What does a Gift Card Buy?

Gift Card Type	What it Provides
Superstore: Meijer, Walmart, Target	Gives youth options! Young people can get clothes, food, toiletries, and move-in items for independent living.
Grocery Store: Kroger, Aldi, Fresh Thyme	Provides youth with the ability to make healthy food choices. It also gives youth the opportunity to contribute to the homes of people and families that may have opened the door to them when no one else would.
Fast Food: Taco Bell, Subway, McDonald's, Burger King	Fast food places are quick, affordable and easily accessible to most young people. Youth who are often bouncing between places and don't have access to stoves, refrigerators or microwaves to prepare meals.
Delivery: Domino's, Jimmy Johns, Pizza Hut	By giving people the option for delivery, we are always giving them a way to get food! Many of the youth we work with don't have access to a car, and buses are only available in certain areas and not all the time.
Restaurants: Applebee's, Chili's, Red Robin	Provides the opportunity for a sit-down dinner with friends or family when a dining room table is not an option.
Clothing Store: TJ Maxx, Marshalls, Kohl's, JCPenney	Allows youth to dress according to their own style. Often thrift stores have a limited selections of styles and sizes, so a gift card to a clothing store can help meet specific clothing needs, including work clothes and shoes.
Specialty Store: Starbucks, Footlocker, Barnes and Nobles	Gives youth access to spaces that are often outside their reach. We work with youth who just want to feel like a kid sometimes, and providing them the opportunity to treat themselves is an excellent way to say congratulations!
General Gift Card: Visa or MasterCard Gift card	Can provide anything! A general gift card empowers young people. It gives them the opportunity to support local businesses, or go get a specific item they need.
