Judge Maria Lazar Announced Bid for Open Seat on Wisconsin Supreme Court

Launch video highlights restoring justice and impartiality to the court

(Waukesha, WI) Today, District II, Court of Appeals Judge Maria Lazar announced her campaign for the open seat on the Supreme Court of Wisconsin previously held by Justice Rebecca Bradley.

The campaign released the video linked below to showcase Judge Lazar's intent to return integrity to the Supreme Court and counter the hundreds of millions of dollars spent to push a partisan narrative in these nonpartisan races.

"We need to draw a line in the sand and stop the destruction of our courts, especially our State Supreme Court," said District II, Court of Appeals Judge Maria Lazar. "I am an independent, impartial judge who strives to follow the law and Constitution in every decision I make from the bench. It is time to restore that level of judicial dedication to the Court."

Judge Lazar will be spending the coming months of the campaign directly engaging with voters to garner support for her common sense approach to interpreting the Constitution and providing thoughtful decisions based on the rule of law.

Judge Maria Lazar has been a member of Wisconsin Court of Appeals since 2022. She was first elected to the Waukesha County Circuit Court in 2015 and maintained her seat on that court for seven years. Before her time on the bench she spent 5 years as an Assistant Attorney General at the Wisconsin Department of Justice, as well as more than 20 years as an attorney in private practice.

Judge Lazar and her husband, Tom, live in Waukesha County and have two adult children, their son, a talented computer programmer, and their daughter, who is pursuing a Ph.D. in biomedical engineering.
