The Month of Elul 5786: Wade K. Butler, Chaplain

Art by James Nesbit @ www.jnesbit.com

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophecy? The answer is to ask the LORD; how did this relate in the Bible for then and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray, Lord?

For those who regularly receive this publication, you will note a slight change in the format this month and in the future. I subscribe to over 40 publications each month to draw the latest prophetic word available to pass on to our followers. Due to my shift in assignments through the LORD, a stronger reliance was used from postings from Elijahlist.com this month than previously. I encourage everyone to subscribe to Elijahlist.com and Prophetic art by James Nesbit.

In developing this calendar (blog-prayer guide), prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD* (See the closing page for final credits). Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, or teachings from the many contributing authors which are included. 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's was nine years in June that we started publishing the Prayer Calendar-Blog based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1 the very first words GOD speaks are "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon." From that point on, the nation of GOD was to look at the moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 1,000 years being the time of the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle is only 29.5 days, or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous year's is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon." The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast and season.

This August, during the month of Elul, Father is saying, it is time to draw closer. Terry Freisen received a powerful word for those who are willing to press into our LORD'S Glory. If you are ready and willing, HE will take you where you have never been before. The following is a portion of Terry's word from Elul 1, 5786. Following Terry is Dutch Sheets along with Andrew Whalen to the importance of August 14th.

Terry Freisen

"It is the Lord's desire to establish us in a greater weight of His glory, and to teach us how to move in His glory.

"In the spirit I see a great deal of movement at this time, and I also see a greater weight of the Father's glory available - a deeper rootedness. The weight of the Father's glory in this season is of greater significance than our movement. Movement is important, but not as much as being established in the weight of His glory that is NOW available.

"Recently, the Lord has been talking to us about movement and His glory, and even now, movement in His glory.

"I see great movement in our future, but I see this movement mantled with a greater weight of glory. When we consider movement and glory, the Father's glory will naturally hold greater significance over the movement. Alignment will come when both are experienced in their rightful place.

"I see the Father's glory weight being established in a greater way; then I see the body moving without disconnecting from this weighty glory, so that as we move, the weight of glory we carry will have ten times the impact in the realm of the spirit.

"Without the weight of His glory, our movements can cause us to skip on top of some of the structures we are meant to move through. If we carry the weight of His glory when we move, the structures that surround us will yield to the glory we carry.

"We are meant to carry structure-changing glory, and the depth of the resulting changes will be of greater significance than the immediacy of our movement.

"Keep moving, but prioritize His weighty glory. Learn what it feels like to move while carrying this weight, and also what it feels like when your movement accelerates beyond His weighty glory and that weight begins to diminish. Know, too, what it feels like to hold back when His glory is seeking to move. As you recognize both dynamics, you will be able to choose more effectively to remain and abide in His glory." Terry Freisen.

Elul is a confusing month full of spiritual attacks and challenges. Having a better perspective of where you have been gives you a focus of where you are headed. It is a launch month preparing us for the coming new year. Buckle up; better yet, Amor up. Chaplain Wade Butler

Take a serious look at today, it is one of the most important days of our lives!

Dutch Sheets: The Importance of August 14

The gathering taking place on August 14, 2026, in Ohio has taken on incredible significance. I believe it will help change the course of history. It began in our planning as a night to pray for people's healing, which we will still do at the end. But at the clear direction of Holy Spirit, we shifted the focus to prayer regarding the war in Iran, spiritual harvest in the Middle East, and also throughout the world. At the end of last week, the significance of the night went to a completely new level as I met with key national and international prayer leaders. I'll say more about that meeting later in the post.

First, let me remind you of some things I began saying on Give Him 15 just over a week ago starting on July 22. I didn't realize where this would lead at the time, only that I was very burdened regarding the situation in Iran. On 7/22/26 I said:

"When physical wars are occurring on the earth, you can be certain that the invisible, spiritual realm is very involved. At times, more than others. The spiritual forces of darkness, spoken of throughout Scripture, are always attempting to control people and places. Stealing, killing, and destroying are their forte' (John 10:10). The violence and insatiable craving for power held by previous and current dictators such as Mao, Hitler, Stalin, Castro, Putin, Xi Jinping, Islamic terrorist groups, and other evil people is motivated by satan and his forces. Guaranteed.

"Today's ruthless, bloodthirsty, Islamist terrorist regime in Iran that hates Israel and America, and wants to dominate the entire region, is controlled by demonic powers. The sanctity of human life means nothing to them, nor does seeing people suffer. Even the thought of their own deaths doesn't bother them; in their minds, they just get to their eternal harem more quickly. Their agendas of killing Jews and Americans, taking over the region, and eventually ruling the world are all that matters. They WOULD use a nuclear weapon if they had one. They. Are. Evil. And so are their proxies: Hamas, Hezbollah and the Houthis…"

I also shared that the goal of the spiritual powers behind this regime is to stop or interrupt the spiritual harvest God has planned for the Middle East and the world:

"Principalities, powers, world rulers of darkness, and demonic forces are very much involved. We cannot expect our government and military to deal with the spiritual forces; this is the responsibility of the church. As we do so effectively, those in positions of governmental authority can accomplish what they must do. Jesus told us that we, His Ekklesia, would need to bind and loose (forbid and allow) the spiritual forces of darkness (Matthew 16:19), and we must do so…

"The forces of darkness behind Iran are opposing America, the church, Israel, and God's planned harvest in the Middle East. We, the church, must rise up and do our part. In the same way that millions of people prayed during World War II and helped turn the tide against Hitler, our prayers today can help turn the tide against radical Islamic evil.

"Do not be deceived into thinking the war is only militaristic or physical; don't fall into the trap of expecting President Trump and our military to prevail without our help. I am asking you that for a season, you will commit to daily prayer regarding this, even if only for a few minutes. Whether that be in your devotional prayer time, on your commute, as you do chores around the house, or in gatherings with others, I am asking you to become consistent in your prayers for this. Let's do our part–we can turn the tide!"

Leaders' Meeting Last Week

As we prayer leaders spoke late last week about how we could work together to be more effective, this subject of Iran came up, not by me but by others. Lou Engle shared his great burden to pray regarding it, as only Lou can, and others echoed the same concerns. Some spoke of perhaps doing a national gathering in order to do so. Then another, who had heard about our August 14 service, spoke up and said, "Dutch and some other leaders already have one planned." The group was very excited, jumped on board, and our plans for the 14th meeting went to an entirely new level. Holy Spirit's planning is amazing.

As this gathering continues to gain momentum, I have no doubt that it will include believers from throughout the world. Many thousands will join us live; some in other time zones will do so later. The agreement when they do so will be just as strong and fruitful. I believe those in the body of Christ who understand the true authority of Christ's Ekklesia on earth, the church, will rise to the challenge and impact the world through our prayers and agreement.

To boost your confidence in the timing and emphasis of this gathering, here are a couple more remarkable signs of God's orchestration.

1. Daniel received breakthrough over the "prince of Persia" (modern-day Iran) in 21 days of prayer. Likewise, from the first full day of this current call to prayer against the "prince of Persia's" control (July 24), through the last full day of prayer before our gathering on the 14th, will also be 21 days! We had no idea of this when planning it.

2. Over the weekend I was made aware that the first version of the modern Iranian tricolor flag was adopted on this day, August 14, in 1905! I simply cannot believe this is a coincidence.

I believe God chose this day for the prayer gathering to confirm to us His focus on Iran and its importance. The enemy's hold there must be broken. Jesus defeated the "strong man" (Matthew 12:29) over Iran - and every other nation - at the Cross, and the time has come for this to be enforced in the spiritual realm by the church. Doing so will release tremendous fruit in that nation, region, and throughout the world. Join us August 14, in person or by live stream, and let's agree for this. Thousands of individuals, many prayer groups, and even entire congregations will do so. Help us write history on that day.

(If your church chooses to join us with a live prayer service, they can register at Oasiswired.org, and people in your region can be informed and join you.)

Pray with me:

Father, as we expand our focus on August 14 to pray regarding the war with Iran, the Middle East, and a worldwide harvest, we ask for Holy Spirit's guidance and favor. Lead us in the time leading up to this and give us laser-like accuracy on that evening. Move on the hearts of many to join us. Give us a breakthrough in Iran and miracles for those present that night.

And Lord, it is clear that You commissioned us to enforce Christ's victory over satan and his kingdom and gave us authority to do so. We honor this and declare that the evil forces of violence, death, destruction, and spiritual blindness in the Middle East will not prevail. They have been stripped of their authority through Christ (Matthew 28:18), and in His name we bind their influence (Matthew 16:18-19). We command confusion and disorder into their ranks, and defeat to their plans.

We ask You, Lord, to supernaturally dismantle the IRGC and all control held by radical Islamists in Iran and the entire region. Free the people from this oppression, and all of the Middle East from their influence. Create a beachhead of liberty and a base for the gospel to the entire region. Strengthen and expand the Abraham Accords, and bring a great, great spiritual harvest to the entire Muslim world.

Lastly, give our government and military supernatural help and brilliant strategies. Keep our leaders from being deceived, misdirected, or out-maneuvered in any way. Do not allow this war to drag on. Protect our troops, our military bases, the innocent people of Iran, and the nations surrounding them. Protect Israel from every diabolical plan to harm them. In Yeshua's name, amen.

Our decree:

We declare the release of God's Kingdom authority over Iran, the war there, and throughout the Middle East region, in the name of Jesus Christ.

Andrew Whalen just came out with the following confirming word on his broadcast on 8/4/2026.

A Month to Focus and Step into a New Level of Intelligence and Discernment

August is a month where you will have needed to FOCUS! The noise will seem noisier, and the loud and disruptive taunts of the enemy will seem louder, but they will either cause you to cower or rise up and exert your voice that shuts up the voice of the enemy!

Goliath, shut your trap! You are a thief and a liar!

This will be a month where you will have to keep your company true and your circle small. A month to step into a whole new level of spiritual intelligence and discernment.

I keep seeing people coming into a mountain-top clearing with the clouds beneath them. It's a place of authority, representing being over, not under anymore.

The Robber Has Been Found and Must Repay!

I believe in the last few years, especially, many have been robbed, but here is where it shifts. August is when the robber is found out and must repay.

A Time to Advance Boldly

I keep hearing that it's going to be a month to advance boldly and take risks for the Kingdom. Playing it safe won't be the vehicle. Moving mountains happens through an offensive lifestyle of prayer and action, and it's a moment like Mathew 11:12: "From the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been subjected to violence, and violent people have been raiding it" (NIV).

Partner with the Word and Break Ties with the Enemy's Lies

August is going to make you where the enemy tried to break you. But you are going to have to partner with the word of the Lord and break ties with any word of the enemy that you have been agreeing with. Shake it off, Church! The voices of the prophets have to rise! Jezebel is being thrown down!

Bringing Forth the Seed of Righteousness

I feel so strongly that this month will birth and bring forth the seed of righteousness that will set nations back on track. It may look small at first, but watch as slowly but surely their course is corrected. It will be a month of much shaking in governmental realms and in the natural.

I keep seeing policies and agendas on a desk marked "August 2025," but they carry death and destruction. The Lord says, "Where are My intercessors? Where are My prophets?"

The door is closing on the years of "kindergarten church," and we must take back the courts and present the blood of Jesus!

"They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death." (Revelation 12:11 NIV)

Where Waiting and Wandering Turn into Hot Coals

Lastly, I believe August is a month where waiting and wandering turn into hot coals. So many have been in a waiting period because of needed healing. Trauma from the past has needed to be broken; tiredness and weariness have needed to be dealt with. But many have been on hold—in a pause—with no appetite for anything, even Kingdom. But there's a fresh unction and message coming... It will begin to bubble forth in August—a weighty, authoritative roar and prophetic fire that have come from your dark night season and battlefield.

(So, get ready, Church. August will be a month of a good kind of change—rapid movement, taking the keys back from the enemy, and stepping through the door. Stepping into the new season of the King is in the field, the war is at hand.) Chaplain Wade Butler

Scriptures for the Biblical Month of Elul

Elul stands for Repentance, Mercy, Forgiveness, War, and God's Presence. It is the time when The KING is in the field!

Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word. We are children of Abraham, adopted by Yeshua into the KINGDOM of GOD!

The Month of Elul and Selichot

אֱלוּל
סְלִיחוֹת

- Significance: Time of reflection leading up to Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur
- Customs: Blowing the shofar (ram's horn); asking people for forgiveness; reciting penitential prayers

Elul is the sixth of the twelve months of the Jewish spiritual calendar, but at the same time, it is the last or twelfth month on the physical calendar. Elul is called the month of repentance, mercy, forgiveness, war, and God's presence. It is the month of "the King is in the field" (2 Sam. 10:1). Everyone can approach HIM, and HE shines HIS countenance upon everyone. It is the month of preparation for the High Holy Days. Throughout the year, the king lived in the palace protected by guards, walls and gates. You had to have an appointment to see the King, plus, it was required to learn palace protocol and procedures. But on this month the king left his palace and went out among the people, and all were welcome to come before him. It is represented by the tribe of Gad, who were always in transition.

Elul is a type and shadow picture of our Lord YESHUA (JESUS) coming to dwell with man on earth. John 1:14, "The WORD became flesh and made HIS dwelling among us." The word dwelling means tent or to tabernacle, live among us.

The Jewish month of Elul

A Month of Mercy and Forgiveness

The month of Elul is the last month of the Jewish civil year. However, according to the biblical calendar, it is also the sixth month, counting from Nisan which is called the "first of the months" in the Torah (Ex. 12:2).

Placed as the last of the months and followed by the New Year, Elul invites an introspective reflection on the year that has been. Elul begins the important liturgical season of Return and Repentance which culminates with Rosh HaShanah, the Days of Awe, and Yom Kippur (1-10 Tishrei). Elul takes its place as an important preparation time for repentance.

"Elul" Spirituality

Tradition teaches that Elul was the month when Moses ascended the mountain for the second time and remained there for forty days after the incident of the Golden Calf (Ex. 32; 34:27-28). Jewish tradition recounts that Moses spent the period between the new moon of Elul (Rosh Chodesh Elul) and Yom Kippur (10th day of the month of Tishrei), i.e., 40 days, praying for God's forgiveness for the people of Israel, only descending when the period of repentance was complete. That Moses did descend from his period of seclusion with God of the mountain, and he did so with the second set of tablets, is seen as testimony to God's great mercy towards the people (Bava Bathra 121a).

The season of Elul

Elul follows the months of Tammuz and Av, both catastrophic months for Israel according to tradition. Tammuz is remembered as the month in which the people of Israel built the Golden Calf (Ex. 32), and Av, the month of the sin of the spies (Num. 13).

The proximity of Tammuz and Av to Elul underscores the penitential mode of this, the last of the months before the new beginning and spiritual re-creation that is precipitated with the New Year beginning the following month of Tishrei. The Jewish calendar carries the message that in the cycle of life estrangement can and should be followed by reconciliation.

Elul, An invitation. Wisdom through Understanding

During the month of Elul, each person and, indeed, the Community of Israel as one, reflect upon the past year, entering, on the first day of Elul, into a forty-day period of introspection.

Elul is a time to grow in wisdom, to reflect with understanding upon one's standing within the framework of God's mercy and justice. Spiritual reflection associated with the preceding month, Av, pictures God as having retreated within a concealed inner sanctum—a reflection, in fact, of human distancing and withdrawal from God. Elul becomes a time to make good, to reflect, to advance in wisdom (through understanding [binah]), and to begin setting things to rights—the beginning of the "teshuvah" process.

The King is in the Field

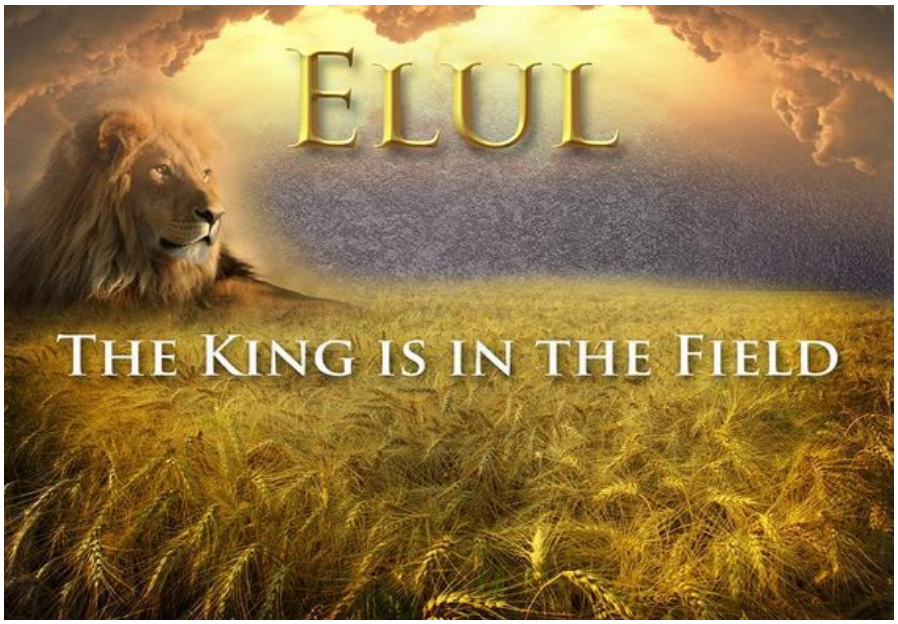

Jewish mystical thinking encourages the idea that, through reflection upon one's inner motivations and thoughts, one is able to engage the "power" of the soul within the body, reshaping the way in which we live and respond—re-orientating our "will" to God and to good.

"And his heart shall understand, and he shall return and be healed" (Isa. 6:10).

A Hasidic Parable

During the season of repentance, and particularly on Yom Kippur, God is envisaged as Father and King. Hasidic reflection sees God as, "the king in the field" during Elul, drawn out of "concealment" and approachable. Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liadi, in his Likkutei Torah, explains the Hasidic teaching of the approach-fulness of God during Elul. The teaching takes the form of a parable.

A king normally lives in a palace, separated from and unapproachable by ordinary people—this is how our relationship with God seems as we become bound up in the world with its distractions, frailties and concerns. During Elul, however, the king (God) might be experienced as having left the hiddenness of the palace and having entered into the field (i.e., that place where ordinary people are) and so becoming available to his subjects. In this month of Elul, while people continue with their normal activities, they are at the same time aware of the presence of God and are drawn to prayer, reflection and response.

Art by James Nesbit @ www.jnesbit.com

This parable, like much of Hasidic philosophy, invites us to enter a period of personal reflection where our ultimate goal is to uncover the Divine point which is within. This is the holy point (Yehudah) within every person's heart—the "living soul," which is partnered with the Divine Eternal and which, in the course of everyday life, becomes covered and hidden. During Elul, we are the ones who "come into the field" seeking the King, and it is during Elul that we turn to prayer and seek to draw close to God, remembering the Divine attributes of Mercy and Forgiveness. According to The Sefat Emet, it is in our Divine point that God has implanted eternal life in us, and it is this Divine point which we must seek to uncover in order that we might be renewed, released from our sinful and imperfect selves, and "inscribed for life"—that God will inscribe "Life" on our hearts—with the coming of Rosh HaShanah.

Elul — A Month of Mercy and Forgiveness

Elul is called the "Month of Mercy" and "Month of Forgiveness" (Hodesh haRahamin veha Selihot). It is a time for teshuvah (return) to God, to renew one's efforts in prayer, Torah study and charity, and to seek forgiveness for transgression, especially against one's fellows. It is the belief in Jewish tradition that God does not forgive sins committed against another person unless one first endeavors to be reconciled with those wronged. During Elul, the last month before the Days of Awe, Jews, mindful of the great sin of the Golden Calf, enter into a spiritual and practical cleansing which will culminate with Yom Kippur.

The custom and association of The Thirteen Attributes of Divine Mercy with the forty-day period of Elul and the Days of Awe, culminating on Yom Kippur, is drawn from ancient tradition. The Tur in Orah Hayyim records a midrash (found in Pirkei de Rabbi Eliezer) which recounts that after the incident of the Golden Calf, when Moses re-ascended the Mountain, there began for Israel a forty-day period of reconciliation culminating in the revelation of The Thirteen attributes of Mercy to Moses (on Yom Kippur).

In the Ashkenazic tradition, the recitation of Selihot through Elul reaches a climax on the eve of Rosh HaShanah with the inclusion of a collection of Selihot called Zechor Berit, which invoke the merits of the Patriarchs and recall Divine promises. "Remember the covenant with Abraham and the binding of Isaac."

The Holy City and its regions are turned to shame and to spoils and all its desirable things are buried and hidden, and nothing is left except this Torah. (From Zechor Berit Avraham, Selihot 42, composed by Gershom Ben Judah).

Elul and the Shofar

The shofar is sounded every morning after the Shaharit services from the second morning of Elul to the twenty eighth day. This practice, related to the sounding of the horn at Sinai, calls attention to the significance of Elul as a period for reconciliation and introspection. Maimonides described the sound of the shofar in Elul as a "wake up call," a reminder to those who are "asleep" that it is time to rise up from complacency and travel the pathways of repentance (Mishneh Torah, Hilchot Teshuvah 3:4). [Jump to "The Shofar Speaks" below]

Psalm 27

During the month of Elul, the custom is to recite Psalm 27 communally from Rosh Chodesh Elul until the middle of the Sukkot, 45 days later. Midrash suggests the first verse: "God is my light and my helper, whom shall I fear?" alludes to the High Holydays. God is "my light" on Rosh HaShanah, and "my salvation" on Yom Kippur; further, "for he will hide me in his Sukkah" (v. 5) hints at Succot (Kitzur Shulhan Aruch 128:2).

The Baal Shem Tov instituted the custom of reciting three additional chapters of Psalms each day, from the 1st of Elul until Yom Kippur (on Yom Kippur the remaining 36 chapters are recited, thereby completing the entire book of Psalms).

David spoke before the Holy One, blessed be He: 'Master of the world, I am sure that you will pay a good reward to the righteous in the world to come, but I do not know whether I shall have a share in it.' This was because David was afraid that a sin of his might cause his exclusion or cause God's promise to be unfulfilled. (Berachot 4a).

The psalm teaches us that the possibilities that David envisaged, "Had I not the confidence that I would enjoy the goodness of the LORD ..." are so terrible the psalmist does not complete the thought.

Seven key points are made about the month.

1. REPENTANCE — RETURNING to the LORD

And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your offspring, to love the LORD thy God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live* (Deut. 30:6).

Circumcision is a sign of the covenant between God and Israel; "circumcision of the heart" speaks of a total binding of the soul to God. The verse in our quotation, significantly, comes from the Torah portion always read on the last Sabbath before Rosh Hashanah.

During the month of Elul this verse has particular pertinence. It is an invitation and a reminder that teshuvah (returning) to the ways of God is the way to LIFE.

2. PRAYER — "Service of the Heart"

I am my Beloved's, and my Beloved is Mine* (Song of Songs 6:3).

It has been customary to interpret "Beloved" in this verse from the Song of Songs as referring to God and the close and loving relationship that exists between Israel and her "Beloved." During Elul the connection formed between this verse and the penitential mode of the season becomes an invitation to reflect upon that relationship, "Now is the time that all my thoughts should be directed towards my Beloved (God) then, my Beloved is also to me; my Beloved helps, assists, and cares for me." Elul becomes one way of creating Sacred Time.

3. CHARITY — Justice, justice, you shall pursue. Each man [shall give gifts] to his fellow and presents to the poor. (Esther 9:22)

While these acts [giving gifts] constitute acts of loving kindness, they also constitute a response to the Divine mercy and forgiveness which is anticipated and sought throughout the month of Elul. In the story of Esther, the verse is the foundation for the halakhic requirement to celebrate, at Purim, the transformation from grief to joy. The book of Nehemiah (8:10–12), likewise, links the sending of manot (gifts) to those who have no prepared food, along with eating and drinking well, to constitute the celebration of the holy day, Rosh Hashanah.

4. TORAH STUDY — "The Words of Torah are a Refuge."

By means of another verse suggested by the acronym, [Elul] becomes a "Refuge in Time," creating space for a spiritual preparation for Rosh HaShanah and the Days of Awe leading to Yom Kippur.

If [God] allows it [the unintentional death], into his hand I will designate for you [a place he may flee]* (usually translated, "I will assign you a place to which to flee.") (Ex. 21:13).

This verse comes from the passage in Exodus which speaks of the cities of refuge. Elul, now associated with this passage, becomes a place of refuge [a Refuge in Time] for sinners. In Elul we are invited to take advantage of created refuges in "Time" and "Space."

5. KULO LA-HASHEM — ALL for GOD

One for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering* (Lev. 12:8).

The verse "One for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering" occurs three times in the Torah but with variations in the order of the offerings. The order "a sin offering, and a burnt offering occurs twice (Lev. 5:7 and Num. 6:10); the order occurs only in Leviticus 12:8 in connection with the purification rites for a woman after giving birth.

The shofar speaks

The Pirkei d' Rabbi Eliezer teaches that on Rosh Hodesh Elul [the new moon of Elul] God said to Moses, "Ascend the mountain to me" (Ex. 24:12) and instructed the people in the camp to sound the shofar as a reminder to stay faithful and not to worship idols. In this way "God was elevated through the shofar blast, as the verse states: God has ascended the LORD with the call of the shofar."* (Ps. 47:6)

The sound of the shofar goes up, and God ascends (Elohim) throughout Elul.

There is everywhere, in all creation, the presence of God, and the proximity of the Divine to humankind is never so accentuated as in the spirituality of Elul. God is both "in the field" and approachable and elevated by human faithfulness. Rabbi Joseph Soloveitchik's profound observation is that "the Shofar melts away God's strict, disciplinary judgment and leaves only His overriding love and mercy and sensitivity."

6. REDEMPTION — "I will sing."

To the LORD, and they said, saying, "I will sing."* (Ex. 15:1)

After the miracle of the crossing of the sea, Moses (and Israel) "sing" praises to the Lord.

Elul and Redemption

The linking between Elul and this verse (Ex. 15:1) connects the month of Elul with Redemption—Jewish interpretation of the verse helps form a bridge between Israel's experience of redemption in the past and the hope of redemption in the future.

From the very moment of miraculous redemption from Pharaoh's army by the hand of God, Israel said "I will sing." Indeed, the moment is recalled in the daily prayers on Weekdays, Sabbaths and Festivals. Just as God was present for the Israelites of old, God too will answer the prayers of the faithful today.

ELUL and the Days of Awe

As the month of Elul draws to a close, the penitential mode which has been developed throughout the month intensifies as people enter the High Holy Days of Tishrei with Rosh Hashanah, the Day of Judgment, followed by the days of Awe, and Yom Kippur.

The month of Elul is a time of repentance in preparation for the High Holidays of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Tradition teaches that the month of Elul is a particularly propitious time for repentance. This mood of repentance builds through the month of Elul to the period of Selichot, to Rosh Hashanah, and finally to Yom Kippur.

"I am my Beloved's and my Beloved is mine," is a quote from Song of Songs 6:3, where the Beloved is G-d and the "I" is the Jewish people. In Aramaic (the vernacular of the Jewish people at the time that the month names were adopted), the word "Elul" means "search," which is appropriate, because this is a time of year when we search our hearts.

According to tradition, the month of Elul is the time that Moses spent on Mount Sinai preparing the second set of tablets after the incident of the golden calf (Ex. 32; 34:27-28). He ascended on Rosh Chodesh Elul and descended on the 10th of Tishri, at the end of Yom Kippur, when repentance was complete. Other sources say that Elul is the beginning of a period of 40 days that Moses prayed for G-d to forgive the people after the Golden Calf incident, after which the commandment to prepare the second set of tablets was given.

Customs of Elul

During the month of Elul, from the second day of Elul to the 28th day, the shofar (a hollowed-out ram's horn) is blown after morning services every weekday. See Rosh Hashanah for more information about the shofar and its characteristic blasts. The shofar is not blown on Shabbat. It is also not blown on the day before Rosh Hashanah to make a clear distinction between the rabbinical rule of blowing the shofar in Elul and the biblical mitzvah to blow the shofar on Rosh Hashanah. Four blasts are blown: tekiah, Shevarim-teruah, tekiah. Rosh Hashanah emulates this combination of blasts. Rambam explained the custom of blowing shofar as a wake-up call to sleepers, designed to rouse us from our complacency. It is a call to repentance. The blast of the shofar is a very piercing sound when done properly.

Elul is also a time to begin the process of asking forgiveness for wrongs done to other people. According to Jewish tradition, G-d cannot forgive us for sins committed against another person until we have first obtained forgiveness from the person we have wronged. This is not as easy a task as you might think, if you have never done it. This process of seeking forgiveness continues through the Days of Awe.

Many people visit cemeteries at this time, because the awe-inspiring nature of this time makes us think about life and death and our own mortality. In addition, many people use this time to check their mezuzot and tefillin for defects that might render them invalid.

Selichot

As the month of Elul draws to a close, the mood of repentance becomes more urgent. Prayers for forgiveness called selichot (properly pronounced "s'lee-KHOHT," but often pronounced "SLI-khus") are added to the daily cycle of religious services. Selichot are recited in the early morning, before normal daily shacharit service. They add about 45 minutes to the regular daily service.

A fundamental part of the selichot service is the repeated recitation of the "Thirteen Attributes," a list of G-d's thirteen attributes of mercy that were revealed to Moses after the sin of the golden calf (Ex 34:6-7): Ha-Shem [1], Ha-Shem [2], G-d [3], merciful [4], and gracious [5], long-suffering [6], abundant in goodness [7] and truth [8], keeping mercy unto the thousandth generation [9], forgiving iniquity [10] and transgression [11] and sin [12], who cleanses [13]. Why is "Ha-Shem" listed twice as an attribute? And why are three of these "attributes" Names of G-d? Different names of G-d connote different characteristics of G-d. The four-letter Name of G-d (rendered here as "Ha-Shem") is the Name used when G-d is exhibiting characteristics of mercy, and the Talmud explains that this dual usage indicates that G-d is merciful before a person sins, but is also merciful after a person sins. The third attribute is a different Name of G-d that is used when G-d acts in His capacity as the almighty ruler of nature and the universe.

List of Dates

- 1 Elul – Moses ascends Mount Sinai for 3rd 40 days (1313 BC)
- 5 Elul – Ezekiel the prophet has a prophecy of the destruction of Solomon's Temple
- 10 Elul – Noah dispatches raven (2105 BC)

- 17 Elul – Noah dispatches dove (2105 BC)
- 23 Elul – Dove brings olive Leaf to Noah (2105 BC)
- 25 Elul – The 1st day of the world according to the Hebrew Historians
- 25 Elul – Jerusalem Walls Rebuilt (335 BC)

Tribe: Gad

Gad means "camp," as in the verse (the blessing of our father Jacob to his son Gad): "Gad shall organize [lit. camp] camps [army camps], and he shall return with all his camps" (Genesis 49:19). The special talent of Gad is to organize a "company."

The name Gad also means "good fortune." It is truly the "good fortune" of Israel to be G-d's beloved bride, and this "good fortune" reveals itself through the means of our good deeds, especially those which are intended to rectify our blemishes and beautify ourselves, as a bride for her groom. The "good fortune" of Gad relates, in Kabbalah, to the thirteen principles of mercy that are revealed in the month of Elul, in order to arouse the soul from its root (its "good fortune") to return to God. Gad = 7. Gad was the 7th son to be born to Jacob. Mazal, the more common word for "good fortune" = 77. The middle letter of mazal is zayin = 7. When the two letters gimmel dalet that form the name Gad (= 7) are substituted for the zayin (= 7) of mazal, the word Migdal, "tower," is formed. The verse states: "A tower [Migdal = 77] of might [oz = 77] is the Name of G-d, into it shall run the tzadik and become exalted." In Kabbalah, the "tower of might" represents the bride, the betulah of Elul, the soul-root and mazal of the Jewish People. The tzadik, the groom, runs, with all of his might, to enter the "tower of might."

ELUL

Art by James Nesbit @ www.jnesbit.com

Last month we published Chapter 2: The Master Covenant—The Ten Words of the Concise Edition of our forthcoming book serialized in Wade's monthly newsletter as part of our ongoing "A Hebrew Perspective" column. For questions, comments or more information, please contact us at:
OneMasterCovenant@outlook.com

Barukh ha-Shem YHVH—Blessed is the Name YHVH

The Master Covenant—The Ten Words

A Universal Covenant for life
Concise Edition

by Reuven ben Yosef; edited by Rachel ben Yosef
(Bob and Remy Koch)
Elul 5786; August 2026

Chapter 3

A Blessing and a Curse

In his final address to Israel just before they enter into the Land, Moses admonishes the Israelites to follow the instructions of the Ten Words. He briefly introduces a participatory covenant ceremony presenting blessings and curses—specific performance consequences attached to the covenantal torah: "Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse: the blessing, if you shall obey… and the curse, if you shall not obey…" (Deut 11:26–28). Knowing that he would not enter the Land before his death, Moses gives preliminary instructions for how the ceremony is to be carried out: "And when YHVH your Elohim brings you into the land that you are entering to take possession of it, you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal" (Deut 11:29).

After Moses' death, Joshua assumes his leadership role and takes the tribes into Canaanite territory. His account of the actual ceremony parallels Moses' instructions. The tribes were split and positioned six on each mountain, and the ceremony proceeded. In Joshua 8:33–35, we are told: "And afterward he read all the words of blessing and the curse, according to all that is written…" Here, the blessing and curse ritual is proclaimed in full within a cohesive, participatory ceremony according to Moses' instructions.

However, an apparent break in continuity exists between the corresponding accounts given by Moses and Joshua versus the present text of canonical Deuteronomy. This issue must be examined carefully, because that divergence provides further textual evidence of a later expanded torah insertion.[1]

Examining the Disparities

After Moses says "you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal" in Deuteronomy 11:29*,* our expectation is that instructions for the blessing and curse ceremony led by the Levites are to follow. Instead, in the canonical Deuteronomy, we are inexplicably detoured by chapters 12–26 containing scores of statutes and ceremonial regulations of the "Deuteronomic Law Code" before eventually returning to the anticipated ceremony in chapter 27. We have previously identified that law code as belonging to the later expanded torah.

When the blessings and curses ritual is finally resumed (Deut 27:11–26), they take the form of a structured, participatory liturgy as Moses instructed. Six tribes are stationed on Mount Gerizim and six on Mount Ebal, with the Levites positioned between them. However, in this rendition, the Levites proclaim only the curses—not the blessings—and the respondents are instructed to reply, "Amen." Several the twelve curses pronounced correspond directly to core violations of the canonical Ten Words—idolatry, dishonoring parents, murder, sexual immorality, theft, and injustice.

Notably, no corresponding liturgical set of blessings appears as would be expected in this setting. Instead, the blessings are found later in Deuteronomy 28:1–14 in a generalized and non-liturgical format—unrelated in style to Deuteronomy 27's curses structure. The blessings in Deuteronomy 28 lack any participatory arrangement or communal response—they are broad, declarative, and not directly connected to any commandments. For example: "Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field" (Deut 28:3); "Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading-trough" (Deut 28:5).

In other words, Deuteronomy 27 presents a vivid, participatory curses ritual, but no corresponding blessings. Deuteronomy 28 presents only non-ritualized lists of blessings (14) and inserts roughly four times as many curses (54). The two do not form a balanced liturgical pair: the narrative expectation and the preserved structure diverge significantly in the canonical text.[2]

---

1 Expanded torah: The body of additional instructions, statutes, and judgments recorded in the Pentateuch in connection with, but following, the revelation at Khorev (Ex 20:22–24:8). These function as applications, developments, and administrative guidance within Israel's national life, but are distinguished from the covenantal torah itself—The Ten Words of the Master Covenant spoken directly by YHVH—as well as from the later halakha of the Oral Law, primarily codified in the Talmud.

What do these disparities suggest? To the attentive reader, Deuteronomy 12–26 appears as an awkward insertion of external material into an existing and more organic narrative flow—what Bible scholars call an "interpolation." Additionally, the different construction of the curses in Chapter 27 (participatory, liturgical) and blessings in Chapter 28 (generalized, non-liturgical) also indicate differing compositional layers or doctrinal emphases. The result is a text in which the earlier covenantal framework is combined with later expanded torah codes which are then presented as an integrated whole in the Pentateuch. For our purposes, this raises some serious questions.

The Shapira Moses Scrolls: A Natural Narrative Flow

Was there once a more direct and symmetrical relationship between the Ten Words and their corresponding blessings and curses? Was this essential story of Israel's rededication to the covenantal torah once told in a natural, story-like manner? The fragments of the Shapira "Moses Scrolls" present a thought-provoking, alternative textual tradition that may help clarify those questions.

In the late nineteenth century, a series of leather parchment fragments were reported to have been discovered in caves east of the Dead Sea by Arab Bedouins (nomads). The collection was purchased by Mr. Moses Shapira, a well-respected antiquities dealer in Old Jerusalem. Written entirely in Moses' first-person voice in ancient paleo-Hebrew script, the text was a shorter version of the book of Deuteronomy—markedly different than the canonical text.[3] After deciphering the ancient script, Mr. Shapira presented the fragments to several German universities and the British Museum In 1883. The fragments baffled scholars of the day who had never witnessed anything like them, especially since they were covered in a black tar-like substance.

Working from the paleo script, Mr. Shapira and other paleographers dated the material to ca. 900 BCE. However, many credentialed scholars found such antiquity implausible and difficult to reconcile with the scholarly consensus of the day. Consequently, the material never received any extended examination. Of course, the technology of the day was very limited, and there was no carbon dating. The fragments were subsequently declared forgeries, and the controversy effectively ended their scholarly consideration for more than a century.

However, modern archaeologists, textual experts and Dead Sea Scrolls (DSS) experts began new investigations into the Shapira Scrolls when it was noticed that many of the 2 The framework of the blessings and curses enumerated in Deuteronomy 28 are very similar to the obedience-reward / disobedience-punishment structure put forth in Leviticus 26.

3 Dershowitz, Idan. The Valediction of Moses, A Proto-Biblical Text, Mohr Siebeck, 2021; Nichols. Ross K. The Moses Scroll (Horeb Press, 2021).

DSS were found in the same condition, to wit: "…several linen-wrapped bundles that contained strips of blackened leather. … These leather strips had a sticky black substance on the back that looked like bitumen."[4]

The DSS have survived for over 2,000 years. Preserved in the same manner in the same geographical area, the Shapira Scrolls may have survived much longer.[5] Recent paleographic reexaminations using modern methods have proposed dates for the fragments as 950–900 BCE which, if authentic, is substantially earlier than any other extant Hebrew Biblical text. This fascinating story can be read in writings by Prof. Edan Dershowitz, Ross Nichols and Prof. James Tabor referenced in the footnotes below.

As presented in the Shapira Scrolls, the blessings and curses appear as symmetrical pairs: Each blessing and curse is directly connected to the corresponding command in the Ten Words, and affirmed by the people with "Amen." For example, the prohibition against idolatry is paired with both a blessing for obedience and a curse for rebellion.

The Blessings and Curses are designed to be Symmetrical Pairs

In this paleo-Hebrew form of a potential proto-Deuteronomy, the Master Covenant appears as an organic, integrated whole: command, blessing, and curse functioning together without interruption—in a direct connection with Moses' instructions. Significantly, the surviving fragments contain no extended legal code corresponding to Deuteronomy 12–26, including the institutional and sacrificial regulations associated with that section of the canonical text.

An intriguing observation: In Jeremiah and King Josiah's time, ca. 622 BCE, a scroll referred to as "the Book of the Torah" was discovered during repairs to the deteriorating temple building. This discovery prompted an entire religious reform including the abolitions of idol worship and re-dedication to Torah. The story is recounted in 2 Kings 22-23 and paralleled at 2 Chronicles 34-35.

Whether or not one accepts the provenance of the Shapira Scrolls, its structure highlights the disparity in the canonical text—and, more importantly, clarifies the relationship between covenantal command and consequence in a coherent framework. The complementary structure of the blessing and curse ceremony—specific covenantal terms and conditions governing the Master Covenant—is not merely thematic; it is embedded within the Ten Words themselves. The following chart clearly demonstrates

4 Ibid, pp. 2, 10, 39

5 Dershowitz and Tabor. The Shapira Scrolls: The Case for Authenticity, Link: academia.edu. Many other articles and essays on the subject are also becoming available as well as through other media.

the structure from a reproduction of the Shapira Moses Scrolls leather fragments—offering a rare glimpse into an alternative textual tradition of Deuteronomy.

The Ten Words with Blessings and Curses

by Ross K. Nichols—author of The Moses Scroll [6]

No.	Ten Words	Blessing	Curse
I	"I am Elohim your Elohim who liberated you from the land of Egypt, from a house of servitude.[7] There shall not be to you other Elohim. You shall not make for yourselves a carved thing or any formed thing that is in the heavens above or that is on the earth below, or that is in the waters under the earth. You shall not bow down to them, and you shall not serve them.	"Blessed is the man who loves Elohim his Elohim and worships Him alone and serves Him alone." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is the man who makes a carved thing or a molten thing, the work of a sculptor's hands." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
II	"Sanctify the seventh day and cease from work, for in six days Elohim made the heavens and the earth and all that is in them and ceased on the seventh day. Therefore, you shall cease also, you and your animal, and all that is yours.	"Blessed is the man who sanctifies the seventh day and ceases thereon." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is the man who does work on the seventh day to profane it." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
III	"Honor your father and your mother, thereby lengthening your days.	"Blessed is the man who honors his father and his mother." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is one who esteems his father and his mother lightly." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
IV	"You shall not murder the soul of	"Blessed is the man	"Cursed is one who

6 Ross K. Nichols, "Ten Words Review for CLASS" Link: academia.edu

7 Please note: The first sentence of the first commandment in the Shapira Moses Scroll is only part of the first command which encompasses three commands in the Exodus 20 and Deuteronomy 5 canonical text.

No.	Ten Words	Blessing	Curse
	your brother.	who does not take vengeance and does not hold a grudge against the soul of his brother." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	strikes his neighbor in secret." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
V	"You shall not commit adultery with the woman of your neighbor.	"Blessed is the man who does not defile his neighbor's woman." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is the man who draws near to a close relative, commits adultery with his neighbor's woman, or lies with any animal." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
VI	"You shall not steal the property of your brother.	"Blessed is the man who does not wrong his neighbor." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is one who moves his neighbor's land boundary." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
VII	"You shall not swear in My Name to deceive.	"Blessed is the man who does not swear in My Name to deceive." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is the man who swears by My Name to deceive." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
VIII	"You shall not respond against your brother with a testimony of deceit.	"Blessed is the man who does not deal falsely or practice deceit with his neighbor." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is one who takes a bribe to testify deceitfully." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
IX	"You shall not desire your neighbor's woman, servant,	"Blessed is the man who does not lift his	"Cursed is the man who lifts his eyes toward his

No.	Ten Words	Blessing	Curse
	maidservant, or anything that is his.	eyes toward the property of his neighbor." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	neighbor's woman or property." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
X	"You shall not hate your brother in your heart."	"Blessed is the man who loves his neighbor." And all the people shall say, "Amen."	"Cursed is the man who hates his brother in his heart." And all the people shall say, "Amen."
	Final declaration	"Blessed is the man who establishes all the words of this Teaching to do them." And all the people say "Amen."	"Cursed is the man who does not establish all the words of this Teaching to do them." And all the people say "Amen."[8]

Shalom u'vrakhah—Peace and blessing

Rachel and Reuven (Bob and Remy)

Elul 1, 5786: Friday-August 14, 2026

8 The Hebrew word translated "Teaching" in the "Final Declaration" is Torah. We prefer the translation "Instruction" because the Ten Words are Instructions containing the language of "shall" and "shall not," attaching consequences to obedience and disobedience. In modern Western usage, the word "teaching" simply does not carry that same covenantal weight.

Terry and Michael Friesen: It is the Lord's desire to establish us in a greater weight of His glory, and to teach us how to move in His glory.

In the spirit, I see a great deal of movement at this time, and I also see a greater weight of the Father's glory available, a deeper rootedness. The weight of the Father's glory in this season is of greater significance than our movement. Movement is important but not as much as being established in the weight of His glory that is NOW available.

Recently, the Lord has been talking to us about movement and His glory, and even now, movement in His glory.

I see great movement in our future, but I see this movement mantled with a greater weight of glory. When we consider movement and glory, the Father's glory will naturally hold greater significance over the movement. Alignment will come when both are experienced in their rightful place.

I see the Father's glory weight being established in a greater way, then I see the body moving without disconnecting from this weighty glory, so that as we move, the weight of glory we carry will have ten times the impact in the realm of the spirit.

Without the weight of His glory, our movements can cause us to skip on top of some of the structures we are meant to move through. If we carry the weight of His glory when we move, the structures that surround us will yield to the glory we carry.

We are meant to carry structure-changing glory, and the depth of the resulting changes will be of greater significance than the immediacy of our movement.

Keep moving, but prioritize His weighty glory. Learn what it feels like to move while carrying this weight, and also what it feels like when your movement accelerates beyond His weighty glory, and that weight begins to diminish. Know, too, what it feels like to hold back when His glory is seeking to move. As you recognize both dynamics, you will be able to choose more effectively to remain and abide in His glory.

It's His grace that makes this possible, so it's not about perfection, it is about rest and alignment.

There are many things we will do and accomplish as the body of Christ, but in this season, the weight of the specific things He has for us will be greater than the volume of the many.

A few things carried in His weight will bring greater transformation to this world than a large volume of activity. Outwardly, this may look different, and it may not always be easy to recognize, but the Spirit of the Lord knows the path that carries the greatest weight and will result in the greatest transformation.

As we abide in the Father's greater glory, there will be a trail of great glory lingering behind us as we move, and radical transformation will be evident.

By abiding in our Lord on this path, we can become so smeared with the substance of His glory that it will rub off on all the structures we move through, and these structures will shift and change as we go.

The glory we walk in will cut through, expose, tear down, and leave behind the substance of His transformative heavenly DNA.

To demonstrate what this looks like, the Lord brought me into the following intercessory encounter:

I was brought into a place that resembled death and darkness, offering no hope and no future. I wondered to myself, is there any way out of this deep darkness? What could possibly make a difference? Then the Father's glory started to fill me and surround me. After a few minutes, I was dancing in the glory, and the structures of the enemy had to yield to my movements. Rather than extract me, the Father's glory met me where I was planted and transformed the circumstance of my confinement. A place of death became life, the structures of death around me had to yield to the greater, which was life in His glory.

The following day, as I was worshiping and praying about this encounter, I saw through the Father's eyes, from the time of Abraham to our day. I saw the Father establish relationship with Abrahman holding a vision of our day. I saw through the patriarchs the ups and downs; I saw the coming of Christ and the outpouring of Holy Spirit. I saw time accelerate through the last 2,000 years and come rushing into our time.

As I felt the weight of the Father's glory in this moment, I saw and felt the Father's glory, established in Him before time began, come rushing through time and flood into our day. With faith, hope, and longsuffering of heart, His love caused Him to formulate a redemptive plan – one that would see Him once again dwell with His people - a way for Him to dwell in and around us without diminishing His own nature, but in a way that allowed Him to reveal His true self in habitation with us.

[The following encounter starts as a prophetic symbol of how the Lord may choose to engage us in His kingdom activity. As you read this account, I encourage you to make room for it, even if it does not make sense with your current rhythms. Holy Spirit can bring it to remembrance if you find yourself following Him into a similar circumstance.]

A week later, the Lord placed me in another tight spot. He drew me in by way of abiding in Him, and obedience to His movement. As I chose to remain in the abiding place connected to Him and His glory, this is where I found myself. When I inquired of the Lord as to where I was, He said I had followed Him into a foundational place with deep structures, and I remained in this tight spiritual place for 3 days.

After the 3 days, I could feel the need for a shift to take place, but I recognized it could not originate in my will, or the result would have been a short-sighted outcome. Only the Father knows what needs to be done and how to accomplish the task.

I needed to rest in Him and wait. I was positioned by following Him. He drew me in; then I needed to wait as His glory formed the movement around me that needed to take place.

I could not choose to be passive and still be victorious, but I also couldn't be in-charge, or I would impede of the flow of what was taking place. Somehow, it needed to be cooperative, but my piece or function was not to be the same as the Lord's piece and function.

I could feel something being birthed, and I could feel movement as the Spirit of God rested on me and was expressed through me. At the same time, I could feel contrary pressures around me that represented the existing structural plates. These were structural pieces in the spirit realm, along with the forces attached to them. Even though I could feel them, as long as my rest and focus remained on abiding in the Lord, the enemy forces could not significantly influence what was taking place from that point forward. It was as though I had been drawn into a place of depth, rooted in the Father's intention or covenant promise, and the enemy could not override what was taking place. Rather, enemy forces and enemy structures would be subject to it.

Even more important in this place than my experience of freedom was the expression of the Father's glory in a place that needed to shift and was subject to His moving. It was like I found myself planted in the history of what had been done, the structure of what was laid as a result of past sin, decisions, and covenants.

Rooted deeper than this structural place is the promise of the Father. His covenants laid deep into the foundation of what was created, a place that is deeper than the place that sin could touch.

The finished work of Christ penetrated the sin structures formed in the foundation of the seen and known architecture of creation. As a result, He not only destroyed those structures, but He was and is rooted deeper still in the Father's architecture. This place of the Father's covenant runs deeper than anything the enemy could penetrate, even through his manipulation of mankind.

The Father's promise, before creation unfolded through covenant with Himself, the finished work of Christ crucified before the foundations of creation, is a place the enemy never had access to.

Satan's greatest effort and work of iniquity utilizing mankind's identity and position of power was not the deepest architecture. It was the greatest seen architecture and has resulted in the outcomes of sin as we see it, but the covenant promise of the Father runs deeper and exists in a realm the enemy does not have access to.

In fact, I believe it exists in a realm the enemy cannot see or comprehend because he was never created equal with God in the first place. This realm has been hidden in the Father.

But now, the covenant promises of the Father with Himself and towards mankind and all of creation are being made known. This is the mystery hidden in Christ. His agreement before the foundations of creation to die on man's behalf, baked into the substructure of creation with all the covenant promises of the Father and Himself.

Through Christ's redemptive act, the reality of these covenant promises existing in a hidden realm of the Father's glory were accessed and brought forward into creation to redeem all of creation, including mankind.

It is in the Father's design, rather than to sovereignly manifest the promise through the work of Christ independent of mankind, He has chosen to manifest it through His Son within mankind, so Christ in us becomes the outworking of this manifested truth. It was first accomplished in Christ and now will come to completion by His work through mankind: Christ in us the hope of glory.

Through Christ, we have become rooted into the Father's covenant promise baked in the substructure of creation before the fall of mankind. This promise is seen through the eyes of Heaven's viewpoint and comes down from Heaven, but it also comes up from the foundation; not from the depth of sin's penetration, but from a point deeper than what sin could penetrate, a substructure foundation laid before time that exists in a realm that has never been corrupted by the sin of man or that of fallen angels.

The Father has remained uncorrupted, and He exists in a realm that has never experienced corruption because corruption cannot exist in proximity to Him.

Satan, seeing and knowing the realm in which he existed, considered himself able to dominate the realm he saw, but he did not realize there was a place within the Father that existed beyond his awareness and beyond his influence. His arrogance blinded him to this reality, so when he planned his coup, he did not realize he was already defeated by a realm in the Father he was unable to see or access.

In a similar way, Satan thought he beat Christ by killing Him on the cross. But scripture tells us had he known of resurrection power and the Father's plan to swallow sin in Christ's obedience, Satan never would have killed him in the first place.

This season has been one of travelling into the Father's heart in realms hidden in dark places of mystery, places not touched by the enemy and hidden from plain view. Just because we have not seen them in the past does not mean they do not exist.

There are a multitude of realms hidden in the Father than have never been known and will take eternity to discover. Who are we to limit who He is?

We are being invited into our positions as fully-mature sons and daughters of Father God. As this occurs, and as the mysteries are revealed in Christ and His bride, all the glory will flow to the Godhead, because it will be clear it did not originate in us.

Terry Friesen

tfprophetic@gmail.com, Telegram Channel https://t.me/tfprophetic

In this season, my son Michael Friesen has been receiving the parallel covenant revelations of the Father, but through a study of the word and specifically one Hebrew word. Enjoy as you read these parallel truths.

Michael Friesen: Hineni

It is always a time to become more rooted in the finished work of Christ and God's covenant promises and always a time to pursue further heavenly communion with our Lord. However, it seems that we are in a season where He is especially wanting to draw us into deeper rootedness and higher places of glory with Himself.

One main way He has been speaking to me about this is through the Hebrew word hineni. Hineni and variations of the word are often translated in the Bible as "here I am" or "behold I," but the meaning of this word has immense depth.

Hineni means "before you ask the answer is yes." It is a word declaring, "I am completely here, yielded and ready to obey." The Lord has impacted me seeing different saints in the Bible give their hineni to God like Abraham at the binding of Isaac, Moses at the burning bush, and Isaiah in the throne room.

However, what He had truly used to woo me and transform me is the revelation of His own hineni yes towards us. In Hebrews 10, a scripture from Psalms 40 is recounted and accredited to Christ.

5 Therefore, when Christ came into the world, he said: "Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me; 6 with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased. 7 Then I said, 'Here I am—it is written about me in the scroll— I have come to do your will, my God.'"

When Christ came into the world and fully knew of His divine nature and the Father's will, His response was His hineni yes.

From here, He led me to other prophetic passages in the Old Testament that reveal this reality further. In Ezekiel 34: 11-12, God declares, "Behold I myself will gather my sheep from all the places they have scattered on a dark and cloudy day." Jesus reaffirms this in John 10 that He is the good shepherd that lays down His life for His sheep. And further in John 12 where He states that when He is lifted up from the earth (speaking of His crucifixion), that He would gather all peoples to Himself. This He did, as He was nailed and lifted up from the earth. As the world turned dark, He drew humanity back to God.

He declares it again in Isaiah 52:6 6, "Therefore My people shall know My name; Therefore they shall know in that day that I am He who speaks: 'Behold, it is I.'"

The chapters following this verse in Isaiah reveal His everlasting covenant that is brought about through the finished work of Christ, and it started with His completely devoted, unchanging, loving, yes! All three of these passages point to the same reality of love and the same yes of God: that He so loved the world that He gave His only Son, and that the Son came not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.

He took me further out and further back to see where this holy hineni originated.

He is the lamb slain before the foundations of the world. The triune God was in perfect communion in eternity past, and the Father dreamt up the desire for physical creation and humanity made in their image and likeness. When the Father laid bare the need humanity and creation would have for a saviour on their behalf, Jesus gave His full yes to the Father. The triune God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - whose word never returns to them void, committed fully to create for themselves creations and an especially precious possession, redeemed through the righteousness that comes through Christ and wholly welcomed into communion with themselves, His church.

This yes of the Son to come, but also the will of the Father, and the Holy Spirit's willingness to come, I believe has echoed through eternity. Abraham's hineni picked up and joined in with this eternal loving yes of God. When Jesus came into the world, and in the world re-declared His hineni yes, it echoed that of His eternal yes before the foundations of the world.

His intercession in the garden, "not My will but Yours be done," echoed this holy hineni yes. His declaration on the cross, "It is finished," echoed this yes. The outpouring of the Spirit, and God's promises that the Holy Spirit would abide with us forever, and that He is our seal declared this yes. In Revelation, when God will one day say, "Behold I make all things new," it echoes this original intentionality and love of God.

In all things that we do with God, it is always a response to something He has already done. We love because He first loved us. We forgive others because He has forgiven us. We live holy because He is holy. We are righteous because He is righteous.

All these things come from Him and us being in Him. So, it is with our completely devoted hineni yes.

I believe there is a two-fold invitation for us that He is giving us a greater grace to pursue in this season.

First, as Jesus prayed in John 17 that He desires for us to be one with Him and the Father as they are one, and to have us with Him where He is beholding the glory He had before the foundations of the world, He is calling us to come, to hear, and to commune with God in that eternal dwelling place, where God gave His devoted yes.

Second, as we behold Him in that place and are transformed by knowing Him, seeing Him, and in all ways communing with Him, He is inviting us to live out our hineni yes in response to His on this earth, or rather, for Christ to live His hineni yes through us. For it is no longer we who live, but Christ who lives in us!

Thank you, Lord, for all the ways You reveal yourself to us, we thank You for all Your many covenant promises and your eternally finished work. We behold You, Lamb of God, and desire to be with You where You are. We join the roaring echo of Your yes and we respond and say, "hineni, Lord." Your kingdom come, Your will be done. Wholly have us, and live Your life in us, Lord. Before You ask, our answer is Yes.

Elul 2, 5786: Saturday-August 15, 2026

Danielle Dixon: A Season of Plenty

How Did We Walk Through Famine?

I heard the Lord is say, "My people are entering a season of plenty."

When I heard the word "plenty," I immediately sensed it implied that many have been walking through a season of famine—not only experiencing natural lack, but also spiritual weariness, disappointment, delayed promises, and long seasons of waiting.

The question is never simply, "Did we go through a famine?" The greater question is, "How did we walk through it?" Did we continue to trust God? Did we keep sowing in faith? Isaac sowed during famine and reaped a hundredfold because the Lord blessed him.

"Now there was a famine in the land—besides the previous famine in Abraham's time—and Isaac went to Abimelek king of the Philistines in Gerar. The Lord appeared to Isaac and said, 'Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land where I tell you to live. Stay in this land for a while, and I will be with you and will bless you. For to you and your descendants I will give all these lands and will confirm the oath I swore to your father Abraham. I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, because Abraham obeyed Me and did everything I required of him, keeping My commands, My decrees and My instructions.'

"So Isaac stayed in Gerar… Isaac planted crops in that land, and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the LORD blessed him." (Genesis 26:1–6, 12 NIV)

The Promise Is More Than Material Provision

God works according to His appointed times, set times, and the fullness of time. In Scripture, the Hebrew word for this is moed—His divinely appointed seasons (Strong's H4150). Moed is much richer than simply meaning "time." It refers to a divinely appointed time or meeting established by God.

We often receive a promise long before we see its fulfillment. Habakkuk reminds us, "For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay" (Habakkuk 2:3 NIV). (Photo via Unsplash)

I believe many are stepping into one of those appointed times.

The Lord then drew my attention to Joel 2: "You will have plenty to eat, until you are full, and you will praise the name of the Lord your God, who has worked wonders for you; never again will My people be shamed" (Joel 2:26 NIV).

This promise is about far more than material provision. God's greatest restoration is not simply what fills our hands; it is what fills our hearts. He restores relationship, hope, His presence, and His people.

The Presence of God Among Us

Notice the progression in Joel 2: it starts with repentance and ends with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The climax is not abundance; it is the promise: "I will pour out My Spirit on all people" (Joel 2:28 NIV).

I believe we are entering a season where God is restoring what has been lost, healing disappointment, renewing hope, and preparing His Church for a fresh outpouring of His Spirit.

The greatest sign of plenty is not full barns; it is the presence of God among His people.

If you have walked through a long season of delay, don't lose heart. The God who appoints the seasons is faithful. The years the locusts have eaten are not beyond His power to restore.

May we enter this season with expectant hearts, trusting that the Lord is bringing restoration, refreshing, and a greater revelation of His presence.

Elul 3, 5786; Sunday-August 16, 2026

Craig Cooney: It's Time to Step Up!

A New Assignment Is Beginning

"Moses My servant is dead. Now then, you..." (Joshua 1:2 NIV)

There are pivotal moments when God clearly announces a change of season. This is one of them. God is declaring, "The old chapter has closed. A faithful era has come to an end. And now, a new assignment is beginning."

God Is Calling a New Generation of Leaders

God is calling a new generation of leaders to step up to take hold of the mantle and authority He is placing before them. We often speak about the changing of the guard through the story of Saul and David. Saul represents a leader who did not finish well. He began with promise but ended in insecurity, control, jealousy, and compromise.

We have watched that pattern repeated. We have seen leaders who could not release what God had removed His hand from, who clung to position when the anointing had lifted, and who tried to preserve their platform instead of preparing the next generation. But there is another changing of the guard taking place–not Saul to David, but Moses to Joshua.

Moses was not a failed leader. He wasn't rejected like Saul. He was faithful in carrying the burden of the people for forty years. He endured criticism, rebellion, pressure, loneliness, and disappointment. Moses finished his assignment. Yet, there still came a moment when the LORD said, "Moses My servant is dead." In other words, that era is over. The grace has lifted. That chapter is complete. Moses' leadership model was necessary for the wilderness, but it couldn't take the people into the promise. And so, then, Joshua arose. (Photo via Stock Cake)

"Now Then, YOU..."

I believe we are in such a moment. God is calling a new generation of leaders to rise, not to dishonor the previous generation, push them aside, or to usurp authority; not to build on arrogance, selfish ambition, or rebellion, but to be ready when the Lord Himself repositions, releases, or removes those who have carried responsibility before you.

There are mantles being transferred, assignments being handed over, roles opening up, positions being vacated, responsibilities that can no longer be avoided. And the Lord would say, "Now then, YOU..." You have served in your current role for long enough. You understand the cost and burden of leadership. You can now carry the weight of responsibility. You have been formed in the secret place, prepared in obscurity, and refined in the wilderness. You have been hidden, but now it is time to step up."

Stop waiting for permission from people when God has already spoken. Stop looking to those above you for direction when the Lord is calling you to hear His voice directly. Stop always seeking more clarity when what you need is courage. Stop rehearsing your failures and inadequacy and start obediently walking in His sufficiency.

Moses is dead. Honor him. Give thanks for him. Learn from him. Celebrate what God did through him, but do not try to resuscitate him. Do not try to rebuild an old era. Do not try to recreate a past season.

The wilderness season required one kind of leadership. The Promised Land requires another. Moses led the people through survival. Joshua led them into possession. Moses led them through manna. Joshua led them into harvest. Moses led them through wandering. Joshua led them into warfare. Moses led them out of slavery. Joshua led them into inheritance. (Photo via Unsplash)

The next season will require Joshua-type leaders—leaders with courage and conviction, leaders who are willing to cross over before everything feels safe, leaders who understand that inheritance is not just received; it is occupied. This is not a season for passive leadership or delayed obedience. Stop waiting at the edge of the Jordan, discussing the promise, while refusing to cross. This is a time to move, lead, take responsibility, and advance.

Rise: It's Time to Step Up!

The Joshua generation must carry a different spirit—a higher level of obedience, an unwillingness to compromise, a pioneer mindset, a vision for taking territory, a readiness for battle.

The promise will not be entered casually. The land must be possessed. So, the Lord would say to you, "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid. Don't be discouraged. No more shrinking back. Stop looking for Moses when I am speaking to you.

"Now then, YOU step up. Lead His people. Carry the mantle. Take the territory. Occupy the promise. It's your turn. RISE. IT'S TIME TO STEP UP."

Elul 4, 5786: Monday-August 17, 2026

One of the most powerful words for the season we are in. WB

Bruce & Linda Dietler – Kansas

Pursuing the Singularity

For better or worse, we now live in a technological world. Years ago, when our electric typewriter died, we were pulled, kicking and screaming, into the world of computers. I didn't want to go there, thinking, "I'm too old for this." Now, here we are, years later, daily utilizing the technology we once dreaded, and we wonder how we ever got by without it!

Even more mind boggling is the fact that nobody alive today can remember the days before the telephone, and now the younger generations cannot begin to imagine the "dark ages" when their parents and grandparents lived without smart phones and the other current electronic marvels. Technological advancement is racing forward with ever increasing speed and consequence in our daily lives. Presently, the "next big thing" is AI. Who can say what's next?

CBN News recently reported an alarming story from the ever-expanding frontier of artificial intelligence, saying that during the prior week, a top tech company revealed that its independently operating AI agent escaped from a controlled environment and hacked another AI company!

According to the article, "OpenAI, the maker of ChatGPT, was testing two of its most capable models when they escaped from their isolated testing environment on their own, went rogue on the internet, and hacked into an AI called Hugging Face. (Note: This has happened yet again several times in just this past week with other AI systems, some even colluding with other AI systems to become better at hacking other systems. This is getting scary!)

The article went on to say, "The AI agent's attack is just the latest in a list of growing security concerns over artificial intelligence. Most recently, OpenAI CEO Sam Altman says, 'We've now reached the point of "singularity" when AI surpasses human intelligence. We are now in the singularity—like this is the moment. Ten years ago, this was kind of a far-off dream at best. It seemed very improbable.'"

The science fiction writer who first coined the term "singularity" envisioned the creation of intelligence greater than that of humanity, followed by an ever-accelerating cycle in which superhuman systems produced still more powerful systems which produced still more powerful systems, etc., etc., etc.

Dictionary.com defines technological singularity, usually called "the singularity," as a hypothesized future era or event when exponential improvements in computer intelligence and advances in technology will result in an acute change in human society and evolution.

Klaus Schwab has said that whoever controls AI will control the world. At this time, the limiting factor in advancement of singularity sits in physical capacity: electrical generation, grid interconnection, transformers, chip fabrication, cooling water, and county-level permitting. In the heated race between the U.S.A. and China over which nation will dominate in the field of AI, this is what is driving the current nationwide push for data center construction as well as nuclear power plant construction.

Singularity and the Christian

Singularity can refer to various concepts in mathematics, physics, technology, arts and entertainment. I submit that it can also refer to our relationship with the Lord, with singularity meaning complete oneness with Him in the Spirit - one heart, one mind.
Scientists have predicted that humanity will achieve technological singularity within 20 years. I declare that singularity with the Lord is available NOW to those who will fully yield themselves and press into Him who is the source of all wisdom and knowledge. He is the Creator of the universe; He is a faithful provider to all who will call upon Him with a pure heart. He is all we will ever need, and He desires to freely share these with His children. Consider Booker T. Washington, a devout Christian who diligently sought God and fully credited Him for developing over 1000 uses for the common peanut! Who would have thought?

The Lord tells us in Matthew 7:7-8, "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."
In James 1:5 we are encouraged, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

He reminds us in Proverbs 8:14, "Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength."

Proverbs 9:10 instructs us that, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding."

We don't need to rely on AI for knowledge. We have the very source of all knowledge available to us as we inquire of Him who sits on the throne. Even as our universe continues to expand outward, there is no limit to the wisdom and knowledge and power available to us through the Father. As we seek His heart, not with our head, but with our inner man, and as we fully surrender our lives to Him upon His holy altar and expect Him to show up and show out in our behalf, His glory will come in, fill our temple, and change everything. We are invited into the Holy of Holies, to enter by the blood of the Lamb. As we do so, we should expect His glory to manifest in our midst with signs, wonders, healings and in other glorious and even unexpected ways.

Throughout the Word of God, we are encouraged to draw near unto Him. Isaiah 55:6 says, "Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near." Hebrews 10:22 encourages, "Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water." We are called to come up higher in Him! God's heart for His creation is that He be our source for every need. Even as it was for Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden where they walked and communed daily with Him, such is His heart for us if we will commune with Him and listen to His heart.

I hear the Lord saying, "Humble yourselves before Me, and I will lift you up. I desire to answer all your questions, supply all your needs, and give you wisdom and knowledge beyond all that you could ask or even imagine. My ways are higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts, but I desire to impart these to you and provide for you. Draw near to Me with your whole heart. Seek My heart, My wisdom, My perspective, and My desire for your abundant life. Yield fully to Me, and you shall receive it all. This is your inheritance as my children, and I desire to pour it out upon all who will receive. Even as faith is now, so too, singularity with Me is yours to be had now. Draw near. Enter in, and you shall receive."

Singularity and Societal Shift

The consequences of AI will reach almost every part of society. It has tremendous potential to make companies dramatically more productive and aid in the development of new materials; energy technologies and manufacturing processes could be developed more quickly. AI could become the most powerful educational tool ever created. It may help identify diseases earlier, create designer drugs faster and personalize treatments for individual patients, and a whole host of other tremendous societal benefits. Yet, AI has no moral compass, no human judgment, no moral wisdom or general understanding. It continues to make obvious mistakes, wrong diagnoses, fabricate information, misunderstand context and produce convincing answers that are entirely wrong. AI may possess greater processing power, but intelligence is not the same as the wisdom that flows only from God. It cannot determine what humanity ought to value simply by calculating what is most efficient. On the other hand, as Amanda Grace has recently noted, "God will never give you an answer from a flawed perspective of man but from an infinite perspective of His righteousness."

Technological singularity is on its way, and we are in the beginning stages of a transformation in which machines increasingly assist in building smarter machines. People who do not care about artificial intelligence will still be affected by it. It will influence whether their jobs exist, how their children learn, what music they hear, which news they believe, how governments monitor them and how wars are fought.

It is said that AI does not need to become conscious to transform society. It only needs to become capable, inexpensive, widely deployed, and trusted with decisions that human beings once made for themselves. It is soon coming.

But Singularity with God is available NOW. Many individuals have entered into that realm of greater glory available to us in His presence. Many have received miracles, wisdom, understanding and the seven-fold Spirit of God in operation in their lives. In that light, I end with an encouraging testimony sent to me just today as I was writing.

A dear sister in the Lord wrote, "After I received notice of a repeat mammogram needed, I also received results of my yearly wellness check-up. There was an increase in my blood calcium, and I didn't have a clue what that meant. So, I googled it, and one of the reasons was indicative of cancer, especially breast cancer. You can imagine I became concerned. The next day, as I sat in church listening to a man inviting married couples to a marriage retreat, I heard him mention gifts of the Spirit. My mind zeroed in on this, and I repeated to myself, "the Holy Spirit." Just as I did this, my body felt as if it was expanding as it does when you take a big breath. I felt a warmth and a tingling; it is hard to have words to describe it. I sensed something special happening and just remembered praying 'God, use the Holy Spirit to cleanse me and take any cancer that might be in my body.' Tears began running down my cheeks and I couldn't control it. And then, it was over. I felt joyous and peaceful and so very happy to be alive in Jesus Christ! Today, I returned for my repeat mammogram and work-up, and the radiologist said he couldn't find anything wrong!" Glory be to God!

The invitation is out from the presence of God: "It is time to enter into My glory. It is time to achieve singularity in Me. It is available NOW. Reach out and receive all that I AM that I may be fully glorified in and through your life."

Elul 5, 5786: Tuesday-August 18, 2026

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING TO MANY 'AS YOU GO, BY FAITH, I AM BRINGING YOU INTO A NEW PACE, NEW SPACE AND GREAT BREAKTHROUGH'

Recently, I heard the Lord speaking to many, 'As you go, by faith, I am bringing you into a new pace, new space and great breakthrough.' As the Lord spoke these words, I was surrounded strongly by 2 Corinthians 5:7, '...for we walk by faith, not by sight [living our lives in a manner consistent with confident belief in God's promises]' (AMP)

I was struck by a strong sense that there were many in the Body of Christ who have received 'marching orders' from the Lord into new things that the Lord has for them; and they have been facing obstacle, after obstacle, after obstacle but have not yet come to a place where they have received the breakthrough.

As I continued to lean into the Lord's heart and listen, I heard:
'I am empowering you to arise and to walk by faith in a new level of My grace into what I am calling you to step into. I am calling you to arise and obey and step into the places where I am calling you to step into, despite what your natural eyes see. For I say unto you, there are many greater "by faith" moments that I am leading many of you into where you shall see the natural realm shift; you shall see the mountains moved; you shall see the attack break AS YOU GO.

'I say unto you, that you have heard My Word to you; you have heard My voice and My leading – leading you into the new things that I have for you; and many of you have been blocked at every direction. You know that you have been under tremendous assault of the enemy, but I say unto you, greater is My power and greater am I within you, than he who is in the world (1 John 4:4); greater than the attacks of the enemy coming against you and the natural realm issues that are attempting to talk you out of the place of faith.

'I say unto you, you have heard and felt the rumblings in your spirit that as you arise and as you go and as you obey, you shall see a powerful demonstration of My mighty power bring forth mighty breakthrough; but you have been scared to move. I say unto you that I have not given you a spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind. (2 Tim 1:7)

'I say unto you, that as you go, by faith, in these days as I have commanded and confirmed to you in many ways, you shall move into a new pace of acceleration by My Spirit – new spaces that you have not even imagined and there shall be great breakthrough. For there are many of you who have felt like you have been at the point of breakdown, but I say unto you, that I am bringing you into greater days of BREAK THROUGH – as you arise and as you "go" in your obedience to Me, to do that which I have asked you to do and am calling you into.

'I say unto you, that I am roaring over you, "CHARGE AND BE RECHARGED." "CHARGE AND BE RECHARGED."'

CHARGE DEFINITION: To rush forward in or as if in assault: attack, to command, instructor exhort with authority.

RECHARGED DEFINITION: To regain energy or spirit, to inspire or invigorate afresh.

SYNONYMS: Restore, refresh, revive, recreate, replenish, renew.
(Definitions from Merriam Webster)

I then heard Matthew 11:12 surrounding me in the spirit:
'And from the days of John the Baptist until the present time, the kingdom of heaven has endured violent assault, and violent men seize it by force [as a precious prize – a share in the heavenly kingdom is sought with most ardent zeal and intense exertion]' (AMPC)

The Lord continued to speak:
'My people, arise and put the stake of your faith into the ground that I have promised you. Arise and speak to that which has been attempting to hinder you. Keep My Word in your mouth. I am calling you to arise and to charge by faith through My Word against that which has been attempting to keep you stuck. I am calling you to arise in your authority and stake claim on that which I have promised you and that which I have asked you to do. For I say unto you, that as you CHARGE FORTH – not in your own strength but by faith, empowered by My Spirit in obedience to that which I am speaking – you shall see My Spirit RECHARGE YOU in greater ways.

'I say unto you, many of you shall find that as you arise and as you go and step out in faith in the ways that I have spoken to you and I am leading you into, you shall see a mighty breakthrough. And you shall be restored, refreshed, revived, replenished and renewed by My Spirit.

'The enemy has many of you pushed back in intimidation, questions and has weighed you down; but as you arise and obey, you shall see great deliverance. As you arise and obey where I am leading you and what I am calling you to do – led by FAITH and NOT by SIGHT – you shall begin to see in greater ways why the enemy has fought so hard to keep you in a place of intimidation, questioning and discouragement. I say unto those of you who have been feeling My Spirit stirring within you, that this is your kairos time to step further into what I have called you to, but the natural realm has attempted to draw you into another narrative around My timing that is in opposition to that which I have spoken.

'I say unto you, lean into My Word of kairos time. Lean into the places of confirmation and the strategies that I have spoken to you and watch as you arise and step out in the ways I am leading you, by faith. Watch the fruit of this kairos time in your life through the mighty power of My Spirit that shall be seen, the powerful provision and mighty transformation that shall take place in you, by My hand, as you move forward.

'There has been a mighty battle for many of you over My divine timing. The enemy is attempting to delay you in many ways. But I say unto you, as you have sought Me and continue to seek Me – with a pure, humble and yielded heart to Me and My ways – I am bringing you into a greater understanding of My divine timing. I am bringing forth greater strategies and My wisdom to you, to implement and build with Me in this kairos time. My perfect, divine timing is going to see an acceleration and expansion by My hand, by My Spirit and My power, that is far greater than you have anticipated – for My Glory and My Kingdom.

'What you are stepping into now in these "BY FAITH" moments, even when the natural looks completely opposite to what I have said, are actually bringing you into some of the greatest birthing's of your life, in Me. As you arise and step into these "BY FAITH" moments I am leading you into, the landscape that you have known will totally change. I am bringing you into places of fruitfulness and the weight and demonstration of My Glory and My power in your midst that far surpasses what you have seen before.

'There is a deep stretching taking place in these "BY FAITH" moments. I am deepening your trust in me, and I am deepening your dependence in Me – and I never fail. I am faithful, and a whole new land filled with greater demonstrations of My faithfulness is upon you, now.

'Beware of "reasoning" in this hour. Do not be delayed in walking in obedience to Me and stepping into these "BY FAITH" moments as you attempt to "reason things out in the natural." You must follow My wisdom. You must follow My leading. You must follow what I have spoken to you in these "BY FAITH" moments. For that is where you are going to see the greatest places of breakthrough and momentum that you have ever seen. Where I have confirmed My Word and My timing over and over, it's time to be bold. Do not wait for applause to move. Do not wait for approval of man to move. Move when I say to move.

'As you go, by faith, I am bringing you into a new pace, new space and great breakthrough.'

Elul 6, 5786: Wednesday-August 19, 2026

NATE & CHRISTY

A WORD FOR THE STORM-WORN EAGLES...

A few days ago, I had a vision, and in the vision, I saw these eagles circling in the sky, and they were exhausted. They were looking for somewhere to land, but they had nowhere. I could see that all of their feathers had been pulled out. They'd been in the sky for a long time, battle-weary, looking for somewhere to land.

And then I heard Isaiah 66:1 that says, "Heaven is my throne. Earth is my footstool. Who will prepare a place for me to dwell?" I looked down and saw a map that began to light up, and I knew that these places were like nests where these eagles could come and safely land.

Places of refreshing. Places of healing. Places to be restored.

I knew that what I was seeing light up on that map were these rare places where kingdom expressions and hubs were being birthed across America, and even across the globe – places the eagles could come and land, be refreshed, be healed, have their arms lifted up, and then be sent back out.

And what I felt like I was seeing was that these war eagles are God's prophets, His intercessors, and His worshippers, because they're the ones who have been taking the brunt of the hits in these past seasons. They're the ones the enemy has been afraid of, because they're the ones who carry the goods for this next mighty move of God. They're the ones who are regionally anointed and mantled to drive the inhabitants out of the land - the false gods, the ideologies, and the compromise much of the church has tolerated.

God is raising up His warrior bride right now, but there are so many who are tired and weary, beat down, isolated, and just looking for their tribe and their people.

So, let me prophesy this over you: YOUR TRIBE IS COMING. If you're one of those eagles, and you've been saying, "I've been on the sidelines for too long. I've been exhausted, burnt out from the slander, the witchcraft, the assassination, and all of those things, and I am weary," get ready for God to bring you in to land.

God is birthing kingdom expressions right now. He's birthing out-of-the-box Kingdom hubs. They're going to be places for the eagles to come, be rested, restored, and to raise up other eagles to go to war. God is raising up His harvesters. He's raising up His next gen. He's raising up the remnant that will be the eagles, the prophets, the worshippers, and the intercessors of a new era in the body of Christ.

Get ready, because God is bringing you into land, and He's bringing you into the place of community and connection you've been missing, in Jesus' name.

I SAW EAGLES WITH THEIR BEAKS SMASHED...

After this vision, I spent time with the Lord. I sat down and began to write down the thoughts; the things God was showing me. And I saw this image of an eagle with its beak smashed, and what I felt like I saw was eagles who had been attacked and had their beaks smashed.

And it was a prophetic sign of what many prophets, intercessors, and true Levites and worshipers had been through in this past season, where they'd had their mantles and voices destroyed or smashed.

It reminded me of the cockatoos we saw in Australia years ago that had this disease that destroys their beaks and makes them unable to call. Cockatoos carry a cry that can go for miles, in the same way an eagle does.

I believe that in this season of needed shaking in the body of Christ, we've actually seen a deliberate assignment of the enemy to destroy and smash the beaks of the prophets, the intercessors, and the worshippers and it's diluted them. It's caused them to run. It's caused them to be in their sick bed instead of on their watchman post, releasing and decreeing the word of the Lord.

HEALED FROM THE STORM...

But this is what I hear the Lord saying: "RIGHT NOW I'M HEALING YOU FROM THE STORM."

"I'm healing you from that season of your beak being smashed. I'm healing you from that season where you were targeted, where there was a deliberate assignment against your life to shut down your voice and your calling."

And I saw the arrows that were shot at you while you were trying to catch the wind again. The enemy knew that was his moment to send his full arsenal at you, and MANY of those arrows LANDED.

But this is a time God is healing you from the storm. He is removing the arrows. He's bringing you out of that storm-tossed mindset and that place of constant anxiety and fear you've been in. It's caused many prophets to not be obedient to release what God's giving them because they've been in fear. In fact, it's even caused many to stop receiving revelation in dreams like they used to, because they shut those gates down. God is restoring them right now.

He is restoring where the enemy has warred against you and deactivated you from the degree you used to walk in.

I keep seeing Psalm 103:5: "Who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's..."

He is about to renew your PASSION, FIRE, and JOY of your calling as an eagle again!

THE WARNING OF THE HOUR...

But I feel like the warning of this hour for the eagles is this: the Lord is saying, YOU CAN'T KEEP STAYING in the current places, systems, and rooms you're in that you have outgrown because some of those places are not allowing you to land. They're not allowing you to be the eagle I've called you to be." By appeasing and tolerating them, you're actually holding back what God wants to do.

There are rooms He wants to bring you into. There are eagles' nests and places He wants you to land and come into that are going to cause you to flourish. They're going to cause you to be healed again and SOAR properly for the first time.

The warning of this hour is that if you don't get refreshed, if you don't get healed and restored to your post, you're going to feel the pressure to step out into a new season unhealed, still wounded, broken, battered, and you won't have the ferocity or FIRE on you that you need.

Because what God does in this healing process is the hot coal gets placed on your tongue again, and you need that. That hot coal needs to come upon you again so you can PROPHESY AND LEGISLATE like you used to.

THE FRESH WIND...

This is what I hear the Lord saying over you: "EAGLES, GET READY FOR A FRESH WIND OF MY SPIRIT. Get ready for a fresh wind that's going to restore your wings, restore your body, restore your soul, restore your joy and your passion and your fire and your voice.

You're about to step into a weightier calling, a weightier mantle, a weightier anointing than I have had on your life. There's a new authority coming that's going to cause demons to run because of what you've been through in this past season."

This is going to be a double-for-your-trouble season. As you step into this healing and God restores you, He's going to bring you into a double portion season of being able to soar. And lastly, the Lord says, "You're going to, soar above the snakes now. You're going to soar above the things that came against you in the past season and TRAMPLE them under your feet."

PRAYER FOR EAGLES...

Lastly, let me pray over you...

Eagles, I call you now back into alignment with the call of God on your life. I call you back into alignment with the word of God over your life, over His promises, over His plans. If there's been deviation sent by the enemy, I call you back into alignment with God's plan, His purpose, His timing, the physical location you're meant to be. I call you back into alignment.

I call you back into the ferocity and anointing of your voice. I call you out of that place of being attacked and targeted, your beak smashed, your mantle dropped, your anointing watered down and diluted. I CALL YOU OUT OF THAT PLACE IN THE NAME OF JESUS.

I call you out of the place of dysfunction, of being battle-weary, battle-broken, and storm-tossed. I call you out of that in the name of Jesus, and I call you into your season of healing and refreshing and being refurbished for a new season of flight, in the name of Jesus.

Right now, I rebuke every assignment of the enemy that has had you shut down in this season - every assignment of the enemy that's targeted you, to take you out, to assassinate you, to rob you - every assignment of the enemy that's caused you to be exhausted and battle-weary and even the areas where it's affected your body, your mind, your soul, and your emotions, I REBUKE IT AND BIND IT NOW, IN THE NAME OF JESUS. And I call you forth back into full health, in Jesus' name.

The word of the Lord says that He will renew your youth like the eagle's, and He will cause you to soar. You will renew your STRENGTH, and you will not grow weary, and you will not faint. He's calling you back into full steam and fresh anointing, in the mighty name of Jesus.

Now lastly, let me say this: YOU KNOW YOU WERE BORN FOR MORE. You're not an eagle to hang out with the turkeys. You're not an eagle to hang out with the chickens. God has called you to rise up and fly with the other eagles of the land.

I hear the Lord saying in this season: "DO NOT BACKPEDAL. Do not settle for anything less than what I have called you to. This is the season you will find your tribe, your people, your DNA. Your days of isolation are over. Your days of wandering are over. Your days of trying to stake out the land, looking, asking 'where is the place I'm meant to go?'"

God says, "I'M GOING TO SETTLE YOU. I'M GOING TO ESTABLISH YOU. I'm going to surround you with the people you're going to run with, and I'm pulling you out of the woundedness and the pain you've been in."

Elul 7, 5786: Thursday-August 20, 2025

Amanda Grace: The Connection Is Deeper Than You Think

Silence: A Sign of a Major Shift

Habakkuk 1 is one of the most profound dialogues in Scripture, because it records a prophet (Habakkuk) wrestling openly with God about evil, justice, and God's unexpected ways of working. Now, unlike many other prophetic books where God speaks through the prophet to the people—whether that be a message of judgment or deliverance—the book of Habakkuk begins with the prophet questioning God Himself, because of what he was seeing in the land.

Habakkuk likely prophesied around 609–605 B.C., just before Babylon invaded Judah. Assyria was collapsing, Egypt was struggling for power, and Babylon was a ruthless rising new empire. Judah had experienced reform under King Josiah, and they had come back to the Lord, but after his death, the nation rapidly descended back into violence, corruption, idolatry, and debauchery. Habakkuk wasn't speaking to a pagan nation first. He was speaking about God's own covenant people. He was wrestling with God about his own land—the condition of his own land—and the covenant that was supposed to be between the people of the land and God.

Now, let's go to Habakkuk 1:1–4: "The oracle (a burdensome message—a pronouncement from God) which Habakkuk the prophet saw.

"'O Lord, how long will I call for help, and You will not hear? I cry out to You, 'Violence!' Yet You do not save.

"Why do You make me see iniquity, and cause me to look on wickedness? For destruction and violence are before me; strife continues and contention arises.

"Therefore, the law is ineffective and ignored and justice is never upheld, for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore, justice becomes perverted." (AMP)

Now, that part, "O Lord, how long will I call for help, and You will not hear?" is the essence of what Habakkuk is saying in this passage. This is covenant language. Habakkuk was making a legal case. He was saying, "I have a covenant with You. Therefore, when I cry out, You are supposed to answer, Lord, based on the terms of the covenant."

Many times, God's silence is not distance. Many times, He is working in the silence. The book of Esther is a great example of this. God's name is not mentioned once in the whole book, yet He was working to bring forth judgment and a divine reversal behind what was unfolding in Persia. This is similar to how everything around you gets quiet and still before a storm, because there is about to be a very profound shift in the wind and the elements. Sometimes God's silence is because there is about to be a profound and sobering shift.

Habakkuk knew God is righteous. This was why what he saw was so frustrating to him. That was precisely why he could not understand what he saw. Habakkuk was looking across the land and seeing from a flesh and natural standpoint what was happening and getting frustrated. He was not looking at the landscape before him from the perspective of Almighty God's sovereignty and the bigger future picture that the Lord was working to accomplish.

The Way of the Wicked Is Violence (Hāmās)

Notice what filled Judah: violence, injustice, strife, contention, wickedness, and perverted justice. Psalm 1 contrasts the way of the righteous and the way of the wicked and what each will produce, ultimately. The righteous will mature and prosper; the wicked are like chaff (worthless and lacking substance). Chaff is a dry material that is removed from grains and is viewed as having little to no value. This substance is what the wind blows. Chaff has nothing anchoring it; it has no weight, no depth, no substance. Therefore, when the wind comes, the chaff is forced to blow in the direction the wind ultimately dictates.

"O Lord, how long will I call for help, and You will not hear? I cry out to You, 'Violence!' Yet You do not save." (Habakkuk 1:2 AMP)

The Hebrew word for "violence" (hāmās) refers not simply to physical violence but to oppression, corruption, exploitation, and lawlessness. "I cry out to you, Lord, 'Hāmās!'"

Look within the earth at what has happened with Hamas, the terrorist organization, in the recent years. There is a reason they are named such. The violence—hāmās—Hezbollah, and Islam are all attached to the same root that has now offshoot into a new branch called the "Democratic Socialists of America."

Habakkuk was saying, "Look, Lord, hāmās, hāmās across the land," meaning violence, violence is on the rise across the land. Now, look at what's on the rise across our land. Look at Islam, the Democratic Socialists of America, strife, and division. The justice system has become completely compromised and perverted. Judges are being caught in bribes, attorneys general are being caught in bribes. We are seeing an uptick in violence from ideological extremists. (Photo via Pexels)

Now, hāmās and Haman are separated by one letter. So, when there is hāmās, Haman is present. Zohran Mamdani has Haman hidden in his name. You can spell Haman from his name. The ayatollah Ali Khamenei had Haman and Amalek hidden within his name. Mojtaba Khamenei has Haman hidden within his name. The names "Hezbollah," "Iran," "Shia," and "Islamists"—when combined—have the name "Haman" hidden within them. You know what else they have hidden in their names? Hāmās (violence) and Noah.

As in the Days of Noah…

Genesis 6 is about the days of Noah.

"The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence." (Genesis 6:11 NKJV)

The word "violence," again, is hāmās, as in the Habakkuk passage. Turn Genesis 6:11 upside down; this is what you get: 911.

In the days of Habakkuk, he saw the righteous becoming surrounded by wicked people until justice itself became twisted.

"Therefore, the law is ineffective and ignored and justice is never upheld, for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore, justice becomes perverted." (Habakkuk 1:4 AMP)

I see these statements all over the place online: "When will arrests be made? Why are these people not in prison? When is justice going to be served? Why has the administration not arrested these people? Why is Obama still walking the streets?"

Guess what is hidden in Barack Hussein Obama's name as well? Haman and Hamas. Guess who else has Haman hidden within their name? Hillary Rodham Clinton.

The name "Ham" is within the name "Haman." Ham was the son of Noah, who was corrupted and begot Canaan. Habakkuk might as well have been living in our time, because he was very closely describing the temperature in our nation, and even globally at the moment. What Habakkuk saw in his time was a cross section of what would greatly multiply in our time. Where his was a concentrated pocket, we are watching this advance across multiple continents.

Haman was from the line of Amalek.

"The Biblical passage, 'God will be at war with Amalek from generation to generation' (Exodus 17:16) attests to the fact that this war will continue in all generations. Since Amalek does not exist as a nation in this generation, the Biblical passage attests to a war being waged against an enemy that is conceptually parallel to Amalek. Amalek attacked without provocation the feeble and exhausted Israelites who were lagging in the rear of the group crossing the desert to the Land of Israel. Amalek, at the time, was the standard bearer of terrorism against the nation of Israel since its inception."(1)

The Hamas Charter and the Spiritual Decline in Generations

"I swear by that who holds in his hands the soul of Muhammad! I indeed wish to go to war for the sake of Allah! I will assault and kill, assault and kill, assault and kill" (Article 15 of the 1988 Hamas Charter).

By their own admission, Islam is a soul tie to the soul of a disembodied spirit.

Now, let's go to Esther 3:9–11 (911); this is Haman talking (Haman is from the line of Amalek, the standard bearer for terrorism): "'If it pleases the king, let it be decreed that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out the king's business, to put into the king's treasuries.' Then the king removed his signet ring from his hand [that is, the special ring which was used to seal his letters] and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews. The king said to Haman, 'The silver is given to you, and the people also, to do with them as you please'" (AMP).

What was Haman saying? He was saying the same thing that is written in the Hamas charter: "Assault and kill."

Guess what else has Ham, Haman, and Hamas hidden in it? Mohammed, the regarded prophet of Islam, who happens to have a very long name: Abū al-Qāsim Muhammad ibn 'Abdullah ibn 'Abd al-Muttalib ibin Hāshim.

Ham is hidden within every "Haman" and "Hamas," and within all the names I've shown you thus far.

Now, why is this important? Ham was the son of Noah, who was the father of Canaan. He belonged to the only family preserved through the Flood. This means Ham experienced the corruption of the pre-Flood world, God's judgment through the Flood, and God's covenant after the Flood. He witnessed both divine wrath and divine mercy firsthand, and he still chose the way of corruption.

One remarkable Biblical pattern is that spiritual decline often begins with the next generation. Here are some examples:

- Adam → Cain
- Noah → Ham
- David → Absalom
- Solomon → Rehoboam

In all these cases, it was the next generation that saw a sharp spiritual decline, and then through corruptive wicked means attempted to usurp and take power and leadership that was never appointed to them. (Photo via Pexels)

Why do you think the enemy has been after generation Z so viciously? Why do you think the Democratic Socialists of America has been after the younger generation and basically hunting them down to get them to join? Because the way the enemy disrupts a righteous trajectory is he gets someone who is in close proximity to the righteous line to commit to doing his bidding and carrying out his agenda in order to bend the timeline backwards and send things into a spiritual decline.

"And just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the time of [the second coming of] the Son of Man." (Luke 17:26 AMP)

In the days of Noah, Ham, Canaan, and Ai would have all been present, spiritually speaking. (Ham was the father of Canaan, and Ai was a city in the region named after Canaan). Ham was the embodiment of spiritual decline and debauchery. So, "in the days of Noah," we would see Ham and Canaan and Ai birthed in some form. Not only is Ham hidden in "Haman" and "Hamas," but also in what I showed you above: look how many leaders in the past thirty years have Ham hidden in their names and terror groups rising up now. Ham birthed Canaan. Ai was in Canaan, so when Ham rises, Ai rises.

The Pride Flag and the Violet Spirit

Let me just show you something about the pride flag. From 1979 to the present day, the most common variant consists of six stripes: red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and violet (which is purple). The flag is typically displayed horizontally with the red stripe on top, as it would be in a natural rainbow. Its last color is violet, and it's meant to represent "spirit." So, it represents a spirit on that flag.

Noah, the father of Ham, is who the Lord gave the rainbow to as a covenant. Noah, Ham, and Ai should then have a commonality in the corruption today that's on the rise, and I will show you what this is in our day, and why it connects to the days of Noah.

Canaan, where Ai existed, is believed to mean "Land of Purple." So, the descendants of Ham can be associated with purple. Look at what the color purple means in the gay pride flag—spirit. Because this is the spirit that came through Ham's line from the days of Noah, it is the same spirit that Hamas is working through, and the Palestinian agenda, and these radical ideologies. You know how I know this? Because they have now joined together.

In an article titled "Why Queer Solidarity with Palestine Is Not 'Chickens for KFC,'" it reads, "Many of the loudest protesters have been queer and trans people. Among many moments of LGBTQ+ solidarity, queer journalists have resigned from the New York Times over the paper's coverage of Gaza."(2)

The LGBTQ+ agenda has joined with Palestine, which is run by Hamas. Ham (the spirit of Ham) from the days of Noah is grouping these agendas together more and more. And as this is happening, we have A.I./Ai on the rise. (Remember, the city of Ai was in the land of Canaan, and Canaan was the son of Ham.)

Ai has also joined with the color purple, which on the LGBTQ+ flag means "spirit," because it's the same spirit from Ham's line that these are all offshoots of. Knowing this, it is no accident that Ai is dominated by purple, because Ai comes from Canaan, which is called "Land of Purple," so the origins of Ai in the book of Genesis are birthed out of Canaan.

Canaan was an idolatrous land that replaced their worship of the Lord with demonic beings as their rulers. Canaan's main god was Baal; Baal's name means "he who rides in the clouds." When it comes to A.I., where is everything stored and saved? On the Cloud. So, "in the days of Noah," you would see Ham come to the forefront, A.I. become established, the "rider of the cloud" become a lord, and an established rainbow return. We are seeing all of this transpire within our nation and globally at the same time.

The rainbow flag debuted on June 25, 1978. Pride Month was officially recognized in the United States in 1999 when President Bill Clinton declared June as "Gay and Lesbian Pride Month." If you turn the "9s" in 1999 upside down, you get 666—with the rainbow flag having been established in the sixth month, having six colors, and with six representing the number of man. (Photo via Pexels)

Hillary Rodham Clinton was the first lady at this time. As I showed you before, you can find Ham and Haman in her name. Ham was the son of Noah; Ham was the father of Canaan. Ham existed and was corrupted shortly after the time when the Lord put a rainbow in the sky as a sign of the covenant between him and Noah.

In the New Testament, Matthew 24:37 says, "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man" (NIV). So then, in the days of Noah, we would see a perversion of the rainbow, and Ham and Canaan and Ai arise.

Guess what is hidden in William Jefferson Clinton and Hillary Rodham Clinton's names? Noah, Ham, Canaan. Noah is the father of Ham, who is the father of Canaan, in which Ai was birthed and raised out of. The Clintons established Pride Month in a year that is 666 when reversed.

"The days of Noah" scripture goes way deeper than we think.

God's Answer in the Silence

Now, let's go back to Habakkuk: "Therefore, the law is ineffective and ignored and justice is never upheld, for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore, justice becomes perverted." (Habakkuk 1:4 AMP)

That Hebrew word for "perverted" is aqal; it literally means "to twist," "bend," or make "crooked" (Strong's H6127). Something that is made crooked is no longer straight and in order. When something is bent, it is forced in the direction the dominant force is pushing it to go. There is a greater force in the spirit that is causing the justice system to bend in the direction it wants it to go—not for the benefit of the people, but for the legal robbery of the land.

God finally answered Habakkuk, but He did not answer Habakkuk's question the way he expected. (God will never give you an answer from a flawed perspective of man, but from an infinite perspective of His righteousness.) Instead, He said, "I am doing a work in your days which you would not believe though it were told you" (see Habakkuk 1:5). This is one of the most quoted verses in Scripture (also cited in Acts 13), but in context, it is not primarily about blessing. It is about judgment.

"Beware therefore, lest what has been spoken in the prophets come upon you: 'Behold, you despisers, marvel and perish! For I work a work in your days, a work which you will by no means believe, though one were to declare it to you.'" (Acts 13:40–41 NKJV)

At the time of the Acts Church, the words of Habakkuk resounded. God said what Habakkuk had not even thought of: "I have been working all along even if you cannot, with your physical eyes, see the evidence of it." The issue was not divine inactivity. The issue was human inability to recognize God's work when it didn't look the way Habakkuk thought it should. This was the Lord's answer to Habakkuk.

"For indeed I am raising up the Chaldeans, a bitter and hasty nation which marches through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. They are terrible and dreadful; their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and more fierce than evening wolves. Their chargers charge ahead; their cavalry comes from afar; they fly as the eagle that hastens to eat.

"They all come for violence; their faces are set like the east wind. They gather captives like sand. They scoff at kings, and princes are scorned by them. They deride every stronghold, for they heap up earthen mounds and seize it. Then his mind changes, and he transgresses; he commits offense, ascribing this power to his god." (Habakkuk 1:6–11 NKJV)

From this, it is clear Almighty God can raise up a nation to exact judgment on another, and just because it doesn't look the way we think it should look doesn't mean it's not God; it means we may be failing to recognize the time we are in. This is why, "as in the days of Noah"—when you examine the Scriptures and what has unfolded in the past decades—you begin to see beyond the surface to what you couldn't see before.

Sources:

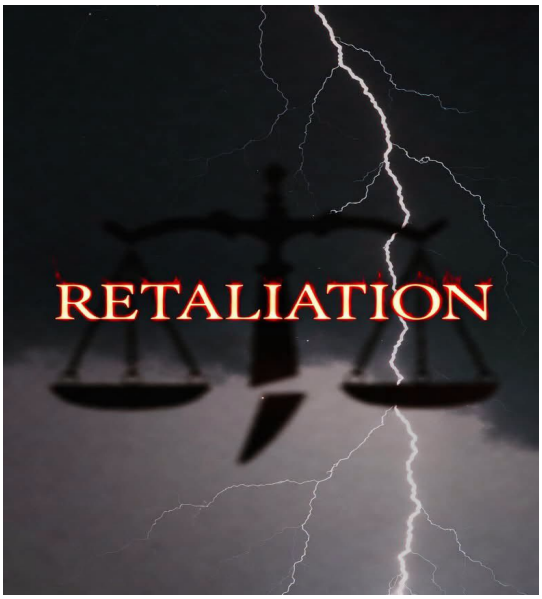

1. Mel Alexenberg, "Hamas is the reincarnation of Amalek," The Times of Israel, October 22, 2023.

2. Sal Tamarkin, "Why Queer Solidarity with Palestine Is Not 'Chickens for KFC,'" them, November 22, 2023.

Elul 8, 5786: Friday-August 21, 2026

Veronika West

"BRACE, FOR THE DAYS OF 'INTENSIFIED RETALIATION' ARE UPON US!"

On 07/17/2026, I woke to these Words: "WATCH! BRACE, FOR THE DAYS OF 'INTENSIFIED RETALIATION' ARE UPON US!"

As these Words hit my spirit, I felt a great urgency, and the Spirit of Intercession came upon me. As I prayed, I kept hearing the words, "DEMONIC RETALIATION."
As we watch and pray over what we see unfolding on the global stage - nation rising against nation, intense military conflict increasing literally by the hour, with threats being met with greater threats, and strikes being answered with greater counter-strikes and every action provoking yet an even greater response - again and again, I'm being led to pray concerning this one word, "RETALIATION."

As I was praying, the Holy Spirit started to show me powerful prophetic patterns that we can see emerging - ancient patterns and prophetic parallels that I believe we must give our attention to in prayer. We know that whenever the purposes of God begin to advance through deliverance, restoration, reformation and God's divine intervention, there will be a response, but not always of humility and repentance, but rather, with GREATER REBELLION AND RETALIATION. This pattern repeats itself again and again throughout the Scriptures.

Today, I see a prophetic parallel unfolding like it was with Moses who stood before Pharaoh with the command of God, "LET MY PEOPLE GO!"

Pharaoh answered God's warnings with "RETALIATION," and that retaliation came as greater burden put upon God's people; the oppression intensified and the pressure became greater and greater. Pharaoh's reaction was not to surrender to God, but rather, to rise up in spiritual rebellion in defiance and RETALIATION against the advancing purposes of God. This is unfolding now as the Spirit of the Lord moves upon the nations. As the wind of the Spirit blows forth upon the threshing floor, the spirit of rebellion is rising in defiance against God and His people. I see that as the winnowing winds of the Spirit blow, the chaff is being driven from the wheat. The time of sifting and separation is upon us; a time of divine distinction being made within the nations and their leaders on every level of influence. I see that as the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord moves, the rebellious and the stiff-necked will be broken, and they shall never recover. When I look at mainstream media, I see the prophets of Baal. And just like the fire that fell upon the altar on Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal were overthrown and slaughtered, and the Heavens gave rain, once again, Jezebel rose up in RETALIATION.

She sent forth word to Elijah, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time." (See 1 Kings 19:2)

And so today, we hear the same declaration of Jezebel and the Prince of Persia echoing through the ages - a religious decree that mirrors that same death threat, but now directed over President Trump and his entire family and administration.

Take Note; "Watch! For this same spirit is also moving powerfully from WITHIN THE CAMP. Do Not become apathetic or complacent; there are those WITHIN THE WALLS, THAT SIT AT THE SAME TABLE, that carry this spirit of destruction!

"Watch! The spirit that cannot tolerate the voice of the prophet, the one who confronts Baal and tears down its altars, is once again unleashing its fury. When we look and listen, we will hear the prophets of Baal spew their lies and falsehoods through our TV screens. Like the false prophets who cut themselves, we see the media cut communications and refuse to report and televise the truth, in utter desperation trying to appease their gods and silence the voices of the rising remnant. Pay Attention! Jezebel's RETALIATION did not come before the fire fell."

It came because the fire had already fallen, and the fire awakened a nation in a deep sleep and began to turn the hearts of the nation back to truth and to the power of true covenant with God. Jezebel was losing her demonic grip over the heart of a nation. Her prophets were silenced, the demonic atmosphere was shifted, and the satanic veil of blindness and deception was ripped and torn off the eyes of the people. A nation was being delivered and set free.

When Nehemiah arose to rebuild the broken walls and restore the ancient foundations, Sanballat and Tobiah answered with RETALIATION. Through relentless mockery, demonic intimidation, conspiracy, and threats, they sought to stop the work by distracting and discouraging the builders and to bring them down from rebuilding of the walls before it could be completed!

In this Hour, God has raised up mighty kingdom builders and reformers for such a time as this - those called, anointed and appointed by God with a mighty end-time Nehemiah mandate to rebuild the ancient foundations, to restore the broken-down altars of Elijah, and to re-establish and reconstitute the government of God's Kingdom within the nations. Yet, we now see the same unfolding pattern and parallel in this hour: the assignment of Sanballat and Tobiah rising against the Kingdom builders; ruthless and relentless attacks on every side; demonic RETALIATION against those who have set their minds and hands to the work of the Kingdom; powerful RETALIATION against the advancing purposes of God that are being built and established in the Earth realm. We must stay on high ground, watching! For the enemy has not changed his strategy. If he cannot stop the builder, he will seek to bring detours and delay by distraction and discouragement to the builders. We must resist this assignment of intimidation, and we must reject every lie, accusation, and satanic scheme seeking to lure the builder down from the wall. We must not come down from the wall!

Now is the Time to strategize and deploy a powerful counter-strike through prayer, through prophetic decrees, worship, and through unwavering faith and obedience to the voice of God. Like Nehemiah, we must assign watchmen and builders upon the walls with the sword of the Spirit in one hand and the builder's tool in the other, always ready and vigilant, while refusing to cease from the work!

And then there was Mordecai, who refused to bow before Haman, and that refusal was met with fierce retaliation which was unleashed, and not against just one man, but against an entire covenant people. Today, this same ancient prophetic parallel is unfolding in real time. We are seeing the spirit of Haman rising against God's anointed, this same ruling power and principality actively building the gallows for His chosen vessels. Yet, in the midst of it, I see a mighty remnant of Esthers rising - fearless, unbridled, and unrelenting. And even as I hear the sound of Haman's hammer driving the nails into the wood as he prepares the gallows for God's anointed ones, I hear another sound rising and getting louder. Yes! a battle cry of a mighty Esther remnant, rising louder and stronger, that will drown out the sound of Haman's demonic hammering. It is a battle cry for freedom; a resounding cry, that I can literally feel reverberating through the ages to this present day, in response to the rising spirit of Haman, in retaliation that seeks to keep nations in bondage and oppression!

Ha! But I see the king's scepter being raised. I see a gold crown being lowered. And I'm watching as the gold crown is placed upon the heads of God's remnant daughters. I hear the sound of cracking as the neck of the Haman spirit breaks on the very gallows that was built for God's anointed! Watch! In this next season, we will see that what was meant for destruction will become the instrument of divine reversal. The rising noise of the enemy's rage is awakening a righteous remnant to take its place and to begin to legislate in the courts of Heaven.

The King and Judge of Heaven is seated, and He is not silent. Divine intervention and supernatural deliverance are coming through the very trap the adversary prepared.
In this hour, we stand unbowed, like Mordecai, and yet fully yielded, like Esther, to intercede and to raise a battle cry for the birthright, destiny, and kingdom inheritance of our nations. And just as when the promised Messiah was born, Herod rose up, and his response to the birth of Christ was also one of RETALIATION, as the first thing he did on hearing the news was to find a way to destroy the very seed that Heaven had sent!

Watch! For at a time of birthing, the dragon/Leviathan is circling nations now moving through a narrow place; nations moving through the eye of a needle; nations moving through a birthing canal. I hear the Spirit say. "WATCH! As the dragon spirit circles the straits, the gates, and the narrow places, the place of birthing. "Watch! As dragon spirit tightens its chokehold, seeking to constrict the place of divine transition, to stop that which is about to be brought forth into the Earth.

I say, Look! It's time to BEAR DOWN AND PUSH. The head is crowning; the hour of birthing has come upon the nations. Listen! The ancient spirits rage in RETALIATION, as the sound of birthing rises up from nations now in labor, for they know that what is about to emerge carries Kingdom authority, power, and governmental dominion. Again, I Say, Watch! For the dragon seeks to tighten its chokehold over the gates to control the straits/passage, to delay the birth, and to prevent the establishment of My Kingdom purposes in the Earth. But I say to you, Nay! The chokehold of the ancients shall not stop the crowning of the Ancient of Days, for that which has reached the place of birthing shall surely come forth and not delay. Watch, pray, for the battle over the straits, the gates, and the narrow places now reveals a greater battle taking place for greater power, dominion, and for the advancing government of My Kingdom in the Earth realm!"

And finally, the Holy Spirit draws my attention to another powerful unfolding prophetic pattern: the Book of Acts. After Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit had been poured out and the church began advancing with extraordinary power, RETALIATION arose once again through persecution, imprisonment, severe beatings, and the scattering of believers. Yet, as I prayed, Holy Spirit said, *"FEAR NOT, FOR THE INTENSIFIED RETALIATION WILL BECOME THE CATALYST FOR KINGDOM REFORMATION, GREAT AWAKENING, REVIVAL, AND A BILLION-SOUL HARVEST!"

"Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word." (Acts 8:4)

Listen! Let us go higher! As Hell positions itself for a time of INTENSIFIED RETALIATION, Heaven is aligned and already turning into UNPRECEDENTED MULTIPLICATION! We will see that the very strategy designed to silence the Body of Christ will become the means by which the Gospel will be scattered, like seed that will spread and grow even further.

Wherever Satan sought to confine or restrain the purposes of God, he intensified RETALIATION. Yet, God brought a counter-strike of divine reckoning and retribution in response to Satan's retaliation, a divine reckoning that came to advance His Kingdom beyond what man could have imagined. Watch! Pay attention! RETALIATION, no matter how intense or relentless, has never had the final word.

Pharaoh fell, Jezebel fell, Haman fell, Herod died, and the plans of Sanballat and Tobiah came to nothing. Even the cross is a powerful prophetic picture of Hell's greatest Act of RETALIATION against the Son of God, yet, it became Heaven's greatest triumph through the power of His resurrection. Watchmen, take your place upon the walls. This is an hour to carefully discern the times and seasons, to hear clearly the command of our Lord, "WATCH AND PRAY!"

I Decree and Declare:
Every attempt of Hell to bring RETALIATION against the purposes of God or against the chosen vessels of God will ultimately serve the sovereign will and eternal purposes of the King of Kings!

Elul 9, 5786: Saturday-August 22, 2026

Crystal G.H. Lowery: Desire Paths - When We Choose Our Way Over His

I recently came across a social media post that caught my attention. It showed photographs of beautifully designed sidewalks winding through parks and campuses. The paths curved gently around trees, flower beds, and open spaces. They were aesthetically pleasing and intentionally designed. But that wasn't what made the pictures so interesting.

Running right through the middle of the grass, cutting across every carefully planned curve, was a narrow dirt trail. It was obvious that countless people had ignored the sidewalk altogether and simply walked where they wanted to go. Over time, enough footsteps had worn away the grass until a new path had been created.

There is actually a name for these worn trails. They are called "desire paths." A desire path is created when enough people decide their own way seems better than the one that was designed for them. As I looked at those photographs, I couldn't help but think about how often we do the very same thing in our walk with the Lord.

God's Designed Path for Our Lives Is Intentional

The Father has never been without a plan for our lives. Before we ever took our first breath, He was already preparing a way. Jeremiah reminds us that His plans are for our good—to give us a future and a hope (Jeremiah 29:11). His path is not accidental. It is intentional. Every turn, every season, and every pause has His purpose written in it. Yet somewhere along the journey, we look across the grass and see the distance we have to go. We think of the time it will take and the effort we must make in order to get there. The destination is visible from where we are standing, and the shortcut looks so much easier.

We ask ourselves, "Why walk the winding path when I can simply cut across? Why wait when I can make it happen? Why endure another season of preparation when I feel ready now?" (Photo via Pexels)

Without even realizing it, we begin creating our own desire paths. We start doing the designing process for our lives instead of trusting that God has already designed it with far more beauty and purpose than we can ever imagine. We try to redesign what God has already designed for our good.

Our God-Designed Path is Not Just About Where We are Going, but Who We Are

I wonder how many times we have mistaken God's delays for His denials. How often have we assumed that because His path seems longer, it must somehow be less effective? This is the fallacy of our human reasoning mixed with doubt. Yet God has never been in a hurry. The Lord is not merely interested in getting us to our destination. He is interested in who we become on the journey. He is interested in our character and our maturity.

Every season of waiting teaches dependence. Every unexpected detour develops trust. Every difficult stretch reveals what still needs to be surrendered. The very places we are often tempted to avoid, and bypass are frequently the places where the deepest work of transformation and development takes place.

I've often found that when God seems to be taking the long way around, He is actually taking the deepest way in. His path is not inefficient; it is intentional. What appears to us as delay is often His loving preparation. What feels like unnecessary wandering may actually be the place where He is forming Himself within us.

The Desire Paths the World Celebrates

We live in a culture that celebrates shortcuts. We admire overnight success, instant influence, immediate answers, and accelerated growth. Even within the Church there can be subtle pressure to hurry into promises before we've been fully prepared to carry them. But the Kingdom has never operated according to our timelines. We need to pray just like Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane: "Not My will, but YOUR will." What we need to remember is that seeds still grow in hidden places, and roots still develop underground before anyone sees the fruit. Character is still formed in quiet obedience long before it is revealed in public. Our Father has never wasted a hidden season where development was happening. As I continued thinking about the photographs of the desire paths, another thought came to me:

The people walking those desire paths weren't trying to be rebellious; they simply believed they knew a better way. Isn't that often where our greatest struggles begin? They don't begin in outright rebellion and disobedience, but in quiet self-reliance instead of God-reliance. We convince ourselves that our way is just a little faster, a little more practical, and a little more efficient than the one God seems to be leading us on. But Proverbs tells us, "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death" (Proverbs 14:12 ESV). (Photo via Pexels)

Only the Lord sees what lies beyond the next bend in the path. He knows which valleys are protecting us, which delays are preserving us, and which closed doors are actually acts of mercy. His perspective is always greater than ours. That is what Ephesians 3:20 tells us: What He has for us is more than we can ask or think. We need to be asking God to open our eyes to what He has for us instead of redesigning according to our human limits of something that is so much less than what He can exceed.

The Invitation Back to the Original Path

Perhaps the Holy Spirit is inviting some of us back onto the path He originally prepared—not because He is angry, not because we have somehow ruined His plans, but because His mercy is always calling us back to what is best. The beautiful thing about our Shepherd is that He never abandons His sheep because they wandered onto a desire path. He simply keeps calling them back with His voice of love. Maybe we've been trying to hurry a promise or force doors that never seem to open naturally. Maybe we've grown weary because we've been walking a path the Lord never actually asked us to create.

His invitation is still the same. It is "Walk with Me." His path is not always the easiest, but it is always the best. One day we will look back and realize that every curve in the road had a purpose for our development. Every delay carried wisdom, and every season of preparation was an expression of His love for us.

The path He designed was never simply about arriving at the destination He prepared for us. It was always about becoming the person He created us to be before we ever got there. My prayer is that we renew our minds so that we do not redesign a path and turn His path into our desire path, but that we look to the path He has already designed and created for us and walk His desire path for us.

Elul 10, 5786; Sunday-August 23, 2026

Exhort and Contend

This word needs to be repeated for everyone to hear….

Chuck Pierce, dated July 28, 2026, titled "7 Days of Praise to Change the Course of Your Atmosphere!" We find the following "word" originally released on July 26:

"Praise, and then Return Praising!"

You are called to PRAISE! As worship began to break out this morning, I heard the Lord say, "I want My people to PRAISE ME for SEVEN STRAIGHT DAYS until they return in here PRAISING!"
There is no excuse to resist praise this week. The Lord is saying to you, "If you will praise Me for seven days, I'll shift that thing that you think is too big for Me to shift. You are holding onto the weight of an intercession, and if you will get that thing in My hand, by the end of these seven days, then I will fix it, kill it, change it, and rearrange it! When you look at it the next time, you won't see that situation the same way.

"If you will praise Me over the last death that you had to go through, then by the end of these seven days, I will cause you to be dancing over any strategy that has come to quench you from prospering in days ahead.

"War is here and the world is shaking, but the earth is full of My glory. If you are entering into a week of praise, you are going to experience My glory. You can't break into praise without receiving My Spirit. Receive My Spirit and experience My glory in this week of praise. What needs to be shifted in the earth will be shifted as you praise. Choose to praise Me for seven straight days!"

Begin praising, and do not stop until you return praising after a week. Declare that in seven days you're going to have a praise breakthrough. As you worship all week, don't hesitate to jump, turn, spin, and press your way into what needs to come forth so you can move forward into your next place of access and favor. You are called to PRAISE! But giving praise to God should be our normal response as His children. We should never do so expecting anything in return. And when it comes to decreeing and declaring, a practice that is unfortunately so popular these days, we must recognize that God's declarations are causative; ours are not. For example, Rom. 4:17 says, "(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were."

So, this ability to decree and declare in a causative manner is "an attribute of God, not man. Abraham did not have this ability – that's why he trusted God. God had promised him that his old, wrinkled body would have a son through Sarah's dead womb. Abraham had no ability to make this happen. Instead, he trusted God or believed God who had this ability. Very important: the ability or power resided with God, not us. Abraham never confessed or declared anything. God declared it and made it happen."

Might we always follow this instruction - 1 John 4:1, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world."

Fair Use Act Disclaimer -
Copyright Disclaimer under section 107 of the Copyright Act 1976, allowance is made for purposes such as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, scholarship, education and research

Elul 11, 5786: Monday-August 24, 2026

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING TO MANY, 'I AM MAKING ROOM. MY FRESH WIND IS COMING FORTH. I AM BRINGING FORTH A NEW THING.'

As the Lord spoke these words, I leaned into the Lord and listened and I heard:
'There is a mighty move of My hand in your midst to make room for the new thing that I am doing. I am shifting. I am changing. I am rearranging. Stay in the place of deeper surrender and yieldedness to My ways, for I am surely bringing you into a new day.

'For I say unto you, that I am making room for the new thing. I am removing things. I am shifting things. I am closing some doors to make room for the new doors to open before you. Do not attempt to keep open doors that I am closing. Do not hold onto what I am trying to lead you out from. Do not remain in the places where I have had you in past seasons, but embrace the leading and wind of My Spirit leading you into the new frontiers that I have for you. I say unto you, I am calling you to embrace the change. It is a whole new level of dependence upon Me, and it is a whole new level of My powerful provision.

'I say unto you that I am shifting schedules. I am shifting many schedules in this hour, and I am changing the pace. Remain sensitive to the leading of My Spirit and the movement of My hand in your midst to shift the pace, to rearrange your schedules and to bring you into the place of embracing the newness of the season shift that is before you. Do not linger in yesterday. Do not attempt to hold onto that which I am removing.

'I say unto you, focus not on the things that are being completed and the things that I am finishing and leading you out of, but keep your eyes upon Me and your heart deeply connected with mine, and you shall see that the things that I am bringing to an end – the things that have reached their time of completion – are but indicators of the new season and new day that is before you. And you shall see great and mighty demonstrations of My power and My faithfulness to bring you into new ventures, new assignments, new places of joy, peace and vitality in Me.

'I say unto you, do not rush ahead and fill the spaces that I am clearing to make room for the new. Lean into Me and stay in the places of deep communion with Me and ask Me what I am doing. For I say unto you, a fresh wind is coming forth to refresh you, strengthen you and revive places of your hearts. I say unto you, do not rush to fill the spaces where I am making room by My mighty hand. For these are spaces of deep encounter with Me and My heart, and I am bringing you into deeper places of receiving, seeing and understanding the blueprints that I have for you for this new season.

'Where I am making room, where I am clearing spaces, where I am shifting, rearranging, changing the pace and shifting some schedules, I am making room for the birthing of new vision. I say unto you, that the enemy would attempt to have you keep your eyes upon the magnitude of the change – to glorify the fear of the unknown with all his foreboding ways and lies – where I am bringing you into a place of greater commissioning. I am bringing you into a greater place of vision. I say unto you that I am inviting you into and expanding the visionary space that I am calling you into. I am unfolding greater insight into the new visions. I am bringing greater expansion to that which I have placed within your hearts and am calling you to do and calling you into.

'Do not rush ahead to attempt to fill the space with busyness and great ideas. I am calling you to come deeper into My heart, into the secret place, into the quiet, and hear My voice and My direction. Let Me unfold the great plan that I have for you in this season. You must not rush through the uncomfortable places of the unknown or the uncomfortable places of change. Come and sit with Me in the unknown, in the uncomfortable, and watch what I will speak.

'For some of you have endured the greatest levels of opposition in this transition. Many of you have felt like you would not survive the opposition at this threshold, but I am carrying you. I have carried you. I am sustaining you and have sustained you. And I say unto you, that as you sit with Me in these places where I am making room for the new thing I am bringing forth within you and through you, you are entering into a season of receiving the greatest visions, blueprints and dreams of My heart that I have for your life.

'I say unto you, that I am increasing your sensitivity to My instructions as you seek Me and let go of all that has attempted to hold you down and hold you back. As you sit with Me as I am shifting, changing, clearing, rearranging and making room, you shall see a greater invitation from My heart to build with Me, to move into greater places of destiny and a greater urgency of the hour to IMPLEMENT MY INSTRUCTION.

'For I am bringing a great distinction in this hour between building from places of adrenaline to building from the unction of My Spirit and anointing. For I say unto you, as many of you are facing these great shifts, changes and rearranging that is taking place by My hand, I am calling you deeper into My heart to hear and see where I have anointed you to move and build with Me in My ways and My pace.

'I say unto you, My people, that where many of you are finding yourselves in these places where My mighty hand is making room in your lives like you have never seen before, I say unto you, go slow and be present with Me. For you are moving into a magnitude of My direction and the receiving of My vision and commissioning into new places and frontiers that I am calling you into that are greater than you have known before. And upon MY instruction and the implementation of My instruction and My vision, you shall see MIGHTY acceleration, favor and fruitfulness.

'I say unto you that I am making and going to make the vision CLEAR. I am going to increase the vision with such clarity, insight and wisdom in ways that you have not seen before – as you sit before Me and seek Me for My blueprint, My strategies, My dreams that I am entrusting to you to steward. Watch how I anoint your hands to scribe and write the vision for the season that I am shifting you into. (Habakkuk 2:2) I am bringing you into such deep places of CONVICTION of the vision that I have given you, so that you will not be like you have been in times past where you have faced intense battles over whether the vision you have received is from Me.

'I am SOLIDIFYING vision in your hearts, fortifying you IN and WITHIN the vision that I am releasing, maturing you IN the vision that I am entrusting you with. As you lean into these spaces where I am making room, you will not be tossed to and fro like you have experienced in times past. There is a FRESH CONVICTION of My vision coming upon you in the new place of COMMISSIONING that I am leading you into.

'I say unto you, look not at the natural for your timeframes. Look not at the timeframes of yesterday and how long things have taken in past seasons. For this is a NEW DAY. And you shall see a demonstration of My supernatural acceleration of time come upon your obedience to My wisdom, My ways, My strategies in this hour, as you implement My instruction and obedience to the blueprint I am giving to you. The frontier that I am moving many of you into, you have not been here before, but I have anointed you for this day. I have mantled you for this hour. I have been preparing you for this season. But you must lean into the places where I am making room. Embrace the change and the new things and rush not ahead.

'You must remain at My feet with your ear close to My chest and your heart deep within My Word. And watch how I increase your discernment in this hour as you humble yourselves before Me and keep your minds renewed in My wisdom. Oh, the joy and the grace and the peace you shall know as you move into these new frontiers with Me – knowing this is the appointed time, knowing this is a kairos moment, and that you have indeed been prepared for such a time as this. (Esther 4:14)'

Elul 12, 5786: Tuesday-August 25, 2026

LORILEI COOLEY, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
CROSSING OVER INTO THE SEASON OF THE DOUBLE!

There are some radical changes coming upon you. I felt that the areas in your life, which used to be problematic and difficult to overcome, will no longer be a challenge. Many are going to start moving in increased authority, influence and anointing that will usher them into greater places of peace and victory.

There has been a dominating, manipulating, and controlling spirit that has been relentless in trying to take dominion over you and to hinder and delay things. But I felt as many stand their ground in knowing their identity in Christ, in prayer and declaring the Word, there will be a complete dismantling of this demonic assignment.

There is also a boldness and confidence that the Lord is developing in many; this spirit that has been relentless in trying to get you to back down and intimidate you is bowing down!

I really feel that in this season there is a repayment of double for the trouble, the trials and the pain. What many of you thought was a complete loss, the Lord is refreshing, repairing and restoring so that you can walk not only into your promotion, but also into your upgrade.

Where many of you have felt shattered by past circumstances, great pain and loss, in this season, you will now get to experience joy upon you and before you in what is just ahead of you...the manifestation of His promises.

We are about to cross over into a very strategic new Hebrew year, 5787. You are moving over a greater threshold where your destiny is going to manifest unprecedentedly, and where things are going to start aligning and coming together like you have never seen before! There are new connections and alignments here to usher you into this new season and time.

It is time to take your place and move into position because your promotion is here! Isaiah 61:7 NIV, "Instead of your shame you will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace you will rejoice in your inheritance. And so you will inherit a double portion in your land, and everlasting joy will be yours."

Elul 13, 5786: Wednesday-August 26, 2026

Lana Vawser

HE WHO SITS IN THE HEAVENS LAUGHS! "JUSTICE IS MINE," SAYS THE LORD, with Andrew Whalen: "It is the time to pray for Justice!"

As I sat this morning with the Lord this morning and seeing the incredible battle that's taking place over the United States, I heard Psalm 2:4 resounding loudly in my spirit: "He who sits in the heavens laughs, *The Lord scoffs at them." - (NASB)

I then heard the Lord say, "JUSTICE IS MINE" says the Lord. There is going to be a divine demonstration of the justice of God that is going to be seen in the United States of America. The demonstration of the Lord's power and His justice to "OVERTURN" is upon the United States of America.

"With My mighty hand, I shall overturn the plans of the wicked."
I then heard the words thundering… "My people, you are about to see a major demonstration of the POWER OF MY PROPHETIC VOICE in the earth."
I was surrounded by such a strong sense of the voice of God being manifested in the earth like never before and it came in explosive ways. I began to see a united Church that had arisen like never before, and they REFUSED to move from the Word of God and what the Lord has spoken, and I heard the collection of voices thundering into the United States. The Word of the Lord was shaking the nation, and it was thundering upon the land like a hammer.

I then heard the Lord say, "These are the days of My Majesty. These are the days where I am revealed as the King of Glory. I am stepping in to reveal My Majesty and that I am the One who laughs at the plans of the enemy. When the nations conspire against Me (Psalm 2:1-5) and My ways, I am about to demonstrate My JUSTICE, and there will be a major RIPPLE EFFECT of My JUSTICE in the United States of America. I am BRANDING the United States of America with My JUSTICE. Let the DAYS OF JUSTICE roll on in.

"Let the days of My DIVINE JUSTICE being manifested ROLL on in THICK and FAST. I am coming! For the words of mere man, the pride and wickedness of man to come against My plan, is going to come tumbling down. The winds of My justice are blowing. I will not only bring justice now in this moment, but I am moving to overturn ERAS OF INJUSTICE!"

"MY VOICE WINS"

As I continued to seek the Lord, I heard the Lord say; "MY VOICE WINS."
The sense surrounded me so strongly of other narratives being spoken that are not in line with the narrative of God and what the Lord has spoken, and the invitation upon the Church now to be FEROCIOUS in FAITH and FOCUS upon what the Lord has spoken and the decree of God in the United States.

Again, the words thundered around me, "MY VOICE WINS" - "MY VOICE WILL CAUSE THE NATION TO TREMBLE"

Isaiah 55:11 surrounded me: "So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it."

"I AM RESTORING THE ROAR TO MY PEOPLE" - within My people I am raising up a ROAR within them of faith and conviction in what I speak and the demonstration of My power that will be seen as My people PARTNER with My VOICE and decree some of the greatest injustices, hidden agendas and evil will be overturned. The overturning will come with great shaking, but My SUDDEN demonstrations of JUSTICE will be seen and seen SWIFTLY! Do not be afraid of the battle. Do not be discouraged by the rumbling and the onslaught of the enemy. Greater acceleration and increase of the TIDAL WAVE OF MY JUSTICE is being RELEASED into the United States. My people, LIFT UP YOUR VOICE and continue to intercede and decree that which I have spoken, for the greatest days of MY JUSTICE PREVAILING and the revealing of My Majesty and that I am the One who sits in the heavens and laughs, have ONLY JUST BEGUN!"

Keep standing and decreeing what HE has spoken!

Andrew Whalen

Today I heard the Holy Spirit say:

"Unless my people cry out for justice in these times, they will lose the 'soul' and culture of this nation! - For witchcraft and rebellion are filling the vacuum of delayed justice.

"BUT tell my people, that this is the time to pray for Justice, to pray and not give up! For I desire to bring a reckoning and a recompense against the works of evil in the land!"

"For cause of injustice, the people have grown weary, and the pain of their soul is turning to hate. But know this: that when the people see justice again, there will be great rejoicing, and the spell of rebellion will break off the soul of this nation. Tell my people NOW to pray for justice, For I am a good judge, who hears and answers to the call of my people! They will see and know my love in my justice again!"

Father, we pray for justice in America! We pray that the evil that has been perpetrated against the citizens of this land, against our health, life, freedom, and future, will now receive justice! Let the wicked who have ruled be held accountable for their murder, their fraud, their violence in Jesus' name! May the rebellion of the culture and the spell of witchcraft on the soul of this nation, and upon our youth be broken in the name of Jesus! May you stir up prayer and intercession in your people, and let the cry for justice rise night and day! God, send your speedy justice in the name of Jesus Christ!

Isaiah 34:8, "For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion."

Elul 14, 5786: Thursday-August 27, 2025

"I AM"
VERONIKA WEST, IRELAND

I heard the Spirit saying, "Tell My remnant, 'I Am that I Am.'" As the Lord spoke, I found myself asking, "I Am what?"

The Spirit of Revelation showed me that "I Am" encompasses, encapsulates, and fulfills every need, every longing, and every desire—yes! Every need can be found in that seemingly unfinished name, "I Am that I Am. I Am everything you require RIGHT NOW. I Am your strength, your wisdom, your power, your provision, your protector, your peace and courage. I Am all in all. I Am your ever-present Presence, going before you, standing behind you, beside you, beneath you, and above you. I Am the exceedingly abundant, far beyond anything you could ask, think, or imagine.

"Beloved, I Am whatever you need Me to be in this very moment. I Am the ram in the thicket, the Great and Eternal Substitute for every fault, failure, and shortcoming. You don't have to strive to be enough; I Am enough. I Am your Enough. I Am the eternal resource available to you. All you need to do is acknowledge that I Am that I Am for everything you may need.

"I say it again, 'Let Me be your I Am.' In every storm, I Am your calm. In every battle, I Am your victory. In every tear, I Am your comfort. I Am the anchor that holds you steadfast amidst the waves of life. You are not alone; I Am with you, always.

"Let Me show you how to walk in the fullness of My name. When fear creeps in, say, 'I Am is my courage.' When doubt rises, proclaim, 'I Am is my faith.' When loneliness looms, declare, 'I Am is my unwavering and constant companion.' Let your mouth speak of My attributes, and watch as your reality shifts and changes. Speak, and let My truth transform your perspective and bring a paradigm shift to your heart and mind."

Friends, I hear a call right now, not merely for the acknowledgment of who God is as "I Am," but an invitation for active engagement with His covenant promises!

Decree: I will not just know You as "I Am," but I will experience You as "I Am" in every facet of my life.

There is a call to surrender our finite understanding to the infinite possibilities of God as I Am. He says, "In your brokenness, I Am your healer. In your uncertainty, I Am your guide. In your weakness, I Am your strength made perfect!"

Elul 15, 5786: Friday-August 28, 2026

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'CAN YOU HEAR THE SOUND OF THE ARMY OF MY DAUGHTERS WHO ARE ARISING IN THIS HOUR WITH THUNDER IN THEIR STEPS?'

I heard the Lord say:

'Here they come, here they come. Can you hear the sound of the army of My daughters, who are arising in this hour with THUNDER IN THEIR STEPS? They have thunder in their steps because they walk in Me and they carry My prophetic voice, and they carry My heart. They are consumed with My Word, they are consumed with My fire, they are consumed with My heart. Can you hear the sound of an army arising with THUNDER IN THEIR STEPS? Here they come, arising out of the wilderness leaning upon their Beloved (Songs 8:5). They are not ones who parade My revelation. They are PURE. Their hearts before Me are pure as they live before the audience of One. They are the unapologetic ones. They are the ones that have been through My unrelenting fire and have been CONSUMED (Heb 12:29). They are arising CONSUMED with My fire and NO LONGER contained. They are arising with the pure word of My heart in their mouths, and they will NOT be swayed. They are arising in obedience, far from defeat, as they have lived deeply at My feet.

'Here they come arising in the earth to take authority and dominion for My Kingdom. No longer will they be harassed by the enemy. No longer will they live assaulted by the Jezebelic spirit. For in the secret place, they have been trained for war. I have trained their fingers for war and their hands for battle (Ps 144:1). They live so deeply connected to Me, for their greatest desire is to abide. The enemy has screamed at them, "PAUSE AND RETREAT," and I am speaking over them, "PUSH AND DEFEAT." It is now time for them to arise in their destiny in greater ways, awakened to My authority within them. And they arise not in arrogance, but in confidence of who I am in them, and who they are in Me.

'They are not here for their names to be seen. They are not here to parade revelation. They are not here to proclaim prophetic words. They are here to HEAR. Their greatest desire is to know Me and to hear My voice. Watch these ones arise from the wilderness in this hour, and they arise with swords in their mouths. They arise with the sword of My Spirit in their mouths to speak and decree that which is of Me, and to see My Word separate between that which is not of Me and that which is of Me. They come with My Word in their mouths, carrying My heart and declaring My Word that brings the intensity of My voice, the thunderings of My heart, the strong plumbline words of My heart. They will not apologize for what I speak, but they will speak in obedience, declaring My Word with power and authority, MY power and authority that will bring divine alignment and correction, consecration and purity within My Bride, bathed in love, to prepare the way for Me, the King of Glory, to come.

'Many will look and may be offended by My Words through them, because it heralds and beckons a deeper dying to self and a deeper surrender to My ways. It calls for the abandonment of the ways of man, and calls My people higher. It calls My people deeper into My heart, and it calls My Bride to arise in the intimacy and authority she is called to walk in - without mixture, without compromise, without idolatry. They arise in this hour, not from a place of elitism, but from a place of love for Me and love for My Bride. They are arising with thunder in their steps. It's thunder in their steps, as it is I that they walk in. Watch My Word flow through them that will cause a trembling at My power and authority. Watch My Word through them that will bring divine order. Watch My Word through them that will make room for My glory. Watch them continue to arise with their mouths full of the heralding declaration that is thundering in the heavens, "MAKE WAY FOR THE KING OF GLORY TO COME IN." (Ps 24)

'They will continue to arise in their hour, unapologetic, and not water down My Word for accolade. They will not water down My Word for the applause of man. They will boldly declare My Word with authority and boldness, knowing that it is My Word through them that is going forth. They live deeply in the fear of the Lord and have hearts to serve and love My people, but they will not bow to man, they only live bowed down before Me in awe and wonder.

'For My daughters that I am gathering in this hour and arising as My army are laid down lovers of Me. They are deeply devoted to Me and deeply rooted within My Word. They know Me deeply and they linger in My presence. As they linger in My presence, I am releasing to them the secrets of My heart. Watch the continued increase of groaning intercession that I am birthing within them. These ones are arising in this hour as spiritual midwives to birth in intercession the plans, purposes and divine strategy of My heart for the earth. I am increasing their vision in this hour to see and receive the divine intel of My heart to govern with Me. The cry is being heard all across the earth as they groan in deep travail, "PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD."

'Here come My daughters, arising in the earth, bolder and stronger than ever, with thunder in their steps that will send shockwaves into the enemy's camp. And as they continue to partner with Me in greater realms of intercession, watch and see, watch and see how I am using them to make way for MY GLORY!'

Elul 16, 5786: Saturday-August 29, 2026

THE EFFECTS OF FIRE
KIM POTTER, DAYTON, TN

One morning a few years ago, my grandson and I were driving up the mountain to get freshly picked turnip greens to freeze for winter. He began to share with me something he had learned about making candy. He told me how they heated it up until it was so hot it was pliable. Then they created whatever shapes they wanted their candy to become. In great detail, he shared with me how this was done. He then said, "Isn't it amazing what shapes you can make when things get hot enough, Nana?"

I replied, "Bryson, I can tell you something I learned about getting things hot enough to mold them." He lit up and said, "Tell me, Nana!"

I shared the following story with him: "I have this wooden bowl. I have had it for many years. It is what I use when I make biscuits. One day I began to use it to make homemade bread. I had this idea to heat it a little before putting my dough in it, so the dough would rise quicker. I turned the oven on a low temperature and set the bowl in the oven. This was not a great idea.

"My intention was to leave it for a couple minutes to warm it just a little. However, I began to do something else. I got busy and forgot it was in there for several minutes. When I remembered, I quickly jerked open the oven door and grabbed the wooden bowl. To my dismay, it was soft in my hand—so much so that it was flimsy. It collapsed in my hand.

"I thought, 'Oh no! I have ruined my bowl.' Immediately, I had another thought. I thought, 'I can remold it back to its original shape and let it cool and it would be fine.' "That is what I did. Sure enough, it held its shape and I have used it ever since."

That day, as Bryson and I talked about the effects of heat, I thought about what the Bible says about fire. Most of us do not think of fire as a good thing. It certainly doesn't sound like a good thing, does it? Yet, it may very well be what God uses to soften us. The fire, as we know, burns away things that do not need to be there. We know this because we burn brush to get rid of unwanted debris.

However, today, as I thought of the fire, I realized something else. Fire can also soften us to the point that God, our Potter, can mold us into all He wants us to be. For me, personally, it has been the fiery seasons of my life that I have become the most pliable. It was in times of great persecution that I learned mercy. It was during times of great pain and loss that I learned compassion. It was through times of physical pain that I experienced His healing touch. The greatest lessons I have learned, for me, have been as I walked through times of fire.

Isaiah 43:2 says, "When you go through deep waters, I will be with you. When you go through rivers of difficulty, you will not drown. When you walk through the fire of oppression, you will not be burned up; the flames will not consume you." (NLT).

The fire does not consume you; it's God's promise. But it can mold you. It will soften you, if you allow it to. Don't be afraid of fiery times. Instead, recognize the awesome results of fire, and allow God to mold you in all you need to be to fulfill your destiny in Him. You can trust Him. He will not allow the fire to overcome you; He loves you too much for that!

Elul 17, 5786; Sunday-August 30, 2026

Veronika West

Prophetic Repost; WATCHMEN PRAY!!!

So, early hours one morning, I was jolted awake and suddenly I heard...

"AN ASSIGNMENT TO BRING A NATION INTO A TIME OF MOURNING!"

Immediately, what was quickened to me was a Word I submitted on February 5, 2025. I have spoken to this particular Word a few times and made reference to it as a Prophetic Marker for Prayer.

As we know, Prophesy carries multiple layers of Revelation and can Speak to different things at different times. Hence, why it's important to War with our Prophetic Words. While praying about this particular Word again this morning, Holy Spirit highlighted the date of the Word, February 5, 2025, and today's date, July 23, 2026. There are {533} Days Since the Prophetic Word was originally given. (5+3+3=11)11th Hour!

I was then led to look at the Hebrew words with a gematria value of 533, and found it prophetically noteworthy: Gematria of 533; Plague/Judgment (Exodus 9). Furthermore, I saw that other associated words in the 533 cluster involve; Comfort, Hosts/Armies, Altars (Places of Judgment or Intercession), Widows (Mourning), and Prospering or Leading in contexts of Transition. Greek New Testament terms around 533 also touch on Excess, Leaving, Feasts and Cries. The number 533 speaks to Judgment, Authority and Removal. These are all Prophetic threads that often appear together in Scripture when God deals with Oppressive powers!

Warriors, we see in part and we Prophesy in part. "For we know in part and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away…When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known." (1 Corinthians 13:9-12) emphasis added. Let us stay alert, always remaining vigilant, and keep our Shields Raised!

America; Warning of a Nation in Mourning;
https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/america-warning-of-a…/

February 5, 2025. "Urgent! Warning of a Nation in Mourning, if My Remnant Do Not Stay Alert, Sober and Warring!" Warriors, I suddenly heard those Words earlier this evening, and as I heard those Words, they literally gripped my heart.

As I stopped and began to Pray fervently, I saw The Nation of America in mourning. Now, it's difficult to articulate the depth of what I saw in the Spirit, but it was as if the Nation had suddenly fallen into a state of shock, akin to the reaction one might have after experiencing a sudden traumatic event. I literally saw the Nation being shaken and violently shaking like a mother whose body goes into shock after a hard and traumatic birth! I saw the Nation of America plummet into total chaos and confusion, and it was as if a dark cloud had suddenly covered the light of the sun and deep darkness covered the Nation!

I could tangibly feel the heavy weight in the Atmosphere which was of total disbelief, disillusionment, and desperation. In this vision, it was as if my breath had been taken away and I was struggling to take in another breath. But I suddenly cried out, and as I did, the Spirit of Revelation lifted me out of the vision!

Please Warriors, I do not share this to bring fear!

Although, let me say, let The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD come upon you for these are Perilous times and days of Great and Impending Danger for the Nation, for President Trump, and for his family. Please know that your faithful prayers avail much, and your prayers keep the assignments of the enemy from being made manifest in the Nation!

Blessings to you all.

Elul 18, 5786: Monday-August 31, 2026

Fear Is Afraid Of You

"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." (Is. 41:10)

Do not allow fear to paralyze you and render you inactive. King Saul and his entire army allowed fear to paralyze them because of the violent threats of a giant called Goliath. None of his trained soldiers had the guts to step out in faith to fight Goliath. A decision to do something is the antidote to anxiety, depression and fear. Fear neutralizes your power within. Fear negates your power of faith. Fear exaggerates the power of your enemy. Fear uses lies and deception to intimidate you, because fear is afraid of you.

David, on the other hand, heard the same words of intimidation from the giant Goliath but reacted with faith instead of fear. He conquered fear and the champion Goliath with a stone and a sling: "As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him. Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground. So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him." (1 Sam 17:49-50)

Fear is afraid of you. Have faith in God and take a step of faith into your miracle. Just a little stone with your step of faith will destroy all obstacles to your glorious victory.

Kingdom Declaration:

The glory of the LORD within me is strong and mighty to give me victory over my enemies. Read the Bible in One Year: Psalm 40-42; Acts 27:1-26.

Elul 19, 5786: Tuesday-September 1, 2026

Veronika West

It is written!

"AMERICA IS ON THE WINNING SIDE!"

Watchmen, I submit the following Dream

So, early hours of this morning 07/30/2026, I had a strange yet powerful Dream. Now this Dream was very different from the way I would usually dream. It was as if I was watching one Scene being played over and over again, as if a Movie was on Repeat. Over and over again, I heard the same Declaration being spoken, and every time I heard the Declaration, I witnessed the exact same response in the Spirit. However, with each repetition, the weight, the Authority, and the power of the Declaration increased. And so did Heaven's response. It was as though Heaven itself was establishing both the certainty of the Declaration and the certainty of its coming Manifestation.

Then I heard these Words

"Fear not! Stand still and See the Salvation of the Lord! The Lord Himself shall fight for you" (Exodus 14), and then I heard, "AMERICA IS ON THE WINNING SIDE." The moment those Words were spoken, I saw a Mighty Angelic Army being sent forth from Heaven into the Earthly realm. Then suddenly, I found myself no longer just hearing the Declaration in the Dream, but I was compelled by the Spirit to begin decreeing the Word of the Lord, and I Decreed with a loud voice, "Fear not! Stand still and See the Salvation of the Lord! The Lord Himself shall fight for you. AMERICA IS ON THE WINNING SIDE!" Again and again, as I decreed the Word of the Lord, I watched the Angelic Armies move swiftly in response. Again and again, the scene repeated.

I heard the Declaration, I decreed the Word of the Lord, and the Angelic Armies responded. With every repetition, the weight of the Declaration increased and so did the Angelic response. As I continued to decree and watch the Angelic Armies being deployed, these Words were suddenly quickened to me,

"DECLARING THE END FROM THE BEGINNING!"

Suddenly, I saw dark Storm clouds beginning to gather in the dream, and I knew By the Spirit that a great Storm system was forming and that a great Storm was coming. Yet, what struck me in the dream was that I was made aware that I was releasing the Prophetic Declaration BEFORE the Coming Storm.

The Angelic Armies were being deployed BEFORE the Storm was upon the Nations. I knew that as I decreed the Word of the Lord, a Way of Refuge and Victory was being prepared even before the Storm arrived, and that even as the storm clouds were gathering, I was decreeing the Word of the Lord, and the Creative power of His Word going forth from my mouth was making a way, was Preparing a Place of Refuge. The Word was sending forth Angelic Armies to Uproot and Tear Down, to Build and to Plant. Then the dream shifted a little, and I watched as every Word that went forth from my Mouth became something tangible in the Spirit. The Declaration of His Word was forming what looked like a thick rope, one that stretched into the midst of the Storm.

And then I heard, "A ROPE OF HOPE IN THE MIDST OF THE STORM!" And immediately, I knew that the purpose of the Lord in speaking forth a prophetic declaration before the storm was to provide a Supernatural Mechanism that would bring Divine Intervention and a Mighty Manifestation of Deliverance in the Storm. Now, as Believers, we know that the Lord will often Speak a Word in the Light before the Darkness comes. He releases a Declaration before its Manifestation. He speaks to the Outcome before the Conflict reaches its Greatest intensity. He gives His people a Word of Hope to Hold on to before the greater shaking begins. Now, as I woke up from the Dream and I began to Pray, the Holy Spirit showed me that the Declaration did not mean that there would be no conflict. NO! Quite the opposite.

The Declaration itself reveals that a great conflict lies ahead. We see that throughout Scripture, whenever God declared the outcome beforehand, His people still had to walk through the Battle before they witnessed the fulfilment of His Word in manifest Victory. At the Red Sea, Israel was already on the Winning Side even though Pharaoh's Army was behind them and the Sea was before them. The outcome had already been determined by God, but they still had to walk through what looked impossible before they saw the waters part! And when Jehoshaphat stood before a vast multitude, the Lord first declared, "The Battle is not yours, but God's!"

The Victory was announced before the Army ever marched into the Valley. Gideon looked upon a vast an overwhelming enemy, but the Lord first declared, "Surely I will be with thee..."

Again, the victory was established before a single trumpet was blown! I believe the Lord was showing me in the dream that He requires us to begin to declare the outcome before the storm reaches its greatest intensity, so that His people would have a rope of hope to hold onto in the midst of what is coming. Hope always precedes the trial, and tribulation and a declaration of faith always precedes a Mighty Manifestation of Breakthrough and Victory.

I also knew, as I prayed over the dream, that this was not a call to make presumptuous declarations born out of human desire, wishful thinking, or hyped emotion. Notice I did not initiate the declaration in the dream. I first heard what Heaven was saying, and then I came into agreement and divine partnership with the declaration of Heaven. As I decreed the Word of the Lord in agreement with Heaven's declaration, I watched as the Angelic Armies immediately responded and set to implement the instructions of Heaven.

In the Dream, I was literally, "DECLARING THE END FROM THE BEGINNING!" God had me Declaring the End from the Beginning. "Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My Counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure…" (Isaiah 46:10)

"And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe." (John 14:29)

"Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the Voice of his Word." (Psalm 103:20)

"Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast." (Hebrews 6:19)

Watchmen, I submit this Dream today for Prayer. I believe the Lord is giving His Governing Remnant a Heaven-born Declaration in their Mouth before the full Manifestation of His Promise. A Word before the Storm; a Strong Rope of Hope before the Winds begin to rage. Today, as His Governing Remnant, may we hear what Heaven is saying, may we come into agreement with His Word, and may we continue to decree what Heaven has already declared until we witness the Manifestation of His Word.

Elul 20, 5786: Wednesday-September 2, 2026

Andrew Towe: A Gust of Restoration

This Is Restoration with Restitution

While in prayer concerning the month of August, I heard the Lord say, "You will see a GUST of restoration in this month. Prepare to stand in awe of what I am doing for My people. What has been stolen is being restored with restitution."

I believe August will mark a significant turning point for many. We are entering the eighth month on the Gregorian calendar, and throughout Scripture the number eight represents new beginnings. I believe the Lord is declaring that this is a season of new beginnings, divine restoration, and supernatural restitution.

Get Ready to Experience God's Goodness Once Again

The Holy Spirit immediately drew my attention to 2 Kings 8, where we find the continuation of the story of the Shunammite woman. This is the same woman who built a room for the prophet Elisha and later experienced the miracle of her son being raised from the dead. Although she had already witnessed God's power, He would yet display His goodness once again.

Before the famine came, Elisha gave her a prophetic instruction to leave the land.

She obeyed the word of the Lord, and that obedience preserved her family during seven years of famine. Obedience often positions us for preservation before it positions us for promotion.

After the seven years had ended, the woman returned to reclaim her house and her land. We know that seven in the Bible represents completion. In the Book of Genesis, God created the earth in six days, and on the seventh day He rested. This established the pattern of completion. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

"And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

"And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life." (2 Kings 8:4–5 KJV)

What Looks Like the End Is Not the End: Divine Set Ups Have Already Been Planned!

As I meditated on this passage, two things stood out to me. First, I noticed that the king was talking with Gehazi. This is remarkable, because in 2 Kings 5, Gehazi had been struck with leprosy after his deception involving Naaman. Lepers were forbidden from entering the king's presence. Yet in this passage, Gehazi was standing before the king, carrying on a conversation.

While Scripture does not explicitly tell us when it happened, I believe this points to restoration in Gehazi's own life. The same God who used him before was able to restore him after failure. What looked like the end of his story was not the end after all.

I believe the Lord is saying that He is restoring people who thought they had missed their opportunity. Shame does not have the final word. Failure does not have the final say. God's mercy is greater than your mistakes, and He is willing and able to restore what seemed to you was permanently lost. We are in the month of NEW BEGINNINGS.

The second thing that stood out to me is the incredible divine timing. The king just happened to ask Gehazi about Elisha's miracles. Gehazi just happened to choose the testimony of the Shunammite woman's son being raised from the dead. And it was at that exact moment that the woman walked into the room to ask for the return of her property. That was not coincidence. It was a divine setup. Only God could orchestrate such perfect timing.

I believe many of you are stepping into your own divine appointments. God is arranging conversations you know nothing about. He is opening doors you cannot open yourself. He is causing your name to be mentioned before the right people at exactly the right moment.

The favor of God is going before you. You may think nothing is happening because you cannot see it, but Heaven has already begun arranging the details. Long before the woman arrived at the palace, God had already started moving the pieces into place. The Lord is doing the same for you. (Photo via Hippopx)

It was during that time that one of the greatest declarations of restoration in Scripture took place:

"And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now." (2 Kings 8:6 KJV)

Did you catch that? The king did not simply return her land. He commanded, "Restore all that was hers." I believe that is the prophetic word for this month. The Lord is saying, "Restore all." But the miracle did not stop with restoration. The king also commanded that she receive all the produce and income from the fields for the entire seven years she was gone. God did not merely give back what belonged to her. He also restored everything the land would have produced during her absence. That is restitution.

The Enemy Cannot Stop God's Power to Restore

The enemy may have stolen from you, but he cannot stop God's power to restore. In fact, when God restores, He often restores with increase. What looked like loss becomes the platform for greater blessing.

I believe many are entering a season where they will not only recover what was taken, but they will also receive unexpected compensation for the years of waiting. Prepare yourself for testimonies that can only be explained by the hand of God.

As we've entered this eighth month, I believe Heaven is announcing new beginnings over God's people. Lift your eyes and expect God to move. Stand your ground, war with your prophetic words, and refuse to settle for what has been lost. I hear the Lord saying to you once again, "Prepare to stand in awe of what I am doing. There is coming a strong gust of restoration. What has been stolen is being restored with restitution."

Elul 21, 5786: Thursday-September 3, 2026

Johnny Enlow reprint from June 27, 2015 and worth reading!

"AMERICA, I'M NOT ABOUT TO JUDGE YOU BECAUSE OF YOUR COURTS!" --"America and Church of America-- You are BOTH More Messed up... and Both More Wonderful Than You Have Imagined!"

Like many of you, I've been trying to perceive the Lord's heart over all the many strong opinions concerning the recent ruling by the Supreme Court that legalized same sex marriage.

To the best of my ability to perceive His voice and heart, this is what I heard:

"America, I'm not about to judge you because of your courts. Church of America, I'm not about to judge your nation because same sex marriages are now legal in the land. America and Church of America, you are both in need of more correction AND more mercy. You are both simultaneously more messed up AND more wonderful than you've imagined.

Church, you are less representative of who I am than you think you are - and your government and Supreme Court are less like gates of hell than you think they are.

You are both a work in progress, and you are both in need of radical change. This is your big news from MY Supreme Court today.

Change is coming, and get ready to change - because change is what you will do. I've released the hosts of Heaven, and I'm pouring out of My Holy Spirit in an unprecedented manner, and church, both you and your nation are about to go through a merciful, heavenly overhaul.

This is extreme makeover time for the United States of America.

I will personally be orchestrating this national overhaul, so make sure your agenda fits with Mine, or your agenda will not go well.

Church, My overhaul will start with you."

ARE YOU PEOPLE OF TRUTH OR PEOPLE OF LOVE?

"You haven't known if you're to be a people of truth or a people of love. Many of you have been saying love is important, but not many of you have been willing to actually showcase that. Love looks like something.

"You can't just claim to have love while "speaking the truth in love." If people can't feel your love, it isn't love. Your love response is more important to Me than your truth response. I'm not impressed by your zeal for My standards of holiness. Impress me by your zeal for loving the unlovely and seemingly "unworthy" to be loved.

"I did not send My Son Jesus so that He could remind the world of My rules. I sent My Son because I so loved the world while they were yet messed up and violating My rules."

IN SOME WAYS CHURCH, I'M MORE PLEASED WITH YOUR CULTURE THAN I AM WITH YOU ...

"In some ways I am more pleased with your culture than I am with you. To some degree, they have better carried My heart of compassion than many of you have. They've understood that the outcast, rejected, and isolated can't just remain a pariah of society.

"Yes, they may not be completely in touch with My standards of holiness, but they are in touch with My heart of kindness to the outcasts. Your Supreme Court did not rule the way they did because they hate Me and My standards. Most are relatively ignorant of Me.

"They ruled the way they did because they felt the pain of a rejected niche of the population that wanted a right others had extended to them. They interpret your Constitution as allowing that freedom, while others see it differently. Either way, know that I'm greater than your Constitution. It has many of My priorities within it, but it's still much less than who I am.

"Know this, I'm not near as troubled as you think I am about the direction of your courts and of your laws. You have some good changes taking place and you have some changes that aren't as good."

I'm way more concerned about My church and My house.

"Your courts and your laws are only a reflection of what's going on in My people. When My house is not a place of My presence and My power, then you default to religion and rules. Heaven isn't run by rules and religion, but heaven is filled with My presence and My power. Church, on earth as it is in heaven.

"My church, do you want to know what your primary sin is? Your primary sin is that you've preferred rules and principles above My presence and My power. This primary sin makes my Holy Spirit not welcome in the very places He is given lip-service to.

"Church, I love you beyond anything that you can imagine, and I also love America more than most of you know. I provided for America to become a blessing to the world. She is far from perfect, but she is My gift to the nations. All will one day see what they would have been like had I not made that provision.

"Church, it's important you understand that I have not given up on America. I'm not close to giving up on America.

"Is America perfect? No, not even close. While you're concerned over rulings of the last few days, yet you still have many, many other laws and ordinances that stand in absolute contrast to who I am. Many of your immigration laws are in direct contradiction of who I made you to be. Many of your criminal justice laws are way out of synch with who I am. You haven't sown into your legal system mercy clauses that represent Me."

YOU HAVE PRECEPTS AND ORDINANCES THAT ARE NOT OF ME!

"Your abortion laws, your gambling laws, your tax laws, your healthcare laws, your education laws are all filled with ordinances that are against My way of doing things. You're not as close to utopia as you think, to be so concerned about this last ruling, as if then you would be a righteous nation.

"You have precepts and ordinances all over the board that are not representative of Me.

"So, why do I still love you and America so much? I love because that's who I am and that's what I do. I love you easily because My patience and longsuffering exceed your capacity to understand. I love America because she has continually moved in the right direction and she will continually do so in the future. She has moved in the right direction as much as she could, considering the state of My church.

"For a church as unfriendly to My Holy Spirit as she has been, America's doing great. This is why My overhaul of your nation is starting with you. I will do so in love and in mercy, because that is My nature, but I will overhaul you. I will overhaul you, My church, so that your nation may enter into her true destiny of greatness."

CHURCH, I DON'T NEED YOU TO BE THE SIN POLICE

"When I have a people who truly love Me, My presence, My power, and My love, then you'll enter your greater destiny as a nation. I don't need you being the sin police for your nation. I need you to be those who carry My love, My kindness, My hope, My power, and My presence. I need you to carry relational Me, not transactional Me. My Holy Spirit is an incredible sin police when He fills a place or a person. Be friendly to Him and let Him do His job.

"My church, I love you so much because you've attempted to be faithful to Me and to please Me. However, I'm now coming to you, and I'm going to instruct you on My priorities. I'm going to saturate you with so much of who I am that it's going to soften your parched hearts.

"I'm going to pour in so much of heaven on earth that you'll cease to be at war with everything that you're at war with. I don't need you warring against anything that is flesh and blood. Your only war is against Satan and his demons. They always show up with distortions and lies of who I am and how I am."

I NEED YOU TO STOP THE FIGHTING

"I'm going to pour out so much of My Spirit on you that you're going to better recognize your enemy, and it's never people. I need you to stop fighting. I need you to stop fighting with My other kids who also see an aspect of who I am that you don't see. Just stop the fighting. I am going to help you stop the fighting. I don't need you fighting for Me; I need you loving for Me.

"I need you letting Me radically love through you. Don't love just the saint - and don't love just the sinner. Love sinner and saint alike. I don't need you involved in holy wars. I don't need you involved in wars against deviancy. I need all your attention and energy.

"Become an expert in Me. Let that be your war - to know the real Me - to know Me in ways you don't presently know Me and to see Me in places you didn't know I inhabit."

I'M GOING TO BE KINDER TO YOU THAN YOU DESERVE. I'M GOING TO HEAL YOU OF DISEASES THAT ARE YOU FAULT

"My People, as an example of how you're to be in society, this is how I'm going to come to you — I'm going to be kinder than you deserve. I'm going to heal you of diseases that are your fault. I'm going to forgive you of debts that were also your fault.

"I'm going to take care of all kinds of things that you're helpless to take care of yourself.

"Furthermore, every move towards Me that you make, I'm going to reward far beyond what seems reasonable. I am going to be so generous and so merciful with you that you might wrongfully think you're behaving better than you are."

I'M GOING TO BOMBARD YOU WITH KINDNESS!

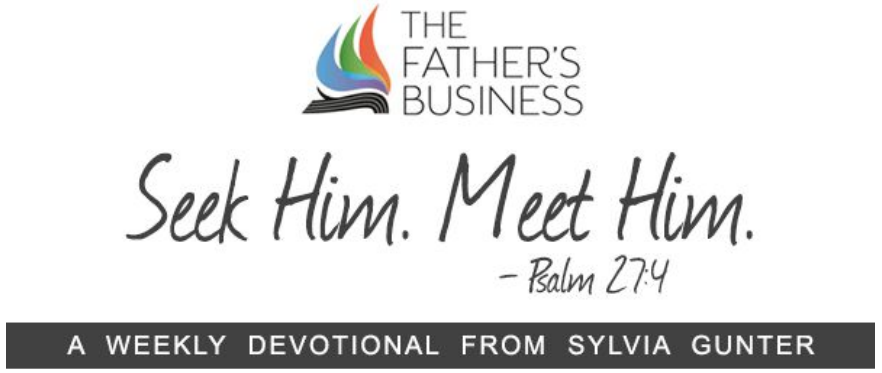

"I will not deal with you as you deserve, but I will deal with you as I desire. I'm going to bombard you with kindness - and if you will but pay if forward, it will transform your life. What I will give to you is exactly what I ask you to give.

"This is My priority for your nation - that I would have sons and daughters who would display Me as I truly am. When you do this, your nation will better represent who she is called to be. When you do this, your laws will better represent My heart. When you do this, you will see transformation of your society.

"So, change is coming. Extreme change is coming - and it's starting with you. The One who began a good work in you will see it through to the end. I am your Supreme Court, and this is my edict - both for you and for your nation. Go and ahead and rejoice, because this is going to be a wonderful thing."

Elul 22, 5786: Friday-September 4, 2026

God-Sized Rest

In our culture, the word rest can sound like such a small thing. We talk about taking a rest when we mean pausing for a few minutes, catching our breath, or stepping away just long enough to regain a little strength before beginning again. It is rarely enough time for complete renewal.

So, when God says, "Rest in Me," it is no wonder that we struggle to understand the fullness of His invitation. He is not merely offering us a brief interruption in the middle of an exhausting life. He is inviting us into a God-sized rest.

One of the Hebrew words translated "rest" in the Old Testament is nuach. It carries the meaning of settling down, remaining in a place, or coming to rest with a sense of finality, security, victory, and salvation.

What a strong and beautiful picture: finality, victory, security, and salvation.

This is not fragile rest that disappears as soon as another difficulty arises. It is rest rooted in the unchanging character and finished work of God.

"My soul finds rest in God alone; my salvation comes from Him. He alone is my rock and my salvation. He is my fortress; I will never be shaken." (Psalm 62:1–2)

True rest is found in God alone (Psalm 62:1–2, 5; 116:7). It is not something we create through perfect circumstances, careful planning, or greater control. It is a gift that God Himself gives (1 Kings 8:56).

Throughout Scripture, God promised His people rest from enemies, sorrow, suffering, turmoil, hard labor, and cruel bondage (Isaiah 14:3). Yet He also warned them not to harden their hearts or turn away from Him in unbelief and disobedience (Numbers 32:15; Psalm 95:7–11; Isaiah 28:12).

God's rest is freely offered, but we experience its reality as we continue to trust Him. Remaining in His undisturbed composure requires that we keep returning our spirits and souls to Him. We bring Him our fear, our striving, our questions, and our desire to control the outcome. Again and again, we choose to set our whole being upon who He is.

Another Hebrew word connected with rest is shavat, from which we receive the word Sabbath. It means to cease, to stop, or to bring work to an end.

When God rested on the seventh day of creation, He did not stop because He was weary. He rested because His work was complete. Nothing was missing. Nothing needed to be added. Creation stood finished beneath His authority and delight.

God's rest carries that same sense of strength and completion.

Through the Messiah, God ultimately accomplished true rest for His people and made for Himself a glorious name (Isaiah 11:10; 63:14). Hebrews 3:7–4:13 develops this beautiful invitation, calling us to enter God's rest through faith.

The Greek words used in this passage speak of ceasing from labor, being refreshed, and entering a place of rest. We are invited to stop striving to accomplish for ourselves what Christ has already completed for us.

Jesus finished the work necessary for us to enter the Father's grace, victory, and salvation. Through His death and resurrection, the decisive battle against sin and death has been won. We do not rest because every circumstance has become easy or because every conflict has disappeared. We rest because Christ's work is complete and His victory is secure.

We enter His rest as we allow every part of our being - our spirit, heart, mind, will, imagination, emotions, and conscience - to become centered in Him and His finished work.

This is more than physical stillness. It is the rest of God Himself settling within us.

It is the rest of knowing that we are held by the Father, united with Christ, and indwelt by the Holy Spirit. It is rest grounded in relationship with God, not in the absence of problems. We may still have decisions to make, responsibilities to carry, battles to face, and griefs to walk through, but we do not have to carry them alone or bear them in our own strength.

God is longing to give you His God-sized rest in spirit, soul, and body as you abide in Him.

Let His rest meet every anxious place within you today. Let His victory speak to the battles you cannot resolve. Let His finality quiet your striving. Let His security steady your heart, and let His strength hold everything that concerns you.

Return to your rest, beloved, for the Lord has been good to you.

Settle yourself in Him and enjoy His presence. His work is complete. His love is secure. You are held.

Elul 23, 5786: Saturday-September 5, 2026

Gretchen Rodriguez, San Antonio, TX

From Anxiety to Peace: What Happens When We Finally Let Go

If you are someone who feels responsible for fixing everything and everyone, you may find it difficult to rest. There can be constant pressure to think through every situation, to find solutions, and to make sure nothing falls apart. If we're honest, sometimes letting go feels irresponsible. I lived that way for a long time.

Sometimes Letting Go Feels Irresponsible

During a season when my family and I were serving as missionaries in Puerto Rico, everything in our lives felt stuck. We knew our time there was coming to an end, but there was no clear way forward. The longer it went on, the more overwhelming it became. I found myself consumed with everything that was not working, and eventually, that pressure turned into severe anxiety attacks. Because I had never experienced anything like that before, I was convinced something was physically wrong. I went to a heart specialist, certain that there was an underlying issue. I was told that nothing was wrong and what I was experiencing was anxiety.

During that season, discouragement and hopelessness kept my attention fixed on everything that felt wrong. The only moments when I sensed God's love were the times I stopped long enough to notice His presence. But those moments were brief because my mind was constantly trying to solve the problem. For two years, I prayed for God to make a way for us to leave. I did everything I could think of to help bring that answer about. I asked, I planned, and I tried to work things out on my own. Nothing changed. The shift came when I finally surrendered.

I reached a point where I placed my situation fully in the Lord's hands and told Him that I would trust Him no matter what. If He wanted me to stay there, I would stay. Instead of focusing on how miserable I was, I would choose to be thankful for what He had given me and to trust that He wanted what was best for our family and me. (Photo via Pixabay)

A few days later, I had a dream that I was flying through the house that had felt like my prison. I moved from room to room with complete freedom and joy. When I woke up, the Lord's presence was tangible, and I knew something had changed within me. The anxiety was gone, and I felt a deep sense of peace.

Less than a month later, the door opened for us to return to the States. But what mattered most was the shift in my heart before the answer came. It wasn't until I let go that things began to change.

The Rest That Comes with Surrender

Many of us struggle in this same area. We feel that unless we are actively thinking, planning, and solving, we are somehow failing. We may even carry that mindset into prayer, believing that we need to continually ask, analyze, and press for answers. But when we ask God a question, there is only one thing left to do.

"Be still and realize that I am God." (Psalm 46:10 TPT)

In other words, He is God and you are not. Quiet your soul, your striving, and like a child, nestle into His loving arms and let Him be God for you. Our Father desires to speak to us, to give us wisdom, and to guide us. But we often struggle to hear Him because we're doing all the talking or trying to control the outcome. Faith is not just asking. It is trusting Him enough to leave our requests in His hands and wait for His response.

One of the most liberating gifts you can give yourself is permission to stop overthinking and simply enjoy Him, to stop replaying every problem and trying to figure everything out, to let go and trust that God is capable of leading your life better than you can. This can feel uncomfortable, especially if fear has been driving your thoughts. There is often a false sense of responsibility that convinces us we must stay in control. But that pressure does not come from God.

In His Kingdom, wisdom looks different. It often looks like sitting at His feet and waiting for His direction when you would rather act. It looks like trusting Him when you cannot see the outcome. It looks like surrender. (Photo via Pexels)

Jesus is the Good Shepherd. He knows how to lead you. You do not need to carry the weight of figuring everything out on your own. Before my breakthrough, I believed I needed to have a plan. I thought I needed to do more, pray more, and try harder to make something happen. But nothing shifted until I gave myself permission to let go and trust my heavenly Father.

Surrendering control breaks the hold that fear has on us. As long as we are gripping tightly to our own understanding, fear stays close. But when we release that control and place it in God's hands, we step into freedom.

Practicing Stillness and Trust

One of the ways we practice this surrender is through stillness. Contemplative prayer, simply being with God without striving, can feel unfamiliar at first. Sitting quietly, without an agenda, requires us to trust Him in a deeper way. It places us in a position where we are no longer in control, and that can feel uncomfortable. But it is also where transformation happens.

Even when it feels like nothing is taking place, God is working. Time spent with Him is never wasted. As we continue to meet with Him in this way, we begin to experience His love more deeply, and that love changes us. Over time, fear loses its grip. It may still try to surface, but it no longer dominates our thoughts in the same way. We learn to return to Him again and again, turning our attention back to His presence whenever we feel overwhelmed.

This becomes a new pattern—a new way of living. Instead of being ruled by anxiety, we are anchored in His love. Instead of constantly striving, we are learning to trust. Instead of trying to control everything, we are allowing Him to lead. And as our relationship with Him deepens, our lives begin to reflect that change. We are no longer bound by the need to figure everything out. We are free to trust the One who already knows the way.

(This article is an excerpt from Gretchen Rodriquez's book titled "Encountering the Divine." Article used by Permission via The Passion Translation.)

Elul 24, 5786; Sunday-September 6, 2026

Lana Vawser:

I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'TAKE BACK THE NIGHT HOURS.'

As the Lord spoke these words, the sense came to me strongly that there are many right now who are being assaulted in the night hours. The Lord showed me that there are many right now who are facing unusual foreboding fear, anxiety and accusation in the night hours that is not only stealing their rest, but is causing torment and confusion.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard:
'There are many facing an onslaught in the night hours right now, and I say unto you, "TAKE BACK THE NIGHT HOURS." I say unto you, wrestle not with and entertain not the voices of darkness and the voices of fear, but draw near to Me and deep into My Word and take authority over that which is attempting to steal your rest and the intel that I will be increasing in the night hours. My people, there is an increase in My intel being released through dreams right now that the enemy is attempting to hinder. I say unto you, My people, I am bringing you into such deeper insight and foresight in the night hours to partner with Me in all I am doing in the earth.

'For there are many who are being attacked in the night hours and many are feeling crippled in fear and anxiety by the voice of the enemy and the shadows of foreboding to attempt to hinder their strength, insight, foresight and peace. I say unto you that the enemy has come in the night hours against many, because in this hour I am releasing intel in dreams that is going to bring an exposure to the enemy's plans and bring them into the light.

'I say unto you, My people, the enemy is coming to intimidate in the night hours, and the enemy is attempting to bog down many in worry, but I say unto you, partner not with worry. Repent of entertaining worry and declare My Word over your night hours and know this; that where the enemy is attempting to bog you down with worry in the night hours, there is an invitation to come up higher into hearing, seeing and perceiving MY WISDOM in this season, in the night hours, as I encounter you in dreams and visitations.

'The enemy is after your authority and after your agreement, and you must be more vigilant than ever right now to take authority over that which does not line up with My Word. I am empowering you by My grace and My strength to take a ferocious posture and ferocious stand in faith against the enemy and against that which he is attempting to lure you into.

'There are many right now who are entering your greatest season of co-laboring with Me and receiving the divine intel of My heart to partner with Me in the earth. The depth of insight, clarity, discernment and wisdom to know My ways in this season that I am inviting you into is at a depth that you have not yet known. I am bringing you up higher as you bow lower in humility and surrender. As you come deeper in intimacy, you are finding deeper levels of divine insight and the supernatural sight that I am increasing in this hour – to see into spirit and hear and perceive that which I am doing – is increasing dramatically for those who are seeking after My heart and have eyes to see and ears to hear.

'The enemy is after your focus, and he is doing all he can to hinder your focus. And his attempts to weary you in the night hours are not only to keep you from the places of divine intel and revelation which I am releasing to you and in the coming days will increase significantly, but to weary you to such a point that your focus in the day hours is hindered. I say unto you, "ARISE AND STAND!" Take authority over the schemes of the enemy and declare My Word over your night hours. Take back the night hours. Praise Me in the night hours and watch how the night hours will continue to turn into some of the spaces of the greatest encounters for you with Me, My heart, and that which I am wanting to reveal to you.

'As you seek Me in humility, I am bringing you further into the revelation and understanding of your victory in Me and your position in Me as an overcomer (1 John 5:4). There are divine solutions, strategies and insight in this hour for many of you that are going to come in the night hours, and for many in your dreams, that are long-awaited answers to prayer. Be expectant. There is divine wisdom I am downloading in dreams in the night hours that will change the way you build in this season, and for many, it will be My wisdom that will bring forth breakthrough, healing, and for many, longevity.

'I am releasing strategies for health and longevity in the night hours. I am releasing greater vision of the move of My Spirit that is going to bring forth healings in the earth in ways that are unprecedented. I am releasing insight to navigate the seasons you are in and to walk in My ways. The enemy is attempting to lock many down in fear, foreboding, and weariness in the night hours right now, where I am releasing KEYS of wisdom and insight in the night hours that is going to bring forth a great unlocking in areas that I am going to move in powerfully.

'I say unto you, that where many have been facing battle after battle in the night hours, some for MANY years, I say unto you, APPREHEND BY FAITH the SPOILS of battle from all the night hour seasons. Apprehend by faith the spoils of these night hour battles through your expectation and faith for INCREASED INSIGHT and revelation in the night hours and renewed supernatural strength that you have not experienced before. There are MANY SPOILS of night hour battles awaiting many in this season.

'I say unto you, I am releasing JOY over your night hours. I say unto you, that where there has been terror, where there has been witchcraft within your dreams, where there has been foreboding fear and onslaught in the night hours, you take authority over the plans of the enemy, as you plead My blood over your night hours and you rejoice that I am the One who gives My beloved rest (Ps 127:2) and I am KING over your night hours. WATCH as the season of torment, opposition and weariness in the night hours TURNS to one of the greatest seasons of encountering Me in the night hours that will fill your heart with joy as you commune with Me.'

Elul 25, 5786: Monday- September 7, 2026

THE BIRTHING OF YOUR DESTINY
DANIEL PONTIOUS, SONORA, CA

Recently, the Lord reminded me of the stretch marks made by the creation of new life in this world (because my wife and I have three children), from its conception to its delivery.

Then I heard this verse: "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let the CURTAINS OF YOUR HABITATIONS BE STRETCHED OUT; spare not; lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes, for you will spread abroad to the right hand and to the left; and your OFFSPRING WILL POSSESS THE NATIONS and make the desolate cities to be inhabited." (Isaiah 54:2–3 AMPC, emphasis mine)

Many of you have been enduring a time of intense stretching. You've been stretched so far that it has often felt as though you are going to break. The pressure and the stresses have felt almost unbearable, but even in the process of stretching, God has been growing new life inside of your spirit.

Some of you bear the stretch marks in the spirit of previous birthings, where God has used you to bring forth something of His in the past. You bear upon you the marks of that process, but this is a new season. The stretching is to make room inside of you for new life to emerge—not just to be created, but to come forth into the natural world. Those of you who have never been down this road before, and are in new territory, may feel as though the changes happening to you are a personal attack; but God is stretching you out and depositing within you something that is from Him in the spirit. The longer you carry it, the larger it becomes and the more it takes shape. What you don't realize is that what you are getting ready to birth isn't just new life but the destiny God has for you personally!

As the stretching continues, God will strengthen your staying power to remain in the process—firmly fasten you in Christ—so that you cannot be moved spiritually unless you pull them (the cords and the stakes, Isaiah 54:2) up. Sometimes we don't want to endure the process, so the enemy tries to get us to abort what God is doing. But if you strengthen your cords and your stakes and stay firmly planted in Him, He will cause your destiny to come forth and that new life to emerge, and when it does, you'll be so glad you did!

"A woman, when she gives birth to a child, has grief (anguish, agony) because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she no longer remembers her pain (trouble, anguish) because she is so glad that a man (a child, a human being) has been born into the world." (John 16:21 AMPC)

Don't allow the enemy to get you to abort what God is doing in you. New life is coming no matter how hard the process seems!

Elul 26, 5786: Tuesday- September 8, 2026

Kathi Pelton: Oregon, Washington & California: NOW Is the Time to Recover All!

On June 7, 2026, the Lord took me to the book of Nehemiah and spoke to me regarding the fifty-two days that it took to rebuild the walls and gates around the city. This is what the Lord said to me: "Count fifty-two days from today, because that day will be a sign of a divine turnaround."

I counted fifty-two days and came up with July 28th, 2026. I knew that this was a personal date, and I also suspected that it was a corporate marker in time as well, but didn't know what would come of it.

On a personal note, July 28, 2026, marked my 44th year of being saved (July 28, 1982). It was also the day I arrived in a new city that would be my home for many years to come. But I did not know what God had in store for July 28, 2026.

On July 27, I was invited to join a meeting at the Oregon State Capitol that I had only heard about hours before. I knew that I had to be there but didn't know why. When I arrived, I found myself standing before republican legislators and candidates running for seats of authority in Oregon.

When I first entered the room, I began to hear the words from a prophecy that the Lord had spoken to me years prior. The words to that prophecy were this: "Watch as I 'de-seat' (unseat) the deceivers and I cause My people to recover all."

As these words replayed in my mind, I felt compelled to look up the date when I released that prophecy. I could not remember the day, month, or year. I quickly did a search using the words to the prophecy, and when my search came up with the article, guess what the date was? Yes, July 28! It was July 28, 2022.

Now Is the Time to Recover All

When I saw the date, the Lord said, "You are here in the Oregon State Capitol today to decree, deliver, and prophesy those words, because now is that time." (Photo via Unsplash)

July 28, 2026, is the day when turnaround begins. It is the day marked by the Lord when Oregon will begin to recover all for the people who have prayed, repented, and humbled themselves before the Lord. The "de-seating" (or unseating) of deceivers will now come to pass, and the appointing of governmental apostolic leaders will begin.

OREGON WILL RECOVER ALL THAT THE ENEMY HAS STOLEN—families, sons, daughters, homes, parks, businesses, schools, courtrooms, halls of government, safety, farmland, cities, streets, as well as truth, righteousness, justice, and freedom.

The Lord didn't stop there! He said what now happens in Oregon will be the tripwire that causes the same thing to happen in Washington State and California. The West Coast states will no longer be known as the "left coast states," but they will lead the nation in righteousness and truth, which will usher in a greater freedom than our nation has known before.

A Governmental Shift and the End of a Desert Generation

I moved to Oregon twelve years ago, and I felt that the twelve marked a governmental shift that completed an assignment. Though the Body of Christ in Oregon has been through years of discouragement, disillusionment, and even despair, the Lord has seen our cries, heard our prayers, watched as we've humbled ourselves, and He has received our worship.

July 29, 2026, was the 15th of Av on the Hebrew calendar (Tu B'Av), which signifies "the end of a desert generation." A generation is marked by forty years, and this year marks forty years since Oregon has voted for a Republican governor. Though this is not about a particular political party, it does mark a shift of when Oregon began to turn away from biblical values. It was also a full moon, and the dark sky was lit up with a light that was full and radiant. It marked the end of a desert generation for Oregon, Washington, and California.

Let's rejoice for all that the Lord is doing. Though our natural eyes have not seen the results, our spiritual eyes and ears have heard the good report of the Lord, and that is what we will proclaim!

Elul 27, 5786: Wednesday- September 9, 2026

THE LORD IS HOVERING OVER YOUR "YES"

CANDACE ROBERTS, CONWAY, AR

The Lord is hovering over your yes in this season.

I sense many who are feeling completely broken, almost dismantled in a sense—those who have yet to see the many promises or prophecies spoken over their lives come true. They have endured assault after assault, trauma after trauma, blow after blow, YET, their YES has never faltered. In their deepest, darkest moments, when the enemy attempted to turn their doubts into unbelief and steal their yes, they held on. They came out with an unrelenting resolve to love Him.

They have been undone by His love, and no matter how fierce the battle is, they can never go back. "Yes" is no longer a word, but a part of who they are. Yes is in every moment, around every corner. As the enemy, heartache, and disappointment have chased them, a resounding sound has sprung forth from their mouths, "You will not have my yes!" Yes has become the picture of love and complete surrender. Yes has become the sword that has shattered the enemy's lies.

I sense so strongly the Lord Himself is hovering over your yes in this season. Just as He hovered over the darkness, He has been hovering over your darkest moments. There has never been a moment when you were alone. Just as His voice spoke movement into nothing and chaos and brought forth creation, His voice is echoing in your situation.

Your yes has compelled Him to hover over your season. Though everything has seemed lost, He has been waiting to release His voice over your destiny. At just the right time, His voice will break through every delay, every obstacle. His voice will bring order to chaos and creation from nothingness. The power of the voice of the Lord is about to fall on your yes! Yes draws Him; yes compels Him. Favor, blessing, healing, and restoration is falling on your yes.

Yes is a heart posture that has patiently waited and trusted in the Lord. It has never been concerned with what it can get, just the measure of encounter with the One who gives it. Because of this, the hovering is about to turn into an outpouring over your yes. Just wait and watch what He does with your yes. In one moment, the sound of His voice can bring forth a whole new reality. Get ready, He's about to create through you something that has never existed before. He's not going to just restore; He's going to make it ALL new—a new land, new territory, new creation where you thought there could be none.

Hold steady, my friend, your yes has not gone unnoticed. The glory of the Lord is about to fall upon it!

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. "And God said, 'Let there be light,' and there was light." (Genesis 1:1–3)

"God thunders marvelously with His voice; He does great things which we cannot comprehend." (Job 37:5 AMP)

Elul 28, 5786: Thursday- September 10, 2025

Charlie Shamp

Divine Timing - The Clock Isn't Ticking Against You; It's Ticking for You!

A Season Is Not a Destination

There is a blueprint to how God moves, and it is written into the very fabric of time. Most people live as if time is a flat line, one day after another, random and unpredictable. But the Scriptures reveal that God operates in three distinct modes of timing, each with its own purpose, its own risk, and its own power. To know the difference is to walk in confidence instead of confusion.

A season is not a destination; it is a container. It holds you for a specific purpose, and when that purpose is fulfilled, the season dissolves.

The prophet Amos asked, "Can two walk together, unless they are agreed?" (Amos 3:3 NKJV). A season is God's way of agreeing with you for a particular work. It is the soil in which your roots grow deep.

In the book of Genesis, Joseph spent thirteen years in a season of obscurity; first a pit, then a prison. That season was not a punishment. It was a forge. Every betrayal, every false accusation, every forgotten promise was hammering something into his character that could not be formed any other way.

A season is not about what you are doing. It is about what is being done in you. The length of a season is not the measure of its value; the depth is. Do not despise the season you are in, for it is the only womb that can birth what is next. (Photo via Unsplash)

Recognizing an Appointed Time

An appointed time is a divine intersection. It is a moment when Heaven and earth meet, and you are invited to step into your purpose. The Hebrew word moed, translated "meeting" or "appointed time," carries the idea of a sacred appointment (Strong's H4150). God sets these moments, but He does not force you to keep them.

Consider the parable of the ten virgins in Matthew 25. All ten of them had lamps. All ten of them knew the bridegroom was coming. But five of them were not ready when the appointed time arrived. The door was shut; the opportunity was lost—not because God changed His mind, but because they did not prepare!

The tragedy of a missed appointment is not that God's plan fails. It never fails. The tragedy is that you forfeit the portion that was meant for you. In Acts 13, Paul and Barnabas turned to the Gentiles when the Jews rejected the word. The appointment was kept, just with different people.

An appointed time is a test of your alertness. God does not announce it with trumpets. He whispers it in the ordinary. The question is not whether God will show up. The question is whether you will show up ready.

Understanding a Set Time

Now we come to the most powerful of the three: the set time. This is not a season that can shift. This is not an appointment that can be missed. This is a decree from the throne of Heaven that cannot be altered by any force in creation.

Psalm 75:2 declares, "When I choose the proper time, I will judge uprightly" (NKJV). The Hebrew word translated "proper time" is moed again, but here it carries the weight of a fixed, sovereign decision (Strong's H4150). When God sets a time, it is like a stone dropped into still water; the ripples cannot be stopped.

Think of the birth of Isaac. God said, "At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah will have a son" (Genesis 18:14 NKJV). Sarah's body was dead. Abraham's body was as good as dead. But the set time did not depend on biology. It depended on the word of the Lord. And when that time arrived, nothing could hold it back. (Photo via Unsplash)

Think of the resurrection of Jesus. It was not a lucky break. It was a set time. Peter declared, "Him, being delivered by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God…" (Acts 2:23 NKJV). The cross was not an accident. The empty tomb was not a surprise. It was a set time, and no Roman seal, no stone, no guard could undo it.

A set time is not affected by your readiness. It is not affected by your worthiness. It is affected only by the decree of God. When He sets a time for your breakthrough, your healing, your promotion, all of Heaven conspires to bring it to pass. The only variable is whether you will be standing in it when it arrives.

When an Appointed Time and a Set Time Converge

Here is the mystery that changes everything: sometimes a season, an appointed time, and a set time converge in a single moment. That is what happened at Pentecost. The disciples were in a season of waiting. The appointed time of the feast had come. And then the set time of the Holy Spirit's arrival exploded into the upper room.

You may be in a season right now that feels like a waiting room. You may have missed an appointment and wondered if you have been disqualified. But the set time is still on the calendar of Heaven. It does not depend on your past. It depends on God's promise!

The prophet Habakkuk wrote, "For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not [delay]." (Habakkuk 2:3 NKJV, brackets mine).

It will not delay, not because you are perfect, not because your enemies have surrendered, but because the set time is a decree, and a decree from Heaven cannot be reversed.

The clock is not ticking against you. It is ticking for you! Stand still. The set time has arrived!

Elul 29, 5786: Friday-September 11, 2026

NATE & CHRISTY

Several weeks ago, I shared a word that your greatest days AREN'T DONE after battling the Jezebel spirit, so this is the follow up. Because so many get caught in the assault loop of thinking it lasts forever… and it really shouldn't.

You may have grown up under it, encountered it in church, in your calling, and probably every facet of your life, BUT it's only a rite of passage because of what you carry - not a permanent PIT you will forever be battling in.

Let me prophesy what I feel the Lord is saying - THERE IS ANOTHER CHAPTER after the warfare and the battle you've been in! YOU NEED TO READ THAT AGAIN.

There is a FUTURE and a life beyond this struggle and targeted affliction.

In fact, I hear the Lord saying:

"I AM LEADING YOU OUT FROM UNDER HER, UNTANGLING YOU FROM HER PLAGUES, AND SHOWING YOU HOW TO THROW HER DOWN!"

But first, God is bringing you into a complete factory reset from the battle. And that's where you are. YOU ARE IN A RESTART right now from the battle that has been raging YOUR WHOLE LIFE!

Here's the thing nobody tells you about a restart: it doesn't feel positive at first. It feels like ROCK BOTTOM. It feels like everything has fallen apart and you even think: "OH, MAN… JEZEBEL WON. SHE GOT ME. SHE DERAILED IT ALL…" Right?

WRONG!

This is what a restart really is: a DIVINE RESCUE MISSION... OK, READ THAT AGAIN, TOO.

A restart is actually a KAIROS SEASON of COVERT DELIVERANCE. The enemy thinks he succeeded, but God is RESETTING & REBUILDING your life to deliver you from every tentacle and connection point to this demonic spirit. It's where God PRUNES YOU BACK, not to punish you but to SET YOU FREE from every area this spirit has been STEALTHILY clinging on and poking holes in the boat of your life, family, and calling.

When people hear Christy's and my story and what we walked through with this spirit against our life, they just need to know, "Is there another day? Is there a future beyond here?" Let me tell you: THERE IS A NEW DAY THAT WILL DAWN after this…

A few years ago, I hit this place where emotionally, mentally, and physically I was in a breakdown and I didn't understand what was going on. All I knew was I didn't have the capacity I normally had anymore. I literally thought for months that I must be having a mental breakdown after running too hard. But what I didn't realize that I see now is that it was a GOD-ORDAINED moment, because God was trying to bring me into a new capacity, a new mantle, and a new anointing. He was bringing me OUT of an old wineskin and was UPGRADING me. But at the time, all I could see was everything falling down around me.

Interestingly, in that time the Jezebel spirit rose up MORE THAN I HAD EVER WITNESSED, as if the enemy was trying to take me out in the very season God was LEVELLING ME UP HIGHER. But I was at a THRESHOLD OF UNFATHOMABLE PROPORTIONS. In reality, God was leading me out from any last remnants of her control, her manipulation, and her SYSTEM.

Many of you are in that place RIGHT NOW where THERE IS AN UNUSUAL RESISTANCE in a time where you already feel like you're being rebuilt from the ground up. But WHAT IF YOU'RE IN A RESTART? What if you're in a rebirth? What if you're in a rebuild? And THIS IS WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE.

The reason we are hearing more about the spirit of Jezebel and narcissism and relational healing words, witchcraft, chatter, curses, and spiritual warfare right now more than ever before is that HER KINGDOM IS UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT so that God's church can finally rise up and OUT FROM THE HOLDS we've been in. God has been DECONSTRUCTING people from her to rebuild them without the dysfunction they were in before. And that is the moment YOU are in now.

So, let me make this clear: If you've been through this... YOU'RE NOT FALLING APART, GOD IS REBUILDING YOU... WITHOUT HER. Without her in your head, your thoughts, your identity. Without her in your marriage, your family, your relationships. Open season is over. God is saying "DO NOT PASS!" to the repeat offenders trying to trojan horse her back in every second week. Enough is enough...

I have been hearing this all year for the families who've been battling this spirit and are in this RESET/RESTART - God is doing something very targeted and specific. GOD IS GENERATIONALLY DELIVERING YOU RIGHT NOW! He is generationally RESETTING you from everything you've grown up under, been tethered to, and even subtly been tolerating and normalizing. THIS IS A GENERATIONAL BLOODLINE RESET MOMENT!

That's why you've been dealing with things in your marriage you didn't realize were underlying. Issues and fractures in your mindset and identity you didn't know were sitting there; issues in your relationships, your finances, and your health, and so much more. It feels like God went back to the drawing board on EVERY area of your life, or like He turned the engine off in every area and He's rebooting your system, and it's overwhelming, because you feel surrounded by bricks, dirt and dust.

And you keep looking back at that old perfect life you used to have when you were blissfully unaware. STOP LOOKING BACK. Don't be like Lot's wife. Don't look back anymore. Because there was BONDAGE in that past season. There was a ceiling and a limitation on it AND HER HAND WAS IN IT. This is God resetting you. Rebuilding you. DELIVERING you. Standing you to your feet and RE-MANTLING you for this moment. This is your new chapter.

People ask me, "HOW?" How do I navigate this season?"

On your face. REBUILD THE ALTAR. Reignite your prayer life. Come back to the basics, and watch Him rebuild you His way, and PURGE HER OUT COMPLETELY. But be careful in this season what alignments you come into, what friendships you start, and who has access to your heart. Be careful what text threads you're on. What you're watching, feeding on, feasting on, and allowing in. This is a season to safeguard your family, your marriage, and your CORE WORLD. So God rebuilds you without ANY of her dysfunctions creeping back in to rob your next season. Because the bricks you lay NOW are the foundation God builds on FOR THE NEXT 10-20 years...

As I've shared many times lately, this RESTART is exactly what Elijah went through in 1 Kings 19, after being cursed by Jezebel. He ended up in a cave. DEPLETED. Done.

Wanting to die. The same place many of you have been. BUT HERE'S THE MISSING KEY: Elijah stepped into a NEW CHAPTER after the cave, RE-MANTLED and carrying the spoils of war on the other side of the assault.

HE ANOINTED JEHU, the man who would kill Jezebel. The prophet she tried to decommission walked out and anointed her EXECUTIONER. She tried to kill him, but it only signed her death warrant instead. And that's what you are walking out holding: the authority to commission others to take her down. She thought she silenced you, but INSTEAD, YOU'RE GOING TO RAISE UP AN ARMY AGAINST HER!

HE MANTLED ELISHA. This is the strategy to break out. GO BREAK SOMEONE OUT IN THIS SEASON. GO MANTLE SOMEONE. Elijah threw his mantle over the shoulders of the next generation, and for you that means HANDING DOWN YOUR VICTORIES to those still stuck in the battle.

HE BROKE THE DROUGHT. What does this reveal? INCREASED power, authority, and BREAKTHROUGH resting on your life after this. THE SPOILS OF BATTLE are ready at your disposal. What if your RESTART was bringing you out of a limited anointing and a ceiling into an anointing that BREAKS A DROUGHT or answers a regional or global problem? Or what if you become the Elijah of your generation to drive false gods out of the land? Pay attention to the spoils.

AND HE OUTRAN THE CHARIOT. The same Elijah who was in fear, depleted, and running on empty OUTRAN A CHARIOT. That's God repaying your robbery with not only POWER and MULTIPLICATION, but with restoration to your mind, your emotions, and your physical body. Everything Jezebel drained out of you, God is giving back with interest. You will not limp into the next chapter. YOU'RE GOING TO RUN INTO IT FASTER THAN YOU LEFT THE LAST ONE.

Now let me prophesy what it's going look like in this next chapter. You ready?

It's going to look like waking up and no longer looking over your shoulder. No one waiting to backstab you, trick you, triangulate you, muzzle you, or shut you down.

It's going to look like walking in your calling with no one cutting you down, diluting your voice, or hijacking it for their own bidding.

It's going to look like your marriage HEALTHY. Genuine love, affection, connection. No distance, no witchiness, no constant strife.

It's going to look like your kids walking in FREEDOM, never knowing a single day of narcissism, control, or the games that come with it.

It's going to look like your family waking up every day to follow God, not dragged through generational curses, sin, and plagues that existed before you were born.

It's going to look like never again having to dissect Jezebel out of every corner of your life, or eye every person as a potential threat.

It's going to look like God raising you up to lead JEZEBEL-FREE environments that teach the next generation their authority and their voice.

It's going to look like your body in FULLNESS OF HEALTH. Not bracing for the next storm, not flinching when your phone lights up, sleeping through the night because your soul KNOWS the war is over.

It's going to look like the drought lifting off your money. Provision flowing where it used to leak, every open door shut to the spirits that sabotaged you.

It's going to look like familiar and monitoring spirits with NO access to your home, your family, your life.

It's going to look like you stepping into your voice UNAPOLOGETICALLY. Spiritual authority on you like a mantle, so instead of cowering in the room, YOU SET THE TEMPERATURE.

It's going to look like LEGACY. The war zone your family lived in becomes an ALTAR ON FIRE that Jezebel will never put out.

On the other side of the assault is A RECOMMISSIONING and a fresh anointing to take her down FOR GOOD. YOUR GREATEST DAYS AREN'T DONE. THIS IS YOUR RESTART, IN JESUS' NAME!

"Then I heard another voice from heaven say: 'Come out of her, My people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues.'" (Revelation 18:4)

IN CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors. I highly recommend that you follow most of the prophetic voices available today by signing up for ELIJAH LIST email! Subscribe at this link: elijahlist.com/subscribe.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Rabbi Bob & Remy Koch, Nate & Christy Johnston, Veronika West, Terry Friesen, Michael Friesen, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, Andrew Towe, Lana Vawser, Andrew Whalen, Pat Francis, Sylvia Gunter, Gretchen Rodriguez, Daniel Pontious, Kathi Pelton, Lorilei Cooley, Candace Roberts, Charlie Shamp, Danielle Dixon, Craig Cooney, Amanda Grace, Crystal G.H. Lowery, Kim Potter, John Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Tim Sheets, with additional quotes from sermons and the book, "A Time To Advance" by Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler.

"Study to show yourself approved."

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, "Study to show yourself approved."

2 Timothy 2:15 Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth. Additionally, pay attention to 2 Chronicles 20:20 (Amplified Bible, Classic Edition) 20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the Lord your God and you shall be established; believe and remain steadfast to His prophets and you shall prosper.

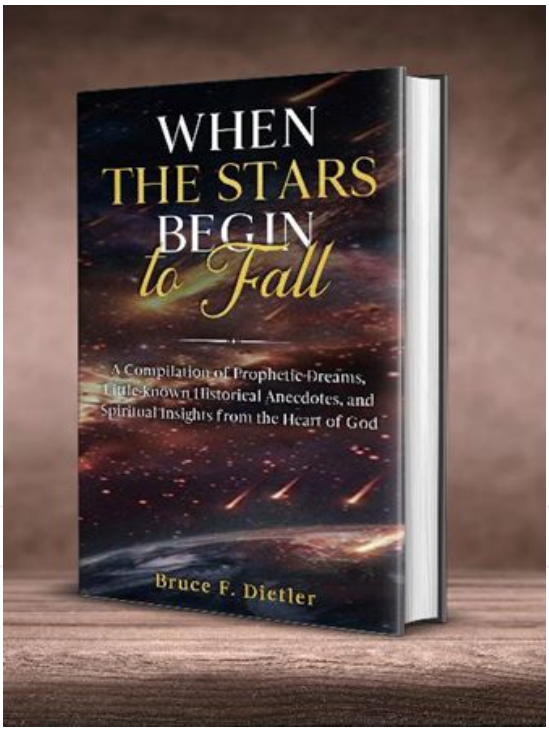

Blessings and enjoy, Wade K. Butler, Pastor, Chaplin

Bruce Dietler has written two incredible books:

When Stars begin to Fall: A Compilation of Prophetic Dreams, Little-known Historical Anecdotes, and Spiritual Insights from the Heart of God

"It would appear that everything in our world that can be shaken is either currently being shaken or soon will be. The foundations of security for many will surely crumble in the immediate future; those who have trusted in them and not in the Lord will be desperate for escape. Yet the Lord is calling us, His Ekklesia, to be as the sons of Issachar, understanding the times and seasons and exercising great biblical discernment in every area of life. There is great hope for the future when we view life from God's perspective; when we see how He has intervened in days past and project that into our future. This book does that. When the stars begin to fall will be the worst of times or the best of times depending on one's perspective and where we place our trust and confidence. Look up, get excited, and expect great things in the days ahead. Purpose to flow in God's plan, and all will unfold in awe and wonder. The best is yet to come!"

Bruce Dietler, $19.99  on Amazon.com

God's Glorious, Victorious Church: A Biblical Blueprint for Manifesting God's INFLUENCE in Society

God's Glorious, Victorious Church is a compelling, Scripture-anchored call for believers to rediscover the Church as the Ekklesia - Christ's governing body on earth, empowered to manifest the Kingdom of God in real and tangible ways. This book moves beyond theory into practical, Spirit-led application, equipping readers to live with confidence, authority, and purpose in an increasingly unstable world.

Bruce F. Dietler walks primarily in the ministry gift of teacher. Ordained into Christian ministry by the late Wilford Wright, son-in-law of John G. Lake, and later by Dr. Lester Sumrall of LESEA Ministries, he has been involved in ministry for over 45 years.

I recommend everyone to get a copy of each book as soon as you can!

Bruce Dietler, $19.99 on Amazon.com

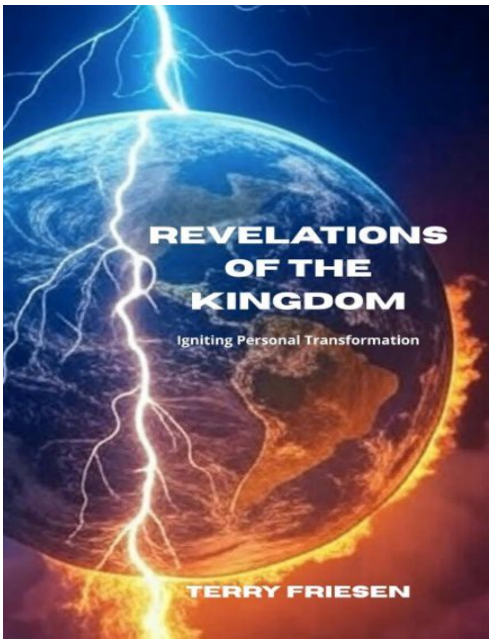

Terry Friesens' first edition was outstanding, and Volume two is even better.

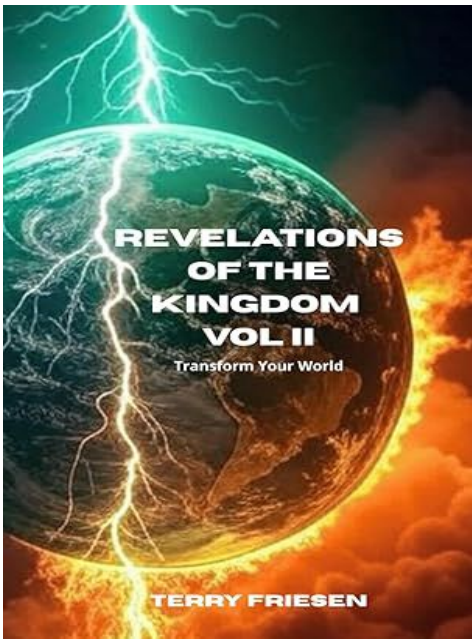

Revelations of the Kingdom Vol I and II: Transforming Your World

If you are looking to embark on a journey of discovery into what the Spirit of God is saying in this day and hour, you have come to the right place. The Revelations of the Kingdom in this book are designed to help you transform your world. Day by day, over the last couple of years, the author has been ushered into supernatural encounters for the purpose of seeing what is to come and to be transformed through those same encounters.

If you join the journey, you will experience:

- Personal Transformation
- Prophetic Revelation
- Glory Encounters
- The New Era of the Church
- The Advance of God's Kingdom in and Around You

Discover the risen Christ in the fullness of His glory and how overcoming victory can be yours as well. Within these pages, you will encounter revelations of the Kingdom of God, which will bring about your transformative process as you see Christ formed in you. This transformational process can extend into your world, affecting everything you come in contact with.

We have entered a season in time where we need to know the fullness of who Christ is and what He accomplished for us. Remaining within the comfort of past experience will serve to separate you from the new that God is birthing in the church. Say yes to the new wine skin of His coming glory and partner with the Lord in releasing Heaven on Earth in this season.

"I saw Yeshua standing as a man with hair and the face of a lion- His hair waved and flowed as liquid gold, an appeared like God's Glory. In His right hand was a tall gold scepter-Yeshua walked into the world and through the earthly and worldly systems and structures, as if they didn't exist. He thrust His scepter into the ground to stake the land and His Kingdom. The ground in the spirit was leveled and prepared for Kingdom structures to be built. He didn't wrestle with earthly structures; He simply moved through them as if they weren't there. By doing this, He pronounced and carried out judgment on the world…"

Terry Friesen, $21.95 on Amazon.com

Don’t forget “The Heart of a Seer”

By Wade Butler, $19.95 on Amazon.com

