Biblical Month of "Nissan 5786", Chaplain Wade Butler

Barbara Wintroble with Chuck Pierce

"The season of hope has now arrived." From Nissan 5785

"This is not a season to look forward into the future, but to know hope has arrived. I am coming to break every assignment of hope deferred off of MY people this hour. You have longed for this time, and I have heard your prayers that have been stored up. Now, I rain upon you in a new way, and I bring hope to you in a new way, and I bring hope to what looked to be hopeless in days past. You are not in that season; you have stepped across into the new that I prepared for you. So, rise up this day! Break off every shackle and weight that has tried to hold you down! You have stepped across into the new. Your hope is not for the days ahead, but you are in the 'now' season. So, rejoice and know that this is the season of manifestation of what you have hoped and longed for. Rejoice, hope has arrived! This is a hope season! Quit rehearsing your past—you have stepped into the present! Let the dust of the past settle, and walk on new ground."

Maryam Ziadat Ministries: from Nissan 5784

BE MINDFUL OF THE SEASONS UNDER HEAVEN, SAYS THE LORD!

Don't forget, and always be mindful of this, says the Lord: "It's all about SEASONS! What looks dead right now and what looks dry is going to change accordingly with the SEASONS OF LIFE.

"Be patient, and pray that I help you to endure, for I know, and I see what is coming next. I call what is not as is, for I know the end from the beginning. So, in times of confusion, uncertainty, and doubt, call on me, and I will show you what I see. I will share my vision with you so you will be assured of the prosperity I have in mind for you, you loved one, your nation, and whatever issue you are dealing with right now.

"I Am your refuge, and I AM the one who calls you to STAND. Ask of me, and I will answer. Knock and the door will be opened. In the right SEASON, what looks dry now shall bloom and bring fruits to satisfy your heart and mine. Be always mindful to understand things and people according to the seasons of life they are in under heaven. You think Desert, and I am thinking Streams of Living Water. I AM ABLE, AND I WILL DO IT. Just TRUST."

Isaiah 46:10 "Declaring the end from the beginning, And from ancient times things which have not been done, Saying, 'My purpose will be established, And I will accomplish all My good pleasure."

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven..."

"While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." Genesis 8:22 KJV

Psalm 48:14 "For such is God, Our God forever and ever; He will guide us until death."

"The seasons change, and you change, but the Lord abides evermore the same, and the streams of His love are as deep, as broad, and as full as ever." — Charles H. Spurgeon

Excerpts from: The Great Shift from Heaven to Earth 5786

By: Mari Anne Andersen

On September 22, 2025, as the sun sets, the Hebrew calendar will move into a New Year – 5786 – which marks the beginning of Rosh Hashana – the Feast of Trumpets. The Hebraic year 5786 is more than a number on a calendar. It is a prophetic signpost of a "Massive Shift" unlike anything we have witnessed before. God is inviting His people to partner with Him as heaven touches earth in unprecedented ways.

It's a year of Divine Connections, Divine Shifts and Divine Alignments from Heaven to our Earth.

What Does This Mean for Believers?

1. A call to deeper alignment: It requires living with intentionality that we must remain and abide in the Godhead so that He can lead His people into a greater oneness with His purposes from Heaven to Earth. (To awaken us from slumber.)
2. New Openings and Gateways: Expect new doors to open in unexpected ways. Don't be afraid to see some of the old breaking into the new. Be ready, willing, and able to step into new ways and to leave the old behind. (To step into grace and revelation.)
3. Completion and New Beginnings Together: Uniquely, this year carries both completion (number 7) and newness (number 8). Old cycles will close so that new ones can emerge. (To prepare for warfare and completion.)
4. Global Significance: Nations will feel this shift profoundly. Political, economic, and spiritual landscapes will not remain as they were. God is repositioning all these areas in our lives. Remember He is connecting, aligning, and joining us into Heavenly purposes here on this side of eternity. (To walk through new gateways with faith and to embrace the divine connection of heaven and earth.)

As I started out in this article, I said the Hebraic year 5786 is more than a number on a calendar. It's a year that will NOT be the same old, same old thing. This year is a prophetic signpost of a massive shift and unlike anything we have witnessed before.

In conclusion, 5786 is going to be a year of a great shift seeing the grace of God, the sword of warfare, the doorway of new beginnings, and the connection of heaven and earth all converge in this year. For God is sealing His people and nations for His purposes. The trumpet is sounding. Awake, align, and prepare for heaven's purposes to break into earth like nothing you have ever seen. For God is marking Hs people and even the nations with His seal for the trumpet is sounding for heaven's purpose to break into the earth with unprecedented power for a global awakening.

Lord, we thank YOU that 5786 is not just another year, but a divine appointment in Your calendar. We receive the fullness of what YOU are speaking and doing in this season. Let every hinderance be removed, and every chain be broken so that Your people may rise in freedom and boldness.

Father, open our eyes to see the doors You are placing before us. Teach us to step through them in faith, without fear, leaning fully on Your Spirit. Let Your wisdom guide us, and Your presence sustain us.

We do declare that this is the year of alignment—heaven and earth joining together for Your glory. Let Your voice be louder than any distraction. Let Your Word be established in our hearts and proclaimed in our mouths. We say "YES" to the Divine Shift, we say "YES" to being your vessels of Your kingdom on earth. Seal this year in victory, and let everything we do be for the glory and honor of our Yeshua.

Nissan 5786: March 19, 2026 – April 18, 2026

It is amazing how much the Hebrew faith has influenced our world. In every area, we are influenced greatly. We may not always agree or appreciate the Hebrew people, yet without the Hebrew people we would not have much of our scientific accomplishments, modern medicine, transportation, education, art, music, entertainment, government, and even the latest signs of the times. Most importantly, HIS WORD never changes. Isaiah 61:4 (AMPC) And they shall rebuild the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former desolations and renew the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

This letter, to those who are new at following the daily devotional and Calendar, I would like to share with you some of the reasoning of the publication and answer some questions that are posed to me each month. To begin with, we follow the example of "One new man," Jew and Gentile following the Messiah. Because of that, we relate the Hebrew calendar timelines, because our father did not change the seasons, man did. We need to learn about our roots. So, join us.

The war on the sons and daughters of GOD has greatly intensified. The corruption being discovered is beyond belief for most uninformed people. The discoveries so far are in the trillions. It is really bad in the U.S., and now the communist leaders of Canada are pushing for war with the United States using UN troops lead by China. Don't be deceived. The war is against the body of Christ. Canada is pushing legislation to ban all private ownership of weapons. Disarm a nation, and take it without a battle. The invasion from the North could be at the door unless the Ekklesia stands up. We are at the door to the greatest war, and at the same time, the greatest breakthroughs in history. Pay attention to 2 Chron 20:20B "Believe in the Lord your God and you shall be established; believe and remain steadfast to His prophets and you shall prosper." It's more relevant now than ever before.

This month of Nissan is packed full of prophesy, sermons, art, and background material that most people will never take the time to research on their own nor have the resources of input to obtain as much of the truth as can be found. Often, it goes against the grain of conventional churches and denominations because we follow the Hebrew calendar and the prophetic. He never changed HIS timing; the church and kings did.

I would rather follow HIM and know what I was adopted into. Sometimes, authors are used multiple times because they are in what we call the "zone" of the Holy Spirit. In other words, they are hearing from the LORD!

Each month is packed with Revelation of what GOD is saying, so buckle up, hold on, and take a journey with us, a day at a time. This month is about discerning, decreeing, declaring, and COMMANDING the WORD spoken!!!!! Go boldly into the Gates with thanksgiving and into Courts with PRAISE! And above all hold on to His Promises!!

Nissan: The Month of Passover

This month shall mark for you the beginning of the months; it shall be the first of the months of the year for you. Exodus 12:2

The upcoming New Year begins this Tuesday and is listed in the calendar as "The Year of Redemption, a year for Kings Shekalim, Festivals, and Vows." This title for the date is a reference to the description of the beginning of the month of Nissan in the Mishna (oral law).

The King's Calendar tracks all the activities that took place in the First and Second Temples and which will be performed again when the Third Temple is built. This includes the biblical feasts that are observed today, but the calendar also has many surprises, holidays and events that are only observed when a Temple stands in Jerusalem.

In 2018, the third temple calendar began representing the building of the Third Temple. Not all the holidays are biblical in origin. The holidays pertaining to the modern state of Israel, such as Israel Independence Day and Memorial Day, appear on the calendar, as does Jerusalem Day.

In Jewish history and tradition

1. 1 Nissan (3761 BC) – Creation of the World
2. 1 Nissan (1638 BC) – Death of Abraham
3. 1 Nissan (1533 BC) – Death of Isaac
4. 1 Nissan (1506 BC) – Death of Jacob
5. 7 Nissan (1416 BC) – Joshua sends two spies to Jericho.
6. 10 Nissan (1417 BCE) – Death of Miriam, 39 years after the Exodus.

7. 15 Nissan (1713 BC) – Birth of Isaac
8. 15 Nissan (1456 BC) – The Exodus from Egypt
9. 16 Nissan the Crucifixion of Yeshua
10. 17 Nissan (24th century BC) – Noah's Ark came to rest on mountains of Ararat.
11. 20 Nissan the Resurrection of Yeshua
12. 21 Nissan (1456 BC) – The sea splits, allowing Israel to escape the Egyptian army.
13. 26 Nissan (1386 BC) – Death of Joshua
14. 28 Nissan (1415 BC) – Conquest of Jericho by Joshua.

The Month of Nissan

As the first month of the year, Nissan is particularly packed. The Pascal offering is supposed to be performed on the 14th of the month, along with the Fast of the First Born, which is still observed today on the day before Passover. The calendar also notes that the barley for the Omer offering is reaped on the evening of the last night of Passover.

Passover

It is in this month that we celebrate the eight-day holiday of Passover, from Nissan 14th through the 22nd. It commemorates the Jewish people's miraculous redemption from slavery in Egypt, and the birth of the Jewish nation.

We observe the anniversary of the Exodus each year by removing all leaven from our possession for this week, eating matzah and telling the story of the redemption to our children. By following the rituals of Passover, we have the ability to relive and experience the true spiritual freedom that our ancestors achieved.

It is mentioned in the Talmud that according to one tradition, the three patriarchs of the Jewish people—Abraham (1948–2123 from creation, 1813–1638 BCE), Isaac (2048–2228 from creation, 1713–1533 BCE) and Jacob (2108–2255 from creation, 1653–1506 BCE)—all were born and passed away in the month of Nissan.

Awakening from Above: The Month of Nissan and Passover

Nissan is called the Month of Miracles. On Pesach, Hashem displays transcendental miracles, and descends, so to speak, to take us out of our lowliness and slavery. This is called an 'awakening from above', for it is an unearned gift of kindness flowing down to us from Heaven. During the Seder, the joy of freedom that has been suppressed and hidden deep within us is released. As we sing Hallel, we reveal our joy and gratitude openly.

The Hebrew year 5786 symbolizes a year of connection, declaration, and spiritual alignment, combining grace, completion, new beginnings, and the role of humanity as a connector between heaven and earth.

Overview of 5786

The Hebrew year 5786 begins at Rosh Hashanah on the evening of September 11, 2026. It carries deep symbolic and spiritual significance. Each digit in 5786 corresponds to a Hebrew letter with its own meaning:

- 5 (Heh, ה): Represents grace, revelation, and the divine breath of life, reflecting God's presence and favor in human affairs.
- 7 (Zayin, ז): Symbolizes completion and perfection, linked to the Sabbath and the seven days of creation, emphasizing spiritual fulfillment and rest.
- 8 (Chet, ח): Denotes new beginnings and transcendence, encouraging movement beyond the natural world toward higher spiritual realities.
- 6 (Vav, ו): Known as the number of man, it represents a connector or hook linking heaven and earth, and highlighting humanity's role in bridging spiritual and earthly realms.

Spiritual and Prophetic Significance

5786 is part of the Decade of Pey (5780–5789), where Pey (80) symbolizes the mouth, emphasizing the power of speech, declaration, and proclamation. This decade encourages individuals to declare what they have seen spiritually, turning vision in to action. The year 5786, with its final digit 6 (Vav), underscores the human responsibility to connect divine purposes to earthly reality, acting as a pivot between heaven and earth.

Father's Heart Ministry

The year is also described as a time of truth, refinement, and alignment, where promises are fulfilled, and spiritual authority is exercised through prayer, proclamation, and faith. It is a period for staking claims for spiritual and natural alignments, discerning deception, and embracing God's covenant promises.

Practical Implications

- Personal Growth: Reflect on areas needing completion, embrace new beginnings, and use your voice to declare truth and faith.
- Spiritual Alignment: Engage in prayer, proclamation, and discernment to connect divine intentions with earthly actions.
- Global and Community Impact: The year encourages awareness of spiritual and societal shifts, calling for boldness, discernment, and active participation in God's plans.

In summary, 5786 is a year of grace perfected, completion realized, new beginnings embraced, and human connection to divine purpose activated, inviting individuals to speak, act, and align with spiritual truths in both personal and communal contexts.

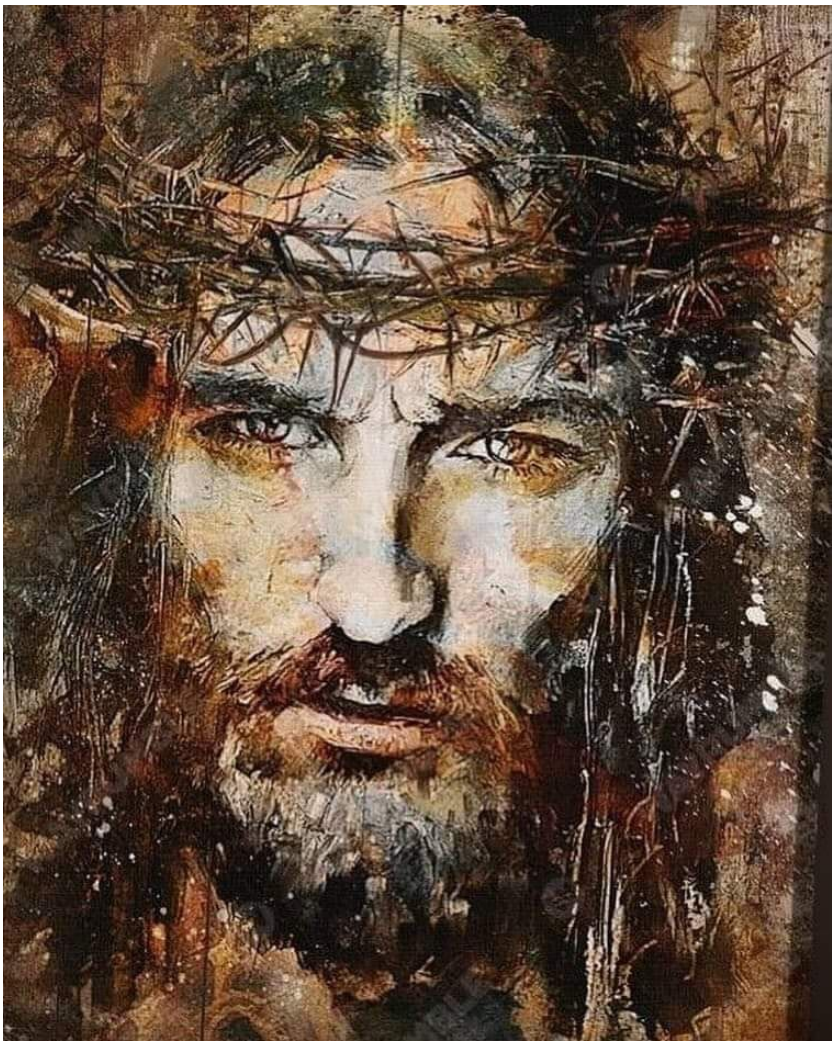

The Holy Land - By Alex Levin (artlevin.com)

Sense of the Month: Speech

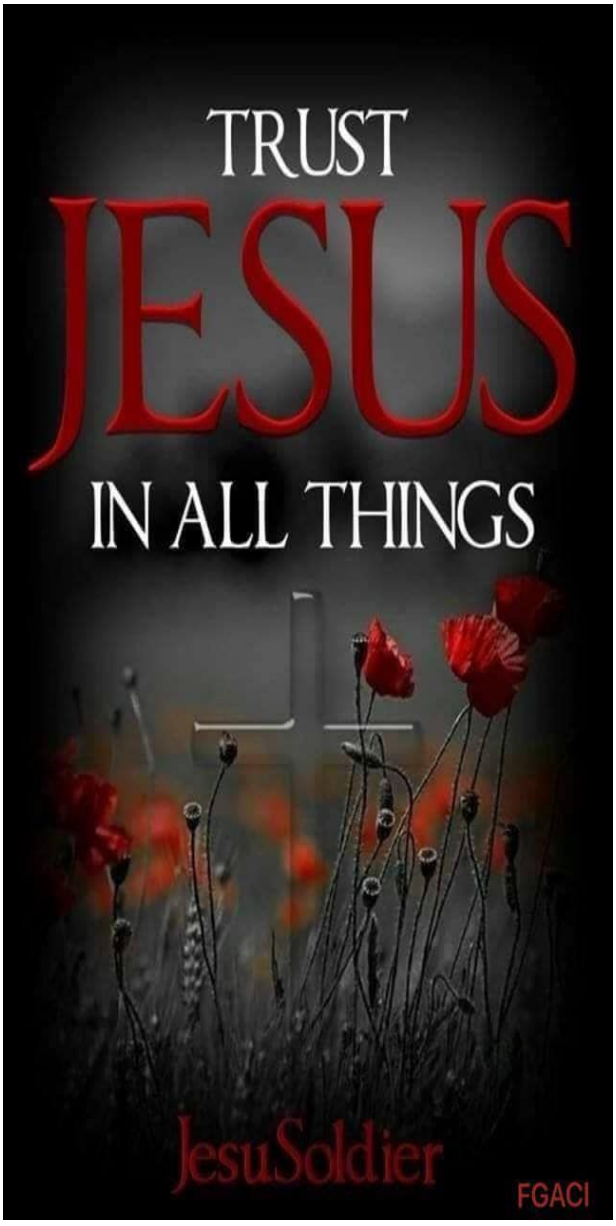

The 'sense' or faculty corresponding to Nissan is speech. Just as Hashem created the world with speech, so do we create our world, or at least our experience of the world, with speech. A slave is someone who has no voice, nor the power to create his or her reality. We can only experience freedom when we can refer to ourselves as free. The word Haggadah means 'telling.' During the Seder we speak at length about our Redemption from collective and personal 'slavery'. Thus, each year we receive the ability to proclaim our freedom on higher and higher levels.

It is called the time of "The New Year of Kings." Recognize what our KING did in HIS sacrifice on the cross as the LAMB of GOD that takes away the sins of the world.

Yeshua, "The KING OF KINGS".

The archetype of kingship, King David, is a descendant of Yehudah. Kingship also alludes to speech, for a king rules over his people through his words, which are received as commands: "for the word of the king is his rule." The Talmud says that Nissan initiated the "New Year of Kings." It is thus a new beginning for the power of leadership, for speech, and for expressing thanks. Because of the Redemption in this month, "it is our duty to thank, laud, praise, glorify, exalt, adore, bless, elevate, and honor the One who did all these miracles for our ancestors and for us."

This is the month of Passover.

It is in this month that we celebrate the eight-day holiday of Passover, from April 1st through the April 9th. It commemorates the Jewish people's miraculous redemption from slavery in Egypt, and the birth of the Jewish nation.

"It is the month of redemption, in which we were redeemed from Egypt, Jacob received the blessings, Isaac was born and was tied up on the altar; it is the month we will be redeemed in, and it is the beginning of salvation."

It is the time that the Lamb of GOD was offered as a onetime sacrifice for the sin of all man.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16.

Time of the Year: Spring

Nissan is the first month of Spring. When it arrives, something about the increasing light, the warmer air, and the sprouting vegetation may enhance our feeling that life is a gift and a blessing. Deeper within this instinctual feeling is the recognition that life is given to us whether we 'deserve' it or not. This is a deep level of humility, and it brings forth a tremendous sense of gratitude. During the eight days of Pesach, as we eat matzah, the bread of humility, we should strive to internalize this idea. Life is a miraculous gift descending from above. It cannot be earned, only humbly received. According to one opinion, Nissan is when human life was created.

Tribe of the Month: Yehudah or Judah

Nissan is associated with the tribe of Judah, or Yehudah, which means "praise" or 'to give thanks. Judah would always be the first in battle, or Judah goes first. Therefore, Nissan is Judah's month, the month of praise for what the LORD has done and is doing. It is the month of "Redemption and Miracles." As children of GOD, we need to give thanks for the Redemptive work of Calvary and our FATHER'S great love for you.

This Pesach season, may we experience the newness and freshness of life! May this year be a year of creativity and generosity and new beginnings! May we become leaders, humble and kind leaders, who 'skip over' the apparent ego in others. May the LORD bless us to witness the beginning of the miracle of all miracles, the Redemption of all humanity from all levels of slavery.

Understanding the Significance of the Hebrew Month of Nissan

Nissan is a month of redemption. As we gain an understanding of God's timing, we learn to "redeem" time.

Say this: "My blessings are not going to pass me by because I do not know the timing of them."

We know what time it is! It is time for our faith to go to work and see redemption manifest. That unredeemed stuff is about to shift. Nissan is a month of deliverance, restoration, revolution. It is all appropriated into our lives BY FAITH. This is a month where we connect our faith to our speech.

There's the "catch." But it can be as simple as speaking our thankfulness to God for our deliverance before we see it - saying then seeing.

- When I speak, my faith is heard.
- My words have the power to impact reality.
- The first words I speak in the morning set my day.
- My words have the capacity to bring change.

A man of God wrote a book I am reading about "Redeeming your Timeline." It falls into the category of redemptive when it has to do with our past, our destiny, our purpose or the purpose of a territory, business, ministry, etc. So, when we talk about redemptive prophesy in the month of redemption, we release faith in a cycle of redemption as in no other timeframe. Wow.

That's a realm of covenant blessing that we must become aware of and walk in. Knowing about this incredible timing issue with God puts us in position for His blessings to overtake us.

Yeshua did not die for us to live sick and tired, almost free, just getting by, and unhappy. We can break out of that with knowing and applying faith to the principles found each month in God's calendar.

Passover goes from the 15th to the 22nd of the Hebrew month Nissan, and this year, that translates to sunset on April 1st until sunset on April 9th, 2026. It is a celebration designed by God. It is given to increase our faith and prepare us to enter the fullness of His blessing. When we remember God's work of redemption and declare the power of redemption in lives, something always happens. Put your faith on that, something always happens.

Passover or Pesach commences on the evening of the 14th of the Hebrew month of Nissan. Note that in the Jewish calendar, a holiday begins at sunset of the previous day, so observing Hebrews will celebrate Passover at sunset, Wednesday the 1st of April.

For those unfamiliar with the meaning behind the sacred holiday, Passover is a time to celebrate and honor the liberation of the Israelites from over 400 years of slavery in ancient Egypt. The Hebrew word Pesach means to jump or pass over, and the holiday's name originated from the Jewish miracle in which God passed over the house of the Israelites during the tenth plague, sparing their first born sons, according to My Jewish Learning. For the first two nights of Passover, families and friends gather to eat a special meal called a seder. As Rabbi Norman R. Patz explained to Reader's Digest, "The word 'seder' means order. The Passover meal is an ordered meal, which includes reading the Haggadah, the text that tells the story of the Israelites exodus from Egypt."

In the narrative of the Exodus, the Bible tells that God helped the Children of Israel escape from their slavery in Egypt by inflicting ten plagues upon the ancient Egyptians before the Pharaoh would release his Israelite slaves; the tenth and worst of the plagues was the death of the Egyptian first-born.

The Israelites were instructed to mark the doorposts of their homes with the blood of a slaughtered spring lamb and, upon seeing this, the spirit of the Lord knew to pass over the first-born in these homes, hence the English name of the holiday.

When the Pharaoh freed the Israelites, it is said that they left in such a hurry that they could not wait for bread dough to rise (leaven). In commemoration, for the duration of Passover no leavened bread is eaten, for which reason Passover is called the feast of unleavened bread in the Torah. Thus matzo (flat unleavened bread) is eaten during Passover and it is a tradition of the holiday.

Called the "festival [of] the matzot" (Hebrew: חג המצות hag hamatzot) in the Hebrew Bible, the commandment to keep Passover is recorded in the Book of Leviticus:

In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month (April 1, 2026 this year) at dusk is the LORD's Passover which is also the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD; seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread. In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work. And ye shall bring an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days; in the seventh day is a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work. (Leviticus 23:5–8)

The biblical regulations for the observance of the festival require that all leavening be disposed of before the beginning of the 15th of Nissan. An unblemished lamb, known as the Korban Pesach or "Paschal Lamb," is to be set apart on Nissan 10 and slaughtered at dusk as Nissan 14 ends in preparation for the 15th of Nissan when it will be eaten after being roasted. The literal meaning of the Hebrew is "between the two evenings". It is then to be eaten "that night," Nissan 15, roasted, without the removal of its internal organs with unleavened bread, known as matzo, and bitter herbs known as maror. Nothing of the sacrifice on which the sun rises by the morning of the 15th of Nissan may be eaten but must be burned. The sacrifices may be performed only in a specific place prescribed by God (for Judaism, Jerusalem, and for Samaritans, Mount Gerizim).

The biblical regulations pertaining to the original Passover, at the time of the Exodus only, also include how the meal was to be eaten: "with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD's Passover." (Exodus 12:11)

The biblical requirements of slaying the Paschal lamb in the individual homes of the Hebrews and smearing the blood of the lamb on their doorways were celebrated in Egypt. However, once Israel was in the wilderness and the tabernacle was in operation, a change was made in those two original requirements (Deuteronomy 16:2–6). Passover lambs were to be sacrificed at the door of the tabernacle and no longer in the homes of the Hebrews. No longer, therefore, could blood be smeared on doorways.

The biblical commandments concerning the Passover (and the Feast of Unleavened Bread) stress the importance of remembering:

- And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt; and thou shalt observe and do these statutes." (Deuteronomy 16:12)

- Exodus 12:14 commands, in reference to God's sparing of the firstborn from the Tenth Plague: And this day shall be unto you for a memorial, and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.

- Exodus 13:3 repeats the command to remember: Remember this day, in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, for by strength the hand of the LORD brought you out from this place.

A Hebrew perspective: Does God really desire blood sacrifices?

Part 2b: Did God require blood sacrifices to ratify covenants?

By Reuven ben Yosef (Bob Koch); edited by Rachel ben Yosef (Remy Koch)

Nissan 5786 repeated from Nissan 5785

Many people assume that animal sacrifices were required to formally seal biblical covenants. They were not. Only two of the six major covenants described in the TaNaKh (TNK) report the death of animals in relation to them: 1. The covenant with Abram (Abraham), known as a "Covenant of the Parts" (Gen 15:7-12, 17-21) and; 2. The inauguration of the Mosaic "Covenant of YHVH" (Ex 24:3-8). Neither the "Edenic Covenant" or its amendment by the so-called "Adamic Covenant" required sacrifices to seal (Gen 1:28-30; 2:15-17 and Gen 3:14-19, respectively), nor did the "Noahic Covenant" established after the flood (Gen 8:20–9:17), or the "Davidic Covenant" (2Sam 7:12-16). The future inauguration of the so-called "New Covenant" at Jeremiah 31:31-34 also does not describe ceremonial blood sacrifices being required or performed to establish it.[1]

Abrahamic Covenant

In a previous newsletter, we demonstrated the fact that the sacrifices performed at the inauguration of the Mosaic "Covenant of YHVH" were not something that God had originally desired or commanded. In fact, they were an aberration; an anomaly not seen before or ever again performed for any other covenant in the entire Hebrew Bible (TNK). Those sacrifices had initially been appointed only as a validation for Moses that he had successful delivered Israel from Egypt–which also represented the fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham at Genesis 15:13-14 (Ex 3:10-12).[2]

At Genesis 12:1-7, YHVH called Abram and presented him with an opportunity and a promise:

1 YHVH said to Abram, "Go forth from your native land and from your father's house to the land that I will show you. 2 I will make of you a great nation, And I will bless you; I will make your name great, And you shall be a blessing. 3 I will bless those who bless you And curse him that curses you; And all the families of the earth Shall bless themselves by you."
4 Abram went forth as YHVH had commanded him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. 6 Abram passed through the land as far as the site of Shechem, at the terebinth of Moreh. The Canaanites were then in the land. 7 YHVH appeared to Abram and said, "I will assign this land to your offspring." And he built an altar there to YHVH who had appeared to him.

The JPS (Jewish Study Bible) commentary identifies the two themes repeated in all future "riders" and "addendums" to the Abrahamic Covenant that was initiated in the preceding passage:

The universalism that marked Gen. chapters 1-11 having now failed, the LORD begins anew singling out one Mesopotamian–no way distinguished from his peers as yet–and promising to make him a great nation not numbered in the seventy nations of ch 10. The twin themes of land and progeny inform the rest of the Torah.[3]

A biblical covenant is a contract. It consists of an offer and acceptance and includes terms and conditions on which both parties have agreed; "riders" and "addendums" may be added at any time contingent upon both parties' agreement. They always refer back to the original contract. Riders modify or detail existing contract terms, while addenda introduce entirely new terms or provisions within the original contract. The covenant can be in any form: a trust, a performance contract, etc.

God made Abram an offer under the following terms and conditions: If Abram, would trust YHVH and follow His instructions to move his entire household and possessions to wherever He showed him to go, the foregoing blessings would accrue to him (and his "offspring") and the curses to his enemies. Abram believed God's word: he accepted His offer "to covenant," and "he went forth," showing by his actions, not his feelings, the "good faith" that first established the Abrahamic Covenant. Let's call this oral contract a "handshake" covenant; it expressed the familiar adage, "My word is my bond."

Of course, an oral contract is binding; it relies only upon the word, integrity and continuing performance of its terms and conditions by both parties for its ongoing validity and implementation. All future references to the land and Abram's innumerable descendants in chapters 13, 15 and 17 are based on YHVH's original offer and Abram's active acceptance from Genesis 12:1-7. This was the inception of the everlasting Abrahamic Covenant later formally declared via a "rider" at Genesis 15:18 with an added "addendum" for his descendants at 17:7,13,19.

Abram arrived in Canaan with his wife and possessions along with his nephew Lot and his family. He was 75 years old and Sarah (Sarai) his wife was 65; They had no children. When Abram arrived in Canaan, God appeared to him again in another vision and reiterated to him that the land he was traversing would someday belong to his physical descendants. Abram built an altar to YHVH at Shechem as a memorial to God in appreciation of His faithfulness in delivering his family safely to the land. The altar also served as a monument–a symbol of his faith in God's future delivery on His promise (Gen 12:7). Then he moved to Bethel, built another altar there, and "invoked YHVH by name." (Gen 12:9).

A few commentators, Jewish and Christian, assert that Abram sacrificed thanksgiving offerings upon these altars. However, that is a conclusion that can only be reached by making an agenda-based assumption (eisegesis); sacrifices are not found anywhere in the related verses or elsewhere. Most commentators recognize that altars, as well as pillars, were also built to serve as memorials, express gratitude, as places of communion, or to honor God (Gen 26:24-25; 35:7, Josh 22:26-34, etc.). Genesis chapter 12 provides the two examples of such altars.

YHVH reiterated and elaborated on the verbal contract with Abram a second time at Genesis 13:14-17. God told him to look in all four directions; He promised Abram He "is giving" or "gives" all the land he could see to him and his future descendants to possess "forever" (v.15). Then He commanded Abram to walk throughout the length and breadth of the land–an ancient mystical ritual symbolizing "taking possession" of one's physical property.

From that point forward, Abram owned the land–at least in God's eyes. Abram was not quite sure, yet. After all, there were ten Canaanite kingdoms currently occupying that land. Afterwards, Abram moved his tents to Hebron and built another non-sacrificial "altar to YHVH" (v 18). Three altars–no sacrifices.

The events that took place in Genesis chapter 15:1-21 describe a ceremony in which YHVH gave Abram a sign that assured him his descendants would take possession of the land. Up until this chapter, the contract between God and Abram for the land was in force as the aforementioned verbal handshake agreement. Thus, the covenant (contract) for the land between God and Abram was already in force. Abram was faithfully and patiently fulfilling his end of the contract; YHVH had not yet fulfilled his promise re. descendants or possession of the land. On the other hand, He hadn't told Abram exactly "when" he would do it either. But YHVH had already greatly blessed him with a large increase in material wealth and victory in battle when he rescued Lot (Gen 13:2,5-6; Gen 14:13-16, respectively).

At this point, it had been approximately ten years since YHVH had made the original verbal offer and Abram had accepted. This meant he was now around 85 years old; he and Sarah (Sarai), who was about 75 years old, were still childless. Abram had such great faith in God's righteousness that he hadn't yet resorted to the ancient custom of taking other wives or using surrogate concubines to fulfill God's delayed promise of countless descendants.[4] However, Abram was naturally concerned and decided to simply lay out the facts to God; after all, he wasn't getting any younger.

Gen 15:1 Some time later, the word of YHVH came to Abram in a vision. He said, "Fear not, Abram, I am a shield to you; Your reward shall be very great." 2 But Abram said, "O Lord YHVH, what can You give me, seeing that I shall die childless, and the one in charge of my household is Dammesek Eliezer!" 3 Abram said further, "Since You have granted me no offspring, my steward will be my heir." 4 The word of YHVH came to him in reply, "That one shall not be your heir; none but your very own issue shall be your heir." 5 He took him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." And He added, "So shall your offspring be." 6 And he believed in YHVH and he counted it to Him for righteousness. 7 Then He said to him, "I am YHVH who brought you out from Ur of the Chaldeans to assign this land to you as a possession." 8 And he said, "O Lord YHVH, how shall I know that I am to possess it?" [5]

YHVH understood Abram's request; He reminded him that He had brought him to "this land" specifically to "assign" it to him "as a possession." Since this situation involved "real property," God commanded him to prepare animals for the one ritual that would formalize the permanent "assignment" of the land to him and his posterity. YHVH commanded Abram to prepare for a "Covenant of the Parts (Pieces)." This rite was in the form of a well-known Ancient Near Eastern (ANE) "blood oath" and, as such, it was a ritual compact with which Abram would be quite familiar. It was a gift to Abram from YHVH, his "friend"; it was not something YHVH desired or needed, nor was it a foreshadow of any later Levitical blood ritual.

This rite cannot be categorized as a Levitical-style sacrifice, at all. Those sacrifices only refer to offerings made to God as an act of worship, atonement, purification, dedication, peace or thanksgiving. Moreover, there was no ceremonial sacrificial altar or blood usage involved in the rite.

Gen 15:9 He answered, "Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young bird." [10]He brought Him all these and cut them in two, placing each half opposite the other; but he did not cut up the bird. [11]Birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Abram drove them away. [12]As the sun was about to set, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a great dark dread descended upon him.

Abram arranged the animal parts and guarded them from the carrion birds. Then he fell into a trance-like "sleep" (i.e. "state") and became very frightened. Just imagine; he could see all that was going on but could not move. As the sun was setting, YHVH spoke to Abram regarding his fate and that of his descendants (vv. 13-16). The ritual performance took place after the sun had set.

Gen 15:17 When the sun set and it was very dark, there appeared a smoking oven, and a flaming torch which passed between those pieces. [18]On that day YHVH made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your offspring I assign this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates; …"

In the traditional ANE ritual of "cutting" this type of covenant, the covenanters walked through the pieces and swore something akin to, "If I do not uphold my oath, may I be cut into pieces as were these animals." In essence, this is what God was unilaterally doing in the form of "a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch" which passed between the parts. In other words, by "walking" through the parts alone, YHVH swore by Himself.

Why? Because Abram had already fulfilled his part of the contract. He had shown his commitment to God by his previous acts of faithful obedience and would continue to do so (Gen 22:1-18; 26:5, etc.). That is why YHVH did not ask him to give his personal performance warranty by walking through the pieces (Jer 34:18-19). This was just the kind of assurance Abram needed. He now had God's sacred "blood-oath" (figuratively) via the Covenant of the Parts which, due to its "eternal" nature, was essentially a "perpetual land patent."[6]

YHVH's actions here constituted a "rider" to the original contract designed to reassure Abram that his possession of the land for his offspring was an iron-clad unilateral guarantee, e.g. it depended only on God's righteous performance, not Abram's. "And he believed in YHVH and he counted it to Him for righteousness."

Covenant of Circumcision

The final addition to the Abrahamic Covenant is an addendum introducing a new provision and condition. It is recorded in Genesis chapter 17 and is commonly known as b'rit millah, Covenant of Circumcision.

Gen 17:8 I assign the land you sojourn into you and your offspring to come, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting holding. I will be their God." [9]God further said to Abraham, "As for you, you and your offspring to come throughout the ages shall keep My covenant. [10]Such shall be the covenant between Me and you and your offspring to follow which you shall keep: every male among you shall be circumcised. [11]You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and that shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you. [12]And throughout the generations, every male among you shall be circumcised at the age of eight days. As for the homeborn slave and the one bought from an outsider who is not of your offspring, [13]they must be circumcised, homeborn and purchased alike. Thus shall My covenant be marked in your flesh as an everlasting pact. [14]And if any male who is uncircumcised fails to circumcise the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his kin; he has broken My covenant."

In this Covenant addendum, YHVH added new "terms and conditions" for Abram and all new parties to the original hand-shake contract established in Genesis chapter 12 and the rider in chapter 15. YHVH changed his name to Abraham to signify he would become "the father a multitude of nations" rather than the father of only one "great nation." He also changed his wife's name from Sarai (my princess) to Sarah (princess overall). YHVH restated His promise re. the land and added, "I will be their God" (v.8) and they "shall keep my covenant" (v.9).

Which covenant? The Covenant of Circumcision; the b'rit millah (v. 10). The new terms and conditions of the covenant required the circumcision of every male Israelite on the eighth day of his life.[7] It was to be an outward "sign" of this addendum to the original contract. By accepting the addendum, Abraham was committing his descendants to also keep (Heb. šāmar, to guard, build a hedge around it) this contract addendum as all Israel did for future generations when they accepted the Mosaic Covenant (Ex 19:3-8, 24:7).

Circumcision was to be performed by every generation–as a reminder–to all of Abraham's descendants. It was to be a demonstration of their understanding, faith and continued belief that God would unfailingly keep His contractual promise for the land in perpetuity–even if there were some serious interruptions along the way. Abraham agreed to this addendum, and the original covenant of Genesis 12:1-7 thereafter stood amended. The majority of the remnant of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob's descendants alive today, even most so-called "secular" Jews-Israelites, have faithfully continued to do so for over 3,900 years.[8]

Conclusion

The original Abrahamic Covenant of Genesis chapters 12 and 13 had already been enacted when the ceremony of the "Covenant of the Parts" was performed per Abram's request to provide him with a more tangible assurance of YHVH's promise (v.15:8). Thus, the covenant ritual was executed by YHVH on Abram's behalf, not because God needed it.

The b'rit millah of chapter 17 was meant to be a continual reminder "throughout the generations" (v.12) of God's faithfulness that, in turn, required Israel's continuous performance for the promise of the land to be fulfilled–at the appropriate time. The miraculous existence of Israel today–populated by Israelites from every tribe–is physical evidence that each generation since Abraham has had at least a remnant who faithfully continued to play its part and obey.

Blessings to all and Chag Sameach Pesakh (Happy Feast of Passover) to those who observe it.

Tim Sheets Prophetic Word by:

Elizabeth Chalker

Prophetic word.

"War. Weather. Wickedness.

Be Watchmen, Be ready. Open Doors for the Righteous, Judgment on the Wicked."

"As nation's rage and war ensues - posturing for power, My Spirit indwells those who seek My face. You ask, you seek, you knock, and you shall find Me, and the DOORS I open for you, My children. Yield, surrender to Me, and I will lead you right into My plans for you. My ways are higher than yours. I see the beginning from the end. I am in every moment of your lives; past, present, and future, simultaneously. I know the way you take, and I go before you, behind you, and I am a shield roundabout you. I AM your resting place, your place of safety and your source of strength, provision, protection. My BOOKS about you have every moment recorded of your lives. As you trust in Me, all will be fulfilled unto you, as My plans for you are indeed good.

"Seek Me in the quiet place of My presence, and you shall find Me. The indwelling of My Spirit will fill you to overflowing as He flows in and through you, My perfect will.

"The raging of the wicked in the world, as My judgment falls upon their heads, will not touch My children. I AM your bulwark, and My Scepter rules over all creation. The wicked ones working for Satan will NOT have their way. I shall pay 7-fold recompense for all they have taken from the innocent. The "CAMPS" they created for My children will be their dwelling place. Captivity is not for the righteous!

"As VOLCANOS erupt – tsunami's flood – fires burn – "seas separate" – waves crash - tornadoes swirl, and earthquakes SHAKE the earth, ALL the DARKNESS that has been hidden is being RAISED into the LIGHT. The CESSPOOL of putrid PUSS that has infected your nations; food, air, water, soil is being RAISED to the surface for the SAKE of the RESET throughout the earth! The OLD "WINESKIN" now will be obliterated as I USHER IN a new "SACKCLOTH" of LIFE abundant and to the FULL throughout the earth, and all of its inhabitants. The old REGIMES must DIE, DECAY and EMPTY– come to NOTHING before the NEW WINESKIN can be filled with My DIVINE reset and JUBILEE for My children and for your lands. The lands I swore to your forefathers to give to you, My children, will be placed in your hands. I own the CATTLE on 1000 hills, and I have ordained you to steward the WEALTH I give to you, as I strip My enemies of the wealth they have "STORED UP" for themselves, and give it to My righteous ones, for My glory to go to the "four corners" of the earth, carried by the "seven winds" of My Spirit to share the gospel and lead souls to Christ. My family shall expand and ALL in the earth will KNOW the name of Yeshua Christ. My congregation shall indeed be without spot or wrinkle when Yeshua returns!

"Preach the gospel, help those in need, RESCUE and CARE FOR the children, the orphans, the widows, and all I lead you to assist in these times.

"My window of GRACE is soon closing!

"The time for My judgment is fast approaching. Give your lives over to Me, My children for you are NOT your own. You have been purchased with the blood of Yeshua HaMashiach who IS the PROPITIATION for each of you. Your purpose on the earth is to glorify the LORD your God, share the good news – love people, and put Me first.

"Evil, wicked "rulers" I take down, and raise up the ones I have anointed and appointed for this time – IN A DAY. From the "PIT" of darkness, oppression, slavery to the "PALACE" of My presence, favor, RESTORATION, I am leading My children, even now.

"OCCUPY until I return! DO NOT FEAR the "STORMS" you SEE – for I RIDETH on their wings. I AM the LORD God, El Shaddai, and I AM MATCHLESS in power. Hide yourselves in Me, My children. RIDE with Me on the WINGS of My Spirit as He flows unceasingly in you and through you with His FIRE of PURIFICATION and Justice.

"I AM JUST, and I will vindicate the righteous. I WILL bring judgment on the wicked ones who REFUSED to repent. NO ESCAPE for them. I AM everywhere all at the same time. ONLY I know ALL – even the time My SON shall return. Be READY, be WATCHMEN on the "HILL."

"Pray without ceasing. Pray at ALL times, I say again. Wield the SWORD of the Spirit into the atmosphere. My FREQUENCY CANCELS and annihilates the plans of Lucifer and everyone working for iniquity.

"I AM the WATER of LIFE. I FLOOD out the wicked, and I FILL the righteous.

"Focus your thoughts and energy on the LORD your God. I ORDAIN your steps and will surely keep My hand on you, as I guide you precept upon precept, from glory to glory. I WILL complete the work I have begun in you – each of you, My children, until the moment I call you HOME, to be with Me for eternity. Until then, I set before you, life or death – blessing or cursing. Choose this DAY whom you will serve!"

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'DO NOT STOP BECAUSE OF THE INTIMIDATION BEFORE YOU, I AM CAUSING YOU TO MOVE THROUGH WITH BOLDNESS'

Recently, I heard the Lord speaking to many, 'Do not stop because of the intimidation before you, I am causing you to move through with boldness.'

When the Lord spoke these words, I saw many in the Body of Christ who are moving forward on the assignment and word of the Lord and have suddenly come face to face with intimidation. I could see this spirit of intimidation brooding heavily over these ones that were moving forward into the assignment and word of the Lord for their lives right now.

As I leaned in and listened to the Lord, I heard the Lord say:

'Lift your eyes to the hills, for where does your help come from? It comes from Me, the Maker of heaven and earth. (Ps 121:1) As you continue to look to Me and behold Me, I will cause you to move through with boldness and ease of My Spirit. I say unto you that there is a testing at the gate, there is a testing at the gate where the enemy is attempting to cause you to withdraw; and I am causing you to arise by My Spirit to apprehend and occupy that which I am calling you to move into. The testing has come at the gate attempting to cause you to doubt My Word to you – the vision I have given you and the assignment before you – but I say unto you, ARISE IN FAITH and SPEAK to that which is attempting to hinder you.

'Behold not the intimidation that stands before you with its roaring accusation, but arise with your mouth full of My Word and declare that which I have spoken. And you will see the intimidation that is before you which is attempting to brood itself over you and present itself powerful and intimidating, you will see it is but smoke and mirrors as you declare My Word and what I am speaking.

'As you arise and proclaim, I say unto you, that you shall continue to step through and step into that which I am calling you into with greater ease in My presence and the slipstream of My Spirit. For I say unto you, as you continue to follow Me where I am leading, you shall find an increase of empowerment of My Spirit and grace that is greater than you have known. For there is a test in this moment to keep your eyes upon that which I have spoken and look not to that which is attempting to intimidate you. For the enemy is terrified of where we are going and what we are going to do together.

'I say unto you that I have brought you into a new day and a new day of vision and wisdom. I will continue to lead you and guide you into all that I have for you; and you shall perceive and see My leading and My ways as you continue to seek Me and remain surrendered to My way. The enemy is attempting to bring distraction into many of your lives to take your gaze off what I am speaking and where I am leading you; but I say unto you, that as you continue to look to Me and look at Me, I am strengthening you in the Word I have given you. I am causing a greater boldness and fire of My conviction to arise within you as I unveil to you greater mysteries and understanding of that which I am showing you.

'My people, I say unto you, be not dismayed or discouraged by the battle with intimidation that has come before you and to your door, but know that I am strengthening you by My Spirit in endurance and faith to remain and stand on that which I have spoken to you. Where the enemy has come to attempt to cause you to withdraw, to doubt that which I have spoken and to cause you to move from what I have spoken; I say unto you, watch how I shall turn the enemy and his plans on his head as you remain steadfast in what I have spoken. I am building endurance within you. I am maturing you in My Word and in the stretching, I am making room for you to carry that which I am giving to you and calling you to partner with Me.

'I say unto you, come up higher, come up higher, look to Me and seek Me. Where intimidation is attempting to roar its accusations upon you and lure you into dread and fear of what is to come; I say unto you, that as you continue to partner with Me and follow Me where I am leading, you shall see

GREAT JOY AND MY POWER in your midst as you step in. For you shall know JOY in partnering with Me at a deeper level than you have known before.

'Continue to remain steadfast, remain obedient to the vision and leading of My Spirit in your midst and do not compromise upon that which I have spoken to you. And WATCH AND SEE MY FAVOUR that shall come upon you to do that which I am calling you to do. For I say unto you, where intimidation is attempting to roar at you how much is against you, I say unto you, listen to My heart and lift up your eyes and see how I AM FOR YOU and see the angelic hosts of heaven that I have surrounded you with. There are more for you than that which is against you. For in Me, if I AM FOR YOU the WHO can be against you? (Rom 8:31)

'I am leading you into some of your greatest days in Me, where you shall see My Glory and My provision and a mighty move of My Spirit in your midst as you follow Me. For I say unto you that I am leading you into a greater realm of faith. I am bringing you deeper into the place of learning to live by faith and not by sight. (2 Cor 5:7) For where intimidation is attempting to cause you to crumble or stumble, I say unto you, that I am ESTABLISHING YOU in this hour – in greater maturity and conviction of the truth of My Word and who I am – that you are arising UNSHAKEABLE.

'Where you have lived many past seasons and have come to this season feeling like you have been shaken by what you have endured; I say unto you, that in your intimacy with Me and as you seek Me, I am FORTIFYING YOU in TRUTH, MY truth like never before – as the conviction of My Spirit comes upon you in mighty ways to stand boldly and unapologetically in the revelation of My Word, My Rhema Word and what is yours in Me.

'It's time for you to arise and take your place in greater ways. Where intimidation and insecurity have attempted to contain you in many ways, I am bringing you great freedom and bringing you into deeper realms of insight into what I am speaking as you seek Me in humility and purity.

'There is a great increase of building in your midst as you follow Me. Intimidation is attempting to hinder your vision, keep you hidden and contained; but I say unto you, that the fire of My Spirit is coming upon you, and you shall be known as one who is a BOLD CARRIER OF MY TRUTH!

'Intimidation may be roaring loudly, but watch My roar bring My divine order, justice and empowerment. As you remain surrendered to Me, you shall know in greater ways in this season what it is to be carried on the winds of My Spirit and empowerment and come deeper into Zechariah 4:6, ""Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the Lord."'

Kim Potter: Weed and Reap

The Consequence of Allowing Weeds

It was late one evening when I finally sat down to relax a bit. I picked up a magazine that had come that day in the mail and began to flip through it. Suddenly something caught my attention. It was only three words, yet they spoke volumes to me: "weed and reap."

Of course, my first thought was about gardening and how weeds must be almost daily removed during harvest season. I know from experience, if we allow weeds to remain among the things we are trying to grow, they will kill the very things we are trying to produce. The weeds will zap all the nutrients from the plants. They cannot grow without the proper nutrients. Therefore, it is vital to keep weeds out of your garden. And it is not a one-time thing; it must be consistent and intentional.

It is the same in our spiritual walk. If we don't remove weeds and keep them out, they will kill the very things we are trying to produce in our lives, in our hearts.

Discerning the Weeds in Our Lives

As Christians, what weeds are we allowing to take root in our lives? What things are taking the nutrients out of the spiritual harvest we are hoping to reap? And... how do we discern the weeds in our lives?

Galatians 5:22–25 says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law" (NKJV).

This Scripture sets the standard. Are you investing your time and energy into this fruit? Are you keeping weeds away from this garden?

Anything beyond the fruit of the Spirit is very possibly weeds.

Don't allow or water weeds. Don't allow them to continue to grow. If left intact, weeds will choke your spiritual life. They will drain the life right out of you—unless you rid yourself of them. (Photo via Pixabay)

What Choked Out the Seed in the Parable of the Sower?

So, what then are the weeds? In Mark 4, Yeshua taught about the parable of the Sower. One of the things He mentioned that would choke out our seed is worry, or the cares of this world.

"But the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful." (Mark 4:19 NIV)

The word "worries" or "anxieties" means "to be drawn in different directions" through distraction (Strong's G3308).

What distracts you? What is drawing you in a direction you know is unfruitful? Could it be worry?

Philippians 4:6–7 says, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Yeshua" (NIV).

For others, it can be busyness. I deal with this one periodically. I have been fighting this one for the past couple weeks while trying to catch up at work. Sometimes busyness is simply a distraction, which is a weed. We must recognize it and refuse to allow it to dominate our lives.

It's Time to Pull the Weeds and Reap an Abundant Harvest!

The most important thing to remember is this: If left alone, weeds have a great potential for multiplication. And they multiply quickly, almost overnight. Allowing just one weed to grow freely will multiply, thereby producing a crop failure. I once read that weeds left unattended cut a harvest by forty to sixty percent. Consider that consequence when allowing weeds in your spiritual garden.

It's time we begin pulling and removing those destructive weeds. It's time to remember, these are the harvest destroyers, and we want none of that. When we weed, we reap… an abundant harvest.

Angela Robinson: Under His Wing

Under His Wing
By Angela Robinson

God is inviting us to come even close. If you've been feeling a stirring that a transition is near, you're not alone. There is change ahead, but it must come from a place of pure rest, not striving. Before God commissions, He covers. Before He sends, He shelters. This is a season of nearness, where strength will be restored, clarity and discernment formed, and hearts are being gently prepared for what lies ahead.

God Covers Before He Sends

"He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge." (Psalm 91:4 NIV)

God's protection is not restrictive, it's relational. To be under His wing is to be close enough to feel His presence, receive His love, and know we are safe before we move forward. If you have ever questioned God's timing in your life, may I encourage you to know that Scripture consistently shows that He does not rush us into an assignment. God first tends to the hearts of His people.

It is right there, under His covering, where He quiets fear. Our souls find refuge from the attacks we have been experiencing. Our rest in His shelter is not for further delay, but an intentional guard and shield. God is inviting you to trust Him deeper, and He will prove His faithfulness.

Comfort That Strengthens

"My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever." (Psalm 73:26)

There are seasons when God does not call us to push harder or move faster. The world has continued to get it wrong, equating success with hustle and striving. Instead, God invites us to slow down and draw near, to pause and take comfort in His presence. Do not believe the lie that this is weakness. It is preparation. Strength is restored when we allow ourselves to rest where we are safe.

Under His wing, our weariness and burdens lift. Clarity returns. God restores strength not by demanding more, but by offering more... of Himself.

Purity, Clarity, and Gentle Revelation

"I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with My loving eye on you." (Psalm 32:8 NIV)

Have you been in a season of confusion or simply questioning areas of your life? Maybe it's a relationship, your career, even your purpose and calling? When you've endured seasons in the wilderness, it can feel isolating and uncertain. God's covering creates space for clarity. It's right here where revelation is given and deeper romance begins. As we remain close to Him, our hearts are refined and His peace is received.

This is a season of simplicity. What is consuming and distracting you? As you commit to rest, return to what is true. Allow God to steady your thoughts and align your vision. What He reveals now is meant to prepare us, not pressure us.

Looking Ahead

March is not the destination; it is the shelter along the way. As you rest under His wing, strength is quietly building. Clarity is forming. April will bring movement. Commissioning is coming. But for now, stay close, friend. You are loved.

Declarations:

1. I rest under God's covering and receive His peace.

2. I am protected, held, and safe in His presence.

3. I trust God's timing as He prepares me for what's next.

Stewardship and Governance – Responsibility of Choice

Terry Friesen

A couple of days ago, I was in prayer and received a vision. The picture accompanying this post is a still version of what I saw.

In the vision, I saw a very large vault door begin to open, and standing in that vault surrounded by great wealth was Donald Trump. As the vault door opened, I recognized

I was standing inside of a prison cell and the door to my prison cell opened at the same time the vault door opened.

As I prayed about the vision for further understanding, several things came to light. First of all, there are many geopolitical pieces moving on the chess board of politics, global banking, and industry. Trump is definitely an active lever in the middle of these changes. This is causing some upheaval, and I believe there is much more to come. It won't always appear pleasant at the time, but I believe these changes will ultimately lead to a season of great wealth changing hands, because it is the Lord's time for things to shift. I also recognized that many are being prepared for kingdom assignments and advancement, and one of the pieces that will enable acceleration of these assignments is increased resources. Hence, as the vault opened, so did the cell door.

Of probably greater significance was the Lord's emphasis on Himself as our source. No matter who or what starts to cause the doors to open, we need to recognize our Lord as the ultimate source, and when this does happen, we need to continue to seek first His Kingdom. For further emphasis, the Lord impressed on me that His kingdom knows no limits and is not restricted to geo-political events and bank restructuring. He can cause us to step into abundance or advancement regardless of the state of things.

In a recent Bible study, the group was discussing Genesis 1&2 and the Father's plan for mankind. In the garden, we were called into an aspect of dominion and influence, and this has not changed. Then, sin entered, and the Father provided a solution, His Son, so we can get back to His original plan of stewardship in the earth.

After reading Genesis 1&2, in the midst of worship, the Lord again opened a vision before me. I saw what looked like the garden of Eden overlayed on today's landscape, and I heard "what are you waiting for, step into stewardship and governance." Hearing this, I protested, "but Lord, the garden was pristine, and our landscape is overcome with all sorts of obstacles." His response: "what are these obstacles to Me?"

The Father's original intent has not changed. He is looking for a family to walk with and talk with in the garden. A family that can govern alongside of His unction like Adam and Eve were charged to do.

Let's talk about what this governance looks like to make sure we see it afresh.

Governance is not having a Christian at the top of the heap resembling a religious leader controlling and suppressing all the people under their control. Kingdom governance is intended to create freedom for mankind to live out the call of God on their lives; to create communities that will shadow Heaven's ultimate end. Let's not forget Yeshua' instructions in how to pray, "on earth as it is in heaven." I also do not have a disconnected Pollyanna mindset; I know the challenges we face.

One side will say, "we need to abandon governance aspirations because our kingdom is spiritual not physical." Yes, first spiritual, but also physical. Did Adam and Eve start in a spiritual garden or a physical one? Did Yeshua die only a spiritual death, or did He die a physical death? I don't understand how the church at times attempts to over spiritualize everything to the point we can't even get involved to make a difference, here, today. Yes, the spiritual is the greater, but it should bubble out of our lives and affect the spiritual and the physical.

As an intercessor, I can tell you there are very few free people in the world – people with true free choice. We may assume in our western society that people have free choice – I would suggest it is more complicated than that. We have responsibility of choice.

There is such a vast amount of active witchcraft, greed and control-driven mechanisms in society, and lack of spiritual freedom, most don't have the free choice we assume they do. Most people are harassed by spiritual forces they know nothing about, in large part because of the choices of people in positions of power; choices they have made while doing things hidden from view. We need to push back these dark levers that lead to societal influence so people can make better choices, not only for their own personal salvation, but also for the betterment of mankind.

I would suggest, it is part of our role as the followers of Christ to create space where people can choose, after which we should support boundaries in society which make this possible - ongoing. Some would suggest this set of Christian fundamental society-based rules is what Canada and the US have been founded on – I would agree, but we've obviously gone off course.

Others suggest that a garden-like freedom and true sense of community cannot be achieved in this world. I won't take the time to debate this topic right now, but the bigger question is, "when did we as the church stop trying, or believing the Father's original commission was for today"? What would have happened if Wilberforce decided he would not fight slavery, because our expression was to be merely spiritual? What would have happened if the wealthy in their day did not build all the great education institutions of the 1800's, or the hospitals? Just because most of the world's wealth and control have been used for evil, it doesn't mean God can't turn the tables and use some for His kingdom, and for good.

We've been called to be salt and light, so let's get on with it.

Since September 2025, I have received some of the most profound encounters the Lord has ever permitted in my life, and many of them have to do with sonship and how we are destined to affect the world, the earth, the dirt we stand on. I have been focused on the spiritual dimensions of warfare and the prophetic, but He is drawing my attention to the practice of ruling and reigning here and now. I hope to start sharing these pieces in the months ahead, as the maturing of this message is being formed in me. Our focus on the earthly governance does not diminish our desire for revival to see every man, woman, and child be saved – it extends our understanding of the call on our lives beyond what we've know and connects us back to the Father's original commission.

Seeing the conflict in the middle east, much of the church has rushed to purchase the latest rapture timeline book rather than recognizing we have some work to do, and an open door to do it. Contrary to what many think, we are not yet at the door of the rapture, we are at the start of rapid kingdom advancement. Last time I checked, it was the Father who decided when a rapture will occur, not us. He also left us in charge to save people AND transform this world in the power of His Spirit.

Many are preparing to come on the scene to release greater expressions of the kingdom. Revival is already smoldering in some corners, and it just needs a modest wind to fan into flames. The Lord doesn't need a calm quiet circumstance to create change. In fact, it is His very glory drawing nearer to earth and mankind that is causing the upheaval of all we see.

What if the Father decides to rapture us after we come into the full knowledge of His Son, and after we become active living expressions of His Son in the world, and not before? Will we more readily choose to engage, fully? Part of us becoming the ready, pure, and spotless bride is learning to govern, to steward. Our Lord wants an able-bodied bride, one that can stand with Him and govern with Him, not an anemic version that can only shine in a protected church environment free of opposition.

We find it hard to imagine such a thing because we've never seen it demonstrated with our own eyes – but we will. As the attached image states, "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." (Matthew 6:33)

We need to grow in abiding AND grow in the understanding of what it means to seek His kingdom first. Much of this growing and learning will need to be done in the midst of everyday life, in the midst of advancing His kingdom. This will only be demonstrated so far within our church walls and will be most evident when we learn to do it right in the middle of what many consider to be the world's domain.

My previously released word, Jan 16, 2026, was on the Father's rest.

I love that word and the invitation to enter His rest but note rest does not mean inactivity. It is when we fully enter His rest, through Christ's finished work, that we can engage the world and not be tripped up by its devices. We can affect change and not be affected by the world we seek to influence.

I believe in this season, the Lord will advance those who are willing to step into the world's affairs and dare to believe God will change things by His power. I fully believe in the leading of the Holy Spirit, and we are not to go ahead of Him, but if we don't expect Him to lead us into the middle of the battle, we are unlikely to hear Him calling from that field. This summer I had a powerful encounter of a person willing to fully believe the Lord, and enter the world uncompromised in their Kingdom outlook, and behind them a massive angelic host to protect and support the commission they had just picked up.

Let's ask afresh, "Lord what would you have me do in this season? Remove my blinders wherever they may exist, so that I can see, hear, and know Your call that leads me into Your full purpose."

Yvon Attia: The Month of Divine Reversal - Take Your Seat

Seated in Authority and Positioned for Victory

On February 2nd, I had a vision from the Lord concerning me sitting on my throne in Heaven and ruling and reigning with Christ. I understood that Christ was inviting us all to step up and use our God-given authority from the heavenly realms—authority meant to influence our lives, the lives of our children, and even our nation.

At the time, I did not fully understand why He was emphasizing the importance of our position, why this mattered so deeply. As March approached, without even realizing that Purim was near, I kept hearing these words:

- "Victory over the spirit of Haman,"
- "I am raising up My Esthers in this moment to sit with Me on My throne and to remove his influence,"
- "Earthly thrones will be shaken and removed."

Writing Heavenly Decrees and Shaking Thrones

In my vision, I saw myself entering into the presence of the Lord wearing a bridal gown more glorious than anything I could have imagined; the train of the dress spread across the earth and covered nations.

As I entered, I was warmly welcomed. I first bowed before the Lord, and then I sat with Him on His throne. I was handed decrees that had been signed into law—hidden decrees spoken over my family, my children, and myself—and I was instructed to tear them up. The papers were thick, and they felt established and difficult to rip, but when I looked at the King, He smiled and said, "You can do this."

Immediately, strength entered my hands, and I shredded them. Then I was given a pen and a fresh, glowing notebook and was instructed to write the heavenly decrees instead. As I wrote, thrones on earth began collapsing, shaking, and were being destroyed.

The Lord opened my eyes to different areas of the world and in my own life where Christ was not enthroned, and I saw others sitting on thrones that did not belong to them, places where the victory of Christ had not yet been established.

He said to me, "Unless you sit with Me on My throne and rule from there with Me, you will not be able to take back these territories." When I looked at those territories, they seemed impossible to reclaim because others were deeply established in them, and immediately I was reminded of the book of Esther.

The Removal of Haman's Throne and the Elevation of Queen Esther

Esther was a young orphan girl who stepped into her royal position. She was not politically ambitious; she was simply living her life. Yet while she was going about her life, an evil man named Haman was building his throne beside the king.

The Bible calls Haman an "Agagite," connecting him to Agag, king of the Amalekites—long-standing enemies of Israel, as seen in 1 Samuel 15. Because King Saul failed to fully destroy Agag, Esther's story spiritually represents a later confrontation with that same ancient hostility.

Spiritually, Haman represents an old generational enemy, a spirit of destruction against God's covenant people, and the embodiment of pride and self-exaltation.

Esther 3:1 (NLT) says, "Some time later King Xerxes promoted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite over all the other nobles, making him the most powerful official in the empire." Haman used his authority to destroy innocent people and manipulated the king into signing a decree to kill all the Jews. When Esther's uncle discovered this, he urged her to approach the king. She was afraid, and she said that the king had not summoned her for thirty days and that entering uninvited could mean death. She had to decide, "If I perish, I perish."

Esther 4:15–16 (NKJV) says, "Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai: 'Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!'"

Esther chose courage, God gave her favor, Haman was exposed, his throne was removed, and Esther was elevated.

Decrees and Reversals

The king declared in Esther 8:8 (NKJV), "You yourselves write a decree concerning the Jews, as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for whatever is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring no one can revoke." A higher decree overturned a lower decree.

In Daniel's day—just as Hamon persuaded King Xerxes to make a decree against the Jewish people—corrupt officials persuaded King Darius to sign an irrevocable decree, as recorded in Daniel 6:8 (NLT): "And now, Your Majesty, issue and sign this law so it cannot be changed, an official law of the Medes and Persians that cannot be revoked." Daniel remained faithful and was thrown into the lions' den, but Heaven intervened, and Daniel declared, "My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths, so that they have not hurt me" (6:22 NKJV). The accusers were removed, and Daniel was elevated.

When the Court Is Seated, Dominion Shifts

Daniel 7:26–27 (NKJV) says, prophetically, "But the court shall be seated, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it forever. Then the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole Heaven, shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High." When the court is seated, dominion shifts. This is a month of seating and reversal.

Luke 1:52 (NLT) declares, "He has brought down princes from their thrones and exalted the humble." The Lord is shaking earthly thrones, hidden decrees are being exposed, and illegitimate influence is being confronted. But the key is this:

We must sit with Him, and we must rule from union with Him. Authority flows from position, not from striving. The question is not whether thrones will shake. The question is will we take our seat? (Photo via StockCake)

The Month of Divine Reversal: Take Your Seat

I heard the Lord say, "As you enter this month of divine reversal, recognize, My child, that the secret to your breakthrough is to enter into My glorious presence and take your seat with Me on the throne.

"Unlike Esther, who was afraid, uninvited, and risked losing her life because she entered into the presence of a pagan king, you are different. You are entering into the embrace of a loving Father who desires to give you the Kingdom.

"My golden scepter is already extended, inviting you into the most Holy Place, to sit with Me on My throne, to stretch out your hand, and to watch as earthly thrones shake and collapse right before your eyes. For I am shaking everything so that only unshakable thrones will remain. I am establishing My people here on earth in their rightful position.

"This is the time to enter in wearing your royal attire, for you have found favor in My sight. I have crowned you with glory and honor, with love and tender mercies.

"Unlike Esther, who was offered half the kingdom, I give you the Kingdom. I give you dominion. And as you journey through this month, I will give you victory over Haman, over every antagonizing spirit, over every spirit of rivalry and adversary. For as it is in Heaven, so it will be on earth. I am handing you My pen; use it to cross out every decree that was not established by Me.

"I am giving you My authority to use it, and as you use it, earthly thrones will be shaken and removed. This is the month to take back authority. Do not fear them. You will not perish. You will experience My divine deliverance and victory, for I Myself will go before you and make a way. Even when it feels impossible, know for certain that it is My specialty.

"Therefore, I remind you that this is a month where the giants are falling and their thrones are being shaken. It is a month of divine reversals and the taking back of territories.

"You will experience what you have never experienced before. But remember that the key is to be seated on My throne, as I am sitting next to My Father on His throne. It is in that seated position that you will experience My victory and My hand."

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'ARISE! I AM PULLING BACK THE CURTAIN! I AM REVEALING WHAT YOU HAVE REALLY BEEN DEALING WITH'

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'Arise!" I am pulling back the curtain! I am revealing what you have really been dealing with .' As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart," I heard:

'My people, Arise! Arise! Arise! I say unto you that there are many in this hour who have been dealing with significant opposition against your assignment. I say unto you that there are many who have labelled opposition of the enemy as natural realm circumstances and it has kept you under false burdens within your assignment. I say unto you that I am PULLING BACK THE CURTAIN! I am REVEALING what you have been facing is an onslaught of the enemy. For many of you have been crying out to Me, "Lord what is wrong with Me? What have I done?" And many of you have lost your rest and your peace because you are living in anxiety wondering what you have done wrong. You were faithfully serving Me in your assignment/s, and suddenly things shifted and began to escalate leaving you feeling suffocated and contained.

'My people, listen to Me, many of you have been in the greatest battle you have faced over the assignments I have given you and the new assignments that are upon you. You have not even realized the level of opposition and battle you have been in, as the enemy has been attempting to keep you in a place of not recognizing his schemes and attempting to convince you that that which you are facing and enduring is natural realm and is your fault.

'I say to those of you that have been in this place, ARISE! ARISE! I am removing the veil that the enemy has attempted to put before your eyes to hinder you from seeing what has been truly going on. I am bringing you into a new realm of clarity and now you shall see clearer than you have seen what you have been dealing with. For I say unto you that I am bringing you into a new realm of discernment within your assignment. I am bringing you deeper into a place of divine wisdom and understanding within the assignment/s that I have given you. For the enemy has come hard against you in this hour and he has come harder than ever to keep you distracted, to steal your focus and to attempt to keep you from moving into another level of AUTHORITY WITHIN YOUR ASSIGNMENT.

' I say unto you, that MUCH of what the enemy has been after in this hour is your heart and your authority. The enemy has come with such condemnation in this hour against many of you with his taunting lies, and there has been great onslaught of the enemy coming against many of you to CONTAIN YOU within your assignment. Many of you have lost your ability to dream with Me within your assignment and to thrive within the assignments that I have given you and who you were created to be in Me and do what I have created you to do and to thrive. But I say unto you, that as I am pulling back the curtain and I am exposing and revealing the schemes of the enemy, you are moving into a new level of authority in Me within your assignment as you begin to see what has really been happening behind the scenes.

'I say unto you, watch the chains of containment break off by the power of My Spirit within your assignments. Watch the chains of containment shatter as I am bringing you into a new slipstream of My Spirit and My grace within your assignment. Where many of you have felt like you have been barely surviving to continue in what I have called you to do, I am bringing you into such a deeper place of dependence upon Me within your assignment and the strength that shall come to you by My Spirit in the exposing of what the enemy has been doing – you are coming into a new level of EMPOWERMENT. 'There is a roar that will continue to arise within you, a roar of NO toleration of the enemy's schemes, an increase of the roar of faith, an increase of the roar of My authority within you to not only evict the nonsense and the noise of the enemy from your land, but see My Spirit bring forth an acceleration of fruitfulness of My plans and purposes within the lands of your assignments. I say unto you "My people, there are many of you that need to arise in this hour and take your authority back within your assignment. There are many of you that need to arise in this hour and step back into the victory that is yours in Me, within your assignment."

'For the enemy has worked so hard to attempt to convince you that all you have faced has been natural realm circumstance, and has for many convinced you that what you are dealing with is not by his hand. But now as I reveal what has been going on behind the scenes and under the surface, and for many, there is about to be a ONCE AND FOR ALL SHIFT.

For as I reveal what the enemy has been doing and the tactics he has been using to keep you contained, to keep you from moving in your authority, moving in faith, and for many, being the leader that they are called to be, the very exposure and revelation of his tactics is ending these cycles of his ongoing attacks to keep you hindered, contained and distracted.

'For I say unto you, that I have a greater increase of insight of My plans and purposes for many of you within your assignment in this hour. There is increase within your assignment that I am bringing to you: and the heavy cloud of confusion, opposition, and for many, despondency that has been upon you, has been to KEEP YOU from this place of increased insight. For I say unto you, be expectant in this hour for this increased insight. Where there has been significant confusion, THAT IS NOT OF ME and the invitation before you is one of entering into a new level of WISDOM within your assignment in this hour to move with Me in all that I have planned.

'The enemy has attempted to keep you contained and I say unto you, that there is expansion and increase in My ways, in new ways, that are before you that he is attempting to keep you from: so ARISE AND GET LOUD! Declare My Word not with your own strength or loud voice, but get LOUD IN YOUR FAITH. Arise in faith and stand upon My Word. There is NO time to be TIMID, ARISE IN BOLDNESS and declare My Word knowing the POWER OF MY WORD. I say unto you, as I am pulling back the curtain and revealing what has been happening under the surface and behind the scenes where the enemy has been at play, LEAN INTO the roar of My Spirit that is birthing the roar of NO toleration for his schemes and plans, and allow My Spirit to awaken you to greater authority.

'My people, in this hour I say unto you, GET OVERWHELMED OUT OF YOUR VOCABULARY. For I say unto you, many have aligned their words with overwhelm that has opened a door to the heaviness and containment of the enemy in many ways in their hearts, minds and lives. My people, watch what you say, what you are focusing on and look to Me. I am bringing you into a place of such deeper dependance upon Me and slipstream of My grace where overwhelm will not be part of your vocabulary and feeling like you're living in a constant state of overwhelm, as you continue to behold Me and see more and more of who I am.'

PURIM 5786 — THE 47TH PRESIDENT, 47 YEARS, ONE MEASURE.

Many are asking if that number is prophetic. Scripture rarely shouts. It repeats patterns. And the pattern right now is deafening.

For 47 years, a regime declared death to Israel and death to America. For 47 years, they funded proxies, armed militias, pursued nuclear capability, and stated openly and repeatedly that Israel must be erased from the map.

The 47th President of the United States authorized the strike that shattered it.

Now, for those who do not know, Hebrew is alphanumeric. Every Hebrew letter carries a numerical value. Letters are numbers. Numbers are words. This is not mysticism. It is the structure of the language itself. And it is why Yochanan (John) writes in Hitgalut (Revelation) 13:18 that the one with wisdom and understanding will calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. Scripture itself tells you that names carry numerical weight and that the wise will discern through number.

So when the number 47 surfaces in a moment like this, a Torah-rooted mind pays attention.

The Hebrew word גמד (gamad) is spelled:

ג (Gimel) = 3

מ (Mem) = 40

ד (Dalet) = 4

3 + 40 + 4 = 47

The root carries the meaning: to measure, to weigh, to divide, to cut off.

Whether you call that coincidence or pattern, what follows in Scripture is undeniable.

The Writing on the Wall

דָּנִיֵּאל (Daniel) chapter 5. Belshazzar, king of Babylon, feasts in arrogance, drinking from the holy vessels stolen from the Temple in Jerusalem. A hand appears and writes on the wall:

מְנָא מְנָא תְּקֵל וּפַרְסִין

Mene Mene Tekel Upharsin.

Daniel interprets:

מְנֵא (Mene): Elohim has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end.

תְּקֵל (Tekel): You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

פְּרֵס (Peres): Your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.

Numbered. Weighed. Divided. Cut off.

Gamad.

That very night, Babylon fell.

Now here is what should stop you cold.

The kingdom was given to the Persians. Persia was the instrument of judgement against Babylon. And this judgement was written in the very land where all of this is unfolding again. Babylon is ancient Iraq. Persia is Iran. Same region. Same soil. Same pattern.

Persia received the kingdom when Babylon was measured and found wanting. Now the pattern of measurement has surfaced over Persia itself. The instrument of ancient judgement receiving the same judgement, in the same land, written in the same language of heaven.

Gamad. 47. The measure fills.

The Iniquity Fills

This principle begins in the covenant itself. In Beresheet (Genesis) 15:16, יהוה tells Avraham that his descendants will sojourn in a foreign land for 400 years, "for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete."

כִּי לֹא שָׁלֵם עֲוֹן הָאֱמֹרִי עַד הֵנָּה

Ki lo shalem avon haEmori ad henah.

"For the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete."

יהוה measures iniquity. He gives time. He waits. And when the cup overflows, judgement is total, precise, and irreversible. The Amorites had their measure. Babylon had its measure. And for 47 years, a regime filled its cup, declaration by declaration, proxy by proxy, missile by missile.

The Decree Across 127 Provinces

Haman's decree in Esther was not a local threat. It was a command for total annihilation across 127 provinces. Every Jew, everywhere. Man, woman, child. One day. Complete erasure.

That is not ancient history. That is the stated aim of the modern movement. "From the river to the sea" is not a liberation slogan. It is Haman's decree dressed in political language. Remove Jews from the land, from campuses, from cities, from public life. Make them unwelcome in every province.

The spirit of עֲמָלֵק (Amalek) does not limit itself to one battlefield. It pursues the covenant people across every territory. That was true in Esther's day. It is true now.

The Tribe That Redeems What It Failed

Mordechai is identified in Esther 2:5 as a Benjamite, a descendant of Kish. Esther is his cousin. Same tribe. Same family line.

Now go back to Shmuel Aleph (1 Samuel) 15. שָׁאוּל (Shaul / Saul), also a Benjamite, also a son of Kish, is commanded to destroy Amalek entirely. He did not obey. He spared Agag, king of Amalek. That failure cost him the kingdom.

Generations later, in Persia, two Benjamites from the same house stand where Shaul fell. Mordechai refuses to bow to the Agagite. Esther walks into the throne room risking her life. And through their faithfulness, Haman the Agagite and his ten sons are destroyed.

The tribe that failed is the tribe that redeems. יהוה does not discard a bloodline that stumbles. He restores it through the very line that fell.

The Sleepless King

The entire deliverance turns on one detail. The king could not sleep. He calls for the סֵפֶר הַזִּכְרֹנוֹת (Sefer HaZichronot), the Book of Records. He discovers Mordechai was never rewarded. From that single detail, everything cascades.

תְּהִלִּים (Tehillim / Psalms) 16:7 says יהוה gives counsel in the night seasons. The greatest turning point in exile history looks like a man tossing and turning in bed. No thunder. No angels. Just a restless king and a Book of Records. That is what hidden providence looks like.

Haman and His Ten Sons

Haman and his ten sons are hanged. Eleven in total.

4 + 7 = 11. Hold that thought.

In 1946, at the Nuremberg trials, ten Nazi war criminals were sentenced to death by hanging. Julius Streicher, as he mounted the scaffold, reportedly cried out, "Purimfest 1946."

The enemy knew the pattern. Even as it consumed him.

וְנַהֲפוֹךְ הוּא — And It Was Reversed

The Hebrew phrase that governs the book of Esther is וְנַהֲפוֹךְ הוּא (v'nahafoch hu), "and it was reversed." Everything inverts.

The gallows Haman built for Mordechai become his own execution. The day decreed for destruction becomes the day of victory. The man who demanded all bow to him is led to the gallows. The man who refused to bow is robed in royal garments and paraded through the streets on the king's horse. The decree of death is overturned. A new decree goes out across 127 provinces. The Jews are armed, empowered, and defended by the very empire that tried to destroy them.

And many from the nations join themselves to the covenant people.

Every weapon turned. Every scheme is inverted. That is not poetic justice. That is covenant governance. And it is alive right now.

The Blood Moon Triad

A blood moon fell near Purim in 2024. A blood moon fell on Purim in 2025. And now, a third blood moon falls directly on Purim 5786. Three consecutive years. Three blood moons over the feast of deliverance.

The Radak, an early and authoritative Jewish commentator, taught that a blood moon signals the downfall of the wicked. And Beresheet (Genesis) 1:14 tells us the heavenly lights were set in place for אֹתֹת וּלְמוֹעֲדִים (otot ul'moadim), for signs and for appointed times.

Not for entertainment. Not for countdown clocks. For alignment.

What the Sign-Watchers Must Understand

The signs matter. יהוה Himself set the lights in the heavens for signs and appointed times. He gave them to us. When the heavens speak, the faithful should listen.

But listening is not the same as being ready.

You can know the exact hour of every prophetic movement. You can map every blood moon, trace every pattern, chart every alignment. And still be found outside the covenant when it matters.

The signs are the alarm. The covenant is the shelter. And an alarm means nothing if you never move.

The regime boasted for 47 years. It did not see tomorrow. And Mishlei (Proverbs) 27:1 warns all of us: "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring."

Your end of days can come before the end of days. You do not need a blood moon to stand before יהוה. You need a heartbeat. And you are not guaranteed the next one.

If you are watching 47 unfold and asking whether this is prophetic, the more urgent question is whether you understand the covenant that governs history in the first place. Knowledge of the times without faithfulness to the covenant is not wisdom. It is spectating. And spectators do not inherit the promises.

So the most urgent prophetic act you can take right now is not watching the sky. It is תְּשׁוּבָה (teshuvah). Turning. Returning. To the covenant.

The covenant is not a feeling. It is not a denomination. It is not a prayer you said once. It is Torah, given at Sinai, confirmed in blood, walked out in faithfulness to יהוה through Yeshua the living Word.

Ben Bag Bag said it in Pirkei Avot:

הַפֵךְ בָּהּ וַהֲפֵךְ בָּהּ דְּכֹלָּא בָהּ

Hafoch bah, v'hafoch bah, d'chulah bah.

"Turn it and turn it, for everything is in it."

Everything. The patterns. The numbers. The signs. The covenant. The King. It is all in Torah.

Sorrow Turned to Joy

And for those who are found inside the covenant when the reversal comes:

אֶסְתֵר (Esther) 9:22

וְהַחֹדֶשׁ אֲשֶׁר נָהְפַךְ לָהֶם מִיָּגוֹן לְשִׂמְחָה וּמֵאֵבֶל לְיוֹם טוֹב

V'hachodesh asher nehepach lahem miyagon l'simcha, u'me'evel l'yom tov.

"The month which was turned for them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning to a good day."

נָהְפַךְ (nehepach). Turned. Reversed. Same root as v'nahafoch hu.

Sorrow turned. Mourning turned. Every weapon, every decree, every scheme, turned.

That is the promise of Purim. Not merely survival. Complete reversal. Joy where there was grief. Feasting where there was fasting, Celebration where there was terror.

The measure filled. The hand wrote. The kingdom fell.

The moon turns red over the feast of deliverance.

The gallows built for the righteous hold the wicked instead.

And sorrow, ancient sorrow, is turned to joy.

His Name is hidden in the text. His hand still writes every page.

Be found ready. And when you are found ready, what awaits you is not fear. It is the feast. The table is set. The victory is already written.

The question is whether your name is in the book.

If this stirred something in you, if you sense there is more in the text than you have ever been shown, if you are ready to go deeper into the covenant that governs history, the patterns hidden in Torah, and the King at the center of it all, then the Covenant Code is where we go deeper.

Using Our God-Given Authority

I want to share some thoughts regarding spiritual warfare. While we are not to become distracted or preoccupied with satan or his demons, they do exist and must be resisted at times.

The Bible tells us that:

- We are in a very real spiritual war (see 2 Corinthians 10:4; 1 Timothy 1:18).
- We are soldiers in this war (see Ps. 110:2-3; 2 Timothy 2:3-4).
- We are to "wrestle" against all levels of the kingdom of darkness (see Ephesians 6:12).
- We are to "resist the devil" (which would in most situations be his demons) and he will flee from us (see James 4:7; 1 Peter 5:9).
- We are to "tread" on satan and his demons (i.e., exercise authority over them—see Luke 10:19; Romans 16:20).
- We are to cast out demons (see Mark 16:17).
- We have the authority to "bind" (forbid) and "loose" (permit) when dealing with the agents and gates of hell (see Matthew 16:19).
- We have powerful weapons designed to overcome the kingdom of darkness (see 2 Corinthians 10:4; Ephesians 6:10-20).

Regarding binding and loosing, the book by Jack Hayford, Prayer Is Invading the Impossible, gives an enlightening amplification of Matthew 16:18-19, based on the technical aspects of the Greek wording. Dr. Hayford's translation makes clear that WE must go on the offense:

"Whatever you may at any time encounter (of hell's counsels which I'm declaring my church shall prevail against), you will then face a decision as to whether you will or won't bind it. What transpires will be conditional upon your response. If you do personally and consciously involve yourself in the act of binding the issue on earth, you will discover that at that future moment when you do, that it has already been bound in heaven!"

Wow!

The words bind and loose could be translated as "forbid" and "release." The Greek words are actually legal terms, as in legally binding, or the opposite - being released from that which legally binds. The Lord is saying He has given us legal authority, spiritually speaking, to stop satan's attacks and release individuals from his control. God doesn't give us detailed formulas for doing so. He is not into formulas in any area of biblical truth. He prioritizes relationship and gives us principles to apply as the Holy Spirit leads us. He alone knows exactly what is needed in each situation. Sometimes we simply give biblical commands, releasing the sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17); other times we are led to worship (2 Chronicles 20:1-30), fast (Mark 9:29), or even clap and shout (Psalms 47:1).

In spiritual warfare, the point is not so much how we wrestle, but that we wrestle - bind, loose, and/or wield the sword - and do so as Holy Spirit leads us. We must go on the offensive and aggressively deal with the forces of darkness whenever necessary. The word "against" is used five times in Ephesians 6 to describe our spiritual warfare. The Greek word is pros, which is a strengthened form of pro. We get the English word "pro/professional" from it. These Greek words mean "in front of," or "superior to." We use the concept when referring to professional athletes. A pro athlete is one who is "in front of" or "superior to" others. The words also have the connotation of stepping forward and facing toward something or someone. Paul is using the symbolism in this Ephesians passage of a wrestler stepping forward and facing his opponent. God is saying to us in these verses, "Step forward and face the kingdom of darkness. Wear the armor I have provided and overcome them."

The following remarkable story tells of two powerful intercessors stepping forward to face demonic powers. John G. Lake, a missionary to South Africa in the first half of the 20th century, relates the story of a fever epidemic that struck a portion of South Africa in a single night. The devastation was such that in one month, a fourth of the entire population of that region died. There were not enough caskets to meet the need, and people were being buried in blankets, so great was the devastation. Lake tells of a powerful intercessor who began to pray. For days— all day long and into the night—he stationed himself under a tree and prayed against the plague. Several times, Lake asked the man, "Are you getting through?"

He would reply, "Not yet." But one day he said to Lake, "I feel today that if I had just a little help in faith, my spirit would go through." Lake got on his knees and joined the man in prayer. What happened next is amazing. Here it is in Lake's own words:
"As we prayed, the Spirit of the Lord overwhelmed our souls, and presently I found myself, not kneeling under the tree, but moving gradually away from the tree. My eyes gradually opened, and I witnessed such a scene as I never witnessed before - a multitude of demons like a flock of sheep! The Spirit had come upon the other man also, and he rushed ahead of me, rebuking that army of demons, and they were driven back to hell, or the place from whence they came. Beloved, the next morning when I awoke, that epidemic of fever was gone.

We have authority; we must learn to use it!

Pray with me:
Father, You have given us all of the authority we need to triumph over every spiritual attack against us. So often we lose by default, failing to use this authority and "the weapons of our warfare" which You said are "mighty to pull down strongholds" (2 Corinthians 10:3–5). Yeshua, who has all authority in heaven and on earth, has given us the right to use His name. Increase our understanding of this authority. Open "the eyes of our understanding" and give us "the spirit of wisdom and revelation" (Ephesians 1: 17–18).

We pray for our family members today, forbidding the enemy to blind them to truth, oppress them with disease, deceive them with lies, and rob them of their destinies. We ask You, Father, to save, heal, and deliver them. And for our nation, we bind every plan to harm our president, our legislative leaders, and justices on the Court. We bind demonic strategies to influence President Trump and other leaders as they make decisions regarding the Middle East. We ask You, God, to lead and direct them. And we pray that You would break the deadlock occurring regarding the funding of DHS. Protect our nation, we pray, against terrorism. Dismantle the evil regime in Iran; remove it completely and give peace to Israel and the Middle East. And pour out Your Spirit there. All of these things we pray in Yeshua' name. Amen.
Our decree:
We declare that our God-given weapons are mighty to pull down strongholds of darkness. (2 Corinthians 10:3-5

Maranatha! Come, Lord Yeshua Christ!

Reposting PROPHETS IF YOU'RE FACING A FEROCIOUS BATTLE, HOLD ON, FOR THERE IS A MAJOR SHIFT TAKING PLACE IN THE PROPHETIC MOVEMENT! (by Lana Vawser)

"The Lord showed me that there is a significant battle against many prophets right now. Many are feeling like they have had the wind knocked out of their sails. I saw many in a place of deep heaviness, feeling oppressed, confusion, lack of clarity, disorientation and even torment.

As I leaned into the Lord, I heard His voice resound so loudly:
"THE BATTLE IS OVER MY VOICE AND THE MANTLE OF EVANGELISM THAT IS BEING ACTIVATED OVER THE PROPHETS!!! IT'S TIME FOR A MAJOR SURGE OF PROPHETIC EVANGELISM"

I then began to see flashes before my eyes of the positioning hand of God in the lives of the prophets in this new era and positioning them in the world in places they never imagined. I could hear the Lord speaking, "I have and will continue to position you in the Church for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, but I am now also releasing you in greater ways into the world with great favor to release My Words and to spread the Good News of My Gospel to bring in the harvest. It is time for My voice to resound in the world louder than before and I am activating a mantle of evangelism over many prophets. The enemy is trying to keep many of My prophets caged in this place of inactivity because of fear, and tremendous opposition. I have heard the cries of many of My prophets crying out to me because of the battle and deep torment they have been facing, but this is because of MY VOICE that is about to go forth louder than before. The enemy is ferociously angry, and he is attempting to muzzle the prophets, but it will not prevail. For I am decreeing over My prophets "IT'S TIME TO MOVE INTO NEW MANTLES!!!! IT'S TIME FOR A DOUBLE MANTLE TO BE BIRTHED UPON YOU!!!! THE PROPHETIC AND THE EVANGELIST CONVERGING!!! Prophets you are NOW BIRTHING! The enemy is coming on assignment to abort, but I am decreeing now is your time to BIRTH!

"You are about to birth in great joy! You are moving into another mantle My prophets and there's a battle on the mantle, but greater momentum shall you find in this mantle than you have ever known. The enemy is terrified of the mantle you are moving into My prophets! Get fierce! Be ferocious and don't stop! Move! Move! Move! It's time to move into the new mantle! The witchcraft coming against this new mantle is a sign of the momentum contained within this mantle. The promotion, this moving into this new mantle is the greatest promotion and shift in many of your lives thus far. It's the greatest increase of anointing that you have known."

In this vision, I began to see prophets being positioned in the world and speaking words from the heart of the Father, one word that unlocks the heart of those who do not yet know Yeshua and salvation SUDDENLY coming forth.

The Lord is training and increasing the prophets right now in clarity and insight to go forth in greater empowerment of the Spirit to partner with Him in a new level of prophetic evangelism. There is a completely new display of prophetic evangelism that is about to burst forth as the increase of clarity, revelation and insight is released to the prophets to release My nature and the secrets of My heart to mankind across the earth. I heard the Lord say; "IT'S A SURGE!!!!"

SURGE DEFINITION: a sudden powerful forward or upward movement, especially by a crowd or by a natural force such as the tide.

SYNONYMNS: gush, rush, outpouring, stream, flow, sweep, swell, swelling, heaving, billowing, rolling, roll, bulging, eddying, swirling, tide, burst, pour, cascade, spill, overflow

The Lord continued to speak:

"It's a MAJOR SURGE OF PROPHETIC EVANGELISM that is about to take place and the enemy is attempting to silence the prophets so they will not move into these DOUBLE MANTLES, but I am fighting on their behalf. I am training them in the fire, and they will go forth with My Words in their mouth, with the fire of My presence upon them and My Words like fire in their mouths and they will begin to see HARVEST all around. It's time for the PROPHET and the EVANGELIST to CONVERGE like never before.

IT'S TIME TO GO BEHIND THE VEIL LIKE NEVER BEFORE

"My prophets, it is time to go behind the veil like never before. It is time to come deeper into the place of Jeremiah 33:3. For the level of insight, revelation and clarity of My secrets and My Word that I am releasing to you in this new era is unlike anything you have seen and heard before. It is a new level of insight and a new level of revelation. As you come behind the veil into the secret place I will entrust you to REVELATION knowledge and wisdom that you will take into the world and the places I send you and you will release these secrets, and they will bring forth a GREAT UNLOCKING for the harvest. Hearts will be unlocked and come into salvation. Culture, cities and nations will be affected by the ANSWERS and PROPHETIC INSIGHT that I will release to you and through you for the world and will see the world left in awe of My wisdom that will also bring in the harvest. Many in the world will come to the knowledge of My reality and who I am, and My goodness and come to know Me, recognizing the wisdom from on high! It's time to come behind the veil like never before."

THE INCREASE OF THE TRAINING OF THE SAINTS IS ABOUT TO ESCALATE AND ACCELERATE (Ephesians 4:12-16)

I heard the Lord say:
"There is also an increase of the training and equipping of the saints for the work of the ministry that is about to ESCALATE and ACCELERATE for the harvest!!! There is going to be a greater acceleration of the training and equipping of the saints, a greater maturing, to send out, prepare, activate and equip. For there is a TIDAL WAVE of ACTIVATION crashing into the body of Christ right now to ACTIVATE My people in the PROPHETIC and EVANGELISM! It's time for the PROPHET and the EVANGELIST to EXPAND!

MY VOICE IS GOING TO GO FORTH LOUDER THAN BEFORE

"My prophets, the enemy is attempting to drag many of you into a battle that feels like hell because you and I are about to snatch souls and save them from the reality of hell. This is the sound of the harvest! This is why the enemy is screaming at you to stop right now My prophets, because My VOICE is about to go forth through you, My Gospel and the secrets of My heart like never before that will bring MANY into the Kingdom and the saving knowledge of who I am and My goodness. You MUST go forth! It's your time to move into the new activated mantle and move into the harvest field like never before. It's time! You have arrived! It is time!

"I am leading many of you where you have never been before. It's uncomfortable, but it will be GLORIOUS as you see Me move in power through you like NEVER before. For SUCH a time as this is resounding loudly over you. Now is the time to TRUST in Me and TRUST in My POWER!!! The harvest is ripe and you are being sent forth in great acceleration and empowerment to bring in the harvest!!!!!"

Sylvia Neusch: I Heard the Lord Say, "Come in Close"

Sylvia Neusch, Round Rock, Texas

As I spent some time in prayer on a recent morning, I confess I felt a bit overwhelmed by all that has been going on in the world and atmosphere around us. Particularly weighing on my heart was what has been happening in the Body of Christ with all the exposures and the recent uncovering of sin.

My heart had been burdened with the weight of pain that I sense many are experiencing as we walk through this necessary time of purification and cleansing.

As I cried out to the Lord, I heard Him say three simple words: "Come in close."

The more I pondered the three words He had spoken, the more He began to reveal His heart, not only for me in my grief, but for many who have been caught in webs of chaos and confusion.

To Those Hurt by Sin and Evil

I heard Him say, "Come in close. For the victims of evil and those hurt by the sin of other people, come in close, for I am close to the brokenhearted.

"You have My attention, and My ears are tuned to hear your cries of desperation. Your cries have not gone unheard. (Photo via Unsplash)

"Know this, I have promised to never leave or forsake you. We will walk through this together. Come in close.

"My throne rests on the foundations of righteousness and justice, and I am establishing both in the earth. I am your advocate. I will wipe away your tears and bring healing to the broken places of your heart. You can trust that I will guide you with My counsel. I will strengthen your heart. Yes, people will fail you, but I never will. Come in close.

To the Spiritual Leaders Navigating Difficult Times

"To the spiritual leaders navigating difficult times and situations, come in close. I see the weight and burdens you are carrying. Apart from Me and My grace, you cannot easily walk this path. Come in close.

"Have I not said My yoke is easy, and My burden light? Yes, you may fail at times, but My love for you never will. My love for you is a constant in your life.

"Those around you will often look at your performance and outward appearance, but I notice and observe your heart. Never stop coming to Me with an open and tender heart. Never stop acting justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with Me. Come in close.

To the Offenders and Prodigals Who Have Walked Away from Truth

"To the offenders and prodigals who have walked away from truth and the wisdom of fathers, come in close.

"You find yourselves standing at a crossroads. You can choose to return home, or you can step out of the grace I have appointed for you. Choosing the latter will surely bring you to your own muddy pigpen of despair and isolation. But, even in your rebellion I will never abandon you. My love for you is steadfast and un-swayed by your offenses.

"I am watching and waiting for your return. When you choose to return, coming in repentance, I am here waiting to embrace you. (Photo via Picryl)

"Yes, I require confession. Yes, I require repentance. But I already paid the debt for your sin. It is PAID IN FULL.

"Come in close. My child, I am watching and waiting for your return, and I will run to meet you. I will wipe away your shame and reproach, causing you to stand upright once again. Come in close."

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails." (1 Corinthians 13:4–8 NIV)

Bruce & Linda Dietler - Kansas

Rainy-day People

The stars are beginning to fall. Queen Elizabeth II, Great Britain's longest ruling monarch has died. Tributes have come from national leaders the world over. Bouquets of flowers have been strewn at the gates of Buckingham Palace by well-wishers; others have expressed their loss in significant ways, while thousands more, on the evening her death was announced, took up silent vigil in tribute outside the palace standing for hours in the rain.

Rain may represent many things at different times in different situations. It may signify sadness, rejection, despair, or it might represent relief from heat and drought, a life-blessing from God, or still, purification from sin, or revival of life, re-growth and refreshing. In times of great grief, the downcast soul might receive it as tears of compassion and grace and the purity of God's great love falling from Heaven as He joins Himself with us in our loss or sorrow. At other times it might represent a cleansing of the past and bringing of hope for renewal and new birth of better things to come. Rain creates not only physical change, but also mental and spiritual change. To all who stand in the rain, it brings the body's senses – physical and emotional – to the forefront, tending to shut out the external noise and chaos of the world as all focus becomes immediate and personal. Standing in the rain might bring introspection and clarity of thought, and to the Christian, it might bring to mind the Word of God and/or the presence of the Holy Spirit, as we are to be "washed by the washing of water by the Word." (See Ephesians 5:26)

The show of affection for Queen Elizabeth during the silent vigil in the rain stands in stark contrast to another such rainy-day gathering documented in the Bible.

Following the destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians and the subsequent overthrow of Babylon by the Medes and Persians, King Cyrus of Persia issued the decree to restore God's temple in Jerusalem. The call was answered by Zerubbabel, who, along with 50,000 others, returned to the ruined city to accomplish the task. Due to the resulting political strife and infighting among various factions in the region, the project was delayed for many years before construction was allowed to continue. It was not until 80 years after Cyrus' original decree that Ezra, the Priest, journeyed to Jerusalem to instruct the inhabitants in the Law of God. Ezra was a ready scribe who had prepared his heart to seek the law, to do it, and to teach others. (see Ezra 7:7,10)

During the Babylonian captivity and subsequent years in Israel, without established temple worship or godly leadership, many of God's people had intermarried with the inhabitants of the land, had neglected worship of the true God, had forgotten or ignored His ordinances and had committed various abominations. Ezra was commissioned to set magistrates and judges in the land and to teach the laws of God to "all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not." (see Ezra 7:25) This commission also authorized that "whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment." (see Ezra 7:26)

"And they (Ezra and the priests) made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away. Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain." (Ezra 10:7-9)

This great gathering was not because of endearment or honor for God by the people, but rather, for fear of being excommunicated from society and having all goods confiscated. It was not the overwhelming desire of God's people to seek the law and learn His ways. Over time, this had now become a largely secular society: the ways of God had been forgotten, forsaken, or just ignored. As the word of God was read by Ezra to the people, they were made accountable to follow His commandments and separate from their foreign wives and separate even from the children of these unions. Great anguish swept over the congregation, but they ultimately agreed to follow the law as delivered to Moses.

As Christianity in American society has seemingly been losing ground in recent decades relative to atheism, humanism, or other belief systems, it is tragic that many within the Body of Christ, will seek the Lord only under duress. History is repeating itself. Yet it is still God's desire that we seek Him out of love with our whole heart, mind, and strength, and that from that heart of love we would choose to commune with Him, honor and serve Him all of our days, regardless of gain or loss in the process. I believe the Lord would say to us, "Will you not love me such that you would be willing to stand out in the rain for hours to hear My true word and learn of My ways, even more so than does a secular crowd, willing to show respect for a dead earthly monarch? How are you willing to sacrifice in order to hear from Me?"

In Deuteronomy 5:27-29, the congregation of Israel in the wilderness, not wanting to hear from God themselves, tells Moses to go up and hear from God and we'll do whatever He says. The Lord responds to Moses that He is pleased with what the people have said, but "O, that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them and with their children forever!" God was pleased with their words, but He knew their hearts, and He knows ours as well. The nation wasn't wanting to stand in God's presence, but rather, they'd let Moses do it for them! How many in the present-day Body of Christ are willing to let the pastor hear from God so they didn't have to? It is easier, after all, and besides, that's what we pay him for!

Throughout biblical history we see time and again where God's people would turn from the Lord to follow their own ways and as a result be overcome by their enemies. God would then raise up a prophet or a deliverer to restore them to Himself. Gideon, Sampson, Elijah, and others readily come to mind.

It is said of Rehoboam, King of Judah after Solomon's death, that "he did evil because he did not set his heart to seek (inquire of, yearn for) the Lord with all his desire." (2 Chronicles 12;14 Amp)

Many other examples could be cited, but the fact is, each individual has a vital part to play in seeking, serving, and growing in the Lord. Yes, it is important that we listen to the voice of the prophets and follow them, but it is equally important that we seek the Lord ourselves, and that with all our heart. As "disciples" of the Lord, that is, as disciplined followers of Him, it should be our greatest desire to commune with Him, to seek and to serve Him, and to be like King David: men (and women) after God's own heart.

Proverbs 16:15 tells us that "the king's favor is as a cloud of the latter rain." That favor is available to all who seek Him. The early rains will come upon the land to satisfy the parched and thirsty soil of our heart and prepare it for the seed of God's word -- and the later showers will follow to refresh and bring forward the ripening crop to maturity.

The rain of the Holy Spirit is falling upon the dry ground of the earth. It is not coming as just a small cloud the size of a man's hand, but rather, a massive outpouring which will quench the thirst of all who seek His presence. God's refreshing, renewing presence is being poured out in abundance upon all who will receive it. The rain is falling. Are you willing to stand in the rain to receive all God has for you, regardless of the cost?

For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants. (Isaiah 44:3)

I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. (Hebrews 8:10-11)

Sherilyn Hamon-Miller: When God Uses What Feels Odd and Unusual

When God Works Outside the Box

"But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty." (1 Corinthians 1:27 KJV)

Over the years, I have learned that God rarely works the way I expect Him to.

If I am honest, much of my life has felt a little odd and unusual and not always in a comfortable way.

I did not always fit in. I was not quite the same as the rest of my family. I did not always think the same way, respond the same way, or even catch the joke when everyone else laughed. For a long time, I wondered if something was wrong with me.

Now I know better. God uses that.

When You Feel Like You Don't Belong

Yeshua told a parable in Luke 14:16–24 that has always spoken deeply to me. A man prepared a great feast and invited those who were first called—the honored, the religious, the respected.

But they made excuses. They declined the invitation.

So the master did something unexpected.

He sent his servants into the streets and lanes to bring in the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind. When there was still room, he sent them even farther, to the highways and hedges, compelling others to come.

The people who assumed they belonged missed the feast. The ones who never thought they would be invited filled the table. That parable tells me something powerful: God often welcomes those who feel out of place.

God's Instructions Are Not Always Comfortable

We do not set out to be odd or unusual. But when God speaks, His instructions do not always make sense to the natural mind.

If a donkey speaks to you like it did to Balaam, you should probably pay attention. There may be an angel standing in front of you that you cannot see.

If God tells you to build an ark because a flood is coming, even though no one has ever seen rain, you obey. You might be saving your family and the future of the earth. (Photo via Freerange)

If you are blind and Yeshua uses spit and mud to heal you, you do not complain about the method. You receive the miracle.

If you are running from God's purpose and find yourself living inside a great fish for three days, you do not argue. You repent.

If God tells you not to cut your hair and you decide you know better, do not be surprised when consequences follow.

If God tells you to be silent, walk around a city for seven days, then shout, and listen carefully. Walls are about to fall.

Even Moses, a man who spoke with God face to face, suffered consequences when he allowed anger to override obedience and struck the rock instead of speaking to it.

These stories remind me that obedience matters, even when the instructions feel strange or uncomfortable.

God's Strength Shines Through Weakness

One of the clearest examples of this is Gideon's army.

God intentionally reduced an army of 32,000 down to just 300. In the natural, it made no sense. In the spirit, it made perfect sense.

God wanted everyone to know the victory did not come from numbers, strategy, or human ability. It came from Him.

I have seen this truth play out again and again in my own life. When I have felt weak, unsure, or unqualified, God showed Himself strong. It was never about what I could do. It was always about what God could do through me.

The Call to Humility

That is why Scripture repeatedly calls us to humility:

• "If My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves..." (2 Chronicles 7:14)

• "Humble yourselves before the Lord." (James 4:10)

• "Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand." (1 Peter 5:6)

• "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled." (Matthew 23:12)

Humility keeps us teachable. It keeps us listening. It keeps us obedient, even when God asks us to do something outside the box.

Be Who God Called You to Be

God may be asking you to do something that feels odd or unusual—something that does not fit neatly into other people's expectations. When that happens, pray. Seek godly counsel. Weigh it carefully. And if it truly comes from God, be obedient. I have learned that trying to be "normal" is overrated anyway.

God did not call me to be like everyone else. He did not call you to be like everyone else. He called us to be who He created us to be: Unique, purpose-filled, and dependent on Him.

Sometimes God's ways look odd. Sometimes obedience feels uncomfortable. But God is always faithful. And He always knows exactly what He is doing.

A Prayer for the One Reading This

Yeshua, I ask that whoever is reading this would know, right now, that no matter what state they are in, they are accepted by You. You love them just as they are, and You will use them for Your glory.

If they feel small like Zacchaeus and only want a glimpse of You, remind them that You see them and will meet with them personally.

If they feel like a woman hidden in the crowd, carrying weakness, frailty, or an issue that has gone on too long, let them know that if they reach out right where they are and touch You, they will be healed.

God, You do not see us as odd or unusual. You see us as the vessels You intentionally formed.

We do not have to become good enough, smart enough, good looking enough, or spiritual enough to receive Your love and acceptance. We receive it now. Amen.

Nissan 14, 5786: Wednesday-April 1, 2026

Yeshua said to me, "Train MY Bride for War."

A Chapter from "The Heart of a Seer."

Wade Butler

Holy Spirit said to me; "This word needs to be repeated to all that will hear."

Unfortunately, most churches do not prepare their people for the war we all eventually face. That is why I sought out the apostles, prophets, and seer-hearers. I have never liked surprises, particularly of the warring kind.

When the enemy interrupts your life, you need to be prepared. The Bride needs to have combat boots on, a pistol strapped to her garter, and an AR15 behind her veil. The groom needs a Laser Sword under his tux, and to be trained as a Jedi for the LORD.

There is so much evil everywhere we look. It is all about good versus evil. We know who wins. However, our enemy will keep on trying to destroy life, our nation and anyone who professes the LORD. Once again, 2 Chronicles 7:14 "If My people, who are called by My name, shall humble themselves, pray, seek, crave, and require of necessity My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land." (AMPC)

I am not saying, "Gun up; do what you have to do to be safe." What I am saying, however, it be PRAYED UP.

Over the past several years, I have used the term, "We are in a battle for the Soul of our Nations." I am compelled to repeat it over and over again. Recently, I had the pleasure of meeting Grant Abraham, the Christian conservative candidate for Prime Minister of Canada. He recently published a book titled, "The Battle for the Soul of Canada." Immediately, we were as long-lost brothers in the battle for the Kingdom of God.

In the natural, the future of our nations is bleak unless we come together and Praise, Pray, Decree, and Pray again. Often, I say that we read or interpret scripture improperly or inadequately. We say, "We overcome by the Blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony (Revelation 12:11). I read it as, "We overcome by the Blood of the Lamb and the testimony of the Word (repeating HIS Word!)." That is quite a difference. Look up the word, "testimony" in Greek and/or Hebrew, and it says, "The word Testimony means repeating "God's Word back to HIM!" WOW!

So, as we "Battle for the Soul of our Nations," pray scripture back to HIM!

In a follow-up meeting, where I met with Christian leaders from several nations, during our ascension before Yahweh, HE said, "Open up your hands," where HE placed beautiful, brilliant blue seeds that radiated light and HIS presence.

He said, "These are the seeds of MY GLORY. Spead them where I tell you to, and they will bring the LIGHT of MY GLORY for all present." At that meeting HE said to me, "Spread them NOW!" and as I did, HIS presence was overwhelming. Men and women of God trembled and held on to anything they could grab. Barry Wunsch and the others present could hardly stand in the LIGHT OF HIS GLORY. What an honor to be with these mighty men of GOD, and more importantly, to be in the GLORY….

THE WORD ALIVE NOW ON EARTH – Ron McGatlin

"And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14)

Christ Yeshua, the Word, was made flesh and dwelt among men and was crucified as the sacrifice to redeem mankind and the world.

The Word was made alive on earth again at Yeshua' resurrection. Afterward, our Lord and Savior ascended to God's throne in heaven.

The Word returned as Spirit King Yeshua in the Holy Spirit, to live in His people on earth to establish the kingdom of His Father on earth as it is in heaven.

Holy Spirit God, King Yeshua, abides in us who abide in Him to establish the kingdom of heaven on earth. (John 15:4, Colossians 1:26-27, 1 Corinthians 3:16, John 14:20, John 17:21)

ALL THE WORLD AND THE POWERS OF HEAVEN WAIT FOR THE SONS OF GOD, ALIVE ON EARTH, TO SPEAK FORTH THE MANIFESTATION OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN NOW ON EARTH.

"For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. 21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now." (Romans 8:19,21-22)

Multitudes of Holy Angels and all the power of God, in heaven and on earth, are poised, ready to cleanse the earth of all evil and all false gods.

Called and appointed sons are hearing the clear call to abandon the forbidden fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, and turn their affection to the Tree of Life, the Word King Yeshua.

The Word is a living Spirit of love and truth that contains the light of life. Spirit God in King Yeshua, now abiding in the sons of God, is collectively growing into the full stature of Christ. This is the abiding place or temple of God on earth.

THE TEMPLE OF GOD ON EARTH

"For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are God's building." (1 Corinthians 3:9)

Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17 If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are. (1 Corinthians 3:16-17)

God's mature sons in Christ Yeshua by the Holy Spirit are THE TEMPLE OF GOD on earth.

The Temple that God is building now is His spiritually mature people bringing forth His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven. God does not need a building to abide in on earth. Spirit God Almighty needs a collective body of people to abide in to establish His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

"Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Yeshua Christ Himself being the chief corner*stone,* in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit." (Ephesians 2:19-22)

The word of God made flesh is Spirit King Yeshua alive in His Temple of redeemed mankind, establishing the LOVE kingdom of God on earth.

DO TEMPLE BUILDINGS LIMIT GOD?

In the hearts and minds of people, man-made objects built or made for God's house often become idols that tend to limit God to a specific place, thing, or time. God has left or is now leaving all things that limit or restrain His presence.

God and His love will fill all our daily life activities. Every home, business, school, recreational facility, or government facility is a place of God built for His purposes. Every building or structure built by man in this world is to be unto God. All things on earth are to honor God and serve His purpose, but not to be a place for Him to abide.

"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There!' do not believe it. For false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. See, I have told you beforehand. Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!" "do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it." (Matthew 24:23-26)

SPIRIT LOVE LIVES ON EARTH IN THE HEARTS OF MANKIND

The Word is again made purified holy flesh in the grown-up children of God. The beauty of holiness abides upon and among the people of God. The indwelling Word purifies life and flows love as we joyfully serve one another.

Love is experienced in relationships with all others in whom the Word abides. Always seek the kingdom of Love, and Spirit God will watch over us and provide even the desires of our purified hearts.

There is no lack or fear in love. The Word, Savior, Lord, and King abides within to empower, guide, and keep us in the dome of the King, or kingdom dominion.

The body of many parts fits together, and each joint supplies what is needed to the next, all under the one Spirit Head. Our Spirit Head, the Word made flesh, warns us of malfunction and guides us in remedying the situation with the love and authority given us in oneness with God.

ONE SPIRIT IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH

Walking or living in communion with God is effortless as Spirit Word is seamlessly joined to our spirit man. Our experience is becoming at the throne and in this world as needed to experience the works of God on earth.

There is no limiting time or space in the eternal Spirit throne realm. There is no line of time in the heavenly Spirit realm. The complex timeline situations of years of life can be changed or altered instantly in the Spirit throne realm.

Years of sinful life with all its scars can be obliterated instantly in the Spirit throne realm, by and through the provision of the cross of the Word made flesh, and a holy life can now be lived in communion with the living God.

The living Word says, only believe, and all things are possible with God.

"But Yeshua looked at them and said to them, 'With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.'" (Matthew 19:26)

STRUGGLING TO BELIEVE

Why then do we sometimes struggle to believe? Is it not, because we seek to make our Tree-of-Knowledge-trained minds change to believe the Spirit Word. Our natural mind, trained by practical knowledge, cannot accept the spiritual truth without a presentation of practical evidence. Is this not the reason God said not to eat of the fruit of that tree?

Which is greater? The Spirit realm of God that created all things, including trees, or the tree of knowledge? The Spirit realm is always greater than the natural or seen realm.

Paul said in 1 Corinthians 6:12, "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful."

True believing, or Spirit belief, does not come from trying harder or just reading the written word.

It comes from the Spirit – through Spirit communion with Spirit God. Hearing a spoken word directly from Spirit God will implant it in our spirit, and we then have it regardless of what our mind wants. Our minds can eventually be renewed as well. Especially when the belief's manifestation is evident.

CHANGING REALMS

Adjusting to the greater Spirit realm beyond or above the seen realm.

While this adjustment is being made, we may find that we have occasions of trying to trust in the written word alone to believe for a situation close to us, to be healed or remedied in some way. In every living situation, there are many factors we do not see. There are balances and facts that may not be seen in the specific written word that can affect the outcome of our desires expressed in prayer and believing.

To really understand God's response, or sometimes the seeming lack of response, we would have to know and understand the entire written Word and all the unseen circumstances. That is exactly what God knows and sees. That is why our faith leaps when we hear a spoken word directly from God. We can know how to pray only as we hear from God, who has all truth and understanding.

We can really believe or have great faith if we live and walk in the Spirit, and all things are possible.

16 Nissan the Crucifixion of Yeshua

"SENDING OUT AN S.O.S!"

A Distress Call is Being Heard in the Realm of the Spirit — Time to Wake Up!

In the early hours of this morning, I had a strange Dream experience.
I was half in and out of sleep, when I was lifted high above The Nations, and suddenly, a sound began to rise up from The Nations. As I listened, I heard a strange but somewhat familiar sound that I remembered hearing in my teenage years — the sound and tune of an old Song by a band called "The Police." …

Suddenly, I heard the lyrics from the chorus of the song; "I'm sending out an S.O.S! I'm sending out an S.O.S! I'm sending out an S.O.S!"

Again, and again the Sound and the Song got louder and louder in my Dream.
Now, as I listened and watched intently,
I saw Nations in The Valley of Decision.
I saw Nations on the Threshing Floor, and Nations standing at a Crossroads.
I saw great chaos and violent conflicts. Wars and New Wars beginning to unfold.
I saw Nations in turmoil and in trouble.
I saw Terror Attacks, both sudden and meticulously orchestrated.
I saw raging floodwaters rising on one side causing great destruction, and yet devastating Fires and Famines and many dying of starvation on the other.
I saw the waters of the seas being violently stirred up and massive Tsunami Waves forming as Earthquakes deep beneath the sea suddenly erupted.
I saw a deadly Avalanche that brought great destruction.
I saw the light of the sun over some Nations being completely blocked out by rising ash clouds from volcanoes that suddenly exploded…
I saw a catastrophic explosion in an Iconic City that shook the Nation to its core.

I saw a Landmark Bridge falling into the sea — that caused the World to stop and watch!

Then, I saw a black hand come up and over The Nations of Europe and great chaos and turmoil began to unfold. And I heard, "An Islamic Invasion and Uprising — that shall bring great destruction and devastation to the Sovereignty of Nations!

Watch and Pray — for Europe is falling!"

I saw global Weather Systems being manipulated and controlled that brought forth more unprecedented chaos and sudden destruction to the landscape of Nations.
I saw the weaponization of what looked like Insects and even bacteria and viruses that brought plagues and diseases that we have never been seen before.
I saw another attack coming on Gas and Oil,….Pipelines under the sea being sabotaged by Nations at War……..I saw the desert Sands become Flood plains and Flood plains become desert sands….I saw Rivers become like streams and Streams become like Raging Rivers, Mountain Ranges and Valleys were completely rearranged and some totally removed.

Then I saw that after what was experienced as a great Economic Boom — which seemed to only last for a little while — suddenly a great crash, and then I saw a Bull with a ring in its nose running amok and great chaos took place, and I saw Financial Markets suddenly failing and Stock Markets falling; The Economy in Crisis; An Economic Recession and the Collapse of Global Markets that brought forth a Global Economic Depression.

I saw then great trouble over the Waters of the Sea — intense fighting and battle unfolding along Shipping and Trading Routes, as Wars for territory unfolded, which prevented Food and vital Medical supplies from reaching their destinations.
I saw Millionaires and Billionaires running to and fro across The Nations trying to protect and hide their money — many looking for peace — but finding none!
I saw a Cyber Attacks coming that literally wiped away Millions and Billions of dollars, which brought the Banking Systems to its knees.

Personal details and Medical Records of Millions of people were stolen and destroyed….
In the Dream, there was a strong and tangible sense of Urgency; there was a resounding Cry of Desperation that was rising up from The Nations.

The atmosphere felt weighty and heavy, and the Sound came with an unrelenting and ever-increasing Urgency to Pray — Pray — and to keep Praying!
I knew by The Spirit of Revelation that what I was hearing was two-fold.
YES! This was an "Urgent Distress Call" coming from Nations in deep despair and desperation!

But this was also, "An Alarm being Sounded in The Realm of the Spirit!
An Emergency Signal! Time to Awake, Arise — and Act!
Time is of the Essence! This was a Warning and a Clarion Calling to Pray and to Mobilize as The Army of The LORD — a Call to be Watching and Praying!
The Battle for the Glory is at The Gates!
War for Divine Restore is at the Door!
The Destiny of Nations now hangs in the Balance!
Listen! An S.O.S Cry must be heard, rising up before The Courts of Heaven from the Remnant in this Hour!

There must be a Remnant who will Stand in the Gap!
This is an "Emergency Call-Out" to the Judge and The Father of Heaven for Divine Intervention — a Call for Mercy! Mercy! Mercy! And for God's Divine Preservation and Protection!

I hear these Words; "This is a Clarion Call to The Remnant in this Hour. A Divine Rescue Mission for Nations is now Underway!"

Note! The Key — is Repentance and a cry for Mercy!

To overcome, we need greater Prophetic Understanding and Divine Strategy.
Our Prophetic Decrees will become Keys to turn and unlock the barns and vats of Heaven and to deploy The Angels Armies of Heaven to bring forth timely intervention.
Our cries of Repentance will become Divine Legislation that will build and establish The Kingdom of Heaven in the earth realm!

Our Rapid Response to this Rising Distress Call is being, "Unceasing in our Praying — and Prophetic Declarations!"

Without Delay

Early Friday morning, the day before the war in Iran began [February 27, 2026], the Lord gave our friend, Gina Gholston, a fascinating, encouraging, and important dream. She actually sent it to me that Friday. Gina is no stranger to regular Give Him 15 followers, and we occasionally post her articles. She is a trusted prophet, teacher, and author. Her dream speaks of the impact our prayers are having and of strategic changes they are producing. Our appeals are accomplishing much. Here is the dream:
"I dreamed that I was with a large group of people, inside a building, walking down a long hallway. Everything in this hallway - floors, ceiling, walls, etc. - was solid white. At the end of the hallway was a man waiting for us, dressed totally in white, even wearing white gloves.

"When we approached him, he extended to us a solid red card, maybe 12"x12". Written in white letters on the red card were the words 'prayers and intercession.' I reached out my left hand (palm facing upward), and he placed the card on my palm. I then placed my right hand (palm down) across the top of the card. I held the card in the same position as the man led us up a long, solid-white stairway.
"At the top of the stairway, we came to another long hallway extending as far as the eye could see, with doors on both sides the entire length of the hallway. Once again, everything was white. In the center of the floor, just a few feet in front of us, was a box-like pedestal, maybe three feet tall.

"Standing next to the pedestal was another man dressed completely in white. I walked up to the pedestal, and the man motioned for me to insert the red card into a slot located at the top. I put the card into the box, and all the doors instantly opened. People came through some of the open doors, and 'things' I couldn't clearly see came out of other open doors. I am not sure what the 'things' were.

"The man then said to us, 'Intercession has gone to another level, and your fervent prayers and intercession are unlocking things and people - replacements and additions. Now, without delay, people and things will be replaced, and people and things will be added, for the fulfillment of purposes God has set for this time.'

"After he spoke those words, other angels immediately came and removed the people and 'things,' taking them to their rightful positions.

"The man in white then said again, 'Without delay.' Then he added, 'Do not mourn what is replaced, and do not reject what is added. God is at work! He has worked to guide you in your prayers and intercession, and He will work to carry out His intended fulfillment of the prayers and intercession.'"

End of Dream

My Thoughts Regarding the Dream

The hallway speaks of transition; the white speaks of purity - what is transpiring is righteous, pure. The men dressed in white are angels, sent to instruct and assist us. And the color red symbolizes the blood of Yeshua, which produces redemption and purity. The words in white ("prayers and intercession") on the red card indicate that our prayers are releasing the cleansing, redeeming, transforming power of Christ's blood. Isaiah 1:18 tells us, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

Going to the second floor indicates that our prayers have matured to another level, as the angel confirmed, opening doors and creating the changes about to occur. The coming changes have to do with people and "things." Gina was intentionally given no hint of what the "things" might be. They are most likely events or circumstances - we often hear the phrase, "things are about to change." The angel stated that people and things are about to be removed and replaced, then added the words "without delay." He then assured us that God's purposes will be accomplished.

The heavenly messenger then repeated, as if to emphasize it, that this would begin "without delay," adding that we were not to mourn what is replaced or reject what is added. "God is at work," he assured us.

The dream is clear and very encouraging: our prayers are being used by God to create great change; it will happen quickly; we are not to fear it or reject it; and the purposes of God are being accomplished. There is no doubt in my mind that some of this refers to what is occurring in the Middle East.

Keep praying in faith, friends, with the assurance that our appeals are not in vain. "The effectual, fervent prayers of the righteous avail much!" (James 5:16). Remember that our prayers are not frantic efforts to persuade God to move. Rather, they are responses to His promptings and leadings, partnering with Him to accomplish His desires. The angel in the dream actually emphasized that God has been guiding us in our intercession.

As I end today's post, I remind you that the book of Revelation tells us our prayers are stored in golden bowls in heaven (Revelation 5:8). They are precious to the Lord and create a pleasant fragrance before Him. At the appropriate time, God pours them onto the earth where they release His great power:

"And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake" (Revelation 8:3-5).

We are partnering with God…to change things on earth.

Pray with me:

Father, I thank You for the amazing army of intercessors You have raised up around the world. This company of kingdom-minded individuals is being used by You to establish Your purposes on the Earth. Thank You for their pure hearts and motives, pictured by the white colors in this dream. Encourage and strengthen them today. Let them know how much You appreciate them. We also thank You for the angels who assist us. Thank You for dispatching them to give us messages and carry out Your assignments. We know there are millions of prayers stored in the golden bowls in heaven, bringing a sweet fragrance to You. This dream tells us You are now pouring out some of those prayers to bring about great change. We will do as You said and not reject or mourn the changes. We trust You. Bring forth Your purposes throughout the earth. And bring forth the great harvest of souls. We appeal to You for these things in the mighty name of Yeshua. Amen.

Our decree:
We will continue to fill the bowls of prayer in heaven, ensuring that God has the cooperation He needs from us.

Nissan 18, 5786: Sunday-April 5, 2026

Last week, as I was waking up, I heard these words in my spirit:
"This is a Nehemiah 6:3 hour."

And this is especially a word for the builders and for the Body of Christ, who want to know - "Where are we going? Where is God leading? Where is the Spirit of God taking us in this season?"

Now, if you are happy to stay stuck, if you are happy just wallowing in the memory of the last season, if you are happy just rehearsing the good times past, then this word is not for you.

But if you are a builder, if you are a problem solver, if God has given you a blueprint to walk out in this new season of the new wineskin, then this is a word for you.

And I believe this is a word of wisdom and warning for this season, because there is a lot of noise right now. It's deafening at the best of times, but I can see the builders quietly gathering bricks and seeking the Lord with small beginnings.

THE INTENSITY INCREASES AS YOU BUILD

I began to read from Nehemiah 6, where there was further opposition to the rebuilding. We know that in Nehemiah 4, when he first started facing opposition, God gave him a strategy to hold the building tool in one hand and his sword in the other. That was where he had to defend while also building.

"Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other, and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked." (Nehemiah 4:17-18)

But in Nehemiah 6, further opposition came to him: Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem, and the rest of his enemies schemed to harm him.

And Nehemiah's response was this:

"So, I sent messengers to them with this reply, 'I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?" (Nehemiah 6:3)

And it says they sent the same message four times, and he gave them the same answer.

On the fifth time, they came with a blatant lie against his character and heart, and so Nehemiah said:

"I sent him this reply: 'Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.' They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, 'Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.' But I prayed, 'Now strengthen my hands.'" (Nehemiah 6:8-10)

LORD STRENGTHEN ME!

I believe this is a moment right now where the Lord is saying to the builders - "DON'T COME DOWN, KEEP BUILDING!"

Easier said than done when there's so much noise and people throwing stones, right? When there is a lot of chaos. When there is a lot swirling.

This always happens in transition seasons. The enemy sends intimidation, slander, and circumstantial problems your way to get you off track and to rattle you.

Are you feeling rattled right now? Are there situations demanding your constant attention? Are there text messages, emails, and constant fires around you?

Are there constant irritations and situations demanding that you come down to address them?

I believe this is a season where you need to say, like Nehemiah said, "I am carrying on a great project and cannot come down." And then he prayed, "Now strengthen my hands."

What a strategy!

Let me also say, I believe we need to pray, "God, strengthen our hands. Strengthen our hearts and minds from the WORDS FLYING AT US so that we are not intimidated."

I believe we need to pray this because this particular attack that came against Nehemiah had a specific assignment with it. It came to intimidate him. It came to discredit him.

It was the final assault that came against him to make it look like his good deeds were actually bad deeds.

And this is where you need to trust in the Lord as your vindicator.

YOUR STRATEGY - GO LOW

My encouragement to you in this next season, especially the next six months, is that you will have to block out and ignore the storm. GO LOW!

Practically speaking, that may mean:

Being on social media less.

Stop reading the comments or people sliming you.

- Refusing to respond or give everyone your time.

- Spiritually speaking, you should be:

- Strengthening yourself in the Lord, as David did in 1 Samuel 30:6.

- Praying like Nehemiah, "God, strengthen my hands."

- Praying, "Lord, help me finish this. Help me do what you have called me to. Strengthen my heart."

Because what Nehemiah 6 does not talk about is the mental battle Nehemiah and his men would have gone through.

And I believe that is what many people are experiencing right now.

THE SWIRL SENT TO CRUSH YOU

This is where the witchcraft comes against you, and it comes so thick and strong that you wake up heavy, and you don't even know how to move.

Am I speaking to anyone right now?

You wake up, and there is a heaviness sitting on you, and you wonder why there is a fog over you.

You even feel physically sick. Get headaches. Irritations arise on every side.

It is so easy to give up right now. But the word of the Lord to you is this: "Don't come down."

In fact, your protection is staying in your mission. Your protection is staying in the secret place. Your protection is staying in the presence of the Lord.

You do not need to defend yourself. You do not need to uphold your reputation. Your role is to stay in surrender and obedience to the LORD.

Builders, I know many of you have been through a lot of assault. You have been hunted. You have been pursued.

But now the Lord is building through you.

What we are seeing right now is the tearing away of fabrics, the old fabric from the new.

Yeshua' spoke of this in Matthew 9:16 - "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse."

There is tension. There is chaos. There is constant aerial warfare.

But your safest place is simply being in Him.

I love the story of Yeshua when He went to Nazareth. When they tried to kill Him, He walked right through the crowd and went on His way, continuing to do the Father's business. There are seasons where you simply have to keep going and keep building.

So, if you are facing slander, intimidation, attacks against your mind, your character, and your decisions, you are going to have to shake them off. Go into the secret place and say - "God, remind me who You say I am."

Be fortified in the Word of God in this season. Block out the noise. And let God redefine you as you build and walk in obedience to what He has called you to do. Because UNLESS THE LORD BUILDS THE HOUSE… (Psalm 127:1)

Your surrender is what enables God to be the one who lays out the plans, so you BUILD RIGHT in this season. And we need what is fresh and pure in a time of so much dismantling.

THE ENEMY KNOWS WHAT'S COMING

Let me tell you something about why this fight is so fierce right now. The enemy has seen the blueprints. He knows what God is about to release to His builders and reformers in this hour, and he is terrified of what happens when it lands in your hands.

Fresh vision is coming. New strategies are coming. Kingdom architecture that this generation has not yet seen is being released to those who will ascend, get still, and receive. This is not just a season of endurance; this is a season of downloading.

Don't come down. The blueprints are waiting.

THIS IS A WINDOW OF TIME

I believe we're in a window of time right now where the Lord is saying to the Church, "Will you dedicate this next season to me above everything else? Will you lay down your greatest achievements in the dust and dirt for me? Will you lay down everything to seek me, to ascend the hill of the Lord, and to come up and allow me to wash you, allow me to refresh you, allow me to overhaul you?

"Will you come up out of the noise, out of the mud pit of battles that you've been in? Will you untangle your hands from all the things you've been engaged in to seek me? Because this is a window of revelation where I am removing the veil and revealing to My Church what is next. I'm revealing to my builders and my way-makers what is to come. But if you do not ascend the hill of the Lord in this next season, you will be shipwrecked by the chaos of this hour. If you don't dedicate your life primarily to the secret place, to My presence, and to My Word, you will be shipwrecked by the noise and the chatter around you.

"This is an 'ascend the hill of the Lord' hour where I am actually primarily building you, more than what you're building. Yes, I'll give you the blueprints. Yes, I'll give you the next plans. Yes, I'll give you the insight. Yes, I'll give you the dreams, and I'll fill your heart with hope again after seasons of feeling like you don't know where you're going. But I'm going to be building YOU first.

"This is a season where, in the midst of so much chaos, I don't want you to come down from the hill, because I want you to stay there with Me so I can pour out My Spirit on you afresh. I can brood over you, and I'm bringing you back to the raw cry. I'm bringing you back to where your heart came alive. I'm bringing you back to the fresh hope that you used to have when you were first called by Me.

"I'm bringing you back to a place of overflow again. I'm bringing you back to your first love, Church. So, get ready, because this is the invitation. This is the warning, and this is the call. Come up higher!"

It's a Nehemiah 6 and Psalm 24 moment. Ascend the hill of the Lord to get clean hands and a pure heart so that the King of Glory may come in. It's time to be the gates and the doors that God has called us to be, but it's not going to happen if we're engaged in the wrong battle. We fight this battle, we fight the tumult of this transition, in the secret place of the Most High!

Iran, Called to Revival!
By: Apostle Chuck Pierce

Many people are asking about the war in Iran. Because of the government's treatment of the Iranian citizens, the Lord told me on November 3, 2024, that Iran had an opportunity to repent and change, but if they didn't, they would be blasted. That has happened, but in days ahead, Iran will have revival (Jer. 49:36-39).

There comes a time when you don't over pray about certain world issues. Many times the will of God for those nations is already revealed in His Word. Therefore, you just agree with the Word of God. When two or more touch and agree over the will of God in heaven, it is done in earth. We prayed today that anyone who tries to take the lead office of Iran (and is not of the Lord's choosing) will also be dethroned. I know we must have compassion and love for the Iranian people as the Lord brings them to the forefront of His Kingdom plan at this time.

On November 15, 2024, I also gave this word when I was with Paul Wilbur for a gathering at Troy Brewer's ministry. "We are headed into a new season, and our only hope is to align fully with the covenant God gave Israel and to stand firm in that covenant and watch the blessings in this season of intensity. The next 10 months will be intense. I am calling My Mordecais and My Esthers to arise, for I am saying to Hadassah (which is a "5" word), 'I will call you in, and you will face your enemy.' And I say to the Hamans, 'You will be exposed,' and over the next 10 months, My eye will be fully on those who are battling for the freedom of My land. I say to Iran today, 'In the next 10 months, get ready, for I will send wind after wind to you to change you, and I will give you an opportunity to be changed, and if you will not change, I will come down on you. And if you will not repent, I will cause you to suffer. But I say to you, as Jeremiah 50 says, that My heart is to restore you.' I say, 'Turn now, shift your government, and realign yourself now, or the next 10 months will be very difficult for you. For I am going to give supernatural grace to My nation, Israel, to rise up and change the course of this world.'"

Nate & Christy Johnston

I heard the Lord say, "This breaking point season is not what it seems."

Many are so focused on their circumstances, what is no longer working and feels broken, that they don't recognize what God is doing in the midst of it. It feels like a season where warfare has increased to a level beyond the norm, and mental attack has been more than most can bear. Where fires are erupting daily, and situations are arising that are bringing many people to the point of deep despair.

That's the breaking point… and many have even cried out, saying, "I don't know how much longer I can endure this! I need a breakthrough!" And that's exactly what God is doing through this. This breaking point is actually a breakthrough moment, but God has to first break what is breaking you.

THE DISMANTLING

God dismantles you before He mantles you for significant impact seasons.

At first, it feels like your buttons are being pressed, insecurities and fears are coming to the surface. Everything religion wouldn't let you address that was just sitting underneath. God reveals it.

Then it feels like the deepest heart surgery as God digs into the recesses of your soul and cleans you out from years of collected trauma, slime from betrayal seasons, and hope deferred. This isn't just a burning-the-plow kind of mantling moment; this is where your whole internal system is being rewired, and the process feels intense and painful, but it's really a gift because…Then deliverance comes. Not how you would expect it. It's not a major spiritual showdown; it's days upon days on your face, surrendering your old, tattered rags and getting to the end of yourself, and then whatever was hanging over you from your past season leaves.

ROLLING AWAY YOUR EGYPT YEARS

And I heard the Lord say, *"This is where I roll back the reproach of Egypt."

"This is where I remove the pain and weariness from the years of CONTENDING and warring from their souls that became like a poison."

"This is where I remove the survival and battle mode mindset of years of slavery and wilderness warfare."

"This is where I unyoke them completely and mantle them for victory."

And we have all seen this process before and witnessed this over and over. I've been here before, personally, many times too, but something about this time feels…different. Weightier. This feels like more than just preparation for a new season. It feels like God is taking weary warriors from the brink of death and turning them into sharpened instruments for something we have no grid for. He is seeking out the ones lost in grief and shipwreck from past seasons and standing them on their feet.

He is looking for the ones that have been so discouraged by what they have seen and endured in the systems of man that they have fallen away into hopelessness and unbelief. He is looking for the assassinated, the hunted, and the ones that the Pharisees stoned, so He can restore them and put a fresh wind upon them. Wow, as soon as I wrote that, fresh wind…I felt that strongly. Lord stand them to their feet even as they are reading this. Gather up the scattered pieces that the enemy tore from them. The fragmented seasons that ravaged them like a wild beast. Make them whole. Bring life back to dry bones. Put your breath upon them in Yeshua' name.

THE SPIRITUAL RESET

But what you don't realize about these moments is that it's a complete spiritual reset.

While the Lord does this deep work, the enemy only rages all the more to discourage you and tempt you to run from the process to keep you in bondage. Why? Because you are real estate to him. And he has been playing you for years, and that's why the witchcraft and warfare have been at an all-time high.

Because you are crossing over the threshold. You are scaling above the snake-line and stepping back into your authority. So that's why God has removed the veil and revealed what's at play. The hunting, the sabotage, the familiar spirits, the slander, the chatter, the curses, and even the generational ties that have yoked you to dysfunction and robbery. This is how the Father redeems you, by turning on the light and scattering the rats and bugs that have been hiding for years so that you EXPERIENCE FULL FREEDOM.

THIS IS A THRESHING FLOOR

At our training night last week, I had a vision in worship of a primitive hut with a dirt floor. It looked so basic, yet I could feel the joy there, and I instantly heard the words "This is the new foundation." God has been bringing you back to basics, not to hurt you but to free you, so He can ANOINT YOU and commission you without you being robbed or held back again. It's a threshing floor moment where God is setting you free and re-covenanting with you after years of being divided, pulled in every direction, and losing your purpose.

BREAKTHROUGH IS IN THE OBEDIENCE

And the key right now is to partner with this process that God has you in, because we tend to fight God and wrestle with God in these moments instead of surrendering to the process. This doesn't mean surrendering to the enemy's warfare, but surrendering to God's heart and His plan for you in this moment, which enables you to be fully overhauled in the areas you need to be. It's allowing Him to have your mind. It's allowing Him to have every part of your life that has been up for grabs by the enemy, and it's being obedient to what He's leading you into right now that doesn't make sense. This is a moment where, in this breaking, we need to be obedient, like Elisha, who had to be obedient to cut ties and move forward. This is a moment where God is reassessing every area of your life and saying, "Will you let me realign you? Let go of those old alignments, those friendships, let me realign your mind where there's been fear, where there's been foreboding. Where you have been believing the lies of the enemy."

"Will you allow Me to come and heal you in those areas and restore the places where you created Ishmaels and messes because you were steeped in fear or taken off course by the enemy? Will you surrender to My hand, even when you don't know where I'm leading you and it doesn't make sense?"

This breaking point is where God is leading you into the new wine and into a whole new lease of life, and this week I just want to encourage so many out there that are feeling lost, that are not understanding why this season feels like things are falling apart. I want to encourage you to stay on the path with the Lord.

Stay in the Word. Stay in the secret place. Even if it doesn't make sense, what He asks you to do and where He leads you. Stay on the path with the Lord. Let Him finish this process.

THIS IS NOT BREAKING YOU; IT'S "MAKING" YOU

And lastly, let me say that this breaking point is actually where God is making you.

Just last week, I had this sudden burden on my heart for people who have walked through Saul seasons. And I wrote a post on social media saying that God is healing you of your Saul seasons. And I can really recognize right now that a huge part of this process that God has us in is actually bringing us out of years of those Saul seasons, the assassination and slander and the narcissism, and all of those things that robbed you of your voice and stole your purpose and your destiny and your fire.

It's left so many people numb, so many people broken, so many people disillusioned. It's robbed marriages. It's robbed. It's robbed legacies. And right now we're seeing this massive process where the Lord is pulling you out of this dysfunction, delivering you, healing your mind, and confronting mindsets. He's confronting areas where you've been yoked to the wrong things, and you've had soul ties to the wrong people. And I just want to end this word by saying, I hear the heart of the Father saying, "Come out of it. Come out from under the things you've been in."

For those who have been warred against by Jezebel for so long, this is a Revelation 18:4 moment, where God is saying, "Come out from under her, so you are not partaking in her sins and sharing her plagues."

We're wanting to see different fruit than we've experienced in past seasons. We want to see God break through for us, but we're wrestling with Him in a moment where we need to be saying, "God, I surrender to this process because I know you are good."

And if you've been disconnected from the goodness of God and the heart of the Father, then this is the moment that the Lord is saying, "Please trust me in this."

Even if you're waking up to anxiety and fear every single day because you don't know what your future is, you've lost hope in your future, Jeremiah 29:11, you've been disconnected from God's heart in this season, and you don't trust that He's leading you, because for so many years you feel you've been led astray. Because the truth is, my friends, you've been led astray by religion. You've been led astray by pop-culture Christianity. God is leading you and guiding you right now on the best pathways for your life. This is a breaking point season where you are stepping out from the yoke of man and out of the flesh and out of your own ambition and stepping into the fiery furnace of God's calling upon your life, where you'll be on fire for Him, you'll run with Him on wings of eagles.

So let God finish what He started. And for those this week who are facing impossibilities and crisis, the fruit of years of the enemy tainting your ointment, leading you astray, wearing you down, allowing in the wrong confidants, familiar spirits, being yoked to witchcraft, I just hear the Lord saying, "As you surrender to me, I'm going to get you out of those messes. I'm going to redeem the years."

It's a Hebrews 11:11 moment where God's miracle-working power is activating in your life and ushering you into a new birthing moment, into a moment where He is going to get you completely back on track with His calling and destiny upon your life.

He's going to reorder your life…Do you trust Him?

IN THE NEXT THREE MONTHS

In the next three months, watch as clarity comes where there has only been fog. Watch as God reassigns you, moves you, and redirects you. Watch as He restores the dreams the enemy buried and clears the road that religion and witchcraft and fear blocked for years. Watch as the blueprints come, and with them, a fresh vision and a clarity you haven't had in years. Watch as He deals with the hidden issues. The demonic assignments that have been running in the background of your life for so long, you stopped noticing them. He is dismantling them one by one. The assignments over your mind. Over your family. Over your calling. They are being cancelled in Yeshua' name. Watch as loose ends get tied up. As God brings closure to years of wrong doors, wrong rooms, wrong seasons, and wrong people. Watch as your mind comes into a new state of freedom. Above the chatter. Above the noise.

And watch as He anoints you fresh in Yeshua's name!

Helen Calder: Transition - 3 Hidden Ways God Is Working Right Now

Helen Calder, Melbourne, Australia

Mar 24, 2026

Transition is the process of changing from one stage, place, or condition to another. And many of us are faced with it right now. Transition may be joyful. It may feel full of promise. But sometimes change comes that we haven't chosen and we are swept into it.

A Powerful Promise

If you are in a place of uncertainty, here is a powerful promise: "The Lord Himself goes before you and will be with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged." (Deuteronomy 31:8 NIV)

I pray this word brings both comfort and anticipation for what God is preparing for you.

The Interruption

Eighteen months ago, during a time of loss, I was waiting at an airport gate. And God showed me something I will never forget. I believe this message is relevant for many of us right now. Restlessly, I wandered to the window. In the distance was the harbor, and beyond that, the misty hills of Auckland, New Zealand. Our plane sat on the tarmac, and I watched the activity around it curiously.

"Pay attention!" I heard.

Into my vacant musings came the sudden clarion call of the Holy Spirit. To be honest, I wasn't in a place to hear from God. I had tamped down my emotions and halted any deep and meaningful internal conversation... or conscious prayer. It was easiest that way. After I returned home, I would have plenty of time to reflect.

Dad was gone. We were returning home from a memorial service. Work pressed at the edges of my consciousness, but I couldn't ignore Him.

"Pay attention!"

Just then, there was an announcement. A flight attendant came over the speaker to apologize for a short delay. She explained that they needed to adjust the air bridge's position before the passengers could board. (Photo via Pexels)

Then I heard the Lord say clearly, "You will wonder why there is a delay. I am working in the background; I am adjusting the bridge."

Since that day, I have often reflected on these words the Holy Spirit spoke to me. I believe these words are for many who are in change or turmoil.

3 Ways God Is at Work in Your Transition

1. God Is Adjusting the Transition

"The Lord directs the steps of the godly. He delights in every detail of their lives." (Psalm 37:23 NLT)

I stayed at the window and watched as an operator stepped onto the air bridge. I saw it move this way and that, not in one fluid motion but in a series of adjustments.

That day, I learned something about air bridges! Previously, I thought they were fixed, rather like a wharf. The boat comes in, and it has to get into the right position. The plane was not in the correct alignment, but rather than shift the plane, in this case, they adjusted the air bridge!

Often in our lives, there is fine-tuning before release. Delay is not failure. What looks like a delay may be God at work. And sometimes we assume we must adjust ourselves, but God may be repositioning what connects us to the future.

At other times, it may be an internal adjustment. Our Father lovingly reveals where we have drifted into effort, anxiety, or self-reliance. He is aligning us with Him (John 15:5).

2. God Is Working While You Wait

"My future is in Your hands." (Psalms 31:15 NLT)

Here's the thing: the destination was fixed. The runway was ready. The plane was prepared. Yet adjustments were needed before we could board the plane! And it's a reminder: God prepares the way before He releases us. He lines up people, provisions, and timing in the background.

Think of David in the wilderness. There were many twists and turns in his story before he became king. Or Ruth and Naomi on the road to Bethlehem—unaware of the provision God had already set up for them.

Today, be reassured: while you are wondering, God is working. There is divine orchestration. You don't have to have it all figured out to have peace. Jesus is your Captain, and He's working in the transition. You can trust Him to lead the way forward even when there's chaos in an area. But God wants you to know He is present in the middle of the mayhem, and He's going before you!

Psalm 68:7 says, "O God, when You went out before Your people, when You marched through the wilderness..." (Photo via Pexels)

Wisdom is a Person! You are not navigating this alone! God is with you, and He is for you.

3. Transition Leads to Divine Acceleration

"'The time will come,' says the Lord, 'When the grain and grapes will grow faster than they can be harvested. Then the terraced vineyards on the hills of Israel will drip with sweet wine!'" (Amos 9:13 NLT)

In a short time, the air bridge was properly aligned. The operator stepped out, and soon we were on our way.

Later, I reflected on this. We often think of ourselves crossing a bridge in transition, but that day I saw something different. God was adjusting the bridge itself!

When God has everything in order, we are released. Acceleration follows alignment. It may happen suddenly, but we recognize God has prepared the way. We may enter a period of divine acceleration, where God makes up for lost time. Yet this is often the very moment when the enemy whispers, "You're behind. You've missed God's best."

What feels like a delay is often divine alignment. God is lining up your transition: people, provision, timing. Hidden work is taking place. Even when we have made mistakes, our Father is a Redeemer.

Today, if this resonates with you, be encouraged. There is power in your surrender.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'I AM EXPOSING AND BREAKING LIMITING MINDSETS IN THE LIVES OF MANY'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'I am exposing and breaking limiting mindsets in the lives of many.'

As the Lord spoke these words I began to see the Lord exposing mindsets in the lives of His people that were not in line with what He says about them and His Word and promises; and He was breaking their power as His people partnered with Him in a deeper place of renewing their minds. (Romans 12:2)

As I leaned into the Lord's heart and listened, I heard:

'My people, I am calling you deeper. I am calling you deeper into the place of beholding Me and what I am speaking. I say unto you, that this is the hour for you to cast off and throw off with greater ferocity that which is attempting to hinder you, contain you and stop you. For there are many that are entertaining the lies of the enemy about who they are. And there are many who have come into agreement with limiting mindsets that are attempting to hinder you from stepping fully into what I am calling you to.

'This is the hour where I am causing you to ascend and apprehend as you surrender to My process and My ways. I am calling you to ascend in your perspective, your faith and to align with Me in how I see and to apprehend by faith – that which is yours, in Me. For I am exposing limitations that many of you have lived with for many years and this is the hour to come deeper with Me into following My ways in arising up and out of these limiting beliefs that have held you captive for so long. For I say unto you, do not despise the stretching and the places of stretching that I am leading you into in this hour. Do not despise the places where I am calling you to step in and step out that feel bigger than you. For I say unto you, that apart from Me you can do nothing. (John 15:5)

'I am calling you into a deeper place of dependency and reliance upon Me and the power of My Spirit to accomplish through you that which I am calling you to do. It is not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit. You are moving into greater days of AWE at My POWER in your life and through your life. Do not be intimidated by the magnitude of the assignments. Do not be intimidated by the magnitude of that which I am calling you to step into. For in the stretching you shall meet Me and know Me and My power in ways you have not known before. In the stretching, I am exposing the limiting mindsets that you have lived with and lived under for so long. I am inviting you deeper into the journey of renewing your mind, aligning your declaration and the meditation of your heart and mind with what I am speaking.

'For I say unto you that I am bringing you into realms of greater manifested victory in your lives. For there are many who have been walking with a victim mentality and have felt caged and contained by it, but I say unto you, I am breaking the victim mentality in deeper ways in this hour as you behold Me and listen to My voice. Repent for aligning with limiting mindsets and victim mindsets that are not in line with My Word. I am delivering many from years of bondage, and I am awakening you to who you are in Me, the apple of My eye (Psalm 17:8, Zech 2:8). Where many of you have had lives that have been marked with a sense of DREAD, as you seek Me in these days, watch how I break the power of fear and dread in your lives by the power and revelation of My love and mark your lives with MY DELIGHT in you as My child.

'I am inviting you deeper into My heart, to become one in your alignment of faith and mind with My mind, My heart and My eyes. To SEE AS I SEE and ferociously CAST OFF and REJECT anything that is not in line with My Word and My perspective. For in the revelation of how I see – as you are invited into some of the deepest encounters of your lives becoming one with My vision and My perspective – shall be your moments of greatest deliverance. For as you see as I see, not only will you see great transformation, but I am placing weapons of revelation and truth in your hands to arise and continue to stand in WHO I SAY you are and WHO I AM.

'For I say unto you, that there is great transformation upon you in this hour, where I am bringing you into greater depths of freedom, creativity, boldness, confidence in who I have created you to be and what you carry – without apology. For I am breaking the chains. I am breaking the limiting mindsets, through the revelation of My truth and your partnership with Me, to renew your mind to align with what I am speaking.

'Watch and see in this hour how I will not only bring you to a higher plain to see further, clearer and deeper than you have ever seen in Me from My perspective – as you seek Me in deep intimacy and surrender to My ways – but I shall increase My wisdom and strategy in your midst. Where you have felt like you have lived limited and caged by these limiting mindsets, as you surrender to My process and My work within you, I am bringing you into your greatest days of VISION in Me.

'I say unto you, that where many of you have felt like you have been stuck, blocked, delayed and hindered by the limiting beliefs that you have been living with for so long; I am exposing them and teaching you and training you to walk with Me as an overcomer and to have your mind aligned with mine and in faith. I am going to the root of these beliefs, and I am UPROOTING them and bringing healing.

'Where there have been many that have been crying out to me "Lord, I CAN'T," I say unto you, that as you take Me at My Word and follow Me in obedience, you are moving into the greatest days of the demonstration of My power in your midst to see that, "I CAN!" I am bringing you into your greatest days of seeing the demonstration of My power in your lives, and the reality that I cannot be contained, and I cannot be stopped or limited. In Me there is endless possibility. I am removing the burden, the bondage and the lie of "I CAN'T" in many hearts and lives, and I am bringing you into healing and truth that "I CAN." And as you live and move and have your being in Me (Acts 17:28) YOU CAN, because I am with You. I am empowering you and I have gone before you.

'As you follow My ways, there is great grace. There is a new day of experiencing the intensity and power of My divine strength and empowerment in your midst. I am bringing you deeper as you seek Me in the understanding of what it looks like to abide in Me (John 15). I am bringing you deeper in these days as you seek Me in reverence, humility and purity: into deeper and deeper understanding of ONENESS and the power of our ONENESS. And as this revelation increases within you, it will bring forth a mighty awakening in your hearts that shall usher you, by My Spirit, into greater days of walking in new realms of boldness in Me.

'Where there have been many that have felt like they have lost so much time because of these limiting mindsets that have kept them bound. Where there are many that have felt like it's too late, I say unto you; I am the God who restores. I am the God who redeems. I am the God of turnaround and the God who brings forth new beginnings and recompense. For I say unto you, as you lean into My process in this season – to see these limiting mindsets that have contained you, broken and kept you bound – watch the fresh wind of My commissioning come upon you to bring forth a divine BEGIN AGAIN.

'As you align with My process and My ways in seeing these limiting beliefs broken in your lives, I am restoring the ability to dream. I am restoring your vision. I am healing your hearts and bringing you deeper into the revelation and manifestation of I am the great I AM and I AM all that you need.'

Terry Friesen: The war we are fighting is with Giants

In our war with the Giants in the land. As we've discussed in the past months, we don't engage at this level unless directed by the Lord to do so.

This means your practice time is in real time, when the Lord directs.

He may take each one of us on our own growth journey, knowing the preparation we need, to stand in pressure, yield to His Spirit in all things, and be able to move as He leads in the midst of contrary winds.

In virtually all giant activities in my life, the giants have come to me. When a giant shows up, I now know they wouldn't not be there unless the Lord positioned me in the spirit before them, or He commanded them to stand before me for a purpose. When this first started happening, I wondered what door I had opened, or what mistakes I had made. Now I realize I am being asked to extend Christ's authority in the earth as a son and an officer of His kingdom. The Lord may lead us corporately as a group to engage, but if you find yourself in a place where something is coming against you beyond your usual scope, I encourage you to consider the following.

When dealing with giants in the land, their connection to the land is a part of how they operate.

Sin, occult practices, spilled blood, covenantal activity.

So, declaring truths that clarify the true state of things based on the finished work of Christ serves to short circuit their co-opted authority, and reduces them to mere squatters, ready for removal.

When confronted with giants in the spirit, the Lord has directed me to use certain truths and declarations to push back and defeat His foes.

1) "Yeshua is the Christ, the Son of the living God." Matthew 16:16 (this truth, expressed by Peter by way of revelation, is the foundation of Christ's Kingdom.) On this revelation Christ will build His church.

2) "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." (Psalm 24:1)

3) "Every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Yeshua Christ is Lord." (Philippians 2:10-11)

4) "The knowledge of the glory of the Lord will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea." (Habakkuk 2:14)

I've paraphrased the above scriptures because this is how they have come to me, and been declared by me in the midst of battle.

Feel free to approach this in a way that suits your preferred communication style.

In #1, we establish the true state of things; Yeshua is the Christ and He is the foundation stone upon which the Ekklesia will be built.

In #2, we establish the true state of things as it relates to the earth; it is the Lord's, every piece of it. Not someday, not after certain events take place, but here and now and we are reinforcing this by our declaration in the authority of Christ. When I declared this on Friday when faced with a giant related to Iran, a sword came out of my mouth and cut the giant at its feet and ankles, so it was upended. When we declare the truth regarding the state of Christ's authority in the earth, we cut off any inferior dark/occult empowerment they have used to operate in the earth. The key is declaring this as it relates to the earth, and not just heavenly places, or spiritual places.

In #3, we declare the end of the matter - and release the ultimate state over the giant that it too will bow and declare Yeshua is Lord.

In #4, we declare the kingdom manifestation of Christ's instructed prayer to us, "On earth as it is in Heaven". This is declared as a now reality, and intended on this side of the page - we don't need to wait for a future timeline for this to take place.

When faced with a giant, the presence and pressures of their nature can seem to be overwhelming, but in Christ we can stand. In Christ we can rest and be at peace regardless of any enemy activity. Find your rest in the Lord, He is right there with you, and will not abandon you in this effort. Stand firm in Him, rest in Him, then be ready to release declarations like truth missiles at the enemy. Our enemy can only stand in the absence of these truths, so when these truths are released and declared, the enemy's power and ability is sapped from the core of who they are. They will try to intimidate, and can often feel immovable, unflinching, but as soon as we start to declare these truths, they start to shudder.

I've had some of these confrontations that last only a few minutes, and other hours.

The focus isn't on how long it takes, or what the enemy is doing, or trying to do, it is focused on the truth of the Word of God, and our faith anchored in Christ's faithfulness will enable us to stand and release the truth we carry in His name.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'DO NOT STOP BECAUSE OF THE INTIMIDATION BEFORE YOU, I AM CAUSING YOU TO MOVE THROUGH WITH BOLDNESS'

Recently I heard the Lord speaking to many, 'Do not stop because of the intimidation before you, I am causing you to move through with boldness.'
When the Lord spoke these words, I saw many in the Body of Christ who are moving forward on the assignment and word of the Lord and have suddenly come face to face with intimidation. I could see this spirit of intimidation brooding heavily over these ones that were moving forward into the assignment and word of the Lord for their lives right now.

As I leaned in and listened to the Lord, I heard the Lord say:

'Lift your eyes to the hills, for where does your help come from? It comes from Me, the Maker of heaven and earth. (Ps 121:1) As you continue to look to Me and behold Me, I will cause you to move through with boldness and ease of My Spirit. I say unto you, that there is a testing at the gate, there is a testing at the gate where the enemy is attempting to cause you to withdraw; and I am causing you to arise by My Spirit to apprehend and occupy that which I am calling you to move into. The testing has come at the gate attempting to cause you to doubt My Word to you – the vision I have given you and the assignment before you – but I say unto you, ARISE IN FAITH and SPEAK to that which is attempting to hinder you.

'Behold not the intimidation that stands before you with its roaring accusation but arise with your mouth full of My Word and declare that which I have spoken. And you will see the intimidation that is before you which is attempting to brood itself over you and present itself powerful and intimidating, you will see it is but smoke and mirrors as you declare My Word and what I am speaking.

'As you arise and proclaim, I say unto you, that you shall continue to step through and step into that which I am calling you into with greater ease in My presence and the slipstream of My Spirit. For I say unto you, as you continue to follow Me where I am leading, you shall find an increase of empowerment of My Spirit and grace that is greater than you have known. For there is a test in this moment to keep your eyes upon that which I have spoken and look not to that which is attempting to intimidate you. For the enemy is terrified of where we are going and what we are going to do together.

'I say unto you, that I have brought you into a new day and a new day of vision and wisdom. I will continue to lead you and guide you into all that I have for you; and you shall perceive and see My leading and My ways as you continue to seek Me and remain surrendered to My way. The enemy is attempting to bring distraction into many of your lives to take your gaze off what I am speaking and where I am leading you; but I say unto you, that as you continue to look to Me and look at Me, I am strengthening you in the Word I have given you. I am causing a greater boldness and fire of My conviction to arise within you as I unveil to you greater mysteries and understanding of that which I am showing you.

'My people, I say unto you, be not dismayed or discouraged by the battle with intimidation that has come before you and to your door, but know that I am strengthening you by My Spirit in endurance and faith to remain and stand on that which I have spoken to you. Where the enemy has come to attempt to cause you to withdraw, to doubt that which I have spoken and to cause you to move from what I have spoken; I say unto you, watch how I shall turn the enemy and his plans on his head as you remain steadfast in what I have spoken. I am building endurance within you. I am maturing you in My Word and in the stretching, I am making room for you to carry that which I am giving to you and calling you to partner with Me.
'I say unto you, come up higher, come up higher, look to Me, and seek Me. Where intimidation is attempting to roar its accusations upon you and lure you into dread and fear of what is to come; I say unto you, that as you continue to partner with Me and follow Me where I am leading, you shall see GREAT JOY AND MY POWER in your midst as you step in. For you shall know JOY in partnering with Me at a deeper level than you have known before.

'Continue to remain steadfast, remain obedient to the vision and leading of My Spirit in your midst and do not compromise upon that which I have spoken to you. And WATCH AND SEE MY FAVOUR that shall come upon you to do that which I am calling you to do. For I say unto you, where intimidation is attempting to roar at you how much is against you, I say unto you, listen to My heart and lift up your eyes and see how I AM FOR YOU and see the angelic hosts of heaven that I have surrounded you with. There are more for you than that which is against you. For in Me, if I AM FOR YOU the WHO can be against you? (Rom 8:31)

'I am leading you into some of your greatest days in Me, where you shall see My Glory and My provision and a mighty move of My Spirit in your midst as you follow Me. For I say unto you, that I am leading you into a greater realm of faith. I am bringing you deeper into the place of learning to live by faith and not by sight. (2 Cor 5:7) For where intimidation is attempting to cause you to crumble or stumble, I say unto you, that I am ESTABLISHING YOU in this hour – in greater maturity and conviction of the truth of My Word and who I am – that you are arising UNSHAKEABLE.

'Where you have lived many past seasons and have come to this season feeling like you have been shaken by what you have endured; I say unto you, that in your intimacy with Me and as you seek Me, I am FORTIFYING YOU in TRUTH, MY truth like never before – as the conviction of My Spirit comes upon you in mighty ways to stand boldly and unapologetically in the revelation of My Word, My Rhema Word and what is yours in Me.

'It's time for you to arise and take your place in greater ways. Where intimidation and insecurity have attempted to contain you in many ways, I am bringing you great freedom and bringing you into deeper realms of insight into what I am speaking as you seek Me in humility and purity.

'There is a great increase of building in your midst as you follow Me. Intimidation is attempting to hinder your vision, keep you hidden and contained; but I say unto you, that the fire of My Spirit is coming upon you and you shall be known as one who is a BOLD CARRIER OF MY TRUTH!
'Intimidation may be roaring loudly, but watch My roar bring My divine order, justice, and empowerment. As you remain surrendered to Me, you shall know in greater ways in this season what it is to be carried on the winds of My Spirit and empowerment and come deeper into Zechariah 4:6,
""Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the Lord.'"

Andrew Whalen
A warning and a decree against 'divination'!

All of us in the body of Christ.... (But especially those of us who see the supernatural ongoing gifts and ministries of the Holy Spirit as valid and important for today) --in my strong opinion need to depart from all forms of 'sensationalism'. By definition sensationalism is using 'provocative', 'shocking', and 'exciting' language, 'AT THE EXPENSE OF ACCURACY'!!

Here's the deal.. I think we should always be provoked and excited at everything the Lord does!!.. Sometimes what the Lord does is truly 'sensational' from our perspective!! And even sharing and communicating stories with passion and excitement is not wrong… but if in doing so we sacrifice accuracy to heighten the listeners experience - this is unrighteous and deceptive.

Many years ago… I 'heard' the spirit of the Lord ask me a question: ""Andrew do you know what opens up a person to the spirit of divination?" I said "what"? -- I heard back: "exaggeration. "

I don't believe that everyone who uses sensationalism or exaggeration is automatically operating in divination.. but I believe it's the open door to it. In view of so much 'falsehood' / fraudulence/ sensationalism' that has come to light operating among many leaders and streams of the church, I believe then that also a 'spirit of divination' has also taken up root in some of our 'prophetic' and 'spirit-filled' streams!

In simple terms, 'divination' is 'data-mining' from the demonic! I make a declaration right now against this operation in the prophetic/ charismatic/ and spirit filled streams of the body of Christ!
"As the Ekklesia, I/ we condemn the spirit of divination from operating in the body of Christ and in the same 'streams' where the Holy Spirit flows!

"I/ We repent on behalf of the church where the open doors for divination came through the toleration of 'inaccurate sensationalism', fraudulence, and falsehood'!! May you drive out this arrogance in all forms operating in all parts of your body that we might be pure and set apart as trustworthy representatives and ambassadors of Christ!" And finally my prayer for all of us is "Lord.. let us be bold, humble, excited, passionate, childlike in faith, but never compromising truth and accuracy for sensationalism!" - In Yeshua's name."

Nissan 26, 5786: Monday-April 13, 2026

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'TO THOSE WHO ARE LANGUISHING, TAKE HEART, I AM BRINGING FORTH RAPID RESTORATION'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'To those who are languishing, take heart, I am bringing forth rapid restoration.'

LANGUISHING: 'to be or become feeble, weak, or enervated; to be or live in a state of depression or decreasing vitality; to become dispirited.'
(Merriam Webster)

As the Lord spoke these words, I could feel the depth of languishing that many were experiencing and living in right now. As the Lord spoke these words, I could feel such a strong wind of His Spirit beginning to increase in intensity upon these ones, and it was bringing forth fresh hope from His heart.

As I leaned in and listened to the Lord's heart, I heard:

'My people, lift up your heads for where does your help come from? It comes from Me, the Maker of heaven and earth. (Psalm 121) I say unto you, that I am the lifter of your head (Psalm 3:3) and you find life in Me and in My presence.

'I say unto you, be not discouraged, be not dismayed, I have heard the deep cries from your hearts. I have seen the tears that no one else has seen. I have seen the pain that many of you are experiencing – the hidden griefs and the inner turmoil and torment – and I say unto you, I came so you can be free and free indeed. (John 8:36) I say unto you, that where you look around and you see the strength and life that you once walked in feels like it has been lost or stolen from all that you have endured, and I say unto you that is not the end of the story. For I am your ever-present help in time of need (Psalm 46:1) and I am the One who sustains and carries you.

'I say unto you, that as you abide in Me you will bear much fruit (John 15) and apart from Me you can do nothing. (John 15:5) For where many of you are looking to what was and what now is not, and grief is filling your hearts and you feel the strength of your heart has been lost and hope for transformation and change feels far away: I say unto you, receive My breath of hope into your hearts. I am the One who holds you and sustains you in all things; and I am not only bringing you deeper into a place of wholeness as you lean into Me and My ways and My process, I am building and establishing you stronger than before in the revelation of who I am and who you are in Me.

'I say unto you, that where the languishing has felt louder and heavier in the past few months, look not to the languishing but lift up your eyes and look at Me – for I am bringing forth RAPID restoration. For I say unto you, that there are mighty turnarounds in your midst by My Spirit. I say unto you, My mighty hand is upon you to bring mighty restoration (Joel 2:25)

and turnaround of the things that have been stolen and lost. For I say unto you, languish not, but put your hope in Me, for I am restoring to you all that has been stolen and lost. For I am bringing restoration in every direction. Put your hope in Me. Look not at yesterday with grief and heartache, but look to Me today, for I am bringing back to you that which you have lost.

'I say unto you, that in this day I am restoring hope to your hearts in areas where your heart is languishing. Where your heart has become dry and barren of hope and strength, I say unto you, receive the fresh wind of My Spirit bringing life and hope to your hearts again. For there are many of you who have felt like you have experienced back-to-back loss. You have experienced back-to-back heartache and pain. But I say unto you, that this is the season of the greatest restoration that you have seen. Put your hope and faith in Me.

'Where the noise has increased, where the pressure has become even greater in the last few weeks, I say unto you, that I am moving you even further into the new day that I have for you. And it shall not be as it has always been. There is great pressure that many of you have been facing in these past few weeks, but I say unto you, that I am FORGING YOU in the fire. I am FORGING you stronger than ever in Me. I am healing, delivering, and setting you free AS YOU GO THROUGH. The enemy is coming against many with taunts and accusations that things will never change, but I say unto you, that you have entered your greatest days of change. These are the days of accelerated change, and these are the days where you shall see even greater demonstrations of My power to TURN THINGS AROUND.

'Look into My eyes. Do not look away. Look to Me and SEE. I say to you again, LOOK TO ME AND SEE. LOOK TO ME AND LIVE! There is an increased battle over your beholding in this hour, but as you look to Me not only am I causing you to arise in greater places of awakening to your authority, but I am causing you to arise again with hope and I am restoring your strength. Where the enemy has been after the vision I have given you, where he has been after the assignment, where he has been after the promises I have given you, I say unto you: REMAIN and REMAIN STEADFAST in what I have spoken, for there is a MIGHTY MOVE OF MY SPIRIT in your midst.

'I say unto you, that the enemy is attempting to cause you to look at what you have lost, or what was. But I say unto you, LOOK TO ME AND SEE, for there is a tidal wave of My Spirit that is about to crash in upon you and break down every wall and chain that has tried to entangle you. There are moments of encounter with My Glory and power that are going to shatter all that has tried to snare you in this hour and are going to SHAKE YOU AWAKE! I say unto you, that I am bringing you deeper into the place of being set apart with Me, coming away with Me, where you shall see My Glory like you have never seen – and it will CHANGE EVERYTHING.

'I say unto you, as you seek Me in this hour, you are coming into moments of divine visitation that is going to bring transformation in ways you have never experienced or imagined. Where there has been great battle over your mantle, great battle over your assignments, great battle over your callings; I say unto you, "COME UP AND OUT! COME UP AND OUT!" There is a great and mighty deliverance that is happening within your hearts and minds where you shall see Me and encounter My Glory and power in such an unprecedented way, it will SHAKE YOU AWAKE in ways you have never known and it will cause you to SEE from My perspective like you have never seen before.

'You will be BRANDED with MY eternal perspective and you will go from these moments of visitation and encounter no longer living UNDER the battle that has been ferociously coming against you for so long, but you will now live ABOVE it in great victory – as the revelation of My Majesty, My Power and the power of My voice will cause you to come up and out of that which has tried to keep you in battle mode constantly. Where you have felt like it has been a battle to REMAIN in what I have called you to do and put your hands to, I say unto you, that in these deeper places of divine encounter and visitation you shall be ESTABLISHED in that which I have called you do. And you will be no longer moved, but FORTIFIED.

'I am bringing forth rapid restoration and a rapid acceleration into the new things that I have for you. For I say unto you, where you have felt like you have been stuck in yesterday, where you have felt like you have been hindered, contained – and for some, feeling unable to move forward – look away from yesterday in deep longing and look to Me. For I say unto you, My mighty hand is working deeply in your midst, in your hearts and lives to set you free. Watch in these days how suddenly I will bring about a mighty change, and you shall see My mighty hand bring forth CATALYTIC CHANGE in your midst.'

Receiving Yahweh's "Revelation-Secrets"

"Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6; KJV)

Perhaps no one has demonstrated the truth of these verses more than George Washington Carver (1864-1943). Born into slavery and poverty, Carver later became an agricultural chemist of international fame, and amazed the world with his accomplishments. He discovered hundreds of uses for the peanut, soybean, pecan and sweet potato. This revolutionized the economy of the South since these crops replenished the soil, which had become depleted through years of cotton growth. Carver's discoveries from the peanut (over 300), the sweet potato (over 118), as well as from the soybean, etc., included cosmetics, face powder, lotion, shaving cream, vinegar, cold cream, printer's ink, salad oil, rubbing oil, instant coffee, leather stains from mahogany to blue, synthetic tapioca and egg yolk, flour, paints, non-toxic colors (from which crayons were eventually created).

George Washington Carver's notoriety eventually became so great that he was visited at Tuskegee Institute by national and international leaders, such as Vice-President Calvin Coolidge, and President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He became a confidant and advisor to leaders and scientists from all over the world, ranging from Thomas Edison to Mahatma Gandhi. (Edison had also offered him a position with a six-figure income, but Carver turned it down).

The Secret of His Success

When asked how he accomplished his achievements, Carver stated words from our opening verses: "The secret of my success? It is simple. It is found in the Bible, 'In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths.'" (Proverbs 3:6)
Carver again gave God the credit for his accomplishments when, in the summer of 1920, the Young Men's Christian Association of Blue Ridge, North Carolina, invited him to speak at their summer school for the southern states. While there, Carver stated: "Years ago I went into my laboratory and said, 'Dear Mr. Creator, please tell me what the universe was made for?'
"The Great Creator answered, 'You want to know too much for that little mind of yours. Ask for something more your size, little man.' "Then I asked. 'Please, Mr. Creator, tell me what man was made for?' "Again the Great Creator replied, 'You are still asking too much. Cut down on the extent and improve the intent.' "So then I asked, 'Please, Mr. Creator, will you tell me why the peanut was made?' "…And then the Great Creator taught me to take the peanut apart and put it together again. And out of the process have come forth all these products!"

Before Congress

In 1921, George Washington Carver accepted the invitation to address the United States Senate Ways and Means Committee in Washington, D.C., concerning the potential uses of the peanut and other new crops to improve the economy of the South. Initially given only ten minutes to speak, he instantly enthralled the committee so much that the Chairman said, "Go ahead Brother. Your time is unlimited!"
Carver spoke for one hour and forty-five minutes. At the end of his address, the Chairman of the Committee asked: "Dr. Carver, how did you learn all of these things?' Carver answered: "From an old book." "What book?" asked the Senator. Carver replied, "The Bible." The Senator inquired, "Does the Bible tell about peanuts? "No, Sir" Dr. Carver replied, "But it tells about the God who made the peanut. I asked Him to show me what to do with the peanut, and He did."

God's Little Workshop

George Washington Carver named his laboratory God's Little Workshop and never took any scientific textbooks into it; he merely asked God how to perform his experiments. Carver would lock the door behind him when he went into his laboratory, stating that: "Only alone can I draw close enough to God to discover His secrets."

God's Co-Worker

When speaking at the Tuskegee Institute in 1928, Carver was asked to share some of his insights about God. Here are some excerpts:
"When I read in the Scriptures, 'In Him we live and move and have our being,' (Acts 17:28) I knew what the writer meant. Never since have I been without this consciousness of the Creator speaking to me...The out of doors has been to me more and more a great cathedral in which God could be continuously spoken to and heard from....
"Man, who needed a purpose, a mission, to keep him alive, had one. He could be...God's co-worker....
"My purpose alone must be God's purpose - to increase the welfare and happiness of His people…Human need is really a great spiritual vacuum which God seeks to fill...With one hand in the hand of a fellow man in need and the other in the hand of Christ, He could get across the vacuum and I became an agent. Then the passage, 'I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me,' (Philippians 4:13) came to have real meaning.

"As I worked on projects which fulfilled a real human need forces were working through me which amazed me. I would often go to sleep with an apparently insoluble problem. When I woke the answer was there.
"Why, then, should we who believe in Christ be so surprised at what God can do with a willing man in a laboratory?"
We should all take a lesson from this humble man who learned to commune with his Creator and serve his fellow man. How different the world would be!

Pray with me:

Father, thank You for the life of George Washington Carver. He demonstrated to us the wisdom of a life fully dependent on You. Please help us walk in humility, acknowledging our insufficiency to live life without Your guidance. Yet, we can do all things through Christ's strength and ability, as Dr Carver stated. You tell us in Psalm 25:14: "There's a private place reserved for the devoted lovers of Yahweh, where they sit near Him and receive the revelation-secrets of his promises." (TPT)

We want to do this.
When America's Founders struggled to write our Constitution, they eventually acknowledged that their wisdom was inadequate; they needed Your help. They appealed to You, the God who gave them liberty, and You gave them wisdom and understanding. We pray that legislators in Washington today would come to this realization. Strip them of their pride. Remind them of the words of Ben Franklin at that Continental Congress, "'except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it' (Psalm 127:1)… that without his concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building, no better than the builders of Babel." We ask for leaders who know and believe this. Give our President and his cabinet, our legislators, and our judges this understanding. Remove those who refuse to acknowledge You. Restore our nation to You, we pray.

All of this we ask in the holy name of Yeshua.

Our decree:
We will acknowledge God in all of our ways, and He will direct our paths!

Nissan 28, 5786: Wednesday-April 15, 2026

Veronika West

So, Warriors, I woke up to these Words…
"Watch — for in 2026, the Trojan Horse will be unbridled and loosed across The Nations!"

As I heard those Words, I was suddenly taken into a fleeting Vision, wherein I saw what looked like an Iron-clad War Horse, fully adorned with heavy Armor that stood High in the midst of Nations in The Valley of Decision, The War Horse had an Iron Bit and Bridal in its mouth. Then I saw that the Horse was being controlled by many ropes and it was fully restrained and contained. Its face was masked like a Dragon, and it had the wings of a Vulture.

I knew by Revelation that its face — which was masked in the Spirit like a dragon — spoke to a concealing of its true nature, and that it carried the wings of a Vulture, which spoke of the Spirit of death, decay and collapse! I saw the Horse's nostrils were flaring, and it looked restless and raring to be loosed upon The Nations. As I saw that, some of The Nations that held it captive were beginning to lose their grip, while other Nations were eager to let it loose!

I submit prophetically, a coming Season when restraint is going to be violently contested, and the enemy will seek to accelerate the times and seasons through deception, chaos and manufactured conflict! There will be a push toward even greater disorder and New Global Crisis and Wars.

I saw Signals being released, and 'sleeping' Terror Cells across Nations suddenly being activated. I saw there was a strategic coordination of and by hidden Terror Groups suddenly forming, that gave birth to great destruction.
Their agenda was to overthrow governments and to inflict fear and terror in the hearts of many.

This Vision felt urgent, and we need to be praying for God to send forth a greater Manifestation of the Restrainer of His Seven Spirits through His Rising Remnant.
We must Pray that the Spirit of Discernment increases among The Remnant, and that the Spirit of The LORD, His Spirit of Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Might, Knowledge, and The Fear of The LORD, begins to manifest in greater ways in the coming days, in order that God's Will for Great Harvest and Revival is not delayed!
Listen! Again, I'm emphasizing that Satan is ramping up his Global Agenda and will seek to accelerate the Times and Seasons of God in the days ahead.

The Enemy will seek every opportunity to unleash greater chaos and new Wars for greater death and destruction in 2026!

FROM A THICK FOG INTO THE PROMISES OF GOD

KATHI PELTON

A number of years ago, I remember waking up and seeing a thick, white fog outside my bedroom window. Though this was not unusual, on that particular morning, the thick fog suddenly transformed into what looked like a blank white canvas before my eyes.

Then I heard the Lord whisper to me, "Fill the blank canvas with the dreams and the promises that I've placed in your heart and spoken over your life."

That morning I began to speak out my dreams and recall His promises over my life. As I did this, my words became like paint that brought color to the white canvas. It was like breathing new life upon the dreams that lived deep in my heart.

A NEW BLANK CANVAS

Yet lately, those dreams that I was able to recall and breathe life upon so easily a number of years ago have felt lost in the fog of the natural and spiritual climate that we are living in right now. I realize now that somewhere along the way, I lost the dreams that painted that canvas. I know I have to stop and allow the Lord to give me a new blank canvas, give me new paint and new brushes, too.

I have a feeling that God is about to reveal the true dreams that have been pushed down through allowing myself to live under a false pressure that I believed was what the Lord wanted me to do, rather than living in His peace that births the dreams which align my heart with who He created me to be.

I have a strong sense that I am not the only one coming to this realization.

To fully embrace this new reality, or realization, we have to be willing to stop and wait with the One who created us. We must take the time needed to allow His love to sift out the things that have left us lifeless, lonely, and feeling void. We are invited to come before Him and allow Him to usher us out of the thick fog of systems, wrong thinking, and captivity. We can come as a blank canvas and ask Him to resurrect His truth, His beauty, and who He truly created us to be (and to express).

I don't blame anyone else for what I am experiencing, because I have also been a part of it all. I have allowed myself to be taken captive by false expectations and pressures. I am responsible for my choices, and beyond that, the only other one to blame is the enemy who seeks to kill, steal, and destroy.

But God is merciful and full of grace, and He is setting captives free. We are in a time of deliverance.

IT'S TIME TO CHANGE THE WATER

I have a deep sense of God calling many of us out of the captivity of systems and into a place where we become fruitful, joyful, and go from black and white to vibrant color. This is where God's dreams for us and mankind are birthed.

I am not saying that we should throw the baby out with the bath water, but when you realize that you've been sitting in murky and clouded water that is full of the dirt from yesterday's journey, then it is time to change the water.

We have to remember that in the transition and reformation of many things, the Lord has not changed! His beauty, His majesty, and His sovereignty remains unchanged. But some of us have gotten lost along the way (even if just in our own minds and false perceptions), and He is calling us to come and find our way back home to His heart and to the abundant life He has promised.

THE DREAM PSALM

This is the first dream (psalm) that the Lord has put upon my blank canvas. It is my hope, and I pray that it gives you hope and revives your dreams.

"It was like a dream come true when You freed us from our bondage and brought us back to Zion! We laughed and laughed and overflowed with gladness. We were left shouting for joy and singing Your praise. All the nations saw it and joined in, saying, 'The Lord has done great miracles for them!' Yes, He did mighty miracles and we are overjoyed! Now, Lord, do it again! Restore us to our former glory! May streams of Your refreshing flow over us until our dry hearts are drenched again. Those who sow their tears as seeds will reap a harvest with joyful shouts of glee. They may weep as they go out carrying their seed to sow, but they will return with joyful laughter and shouting with gladness as they bring back armloads of blessing and a harvest overflowing!" (Psalm 126:1–6 TPT)

Bobby Haaby: Worship in Spirit - Moving Beyond Performance to True Connection

What if everything you thought about worship was only scratching the surface? What if the songs, the music, the Sunday gatherings were just the beginning of something far deeper—a lifestyle that transforms every moment of your day?

The truth is, worship extends far beyond what happens in a sanctuary. It's not confined to a specific style of music, a particular posture, or even a designated time. Worship, in its truest form, is about living from the deepest part of who you are—your spirit—and connecting with God who is spirit.

The Soul Versus Spirit Dilemma

We are triune beings: spirit, soul, and body. Understanding this isn't just theological trivia; it's the key to unlocking authentic worship.

Your spirit is who you truly are. Your soul consists of your mind, will, and emotions. Your body is the physical house you live in. Many people spend their entire lives worshiping from their soul, never tapping into the deeper realm of spirit-led worship.

What does soul-led worship look like? It's when you're reaching for a God who feels far away. It's being afraid of what others think. It's allowing the distractions of your week to dominate your thoughts. It's saying, "This song does nothing for me," or "I'll worship when I feel like it." Soul-driven worship rises and falls with circumstances, preferences, and emotions.

Spirit-led worship is entirely different. It's surrender. It's pure vulnerability. It's making a conscious choice before you even walk through the door that it's all about Yeshua and nothing else. It's staying at the foot of the cross with no thought of leaving. It's connecting heart to heart with the Father, regardless of what's happening in your life.

The Identity Foundation

John 4:24 makes it clear: "God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth" (CSB).

Notice the word "must." This isn't optional or a suggestion for the super spiritual. It's the pathway to genuine connection with the Father.

The most powerful revelation is this: In your born-again spirit, you are one with God. First Corinthians 6:17 declares, "He who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him" (NKJV). The word "joined" means glued together, fused, inseparable. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

Think about that. There's no distance between you and God in the spirit realm. You're not trying to reach Him—you're already connected. You can see from His perspective, feel what He feels, and receive information straight from Heaven. When you understand this, worship becomes less about performance and more about communion. It's not about getting God to show up; it's about recognizing He's already here, already within you, already listening.

The Power of Honest Worship

Here's something liberating: God loves your honesty. Of the 150 psalms in the Bible, forty-eight of them are complaints. One-third of the psalms are David being brutally honest about his struggles, his questions, his frustrations.

God calls that worship.

Why? Because you can't have true worship without honesty. God isn't intimidated by your questions or your struggles. He's not looking for polished performances. He wants the real you—the best parts and the worst parts.

In the Old Testament, God wanted both the entrails and the "entrails" (the best and worst parts) to remain in the sacrifice. He wanted everything consumed. He wants your junk. He wants your mess. He wants your questions and your doubts alongside your victories and your praise.

Worship with the worst of who you are, not just the best. That's when breakthrough happens.

Moving God's Heart

Here's a stunning truth: Your worship moves God's heart. The God who has everything and needs nothing has made Himself vulnerable to be ministered to by you. He reserves a spot in His heart that only you can fill. You have authority to move the heart of the King.

In Revelation 4 and 5, as saints and angels worship around the throne, God responds with thunderings and lightnings. Scholars suggest this represents God making Himself emotionally vulnerable, letting His people see what their worship does to Him.

You're not worshiping to get Him to come down and bless you. You're worshiping because He's already here, already listening, already moved by your devotion.

Like Song of Solomon 8:1, where the bride says that if she saw her groom in public, she would kiss him and not be ashamed, our worship should be intentional and unashamed. We should enter His gates with thanksgiving, eager to give Him the praise that only we can give. (Photo via Max Pixel)

Living from Your Spirit

Learning to live from your spirit rather than your soul is a lifestyle, not a one-time decision. Your feelings are not in charge, truth is. When you feel disconnected from God, that's the moment to declare, "This is not true. There is no wedge, no distance between You and me." Speak directly to the lie, and watch your authority level shift.

The flesh and the Spirit are at enmity with one another; they go in opposite directions. So if you don't feel like worshiping, you know what the Spirit wants—to worship. If you think it's too loud, the Spirit says it's not loud enough. If you don't want to be somewhere, that's exactly where you need to be. Your spirit already knows how to worship. Your job is to tell your soul to follow.

The Call to Authentic Community

We're living in a time when celebrity Christianity is crumbling. People are exiting churches focused on man and running to churches focused on Yeshua. No one is above serving at the local level. No one is too important to get in church, to be accountable, to serve with humility.

God is building His church out of genuine family—people who worship side by side, regardless of status, position, or affluence. Imagine the level of worship that will erupt when we get our eyes off man and onto Yeshua.

Your Invitation

Today is your invitation to go deeper to worship not just with your voice but with your life; to connect spirit to Spirit with the Father who adores you; to be honest, vulnerable, and real in His presence.

Whether you're in your car, at work, or in a corporate gathering, you have access to the throne room. You have the authority to move God's heart. You have the privilege of calling Him Abba, Father. Don't rob yourself of this gift. Don't settle for shallow, soul-driven worship when spirit-led intimacy is available.

Make the conscious choice: It's all about Yeshua and nothing else. Stay at the foot of the cross with no thought of leaving. Worship in spirit and in truth, and watch how everything changes.

Little-known Historical Anecdotes, and Spiritual Insights from the Heart of God

"In our day, with an increasing frequency of volcanic eruptions and devastating earthquakes, and wars and a possible nuclear WW III on the horizon, many individuals are in a state of absolute panic about the future. Add to this the fear of worldwide pandemics, famine, riots in the streets, economic chaos and pending financial and governmental collapse, and many individuals are beyond terrified. It would appear that everything that can be shaken presently is or soon will be shaken.

"The foundations of security for many will surely crumble in the immediate future; those who have trusted in them and not in the Lord will be desperate for escape. Yet the Lord is calling us, His Ekklesia, to be as the sons of Issachar, understanding the times and seasons and exercising great biblical discernment in every area of life. There is great hope for the future when we view life from God's perspective; when we see how He has intervened in days past and project that into our future. When the stars begin to fall will be the worst of times or the best of times depending on one's perspective and where we place our trust and confidence. Look up, get excited, and expect great things in the days ahead. Purpose to flow in God's plan, and all will unfold in awe and wonder. The best is yet to come!"

In His right hand was a tall gold scepter-Yeshua walked int the world and through the earthly and worldly systems and structures, as if they didn't exist.
