

Dessert & Dialogue Community Conversations

DeKalb – Understanding our shared history starts with open conversation — and sometimes, a little dessert. The DeKalb County History Center and Ellwood House Museum are hosting Dessert & Dialogue on Thursday, February 19 at 6:30 p.m.

“Dessert and Dialogue” is an evening of community-building, discussion, and racial healing. A continuation of the Arts in Action program, this month’s event will give DeKalb County residents the opportunity to connect with neighbors in a welcoming environment and develop a deeper understanding of our shared history.

This event takes place from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. on February 19 at the Ellwood House Museum Visitor Center, 420 Linden Place in DeKalb.

While the event is free, it is recommended to register ahead of time on the DeKalb County History Center’s website, dekalbcountyhistory.org. For more information call (815) 895-5762.

Arts in Action is made possible through a grant from Healing Illinois. Healing Illinois is funded by the Illinois Department of Human Services in partnership with The Field Foundation of Illinois.
