Advanced Rf Master Class prerequisite

- Create account (or login) to Shure's Learning Management System (TLMS)
<https://shureucanz-shure.talentlms.com/>
- To join the RF Certification, click on “Join Group” on the right hand side of the screen
- When prompted enter the Group Key “RFCertification”
- The three courses for the certification will appear on your course list.
- You can now take the Master Class and the WWB courses online
- In case you have attended one of our Master Classes, you have the option to skip the course and go direct to the Final test.
- Please make sure you download the pdf version of the course material to help you with the test. It can be found at the bottom of the course description page.
