Senate Leadership Commends Speaker Vos as he Announces Retirement

Madison, WI – Today, Assembly Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester) announced he will not seek reelection. The longest serving speaker in Wisconsin’s history, he represented southeastern Wisconsin for over twenty years. Senate President Mary Felzkowski (R-Tomahawk) and Senate Majority Leader Devin LeMahieu (R-Oostburg) issued the following statement:

Speaker Vos’ legacy is unmatched and his mark on the state is permanent.

He led Wisconsin through the most important fiscal turnaround in the state’s history, going from financial chaos to a multi-billion-dollar surplus while bringing taxes to historic lows. Regardless of politics, every Wisconsinite should be appreciative of his dedication to serving the state.

We thank Speaker Vos for his dedication to public service, wish him good health and relaxation in retirement, and look forward to continuing to work closely with the next Speaker of the Assembly.

I wish him the absolute best in retirement and look forward to our first conversation as ____.

Thank for service.

Navigate Wi through tough times, lowered taxes

Looking forward to working with next person

Robin came in with a $3 billion structural defici, “most important fiscal turnaround for the state of Wisconsin.” As speaker and co-chair, turned it into billions of dollars in rainy day fund.
