

SENIOR VILLAGE

SENIOR VILLAGE

Neighbors Helping Neighbors in SaddleBrooke

SENIOR VILLAGE HOSTS

A NOVEL IDEA BOOK CLUB

Members of A Novel Idea Book Club enjoy books spanning a wide variety of genres, including literary fiction, historical novels, women's fiction, classics, science fiction, biographies and other non-fiction, and more. The group meets on the third Thursday of each month from 1-3 pm. As the club has reached full capacity, new members are not currently being accepted. For more information, email Mary Toth at mary.toth@seniorvillage.org.

What Friday Fun With Friends

Who Senior Village members

When Fourth Friday of every month from 1-2:30 pm

Where Senior Village office
16460 N. Oracle Rd.

RSVP Call (520) 314-1042, press 11.

Looking for a way to support your SaddleBrooke neighbors? Join Senior Village's 400 volunteers who live the motto "neighbors helping neighbors." We promote independence and well-being among our 2,000 members through various programs and services. Immediate volunteer opportunities are available in the areas of data entry, dispatch, event coordination, forms/documents, drivers, home technology, photographers, SaddleBag Notes newspaper delivery coordination and writers. Ideal volunteers have computer skills, regular availability, and empathy for older adults. To begin the application process, visit www.seniorvillage.org/volunteer. For more info, contact Volunteer Coordinator Mary Toth at mary.toth@seniorvillage.org or (520) 314-1042, press 4.

The Page Turners Book Club is a new book club recently launched by Senior Village volunteers!

Created for passionate readers yearning for captivating tales and lively exchanges, this club takes members on a literary journey through popular bestsellers. Join us on the third Thursday each month, from 1-3 pm, and dive into gripping sagas of all kinds. Don't miss out on the chance to join this book club!

Email pageturnersbookclub@icloud.com for more information.

SENIOR VILLAGE HOSTS
THE PAGE TURNERS
BOOK CLUB

At Senior Village, we believe in enhancing your quality of life through simple acts of kindness and support. Our team of trained and vetted volunteers is here to lend a helping hand when family, friends or neighbors aren't available. Whether you need assistance with an everyday task like replacing lightbulbs, a ride to an appointment, help deciphering a long-term care policy or crave companionship, Senior

Senior Village is here to help you live independently by providing much-needed services! Become a member today and enjoy peace of mind knowing that help and support are always just a call away. Together, we can make life a little better.

WAYS THAT WE CAN ASSIST

- A helping hand with many types of household tasks
- A ride to an appointment or errand
- Troubleshooting home technology like a smartphone or printer
- A friendly visit or phone call
- Organizing and completing important documents
- Social opportunities, including Men's Social Hour, Book Club, monthly birthday socials
- Guidance when needing to transition to a higher level care
- So much more

www.seniorvillage.org

Special Deliveries!

If the volunteers delivering Saddlebag Notes look like your neighbors, you're not imagining things. Despite busy schedules, more than 100 dedicated volunteers trek across SaddleBrooke on the fourth Thursday of each month to deliver Saddlebag Notes on behalf of Senior Village.

Be sure to wave hello next time you see them hard at work!

SENIOR VILLAGE

invites you to

FRIDAY FUN WITH FRIENDS

Fourth Friday of the Month, 1-3 pm

Senior Village Office in Catalina

SENIOR VILLAGE PRESENTS A MUSIC MATINEE

SEAN
LEWIS
*Classic Rock
Guitarist and Vocalist*

FEBRUARY 26, 2026, 2 pm
DESERTVIEW PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

www.seniorvillage.org

Sean's a solo guitarist/vocalist now closing in on 700 performances in Washington and Arizona. He and his wife Katy are four-year Saddlebrooke residents, and he's a regular performer at area venues including Fork & Fire, The Hoppy Vine, Catalina Craft Pizza, The Landing, The Views at Sun City, Fini's Landing, the Windmill Winery in Florence and more, playing music that spans decades. Join us at the Desert View Theatre as Sean plays popular selections from the 50s, 60s and 70s — including Elvis, The Beatles, Burt Bacharach and Everly Brothers to the Eagles, Neil Young, James Taylor, George Strait and much more. You'll also hear a few selections from his 14-song, all-original 2023 album, Time Will Tell, available through all the usual streaming platforms as well as in CD form at the show. Learn more at www.seanlewismusic.com.