiah 11:11, which reads, "It shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people who are left, from Assyria and Egypt, from Pathros and Cush, from Elam and Shinar, from Hamath and the islands of the sea" (NKJV). (Photo via Pexels)

Then in 2008, I had a dream with the prophet Bob Jones. In the dream, Bob came up to me and said, "Andrew, 11:11 is very important."

So I asked him, "Bob, what is 11:11?"

He said, "It is Isaiah 11:11."

Then I asked Bob, "What does Isaiah 11:11 mean?"

Bob responded, "It means exactly what it says."

I pondered this for many years after the dream.

In real life, during November of 2011 (11/11), I was with friends at a conference in Wisconsin where Bob Jones was going to minister. At that time, I had never met Bob Jones except in my dreams. After the first session of the conference, where another man had ministered, my friend and I went back to the hotel to relax. We recognized it was around 5:00 p.m.

As soon as we walked into the hotel lobby, we were surprised to see Bob Jones standing there looking at us. My friend had known Bob personally from a past ministry within the Vineyard. My friend asked Bob why he was there, to which Bob said, "Well, you told me to meet you here at 5:00 p.m." My friend and I looked at each other, knowing that neither of us had told Bob to meet us. We didn't argue with him, so we all went to dinner.

At the dinner table, Bob prophesied a number of things over each of us who were gathered there. After a while, Bob looked up at me and said, "Andrew, 11:11 is very important." In that moment, the dream from three years prior came rushing back to my mind. So, I responded as I did in the dream and said, "What is 11:11?"

He said, "It is Isaiah 11:11."

I asked, "What does Isaiah 11:11 mean?" to which Bob responded, "It means exactly what it says."

As you can imagine, I was shocked and physically shaken. This whole scenario played out exactly as I had foreseen in my dream years prior.

This was a stunning encounter, and I thought to myself, "God, what does this have to do with me? Why are You going to such great supernatural and prophetic lengths to confirm this message to me? What do I do with this?" The answers have unfolded in various levels throughout time, and now this word will relate some part of the meaning.

Isaiah 11:11

Isaiah 11:11 declares a future prophecy of a second regathering of the scattered people of Israel back to their Promised Land. Of course, this indicates that there was a first. Many Bible scholars and commentaries believe that the first regathering speaks of their deliverance from Babylon. Some have suggested it speaks about Israel's deliverance from Egypt. Both have some merits, but I'm more inclined to believe this passage speaks about their first return from captivity in Babylon.

However, as we see with many prophetic Scriptures, there are often multiple levels of application and fulfillment to these words. Sometimes ancient prophecies carry levels of prophetic fulfillment for every generation until, at last, the complete fulfillment of the prophecy comes. I believe the fullest measure of this prophecy is the literal return of Jesus Christ to reign in the earth. Could we be at that point in time? Maybe, but I would like to suggest another possibility.

I believe we are in another transitional period of an Isaiah 11:11 moment in time, where God is about to rescue His people from out of 400 to 500 years of a religious and governmental system of bondage—typified by the governmental structures of Egypt and the religious systems of Babylon—and into another dimension of fulfillment of regathering both Israel and His Church into Christ. Either way, we are certainly nearing the return of Christ. Until that time, I see God bringing us into great transitions, into the "restoration of all things" (Acts 3:21).

Donald Trump: A Modern-Day Cyrus

Prior to the 2016 election in which Donald Trump became president of the United States, I didn't personally care for his manner or take seriously his political run. However, that all changed after he was elected and I had a dream.

In the dream, I was sitting with President Trump in the Oval Office where he had his Bible open, reading Isaiah 45—the passage about Cyrus. At that time, I had never heard of any prophecies connecting Trump with Cyrus. Only later did I find that there were prophecies connecting Trump with Cyrus. (Photo via Flickr)

Anyway, in the dream, President Trump looked at me and asked me to be praying for him. I knew in that moment by revelation that God was assigning me to pray for him for the purpose that he, Trump, would fulfill the "scroll of Cyrus" on his life. During the next four years of Trump's presidency, I was given continual revelation and prophetic strategy on how to pray for him.

Some of the dreams and revelations I received from the Lord showed me that President Trump would appear to lose the 2020 election, only to return under the right circumstances, at the right time, through the aid of the military. I could say much about this, but I will not expound at this point.

The Word of the Lord for Our Present Times

Within the past year (2025), I had a profound dream. In my dream, a "father prophet" in America came to me and said, "Andrew, you need to find the word of the Lord for our times right now." So, in the dream, I went searching and seeking to discover the word of the Lord for our times.

As I was searching, I found myself on a road called "Main Street America." Along this road, I noticed a coffee and tea shop called "Fusion Brew." I went into Fusion Brew and sat down. Upon sitting down, I tossed my Bible on the table, and it fell open to the book of Ezra. When I saw the book of Ezra, it seemed to leap off the page at me, and a powerful spirit of prophecy came upon me, and I knew without a doubt that the book of Ezra was the word of the Lord for our times.

After waking from the dream and seeking the Lord on the matter, He revealed to me that America is on the road of a "fusion" of two times. What I understood the Lord to mean is that as it was in the times of Ezra, so it is again. Interesting that the book of Ezra, chapter 1, literally kicks off with King Cyrus making a decree on behalf of Israel to return and rebuild the temple to the God of Heaven.

"Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: The LORD, the God of Heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has charged me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all His people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel—He is the God who is in Jerusalem." (Ezra 1:2 ESV)

God began to connect the dots even further for me, and I realized that for many years God has been identifying Isaiah 11:11 as a second "transitional epic of times," marked by another Cyrus.

The first deliverance and regathering of God's people from Babylon took place through Cyrus. Now, again, another level of prophetic fulfillment is upon us. Both natural Israel and the Body of Christ are about to transition into a new day of prophetic acceleration and fulfillment.

Demonic Infiltrators

One of the key things we must understand is that the ancient mystery religions of Babylon have been operating in modernity through governmental and world elites. This has produced far more antichrist hindrances to the spreading of the Gospel and the Kingdom than we could possibly imagine. These ancient religions are veiled forms of nothing other than cloaked satanic worship. The U.S. government, since its inception, has been built upon the mixture of these demonic infiltrators and their false and forbidden worship.

Truly, the governing systems of our day have been nothing other than cloaked occult structures. Our modern systems of governance—nationally, internationally, religiously, and politically—have been constructed from the ancient ways of both Babylon and Egypt. The worship of these false gods is alive and well, and their power and influence have been animated through the modern constructs of world governance. However, it's all about to change.

We have reached the eleventh hour and the "11:11 Great Transitional Epic"—from bondage and slavery to a new day of ingrafting and regathering for the glory of God and the expansion and sudden advancement of His Kingdom throughout the earth. Truly, we are entering the day of His power.

The Day of the Lord's Power

On Election Day 2020, I woke up at 5:00 a.m. to pray. As I sat on the couch, I was so tired that I kept going in and out of sleep. I couldn't tell if I was awake or asleep—possibly in a trance state—when suddenly I saw a man standing before me. His name was David Hogan. It felt like thirty minutes that he stood there, and I kept wondering and asking God what He wanted me to understand from David Hogan. I was having visions of David raising the dead, driving out demons, facing death head-on, and paying an awful price to walk in the power of the Holy Spirit. (Photo via Pexels)

Finally, after a series of visions and continually asking God what I was supposed to know from this, I fell into a deep sleep. Then, after a time of sleep, I woke abruptly to David Hogan's voice, saying, "TODAY IS THE DAY OF THE LORD'S POWER." Immediately, I had an understanding come to me when I heard this word that November 3rd marked a shift in times. What is coming in these new times will be a great demonstration of the Lord's power like never before.

I believe in these times of transition the Lord is inviting us to freely give ourselves for His purposes in our day. According to Psalm 110:3, "Your people will volunteer freely in the day of Your power" (NASB 1995). Why would God say that Election Day 2020 would mark a new day of His power? I believe it had everything to do with His "Cyrus," Donald Trump, who would be restored to office.

The Near Future

Shortly after the election, I had a dream where I was taken to a place in the spirit called "the near future." In that place and at that time, I was ushered into the Oval Office. I was seated at the president's desk. Donald Trump sat down, stared at me, and said, "You are in the near future. Everything they (the deep state) tried has failed. The fraud failed, and I am your president."

The truth of that dream is why God showed me that His intention to use Trump as a Cyrus for our times is not finished. Both the real winner and the fraud of the 2020 elections will be exposed for all to see. His return will herald a "new day of the Lord's power." It will mark a shift from the place of captivity under the deep state occult to a day of restoration and Biblical hope for the nations and future generations.

Operation Fury

In one very significant dream (on April 6, 2021), I felt what God was about to place upon Donald Trump for the next season of His purpose was an anointing for justice. I was shown that Donald Trump, the U.S. military, and the angels of Heaven would be activated by the Spirit of God to conduct a mission called "Operation Fury." This would be the greatest release of God's vengeance and anger against the demonic realm we have ever seen in our times.

Upon the activation of Operation Fury, those who had shed innocent blood would be removed, abortion would fall, occult structures would be vanquished, and a new day of peace for Israel and the Gospel would come forth.

I am not suggesting that "the end" has fully come, but a shadow of the future destruction for all satanic thrones and his kingdom shall be made known. The justice coming in this Great Transitional Epic will once again declare the victory of Jesus Christ and foreshadow the ultimate doom of satan and his kingdom. This brings me back to the beginning of this word and the dream that Christy Lam had.

(To read more about Andrew Whalen's "Operation Fury" dream, click here.)

Return to Christy Lam's Dream

In Christy Lam's dream, Bob Jones said all that was needed to break the disease off God's people was one shot! As I read that part in her dream, I instantly thought of a dream I had regarding the vaccine shot.

In the summer of 2020, I saw in a dream that a future vaccine would be created and forcefully mandated in the name of protecting people from COVID. However, in the dream, I knew at the core of its creation was an evil agenda that would ultimately bring forth the control of a death agenda by satanic thrones. In other words, what I saw was that either this future vaccine would literally harm people by what it contained and/or that its purpose would be to bring America under the control of a satanic government.

In the dream, I prophesied and said, "This vaccine is satan's attempt to change set times and laws." After I realized that this was not God's will but an attempt by darkness to hijack God's appointed times and set laws, I suddenly became aware in the dream that the U.S. military was activated to help save America and the nations from the satanic purposes and evil that this shot would ultimately cause.

Pondering the fact that the disease of God's people was 11:11, and that a "shot" was the solution, confirmed to me that the worldwide vaccine mandate would be the activator to set in motion the Great Transitional Epic of Isaiah 11:11. God is about to deliver His people from the god of this age governing the nations with Babylonian and Egyptian structures and witchcraft. (Photo via Pexels)

I believe it is this worldwide shot mandate that will be a type of "shot heard around the world." Just so there is no misunderstanding, I don't believe the shot has any benefit other than its catalytic effect to awaken the nations and set in motion a level of prophetic fulfillment to Isaiah 11:11, to "set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people."

Prophetic Snapshots

The following list is just some of the prophetic snapshots I have received through many prophetic dreams and revelatory encounters about some of what God is bringing His remnant back to in this Great Transitional Epic.

1. "God is destroying the church that man built" is the word of the Lord for His Body in our times. In the coming years, the Church in much of its form and function will look far different from much of its current state. We will see a greater emphasis on developing the Body's function, fathers championing younger generations, and on Israel, the Kingdom of God, and home fellowship. We will see family prayer altars on fire, Kingdom advancement through the seven spheres of society, and the apostolic function and governmental application. Being a hidden one will be valued again.

2. God is raising up a new guard of gatekeepers for future generations who will function with the anointing of Proverbs 4:7: "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom. And in all your getting, get understanding" (NKJV).

3. The prophets have come to a T-intersection. The Lord says to the prophets who go left, "You are not in sin, but you refuse to look and see what hides in darkness, that it might be exposed. You are content to speak about the positive side of the supernatural, yet remain ignorant of much of the devil's devices." The Lord says to the prophets who go right, "You are willing to let Me show you the depths of what hides in darkness, that you may shine My light to expose it. To those who go right, they will receive the greatest spoils of war."

4. The Lord is reviving the wisdom of the ancients to wage "prophetic war." God's people will learn a new spiritual "art of war" that will obtain and manifest God's promises. It will be a new day of prophetic warfare that will strike Leviathan's belly and revive faith in God's Word.

5. Jesus is piloting America in this time. He is intentionally taking us through the greatest possible turbulence so that all things not buckled down will begin to surface. The way the flight of our nation is being piloted looks completely hopeless and appears to be headed for a terrible crash landing. However, I saw that Jesus can be completely trusted as our pilot, and at the last possible moment, He will land our nation with a supernatural rescue.

6. I saw future headlines declaring that President Trump would be brought back into his rightful position of authority and leadership to help restore the republic of America through the aid of the military.

7. I saw several former presidents, justice department officials, and world elites from multiple spheres being jailed for their crimes.

8. I saw the end of the old media guard. It was shown to me as a principality called "Mockingbird," and it was being brought down. Specifically, the news media collusion to hide human and child sex trafficking will be its end.

9. In a dream (October 2019), I saw that when the Cyrus scroll on Trump is fulfilled, it will bring us into a new era of life that we have never known or experienced before. We will be shocked at how strong of a grip the deep state had over our health, our wealth, and our mindsets, but rejoice in how much freedom we will be advancing in.

10. This great transition will certainly bring us forward into a new day of Kingdom advancement. And with it, I saw Jezebel's indoctrination of our culture beginning to crumble and fall as we entered the times of revivals and awakenings. The scepter of her wickedness will be shattered off of our land.

11. As it was in the days of King Cyrus and the decree to return and rebuild, so again God will initiate a Cyrus-type shift to regather a new day of building His temple of living stones and shift the wealth into the hands of Kingdom workers of righteousness, according to the decree from Ezra 1:4: "And in any locality where survivors may now be living, the people are to provide them with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the temple of God in Jerusalem" (NIV).

This Great Transitional Epic

In conclusion, I believe God's involvement in our time and among the nations is for His greater eternal purposes to bring forth a new day of power, a return to building a temple of living stones to carry His glory, and to bring forth the "one new man" of Jews and Gentiles in Christ (Ephesians 2:15).

In the days, months, and years ahead, I believe 11:11 will be a marker of God's great rescue plan for our times. He is bringing back His remnant from the places of captivity in systems of demonic governance to yet again establish His fame throughout the earth! For now, let's pray for God's perfect will and that His Kingdom would come in this GREAT TRANSITIONAL EPIC!

Kislev 27, 5786: Wednesday- December 17, 2025

Yvon Attia: The Lord Will Defeat the Counsel of the Wicked!

As I was in prayer for the month of November, I heard the Lord say, "I will defeat the counsel of Ahithophel."

Immediately, I could see in the Spirit what the enemy was doing—how demonic powers were conspiring against God's people, even against President Trump, plotting confusion and rebellion across the nations. But the Lord said, "Do not fear, for I am still in it. What looks like chaos and disorder from below is still under divine order from above."

Who Was Ahithophel?

I went to the Scriptures and began to study: Who was Ahithophel, and why did the Lord defeat his counsel?

Ahithophel was David's most trusted advisor, a man whose wisdom was once regarded as though it came from the oracle of God (2 Samuel 16:23). But when David's son Absalom rose in rebellion against him, Ahithophel betrayed David and joined the conspiracy. Offense and pride had opened a door in his heart, and his loyalty turned to treachery.

Ahithophel's counsel to Absalom was sharp and strategic: "Let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight. I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king" (2 Samuel 17:1–2 NKJV).

If Absalom had followed this advice, the rebellion might have succeeded. But the Lord Himself stepped in. He answered David's prayer: "O Lord, I pray, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!" (2 Samuel 15:31 NKJV).

God sent Hushai, a faithful friend of David, as a divine counterstrategy. Hushai entered Absalom's camp and gave advice that appeared wise but was designed by God to defeat Ahithophel's counsel.

"So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, 'The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel.' For the Lord had purposed to defeat the good advice of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom." (2 Samuel 17:14 NKJV)

All Plots Will Be Overturned!

I believe that this is what the Lord is doing again in this season. Every secret counsel that plots against God's anointed—in governments, in churches, in nations—will be overturned. The Lord Himself is sending a "Hushai" to frustrate the plans of the enemy and to expose the works of darkness. He is making the enemy's wisdom foolish and turning the traps of the wicked back upon their own heads. (Photo via Rawpixel)

God has always done this throughout history. When Pharaoh's counsel was to enslave Israel, God sent plagues to dismantle his empire and prove that there is no counsel that can stand against the Lord (Exodus 9:14). When the Sanhedrin plotted to destroy the apostles, He raised up Gamaliel to say, "If this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing; but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it" (Acts 5:38–39 NKJV).

Even when David was surrounded by betrayal and chaos, he declared with faith, "The Lord sits enthroned forever" (Psalm 9:7 ESV). He refused to run from his calling, because he knew that God's counsel always prevails (Proverbs 19:21).

And Jesus Himself, the Son of David, fulfilled this fully. The Bible says, "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil" (1 John 3:8 NKJV), and "having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it" (Colossians 2:15 NKJV). Jesus destroyed the ultimate counsel of the enemy—sin, death, and the grave. Through His blood, He confounded the wisdom of satan and triumphed forever.

Prophetic Word for November: "The Lord Will Defeat the Counsel of the Wicked"

The Lord says, "I am frustrating the secret counsel of the wicked—the Ahithophel agenda that plots in hidden rooms; the voices that seek to betray, divide, and overthrow. I am exposing every spirit of betrayal. I will defeat the counsel of Ahithophel. For just as in the days of David, when the heart of his own son turned against him and his trusted counselor joined the rebellion, yet I the Lord intervened, so now I move again.

"Although his counsel was counsel [that] seemed sharp, strategic, and humanly wise, yet it was intended to oppose David, My anointed." And so I decree, "I am defeating the counsel that sounds wise but wars against My will. Where betrayal has come, I am releasing vindication. Where plots have formed, I am releasing reversal. Where human counsel has risen against My divine purpose, I am decreeing collapse and confusion in the enemy's camp.

"Every demonic structure—every Ahithophel spirit of manipulation, betrayal, and pride—is already under My feet. My blood nullifies the counsel of death, shatters the weapon of accusation, and silences the conspiracies of darkness. Even now, as nations shake, economies falter, and alignments shift, I say to you, I am bringing the counsel of the nations to nothing, frustrating the plans of the wicked. This is the month when Heaven will strike.

"Many understand My patience at indifference, but I say to you that this is the time to act, for My counsel will stand forever. What men call 'good strategy,' I call folly," says the Lord. "What looks like defeat will reveal My dominion. For I am turning the tables, reversing verdicts, confusing those who think they are wise, and vindicating the righteous." (Photo via Pixabay)

I heard the Lord say, "I have seen the betrayal, the weariness, the tears, but I have not abandoned you. I have sent My Hushai—My speedy, divine intervention—to stand in the courts of those who conspire against you.

"The enemy's timing will miss its mark, the trap will be exposed before it is sprung, and the very counsel meant to destroy you will become the evidence of My deliverance. November will not end in confusion but in clarity. What begins in shaking will conclude in stability."

The Lord is saying, "My people shall see that I am still the God who turns the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

"The Days of Egypt's Toil Are Over"

"You are entering a new land, unlike the one you came from. The season before you will not be sustained by your labor but by My rain from Heaven. You have toiled and pressed through dry ground, but now I will cause My Spirit to water your fields. I Myself will care for your land, and My eyes will rest upon it from the beginning of the year to its end. Do not fear the hills or despise the valleys, for I am in both.

"In the high places, I will reveal My glory; in the low places, I will reveal My nearness. What once demanded your strength will now flourish under My grace, for I am shifting you from striving to resting, from survival to inheritance. I am sending the early and the latter rain—the rain of refreshing, fulfillment, and fruitfulness. It will fall upon your work, your prayers, and your promises.

"I will fill your barns with grain, your vats with new wine, and your vessels with oil. The ground beneath your feet will respond to My word, for every place the sole of your foot treads I have already given to you. Step forward and possess what I have promised.

"The days of Egypt's toil are over. You are moving in a land under My watchful care, a land that drinks from Heaven. Walk in faith, for I am watering your destiny with My own hand."

Nate Johnston: 1 The Lord is cutting the strings that have been around you for a long period of time.

I feel like all the warfare that you and I have been facing, all of the swirl, the witchcraft, the slander, the betrayals, and the spiritual dynamics you have been trying to navigate and discern and understand, it's COMING TO A HEAD right now!

You see, in the end, it always backfires on the enemy and causes those who have been afflicted by these assignments to see clearly what has been at play, and then they open the eyes of those who are blind around them.

I believe that's what is happening right now.

We are right at that point where the warfare has hit such a critical moment that it's actually cleared the air and brought about such a deep level of revealing of spiritual realms, dynamics, and mechanics, and the things that have been happening around you that maybe you haven't understood.

I also know that you're weary from it, and I know that it's been confusing and derailing. But what you don't understand is that there has been a multifaceted attack that's come against you, your home, your marriage, your family, and your destiny for such a long period of time, so it's almost desensitized you to the severity of what has been robbing you.

This assignment has hit a point where God is saying, "I'm now going to unlock every single lock. I'm going to shut every single door. I'm now going to reveal what's been at play."

Over the weekend, I had a very specific dream where the Lord was speaking to me about a very specific deliverance that is taking place right now.

In the dream, there was a church service happening. Worship began, and I saw a lady at the altar. The Holy Spirit said to me in the dream, "Pray for her for deliverance."

As I went to pray for her, I saw that there were all these strings, ropes, and chains around her. It was like she was unable to move in any direction. I was trying to discern what was going on, and I began to see that each of these chains looked harmless, and she was trying to rationalize them, so I said, "Be quiet for a moment. Demon, who are you and where did you come from?"

And suddenly the demonic spirit began to speak, and it said, "She loves to play by the rules, which is great for us."

And I instantly saw that these "rules" were allegiance to religious values that brought her into agreement with control and manipulation that was straight up demonic, but because it came through a person or figure (familiar spirit) that they trusted, they bought the lie/bondage as well.

It had put her in such a deep state of being chained and yoked that she was unable to move, and this grieved me.

But what grieved me more was that the church service went on, and I was frustrated that they weren't stopping for this moment because this felt like it was meant to be the main thing, and this really speaks to the fact that right now the Church needs to stop for what God is doing. We're going about "church as usual," but we need freedom from the bondage of the institution.

This specific type of deliverance is the Lord setting us, the Church, free from being puppets to the enemy in areas where it's been acceptable bondage, because it's come in the form of religion.

It's come in the form of "service." It's come in the form of things that look right, like loyalty and submission, but many of them have been twisted and have become bondage.

And how does it come in? In pivotal moments where you need direction and a VOICE or WORD. That's when the swirl begins, so you are not as discerning, and you don't see the wolves surrounding you. The "almost-right" words of advice, the surveillers, and the informants descending, and so you OPEN YOUR HEART AND THE FRONT DOOR..

So, if you're reading this and you've been saying to yourself, "Why am I not moving forward? Why am I not moving ahead? Why am I not able to see clearly my direction, my future? Why am I constantly facing this same situation over and over?"

You keep hitting the same point where you're stuck and frustrated. I want to propose to you that the enemy's been trying to make you a puppet. But the Lord says over you this week, *"I am breaking your strings!"

I'll never forget, many years ago, Christy and I were coming out of a very religious, bondage-filled season, and I went into a vision during worship.

I saw myself as Pinocchio when he was a marionette, and the Lord said to me, "It's time to cut your strings."

What were the strings in my life at the time? Strings where I felt like I was being disobedient to God if I didn't do what my pastor told me to do, or if I didn't do what that person told me to do. There were so many layers of religion that had made me a slave to everything but the very thing I was called to do.

Let me be even more specific about some of the strings that need to be cut this week. Firstly, imagine right now that you're like I was, Pinocchio with strings around you, or imagine yourself in a tug-of-war contest:

One of the assignments of the enemy is to pull you in the wrong direction to lead you off track. It's to lead you into an Ishmael, something that has the appearance of the right place, leading you to your assignment, but is actually leading you off course.

The next is where he pulls you away from your mission and your message into deception. It feels like righteousness; it feels like the right thing, but you've been led off track and you're speaking something you weren't meant to speak.

And the third is where you're pulled in your mind, manipulated in your emotions, your desires, and your wants, to lead you out of peace and clarity and into confusion and lack of revelation. That's where many people suddenly feel like, "God, why are You not speaking to me? Why are You not showing me what to do? Why are You not leading me?"

This week, God is exposing the strings through dreams and removing the veil that's been hidden for months and even years, through familiar spirits, and through situations that have surrounded you on all sides.

Maybe it's come through familiar relationships, family, or people around you that you've trusted.

The problem is this: the very root and core of why we become puppets goes back to Pinocchio - we don't feel real.

We don't feel legitimate.

It's often an orphan spirit that leads us into needing other people to tell us where to go, what to do, how to act, and what to say.

But what it does is it removes the voice of God from our lives, and that's the deception that leads us astray and puts us in bondage.

So this week, God is exposing all of those things.

Isaiah 58:6 says that - God will lose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke.

Psalm 124:7 says, "We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler; the snare has been broken, and we have escaped."

Nahum 1:13 says, "Now I will break their yoke from your neck and tear your shackles away."

Isaiah 10:27 says, "The yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing."

Right now, in the name of Jesus, I decree over you that the yoke is broken. Every string is being broken off you in the name of Jesus, and I pray that every string that's been around you for months or even years be cut. That this very week, God would give you dreams to show you where you've been held back, where you've been like a puppet on a string to someone else's devices or to the enemy's plans.

That every assignment of delay, distraction, or detour would be exposed and ended. I decree over you in Jesus' name - the strings are broken, the cords are cut, and you are free. Come out of every false allegiance and hidden bondage, and step into the pure call of God on your life, in the mighty name of Jesus.

Praying The Character Of God From Psalm 23

For every need, there is a name of God that corresponds to the need. His faithfulness and his caring meet in the 23rd Psalm to portray our intimately personal Shepherd. God's character in all of His covenant names can be seen in this psalm. Ask Him what He wants you to know about who He is, what He does, what you have in Him through each name. Cultivate your personal communion with God praying this Scripture.

The Lord is my Shepherd –
Jehovah-Rohi: The Lord my Shepherd
Thank your Shepherd that He knows you by name and wants to communicate with you. Talk to Him about your intimate relationship with Him.

I shall lack nothing –
Jehovah-Jireh: The Lord my Provider
Thank your good Shepherd that He provides all your needs, beginning with redemption. Ask Him to carry all your worries, burdens, and cares.

He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside quiet waters –
Jehovah-Shalom: The Lord my Peace
Thank Jesus your Peace for His attention to the details of your life. Tell Him you want to see Him more clearly in your "dailies." Let Him speak to you.

He restores my soul –
Jehovah-Rapha: The Lord my Healer
Because Jesus your Healer became man, He understands everything you have experienced. Thank your Healer for healing the hurts. Remember His times of restoration.

He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake –
Jehovah-Tsidkenu: The Lord my Righteousness
Thank the Righteous One that you are accepted in Him and completely forgiven. Thank your Shepherd for His guidance of your life for His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me –
Jehovah-Shammah: God who is there

Thank God who is there for His presence with you that dispels all fear. Your Shepherd is always there for you. Thank Him that He will never leave you nor forsake you.

Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
Thank God for His loving authority in your life to discipline, correct, and give you the security of loving limits. Thank Him that you can never mess up so bad that you fear punishment by Him.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies –
Jehovah-Nissi: The Lord my Banner of victory
Thank your Banner for His strength and protection against the enemy. Thank Him that Jesus lives victorious in you.

You anoint my head with oil. My cup overflows.
Thank your Shepherd for His grace and favor that He gives you so generously. Thank Him that you can enjoy fellowship with Him.

Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
Thank your Shepherd that you can continuously sense His presence because of His faithfulness. Worship Him with a song that speaks of His nearness and love.

Sherilyn Hamon-Miller: You Are Enough

In Him, We Are Already Enough

As Christians, we often wrestle with the nagging lie that we don't measure up. Feelings of inadequacy creep in and whisper that we're not smart enough, strong enough, holy enough, or simply... enough. Yet, the Word of God reminds us again and again, in Him, we already are enough.

From the time I was a little girl, I struggled to believe that truth. Growing up, I often felt like I didn't measure up. My brothers excelled in school, while I silently battled undiagnosed dyslexia until high school. I was the youngest and only daughter, naturally shy, easily intimidated, and always comparing myself to others. Later in life, the wounds cut even deeper. I endured verbal, emotional, and physical abuse that left scars on my self-worth. I faced betrayal so personally it shook me to the core, convincing me I was unworthy and that I would never measure up.

I was the first in my family to go through a divorce, left raising four children alone. That same year, the joy of becoming a grandmother was overshadowed when my first grandchild was born with a severe heart condition requiring open-heart surgery. As all this unfolded, I relocated closer to family and began working at Christian International. The whirlwind of transition, responsibility, and heartbreak left me buried under a sense of overwhelming inadequacy.

But God.

His Faithfulness to Show Us Our Identity

In the middle of my brokenness, God began to show me, "I made you. And because I made you, you are enough." Psalm 139:13 (NIV) declares, "For You created my inmost being; You knit me together in my mother's womb." From the very beginning, God designed me with intention and purpose. Even when I doubted myself, He looked past my weakness and saw my heart. 1 Samuel 16:7 (NIV) reminds us, "The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart."

Scripture shows us, again and again, that every person has shortcomings, yet God still chooses to use us when our hearts are surrendered to Him. Romans 3:23 (NIV) says, "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." But God doesn't leave us there. 1 John 1:9 (NIV) promises, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." And John 3:17 (NIV) reassures us, "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him." The truth is simple: In Christ, there is no condemnation, only restoration. (Photo via Pexels)

There's No One Else Like You

Time and again, prophetic words I've received or spoken over others have started with "God has made you unique." And it's true. None of us share the same DNA or fingerprints. Romans 9:20 (NIV) asks, "But who are you, a human being, to talk back to God? 'Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"'"

When we criticize ourselves, we are indirectly suggesting that God made a mistake. Yet, He makes no mistakes. Genesis 1:27 (NIV) assures us, "So God created mankind in His own image, in the image of God He created them; male and female He created them."

And still, in hard seasons, we often meet our own "Job's friends"—people who criticize, slander, or gossip. But the Word is clear. Psalm 101:5 (NIV) warns, "Whoever slanders their neighbor in secret, I will put to silence; whoever has haughty eyes and a proud heart, I will not tolerate." Instead of tearing down, we are called to build up. Paul exhorts us in Philippians 4:11 (NIV): "I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances."

Celebrate Progress, Not Perfection

The Christian journey is not about perfection or speed, but endurance. Hebrews 12:1 (NIV) declares, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us." Along my path, I've stumbled, fallen, and needed God's redirection. Yet each time, He reached down, lifted me up, and set me back on course.

Jesus warned us in Luke 6:37 (NIV), "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven." Paul echoed in Galatians 5:26 (NIV), "Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other." Today, social media tempts us with endless comparison to polished images of "perfect" lives. But behind many of those smiles are hearts desperate for love, healing, and encouragement. (Photo via Pexels)

We Are More than Conquerors

God reminds us over and over, "we are more than conquerors" (Romans 8:37). We "can do all things through Christ" (Philippians 4:13). And "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31). Yet so often, the fiercest voice disqualifying us is our own.

Even Moses felt the sting of inadequacy. Exodus 4:10–11 (NIV) tells us, "Moses said to the Lord, 'Pardon your servant, Lord. I have never been eloquent… I am slow of speech and tongue.'

"The Lord said to him, 'Who gave human beings their mouths? Who makes them deaf or mute? Who gives them sight or makes them blind? Is it not I, the Lord?'"

God had confidence in Moses when Moses had none in himself, and God still chose him.

Beloved, our confidence is not in ourselves but in the God who formed us. Jesus died for us exactly as we are, paying a price we could never pay. Salvation cannot be earned; it is given by grace. And in that grace, we find rest.

So, hear this truth: In Christ, you are chosen, you are called, and you are enough.

Announcing the release of "The Heart of a Seer: Ascending to meet the King."

This is a book of Visions, Words of Knowledge and Testimonies derived from the journals of an international team of intercessors consisting of Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Teachers, Seers and intercessors. It highlights just a sampling of the many hundreds of visitations, words, and prayers we have experienced over the past several years as related by me, Wade Butler, a Pastor, Chaplain, and Seer, a Revelator.

Most importantly, we are all intercessors; called to the front lines to help plow the way of victory for the sons and daughters of Christ. This is not just about my journey, but includes highlights of leaders from the four corners of the earth. There are so many stories to tell. This publication only begins to share that which we have seen and experienced. I now understand when John said in John 21:25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did. If they should all be recorded one by one

[in detail], I suppose that even the world itself could not contain (have room for) the books that would be written. There are not enough adequate words to describe the beauty, the GLORY, or the LOVE that will permeate your very being when you enter the presence of the King. I pray you will enjoy our journey.
