

LEARNING IN RETIREMENT - ILR

ILR: SADDLEBROOKE'S "CROWN JEWEL" FOR ADULT EDUCATION

The Institute for Learning in Retirement (ILR) is celebrating its 20th year of providing SaddleBrooke residents with exceptional education courses in a wide spectrum of disciplines. ILR instructors are all SaddleBrooke residents and are willing to share their expertise with our community. The 2025 fall-terms will have courses on literature, religion, physics, comedy, India, roaring 20's, vaccines and world security issues. Watch for the specifics and dates of the courses in our local newspapers in August/September. Courses are open to all SaddleBrooke residents who are members of the ILR. For more information on joining the ILR, course details, and teaching a course go to the ILR website: sbilr.org.
