

Chris
Oberg

Chris Oberg serves at La Sierra University Church as the Lead Pastor. Doing life with a church between two campuses on the corner in a community is where life gets real. Chris values the opportunity to cultivate safe space to open scripture, voice questions, hear the Spirit, embrace the other and learn to dream God's dreams. Chris is a double-alumnus of La Sierra University H.M.S. Richards Divinity School. Along the way, Chris enjoys most spending time with her young adult daughters, Amanda and Alisa, and spouse, Kirby. Travel, foodie-foods, books and beach are among favorite things.
