

THREE

new RCTA Board members – Sally Bason, Aisha Gwynn , and Jeff Parris.

SEVEN

summer camp programs were part of our summer NJTL network connecting tennis and education with support from USTA Foundation and Southern Tennis Foundation

SEVEN Net Generation Community Kits

arrived at RCS elementary and after school programs filled with youth rackets, balls and the new Net Generation Community curriculum. EIGHT tennis courts were resurfaced in Reidsville and Eden. TWELVE new scorecards on courts at RCC and Jaycee Park. The scorecards at RCC were purchased using a NC Tennis Foundation High School grant awarded to Rockingham County High School. FOURTEEN student interns participated in our Summer NJTL network with 250 summer day camp players at Eden and Reidsville YMCA, Bridge

Street Recreation Center and Boys and Girls Club of Eden,

Community Baptist Schools, Salvation Army and Parkview Village

Summer Enrichment Camp. FIFTEEN players from Parkview Village participated in NJTL Day at the Winston-Salem Open and accepted a $2000 donation to RC Tennis from US Open Series. SIXTEEN adults gave tennis a try in TRY TENNIS clinics at WR YMCA in Mayodan and RCC in Wentworth.

SEVENTEEN junior USTA members played in our fourth year of

USTA Junior Team Tennis at Jaycee Park in Reidsville which included

one USTA Level 6 tournament. TWENTY-FIVE Morehead High School students played tennis in PE class. TWENTY-SIX children age 8-15 played in three weeks

Eaglemania summer tennis camp at Rockingham Community College.

FORTY-FIVE RCS high school players played in the Boys and Girls

All-County tournaments held at Jaycee Park in Reidsville

SIXTY-FIVE middle and High School players attended free tennis clinics at WR YMCA indoor tennis courts and Eden YMCA with

Coach Bitrus Istifanus sponsored by Xerox Foundation. RCTA sponsored ONE HUNDRED

SIXTY tennis events including Play Days, Community Festivals, Summer Camps, Junior

Team Tennis and summer NJTL clinics and after school Kids Tennis Clubs. TWO HUNDRED AND TEN youth, age 6-12 attended after school Kids Tennis Clubs in partnership with PE teachers at RCS and after school programs supported by a Net Generation Pathway grant. THREE HUNDRED and TWENTY FIVE students at Williamsburg

Elementary, JE Holmes Middle School, and Morehead High School played tennis PE

classes. ONE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED FIFTY unique youth participants. FOUR THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED total participation in 2018 RC Tennis events. .

Rockingham County Tennis Association

Happy Holidays from

Rockingham County Tennis Association

www.Facebook.com/RCyouthtennis www.rockingham.usta.com