Anstead's Tobacco Company named CFW "Donation Center of the Year" for 2024

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ocala, FL – Operation: Cigars For Warriors Is proud to announce that Anstead's Tobacco Company has been named "Donation Center of the year" for 2024. Anstead's supports CFW through an annual event known as the 'Big Red Barn' during which they routinely raise thousands of dollars to support the charity - over $11K in 2023 and $15,000 in 2024.

Storm Boen, Chairman and CEO of Operation: Cigars for Warriors said:
"We've had the pleasure of working with Anstead's for many years now and their track record of support in fundraising for CFW has been nothing short of outstanding. We're very pleased to honor them as the Donation Center of the Year and are truly grateful for their support."

Operation: Cigars for Warriors is a registered 501(c)3 charity operating nationwide whose mission is to provide premium cigars and cigar accessories to US troops serving in active combat zones. Since 2012, over 1.5 million cigars have been donated to US servicemen and women, in addition to coffee, magazines, cigar lighters and cutters.

Anstead's Tobacco has been operating since 1975 in North Carolina. For over 47 years they have provided an exceptional cigar and pipe experience and continue their goal of maintaining their status as Fayetteville's premier cigar lounge and tobacconist.
