Dear Confirmands, Parents, Friends, and Family,

On behalf of our confirmation students, confirmation leaders, and staff, I want to welcome you to the celebration of this faith milestone. These students have dedicated their time to learning about the faith, growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus. Each of them has examined their personal faith journey and has prepared to testify to the goodness and grace of God through Jesus Christ in their life. As they share their faith stories this weekend, I am reminded that each of their stories has many chapters left to be written. My hope is that as we gather in support of these young people, they will be filled by the power of the Holy Spirit. I pray they will experience feelings of love, gratitude, and conviction. I encourage you to take some time and pray for each one of the students and their families individually. Pray that they may be continually sustained by God's Word and by the people of God that He has placed in their lives. May Prince of Peace always be a place these students can continue to grow in their faith and love for Jesus Christ.

“But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect...”

1 Peter 3:15

God bless each of you as you make this public proclamation of your faith.

Peace in Christ,

DCE Alex Lillis

Ephesians 2:8-10 (NIV)

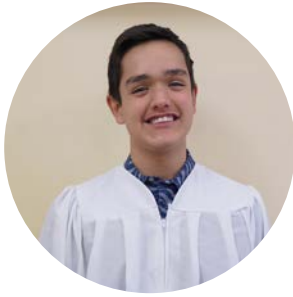

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7 (NLT)

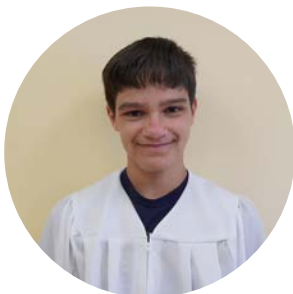

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.
