

How to talk to your children in uncertain times

Friday, March 24, 2017
8:45am

Location: Yavneh Library
Speaker: Shiry Zamir

How do we know how to talk with our kids about troubling current events? How do we tell them about potential dangers without creating fear? How much detail do we share with them? Join us for a talk with a local expert and school counselor and learn strategies for talking with your children.

Shiry Zamir is the Director of Learning Support and School Counselor at Gideon Hausner Jewish Day School. She received her B.A. in Sociology and B.Ed. in secondary school teaching from Haifa University. In addition, she holds a Masters degree in School Counseling from San Jose State University.
